

1
Thursday, 22 July, 1858.

Dear Garrison,

90 I send you a letter from Smith, just received. You will see that my last, intended to make him more placable, only made him more angry. I am sorry ~~that~~ my efforts with him have been so fruitless. He is very bitter toward you. I am not ashamed of my part of the correspondence, which of course ends here.

Please return this letter of Smith promptly, and oblige

Yours, faithfully,

Oliver Johnson

6.8
N.Y. - July 22, 1856.