XII. TACTICAL AND OPERATIONAL DATA. (Narrative and comment. Describe action fully and comment freely, following applicable items in check list at left. Use additional sheets if necessary.)

> This flight was a direct support wission under the direction of a Commander Air Support Centrel Unit. The one and only terget assigned by his was Shart Costle, located in the town of Shart and said by Cascu to be a particularly etrong enery fortification. All bombs were dropped on this target at about 3000° in runs commanding at 6000°. Four direct hits were observed by several pilots and aircreamen on the southern section of the costile. There was a slight base below 3500°, but not enough to rectrict visibility of the target or to interfere with bombing accumony.

Only pacegor and inaccurate heavy A/A was encountered.
