Miss Elvira Prondecki

DEDICATION

"Miss Pron," the battery of Elliott Hall, has been responsible for the many delightful activities planned for us since her arrival on the W.C. scene.

To her, we give our heartfelt thanks and common desire to see her with her zest for her work, competency, quiet dignity and friendly greeting on our campus for many years to come.

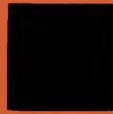

Mr. Albert A. Wilkinson

DEDICATION

"Wilkie," our beloved little Director of the W.C. News Bureau, is the typical "man behind the scenes." Though we may not always be aware of it, he is constantly around the campus snapping his camera, and looking for news. This is a small token of the gratitude we feel for the wonderful work that he has been doing since his arrival here.

A pack of paper can't be that interesting!

Coffee tastes good on these cold days.

Between-class breaks must be fun.

Wonder if phone calls and mail are as exciting to teachers as to students.

Surely you aren't making a payment, Dr. Miller!

But will this really stand up under pencil lead?

science forum

The Forum idea on the Woman's College campus originated in the 1920's and the first two Social Science Forums were sponsored jointly by the Alumnae Association and the College. In 1960, a committee of faculty and students with Betsy Stark as student head, planned and administered the Forum programs. The Harriet Elliott Social Science Forum brings to the campus the opinion of experts in matters of international importance and issues pertinent to the American public. It has served an invaluable purpose in the intellectual life of the campus and has been enjoyed by faculty, students, and alumnae who responded to its wide-ranged stimulation.

"On the outside looking in." This is what the man in the control booth sees.

WUNC-TV, in its sixth year of operation, offers many professional-level programs. Always a difficult job, occasionally a pain to those behind the scenes, WUNC-TV has become rapidly a source of pride to Woman's College in 1959-1960.

interfaith forum

The 1960 Interfaith Forum with its theme of "Religion for Our Times" focused on questions that have arisen in the minds of students and thinking people through the ages. The principal speakers were Chaplain Robert S. Hall, the Reverend John M. Breunig, Dr. Israel J. Gerber, and Dr. W. Wesley Shraeder, whose inspiring, thought-provoking messages were made possible through the cooperative efforts of all the religious groups on campus.

Carolinian

The Carolinian, by means of unbiased news coverage and timely comments, attempts to give the student an accurate picture of daily happenings. This year the publication of the paper was placed on a biweekly basis, thus enabling the staff to execute quicker coverage. The additions to the paper of such things as articles from other college newspapers and comments on the world news furthered the interest of the students in their college newspaper. The reduced size and altered masthead which first attracted widespread attention, have since become a familiar sight in students' hands all over campus.

judicial board

DORIS ANN MCGILL
Chairman

Judicial Board, that branch of student government which handles all major social offenses, is composed of an elected chairman and eight associate members. The membership of the Board is made up of five students from the senior class, two from the junior class and one from the sophomore class.

Judicial Board endeavors to function in an understanding and constructive manner, and strives to create in the Woman's College student an awareness of the importance of "responsible freedom."

Honor Board, in its first year as a separate functioning body, is that branch of the Student Government Association which handles all major honor offenses. Its membership is a parallel with that of Judicial Board, consisting of seniors, juniors and a sophomore.

The endeavor of Honor Board is to offer firm justice tempered with sympathetic understanding, and the chairman and its members strive to perpetuate in the Woman's College student the ideals of the Honor Policy.

national students association

The NSA Council functions as the connecting link between the Woman's College Student Government Association and the regional and national organizations of NSA. The NSA Council of the Woman's College meets with regional and national groups to share ideas that will improve educational opportunities, international affairs, student government, and student welfare on our campus and other member campuses. This Association has become a vital element in the constant effort to join the students of colleges all over the world in common aims and purposes.

elliott hall

NINA GLOBUS
President

Elliott Hall houses the many varied social functions which take place on our campus. From informal coffee hours to elegant dances, Elliott Hall provides a well-balanced and many-faceted program to suit the needs of every student. Elliott Hall has become the art center of the campus with painting exhibits that line its walls. Eager feet pound its hall endeavoring to seek its many opportunities for culture, social life, and "just plain fun."

ELLIOTT HALL COUNCIL. Seated: Sylvia Smith, Mildred Beam, Sheila Wall, Bonnie Currie, Joanne Best, Deppe Barker, Carolyn Brown, Midgie Speight, Linda McGee, Marie Moore, Nina Globus, President. Junior Show Chairman, Marilynn Conner, shows the girls the ropes.

Comfortable?

Juniors leave after serenading freshmen in traditional ring ceremony.

Anything interesting, Carolyn?

The Junior Class Council listens attentively as President Ann Ross Abbey outlines Class Events.

Time out from a busy schedule.

*Our role is known to us at last;
We're in our major field.
Only study and hard work,
Therefore, determine yield.
We're known by rings and Junior show
And all the work we've done
We're proud that we're among the best —
This class of '61.*

Looks like more pleasure than work.

"Jane! What were you bidding on?"

I wonder if that's right.
