Royal street No. 249, between St. Ann and Dumaine.

L. Choiane, perfumer.

The character of the Founder, and the constant testimonies of esteem and confidence with which the citizens of Louisiana honoured him during the years which he consecrated to the instruction of their youth, are sufficient guarantee of all that relates to the moral and religious basis of a good education.

Two Professors of the English language, two of the French, two of the Latin and one of the Spanish, a Professor of Mathematics and a Director General of Studies, constitute the Faculty or council of the College under the direction of the founder, Dr. Porter, or the President, his Vicar General, to whom is also assigned the duties of the Greek professorship.

Transmissions to the public that all these are already assembled at the College, or will be before the close of the present month, is but to assure parents and guardians that no pains have been nor will be spared in the scientific department, necessary to insure an education both solid and brilliant.

It is needless to mention Geography, Astronomy, History, Rhetoric, Belles Lettres, the Elements of Physics and Chemistry, &c. &c. are included in the course of studies.

The College of Spring Hill is designed to be essentially classic. All the students, without exception, will pursue according to their age, progress, and the direction of the Council of Professors, in connection with other branches, the study of the Ancient and Modern Languages. The English, however, will be exclusively the language of communication.

Through the Regency of the College be Catholic, yet no influence will be exercised upon pupils in the principles of other Christian denominations. Good order, however, will require them to attend the public exercises of morning and evening prayers and the Divine service of the Sabbath. A rigid moral code will be exercised over all.

CONDITIONS:

1st. The price for the Scholarly year is fixed at Two hundred and Sixty Dollars—one half a pupil semi-annually in advance. The equivalent for this sum includes the board of the pupil, their washing, reading, lodging, tuition, books stationary and whatever else appertains to their studies.

2d. No pupil can leave the College except at the end of each semi-annual term, and in all cases, (sicknes excepted,) payment for a term once commenced will invariably be required and.

Parents who do not reside in Mobile, or New Orleans, will be required to appoint in one of the other of these cities a correspondent, and every correspondent, will be held responsible for all dues.

No pupil will be admitted whose age exceeds 12 years. This regulation exists of no exception.

3d. N. B. 1st. For further particulars apply in Mobile to the President or Moderator, and in New Orleans, to Monsieur L'Abbe JEAN-MARIE, at the Bishopric.

2d: The stage from Mobile to New Orleans passes the College three times a week—the tour is made either way in twenty hours. 3d. The College of Spring Hill is about two hundred feet above the level of land, and the fog but seldom reaches the summit; and sea breezes regularly prevail during the summer. Nine persons, entire strangers to a southern climate, have resided nearly a year under the same roof, not one of whom has experienced the slightest indisposition.

4th. No pupil will be admitted whose age exceeds 12 years. This regulation exists of no exception.
