

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C. December 11, 1894.

Eugene Townsend Esq.,

Superintendent U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:-

In reply to your letter of the 10th instant, in reference to coining dimes, you are informed that I learn, upon inquiry at the Treasurer's office, that the Assistant Treasurer in your city has over $280,000. in coins of this denomination. You will therefore refer all applicants for the same to him.

I will add that there is a stock of dimes on hand at the Sub-Treasury of New York of over $600,000., and as there seems to be a redundancy, I do not deem it advisable to direct the coinage of any additional amount.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 188

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
December 11, 1894

Eugene Townsend Esq.,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir: -

In reply to your letter of the 10th instant, in reference to coining dimes, you are informed that I learn, upon inquiry at the Treasurer's office, that the Assistant Treasurer in your city has over $280,000. in coins of this denomination. You will therefore refer all applicants for the same to him.

I will add that there is a stock of dimes on hand at the Sub-Treasury of New York of over $600,000., and as there seems to be a redundancy, I do not deem it advisable to direct the coinage of any additional amount.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Director of the Mint.