CHASE J. NIELSEN

called as a witness on behalf of the Prosecution, being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (p. 39)

* * * * *

Q How serious were the injuries of Lieutenant Hallmark and Lieutenant Meder?
A Well they were so bad they couldn't walk--that is, walk well. They were pretty crippled up.

Q On what date were you captured, Captain?
A We were taken over by the Japs on April 21st.

Q What did the Japanese do with you after they captured you?
A Well we were loaded in coolie chairs and taken to the Japanese garrison.

(At this point Sgt. Morosumi took over the interpretations and relieved Sgt. Arita.)

Q After that happened what did the Japanese do?
A We were transferred from there by boat up to Shanghai.

Q How were you treated when they took you to Shanghai?
A Well, our trip up by boat, three of us were kept in one small room. We were handcuffed and tied by the elbows and tied tight enough to cut off the circulation.

Q How long were you kept bound in that fashion?
A We were that way while we were transferred from one place to another but while we were on the boat our arms weren't tied although we were handcuffed and at night the three of us had our legs cuffed together.

Q How many days did it take you to arrive at your next destination?
A Well we were about four days coming up the coast from where the Japs picked us up until we came to Shanghai.

Q Where did the Japs take you when you came to Shanghai?
A Well I think we were taken out to the airport.

Q Had Lieutenant Hallmark's and Lieutenant Meder's injuries been treated up to that time?
A No, they had not. (pp. 50-51)

* * * * *

Q What treatment was given to you by the questioners at the airfield?
A Well, through the questioning, when I wouldn't answer any questions I was slapped and kicked around.

Q Explain to the Commission where you were slapped?
A I was slapped around the face and head very severely.

Q Who slapped you?
A Four of the Japanese guards that took me from the prison into the building.

Q You stated that you were kicked, where were you kicked - what part of your body?
A I was kicked on the shins.

Q Who kicked you?
A These same Japanese guards.

Q How hard did they kick you?
A Hard enough that I still have the scars today.

Q Captain Nielsen, would you stand out in front of the bench and show the Commission any scars that you have on your leg from the kicking?
A I certainly will.

(The witness showed the scars on his leg to the Commission.)

Q What questions would they ask you when they were giving you this physical treatment?
A They more or less wanted to find out where we came from.

Q What questions did they ask you I said?
A Well, where I had come from, if I was Army personnel, and what I was doing in China.

Q How many times would you estimate you were slapped on the head?
A At least 20 or 30 times.

Q Were you bound during this time?
A My hands were behind the chair and my legs were tied to the chair legs.

Q How hard were you slapped?
A Hard enough to make my head ring severely.

Q Did the questioners threaten you with any other treatment while you were being questioned?
A Yes, I was given several different types of torture.

Q Did the questioners tell you they would do anything to you if you did not answer the questions?
A Well, they said that we were captured and no one in America would know where we were and if anything happened to us we would just be listed as missing in action.

Q During this treatment did you answer their questions?
A All I gave them was my name, rank and serial number.

Q What other physical treatment was administered to you at that time?
A Well, I was given what they call the water cure.

Q Explain to the Commission what that was?
A Well, I was put on my back on the floor with my arms and legs stretched out, one guard holding each limb. The towel was wrapped around my face and put across my face and water was poured on. They poured water on this towel until I was almost unconscious from strangulation, then they would let up until I'd get my breath, then they'd start over again.

Q When you regained consciousness would they keep asking you questions?
A Yes, sir, they did.

Q How long did this treatment continue?
A About twenty minutes.

Q What was your sensation when they were pouring water on the towel, what did you physically feel?
A Well, I felt more or less like I was drowning, just gasping between life and death.

Q During the administration of this treatment did you answer their questions?
A No, I did not.

Q What further mistreatment was administered to you while this questioning was going on?
A Well, the guards then brought in a large bamboo pole about three inches in diameter, this was placed directly behind my knees, I was made to squat on the floor in this position (indicating squatting position) like a kneel.

PROSECUTOR: For the purpose of the record, I will describe the position the captain demonstrated as a squatting position.

Q Continue with your explanation.
A One guard had ahold of each of my arms, one other guard then placed his foot on my thigh and would jump up and down causing severe pain in your knees.

Q Explain to the Commission just the sensations you felt from this treatment?
A Well, it felt like my joints were coming apart but after about five minutes of that my knees were so numb I couldn't feel anything else.

Q During this time did the Japanese keep on questioning you?
A Yes, sir, they did.

Q What answers did you give them to their questions?
A I told them I had given them all the information I had--my name, rank and serial number.

Q How long did this treatment last with the bamboo pole behind your knees?
A This lasted about fifteen or twenty minutes.

Q Do you know what happened to the other two members of your crew who were with you?
A I didn't know at the time but talking to them later I found out they were given similar treatment. Hallmark said they put him on a stretcher and stretched him out until he felt like his limbs were coming apart.

Q Were any other threats made to you during the questioning?
A Well, by that time it was almost sundown. They said, if I won't talk they would take me out and I would be executed.

Q What else did they tell you? What did they tell you?
A I was then blindfolded and taken out.

Q Then what happened?
A Well, the pain in my legs I could hardly walk so one guard took ahold of me under each arm and we marched about three or four hundred feet down a gravel path.

Q What happened while you were marched down the gravel path?
A I was blindfolded, I couldn't see, but I could hear different groups of Japanese soldiers marching around in the area, they were drilling.

Q What else was said while you were marching there in the area?
A Well, after marching about 400 feet we stopped and as one of these squads marched up, they also stopped by us.

Q What was said or done at that time?
A Well, as they stopped I could hear the rifle butts hit the ground and I thought this was execution.

Q Then what happened?
A Well, after a short conference between several of the officers that was with me and whoever was marching the squad, the interpreter came back and he said, "We are Knights of the Bushido of the Order of the Rising Sun; we don't execute at sundown; we execute at sunrise."

Q And then what happened?
A Well, I was taken back to my cell and the interpreter said unless I had decided to talk by morning I would be executed by sunrise.

Q Did anything happen to you while you were in your cell?
A Well, the blindfold was taken off but I still kept the handcuffs.

Q What else happened, if anything?
A Well, I was given several vegetable sandwiches and a cup of coffee.

Q Did anything else happen to you there in your cell?
A One of the guards that had been in the room with me before, administering this punishment, came back out and there was a peg in the wall and I was suspended by my handcuffs from that peg so my toes would just barely touch the floor.

Q How long were you left suspended in that position?
A Well, that was about seven o'clock at night when I was suspended from the wall. After about three hours I lost conscicusness. The next thing I could remember, the sun was just coming up and the guards were taking me down from the wall.

Q Did the Japanese ask you any questions when they took you down from the wall?
A I was not asked any questions.

Q What was your physical condition when they took you down from the wall?
A Well, my legs were still in great pain from the treatment the night before and when I let my arms down I thought they were both going to drop off.

Q What other sensations did you have that you can explain to the court?
A Well, from hanging up all night my arms were numb, my shoulders were numb, I was numb clear to the waist.

Q Were you able to stand up after they took you down from the wall?
A I was able to stand all right.

Q What kind of furnishings were in that cell?
A Two old dirty ragged blankets that were infested with all the vermins there is in China; latrine facilities was an open hole in the corner, had no lid on it, and the stench that came out of it was enough to put you to sleep.

Q From the kicking that the guards administered to you were there any open sores on your legs?
A Yes, sir, I had three open sores.

Q Was any medical attention given to your sores on your legs?
A No, no medical attention was given them.

Q Do you know what treatment the other boys received during that night?
A Well, I don't think they were molested during the night although they did receive about the same punishment I did in the afternoon.

Q You stated that Lt. Hallmark told you he had been given the stretcher treatment. Could you explain that to the Commission?
A From what he said, it was some sort of a mechanism that they put ropes around his wrists and around his ankles and it was operated with some sort of a lever but every time they move the lever this thing would stretch out. (pp: 54-57)

* * * * *

Q What date was that, Captain Nielsen, if you remember when you arrived in Tokyo?
A We arrived in Tokyo about seven o'clock in the evening, April 25, 1942.

Q Had you been permitted to shave or change your clothing or wash since the time you were captured by the Japanese?
A No, sir.

Q What condition was your clothing in at that time?
A They weren't in very good condition. Some of them were torn up in the plane wreck, after our swim in the ocean we were all muddy and dirty.

Q Had you picked up any vermin or lice while you were being held by the Japanese?
A Yes, sir, we had.

Q Were you kept bound and handcuffed during the trip into Tokyo?
A We were blindfolded before we left Shanghai and we wore our handcuffs and were tied and continued to wear the blindfold until we were inside the military police headquarters.

Q What was done with you after you arrived at the military police headquarters?
A We were put in solitary confinement, and about 15 minutes we were taken out and started to be questioned again. (p. 58)

* * * * *

Q I believe the question was, Were you mistreated on the first night in Tokyo?
A Yes, I was.

Q What happened to you during this mistreatment?
A I was slapped about the head and face and kicked on the legs.

Q Were you bound in any way?
A Yes, my hands were kept behind the chair and my feet were tied to the legs.

Q How many persons took part in the questioning of you?
A Oh, there were three guards, one interpreter, and two reporters.

Q Where did they kick you and where did they slap you?
A Slapped me about the face and head, and kicked me on the shins.

Q How hard did they kick you and how hard did they slap you?
A They slapped me hard enough to start my head aching and they kicked me on the shins drawing blood and reopening the wounds that I received in Shanghai the day before.

Q What type of questions did they sk you?
A They asked me where I had come from, if I had combed Tokyo the previous week, if I had been stationed in China or in the Philippine Islands, and if I was American Army personnel.

Q How long did this questioning continue that first night?
A This questioning continued until four o'clock in the morning.

Q During all that period did they continue to mistreat you?
A I was slapped and kicked around nearly all the time.

Q Do you know what treatment was given to the other boys that were in your airplane?
A I found out later they received the same sort of treatment. (p. 60)

* * * * *

Q During that 18 days of questioning were you allowed to take a bath or shave?
A No, sir.

Q At the conclusion of the 18 days of questioning did you sign any papers?
A Yes, sir, I signed papers.

Q What papers did you sign and what did they consist of?
A Well, they were written in Japanese but they were interpreted.

Q What did the interpreter say the papers read?
A Well, about three weeks after we had bombed Tokyo I was shown maps and charts that the Japs had picked up from one of our airplanes that had been abandoned, evidently that was the only place they had any information, and through our questioning, after they picked up these maps and charts we confessed to bombing Tokyo, told them the areas we had bombed and confessed of leaving an aircraft carrier. Other than that, a small sketch of our life's history--where we went to school, where we had our army training, that was all it consisted of.

Q When these statements were read back to you did they state you had admitted you bombed schools and churches?
A No, sir, they did not.

Q What targets did the statements say you had bombed?
A Well, the way the statement was interpreted to me was that I had bombed steel mills in the northeast area of Tokyo at the edge of a bay.

Q Did you sign the statement?
A At first I refused, but after being threatened, I signed it.

Q How were you threatened?
A Well, from previous treatment we knew what would happen to us if we did not sign.

Q Were you given a copy of the statement that you signed?
A No, sir, I was given no statement.

Q Do you know whether or not the other men that were with you signed statements?
A Yes, sir, all the men signed after being put under the same threat.

Q Do you know what their statement consisted of?
A From what they said at a later date their statement contained almost the same thing as mine, other than Farrow's crew which had bombed down at Nagoya.

Q Were you kept in solitary confinement during your time in Tokyo?
A We were kept in solitary confinement up until the last two weeks, then Farrow and I were placed in the same cell and the other boys were doubled up in cells.

Q How long were you kept in Tokyo?
A We were in Tokyo from April 25 to June 17, 1942. (pp. 61-62)

A No, sir, I had not.

A No, sir, all the while we were in our cells we wore leg cuffs; we couldn't get our clothing off.

Q Were you given any medical treatment?
A None whatever.

Q Where did they take you after you left Tokyo?
A We were put aboard the train to Nagoya and from Nagoya to Shanghai by boat. (pp. 62-63)

A Well, as soon as we arrived at Shanghai we were loaded on the truck and taken down to the Bridge House. (p. 63)

* * * * * *

Q What happened to you at Bridge House?
A We were taken in and eight of us were put in a cell with fifteen other people. They were Chinese, Japanese, Jews, Dutch, French, every nationality there is in Shanghai.

Q What was the condition of the men when they got back to Shanghai - their physical condition?
A We were all quite weak, we lost quite a bit of weight; we were able to get around on our own power.

Q Explain to the Commission the condition of this cell that you were put in at Bridge House?
A This cell was approximately 12 feet deep and about 15 feet wide. There were already 15 people in there when we came in, making 23 in total. The latrine facilities was an open box in the corner. (p. 63)

Q What furniture was in the cell you had at Bridge House?
A No furniture at all. We were forced to sleep on the wood floor without any blankets.

Q How long were you held at the Bridge House?
A We were held at the Bridge House for 70 days.

Q During this period were you allowed to bathe or shave?
A No, sir, we were not.

Q What were you given to eat while you were at the Bridge House?
A At the Bridge House we'd get about a pint of conji, watery rice, for breakfast, four ounces of bread at lunchtime and four ounces of bread at night. We were given maybe as much as two quarts of water for the eight of us in the entire day.

Q What was the physical condition of the men at the end of the stay in Bridge House?
A At the end of our stay at Bridge House 7 of us were able to move around and that was about all. Lt. Hallmark was sick and had to be helped continuously and he had been that way for approximately 10 days. (p. 64)

* * * * *

Q What was the physical condition of the men that were taken before the court?
A Lt. Hallmark was taken in on a stretcher. The rest of us were on our feet but we were in a pretty weak condition.

Q What else transpired at the court martial room?
A After we had made our statements as to our education and air corps training, one of the court tribunal stood up, read a manuscript in Japanese.

Q Was that manuscript interpreted to you in English?
A I asked the interpreter to interpret it. He asked permission from the court tribunal and it was denied.

A No other statements were made.

Q Do you know the names of the eight fliers who were brought before the court martial?
A Yes, sir, I know the names of the other fliers.

Q Tell the court the names of the fliers who were brought before this court?
A Lt. Farrow, Lt. Hite, Lt. Barr, Lt. Hallmark, Lt. Meder, Sergeant Spatz, Sergeant DeShazer and myself.

A There were no witnesses.

Q Were you ever served any charges or advised of the charges against you?
A No, sir, we were not.

Q Do you know whether any of the other fliers were advised of the charges under which they were tried?
A At that trial no one was advised.

Q Were the proceedings interpreted to you in English?
A Nothing was interpreted in English.

Q Was Lt. Hallmark able to sit up in the court room?
A No. Lt. Hallmark was lying on a stretcher. I doubt if he ever know was was going on, and Lt. Barr was so weak they finally had to get a chair for him to sit in.

Q At this trial did you see any of the statements that you had signed in Japan?
A No, sir, I never did see those statements again.

Q When you were brought before that court martial, were you given an opportunity to plead guilty or not guilty?
A No, sir, we were not. As a matter of fact, we didn't even know it was a court martial.

Q When they brought you before the tribunal, were you bound in any way?
A No, we weren't bound but there were about 20 armed guards in the building or right outside.

Q At this hearing did you or any of the other fliers admit that you had bombed schools, churches or civilians in the raid on Japan?
A No, sir, we did not. Nothing was said about the bombing of Japan.

HATA Rebuttal

9. IPS Doc. No. 3349-B.

In regard to the trial of the Doolittle fliers in China, MIYANO was asked on cross-examination (R. 28,904) the following question:

"Did General HATA request the prosecutor of the 13th Army to ask for the death sentence for these fliers?"

He replied:

"I do not know."

He was then questioned concerning his testimony given at the SAWADA trial in Shanghai in which the defendants were tried with the unlawful trial and punishment of the Doolittle fliers. He was asked especially if he did not testify in the SAWADA trial at Shanghai as follows:

"'Q Did Nanking issue any orders to the 13th Army in regard to the treatment of the fliers?

"'A I do not remember.

"'Q Was the trial of the Doolittle fliers ordered by General HATA to be tried at Shanghai?

"'A Yes.

"'Q Did you mean by your previous answer that HATA requested the 13th Army prosecutor to ask for the death penalty?

"'A He requested so.

"'Q (To Interpreter) Will you interpret that answer

again?

"'Interpreter: He said "He requested so."

"'Q That the sentence be executed?

"'A He requested so.

"'Q Doe he mean that the General requested so?

"'A Yes, HATA.

"'Q Did General HATA request the prosecutor of the 13th Army to ask for the death sentence?

"'A He requested the death sentence.'"

He denied substantialy that he had testified to that effect, and at R. 28,914 he admitted that he was asked the questions above quoted but denied that he made the answers above quoted.

In rebuttal of this testimony of MIYANO before this Tribunal, we offer in evidence IPS Document No. 3349-B, an excerpt from the testimony of MIYANO given in the trial of the U. S. vs. Shigeru SAWADA and others before the Military Commission convened by the Commanding General, U. S. Army Forces, China, at Shanghai in 1946.
