Wings Aloft
LUBBOCK ARMY AIR FIELD
LUBBOCK, TEXAS

Our long road of hard work, worry and honest prayer has ended only to begin again this time with other lives as well as our own at stake. We go forth now to destroy the thing that seeks to destroy our country and all that it stands for. Many who started on that road are not with us to-day. Some have had their hopes smashed with the realization they could not fly. Others have paid with their lives so that we and thousands more may achieve that final goal VICTORY Therefore to ALL of 44.F we dedicate this book . . .

HEADQUARTERS
ARMY AIR FORCES
LUBBOCK ARMY AIR FIELD
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER

LUBBOCK, TEXAS

June 27, 1944

• TO THE GRADUATES OF CLASS 44-F:

Congratulations to you upon the completion of one job well done,—the winning of your wings. You have earned them through your efforts.

I now urge you to redouble your individual efforts to complete our mission,—the winning of this War.

Good hunting, good luck, and happy landings!
