LOYD GEORGIANS MAKE PLANS TO HOLD PARLIAMENT POWER BALANCE

Expect Election of at Least 125 of Their Candidates. Unless Conservatives Stir Anger, Will Withhold 150 Entries. Conservatives Exhibiting Tremendous Campaign Activity.

By HAL O'LEAHERTY. (Special Cable to The Duluth Herald and Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1922.) London, Nov. 1.—Lloyd George's threat to bring up 150 Coalition Liberal candidates in reprisal for the Conservatives' attacks on his followers did not materialize today, pointing clearly to the six-prime ministers' belief that he now has sufficient strength to insure him all the support he needs in the new parliament. Talking with his followers at the National Liberal headquarters, the prime minister's general air of satisfaction with the trend of events. The Lloyd Georgians are now satisfied that their bloc in the next parliament will be able to offer a deadly threat to the Bonar Law Government. There are now more than 125 of their candidates returned, but they estimate that this number will not be capable of holding the balance of power between the Tory and Liberal right and the Labor left on many major questions vital to warrant their breaking the government.

Unless the Conservatives further intensify Lloyd George's anger by obstructive methods, he will probably withhold 150 names. His chief opponents report satisfactory progress where their candidates are contesting. In Scotland, the Conservatives are working to break the great field of the Lloyd George hopes.

On the Conservative side tremendous activity is under way, with tens of thousands of leaflets being distributed, and in all constituencies speakers and canvassers are knocking in Scotland in a systematic manner. The Conservatives lay special stress upon the women's franchise, in the election of 1922, was rather weak owing to their being newly enfranchised. Women in the mass, they said, were fleeing from industrial disputes and regular employment for the men folk above all else. The Conservatives intend to win the women's franchise by attacking the industrial disputes and regular employment for the men folk above all else.

MISSING GIRL IS FOUND IN WOODS. Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 1.—Rosalee Shanti, 11, kidnaped Sunday as she came from church, was found in the woods near Dublin, Michigan county, late last night, according to a telegram received in Scotland by the chief of police at Wellston, Mich. According to the police the message indicated that the girl had been abandoned by her abductor and had wandered about in the woods until she reached a farm house, where she was given shelter.

BELEIVED GIBSON STORY DEMANDS MOTT CONTINUES EFFORT TO IDENTIFY MAN BELIEVED MURDERER. New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 1.—Maintaining that he felt confident that the eye-witness story told by Mrs. Gibson, farmer, told the authorities, it was learned today that a few moments before the fatal shooting the head one of the women under the crumpled tree exclaimed indignantly: "Then explain these facts!"

STATE INVESTIGATING GIRLS' HOME FIRE. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—Members of the state board of control are today investigating the fire which yesterday destroyed an expensive girls' school, entailing a loss of approximately $20,000.

FASCIST LEADER WILL ROLE ITALY WITH IRON HAND

Determined to Restore Nation to Place in World Affairs. COMMUNISM ECLIPSED Records and Rosters Seized, Burned by Nationalists.

(By the Associated Press.) Rome, Nov. 1.—Italy will be on the road back to normalcy today after a most exhilarating week that saw the younger generation rise to power and in a great triumph overthrow the older politicians. Tens of thousands of the vigorous young Fascists and their enthusiastic admirers, who accompanied them here from all over the land, were on the way back to their homes today. Yesterday there was the thrill of a real Roman triumph in which a million people made the streets ring with applause for king and country. Dr. Benito Mussolini and his new Fascist ministry had taken their oath before the sovereign as soon as the formal ceremony had ended the black-shirted boys and men who brought about the rise of Mussolini, marched as victors through the ancient streets of the city, crowded with a vast concourse of cheering the day doubled the population of Rome.

SHIPSTEAD EVADES LIQUOR QUESTION Refuses to Commit Himself on Vote for Beer Amendment. Morris, Minn., Nov. 1.—Dr. Henrik Shipstead, Farmer-Labor candidate for the United States House of Representatives, stepped the liquor issue last night at his meeting here. Asked at the close of his address whether he would vote for a beer amendment to the Volstead law, he hesitated, appeared for time and finally refused to answer the question.

WAR BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH CHINA LIKELY TO CONTINUE BY JUNIUS B. WOOD. (Special Cable to The Duluth Herald and Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1922.) Canton, China, Nov. 1.—The war between North and South China will continue unless the government at Peking permits amendment of a new Constitution for all China. The declaration made here today by Chen Chiung-ming, premier of the South China government, is a declaration of independence for the Kwangtung province, in the first interview granted by him since his forces have taken the city of Canton. The Peking government illegally dissolved parliament six years ago, and since then the South China government has been in an effort to secure a constitutional government.

POSTAL SAVINGS DROP DUE TO STRIKE AND INTEREST CONDITIONS. Washington, Nov. 1.—Postal savings deposits continue to shrink, but the decrease during the quarter ended Sept. 30 was smaller than in any three months' period since March, 1919, when deposits reached the peak. Assistant Postmaster General Glover declared today in a statement, which set erroneous unofficial reports as to the postal savings decline had been published. Deposits in March, 1922, reached the unprecedented figure of $175,335,524, declining gradually since to $135,425,000 on Sept. 30.

ANOTHER SENTENCED AS MARSHAL'S SLAYER. Long Prairie, Minn., Nov. 1.—Benny McGee, found guilty of murder in the third degree in connection with the death of Fred Williams, marshal of this place, was sentenced today to seven to thirty years in state prison today. The case was given to the jury yesterday and the verdict was read this morning.

SUPPORTERS OF SENATOR LODGE EASY OVER POLITICAL SITUATION

Some Worry About the Women's Vote in the Bay State. Many Republicans Nettled by Lodge's Vote to Override Bonus Veto. Looks on Surface, However, as if Senator Will Win.

By DAVID LAWRENCE. (By Special Leased Wire to The Duluth Herald. Copyright, 1922.) Boston, Mass., Nov. 1.—From coast to coast the writer has encountered a feeling of uneasiness and nervousness about the political situation in Massachusetts this year? Up to a few days ago the answer would have been: "Certain re-election." Nervousness has developed in the Republican camp. Some of the men are shaking their heads and worrying about the women vote. Many Republicans are nettled by Lodge's vote to override the bonus veto. Looks on surface, however, as if Senator will win.

SLATTERY IS MADE BISHOP COADJUTOR Former Dean at Faribault Is Consecrated in Massachusetts Position. Boston, Mass., Nov. 1.—East and West were represented yesterday at the consecration of the new bishop coadjutor of Massachusetts, the Rev. Charles Lewis Slattery, D. D. In the long and brilliant procession of notables of the Episcopal church, which moved out of the chapel of historic Trinity church, where Phillips Brooks served his Boston ministry, and along Copsey square, were officials of the Church of England, representatives of various dioceses of this country and the Episcopate of Massachusetts.

HALLOWEEN KEEPS CHICAGO ON JUMP; MANY FIRES, RIOTS. Chicago, Nov. 1.—Police and firemen kept busy all night as the dawn of a new day and quitting time this morning following one of the most riotous and fire-ridden Halloweens in Chicago's history. While the fire department answered 115 calls during the night, the police kept busy all night as the dawn of a new day and quitting time this morning following one of the most riotous and fire-ridden Halloweens in Chicago's history.

LLOYD GEORGE IS INDISPOSED; CANCELS SPEECH AT BRISTOL. London, Nov. 1.—Mr. Lloyd George has cancelled his speech at Bristol, according to the advice of his physician, Lord Dawson, who has abandoned his engagement to speak at Bristol tomorrow. Lord Dawson said today that a few days' rest were absolutely necessary for the former premier, who, he understood, however, that his indisposition is not serious.

ARCTIC WARMING UP; ICEBERGS SCARCER. Washington, Nov. 1.—The Arctic ocean is warming up, icebergs are growing scarcer and in some places the sea is finding the waters too hot, according to a report to the commerce department today from Central Ice at Bergen, Norway. Reports from fishermen, seal hunters and explorers, he declared, all point to a radical change in climatic conditions and hitherto unheard-of temperatures in the Arctic zone, exploration expeditions reporting that scarcely any ice has been met with as far north as 81 degrees, 23 minutes. Soundings to a depth of 3,100 meters showed the gulf stream still very warm.

POLITICS IN NORTH DAKOTA MIXED UP. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 1.—A situation showing an scrambled condition of politics in North Dakota was made public here today. A congressman of North Dakota both seeking re-election and having taken a stand for election of a Democrat as United States senator, it was announced at the Independent Voters' association headquarters here, an anti-Nonpartisan organization.

EX-PASTOR'S FATE IN JURY'S HANDS. Statesboro, Ga., Nov. 1.—The fate of Ellen Jackson, former minister, who confessed the slaying of his girl-wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Mamie Lou Dixon, now rests with a superior court jury. The verdict was reached during the day. Jackson had been on trial for the alleged murder of Mrs. Dixon for the past two days and closed his defense with a dramatic appeal to the jury, declaring that he was innocent of her murder.

TORNADO SWEEPS MISSOURI CITY; FOUR ARE MISSING, BELIEVED DEAD

Storm Strikes in Two Places Just After Midnight. Thirty Houses Demolished, More Than 100 Made Homeless. Heavy Cloudburst Precedes Windstorm, Flooding Streets.

Webb City, Mo., Nov. 1.—Hundreds of searchers welcomed daylight this morning after five hours spent groping in the darkness in their efforts to find the bodies of four persons who are believed to have lost their lives in the tornado which swept this city just after midnight. One woman, a Mrs. Fred, is among the identified killed, and fifteen other persons were injured, some of them critically, in the storm, which struck in two places in the city. About thirty houses were demolished and more than 100 persons made homeless. Search for the dead and injured last night was hampered by the fact that a cloudburst preceded the wind storm. It is estimated that from three to four inches of rain fell within a few hours before the tornado. The storm struck first in the southern part of the city and passing over the business section, dipped down again in the northwest residential section.

BOOTLEG DEALS TURN $480,000 INTO $15,360,000 IN YEAR. Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 1.—More than $16,000,000 changed hands in a little more than a year in the alleged transfer of 80,000 gallons of alcohol by Louis and Abraham Auerbach and others, it was revealed when Auerbach brothers, Morris, Morris, and Samuel Selker, Morris Cohen and Samuel Selker entered pleas of not guilty to indictments charging them with conspiracy to evade Federal prohibition laws and attorneys for the Auerbach brothers made a vain attempt to have their $6,000 bond reduced.

PROBE OF HAVRE KILLINGS IN MAZE. Havre, Mont., Nov. 1.—Unexplained features of the double killing early Friday of the Rev. Leonard Jacob Christler and Mrs. Margaret Carleton still puzzled authorities here today. When a coroner's jury Saturday returned a verdict to the effect Mrs. Carleton did the shooting while under the influence of an overdose of sleeping powder, the matter appeared closed. But Mrs. Carleton's mother, Mrs. Joseph Pyle of Butte, was not satisfied and started a further investigation.

London, Nov. 1.—David Lloyd George's threat to bring up 150 Conservative Liberal candidates in reprisal for the Conservatives' attacks on his followers did not materialize today, pointing clearly to the ex-prime minister's calm belief that he now has sufficient strength to assure him all the support he needs in the new parliament. Talking with his followers at the National Liberal headquarters, the correspondent found a general air of confidence in the trend of events. The Lloyd George men were satisfied that their bloc in the next parliament will be able to offer a daily threat to the Liberal government. They do not expect to have more than 125 of their candidates returned, but they estimate that this number will be fully expanded by holding the balance of power between the Tories and Liberal right and the Labor left on any measure sufficiently vital to warrant their breaking the government coalition.

Unless the Conservatives further arouse Lloyd George's anger by obstructive methods, he will probably withhold the surplus candidates. The chief reason for this is that the Conservative program where their candidates are continuing especially in Scotland, had being the chief field of the Lloyd George hopes.

Literature by Tom.
On the Conservative side tremendous activity is under way, with tons of literature and posters leaving the printing presses and being distributed in all the principal cities and towns. In the election of 1918, which was rather a disaster for the Conservatives, they were able to win a number of seats in the industrial districts and in the agricultural areas. They are now making a special appeal to the women of the country, who were not so active in the last election. They are also making a special appeal to the working class, who were not so active in the last election. They are also making a special appeal to the middle class, who were not so active in the last election.

(By the Associated Press.)
Rome, Nov. 1.—Italy with the road back to normalcy today after a most exhilarating week that saw the younger generation rise to power and in a great triumph overthrow the older politicians.

Today the flush of triumph gave way to the drab business of toil, individual and national. Dr. Mussolini was on the job early, and he said he was going to see to it that everything else engaged in the business of the nation followed suit. He made it plain that he was going to rule with an iron hand, and that Italy must be restored to a better economic basis and a more powerful place in international affairs.

For the moment, at least, Communism has no part in the life of Italy. The onslaught of the Fascist has rendered all that was paralyzing labor. Carrying their battle into the labor temples and the meeting places of their antagonists, the militant Nationalists have seized the records and rosters and burned them.

Politically the chief topic in Italy today is what the future of the new cabinet will be when it goes before the Chamber of Deputies. It is certain, if Mussolini's government does not receive a majority in the Chamber, that it will be dissolved and then the Fascist will take their case to the country. Mussolini made this clear last Monday when he built a new cabinet at the request of the king.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 1.—From coast to coast the writer has encountered the query: "What will happen to Lodge in Massachusetts this year?" Up to a few days ago the answer would have been: "Certain re-election of almost political strength."

Nervousness has developed in the Republican camp. Some of the managers are being troubled by many of the voters about the women's vote. Others are fearful that empty coal mines will bring a protest vote. Still others keep harking back to the primary vote and wonder why a candidate of almost political strength like Joseph Walker polled almost a third as many votes as Senator Lodge in the last election.

This much may be taken for granted—Channing Cox, the Republican nominee for governor, will run ahead of Senator Lodge in the final election. 1,660,000 BARRELS DAILY OUTPUT OF CRUDE OIL

Petroleum Industry Not Yet Ready for the Poorhouse.

CRUDE OIL PRICE LOW

Drastic Efforts to Curtail Domestic Production Prove Failure.

By J. C. ROYLE.
(By Special Local Wire to The Duluth Herald. Copyright, 1922.)
New York, Nov. 1.—The petroleum industry is not yet ready for the poorhouse in spite of continued low prices for crude oil.

Oil refiners throughout the country are today running practically at capacity. Nearly 1,660,000 barrels of crude oil a day are being run through the stills. These have a theoretical capacity of 1,726,000 barrels daily, but it is always necessary to have some little margin for cleaning so that present operations in reality represent capacity output.

Domestic production has risen steadily throughout October in spite of the immense reserve stocks in storage and in the last week has approached 1,800,000 barrels a day. These figures show conclusively that drastic efforts to curtail domestic production since the first important cut was made in crude oil prices last July have failed so far. Stocks on hand were 76 per cent greater on Oct. 1 than in July and 47 per cent greater than at the first of the year.

Consumption in this country is normally greater than domestic production. Domestic production is made up by imports of Mexican oil. In the last four months imports of Mexican oil have been steadily decreasing and were about 28 per cent less than in the previous four months.

Consumption and production, taking the Mexican imports into consideration, are nearly equal. The oil industry would face no problem were it not for the excess stocks in storage which at present amount to about five and a half months' supply. It is probable that increased production of Mexican oil will increase to such an extent as to gradually reduce the domestic reserve stocks.

Some mid-continent field operators believe that they have deliberately brought in new wells in the hope of gaining some slight advantage before the possible cut in crude oil prices. It is possible that in some fields production will be stepped up to meet the demand for oil. Operators there are making the development of foreign acreage.

Crude oil prices can be still further depressed if necessary, but indications now point to a decline in output, according to reports from oil centers received today. If conditions are not altered large holders of crude oil will be forced to sell at a loss, and losses and some refiners and producers will suffer actual loss.

Gasoline prices are weakening slightly as is natural at the end of the marketing season. Kerosene prices are rising as expected with the approach of winter and the advance in fuel oil prices. The advance in fuel oil prices is due to the fact that the price of the crude oil has advanced. Still further increases are forecast due to the scarcity of the winter wheat in the Northwestern states.

Production of potatoes is estimated at 423,000,000 bushels for the country and demand for stock and prices low. Northwestern railroads are considering a reduction in freight rates to secure any loss has been met with a margin of profit from their potato crops.

Increase in industrial operations throughout the country is indicated by the growing sales of belt-line and power transmission equipment. Leather markets are quiet as both buyers and sellers are in complete disagreement as to price trends.

The government alleges the men withheld alcohol on Federal permits and then sold it to bootleggers.

Federal investigators today pointed out that the 80,000 gallons of grain alcohol alleged to figure in the transaction were purchased at about $6 a gallon. It was sold, the government alleged, to bootleggers for more than $26 a gallon. United States District Attorney J. C. Brettenstein.

Of course, some of the alcohol was used for making toilet preparations, and some was used for medicinal purposes. The government also alleged that the bootleggers had sold the alcohol to bootleggers.

WAR BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH CHINA LIKELY TO CONTINUE

By JUNIUS B. WOOD.

Special Cable to The Duluth Herald and Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1922.

Canton, China, Nov. 1.—Prospect of huge fighting between North and South China will continue unless the government at Peking permits passage of a new Constitution for all China.

The declaration made here today by the Chinese premier, Wang Yatsun, is the latest in a series of statements which have been made by the government at Peking since the outbreak of the present civil war.

Since the republic declared the present parliament elected more than seven years ago, China has had only one national assembly.

The Peking government illegally dissolved parliament six years ago, causing South China to declare war in an effort to secure a constitutional government.

South China, however, is not recognizing the Peking government, and parliament becomes something more than a mere debating society more than a mere debating society.

Since it has reconvened it has no assumed that character.

HALLOWEEN KEEPS CHICAGO ON JUMP; MANY FIRES, RIOTS

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Police and firemen on night shifts were kept busy today in Chicago on the occasion of the dawn of a new day and quieting time this morning following one of the worst Halloweens in Chicago's history.

While the fire department answered 443 calls on night shifts, the night police force was kept busy with the dawn of a new day and quieting time this morning following one of the worst Halloweens in Chicago's history.

Street car traffic was repeatedly interrupted by riotous crowds, and many cars were damaged.

Police estimated that 3,000 had gathered to watch a band of boys and girls in free costumes and their faces blackened, push a blazing wagon through the streets.

PROBE OF HAVRE KILLINGS IN MAZE

Bullet Course and Gun Ownership Figure in Developments.

By the Associated Press.

Havre, Mont., Nov. 1.—Unexplained features of the double killing early Friday of the Rev. Leonard Jacob Christler and Mrs. Margaret Carleton still puzzled authorities here today.

When a coroner's jury Saturday night returned a verdict to the effect that the shooting was the work of Mrs. Carleton under the influence of an overdose of sleeping powder, the mayor appeared closed. But Mrs. Carleton's mother, Mrs. Joseph Pyle of Butte, was not satisfied and started a further investigation.

Within the past twenty-four hours it was shown that the bullet which killed Mrs. Carleton had been fired downward, not upward, as had been testified at the coroner's inquest. It was found in the muscles behind the spinal column.

Ownership of the gun which was used in the killing is another mystery. It was not Mrs. Carleton's as she had no gun, it was found later among her effects. Investigation thus far has failed to disclose that the gun was the property of the Christler family.

Mrs. Pyle also has claimed that diamond rings which Mrs. Carleton was seen wearing Thursday evening had not been found and has suggested that if the rings were taken from Mrs. Carleton after the shooting the revolver might have been placed in the open palm at the same time.

At the request of Mr. Pyle, the home of the Rev. Leonard J. Christler, who was killed at the same time and place with Mrs. Carleton, was opened this afternoon by the owner of the house.

Moscow, Nov. 1.—Soviet Moscow is now assured that Premier Lenin's vigor and power transmission equipment and fine spirits. He spoke publicly yesterday for the first time since his prolonged illness, making an unbridled appearance before the workers' and peasants' parliament. He spoke with vigor and his voice carried clearly throughout the immense throne room in the Kremlin palace.

He remarked that this had given Durango City and captured, it was announced last night at the president's office. Whether he will be taken to Durango City for trial by court-martial or be brought to the capital and publicly executed has not yet been determined. Recently he was described by President Obregon as "no soldier, but a fugitive from justice."

For a long while Gen. Murguia has been credited with brewing a revolution. Two months ago he left his hiding place across the Rio Grande and came back into Mexico at the head of a rebel army said to number 800 men. Three weeks ago Obregon was decisively defeated in a clash with troops under Gen. Escobar at Guacharo in the state of Durango. Murguia never showed popular sympathy except in the northern regions, where, as governor of Chihuahua under Carranza, he cultivated many adherents.

Details of his capture were lacking here today. There were no reports except the announcement made at President Obregon's office.

HALLOWEEN SHORN OF FORMER TERRORS

Little Disorder Reported to Police; Officers Keep Eyes Open.

Halloween of 1922 was shorn of its traditional rowdiness and destruction and only three cases of property molestation were reported today.

Every policeman in the city was on duty until after midnight last night, but the officers had little difficulty in handling the children, and outside of the administering of a few of the most boisterous and troublesome of the patrolmen spent a quiet evening.

Chief, Captain on Duty. Chief Pugh and Capt. A. A. Flackett remained on duty until midnight, but neither was called upon to leave the station.

Some Writing Seen. Of course, the time-worn practice of writing "Billy likes Jennie" and other illegible words on store windows with soap was again taken to the pleasure and is only on instances were the children chastised for doing it.

MONTH JUST PAST DRIEST OCTOBER IN TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS

The monthly summary of weather conditions during October, which wound up its career at midnight, issued by H. W. Richardson, meteorologist, shows that the month was the driest October since 1895.

Despite this dry condition, Mr. Richardson reports that farm and garden work was well in hand, that at the end of the month some pasturage was still available, and stock and roads were in good to excellent condition.

He also reports that short-lived 40 to 50-mile westerly gales occurred on the 11th and 24th, followed by a 30 to 40-mile northeaster from late on the 27th to the forenoon of the 29th.

The mean temperature of 46 deg. was 2 deg. above normal, the highest for the month being 65 deg. on the 2nd, and the lowest 21 on the 18th.

LOSS OF TEMPER COSTS TIDY SUM

John Laden Strikes Child; Police Save Him From Mother's Umbrella.

Halloween pranks ruffled John Laden, 419 East Fourth street, last night and as a result he is out $25 which he posted last night as bail and forfeited this morning.

Laden was arrested by Sergeant David Perry and a charge of disorderly conduct lodged against him after he had struck Mainerd Perino, aged 8 years, for soaping windows. Perino's mother lives at 425 East Fifth street.

But Laden escaped easily at that, because, had it not been for the presence of Sergeant Perry, his eyes might have been gouged out by an angry mother who attacked him with an umbrella.

Laden had been having trouble with children in that neighborhood several times during the week. From his store when they tried to soap his windows. An angry storekeeper and a clean window made the prank just that much more exciting.

Mainerd was on his tiptoes alighting a 4-foot bar of soap across the window when Laden caught him. He struck the child and sent the boy sprawling in the street several feet away.

The mother, who was standing across the street, dashed over to Laden's store and started after him with an umbrella. Laden covered up, but the fight continued.

Sergeant Perry, who had seen the whole affair, stepped in and took Laden to headquarters with him. Laden failed to appear in court this morning and his $25 bail was forfeited.

MILLIONS IN TAXES TURNED INTO COUNTY TREASURY ON TUESDAY

Taxes amounting to millions of dollars were paid into the county treasury yesterday by Duluth and St. Louis county taxpayers. The money represented the second half of the 1921 real estate tax.

The largest individual check received by the treasurer was from the United States Steel corporation which paid $2,145,832. Other large amounts paid were: Mahoning Ore & Steel company, $1,410,131; Pickands-Matheson company, $1,175,829; and Duluth and Iron Range land company, $1,127,323.

Sums from $1 up were paid over the counters at the office yesterday, the last day on which taxes could be paid without penalty.

DULUTH CIVIC CLUB OPPOSED TO HIRING OUTSIDE ARCHITECT

Duluth civic clubs are strongly opposed to the employment of an outside architect by the school board. A resolution protesting against the employment of an outside architect was passed by the board of education was adopted by the Lions' club yesterday and it is understood similar resolutions will be presented at the meeting of the Kiwanis club this afternoon at the Rotary club meeting next afternoon.

Members of the board of directors of the Duluth Builders' exchange yesterday afternoon voted their opposition to an outside architect and voted to conduct a publicity campaign in the Duluth newspapers to acquaint the public with the situation. H. M. Stanton, secretary of the exchange, was directed to conduct the campaign in behalf of the employment of a Duluth architect for local schools.

IDA CUSHNER GETS SUSPENDED SENTENCE; LARKIN SENT TO FARM

Two persons were sentenced by Judge C. B. Magney in district court today. Mason M. Forbes, first assistant county attorney, represented the county.

Ida Cushner, tried and found guilty by the December, 1921, district court jury of running a house of ill-fame on Fifth avenue west and whose motion for a new trial was denied last January, was sentenced to serve not more than seven years in the state penitentiary at Stillwater and pay a fine of $750.

James Larkin, who pleaded guilty in August to a charge of assault in the third degree on Albert H. Hartington at Proctor, was sentenced to serve sixty days at the county work farm.

AMENDMENTS UP TO CHARTER BODY

A large number of delegations, representing virtually every club and every district of the city, is expected to attend the meeting of the charter commission at 8 o'clock tonight in the city council chamber.

One amendment, providing for a change from the present 16-mill limitation on tangible property to a limit of $15 per capita, will be introduced. Another amendment, providing for issuance of bonds or certificates of indebtedness in amounts not to exceed $100,000 in any one year for the permanent improvement fund, will be introduced.

Little opposition has been made to the two propositions and the charter commission is expected to adopt the amendments if the commission adopts the amendments, then a special election will be held. It is planned to hold the special election as soon as possible, probably in December of this year, if the charter commission approves of the amendments.

The change from the 16-mill limitation to the $15 per capita limitation is not a radical change, it is explained. It means merely that the city officials will be allowed to spend

CANDIDATE RETRACTS LIBELOUS STATEMENTS AFTER ALL DAY IN JAIL

Preston, Minn., Nov. 1.—Cush Tibbetts, arrested Monday night at Mahle on a charge of criminal libel, a candidate for sheriff of Pillmore county, was released last night from the county jail at Preston, where he had been incarcerated all day, after repudiating statements made in his campaign literature.

All handbills and other literature connected with Tibbetts' campaign were publicly burned yesterday in the streets of Preston under orders of S. C. Partridge, county attorney.

Tibbetts, according to the county attorney, charged several county officers and the members of the state legislature from this district with malfeasance and nonfeasance in office. The charge of criminal libel against Tibbetts, which had been preferred by Sheriff C. B. Christensen, for whose office Tibbetts is competing, was dismissed last night after the prisoner signed a retraction of all the charges he had made.

November Sale of Silks

Dress Goods : Coatings : Linings

The November Sale of Silks brings many opportunities for thrifty buying of winter's favorite fabric. The new silhouette distinguished by slim lines, cross-wise drapes, and circular godets chooses silk as the medium which interprets these new effects most attractively. Silk designers stimulated by the popularity of this fabric have conceived silks in a richer range of textures, patterns and colors than ever before. The prices listed are of unusual importance in that these low prices are announced in the face of an advancing market. Many of the materials we are showing are beyond replacement at present prices. This very complete stock of seasonable silks offers an opportunity that every woman should profit by.

CANDIDATES FOR IMPROVEMENTS IN RURAL CREDITS PLANS OF FRANCE

Aspirants for Governor Give Indorsement to State Amendment No. 1. New Canals and Tunnels and Other Projects Worked Out.

All three candidates for governor have issued statements indorsing Amendment No. 1, the rural credits amendment to the state Constitution, according to an announcement made yesterday by J. F. Reed, chairman of the farmers' special committee working in behalf of this amendment throughout the state.

Amendment No. 1 is on the special state ballot of the constitutional amendments to come before the voters at the election next Tuesday. No. 1 provides for credit loans by the state to aid the development of agricultural resources and to aid the farmers, and amendment No. 2 provides for the taxation of the mining industry and apportioning the proceeds to the state revenue fund, the permanent school fund and the permanent university fund.

The statements from the three candidates for governor, J. A. O. Frouh, Republican incumbent; Edward Indrejus, Democrat; and Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor, follow:

Governor Frouh's Statement.
"The adoption by the voters of Amendment No. 1, the rural credits amendment to the Constitution, is necessary to complete the program of beneficial farm legislation which the last legislature tried to put into effect. If passed, it will supplement what is in the marketing legislation passed in 1911 and which is now in force.

"The credit system which will be put in effect if the amendment is passed will in no sense be a burden on the taxpayers. Nor will it be solely for the benefit of the farmers. It will furnish to investors, whether in the city or country, a chance to place their money safely and at fair interest rates. To farmers, it will furnish loans at reasonable interest and loans which, with the interest, may be paid off in convenient sums from year to year until the entire debt is canceled. It will be connected with the Federal farm loan system, but will supplement it.

"I cannot see how it will be harmful to any legitimate business interest but it will be helpful to farmers, investors and the state as a whole."

Edward Indrejus.
"Amendment No. 1 is the most vital issue before voters this fall, and I am addressing the importance of the favorable action in all of my speeches. I believe it should be adopted, primarily because it will give the farmer the opportunity of bringing the ownership of our land back to the tiller of the soil. This will be done through a low rate of interest on loans running for a long term of years.

"City voters, as well as those in the country, should support the amendment because it is certain to be helpful to agriculture, the state's basic industry. The plan will be neither conflict with nor hinder the Federal farm loan system, instead, it will strengthen and supplement its work.

"Long-time loan plans have been tried out in foreign countries for more than 100 years, and the idea, therefore, is far beyond the experimental stage.

"Farmers of Minnesota need and should have an institution of this kind—an institution that is founded on the idea of giving services to agriculture rather than making a profit out of it.

"The Democratic platform indorses Amendment No. 1 without equivocation and our state central committee has instructed every speaker not to leave an audience until the necessity for voting 'yes' on the amendment has been explained."

Magnus Johnson.
"Amendment No. 1 is one of the most forward looking pieces of legislation that has been offered Minnesota in many a day. It is hard to realize that this amendment, if passed, will open the door to a constructive, state-directed system of agricultural long-time credit that will lift farming out of the grip of bank loans and mortgage company obligations.

"The amendment alone will not bring relief, but it removes the stone of constitutional restrictions so that a progressive legislature can enact laws needed.

"I hope the people of Minnesota will vote for the amendment. City people, as well as farmers, should vote for it, as it will in no way burden the state with taxes, nor is it special legislation in favor of a select class.

"I worked for this amendment throughout the last session of the legislature, as did a majority of both houses, and it is now up to the people to approve it by voting for it. Simply not voting will not do, because blank ballots count against it. This amendment embodies one of the most important planks of the Farmer-Labor platform and represents a public need."

"THE GOSPEL IN ART" TOPIC OF SERMON SERIES OF DR. PACE
"The Gospel in Art" is the title of the new series of sermons, which Dr. C. N. Pace of the Methodist church has announced for the Sunday evenings of November. The sermons, which he expects to preach, are suggested by famous painting.

Next Sunday night he uses Watts' famous painting, "Hope," as the theme. The music for that occasion will be suitable to the theme and, among other attractions, Mrs. Robert McKee and Mrs. Harry Lindor are to sing "Whispering Hope." One thousand portions of this famous new tract will be distributed to members of the congregation. Other pictures, which will suggest later sermons, are Millet's "Angelus," Holman Hunt's "Light of the World," and Hofmann's "Christ and the Rich Young Ruler." Last year this downtown church was usually crowded to the doors on account of the popular character of the evening services. It is expected that this new series of sermons will prove attractive.

Dr. Pace is also presenting a series on "The Gospel in Nature" in the morning hour of worship. "The Mountains of the Bible," "The Birds of the Bible," "The Trees of the Bible," and "The Rivers of the Bible" are the subjects which he expects to use.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED FOR OUR PUZZLED FANS

What can I do to reduce the "body effect" of my set?
Ans: Shielding your set with brass sheet or tin foil will reduce the capacity effect of your body a great deal. One side of the filament can also be grounded to good effect. The shielding should be connected to the ground binding posts of your set, of course. The shorter your ground lead the less this effect will be noticed.

R. S.: What is the correct winding of a 500-meter variometer? What size wire should I use? Could I increase the range of my set by adding honeycomb coils? If so, what size and where should I connect them?
Ans: Assuming you have some suitable wood forms with a ball, say four inches in diameter, with stator to fit with the usual clearance we would suggest that you wind forty turns on each side of the rotor ball and about thirty-seven turns on each side of the stator. The size wire must be chosen so that it will be possible to get the proper number of turns in the space available. Usually number 22 or 24 is used. Double cotton covering is better than this material has a lower "K" value than enamel or silk and hence a coil wound with double cotton covered wire will have less distributive capacity. This is desirable since it will mean a wider tuning range. No. Honeycombs added to the equipment you now have would not increase your range.

W. M. O.: When using a 35-turn primary, I cannot hear broadcast. Why is this?
Ans: Using the smaller coil, it is necessary to use your primary condenser across the aerial and ground rather than in series with them.

H. J. C.: Is it dangerous to use 40 volts on the plate of a detector tube?
Ans: Not dangerous but very few detector tubes are "hard" enough to work well under that voltage.

J. W.: What is the range of this set?
Ans: About thirty miles daytime, much more at night.

R. A. P.: Is a detector tube superior to an amplifier?
Ans: Tubes vary. Trial alone will tell.

1,000,000 WATT VACUUM TUBE DEVELOPED BY GENERAL ELECTRIC

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 1.—A 1,000,000-watt vacuum tube has been developed in the General Electric research laboratory by J. H. Payne, Jr. The huge capacity tube is a magnetron, involving the first use of a magnetic control as developed by Dr. Albert W. Hull of the laboratory. The tube is expected to be of such importance both in radio work and long distance power transmission. Its output is about forty amperes at 25,000 volts, and serves as a rectifier to change alternating to direct current, and also to change direct to alternating current of any frequency or to convert low frequency alternating current to high frequency.

It is thought one tube will be sufficient to carry radio telephone signals across the Atlantic. This tube consists essentially of a water-cooled cylindrical anode thirty inches long and one and three-fourths inches in diameter. In the axis of the anode is a tungsten filament four-tenths of an inch in diameter and twenty-two inches long. This filament is excited by a current of 1,800 amperes at 10,000 cycles, the filament excitation requiring about twenty kilowatts. The magnetron field produced by this large heating current is sufficient to "cut off" the electron current from the cathode to the anode in a part of each half cycle of the current passing through the cathode. This action taking the place of that of the grid in this three-electrode tube. The electron current to the cathode is thus interrupted 20,000 times a second. By the use of properly tuned circuits this can be used for the production of high frequency power radio or any other purpose.

RECEIVING SET IN CHURCH FOR CONCERT

Through the courtesy of the Kelley-Duluth company a receiving set will be installed in the church parlors of the Arnold Presbyterian church tomorrow night so that the regular Thursday night musical program of The Herald-Lycium-Kelley-Duluth radio station can be received. The arrangements are in charge of members of the Arnold Welfare club. An invitation is extended to everyone to attend, especially the children. It will be the first time that a majority of them ever heard a concert over radio.

SPLENDID PROGRAM FOR WJAP ARRANGED FOR THURSDAY NIGHT

For amusement and covering a wide field the program which WJAP is going to give to its family tomorrow night is about the best. Everything that anyone could desire is on the program, from dance music to humorous readings. The evening will be started under way with dance selections by Anderson's dance orchestra. Popular fox trots will be featured. Miss Helen Irwin will give a classical touch to the program with two piano solos, the "Second Mazurka" and "Butterfly." She is an accomplished pianist and her acquaintance in musical circles in Duluth is wide. Miss Elmor Kraft's violin solo, "Consecration"—Second Movement—From Sonata in C Minor, will follow and persons who have heard Miss Kraft in the past will testify as to her ability to entertain. Miss Ella Linda has chosen two popular and snappy soprano solos which she will sing for the fans. The program will be closed with a humorous reading entitled "The Absent-Mindedness of Tristram" by Miss Ethel Bergquist, an elocution student of Miss Mary Sheegren, will deliver the reading.

MANY ENTRIES FOR BIG TUBER SHOW

Posters at Exposition Will Boost Early Buying Campaign.

Duluth's fifth annual international potato show, which will be staged at the Armory for three days commencing next Friday, is attracting considerable attention this year because of the buy-your-potatoes-now campaign going on throughout Minnesota.

Large posters urging housewives to buy their winter supply of potatoes at this time to relieve the congestion among the farmers and help cut down the large surplus on the market will be on display at the potato show. These posters bear the message: "The South bought a bale of cotton, let us buy a pile of potatoes."

Entries from the state of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and points in Canada, total hundreds of men, women and children to the local display. Many school children have entered exhibits, while a number of farmers' clubs in St. Louis county have prepared general displays for their sections of the state.

On Saturday evening the annual potato show dinner will be held at the Armory. Arrangements have been made for about 300 farmers and their wives, while addresses will be made by Dean Harry Walker of Trinity cathedral, Bentley, P. Neff and J. H. Hay and P. W. Beck of the state agricultural college. William C. Sargent, general chairman of the show committee, will preside.

The American Legion band will play for dancing on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Instructions on the grading and marketing of potatoes will be the educational feature of the show, according to A. S. Grant, chief agricultural agent, who is manager of the exhibition. Prominent members of the state agricultural college will lead in explaining the methods of treating potatoes for various diseases.

The Duluth Retail Grocers' association is making an active campaign in behalf of the buy-your-potatoes-now movement. In addition, George M. Peterson, secretary of the association, has issued a bulletin urging all growers of the city to attend the potato show this week. Mr. Peterson's bulletin is as follows:

"The potato consumption in our section is below normal and at the present time represents one of the cheapest of substantial foods on the market. The return of the potato to normal use is another reason for this active campaign. Co-operation means exactly what it is intended for and if we expect to succeed in our agricultural resources, it is incumbent upon us to put forth every effort to make possible this success."

"The average household can easily buy from eight to ten bushels of potatoes for winter use and by putting forth consistent efforts you can easily sell at least 50,000 bushels of potatoes during that week, and unless you do and the present trend of the market continues a loss of 100,000 bushels of potatoes to this county alone will very likely occur."

"The potato crop in our section is a very good one this year and we are asking not only the retailers but the wholesalers to aid in the handling of this crop from our surrounding territory, and we must earnestly bespeak your co-operation to the end that we may make this potato week one of the greatest in the history of the state."

Seek Pig Production Data. Washington, Nov. 1.—So successful were rural letter carriers in seven states last May in obtaining information concerning brood sow and pig production that the department of agriculture again has enlisted the services of the rural carriers for a full census in every state which will begin today. The results of the survey will give the producers some knowledge of what is going on in the way of production and thus enable them to adjust their output to meet the probable needs of the market.

Urges Election of Frasier. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 1.—United States Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin told an audience here yesterday afternoon that the progressives of North Dakota should elect Lynn J. Frasier. Nonpartisan to the senate to aid himself, Brookhart of Iowa and other Progressives on that body to carry out the ideals. His son, Phil, addressed an overflow meeting.

NEW MINISTRY OF PREMIER BONAR LAW IS NOW COMPLETE

London, Nov. 1.—The final appointments to the new ministry formed by Premier Bonar Law, announced yesterday, include ministers of labor and pensions, although Mr. Bonar Law had previously intimated that the pensions portfolio would be abolished and was understood to be also contemplating abolition of the ministry of labor.

Sir Montagu Barlow, who was parliamentary secretary to the labor ministry in the Lloyd George cabinet, becomes minister of labor, and the pensions portfolio is taken by Sir George Clement Fry, who was also a parliamentary secretary under the Lloyd George regime, being connected with the ministry which he is now to head.

Sir Samuel Hoare is appointed air minister and Neville Chamberlain, postmaster general. Other appointments have been announced as follows: Commissioner of works, Sir John Baird; solicitor general, Thomas W. H. Inskip.

Civil lord of the admiralty, the marquis of Lifford; financial secretary to the admiralty, Commander Bolton Meredith; secretary for overseas trade, Sir William Joyce-Hicks; secretary to the board of trade, Viscount Wolmer.

Secretary to the ministry of transport, Lieut.-Col. Wilfrid Deane; secretary to the ministry of health, the earl of Onslow.

Secretary to the board of agriculture, the earl of Annesley; secretary to the treasury, Lieut.-Col. Leslie Orme Wilson.

The following under-secretaries have been appointed: Home office, Lieut.-Col. George F. Stanley; foreign office, Ronald McNeill; colonial office, William G. A. Ormsby-Croft; war office, Walter E. Guinness; air ministry, the duke of Sutherland; India office, Earl Winterton; financial secretary to the war office, F. S. Jackson.

STANLEY L. MACK IS RECOMMENDED FOR RESERVE CAPTAINCY

Stanley L. Mack, clerk of the municipal court, has been recommended by the officers' reserve corps and his name forwarded to the war department for appointment.

Recently Mr. Mack, who is a first lieutenant in the reserve corps, appeared before a board of officers for examination. The board consisted of Lieut.-Col. J. E. Musgrave, Maj. Warren E. Pugh and Capt. Lewis W. Hough. The appointment will be made by the war department.

Mr. Mack enlisted as a private in the National Guard in 1917 and on June 13, 1918, was appointed second lieutenant, which rank he held until he was discharged in July, 1919. He was appointed first lieutenant of the reserve corps on Sept. 24, 1919. Last summer he attended the officers' training camp at Fort Snelling. He is secretary of the Army Officers' association of Duluth.

S. D. SHERIFF HELD ON ABSCONDING CHARGE

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—"I am going to see that the people who voted for me for sheriff and believed in me know the whole truth of this matter; they won't blame me."

This was the declaration last night of Verne C. Miller, former sheriff of Headwaters county, South Dakota, who was arrested here yesterday charged with absconding with about $4,000 of the county's funds while sheriff.

South Dakota authorities are expected here to take Miller back to Huron before the end of the week.

GRIP KNIGHTS URGE THE RE-ELECTION OF SENATOR KELLOGG

Senator Kellogg's re-election is urged in a letter sent out yesterday to all traveling salesmen of Minnesota by fifteen of the best-known salesmen in the state. Frank X. Gravel is the only Duluth man to sign the letter.

The letter also urges the traveling man of the state to vote by mail through the absent voters' law if they will not be at home next Tuesday.

String Power Lines. Beasmer, Mich., Nov. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first shipment of 4,000 feet of copper feeder wire has been strung here by the Lake Superior District Power company, which is making extensive improvements in the street railway service to compete with motor buses.

Little Children Brighten Homes

EVERY young couple starting out in life has visions of joyous hours spent before the fireside with healthy, happy children; but, alas, how often young women who long for children are denied that happiness because of some functional derangement which may be corrected by proper treatment. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just the medicine for these conditions, as the following letters show:

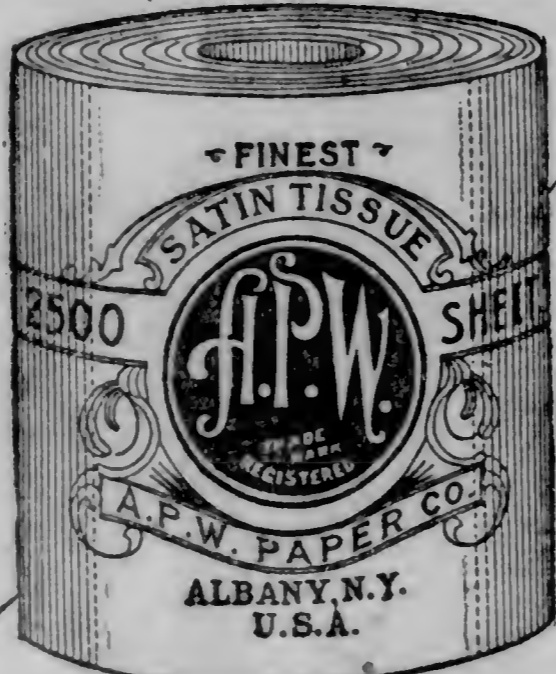

Chicago, Ill.—"You surely gave me one good medicine when you put Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on the market. After I had my baby I was all run down and so nervous I kept me from gaining. My doctor did everything he could to build me up, then he ordered me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with his medicine and I am now a new woman. I have had three children and they are all Lydia E. Pinkham babies. I have recommended your medicine to several friends and they speak highly of it. You are certainly doing good work in this world."—Mrs. ADAM TOMEK, 10557 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Churubusco, N. Y.—"I was under the doctor's care for over five years for backache and had no relief from his medicine. One day a neighbor told me about your Vegetable Compound and I took it. It helped me so much that I wish to advise all women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and backache. It is a great help in carrying a child, as I have noticed a difference when I didn't take it. I thank you for this medicine and if I ever come to this point again I do not want to be without this Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FANN MIXER, Box 102, Churubusco, N. Y.

Results of New Gland Treatment Amaze Doctors

Thousands Endorse Druesen-Kraft Gland Tonic as the Quickest, Easiest and Safest Way to Restore Youthful Vigor and Health!

Your life and health depend on your glands! You are just as strong or just as weak as your glands. Your heart, liver, kidneys, stomach, even your brain depend upon the vital gland secretions and most ailments among men, women and even children, result from gland weakness! This is the most recent scientific discovery of the world's foremost medical mind!

"Man is just as strong and healthy as are his glands," says Dr. Serge Voronoff. While the glands are strong and active the body is vigorous, and the mind is alert. But illness, age, worry, exertion and the strain of modern living weaken your glands every day, and this weakness is the cause of most ill health.

After years of research and experiments, a way to strengthen their activity was discovered.

IT MUST BE DRUESEN-KRAFT TO BE THE GENUINE GLAND TONIC, sold in Duluth by Abbott Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.

MUST "GET" WAR OR IT WILL "GET" US

Irwin Pictures Wholesale Slaughter of Nations in Next Combat.

Unless nations of the world are organized into an association, with a code of rules and penalties for their violation and an international patrol to regulate the morals of all beyond, there will be another war, waged by the wholesale, with an ultimate destruction of the entire white civilization.

This is the message brought to Duluth by Will Irwin, famous author, novelist and war correspondent, in his address on "The Next War" at the First Methodist church last evening under the auspices of the Duluth Teachers' association. Mr. Irwin was introduced by Judge Peeler.

"It is a case of our 'getting' war or war 'getting' us," said Mr. Irwin. "And this is a duty that is up to us. America cannot take the steps. It will, to keep war. This is our opportunity for greatness. If we will, we can be remembered as a great nation with infinite power to conquer and crush other nations, but which refused to use that power. We can be known as the nation that put mankind in the pathway of peace."

First-Hand Knowledge. Mr. Irwin, who spent almost six years in Europe during the war and the two years following the armistice, has first-hand knowledge of the military machines and organizations throughout the world. With facts and figures, he presented his conclusions in a manner that apparently convinced his audience that "America is being drawn nearer to the nations of the European continent and that it is vital to talk of isolation for the future."

"Wilson failed in his efforts to bring the league of Nations into existence," said Mr. Irwin in comment on the efforts made for an international organization. "I am not going to discuss politics. Wilson's plan may go yet. The disarmament conference accomplished a great deal, but its danger lies in the fact that it lulled us to sleep. The conference was a political delay of the pain. It is not a complete remedy."

Discussing the military plans of the nations of the world, the speaker pointed out the fact that preparations are now being made for future wars, which will kill nations by the wholesale. With deadly gases and bacilli in huge aerial bombs and wireless airplanes operated to the unbelievable distances of 400 miles, Mr. Irwin explained, it will be possible in future wars to destroy cities like New York, London and Paris in twelve hours, killing every human being over night.

Rebuke to Lubin. Mr. Irwin paid a great tribute to David Lubin, (the California Jew, who created the international crop report plan now in use throughout the world. Turned down by the country, England, France and Germany, Mr. Lubin's idea was adopted by the Italian government. Mr. Irwin quoted Mr. Lubin, whose ideas on international relations coincided with his own. That states and nations should have morals, was the belief of Mr. Lubin, to which Mr. Irwin subscribed in his address last evening.

In opening his lecture, Mr. Irwin referred to history to show how codes of warfare were established through thousands of years of civilization. "And then, in two weeks after the beginning of the World-war in 1914, the entire code was destroyed," said Mr. Irwin. "Warfare made two fights over Belgium and killed non-combatants and two weeks later England established a food blockade on Germany. Then came poisoned gas."

during the second battle of Ypres on April 22, 1915. From then on all the civilized intelligence of the great nations was mobilized to devise means for destruction. The best brains were drafted for killing people. It was no more a battle of armies, but a battle of nations.

Wholesale War Next. "And great militarists say that this great war, with 4,000,000 killed, was only a retail war. These men, who are already planning for the next war, say that it will be a wholesale war, with complete destruction of cities and peoples. With the new gases made by our nation, twelve planes could be loaded with bombs and sent by wireless over Berlin and the entire city destroyed over night."

Wounded, Crawls for Miles Through Brush. Fort William, Ont., Nov. 1.—The engineer of a slow freight today saw a man standing on the tracks, leaning on a cane and feebly waving a red handanna. He stopped. The man collapsed.

The stranger, suffering from a high fever, was taken aboard the freight, dropped at Amoy, and taken to a hospital. He was found to be William Anderson of Amoy.

His hunting at Birch Lake, he accidentally shot himself in the leg two days ago. The bone was shattered. With one paddle he made a splint. His shirt he used as a bandage. His necktie served as a tourniquet. Patching himself up, he took his other paddle for a crutch and began dragging and pushing himself along through two miles of brush to the railroad tracks.

Little Mother Happy Again

"For the past nine years I have been very much distressed with bloating and stomach trouble due to constipation since I was a child. No medicine gave me more than temporary relief. I got so bad I was afraid I would have to leave my three little children. But since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two years ago I have been entirely well, no constipation or other trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince, or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.

Girlish Complexion Now Easily Acquired

If your complexion is bad, just try this simple, harmless home treatment. It will prove a revelation to you. This evening before retiring cover the entire face with a thin layer of ordinary mercerized wax, which you can remove with a damp cloth in the morning, wash this off with water, and repeat the treatment nightly until the entire surface skin is absorbed in this way. Result—the loveliest natural complexion imaginable tinted with the bloom of youth. The old surface skin comes off so gradually that there is no inconvenience, no redness, no itching, no sunburn, and no detention indoors. Freckles, blotches, liver spots, pimples or blotches of various kinds are removed with the skin itself.—Advertisement.

HERBS USED IN MEDICINES

A Manchester, England, paper urges the renewed cultivation of old-fashioned medicinal herbs in English gardens. In the United States they have also gone out of fashion as a feature of the small garden, although they are imported in large quantities from Turkey, India and China, where they are grown purely for commercial purposes, as their medicinal value is recognized by many leading physicians. Tons of medicinal herbs are used annually in the preparation of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most successful medicine for women's ills. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and women afflicted with such ailments should try it.—Advertisement.

REPUBLICAN RALLY FOR WOMEN FRIDAY

Republicans plan a rally for the women in the West and library at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. A. Lofgren and Mrs. E. M. Erickson of the St. Louis County Republican committee are in charge of the arrangements and several very good speakers have been engaged, who will discuss the political issues of the day. All West end women are urged to attend.

PETITION FILED FOR IMPROVEMENT OF WEST END AVENUE

Petition to improve Twenty-fourth avenue west from Michigan street to the boulevard was received by the department of public works today. The petition has 102 signers. Commissioner Bert Farrell addressed a meeting of some fifty property owners in church and civic affairs will take part.

HERBS USED IN MEDICINES

A Manchester, England, paper urges the renewed cultivation of old-fashioned medicinal herbs in English gardens. In the United States they have also gone out of fashion as a feature of the small garden, although they are imported in large quantities from Turkey, India and China, where they are grown purely for commercial purposes, as their medicinal value is recognized by many leading physicians. Tons of medicinal herbs are used annually in the preparation of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most successful medicine for women's ills. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and women afflicted with such ailments should try it.—Advertisement.

Our New

Is Here

Remington No. 12

The Quiet Typewriter

The New Model 12 Remington is the herald of a new era in typewriting.

It is quiet in operation. And it has been made so without the slightest impairment of the speed, ease of operation and dependability which are essential in a first-class writing machine.

This problem of achieving relative silence, combined with the full measure of Remington efficiency, was not solved in a day. The New Model 12 is the product of years of continuous laboratory work by Remington Engineers—the most skilled and experienced in the typewriter world. As a physician listens with his stethoscope, so these engineers listened to every “click,” every “hum,” every sound produced in the act of typing and experimented with every possible means for transforming noise into silence.

The result is a crowning triumph in typewriter construction; a machine which retains every basic Remington feature, every quality for which the Remington is famous, every distinctive Remington improvement, including the famous self-starter and the equally celebrated “natural touch,” and in addition no less than

14 noise-eliminating features

The sum of these improvements is a degree of silence that enables the busy business man to think and work without distraction, even though the machine is also working at his elbow.

The price of this new Model 12 Remington, with “A” carriage is $110—just $7.50 more than the Standard machine—a $7.50 premium for quiet.

Under conditions where quiet is not essential, we continue to recommend our Standard Correspondence Machine—the Improved Self-Starting Remington—the typewriter that is making “natural touch” famous, the machine that has made automatic indenting an accomplished fact.

Please call and see and listen to the new Remington No. 12 or phone us for a demonstration.

A good typewriter deserves a good ribbon. Paragon ribbons—made by us
75 cents each, $7 a dozen

Some of the 14 Noise-Eliminating Features of New No. 12 Remington

A new cushioned cylinder which gives clean cut originals and carbons—and is Quiet.

A new type of bail which prevents any air chamber between paper and cylinder and takes another “click” out of typewriting.

A new method of eliminating noise from the escapement. The escapement dog strikes against a spring instead of solid metal. The result is Quiet.

A new cable anvil, made of finest piano wire, spiraled in two directions. In reality it is a shock absorber for the type mechanism—and it is Quiet.

The body of the machine is enclosed in sound proof plates—Quiet.

Even the slight noise caused by the type falling back in the basket has been reduced.

Eight other sound-reducing features complete this great Remington contribution to quiet—and every advantage which quiet confers on a business office.

Zane Grey's New Story

Zane Grey has given to Ladies' Home Journal readers his greatest novel—THE VANISHING AMERICAN. A novel that he has spent ten years in writing, and which he regards as the most vital he has ever written.

It is the story of an American Indian, Nophaie, last of a noble line of redmen, and of the beautiful Marian, from a background of house parties, money and culture.

It is a story of their struggle to untangle the knotted skein of love and life. Of lurking danger, of hot, passionate anger and the sharp crackling of rifle fire.

The old Zane Grey thrill of adventure is here, the vigor of life in the open that made his last Journal serial, The Call of the Cañon, so memorable.

Mr. Grey has laid his novel in the great desert country, which he describes as no one else can. He pictures to us vividly the nobility of the Indian and the cruel way he has been wronged by the white man—the soul of a great race now vanishing from the earth.

Beginning in the November issue of THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

To Home Journal Readers: "It is a source of great satisfaction and inspiration to be able to reach the immense Ladies' Home Journal audience with what I regard as my best novel. I would rather publish my stories in The Journal than in any other magazine and the sense of its millions of readers living over again the adventures of my hero and heroine gives me a real thrill." Zane Grey

A Year's Literary Program for Women's Clubs

"What shall we study this year?" Here is a comprehensive year's program for Women's Clubs prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, their national president. Presenting the notable novels, short stories, drama and poetry of our time which people of culture read and discuss.

Mrs. Catt on the Sham in Women's Rights

Carrie Chapman Catt, veteran suffrage leader, discussing sham rights versus real rights, asks: "Have women lost their heads with their new freedom?" Should a woman keep her own name after marriage or take her husband's? Should motherhood without marriage be tolerated?

Housekeeping in the Little House by Alice Van Leer Carrick

Haven't you dreamed of the little house that would be just right—compact, efficient, labor saving? Mrs. Carrick begins a new series telling how thousands of women are eliminating the drudgery. Also: New Thanksgiving recipes and dainty needlework for Christmas gifts.

Winter Fashions ~ direct from the Great Paris Opening

First showing in America of the new sleeves, skirts, waistline and the new slanting neckline ordained by Paris. The Journal Fashion Editor's personal selection among 5000 coats, suits, dresses and hats. The clothes shown in The Journal will be in style until they are worn out.

About Benjamin Franklin and Jonathan Edwards

William Lyon Phelps starts a new series on "Makers of American Literature," as vivid and entertaining as his famous Bible Series. Also articles by Walter Damrosch, by Elizabeth Frazer and by Dr. Henry Dwight Chapin. More than fifty features in the 218-page November issue.

For Mothers Whose Sons Went to France

A beautiful, poignant story for Armistice Day, by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, called "Yellow Butterflies." Eleanor Hallowell Abbott's charming "The Setting Hen." Other notable fiction by Maurice Hewlett, Bessie Beatty, Joseph C. Lincoln, Clifton Lisle and Frances Noyes Hart.

The Journal offers something real and useful to every girl and woman in America. It will help you to dress beautifully and inexpensively. It will help you to make your home charming. It will help you make people want to meet you—help you to talk, to interest them. It will give you poise and real culture. It will help you to become a better partner in the home, a more intelligent mother, a better friend and guide to your children. That is why millions of women read The Journal regularly and profit by it.

Sherlock Holmes Stories

"A Scandal in Bohemia"

By Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

(Copyright by Harper & Bros. Published by special arrangement with the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

THE STORY THUS FAR.

Holmes received a mysterious note saying that the writer, wearing a mask, would call on him that evening. From the watermark of the note Holmes concluded that the visitor was a German.

THIRD INSTALLMENT.

Holmes laughed. "It is quite a pretty little problem," he said. "But a very serious one to me." Returned the king reproachfully. "Very indeed. And what does she propose to do with the photograph?"

"I am sure," said Holmes. "Because she has said that she would send it on the day when the betrothal was publicly proclaimed. That will be next Monday."

own. Indeed, apart from the nature of the investigation which my friend had on hand, there was something in his masterly grasp of a situation, and his keen, incisive reasoning, which made it a pleasure to me to study his system of work, and to follow the quick, subtle methods by which he disentangled the most intricate mysteries. So accustomed was I to his invariable success that the very possibility of his falling had ceased to enter into my head.

It was close upon 4 before the door opened and a drunken-looking groom, ill-kempt and side-whiskered, with an inflamed face and disreputable clothes, walked into the room. Accustomed as I was to my friend's amazing powers in the use of disguises, I had to look three times before I was certain that it was indeed he. With a nod he vanished into the bedroom, whence he emerged in five minutes tweed-suited and respectable, as of old. Putting his hands into his pockets, he stretched out his legs in front of the fire, and laughed heartily for some minutes.

"Well, really," he cried, and then he choked, and laughed again until he was obliged to lie back, limp and helpless, in the chair.

"What is it?" "It's quite too funny. I am sure you could never guess how I stumbled this morning, or what I ended by doing."

"I can't imagine. I suppose that you have been watching the habits, and perhaps the house, of Miss Irene Adler?" "Quite so; but the sequel was rather unusual. I will tell you, however. I left the house a little after 3 o'clock this morning, in the character of a groom out of work. There is a wonderful sympathy and free masonry among horse men. Be one of them, and you will know all that there is to know. I soon found Briony Lodge. It is a bijou villa, with a garden at the back, but built out in front right up to the road, two stories. Chubb lock to the door. Large sitting room on the right side, well furnished, with long windows almost to the floor, and those preposterous English window fasteners which a child could open. Behind there was nothing remarkable, save that the passage window could be reached from the top of the coach house. I walked round it and examined it closely from every point of view, but without noting anything else of interest.

"I then lounged down the street, and found, as I expected, that there was a man in a lane which runs down by one wall of the garden. I lent the hostler's hand in rubbing down their horses, and I received in exchange two-pence, a glass of half-and-half, two fills of shag tobacco, and as much information as I could desire about Miss Adler, to say nothing of half a dozen other people in the neighborhood in whom I was not in the least interested, but whose biographies I was compelled to listen to."

"And what of Irene Adler?" I asked. "Oh, she has turned all the men's heads down in that part. She's the faintest thing under a bonnet on this planet. So says the Serpentine-messenger, a man. She lives quietly, sings at concerts, drives out at 5 every day, and returns at 7 sharp for dinner. Seldom goes out at other times, except when she sings. Has only one male visitor, but a good deal of him. He is dark, handsome, and dashing, never calls less than once a day, and often twice. He is a Godfrey Norton."

"I was announced by the board of directors that 40 per cent of the Thomson defalcation had been paid."

"To Build Missouri Bridge. Yankton, S. D., Nov. 1.—Bids on the steel superstructure of the Meridian highway bridge across the Missouri river at Yankton are to be received by the board of directors at their annual meeting Dec. 11 for approval. It was decided at a special meeting of stockholders here yesterday afternoon."

Rev. B. M. Bridges Gives Facts In His Case

It is doubtful if there has ever been a medicine endorsed by so many ministers of the Gospel as has Tanlac. Indeed, there is scarcely a faith, creed or denomination in all the land in which one, or more, of the clergymen have not publicly expressed their indebtedness to the Premier Preparation for the benefits they have derived from its use.

CARSS CHALLENGED TO STATE POSITION

Congressman Larson Attacks Democrat for Dodging Senatorial Issue.

Several broadsides were hurled by Congressman Larson at W. L. Caras, Democratic candidate for congress, in his address at the Republican rally at Dornedy hall last evening.

Mr. Larson spoke with J. Adam Bede, former congressman, who urged the re-election of the present incumbent and Senator Kellogg.

Despite the fact that he has been repeatedly challenged to do so, declared Mr. Larson, "my opponent has refused to state whether he is supporting Mrs. Caras, the Democratic nominee for United States senator, or Dr. Shpatz, the Farmer-Labor candidate. He is on both tickets, and unless he thinks the voters of the Eighth district are extremely gullible, he will have to stand one way or the other. Both these candidates are to appear in Duluth shortly, and it would be interesting to know whether my opponent intends to sponsor either of them."

"His friends have attacked my record on labor legislation. But the American Federation of Labor, in an annual convention in Cincinnati last June, declared that seventeen measures favorable to labor were enacted into law by the last congress, and no charge was made by the federation that a single law that was passed was inimical to the interests of the wage earner."

"I know that the trade unionists of the Eighth district want to be fair and if my record on labor legislation is examined impartially, it will be found that I have always favored legislation of benefit to the wage worker."

"The charge is made that I voted for the twelve-hour day for certain seamen. This is ridiculous. The amendment to the seamen's act grew out of a resolution unanimously adopted by the Michigan legislature. The resolution had the support of many labor members of both houses in Michigan, and the amendment was intended to take effect in a local situation in that state."

"I am not now and never have been in favor of a twelve-hour day and did not vote for such a law in congress."

Senator Kellogg and Lieut. Governor Collins arrived in Duluth early last evening from St. Paul and left shortly after for Eveleth, where they are scheduled to speak today. They will address gatherings at Eveleth, the Fayal mine and Virginia during the day and this evening. J. H. Trux, secretary of the Republican county committee, is accompanying them on the trip today.

W. C. Sargent, chairman of the committee, will join them at Eveleth tomorrow morning and will accompany them during the day, returning to Duluth with them early Friday morning. Senator Kellogg is scheduled to appear at St. Paul Friday evening.

A banquet will be given in honor of Senator Kellogg and Lieut. Governor Collins tomorrow evening at the Androy hotel at Hibbing, after which they will speak at a Republican rally.

EXTENSION WORK FOR GIRLS AND WOMEN URGED AT MEETING

Mrs. Samuel Dix was hostess yesterday afternoon to a group of West Duluth women who are interested in the extension program of the Young Women's Christian association. Mrs. John A. Stephenson presided at the meeting, and Miss Marguerite Dice, acting general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., spoke briefly of the broader aspects of the association showing that it is a world movement of Christian girls and women.

G. L. Varney of the West Duluth Y. W. C. A. spoke of the need for work among girls in West Duluth, corresponding to that done with boys. He gave some definite suggestions for volunteer work.

Miss Nellie Brown, extension secretary of the Y. W. C. A., presented a plan for the organization of a West Duluth industrial committee to carry out a program with employed girls which will enable them to take their part in the movements for industrial, civic and social betterment. Since a special building for the work is not available now, meetings will be held in homes or one of the public buildings.

Those who attended the meeting were: Mrs. S. M. Strain, Mrs. Charles H. Matthews, Mrs. Salter, Mrs. C. R. Kaye, Mrs. E. W. Boucher, Mrs. R. Y. Dunn, Mrs. W. M. Everett, Mrs. Leona Kimball, Mrs. L. A. Barnes, Mrs. G. E. Kreidler, Mrs. T. E. Wieland and Mrs. T. P. Olson.

CLUB HALLOWEEN PARTY KEEPS KIDS BUSY FOR EVENING

A continual downpour failed to prevent the West Duluth Business Men's club members from going ahead with the celebration planned and sponsored by them for the children of West Duluth to observe Halloween. Over eight barrels of apples were distributed to the hundreds of children who gathered for the fun.

Because of the muddy condition of the grounds, it was found impossible to stage the program of games that had been arranged, but members in charge managed to keep the children interested throughout the evening, and sent them home to bed, tired out, but convinced they had just as good a time as if they had followed in the footsteps of their fathers, who, in their childhood days, carried away gates and put horses and rigs on top of barns.

Lieut. John Englert, commanding officer of the West Duluth police station, said this morning that it was one of the quietest Halloween nights that has passed in West Duluth in years. Not a single serious disturbance was reported to the police or by the special officers who helped patrol the district last night. Several minor infractions were easily taken care of by the officers on the different beats, he said. Lieut. Englert attributed the quiet evening to the efforts of the Business Men's club for entertaining the children.

Duluth Architects and Our Public Schools

R. J. COOLE CONSIDERS CIVIC IMPORTANCE

Inasmuch as there seems to be a lack of complete understanding on the part of the general public to the facts on which the Duluth Builders Exchange bases its contention that it is not necessary to go outside of our city to secure architects thoroughly competent to design the new schools contemplated, we herewith publish statements of three members of the Board of Education who have for years made a special study of school construction and are fully acquainted with the qualifications and abilities of Duluth architects to design proper and efficient educational institutions.

"I feel that the public has been misinformed on several angles of the public school architectural situation in that several prominent men who became interested in this matter and sought to become more enlightened on the subject were informed that a local firm was to be retained and an outside architect employed in a consulting capacity. However, when the matter came up for final discussion last Friday night, local architects were given absolutely no consideration, and when the writer inquired as to whether they had been considered, he was told that they had not."

"I feel that due to the fact that schools on the range are recognized as among the leading educational institutions in the Northwest, 80 per cent of which have been built by Duluth architects, I feel that it is a gross injustice to the architectural profession in Duluth."

"Having been a member of the building committee until the first of August this year, feel that I have some information regarding the building program and also the architectural situation. Having known for several months that the firm proposed for selection was slated for the position, and it was due to my objection to said firm that I was removed from the Building Committee."

"I am looking at this proposition from a civic point of view. I feel that Duluth labor and people living here should benefit from all public expenditures, all things being equal."
(Signed) R. J. COOLE.

F. D. KNIGHT EXPLAINS HIS POSITION

"In the opinion of a majority of the Buildings and Grounds Committee the proper thing to do is to employ a Duluth architect, selected on qualifications, of which there are several, this architect to associate himself with an outside architect who is a specialist in school architecture. We feel under an arrangement of this kind the highest point of efficiency and economy could be obtained. The local architect is thoroughly conversant with local conditions and materials most suitable to this climate, and in a much better position to watch the buildings during construction and work with a contractor to carry on the work to final completion."

"As chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee it is my judgment the committee that was appointed by the Board to investigate work of out-of-town architects, the expense incurred outside of the trip from Duluth to Chicago and return was unnecessary in view of the fact that the majority of the Board of Education had already made up their minds, owing to a certain influence which started and which has maintained this idea of employing a certain Chicago firm before the trip was made. This was further shown by the introduction of a resolution by the chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee to invite an outside architect other than the architect from Chicago that is proposed to draw plans for the schools to be erected, at which time great consternation was apparent, evidencing a fear that other than the proposed Chicago firm might be employed. It was generally agreed by the committee which made the trip of inspection that the best school inspected was designed by a firm other than the one the School Board proposes to enter into contract with."

"I feel as do other members of the Committee investigating work of outside architects that the public at least is entitled to a report of their findings. The Chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee has made several efforts to have such a report prepared in view of determining the results of their trip, but to date no report has been submitted to the School Board or to the public."

(Signed) F. D. KNIGHT,
Chairman Building and Grounds Committee.

D. H. CLOUGH FAVORS SELECTION OF DULUTH ARCHITECT

"You ask why I voted to invite an outside architect to visit Duluth for the purpose of entering into a contract to design our new schools. In explanation I will say: "First—Because of the seeming apathy of the general public as to the appointment of a local architect."

"Second—In view of the fact that the Board was somewhat divided in regard to the selection of an architect for the proposed buildings I felt it was for the best interest of all concerned that I vote with the majority on this particular issue."

"Third—As the Board has a very extensive program of school building, I did not believe an issue in which the public seemingly took so small an interest should be allowed to interfere at this time as it might tend to disrupt the proposed plans of the Board."

"I have always and do firmly believe that a local architect should be selected together with a consulting architect, if deemed necessary, from the outside."
(Signed) D. H. CLOUGH.

WORK OF DULUTH ARCHITECTS ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Schools and various business structures planned, designed and built under the supervision of Duluth architectural firms are recognized throughout the country for their completeness of construction, attractiveness and provision of all that is requisite in their being operated efficiently and economically.

Whether Duluth's new schools will be designed by local or foreign architects is to be decided at a meeting of the Board of Education Friday night, November 3. It is the privilege of the public to be in attendance.

ALBERT LEA CHOSEN FOR B. AND P. WOMEN'S CLUB CONVENTION

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—Albert Lea will be host to the next annual convention of the Minnesota Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, the board of directors has just decided.

Mrs. Samuel Holista, state president, has named the following as chairman of various committees: Miss Margaret DeWinger, Owatonna, general secretary; Miss Annabel Ross, Wiltona, research; Miss Nellie L. Jones, St. Paul, nominating; Miss Hilma Perry, Govt. Duluth, publicity; Mrs. Emma R. Harvey, St. Cloud, independent women; Miss Maudy Stevens, Minneapolis, speakers' bureau.

The membership work throughout the state will be under the supervision of the board. Part of the work will be done by each club in the respective one or more club districts.

The board voted to have an all-day spring session, which probably will be held in Minneapolis. By that time it is expected much progress can be reported on the state work and plans for the year will be completed for the state convention.

JUDGES HAVE TO FIGHT TO HOLD BAR PLACES

Chief Justice Falk, Minn., Nov. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the first time in years the political fight over judgeship in Northwestern Minnesota has waxed warm. The present incumbents, Judges Greenland and Warren and Wanda of Crookland, with real Red River valley men, will have to fight to retain their places.

At the primaries George M. Wilson of Thief River Falls was eliminated by C. B. Halvorson and J. M. Bishop of the same city were left to make the run. Mr. Halvorson polled a larger vote in almost the entire district over Mr. Bishop, but the latter is in the fight to win.

The bar associations in the various counties have almost unanimously endorsed the present incumbents, but quite a few of the papers are for a change, believing that Thief River Falls is better located for a judge's seat. The Central Labor Union of Thief River Falls Sunday endorsed Mr. Bishop.

LEGION TO PROMOTE EDUCATIONAL WEEK

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—The Minnesota department of the American Legion will take an active part in getting over, in this state, American education week, Dec. 1 to 9, according to Edward L. Chickson of Minneapolis chairman of the Legion's Americanism committee. The week will be observed nationally and is receiving the backing of the National Education association, the U. S. Bureau of Education and the American Legion.

"Visit the Schools" is the slogan of the campaign. The phrase will, from now until Dec. 9, appear on all envelopes sent out by the Minnesota legion headquarters.

The legion, according to Mr. Chickson, will urge its various posts throughout the state to co-operate with their local officials and civic organizations in creating interest in the campaign. Members will be urged to visit the schools and to suggest to teachers and ministers the advisability of reading educational proclamations and preaching sermons on education.

FORGET-ME-NOT DAY WILL BE OBSERVED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—Citizens of Minnesota are urged to observe Forget-me-not day, Saturday, Nov. 4, and all are urged to support disabled soldiers of the World War in a program issued by Governor J. A. O. Fogus.

The day is being observed as the annual national forget-me-not day and this little observance will be distributed to the citizens of the various communities to remind them of their obligations to those who fought and died.

The funds raised on that day will be used for the welfare, relief and rehabilitation and employment of the survivors of the disabled American veterans.

The American government has been obliged in the care of the disabled veterans but obviously cannot do all the things that should be done for their comfort and enjoyment. The funds raised Nov. 4 will provide some of these needs and will give the citizen an excellent opportunity that the veterans were not forgotten.

CONGREGATION HONORS AGED ST. CLOUD PASTOR

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 1.—Rev. E. V. Campbell, for fifty-eight years pastor of the Congregational church here, has formally laid down the burdens of his pastorate. As a reward for his long and faithful service the church congregation unanimously elected him pastor emeritus.

A resolution was adopted for a bronze tablet which will bear the inscription stating that the church was erected as a memorial to the life service of Dr. Campbell and his wife Rev. H. N. Halpin will be installed as pastor Nov. 5.

BIG GAME SEASON WILL OPEN NOV. 10

Iron Mountain, Minn., Nov. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Within the next ten days the woods of the Upper Peninsula will be the scene for thousands of hunters, as the deer season will open on Nov. 10 and continue through the month. Hundreds of animals are now in the woods building camps, looking up good hunting grounds and getting things in readiness.

A resident license will cost $2 and a non-resident $3. A camp license for 10 will be issued to any party of four hunters, permitting them to kill an extra buck for camp use.

Head Tuberculosis Clinics

Benit, Minn., Nov. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two tuberculosis clinics will be held in Beltrami county soon, where it is urged that those having any kind of lung or chest trouble will attend one of these. The first will be held at the Keltner hotel, Keltner, today, and the other is to be held in Benit in the office of Dr. Karlton and on Nov. 10. Dr. R. L. Loney of the Lake Julia sanatorium, with the assistance of Miss Beth Macgregor, will conduct these clinics. The clinics will be free.

Fred Anderson's DISCOVERY

It had been a tough day for Fred Anderson.

There had been a conference at 9.30 with the General Manager, an important meeting of executives at 11.00, two sales letters had been written—plans for the new building discussed, and for the last hour an almost constant ringing of the telephone.

Fred looked at his watch. "Three-twenty," he said. "And still a lot to be done—Hello! Hello!"

The telephone was ringing again. It was the General Manager.

"What's that? Go out with you and get a cup of Coffee?" repeated Fred Anderson in surprise. "Certainly. Just as soon as I get my hat."

That was the first time Fred had ever stopped his work for a few minutes in mid-afternoon to go out for a cup of Coffee. It was a good investment. He's been doing it regularly ever since.

"Greatest thing in the world for business men," he said the other day. "It lifts you up mentally and physically and gets you by the zero hour that comes in every busy day. I do more work now from 3.30 to 5.00 than I used to do all afternoon."

COFFEE -the universal drink

After all, why not a mid-afternoon cup of Coffee? It helps you start the day right. Why not repeat on it along about three-thirty?

LEAGUE BASEBALL FOR DULUTH BEGINS TO LOOK

DULUTH MAY GET NEW BALL PARK; SITE IS PICKED

City Promoters Anxious to Form New Baseball League.

PLANS FOR BIG PLANT

Football, Horse Races and Hockey May Also Be Included.

By SANDY MACDONALD.

Falling in their efforts to complete negotiations with Victor Lamont for a lease on Athletic park, Minneapolis promoters who are set on establishing organized baseball in Duluth are now planning on buying a site in the western part of the city and building a ball plant of their own.

One site for the proposed park is the old St. Louis county fair grounds near Thirty-fourth avenue west and Third street, owned by the Wheeler estate. The tract contains twenty-five and one-half acres, is situated along the West Third street car line and is connected from both east and west by a modern paved road, forming the principal auto thoroughfare between the uptown section of the city and West Duluth.

While the original investment will represent a considerable outlay of money the property is of such character that it will always be valuable. The promoters are all big game men who have means to easily carry out their plans and objectives and only a baseball field but a football stadium, a quarter mile track for the local high school and grade school athletes and, perhaps, a half mile track for horse races. It is the intention to make the park the principal outdoor amusement place of Duluth and one that will be a lasting credit to the city.

The promoters were here last week conferring with Harry M. Wheeler, administrator of the Wheeler estate. They got full descriptions of the tract of land they are planning on buying, along with the price and went out to the site and spent over two hours walking over the land and making drafts.

It is planned to make the park the home of baseball, football, hockey and horse racing. Hurried drawings which have been penciled show stands that will accommodate approximately 1,000 people, a substantial fence around the entire grounds, clubhouses under the main stands, a grandstand, a building for the race track and other buildings. The sketch shows that the diamond and grandstand will be in the center of the race track and the grandstand on wheels so it can be moved out of the way when field sports are in progress.

Just what cities will make up the proposed baseball league are not yet decided. The idea is coming from headquarters names Duluth, Winnipeg, Superior, Grand Forks, Fargo and one in Minnesota and one in Western Canada are being considered and are being lined up as to population, railroads and other important features necessary to a successful baseball league.

If the deal for the Wheeler site goes through it will probably be closed up later in the month. Work will be started on getting the land in shape for early spring work.

Duluth has been out of organized baseball for several seasons and the fans all seem anxious for a return of the national pastime. All feeling sure that the sport can be made to pay here.

KEELYS TO PLAY HOSIER ELEVEN

St. Paul Ideals and Hibbing May Contest Here on Sunday.

By HEMLOCK PETERSON.

Duluth football fans who enjoyed the mighty contest between the Kelley-Duluth and the Minneapolis Marines played at Athletic park last Sunday will probably have the further pleasure of seeing those eleven in action here again on Nov. 12.

Negotiations for a return game were opened yesterday by Dewey Scanlon, manager of the Kelleys with John Dunn of Minneapolis, manager of the Marines. Mr. Scanlon said last evening that great progress had been made and that Dunn seemed favorable.

The Kelleys will leave here Saturday night for Gary, Ind., where they will play the Gary Elks on Sunday, according to Mr. Scanlon. He said that the Kelleys were anxious to play one big game away from home. Scanlon and Walter Gilbert, coach of the Kelleys, are well known in Duluth as a result of having attended Valparaiso university which is just a short distance from the well-known Indiana steel manufacturing center.

Just whether Duluth fans will see a game here next Sunday will be known today when Frank (Cub) La Joy returns from Hibbing, where he went last evening to confer with manager Scanlon of the Hibbing eleven. Hibbing and the St. Paul Ideals, the leading team of St. Paul, have been trying to get together all season but have failed. Hibbing refusing to go to St. Paul and the Ideals refusing to go to Hibbing.

There is intense rivalry between the teams as both are in the race for the Minnesota state championship. La Joy offers his services as mediator and thinks he will be able to bring Hibbing and St. Paul together here to settle their difficulties.

The manager of St. Paul Ideals has already agreed to meet Hibbing in Duluth and will hold the date open until this evening.

STAR HALFBACK WILL GRADUATE NEXT JUNE

Eddie Suech, halfback of Cathedral high school football team, is playing his last season on the gridiron for the Purple and Gold. Suech has proved one of the individual stars of Cathedral's victorious conference championship eleven this year, doing stellar work especially in the Superior Central and Duluth Central games. He also plays guard on Cathedral's basketball team and is looked upon to be a high point in the Purple and Gold grid to championship honors this winter. He will graduate in June.

YALE WOULD PLAY IOWA NEXT YEAR

Invitation Sent to Hawk-eyes for Another Inter-sectional Contest.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 1.—Definite announcement that Yale has invited Iowa to play at the Yale bowl next season was made here last night. An answer from Iowa is expected soon. This invitation indicates conclusively that inter-sectional games are not barred by "triangular agreements" made by Yale, Harvard and Princeton.

No definite date for a game was set, but Yale is expected to have the game about the same time as last year.

Prof. Clarence W. Mendell, chairman of the Yale board of athletic control, said last night: "We are very anxious to meet Iowa next year and are hoping that they will be able to accept the invitation. There have been reports that the Western conference placed last year in the Western conference, but we have received any confirmation of this, we are inviting Iowa to play us here again."

Iowa City, Iowa, Nov. 1.—In an interview last night, Athletic Director Howard Jones of Iowa university said that he has no objection to the invitation from Yale inviting Iowa to play at New Haven next fall.

The invitation to the Hawk-eye institution would take in regard to the invitation which is said to be in the hands of the board of athletic control. Jones is said to be willing to commit himself or his institution to any action, due to the fact that the Western conference placed last year in the Western conference, but we have received any confirmation of this, we are inviting Iowa to play us here again."

DENFELD HIGH TO TACKLE VIRGINIA

ON LATER'S GRID

West Duluth team going strong and should land victory.

CENTRAL HARD AT WORK

Red and White players will meet worthy foe in Superior.

By FIELD JUDGE.

Another game was cancelled yesterday when Coach "Bill" Monat of Denfeld high switched from Chisholm to Virginia high school eleven, the contest to be played at Virginia on Saturday. Monat is confident that his eleven will play Mountain high school at Athletic park a week from Saturday.

Two games are on tap for Duluth fandangos at Athletic park Saturday. The annual struggle between Superior Central and Duluth Central, the winner landing second place in the Head of Lakes conference, and the second game will be between Ashland high school and Cathedral high eleven, city and conference champions. The Superior-Duluth Central mix is scheduled to start at 1 o'clock sharp, and the second game of the day at 3 o'clock.

Denfeld is looking strong following its win over Superior high of Coleraine, Minn., last Friday, and is finishing the season in great fashion. All of the men came out in the Coleraine game in good condition and are spending long hours under Monat's supervision in preparation for the contest with Virginia. The range leads are rated as a fast, strong eleven, and the West Duluthians will have to extend themselves to hang up a win over the Iron Ore Diggers. Arrangements call for the Mountain and Duluth eleven to leave early Saturday morning and to return by the evening.

Coach H. Parks of Central is not letting the defeat suffered at the hands of Cathedral last Saturday put a damper on his eleven's game. He is busy with his men each evening putting them through hard scrimmages and long periods of practice. Parks hopes to build his eleven up during the week to put up a hard game against Superior Central, winding up one of the most successful seasons the Red and White have had for some time. Central won every game this year with the exception of the annual Cathedral contest, and tied Denfeld and Ironwood high teams, both strong eleven.

Parks is working Shay and Amundson with Owen in place of "Swede" Nelson, halfback, who has not as yet appeared for practice this week. Kelly, considered one of the best punters in the conference, is going in great style in practice, getting long kick, tackling and hitting. Kelly is being worked for during the scrimmaging with the second eleven each afternoon. Central's line is being worked hard by Parks, and will be in good condition to go against the heavy Superior Central line.

Superior has come through with the season of wins, only being beaten by Cathedral and Duluth Central. Coach Carson's men are all in good condition. The team is coming prepared with plenty of rosters and expect to return home with a lot of attention.

Pep meetings are to be held tomorrow and Friday at Duluth Central and the hundreds of students at the institution will warm up in preparation for the yell-fest in Superior Central Saturday.

Ashland high warriors are scheduled to arrive in the city Saturday morning for their contest with Cathedral at 3 o'clock, following the Duluth-Central-Superior Central fray. The Wisconsin team has a good record behind it this season and are confident that they will be returned to the top of the list. The Cathedral has not lessened work periods for his championship eleven, practice being more intensive each afternoon. The team will make a long trip to St. Cloud next week to tackle the St. Cloud team, and the future eleven, Central district champions of the state and winners over St. Paul and Duluth, considered the strongest eleven in the Twin City conference race.

A large crowd is expected to witness the last double-header bill of football that will be staged at Athletic park this season, judging from the advance sale of tickets. A crowd equal to last Saturday's is expected by those in charge.

Injury to Captain Is Sad Blow to Pitt, But Glenn Warner Is Hopeful

By NORMAN E. BROWN.

Glenn Warner's Pittsburgh Panthers started the present grid season with six of last year's stars missing. Then, the other day, Capt. Tom Holleran emerged from a play in the Lafayette game with a broken arm. But neither Warner nor the Pitt adherents are discouraged over the probable outcome of the season's schedule.

Coach Warner's ability to whip any team into a fighting, feared eleven is counted upon first of all to give Pitt at least a fair team. The fact that this is probably Warner's last year at the institution will no doubt spur the man who drove the Carleton Indian eleven to national fame on to the limit to finish his career at Pitt with at least a mediocre amount of success.

Pitt still faces Penn State, Washington and Jefferson, Bucknell and West Virginia. Warner and his cohorts hope to at least push these teams to the limit.

Anderson's greatest value is as a defensive back. For two years he has been one of the best players on the team in their efforts to snare through the line or skirt an end. Pitt still faces Penn State, Washington and Jefferson, Bucknell and West Virginia. Warner and his cohorts hope to at least push these teams to the limit.

GREAT CROWD TO SEE WISCONSIN PLAY MINNESOTA

Every seat is sold and extra pews are being installed.

GOPHERS HAVE EDGE

Minnesota Has Won 14 Out of 27 Games From Badgers.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 1.—Abramson and Cox, Gopher linemen, who were injured in the Minnesota-Northwestern game Oct. 21, were out for practice with the rest of the university football team here yesterday for the first time in more than a week.

Sorbus and freshmen were pitted against the varsity in yesterday's lively scrimmage—the first real workout in preparation for Wisconsin next Saturday. Every seat in the Wisconsin game has been sold and the demand for tickets continues to be so great that Ablesie Director is arranging for additional temporary seats.

Minnesota was fortunate Saturday in not having to uncover any of her pet plays against Ohio. The Gophers, after scoring 3 points, McCree's touchdown and Eklund's dropkick, played safe. The defense is reliable, but Spaulding hopes to speed up the offense.

The Gophers' drive from the 15-yard line goes down as one of the greatest drives made by a Maroon and Gold machine. On fourteen formations the Gophers crossed the line. MINNESOTA TEAM RANKS WITH BEST IN MIDDLE WEST

Walter Camp Places Gophers in Group With Michigan and Iowa.

SOUTH IS HARD HIT

Centre, Georgia Tech and Auburn All Meet With Defeats.

By WALTER CAMP.

(By Special League Wire to The Duluth Herald.)

New York, Nov. 1.—The football teams of the Middle West are rapidly being separated from the group of those which have found themselves and those which have merely found strong opposition. Michigan today is looking up more prominently than ever. Minnesota is coming strong and Iowa is getting back into its stride again.

Chicago has a good team—undoubtedly good. The Illinois boys lost the game with Princeton, mathematically, because they could not earn the possible extra points after touchdowns. But the deeper reason for their defeat lay in the fact that they did not realize how dangerous a Princeton team was apparently going down to defeat. Lack of this same knowledge of the "Tiger" characteristically undoubtedly cost Harvard her game with Princeton last year. Chicago is not likely to underestimate another opponent in like manner—at least not this year.

Knight Rockne at Notre Dame seems to be doing unexpectedly well in spite of the disruption of his last year's veterans which cost him practically all of his stars. His still finds, however, that he cannot take chances by trying to save out two or three of his backfield men. He was forced to shove them in last Saturday against Georgia Tech.

California is coming on as the leader out on the Pacific coast, but is not so strong as last year or the year before. Stanford is showing some improvement, but it looks like a pretty hopeless task to expect the Palo Alto warriors to defeat California. The end of the season is other teams in the Pacific coast conference playing good football, but it is not so good as last year. Smith's men.

The South certainly had its bumps in the defeat of Auburn by West Point, Centre by Harvard, and Georgia Tech by Notre Dame, but there is no mistake that Florida is going at it again undismayed and will come back in future years.

With an evening up process evidently going on in the standing of Penn State, Washington and Jefferson, Syracuse and Pittsburgh. Warner's players, after two defeats, have begun to get together. Syracuse did well against Penn State, and the end of the season is other teams in the Pacific coast conference playing good football, but it is not so good as last year. Smith's men.

ROD and LINE

FAST GROWING YOUNGSTERS.

In two years the average bass grows to about ten or twelve inches in length and weighs about a pound. After that time, with a good supply of food and plenty of range as well as enough luck to escape the many dangers of being grabbed off by a larger game fish for feed, he grows rapidly and packs on a pound of meat by the month.

The average family of a pair of basses run from 10,000 to 20,000 little fish. A small proportion of these ever live through the skirmishes and scraps among themselves and the forages of the larger fish, but enough do grow up to let us know the black bass still abounds when we put the lure in the right spot.

It doesn't take long for the young bass to learn that their brothers make delicious food; and they are regular cannibals in this respect. In a government hatchery, about 100,000 eggs are hatched in the spring; only about 30,000 were left after the young were removed in the fall for planting.

The majority of those that lived through the cannibal era weighed from two to three ounces, although 500 pushed the pointer up to around half a pound. In the future generations, they will and the future granddaddies of the water trails that keep the records for size well up and make a few lucky fishermen happy.

The average weight of the small-mouth runs from one and a half to two pounds, although some are as large as a case of "elephants" brought to gaff. The large-mouth averages about a pound more; the small-mouth, sometimes being caught up to seven and eight pounds.

GIBBONS PICKED TO BOX DEMPSEY

Champion Will Have to Fight for Limited Amount of Money.

By FAIR PLAY.

(By Special League Wire to The Duluth Herald.)

New York, Nov. 1.—Somewhere on the Western wilderness lurked today Jack Dempsey, vaudeville oil drum the writer learned today that a Gibbons-Dempsey fight is practically up to the champion to decide. Chairman Muldoon of the New York boxing commission, said, unofficially, that he believes it is to be a fight between the two.

Floyd Johnson, California heavyweight, is today a step nearer a whack at the title. It is Tuesday night when he pounced Joe Vidua into submission after one minute and fifty seconds of mauling in the second round of a scheduled twelve-round bout. The only credit Johnson got was an exhibition of cool ferocity in following up his wicked hammering to a knockout.

New Motorcycle Record.

New York, Nov. 1.—A new motorcycle record was set yesterday when a run from Los Angeles to New York was established last night. The number of speed miles, reached his destination in the actual running time of 8 days, 12 hours and 12 minutes. His time was seven hours and thirty-nine minutes faster than the record established a month ago by Erwin G. "Cannonball" Baker of Los Angeles, who covered the distance of 3,286 miles in 8 days, 22 hours and 52 minutes. Bennett, who also holds the world's 24-hour and 1,000-mile records, left Los Angeles last Tuesday at midnight and crossed the finish line at 8:14 p. m. yesterday.

TWIN CITY TEAMS WILL NOT GIVE CATHEDRAL HIGH CHANCE TO SHOW

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—C. C. Tapp, director of athletics at St. Paul, Minn., schools, last night denied a report that he had been selected by Duluth officials to arrange a state championship football game between Cathedral and Ashland. Tapp said that he had recommended Mechanic Arts as an opponent, but that his services ended there.

Last Saturday, after Cathedral's high had taken Duluth Central into camp, the Duluth author-ities discussed with Mr. Tapp the possibility of a Cathedral-Mechanic Arts game. Tapp said that he had recommended Mechanic Arts as an opponent, but that his services ended there.

GIRL FOOTBALL TEAMS IN "WICKED" BATTLE

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 1.—Flying tackles, long runs and forward passes featured the hair-raising football battle between the "Vikings" and the "Danes" of George Peabody college for teachers yesterday.

These are usual happenings in gridiron contests, but the opposing elevens in this instance were girls. Twenty-one football players recruited from the more daring students bucked the line, ran the ends and kicked with all the abandon of men.

The "Vikings" triumphed yesterday by a score of 7 to 0. Miss Virginia Berger crossing the line after a run of twenty-two yards and dragging a number of tackles with her. The ball stayed in the center of the field for the greater part of the game. The Peabody girls claim the football championship of the "universe among the fair sex."

TWO GOPHER COLLEGE ELEVEN UNDEFEATED

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 1.—The Minnesota College conference situation was clarified somewhat last Saturday, when St. Olaf eliminated Carleton in a brilliant 18-0 victory. Carleton went into the game a favorite, but St. Olaf took advantage of every chance to score and made the breaks of the game count.

St. Thomas raised its stock several points by winning from the strong University of North Dakota team, 4 to 0. The St. Paul college showed a strong defense after putting over the winning mark.

With the exception of St. Thomas and St. Olaf, all teams in the Minnesota College conference have suffered one defeat. Macalester was eliminated last Friday by Hamline in a 47-0 defeat. Hamline was defeated by St. Thomas, 6 to 2, the previous week. St. John's has been unfortunate this season and has not won a conference game.

Carleton meets Macalester Saturday at Northfield, Indigations are that Carleton will win without difficulty. Gustavus Adolphus will come to St. Paul for the annual game against St. Thomas. Last week was an off Saturday in the Gustavus schedule and the players devoted their time to building up a defense they hope will prove strong enough to hold the St. Thomas attack. On the strength of the win over Hamline and North Dakota, St. Thomas is favored to win by a considerable margin.

Hamline has an open date. St. Olaf meets Luther college from Decorah, Iowa, at Northfield Monday.

HAWKING MAY ATTEND GAME

Washington, Nov. 1.—President Harding is expected by navy department officials to be on the sidelines when the football teams of the navy academy and West Point meet Nov. 26 at Philadelphia in their annual game. Secretary Denby said yesterday he had urged the president to attend the game and that the president looked with favor on the proposal, final decision being dependent on the condition of Mrs. Harding.

Joe Vidua Knocked Out.

New York, Nov. 1.—Floyd Johnson, San Francisco heavyweight, last night knocked out Joe Vidua of Philadelphia in the second round of a ten-round match. Johnson outclassed his opponent from the start and landed the finishing blow after a minute and fifty seconds of the second round had elapsed. Both men entered the ring weighing 195 pounds.

Gentlemanly conduct of dwarf college team has made everything look for plebsin ptoecacy. It means Harvard, Yale and Princeton can't get their world series without a large share of the prize money. Small teams strictly following lyrics of the dope also helps to get spectators more freely, and that's what football experts need the air. Not to overlook big supply of gas.

WROTE HUSBAND FOR YEAR AS UNKNOWN. Oakland, Nov. 1.—How she and her husband of 23 years ago responded with each other for nearly a year while living under the same roof, without the husband discovering she was the author of the letters he received, was described in court here by Mrs. J. Franklin Moore, wife of a dentist, who is seeking a divorce.

NEW ISSUE. $1,500,000 Geo. A. Hormel & Company (Austin, Minnesota)
First Mortgage 6 1/2% Serial Gold Bonds (Closed Mortgage)

Business—
The business of Geo. A. Hormel & Company, established at Austin, Minnesota, in 1892, is recognized as one of the most successful in the pork packing industry.

Security—
These bonds are secured by a closed first mortgage upon all the Company's properties (real estate, buildings and equipment) including also either first mortgages upon branch houses or deposit of stock of subsidiary branch corporations.

Earnings—
Geo. A. Hormel & Company shows a highly satisfactory earnings record throughout its entire history. For the past ten years the average net annual earnings applicable to interest have been $345,487, or 3 1/2 times interest requirements on this bond issue.

Trust Deed Provisions—
The Trust Deed provides that net quick assets of at least $1,000,000 shall be maintained throughout the life of this issue and that no dividends on Common Stock shall be declared or money expended for permanent improvements where such expenditures will decrease the net quick assets to less than the amount of bonds outstanding.

SHALL KELLOGG OR SHIPSTEAD BE NEXT MINNESOTA SENATOR?

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 1.—Charles F. Adams, chairman of the Republican state central committee, has issued the following statement to the voters of Minnesota today: "The question before the people of Minnesota today is: Shall Henrik Shipstead or Frank B. Kellogg represent the state in the United States senate?"

CLAIMS ISOLATION POLICY PREVENTS U. S. PROSPERITY

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 1.—In this section of the foreign market which is short of the surplus of American industrial and agricultural production and makes for prosperity because of the collapse of foreign exchange due to the United States governmental policy of isolation was assigned as the reason for economic depression in the United States, which started early in 1921, in an address by former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio here last night.

Visits for Adequate Army.

New York, Nov. 1.—Support of President Harding's desire for an adequate army and navy, not below their present strength, was voiced last night by the veterans of Foreign Wars in a statement issued through the national commander-in-chief, Col. J. L. Houston. The organization also expressed approval of Secretary of War Weeks' plan for additional non-commissioned officers needed for national guard instruction and demanded adequate appropriations for citizens' training camps, the reserve corps and the National Guard.

To Question Widow On Poisoned Cake

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—Mrs. W. W. Sterratt will be questioned further by authorities regarding her movements on the night before the poisoned cake, which caused the death of her husband, an expert accountant of Duluth, on her own serious illness, was received.

Coroner William Neville of Montgomery County said there were many points regarding the sending and receiving of the death cake which are not clear.

"I feel certain that information which would solve the case is being withheld," said the coroner. "Defendant, O. H. Williamson, chief postal inspector, has arrived to take charge of the Federal end of the case."

Lloyd George Gets Gate for Seven Years' Tough Labor Currying British Lion—That's What They All Get, Sooner or After.

By Neal R. O'Hara

Copyright, 1932.

With decline and crash of Lloyd George, last big gun of World War had been fired. After leaping for seven years in front of bottle hounds, Welsh rabbit has struck resignation on dotted line. It proves that no job is permanent in British empire except tourist agent to prince of Wales.

Lloyd George was good guy when he had it. He was even good guy when they had him. But constant shooting that has done the fox just like constant dripping wears away a congressman's head. And seven years is a long term, whether you're premier or expert forger.

Lloyd George kept government machinery clogging in bilgewater of monkey wrenches. In politics, in trouble and in half hour of need, he was a shifter. That boy made pea under bunco agent's shell look like permanent vegetable. He was so slippery his valet wore sandpaper mittens. And so shifty he pronounced on fresh eggs without cracking 'em under the strain.

An linguist, ex-prem talked English and turkey. But talking turkey is patois all diplomats arc hep to. To make long obituary short and snappy, the kid was clever, to say the very minimum it will take England a trouthead of leap years to sub-least 10 Downing street to smart tenant like L. G.

It was a tough war for lot of high-powered necks. Clear Nicky rot gatekeeper before war worked itself to a froth. Kaiser goose-hopped to Holland address as part of program for safety week. And what was sauce for goose-supper was also sauce for goose. Crown prince followed in ten seconds flat. Thromas were shimmying all over Europe. Kinks didn't have to study telegraph language to know that war had spilled the tacks on royal seat cushions. King of Greece did nimble fadeout, and gang of kinks in Balkan states, too numerous to mention, up and swallowed exit powder while swallowing was good.

A lot of good guys have romped back to private life and income taxes since rag of France was waved in 1918. Clemenceau went from national tiger to parlor rig, Orlando shrank from macaroni statesman to citizen built on spaghetti lines. Wilson turned over note paper to Republican administration and let Harding be boss of stationary government. It's been a stationary ever since.

Now Lloyd George proves truth of old conundrum that the longer they last the rougher they're tumbled. They rocked L. G. for row of un-buckled safety pins. With one sock of gavel, they played xylophone ballad entitled "Don't Be in a Hurry, But Here's Your Hat." That's what you call tough medicine.

After playing the fox in every four, par pulled off in Europe, since playing the Eel in "Il Provatore" for seven years, they hand the grand old acrobat the hook and the hat that's hanging on it. It sounds like fairy tale of the tin can that want to the hotbrau ones too often. In the end, the can cracked under the strain and they tied it to one of the thirteenth customers the hotbrau ever had.

But such is gratitude of politics. It is game where buy has strange bedfellow—sometimes. And other times he gets chucked out in cold with blanket indictment and sheet of resolutions for bedclothes to keep him warm.

BUDDHA.
The history of Asia has largely been molded by the advent and effect of Buddhism. Hundreds of millions of people have been made happier and more peaceful and restrained by the observance of its kindly tenets. Yet it was a simple accident that crystallized the thoughts of a man and making him see the emptiness of his life led him to devote his life to seeking truths that might make men more contented and thus to found a great religion of Hinduism.

This man, Gautama, was born about 600 B. C. in Northern India. His family ran a small state and his life for about thirty years was the usual humdrum existence of those of noble birth. His education consisted simply of committing to memory certain religious traditions. There was no intellectual life. The only occupation was hunting, while to enjoy the diversions of city life necessitated a journey of several days before the nearest town was reached. He was married while still young and had a son upon whom he sought to pour the best of his knowledge.

Yet in the midst of this complete gratification of every wish that man could desire he began to feel dissatisfaction. He felt that urge to action which is in all of us. He felt that he could find it to the character, who evidently was in a philosophic mood. "Such is the way of life; to that we must all come," he said, and Gautama shuddered. Next they chanced upon a man loathsome and rotten with a terrible disease. With imagination still alive from the first encounter the prince again turned to Channa and received the same answer, "Such is life; to that we must all come."

And then they found an unbathed body, purged, torn by birds and beasts. Unbathed this time, Channa repeated himself, "Such is the way of life." Then with his mind still filled with the moral of these sights and with the realization of the purposeless and useless life he was leading, Gautama came upon one of those wandering ascetics that even then existed in India and who were supposed to be seeking for the real truths of life. That night at home they made a great feast for Gautama. But looking around him with his new-found thoughts in his mind he saw nothing but disgusting excesses, and he was possessed with a feeling and a great desire to be rid of it all, and to become like the ascetic he had seen that day.

He stole away that same night with heavy heart, for he loved his family. The remainder of his life he spent searching for truth and with his disciples teaching all who would learn the knowledge he had acquired, becoming known throughout the world as a Buddha, a godly spirit incarnated that he might teach men.

Having reached manhood and apparently settled down to the occupation of living out a life of monstrous happiness, Gautama one day went out driving with his chariot, Channa. Perhaps all he wanted to do was to pass the time away, but really he was on his way to change the history of mankind.

Suddenly they went past a cripple whose broken body and distorted limbs aroused the prince's pity. He spoke of it to the chariot, who evidently was in a philosophic mood. "Such is the way of life; to that we must all come," he said, and Gautama shuddered. Next they chanced upon a man loathsome and rotten with a terrible disease. Fred Fernot on a Desert Island. Some a desert island. Fred Fernot. Well, I've always longed to be shipwrecked on a desert island and now I have and here I am. Alone at last. O wizz! so far away from land I can't even see the horizon. Good nite, whose this guy. I wonder. Mr. Jones. My name's Smith. I'm glad to meet you.

Fred Fernot. That's more than I can say about you. I know I was on a desert island and here you are. Mr. Smith. My name's Smith. Suit to for short. I was shipwrecked here one day last week. I had as much rice to be as you had. O, heers Mr. Jones. We call him Jonesy. Meet Mr. Jones.

Fred Fernot. Why should I? This is a heap of a desert island. Is there any more beer besides you?

Mr. Jones. O, about 2,000, and more gets shipwrecked every day. That's J came down to the beach for, to see who got shipwrecked today.

Mr. Smith. That's what I came down for. These generally about 12 or 15. It wasn't hardly worth coming down just to look at you.

Mr. Jones. A lot of the folks here like it so much they wouldn't leave if a ship came to rescue them, any more ever does. All ships do around here is get wrecked.

Fred Fernot. I'm going to swim back. So long.

Mr. Jones. O, swim to him swimming out in the ocean before his clothes are even dry.

Fred Fernot. I'm going to swim back. I either want a real desert island or none at all, that's my motto. Good-by and fare well.

THINGS FOR BOYS TO MAKE

Doll Table.
There is no need of little sister being without doll tables, chairs, beds, etc., when such a variety of furniture may be made of simple clear boxes. Always keep the plain wood on the outside so that none of the lettering on the original boxes will show.

Table "A" shown in the sketch above, may be made from two long clear boxes. Take the boxes apart and scrape or sandpaper all the lining paper from the wood. Then nail one box together in such a way that nothing but the plain wood shows on the outside, just as though the box were turned upside down. Make the table legs from the wood of one box by nailing the pieces to the inside of the corners as shown in Diagram "B". When the box is varnished it will delight any little girl who likes dolls.

Tomorrow a larger doll table will be shown. LE ROY CRIGLER

AFTER DINNER TRICKS

The Balancing Cork.
An ordinary cork is dropped on the table, where it immediately stands on end. When spectators attempt to duplicate the feat they find themselves unable to do so.

The secret depends partly upon the manner of holding the cork and partly upon practice. The cork must be held horizontally, and only a few inches from the table. With a little experiment it will bounce just enough from the force of the fall to stand upon its end. The spectators invariably hold the cork end downward, and hence are doomed to failure. In doing the trick always hold the cork well hidden by the fingers, so that no one can observe its position.
