Joseph Cohen, author and lecturer, will speak at the Community Club meeting, Tuesday afternoon, February 19, on Russia and the causes affecting the recent revolution. Of Russian descent, Mr. Cohen has a rare acquaintanceship with Russian history and politics, which should make his talk particularly instructive and interesting, especially now when Russian affairs are of primary importance to the whole world and where newspaper reports are so conflicting as to make it almost impossible for the average person to understand Russia's development.

HELP PAY FOR THE Y. M. C. A. PIANO

In these war times one's endeavors are occasionally directed to some home improvement which "Will Keep The Home Fires Burning." The Y. M. C. A. piano was much needed, and is now in place giving pleasure to those of our townspeople who use the Community Room.

A motion picture benefit is to be given at the Arcade Theatre on Thursday, Feb. 28th, both afternoon and evening, to help pay for this piano.

The afternoon performance at 3.15—Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island was procured especially to please the children. It is a first-class film produced by the Fox Film Company with the same children who participated in Jack and the Beanstalk in the various roles. Parents may feel free to send their children unaccompanied, as chaperons will be in charge of the afternoon performance.

The evening performances at 7 and 9, include "Betty Takes A Hand" and "In Wrong Right." Betty Takes A Hand is a comedy drama produced by the Triangle Film Company, and additional interest is given to this photoplay by reason of the fact that One Thousand Dollars was given for the story on which the play is built in a competitive contest. It is a high class comedy drama well worth seeing.

In Wrong Right is a movie which produces much laughter and, a good laugh always does one good.

Remember the date and place, Feb. 28th, at 3.15, 7 and 9.

LOCAL FOLKS ENJOY MISS WRIGHT'S RECITAL

A good sized audience enjoyed Miss Gertrude Wright's concert last Thursday night in Elm Hall.

Miss Wright was heard first in the popular "Mon Coeur S'Ouvre a Ta Voix," from the opera of "Samson and Delilah," and later in another favorite "Phyllis Has Such Charming Graces." She was also heard in two other numbers, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," in duet with Mr. Piotr Wizla, and, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," in a trio with Miss Wizla and Mr. Bernard Poland.

Messrs. Wizla and Poland were also heard in several solos and duets, and Mrs. Eleanor L. Armiger recited.

The audience was generous in applause and the performers were equally obliging in responding with encores.

THE RED CROSS

Main Line Branch Moves to New Quarters at Bryn Mawr

Main Line Branch No. 1, of the American Red Cross, have moved to new headquarters in the Lancaster Inn Annex, which has been most generously donated to the branch by Mr. John S. Clarke. It was with great regret the branch was obliged to move from the Lancaster pike, but owing to the tremendous growth of the work it was found necessary to find larger quarters. Through donations the annex has been splendidly equipped to carry on every branch of Red Cross work.

There are activities of all kinds going on every day and evening, which they were unable to have before, owing to limited amount of space. The branch hopes that the people of the community will give them strong support and help to carry on the splendid work which the branch has the reputation for. Everyone is most welcome at any time and workers are urgently needed. The committee wish to thank most heartily all those who have their services in helping with the moving on Saturday and Monday.

The final result of the Christmas membership drive amounted to 10,000 new members and 700 renewals.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Clement Booth gave a "500" in honor of her sister, Miss Florence Edwards Lyon, who is visiting her from Springfield, Mass. The following were present: Mrs. Lester W. Nickerson, Mrs. Joseph H. Nash, Mrs. Richard F. Gifford, Mrs. A. K. Siler, Mrs. William Livingston, Mrs. Charles Verna, Mrs. C. P. Fowler, Mrs. Frank M. Stone, Mrs. John Byrd, Mrs. George R. Lyon and Mrs. C. T. Moore and Miss Lyon. After a very pleasant afternoon spent in cards and eating the party adjourned.

COUNCIL MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Narberth Council was held Monday evening of this week, every member being present, President W. R. D. Hall in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and duly approved. An interesting report by the auditors was read, accepted and ordered entered on the minutes. Delinquent borough taxes for each year, from 1909 to the present date, were specified and the Finance Committee was directed to take the necessary steps for their collection.

An important communication from the State authorities was read, relative to the necessity of keeping snow cleared away from fireplugs, and all other places where an accumulation of snow and ice would interfere with the proper performance of public work of any kind.

The Highway Committee, in its report, drew particular attention to this point also. The committee has been busy in opening up crossings, clearing snow from sidewalks, necessitated by the recent heavy snowfalls and severe cold weather. They also commented on the fact that many householders placed their ashes in such large boxes or cans, that they could not be handled by the collectors. The public is urged to be careful to provide boxes of such a size that this trouble may be obviated.

The contract for the collection of garbage was presented and duly executed, provision being made for the collection as frequently as necessary, in accordance with the season of the year. A communication from the Civic Association relating to the sewer in Narbrook Park was referred to the Highway and Finance Committees, for their joint consideration.

A resolution making necessary changes in the rules and regulations governing Council was adopted. Street Commissioner Charles E. Humphreys, treasurer E. P. Dold and Building Inspector J. Taylor Darlington were duly sworn in by President Hall.

RED CROSS

Even if you are not an Episcopalian or a Catholic, why not observe Lent this year by giving all your spare time to working for the Red Cross at the workrooms in the Y. M. C. A.? You have been giving a half day, perhaps a week, some are giving two and three whole days. Can you not give up frivolities this Lenten season and "Remember the Tuscany" and work harder than ever on surgical dressings, hospital supplies, etc.?

There are no certain days for certain people—every day is for you.

Do not let your interest lessen, suppose our boys should lose their interest, and not fight with all their might. We must work harder than ever to keep their courage up.

TO-DAY IS THE DAY

At the Y. M. C. A.—the day which according to previous announcement, will terminate the membership campaign. Thursday, February 15, was set, by extension a week ago, as the date when the special rate of $2 for boys and girls under sixteen, should end.

There has been a rush to get in, which will probably culminate in a landslide by this evening. At least, so the directors hope. About twenty-five memberships have been received this week, which, together with those reported in the last issue of Our Town, and the seventy-one members of the Ladies' Auxiliary who are all social members of the association, and its mighty moving force besides, the total is now well nigh three hundred.

But four of the solicitors have reported as yet. Mr. T. Noel Butler is the first to make a complete report. His work resulted in twelve subscriptions. If each of the twelve solicitors do as will the number will run over four hundred. Let's make it that!

"Little Savings Stamps of Green Saved by every one. Makes a mighty war machine. And a victory won.

"Sing a song of war-time. A country full of camps— Fifty million patriots Buying Savings Stamps.

"See the pennies flowing In a steady stream To keep the soldiers going, And smash the Kaiser's Dream."

Are these spring days a camouflage?

Have you mailed your dollar for your unpaid subscription?

Do you patronize our local merchants as much as you should? If not, why?

Our communications are always interesting. Why don't you write "Our Town" a letter regarding some particular local subject? It would be greatly appreciated by the editor and our readers.

The prompt payment of taxes is another matter that should receive careful consideration. It is surprising to learn that delinquencies exist as far back as 1909. This should not be, and we are glad to know that steps will be taken to collect the unpaid amounts, which sum up to a considerable total.

Everybody, and particularly pacifists, should read two articles in the February number of "The World's Work." One entitled, "How Germany Is Preparing For the Next War," is by J. B. W. Gardiner, military expert of the New York Times; the other, "Germany's Plots Exposed," by John R. Rathom, the talented and patriotic editor of the Providence Journal. It was through the exposures of Mr. Rathom that the ambassadors of Austria and Germany were sent away for their complicity in plots against this country, and others, like Captains Boy-Ed and Von Papen

The meetings of our Borough Council are interesting to all taxpayers, and many would find it profitable to attend them from time to time, to obtain and a realizing sense of the great amount of work that is being done, and in what a business-like way it is being handled. A little appreciation by the public at large at what is being done in the way of service for the benefit of all, would not be amiss.

Some practical questions were discussed, and we call particular attention to the subject of keeping entrances to properties clear of snow, in order to afford free access to collectors of ashes and garbage, and, in case of fire, to the fire apparatus. This is a matter of vital moment to every citizen. Another way in which we all can co-operate, is by providing receptacles for ashes and garbage that can be conveniently handled by the contractors. Thoughtfulness in little matters of this kind will go a long way in promoting good feeling and avoiding complaints regarding the service.

To the Editor of Our Town:

I feel the new management of the picture shows should know of the highly complimentary remarks we hear in the store of their efforts to provide Narberth with entertainment which is first class in every respect.

The programs indicate that only the latest and best offerings are considered and it is a real pleasure to know that the attendances are constantly increasing.

The venture can properly be described as a public spirited enterprise in every way, one that renders a real service to the community.

William S. Howard.

The following communication, in two sections, was received by the Editor. Unfortunately no signature nor identification of any nature was contained in the article. While we publish this communication for what it is worth, yet we must once again state plainly that all letters to the Editor must have the writer's signature, although we will, if requested, withhold the name or accept any nom de plume, providing the writer identifies himself to us.

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is reported that sweaters and other knit goods intended for the navy boys have come from homes in this town where measles prevail among the children. This is a very direct method to communicate this disease among our troops, where it is already widely prevalent and rigid investigation should be made and prompt steps taken to prevent the delivery of all such articles, for surely the older members of such families must realize the mischief they are doing.

A lady not long a resident of this town calls our attention to the almost impassable condition of our sidewalks during and after the snow storm of last week, particularly when the snow began to melt. She says it is a reflection on our civic pride and on the man most of all who by a little effort could clean off his own walk. Meantime our ladies are subjected to the slush, resulting in colds and the school children compelled to wade through this mass going to and coming from school. All honor to the few who were public-spirited enough to contribute a measure of comfort to others.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The genial Cub is very clever, but none of my names are Addie nor anything like it, neither the chap with the fur-coat sport the name of Carl. I am yet under the impression that the School Board is sensible enough to make use of free advice even if it is of inestimable value as the Cub says. The scholars attending the Narberth school are entitled to, I believe, 180 or 190 days of instruction during the year,—not a whole lot to be sure, considering the cost of the institution to the taxpayers. They have lost one week on account of the cold, and are now off for at least one week on account of an epidemic, not to mention the time individual pupils must lose because of sickness or inability to get to the school on the hill on account of bad weather, etc. All told, the average time for a sickly child or one that is not strong may be as little as 150 days in the year.

I realize quite well that conditions of which the board has some particular knowledge, may prevent them from putting into practice my plan for extending the term when the weather is fit in order to make up the lost time, but I trust the board will at least give the matter consideration as I do feel that this is the least they can do. I have always found where there's a will there's a way.

A. E. Wohlert.

Dear Cub:

I am going into winter quarters again, but felt it would be a good time to get the people started talking about improvements, as it will surely take a year to talk it over. If you begin now, you will be ready for next season (1919). You may be surprised, but I have no thought of selling any great quantity of the kind of stock advocated by the writer for two reasons—we never produce any of said stock and our people generally go to Philadelphia or New York when they do want stock even such as we offer from time to time in Our Town; but perhaps if you will take notice of me once in a while, things will change and my neighbors will learn that they have one of the most prominent nurseries in the State right at their door.

Please tell my neighbors that they must provide manure, fertilizers, land, seeds, etc., early, if they intend to have a war garden this year. Do not ask why; just get them to do it.

A. E. Wohlert.

BOY SCOUTS CELEBRATE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY

President Wilson Asks All to Help

At no time in all the world's history have boys—just boys—had such an opportunity as they now have for helping their country. Never before were boys asked by their Government to do such big things for it as have the Boy Scouts of America.

During the past year the Boy Scouts all over the United States have helped their country with these big tasks: Planted gardens and grew crops.

In the Liberty Loan campaigns they sold $123,000,000 worth of bonds.

Helped the Red Cross and other War Work Committees.

Acted as dispatch bearers for the Committee on Public Information, distributing millions of copies of Government literature.

To carry on this work of the Boy Scouts of America, as urged by President Wilson, a campaign has been inaugurated for men to lead the Boy Scouts and for money to carry the Scout Movement to boys that have not as yet been reached.

The President says that all men in the country who are not able to go to the front should take up this patriotic work.

The National Council of the Boy Scouts of America has decided to make this call, and the days of February 8 to 12 will see under way a vigorous nation-wide campaign for $200,000 a year for three years and a Scout Leaders' Reserve Corps of 100,000 men.

In Delaware and Montgomery counties there are ninety-three Boy Scout Troops, with a membership of over 2100 Scouts. The work is under the supervision of the Delaware and Montgomery Counties Council, of which Edward D. Shaw is the Scout Executive.

The Council is making an appeal to patriotic citizens to support this great Boy Movement. The funds received will be used for the National Council extension program; for the extension of Scout work in Delaware and Montgomery counties; and for the benefit of any local troop as may be designated by the contributor. Contributions can be forwarded to the County Headquarters at 1033 Real Estate Trust Building, Philadelphia, or be given to the Scout Master of any troop in the counties.

Men who cannot go to the front but want to serve their country in a patriotic way and would like to become leaders of Boy Scout Troops should communicate at once with County Headquarters.

SUFFRAGE NEWS

The regular monthly meetings of the Narberth Woman Suffrage party will be held on the second Friday of each month instead of the first Friday, as formerly. The change having been made to have the Narberth meeting follow the monthly meeting at Norristown in order to have a report of the county meeting read at the local meeting.

A most interesting meeting of the Philadelphia County Suffrage Association will be held on Saturday, February 23, in both afternoon and evening at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Miss Jeanette Rankin, the only woman member of Congress, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, are expected to be present. Supper will be served between the sessions, the tickets for which are $2.

The Narberth suffragists are endeavoring to obtain 100 subscribers to "The Citizen," a most interesting and instructive paper showing what women and their party are doing. The price is $1 a year and if 100 subscriptions are obtained the local branch will receive $30. Those wishing to take the paper and incidentally help the cause man communicate with Mrs. Charles W. Young, Narberth.

"NOTIONS" WRITES AGAIN

To the Editor of Our Town:

It would seem there's a bit more to be said, and so I'll come again, but I won't be staying a minute, mind you. And it's just to be asking you, Cub, acushla, if you are very sure that the fine gentleman who wrote about what we said really intended to put an end to me, for it wasn't my notion at all that he meant it that way, not at all, at all. Says he to himself, thought I, there's a man putting up a fair question and to be sure he got a straight answer, but, says he, thinks I, isn't what they are telling him somewhat ancient lore and does he yet know just what he seems to want to learn? I'll tell him myself, says he, thinks I, in the same quadrany and it won't do a whit of harm at all to make plain just how the directors work, since not a thing has the paper said about their doings for a two-year spell at least. And that's how it came to be, Cub, thinks I, and do you know I felt the gentleman doesn't reason I did such a bad turn after all, for didn't he say almost as much, and it's right obliged I am to him for the real information he gave me. I hope, too, they will pay heed to what he says, since impressed I am that the real spirit's only teething, and what truly wonderful things the right spirit will produce. Like an onslaught, fierce and formidable, it would make shortshrift of hideous bridges, wretched main streets, antediluvian depots and humorous post shanties. With it in full vigor, pneumonia cures and sable fish could find no place in our town, for every inch would bristle with news of the place on the move, and four small pages might not then be enough. Out of it all would come who knows, but Anthwyn Farms as a playground for the children might reasonably be expected as one of the things, and woe to him who would give his Red Cross or Liberty Bond contribution to the big city with all its chicanery. Onward, then, say we all of us, for Narberth is already a fine place, indeed it is, and a much finer place it easily can be made, And, now, Cub, what is it you'll be having, as it's a rough gale I see ahead of me.

Notions.

Church Notes

Mr. William Beatty, former soloist in St. James Episcopal Church in Philadelphia was unable to sing for us Sunday evening due to physical inability but hopes to be able to be with us next Sunday evening. The congregation meeting with this disappointment, however, had a happy surprise in that Dr. Charles A. McGalpin delivered the evening sermon. His discourse was a real treat to spiritual things and was highly appreciated.

All the services of the day were very well attended and a deep interest prevailed. If not attending divine services elsewhere you will find a cordial welcome this home-like church.

Items of Interest

Twenty men attended the Bible class last Sunday morning. Interest and enthusiasm is at high tide.

The Women's Bible class is trying the experiment of having their class meet after morning service instead of the regular Sunday School hour. Thus far the change has met with increased attendance.

Reports at the last Quarterly Conference revealed that eighty-eight new members had been received during the year. The Missionary Society with fifty-one members and the Ladies' Aid Society with an enrollment of eighty are the largest societies in proportion to church membership in this district of sixty churches. The ladies surely merit, "Well done."

YOUR INCOME TAX

Somebody is going to tell on you if you don't pay your income tax. Congress has fixed it so that somebody must tell, whether he wants to or not.

One section of the War Income Tax law, exhaustively comprehensive in scope, requires every person, without exception, and every corporation, partnership, association and insurance company, as interest, rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensation, remuneration, emoluments or other fixed or determinable gains, profits and income, to report the name and address of the person, corporation, etc., to whom the payment was made, together with the amount of the payment, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, using a form prescribed for the purpose—Form 1099, now to be had from all collectors' offices. The forms must be filled out and returned ON OR BEFORE MARCH 1, 1918, accompanied by Form 1096, which is a letter of transmittal and affidavit certifying the accuracy of Form 1099.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

In contemplating the list of those individuals who comprise Narberth's "Who's Who" we find standing out prominently, as thought printed in heavy type, the name of William Cummer, our own Bill, traveler, philosopher, painter of word pictures as well as of houses, fences and such, author of truly original language covering a vocabulary of remarkable directness and vigor, possessor of a heart of gold and, above all a temperament of inexhaustible geniality.

It was my good fortune to be present at a gathering in the rooms of the Caldwell Trust Company a few days ago, where Bill was reciting some of his adventures and observations during his recent visit to Western Canada in search of his papa and mamma. After an uneventful trip which took in a town he calls "Tronter," he says he found his folks at a place six miles from another place of indefinite distance from Winnipeg. At the last mentioned city, where it was necessary for him to stay a day and a night, he made an important discovery. You know that our local celebrity doesn't have to be called twice to any meal and you also know that no meal can complain that it has been dealt with unjustly once Bill tackles it. Well, Bill found a first class hotel where they charged him for a nice warm room and what he calls three excellent meals (and he's some judge) the astonishing price of $1.50. When Bill told that story, several of his auditors immediately decided to make Winnipeg their home in the future.

Upon arrival at the home of his parents, Bill was received with a welcome that easily put the home coming of the Prodigal Son in the shade. This was his second visit in twenty-six years, you know, and so far his folks hadn't any reason to growl about his hanging around them too much. As our traveler approached the house, he saw an old man in his shirt sleeves sitting on the porch. As the mercury was about 10 below, Bill says to himself, "What th' dickens," or something like that. When he got closer, however, he saw that the old man was his daddy. Later on in the proceedings, Bill asked his father why he was sitting on his porch without a coat in such bitter weather. "Why, my boy," says dad, "I only came out for a breath of air. It's warm weather for this season and we don't consider it cool until the thermometer says 30 to 50 below."

Bill remembered that he had some brothers, although just how many he isn't sure, but he does know that there must be several because his daddy has used up about every letter in the alphabet to find initials for them all. Willie was especially anxious to see one brother whom he hadn't laid eyes on since the latter was four years old and that was, as Bill says, about twenty-five years ago. Here's where our hero got a shock. "There's your little brother Amos over there," says Mother Cummer, pointing to a great red-bearded person who was splitting a log three feet thick in a nearby field. For once Bill was quiet—just stunned quiet. After recovering himself he suddenly ejaculated, "Well I'll be— (censored). He then inquired for some of the other boys and was informed that all of them were farmers and that he would see a few of them if he were patient. He did see them and I swan if each and every one of them didn't have a beard about a foot long, and here Bill had brought along a pocket full of cheap razors which he had intended to distribute among the boys as Christmas gifts.

One of the boys, as Bill tells it in his usual subdued tones, lived by himself on a little farm a few miles away and to his place Bill drove the next day, after borrowing dad's buffalo coat. This brother was a bachelor and reclusive, whose only company was a couple of hundred chickens. These chicks were foot free and roamed over the farm and house at will. It was quite the usual thing, Bill says, for the chickens to walk all over the dining room table at meal time and help stow away vittles, although Bill says it made him mad to have to help himself to potatoes while a big rooster had a claw in the dish. Bill didn't tarry long there and was especially eager to hie himself away when his brother told him that the feathered intruders roosted anywhere in the house they so minded. It seems that it was a common occurrence for Bill's big whiskered brother to find an egg in his whiskers after waking up in the morning, and Bill is now thinking of raising a brush on his own chin while eggs are eighty cents a dozen.

When our hero got back to Pop's house he was told that he was going to church that evening. Now Bill was out for adventure, but this was more than he had bargained for and he immediately began to claim an alibi, saying he was tired and didn't care to go out, etc. That didn't work, though, as it seems there was no church building in the neighborhood and it was the custom to hold services in Willie's parental home every two weeks. So there he was and no escape. However, when the neighbors began to troop in and the preacher came, Bill was introduced all around as the long lost son and he began to feel comfortable again. Before the services were half over, he decided that he would attend the Baptist church regularly as soon as he got back to Narberth.

William had bragged so much about his ability as an angler that his people decided to call his bluff and one morning about sunrise, mercury at fifty-eight below, they called him out of his warm bed to go fishing. All the fishing Bill had ever done was along the Jersey coast in the summer time (usually ending up with a case of seasickness), hence while he was getting dressed he kept wondering what they meant when they spoke of fishing in that climate, but this was one on our Will. They put a fur coat and fur hat on him and took him out to a big lake on which the ice was about fifteen inches thick. I'd like to have seen him in that rig—walrus mustache and all. After cutting a hole in the ice about three feet in diameter, his brothers gave him a hook and line and told him to go to it. Well, it beat all the fishing Bill had ever heard of, for he kept hauling in—great white fish—until he had enough to supply all Narberth for a week. He noticed a difference though between the Jersey and the Manitoba brands of bait and says he prefers the former. What pleased him was that the fish were all nicely preserved—frozen without having been in storage.

He was disappointed to learn that he could not purchase the Philadelphia papers regularly in that country, it having been a habit with Wilhelm to consult the weather reports each morning. "There's one thing I noticed, however," said he, "and that's wherever you go you see the Saturday NIGHT Evening Post on sale." He added that "Our Town" was not much in evidence in Winnipeg.

The above are only a few of Mr. Cummer's observations, but owing to lack of time, space and ink, I'll tell you the rest some other time, if you care to hear them.

Just now business is quiet with William G. Cummer, painter, paperhanger, raconteur, etc., and any little jobs you care to throw his way will be given his usual prompt and careful attention.

Reports from State and local directors of the Smilage campaign received in Washington indicate that more of these coupon books will be sold than have been printed. Smilage books contain coupons good for admission to the entertainments held in Liberty theatres and tents at the camps and cantonments.

Recently a new baby came to town. One of the relatives in speaking of the incident said: "Well, I guess we'll have to send him something." Yes, his good wife replied, "what shall it be?" "What's the matter with a 'Baby Bond,'" said he, thinking to be a little funny. "That's a good suggestion," replied his wife, "let's do it and why not make it a 'Baby Bond shower.'" It was agreed, they got in touch with a number of other relatives and friends who would be interested and the baby received quite a number of Baby Bonds.

Postmaster reports that so far he has received eight pairs of glasses and one telescope from patriotic citizens of Narberth who want the boys of the Twenty-eighth division at Camp Hancock to have them for practising in Signal Corps work. Those received were forwarded Monday by insured parcel post to the Chief Signal Officer. The need of telescopes and field glasses is very urgent. The War Department will keep a record of all glasses loaned or donated, and if possible they will be returned to the donors at the termination of the war.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
