Papers Speculate On Outcome of Krassin's Mission to London

Some Papers Say British-Russian Trade Will Be Based on System of Barter; Several Members of British Cabinet Reported to Be Against Trade Proposals.

London, June 2.—While the secrecy which has surrounded the mission to London of Gregory Krassin, Russian Bolshevik Minister of Trade and Commerce, is being maintained, several newspapers here print reports on the progress the Soviet envoy is making. It is generally accepted he has received official permission to establish a Russian trade bureau in this city. Some papers go further and declare he has secured a lease on premises in London, but where these are has not been revealed.

This bureau will work in co-operation with the Board of Overseas Trade, a department linking the Board of Trade with the Foreign Office, according to The Daily Mail, but other reports in connection with the mission indicate that the bureau's dealings will be based on virtually a system of barter, Russian grain, oil, timber and flax being offered for railroad rolling stock, agricultural machinery, textiles and other commodities much needed in Russia.

Some newspapers declare that before M. Krassin came to London, the Soviet Government agreed to certain terms, including the immediate release of British prisoners in Russia, cessation of propaganda against Great Britain in India, Palestine and Persia and the abandonment of all further Bolshevik interference in the Middle East.

The alleged disapproval of negotiations by France is featured by some newspapers, and rumors persist that this attitude is shared by some members of the British Cabinet. It is also said that Premier Lloyd George is the principal supporter of advances to Russia, in which he has the cordial support of Premier Nitti of Italy.

Paris, June 2.—Lifting the embargo on Russia and conclusion of peace are indispensable conditions for the resumption of commercial relations between that country and Allied nations. Gregory Krassin, Bolshevik Minister of Trade and Commerce, has notified Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, according to the London correspondent of The Excelsior.

Small, the Toronto theatrical manager, and who had been reported missing soon after his employer disappeared mysteriously on December 20 last, was in Montreal for a month after that date. He lodged at a St. Catharine Street boarding house and his grip has been found there.

A news dispatch from Toronto to-day stated that Mrs. Small has received letters demanding a ransom from a lawyer in New York.

VANCOUVER LABOR AGAINST IMPORTATION OF WORKING MEN

Vancouver, June 2.—Local labor men are somewhat incensed at the suggestion of Grant Hall, vice-president of the C.P.R., that labor be imported from Europe to supply workers for railway construction and farms in Canada, and the matter probably will be discussed at Thursday evening's meeting of the Vancouver Trades and Labor Council.

Big Fisheries Congress To-morrow In Vancouver

Vancouver, June 2.—Delegates are arriving for the International Fisheries Congress, which will open in this city to-morrow. Already many of the leading men connected with the fisheries industry of Canada and the United States are in the city, including several scientists of international reputation, who will contribute to the discussion of the problems affecting the conservation and replenishment of the fish resources of the North American continent.

A very full programme has been arranged for the three days' sitting of the Congress. This will open on Thursday morning with an official welcome extended to the delegates by the Hon. William Sloan, Commissioner of Fisheries for British Columbia.

The important question of the establishment of an international council for fishery research in North America, introduced by Dr. Huntman, of the Biological Board of Canada, will come up on Thursday afternoon.

The same afternoon will see the discussion of the question of the advisability of establishing fishery advisory boards. The standardization of North American fish names will come up for discussion on Saturday morning, together with the question of publicity applied to increasing the home consumption of fish.

MENACE OF FOREST FIRES GROWS LESS

Rain Probable in Nova Scotia; Rain Falls in Quebec.

Halifax, June 2.—The forest fire menace throughout Nova Scotia has lessened during the past twenty-four hours. In many sections the weather is cloudy and there is every indication that rain will soon fall.

Quebec, June 2.—The Provincial Department of Forestry declared that the general situation throughout the province has greatly improved since last night in localities where forest fires exist. In most districts they are dying out under the heavy downpour of rain. It is impossible to state as yet the extent of the damage done, as the fires are scattered far and wide and are not all extinguished.

Fredericton, N.B., June 2.—When final reports of the forest fires in New Brunswick are all received showing their exact extent it is not believed that the damage will be as much as early reports indicated. In many cases the fires have been on previously burned over land and 100 square miles is believed to be the outside estimate of the timber limits destroyed.

REV. SALEM BLAND PUBLISHES BOOK

Toronto Methodist Pastor States Advanced Views on Capital and Labor

Toronto, June 2.—Rev. Salem G. Bland, pastor of the Broadway Methodist Tabernacle in this city, who advanced labor views brought him into collision with some members of the quarterly official board of the Broadway Tabernacle last year, who vainly tried to have Dr. Bland removed from the pastorate of that church, has published a book entitled "The New Christianity."

Dr. Bland in his book, "has no doubt played a necessary and useful part in the social evolution. It has shown courage and enterprise, but it has been, on the whole, rapacious and heartless and its sense of moral responsibility has been condemnatory. When the managers on whom it depends desert to the side of the workers, it will be patent how little capacity of service is in capitalism and how little it deserves the immense gains it wrung from exploited labor and skill."

Dr. Bland predicts that the bitter conflict between capital and labor will cease to be a factor in the affairs of men and "only labor," in the broadly inclusive sense of the term, will remain.

Paris, June 2.—Prince Firouz Khan, the Persian Foreign Minister, has written to the Secretariat of the League of Nations, asking its intervention in accordance with Article II, of the covenant, with a view to stopping the extension of the Bolshevik movement against Persia.

Purchasers Only Must Pay Luxury Taxes, Not Stores

Stores are not allowed to pay luxury taxes. All luxury taxes must be paid by the purchaser only and be shown separately on the invoices. This was the order issued to-day by Dominion Inland Revenue officials, a telegraphic authority from Ottawa. The order is aimed at large stores in Victoria and all over the country which have announced that they will pay the luxury taxes on practically all lines of goods. This practice, officials have discovered, is violating the law and will result in action being taken against the stores if it is continued.

TWO CHILDREN WERE MURDERED

Brother and Sister Done to Death in Woods in Alberta

Edmonton, June 2.—Two children, a boy and a girl, aged ten and fifteen years respectively, were, according to a telephone report to the provincial police, enticed into the woods near Westlock, Tuesday afternoon and murdered. It is alleged, by a man known as Thomas Munn, a home-steader. He is reported still at large, and a posse of men headed by provincial police are hunting for the fugitive.

The victims were Sylvia Macdonald and Andrew Macdonald, children of Otis Macdonald, of Manóla. According to reports received by the police, Munn enticed the children to his home under the pretence of showing them some pictures. He is alleged to have further requested the children to accompany him to the woods for the purpose of getting some shrubbery for transplanting purposes. The children willingly accompanied him. It is alleged that once in the woods Munn attacked them, crushing in their skulls, apparently with a hammer.

TAX PROPOSALS MAY BE CHANGED

Drayton May Offer Amendments When Budget Resolution in Committee

Ottawa, June 2.—(Canadian Press.)—With the formal budget debate out of the way, consideration of the budget resolution in committee will open with the least possible delay. Here, in all probability, decision will be protracted, covering possibly a week or so.

Provisions made in regard to the income tax and business profits tax are expected to go through without a debate. The luxury taxes will be subjected to some changes, it is thought, particularly with a view to making their administration more workable.

Changes. Since the budget was brought down, the Minister of Finance has been in constant receipt of representations with regard to the luxury taxes and the sales tax. Important points have been brought out and notice to doubt will be taken of some of the suggestions. In addition to any amendments which the Finance Minister may propose, it is likely that a number will be submitted by members of the Opposition.

The all-night sitting of the House dislocated this morning's meeting of the Cabinet and as was to be expected, few Ministers were in attendance. Newsprint manufacturers were also supposed to meet the Finance Minister at 10 o'clock, but the delegation had to be postponed till this evening.

Closure. Among weary members of the House in evidence to-day, the idea of a more general use of the closure is regarded with favor. The suggestion is made of such amendment to the rules of the House, along the plan of the British House, as will provide for the automatic termination of a fixed hour each day.

Sittings Postponed. The corridors of the Commons were deserted at noon to-day, several committees, including the one on soldiers' pensions, postponing their sittings for lack of a quorum. Liberal members regard the long session, which lasted from eight o'clock last night until half-past six this morning, as indicating that the Government will be diligent in rushing the remaining business of the session through as soon as possible.

Unionists' Majority On Budget Vote This Morning Twenty-Six

Division in Commons Which Recorded Defeat of Fielding Amendment Was Taken at 6.30 This Morning; Mackenzie King One of Speakers in the Last Hours.

Ottawa, June 2.—(Canadian Press.)—By 120 votes to 94, the Fielding amendment to the budget speech was defeated in the Commons at 6.30 this morning. The House had waited throughout the night and the early morning hours for the result of the vote, and when the division bells rang there was a general flocking of members to the chamber. When the vote was announced cheers arose from the Government benches. The Government majority on the vote was 26.

H. O. Wright, Battleford, and J. A. Campbell, Nelson, Man., former Government supporters, voted for the Fielding amendment; and W. A. Buchanan, Lethbridge, who had announced his intention of opposing the Government's tariff proposals, was not in the chamber when the vote was taken, but was paired with Dr. J. W. Edwards, Frontenac.

Not only the members of the House but also many visitors who came to the galleries in the early evening to hear the debate, remained to get first-hand information on the result of the division. Nearly a score of ladies who had occupied seats in the members' gallery during the whole evening session, remained for the taking of the vote.

During the long hours of the night and morning session, while speaker after speaker added his weight to the argument on one side or the other, a lonely and bewildered bat, which somehow had gained entrance to the chamber, flew over the heads of the ladies in the galleries and papers and fans were waved to repel the unwelcome visitor.

Members Sang. While the division bells were ringing and while the members waited for the taking of the vote, songs arose from the benches on either side of the chamber. The French members were to the fore with their folk songs, in which a number of Government supporters joined at times, and good natured chaff prevailed between members on either side while the members took their seats.

At 5.40 this morning, as A. L. Desautels arose to address 'the House in French, the lights in the chamber were extinguished for a few seconds. There was sufficient light to continue the debate, and Mr. Desautels attempted to proceed amid cries of "extinction" and "the lighting was soon flashed on again, and the cries dying down, Mr. Desautels proceeded with his speech.

PALMER'S CAMPAIGN SUBJECT OF ATTACK

U.S. Attorney-General, Presidential Candidate, Alleged Distillers' Friend

Washington, June 2.—Charges that the campaign for the nomination of Attorney-General Palmer as Democratic candidate for the Presidency had been conducted in Pennsylvania with an open appeal to the distillery and brewery interests in the state were made to-day before the Senate investigation committee by Eugene C. Bonnell, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bonnell, who distributed strikers during the primary campaign seeking the nomination of W. G. McAdoo, said that saloons and bonded warehouses in some parts of the state were now running "wide open," and that this was proceeding under the eyes of the Department of Justice and prohibition enforcement officers of the Federal Government. The witness charged that the Palmer campaign in Pennsylvania had been a "ghostly and debasing degradation of law."

Hopkinson, of the educational committee, urged more propaganda in the schools and said books were being prepared for the use of young children, telling the story of the navy. They would be translated into French for use in the Quebec schools, he said.

STRONG WORDS ARE HEARD IN SENATE

Bennett's Remarks Call Forth Unusually Bitter Reply From Sharpe

Ottawa, June 2.—The discussion precipitated in the Senate last week by Senator Bennett's references to Senators McMeans, Sharpe and Bradbury as "loyal and gallant colonials who kissed the tips of their fingers to those labor men and bade them good-bye and hoped they would come back safe," was renewed in the upper Chamber yesterday afternoon when Senator Sharpe made some severe comments in reply.

Senator Sharpe, in the course of his speech, made in the resumed debate on the bill repealing the deportation clauses of the Immigration Act, referred to Senator Bennett as "a contemptible cur," a statement which carried a commotion for some time.

Second reading of the bill was carried by a vote of 22 to 21, after Senator Lynch-Staunton's amendment for a six months' hoist had been lost on a tie vote of 21-21.

BORDEN'S REPLY NON-COMMITTAL

Did Not Encourage M. P.'s Who Urged That Indemnity Be Increased

Ottawa, June 2.—(Canadian Press)—Speaking on the orders of the day in the House yesterday afternoon, Sir Robert Borden said press statements had been called to his attention to the effect that members of the House had signed a round robin asking for an increased indemnity. The House had been affected because of non-compliance on the part of the Government. "So far as he was aware," Sir Robert added, no such round robin existed. At any rate he had not seen it. Further than that, he had no reason to suppose that attendance of members on the Government side of the House had been in any way affected by the reasons assigned. "The only action taken by members was that a certain number of them interviewed Sir Robert a week or ten days ago and they had received a very non-committal answer."

Honolulu, June 2.—Japan has broken off negotiations with the Russian Bolsheviki for formation of a buffer state in Siberia, according to a Tokyo cable. The breach in negotiations came about as a result of Japan's discovery of a plot to undermine General Semenov, commander of the All-Russian forces in Siberia, and bring the Balkal region under the Bolsheviki, the cable stated.

BRITAIN'S NAVAL PLANS NOT MADE PUBLIC

London, June 2.—In the course of discussion in the House yesterday on the naval estimates, an attempt was made to elicit details of the future naval policy.

Carlson Bellairs, Unionist, wanted to know whether the fleet would be concentrated in home waters, or whether Great Britain should have a great Pacific fleet. He thought there was no menace in the North Sea now, and Britain should have an outlook on the Pacific.

Rt. Hon. Walter Hume Long, First Lord of the Admiralty, deprecated a discussion in Parliament. He said there was a whole series of questions regarding future policy before the Committee of Imperial Defence, and Committee of Imperial Defence were possible would be made at the proper time.

RUMORS OF NEW GERMAN OUTBREAKS

Berlin, June 1.—Via London, June 2.—Concerning recurring stories of impending revolutionary outbreaks, Major-General Reinhardt, former Minister of War, who supported the Government during the Kapp revolt, and now commands the newly-formed Roerich Reichswehr brigade, has informed a representative of The Tageblatt that reliable republican troops were everywhere ready to subdue any subversive attempt.

The Tageblatt, however, learns that many families in the country, in Mecklenburg, Pomerania and Central Germany, are moving into the towns for fear of trouble with the field laborers, who are increasingly leaning toward independent Socialism and Communism.

General von Secht and Herr Geisler, Minister of Defence, have been traveling through the country investigating the situation at different points, and, according to The Tageblatt, it is certain that what happens the Government will not again remove its seat, but will face trouble, if it arises, on the spot.

WOMEN DISTURBED CALM OF CONGRESS

"Irish Republic" Sympathizers: Upset American Senate and House

Washington, June 2.—Both the Senate and the House were thrown into an uproar yesterday by an outburst of women in sympathy with the cause of making Ireland a republic. There were evidently two parties to the demonstration, which started first in the Senate during the delivery of a speech by Senator Brandegee, Republican, Connecticut, opposing acceptance by the United States of a mandate over Armenia. Later a woman, seated around the gallery, creating great disorder, until they were finally subdued and ejected.

Although the offenders were escorted to the cloak room, no charges were lodged against them, and they were permitted to go.

In Senate.

Breaking suddenly the proverbial dignity of the Senate just after Senator Brandegee had referred to "the ravages of Ireland" a woman's shrill voice from the gallery startled Senators and attendants alike. As the woman shouted "Why not eject the English Hun from Ireland?" a very angry man in the gallery, in her direction, while the strident command from Vice-President Marshall to "put her out" led instantly to locking her from the gallery.

For a moment a whirlwind of questions swept down from the galleries, while the Vice-President, laying aside his gavel, stepped sharply, and in a moment the attendants were removing the woman. Order was finally restored.

Word that the hecklers had entered the Senate chamber had the House before the women started the second performance. One young woman, however, slipped through the cloak-room door, planted herself in the aisle and suddenly screamed "Cowards!"

A Wild Race.

Instantly her companions in the galleries began screaming a volley of questions all relating to the Irish question. For a few moments the hecklers seemed to control the activities of the House. Speaker Gillett's gavel kept up an insistent tapping, and there were shouts of "throw them out," with an answering yell that the job was too big for all the House.

As the guards dashed after the hecklers a wild race started around the benches, with everybody standing, until the picket brigade finally was captured and put out.

P. T. Cooney, director of the Friends of Irish Freedom, declared in a statement last night that the heckling was "wholly without authority and without the knowledge of any representatives of the national council of the Friends of Irish Freedom or associated organizations."

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long. Instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. It is any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smoothing and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, San Point, N. S., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night any more. My appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had used six boxes of your pills and now I feel like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Constantinople, June 1.—Via London, June 2.—Three divisions of Greek troops are occupying the Deceglitch-Adrianople line, and another division is expected to land at Rodosto shortly. Dispatches from Adrianople report that there is much uneasiness there, where Turks and Bulgarians apparently are preparing to resist the entry of the Greeks.

The Turkish troops are concentrated chiefly near Lule Burgas, on the railroad between Constantinople and Adrianople and westward along the railway line for thirty miles.

SENDS JEWISH ORPHANS TO HOMES ELSEWHERE

New York, June 2.—The Joint Distribution Committee has sent $50,000 through funds raised by the American Jewish Relief Committee and its associated organizations, to Mr. Max Warburg, its agent in Berlin, for the purpose of sending thousands of Jewish orphans to homes in the German capital to Scandinavian countries, Holland and Switzerland, to be properly fed, clothed and taken care of.

Sixty-two thousand Jewish children of Vienna are already on the way to reports in Italy, where the work of restoring them to health is receiving the whole-hearted co-operation of Italian officials and populace. The situation in Berlin was aggravated by the influx of swarms of refugees from Poland and other Eastern countries, bringing with them congestion in living conditions, and increased sanitary problems.

A Jewish woman in the East End took her little boy to have a tooth out, and he screamed in pain, and down all the time! After they had left she said to the boy, "You want to scream and make all that noise for?"

"Well, I couldn't stop it, the dentist 'urt me," said the boy.

"'Urt yer? Well, he couldn't 'ave 'urt yer very much," replied the mother. "He only charged me a shilling!"

GREEK TROOPS IN THRACE; TURKISH TROOPS GATHER

Constantinople, June 1.—Via London, June 2.—Three divisions of Greek troops are occupying the Deceglitch-Adrianople line, and another division is expected to land at Rodosto shortly. Dispatches from Adrianople report that there is much uneasiness there, where Turks and Bulgarians apparently are preparing to resist the entry of the Greeks.

The Turkish troops are concentrated chiefly near Lule Burgas, on the railroad between Constantinople and Adrianople and westward along the railway line for thirty miles.

MARTIAL LAW IN GREECE ONCE MORE

London, June 2.—Premier Venizelos on Monday asked permission of the Chamber of Deputies to restore martial law, declaring this would be the only way of avoiding bloodshed by return of the war in the country called back. Greece is opposed to republican form of government. Venizelos knows that.

SENDS JEWISH ORPHANS TO HOMES ELSEWHERE

New York, June 2.—The Joint Distribution Committee has sent $50,000 through funds raised by the American Jewish Relief Committee and its associated organizations, to Mr. Max Warburg, its agent in Berlin, for the purpose of sending thousands of Jewish orphans to homes in the German capital to Scandinavian countries, Holland and Switzerland, to be properly fed, clothed and taken care of.

Sixty-two thousand Jewish children of Vienna are already on the way to reports in Italy, where the work of restoring them to health is receiving the whole-hearted co-operation of Italian officials and populace. The situation in Berlin was aggravated by the influx of swarms of refugees from Poland and other Eastern countries, bringing with them congestion in living conditions, and increased sanitary problems.

A Jewish woman in the East End took her little boy to have a tooth out, and he screamed in pain, and down all the time! After they had left she said to the boy, "You want to scream and make all that noise for?"

"Well, I couldn't stop it, the dentist 'urt me," said the boy.

"'Urt yer? Well, he couldn't 'ave 'urt yer very much," replied the mother. "He only charged me a shilling!"

FIVE-CENT FARE WOULD BE RESTORED

Vancouver, June 2.—If the Dominion Parliament enacts the Government measure introduced removing electric street railways from the jurisdiction of the Dominion Railway Board, the five-cent fare will be automatically restored in the city of Vancouver.

This is the gist of a statement made by Attorney-General Farris in answer to a long distance telephone request for a statement on the B. C. Electric Railway situation.

Mr. Kidd, general manager of the B. C. Electric Railway, returned yesterday from Ottawa, but declined to make an offhand statement as to the progress of the legislation or the consequences of the passage of the bill at Ottawa placing the B. C. Electric Railway again under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government.

The list of pairs officially supplied the Chief Whips was:

Government—H. H. McLean, A. K. Maclean, H. C. Hocken, R. J. Manion, Hume Cronyn, Dr. J. W. Edwards and Thomas Wallace.

Opposition—Hon. Charles Murphy, Sinclair of Prince Edward Island, Pedlow, J. H. Sinclair, Denis W. A. Buchanan and J. A. Maharg.

Sir Edward Kemp, Sir Herbert Ames and Messrs. Wallace and Hepburn were absent from the Government side.

Several Speeches.

The closing hours of the debate brought forth speeches by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Leader of the Opposition; Hon. N. W. Rowell, President of the Privy Council; Lucien Pacaud, F. L. Davis, S. W. Jacobs, J. A. Campbell and A. Knox.

Liberal Leader.

"The budget," declared Mr. King during the course of a three-hour speech in the afternoon, "is a budget to protect the profiteer. It is not a budget to protect the people of Canada."

It revealed, he said, that the Government had no policy for dealing with the high cost of living. Instead of reducing the cost of living, the Government was making it more difficult for the people to live.

He declared the Government should resign. It had been elected for the term of the war, and should give place to an administration competent to frame a sound peace policy.

It had acquired the "war habit of mind," which resulted in autocratic rule and extravagant expenditures. The expenditure of the last fiscal year had added nearly $400,000,000 to the debt of Canada, or more than $1,000,000 a day. One expenditure of $121,000,000 made by the Government during the war was unaccounted for, and the Auditor-General had been unable to find where the money had gone.

Would Remove Duties.

Proposals made in the budget would encourage the manufacture of shoddy goods, said the Liberal Leader, who argued that the duties should be taken off the necessities of life and the instruments of production, thus reducing the cost of living. The Liberals stood for free food and freer trade. There was but one Liberal platform, which was based on the tariff resolution passed at the Liberal convention last August.

For Sake of Office.

The Government was holding office for the sake of office, said Mr. King. It had promised the electors to hold office only for the period of the war. "Whenever was such a promise made?" demanded Sir Robert Borden. "I did not hear the Prime Minister's election speeches, and I cannot quote chapter and verse," answered Mr. King, "but I do know that the people understood from his election speeches and those of his supporters, that the Coalition was solely for the purpose of carrying on the war, and that when that purpose was accomplished, the members of the Coalition would revert to their former principles and would give the people of this country an opportunity of electing a Government competent to frame a sound peace policy."

The Government proposed, to hang on, but, in the opinion of Mr. King, it should be prevented from doing so if it was possible to stop it.

Not Consulted.

The indifference of the Government to the jurisdiction of Parliament in matters of expenditure was indicated by its action in creating Canadian representation at Washington. Parliament had not been consulted in this matter, even though it would necessarily entail a large expenditure. He could refer, said Mr. King, to the estimates for further evidence of Government extravagance, but that would take too long. However, it was only necessary to mention that the militia estimates had been increased by $4,000,000. The people of Canada would have been better satisfied with a decrease of $4,000,000.

That the Opposition chiefly objected to in the budget, however, said Mr. King, was that it protected profiteers rather than the consumers. Parliament had expected a people's budget, and it had got a profiteers' budget.

War Wealth.

There had been no reference in the budget speech to war wealth. The country had a right to some statement in this regard. Everyone knew that vast fortunes were being made during the war, while men were sacrificing their lives. These were fortunes built on the blood and sacrifice of others, and they should pay their share of the war debt.

Mr. King quoted Mrs. Nellie McClung, who, in referring to the new taxes, said that the Government which was strong enough to conscript life was not strong enough to tax war fortunes.

Veterans.

R. B. Maxwell, Dominion president of the War Veterans' Association, had issued a call to the veterans to hold mass meetings and demand the resignation of the Government, which left war wealth practically unaltered while it called upon returned men to share in the burden of taxation.

Yet, said Mr. King, this Government had said it proposed to hold on to office for another two years.

Wealth was primarily derived from the community. It was not, therefore, unreasonable to ask that part of the wealth created by the community should be returned to the community.

Cost of Living.

The budget revealed the Government as having no policy for dealing with the high cost of living.

"We do not expect the Government to solve the problem of the high cost of living," continued Mr. King. "Certainly not, but we have a right to expect that the Government will make some contribution toward its solution. Instead of reducing the cost of living, the Government has added to it and made it more difficult for the people to live. To an invisible tariff, the Government has added a visible tariff on a multitude of items."

Hon. N. W. Rowell.

Hon. N. W. Rowell answered criticisms by the Leader of the Opposition and other Opposition members. The Government had not spent a single cent recklessly, he said, and there had been no increase in the ordinary expenditure of the country. The money had been expended on pensions, soldiers' re-establishment and soldiers' settlement, as well as on interest on the public debt and the civil service bonus. Pensions had been increased. Was this one of the items that Opposition members objected to? If they had any malice in them, they would retract their statement, remarked Mr. Rowell, amid ironical laughter from the Opposition.

To Soldiers.

The President of the Privy Council referred to the charge that an expenditure of $12,000,000 made by the Government remained unaccounted for. This amount had been largely used to pay Canadian soldiers serving overseas, and the vouchers had not been received at the time the Auditor-General's report was published. The reason for the non-receipt of these vouchers was that two vessels carrying a number of these vouchers had not been received by submarines, and the Government was afraid to trust any more on the ocean. Again Mr. Rowell said that the Opposition members who had made this charge should publicly retract it.

Election Demand.

Lucien Pacaud, Liberal, Megantic, Quebec, declared the Government's fate was definitely sealed. The demand for a general election came from all sources. The Government had initiated a greater production movement and then forgotten it, spending money instead on commissions which did not commission. The same and sound policy on tariff matters was found "in the glorious pages of Liberalism."

Committee Urged.

F. L. Davis, Unionist, Neepawa, Manitoba, urged the appointment of a committee on estimates to ensure their intelligent discussion. The budget broke a lot of new ground. As to trade figures, he called attention to the fact that the volume of goods exported was disappointingly low, though the value had increased. There was need for reduction of expenditures, but a Minister could not fully control his department under the present system.

By Same Majority.

The House adjourned at 6.35, the original motion to go into committee of ways and means carrying by the majority of 28.

Sir Robert Borden announced that later in the day the House would take up the Opium and Narcotic Drugs Act, the Admiralty Act, the Employment Offices Co-ordination Act, the Canada Shipping Act, the Placer Mining Act and the Northwest Game Act.

The House adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon.

H. A. Mackie, Edmonton, who had voted for the Welding amendment, rose again when the "nays" were called and stated that he had previously voted in error.

DOMINION STEEL.

Montreal, June 2.—The annual financial statement of the Dominion Steel Corporation, issued yesterday, shows a lowering of profits. The past year was one of the leanest experienced by the Corporation for some time. On the old basis of common capitalization, the earnings were equivalent to 7.14 per cent. on the $32,097,000 common stock, as compared with 17.04 per cent. in 1919 and 23.68 in 1918.

of life which coincided with the imposition of luxury taxes would do much to allay unrest in the country.

Mr. Davis said he had found it necessary, last year to vote against the Government's budget policy because no new taxation was then imposed. In the light of the new policy, he thought it wise to support the Government this year.

S. W. Jacobs.

S. W. Jacobs felt that he owed it to his electors to make a confession of faith. He intended to support the Fielding amendment. Even at that

000,000 or so the Government had appropriated last year to foster trade with the Balkan States, much had gone into the pockets of supporters of the Government, many of them sitting in the House of Commons.

J. A. Campbell, Liberal Unionist, Nelson, Man., and A. Knox, Liberal Unionist, Prince Albert, Sask., supported the Fielding amendment.

A SERIOUS SITUATION.

Notwithstanding the fact that more newsprint is being manufactured in Canada to-day than at any other time in the history of the country, The Times is informed that twenty-six daily Canadian newspapers or twenty-five per cent. of the total daily publications in the Dominion are facing suspension owing to their inability to obtain an assurance of newsprint supply at the current contract export price.

The matter is now under consideration by the Government, which may be forced to adopt far-reaching and perhaps unprecedented measures to meet an extremely serious situation. If so large a proportion of Canadian newspapers had to cease publication because they could not obtain an assurance of supply of paper at the current price from mills operating in Canada under Canadian franchises and using Canadian raw material and Canadian power, owing to the export of their product to the United States, it would mean simply that in this respect the Dominion was in a position of economic bondage to our neighbors south of the line.

It would be outrageous if a solitary Canadian paper, no matter how small, had to cease publication because it could obtain no newsprint although it was willing to pay the current export price for it, while Canadian paper was being used in the production of, for example, the Hearst gutter press with its foul libels upon this Empire.

Admittedly the problem is a difficult one, since there is a world shortage of newsprint due to the growing depletion of pulp timber combined with unlicensed extravagance in the use of paper during the last few years, especially in the United States, where the metropolitan newspapers appeared, and still appear, to have the idea that they must produce editions as large as a Hudson's Bay Company blanket to discharge properly their legitimate functions. At Washington recently it was stated that the amount of newsprint which was imported and produced at home last year fell short of the demand by 63,000 tons, but it is of interest to note that in 1919 the United States exported 110,295 tons of it. In any case, however the problem is going to be dealt with, it should go without saying that the Canadian market should have the preference in respect of the supply of newsprint manufactured from Canadian raw material, under Canadian franchises.

USEFUL BODY DISSOLVES.

Apathy on the part of the general public is given as the chief reason for dissolving the Victoria Anti-Tuberculosis Society. Lack of support to a body of this kind is a matter for regret and it is to be hoped that the announcement of its dissolution will result in a revival of public sentiment in favor of a campaign directed towards state care of the country's tubercular population. It should be remembered, however, that if it had not been for the magnificent work carried on by the British Columbia Anti-Tuberculosis Society and its individual branches the annual toll exacted by consumption in this Province would have been very much larger during the last ten years than the hundred per cent. increase already officially reported.

GET STARTED!

In the attempt which has been made to revive the controversy on the proposal to establish a two-year course in arts in this city in affiliation with the University of British Columbia, certain alarming figures have been used to prejudice the taxpayers and discourage the School Board from proceeding farther with the scheme. The Times has good ground for the assurance that those figures have been grossly overdrawn and that the cost of the two-year course will be extremely moderate, as much so, in fact, as the cost of the two-year course in affiliation with McGill University which was conducted with signal success here for years prior to the establishment of the provincial university and which never was criticized from motives of economy. After considering this question finally at to-night's meeting of the Board, we hope, will proceed at once with the organization of the course, including the appointment of the principal and other steps essential to an early commencement of the work.

FOREST FIRES AND PREVENTION.

Reports from Eastern Canada emphasize again the absolute necessity for this country to consider and institute a more effective system of forest fire prevention and control. It is not enough to place reliance upon an uncertain public appreciation of the danger which invariably follows the thoughtless act, any more than it is to suppose that a single fire hose will subdue the flames of a square mile of timber ablaze. The penalty for carelessness on the part of the camper and the itinerant wanderer should be sufficiently severe to compel more than an ordinary regard for the nation's property.

Fortunately British Columbia's forest patrol service is as efficient as it is possible to make it with the appliances at its disposal. Nevertheless the lesson of Eastern Canada's present condition should be recognized by the Dominion Government in its national and not in its provincial sense. This country's standing timber is a priceless heritage upon which the Dominion exchequer depends in varied ways for continued contribution. On that account there should be no delay in providing this Province—by reason of its topographical peculiarities—with sufficient means, including possibly an aircraft service, to assist in the task of fire detection. Wireless telephony already has been inaugurated as a provincial enterprise, but its usefulness might be very considerably enhanced by a system of aerial patrol.

GENERAL DYER.

Deplorable as were the circumstances in which General Dyer found himself in the Punjab a little over twelve months ago there appears to be very little doubt that his zealous concern for the dignity of British rule and influence in India ran away with his better judgment, and converted what should have been an act of discipline into one closely akin to massacre. At the same time the average thinking person is entitled to a good deal more information than that which appeared in the recent report submitted by the special commission entrusted with the inquiry. It will rankle in the minds of those who studied the belated accounts of the Amritsar incident that General Dyer's conduct at the time was the subject of commendation, an official view which promptly changed as soon as the light of day penetrated to the horrible details. And now that the Government of India has declared the offending general showed a misconception of duty and exceeded the requirements of the case, it invites him to "take appropriate action." An intimation of this sort a few years ago would have been the signal for a British officer to efface himself completely. General Dyer, however, may not have the inclination to hold a pistol to his head; but he may be induced to give some details in connection with the original official attitude towards his conduct.

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS.

A contemporary reminds us that all the thrills of historical romance may be found these days in your boy's or girl's arithmetic book. In its pages flourish the farmers who still sell potatoes for 56 cents a bushel and grocers who offer eggs in any quantity for 24 cents a dozen. And sugar—we need merely to cite this example from the book to live again in fancy in those halcyon days before the hateful countenance of Mr. High Cost of Living appeared upon the earth:

"A grocer has 10 barrels of sugar, each containing 140 pounds. If he sells the sugar for six cents a pound how much money will he have?"

But this grocer does not confine his kindly ministrations to sugar, for the good book tells us that he also sells butter at 24 cents a pound, while we read of milkmen who allow their customers to have milk for eight cents a quart.

Turning over the pages of this entrancing volume we discover a happy family of six who live comfortably on $39 per month. Observe this problem: "The grocery and meat bill of a family of six amounts to $39 a month. At that rate what would a family of four pay for meat and groceries per month?"

We do not agree with those who claim those arithmetic books should be revised to conform more to modern conditions. Why should they? We do not talk of revising Hans Andersen's or Grimm's Fairy Tales. Let us keep these exhilarating old legends.

NOTE AND COMMENT

With the utmost horror we read the report that the gentleman who is so busy purging this community of raffles and similar forms of depravity actually purchased a ticket in a wheel of fortune game which operated at the Gorge recently. It cannot be true. Why, they might as well charge him with indulging in the debauchery of the game of "forfeits" which, alas, is still played by many of our unregenerate young people at house parties!

The United States Senate yesterday appears to have had an Irish question of its own. Perhaps its experience with the hecklers will give it a little more insight into the difficulties with the larger question than it seems to have had up to this time. There is no doubt that no form of Government would be acceptable to Ireland as a whole or its sympathizers in the United States in their present mood.

Not an inconsiderable amount of uneasiness is being exhibited in France at the present time over the recent acquisition by a number of British groups of several of the principal German newspapers. French associations with her neighbor across the English Channel should put her at ease, and if the kind of propaganda work that may now be expected to find its way into Germany does not assist in keeping her natural enemy at bay we shall be very much surprised.

OTHER NEWSPAPERS' VIEWS

THEN AND NOW

(The Ottawa Journal)
Do you really want the "good old days" when there were no Pullmans, fast trains, anaesthetics, telephones, bicycles, automobiles, moving pictures, self blinders, hay loaders, cream separators, phonographs, cold storage, plate glass, gas cooking ranges, incandescent lights, aeroplanes, elevators, fast ocean liners, X-ray photography, typewriters, adding machines, cash registers, asphalt, microscopes, telescopes, linotypes, high speed presses and automatic machines in almost every branch of endeavor? Think it over. Have these things not added something to the measure of human happiness?

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS.

(The Providence Journal.)
Could there be a more vivid example of professional honor than that of the French doctor who continued on his way to the bedside of a seriously sick patient after he had been overtaken with the news that his son had met with a most distressing accident. The pathos of the incident is heightened by the fact that the father learned on his return that the boy had died in his absence.

RESERVES JUDGMENT IN RAFFLES CASE

Court Is Told Why The Times Tried To Help Hospital

Surrounded with no little mystery on the part of the prosecution the case of alleged abetting of a common lottery against The Times and The Colonist and a third person as beneficiary thereof, was called in court this morning before Magistrate Jay. The informant was the first witness called by the prosecution, and gave his name as Clarence Harris, carpenter, resident at 2988 Douglas Street. He stated that he had ascertained the facts, and read a cutting from The Daily Colonist of April 7 under the heading of "Generous Prizes for Hello Victoria." Mr. Harris read the press report in full, which was a full column article on the preliminary arrangements for the Revue in connection with the drive for hospital funds.

The article in question made a brief reference to a drawing, and gave a list of the prizes, but did not state particulars of the method to be adopted, or the proposal of sale. H. B. Robertson, acting for the two newspapers, seized upon this phase of the question, and quoted a decision handed down in the Court of Appeals in London, where Horatio Bottomley had won his case against the Crown for a similar charge of aiding a lottery.

News Versus Advertising.
In an eloquent appeal Mr. Robertson rehearsed the incidents leading up to the charge, and finally asked acquittal. "We are charged with advertising a lottery," he stated "an advertisement is a paid announcement for the benefit of the individual. A news item, on the other hand, is an unpaid announcement of facts for the information of the public at large."

"The article in question is not an advertisement of the proposal or plan of the raffle, but merely a newswitem stating what will take place. It does not give the method of procedure, but simply refers to a 'drawing.' I submit there is no publicity of the proposal for sale of tickets. The paid advertisement of the Revue, your honor will see alongside the article in question, and even that contains no mention of the raffle."
"I submit that it is idle to contend that the legislators at Ottawa ever intended anything so silly in that section of the criminal code. I would ask your honor for an acquittal."

Expert Testimony.
City Prosecutor Harrison, contending that the Bottomley case was hardly analogous to the present instance, and called J. L. Tait, business manager of The Daily Colonist. Mr. Tait gave evidence to the effect of how an advertisement came to be printed, and what distinguished it from ordinary news stories. At this point the witness spent some time in a minute observation of the type used to set "Tanlac," "Tiz" and other advertisements.

Mr. Harrison contended that the paid advertisements were not the only form of advertising in use in the paper, and that other and more subtle methods were employed to boost the individual. He contended in short that the article in question was in the form of an unpaid advertisement soliciting patronage for the Hello Victoria Revue, and its consequent benefits in the McLaughlin car and other prizes.

Magistrate Jay reserved judgment until Friday to consider the evidence before him. The charge against The Times Printing and Publishing Company, was also set off until Friday, as being similar to The Colonist case, it will be influenced by the case now standing for judgment.

An Esquimalt Case.
Mr. Harris has carried his stand-ard "No Esquimalt." A week ago Mr. Harris saw Reeve Lockley and advised him that there was a form of raffle taking place at the Gorge on the occasion of the holiday. The contrivance consisted of a spinning wheel, which Mr. Harris stated he knew to be against the criminal code. To make further sure of his ground it is alleged he bought a ticket therein.

Reeve Lockley advised Mr. Harris to submit his information through the ordinary channels to the police commissioners of Esquimalt, which the latter did a few days later. Mr. Harris evidently changed his mind because he telephoned urgently to the Reeve, and asked him to withhold his letter laying information as he was going to attend to that phase of the question in person at the police quarters. He has since laid information against the person operating the wheel.

ESQUIMALT DRYDOCK MEETING WILL BE POSTPONED FOR TIME

Owing to the difficulties of completing the programme on such short notice it is feared that the mass meeting called for Thursday regarding the Esquimalt drydock will be delayed some few days.

Preliminary arrangements are under way, however, and further announcements will be given later. Considerable interest has been aroused and numerous inquiries made regarding the meeting. This meeting, planned by the Centennial Forum, promises to be one of the most important ever held in Victoria.

LIGHTNING KILLS GIRL AND INFANT

Ottawa, June 2.—Miss Edith Brownlee, daughter of J. H. Brownlee, North Gower, and the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Park, of Northfield, were killed by a bolt of lightning which struck their house during a severe storm yesterday. Miss Brownlee was sitting with the child on her knee when the lightning struck. Both bodies were badly burned.

PRESBYTERIANS HOLD GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Opening Session Held in Church in Ottawa This Afternoon

Ottawa, June 2.—With nearly half of the commissioners registered at noon to-day, it is altogether likely that the attendance at the opening session of the 46th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in Chalmers Church this afternoon, will approximate about two-thirds the total number of commissioners appointed. The address of Colonel the Rev. Dr. John Pringle, the retiring Moderator, is being anticipated with great interest, as well as the election of the new Moderator following the address.

The choice of the commissioners has narrowed down to two contestants, Professor James Ballantyne and Dr. Gandler, both of Knox College. The former has several times been on the nomination papers for Moderator, but has frequently made way for other candidates. He has a strong following among his ex-pupils in the Presbyterian pulpits all over Canada, and is greatly revered and beloved.

TRUNK WENT ASTRAY.

The loss of a trunk belonging to Rev. Dr. Robert Campbell, joint clerk of the General Assembly, threatened for a time to hold up the business of the gathering, but to-day at noon the trunk was located by the railway officials and it will be here in time for the first business session this evening. The trunk contains most of the records of the Assembly, and if it had not been recovered, would have seriously hampered proceedings.

Commissioners to the Assembly arrived in large numbers by every train this morning. Among the commissioners arriving this morning were Rev. R. Macgowan, of Hillhurst Church, Calgary, and Rev. J. W. Robinson, of Welwyn, Sask.

PAINLEVE MISSION NOW IN VANCOUVER

Ex-Premier of France and Others Are on Way to China

Vancouver, June 2.—With the declared object of drawing together the ancient civilization of the Orient and that of the Occident, France has taken the initiative before the whole world in sending to China an important educational and technical mission, headed by M. Paul Painleve, former Premier and Minister of War of France. M. Painleve, with a party of distinguished scholars and men of letters, reached Vancouver this morning from Seattle. He will sail on the liner Empress of Russia on Thursday, and will remain in China for some months.

Acting as official representative of the Chinese Government, Mr. Hain-Jon-Kia, a professor at the Sorbonne University of Paris, is accompanying the party. For many years M. Painleve and Mr. Hain-Jon-Kia have been associated and the present mission is the realization of a dream which the latter has had for many years.

Berlin, June 2.—Isolated Franco-German clashes continued at Heuthen, Silesia, Saturday and Sunday, since which time the police, in co-operation with the French troops, have quieted the town.

MAJOR MUTTER DIES

AT HIS ISLAND FARM

Well-known Cowichan Resident Succumbs at Somenos

J. M. Mutter, one of the best-known residents of the Cowichan district and former superintendent of the Provincial Jail in Victoria, died at his home in Somenos on Monday night. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon from the family residence, Rev. Canon Leakey officiating; and the Rev. A. F. Munro assisting at the graveside.

James Mitchell Mutter was born April 3, 1845 at Glasgow, Scotland, the eldest son of James Mutter, J.P., for the County of Argyll and Agnes, his wife, only child of George Cruickshanks, of Glasgow and Banffshire, Scotland. At eighteen he journeyed to Australia to learn sheep farming. He remained in Australia for some years, until he returned to Scotland to take up his father's business in the island of Islay where he married and his family was born. He became Justice of the Peace for the County of Argyllshire and for years was on the staff of the Argyll and Bute Artillery. He gained his majority in 1871.

In the same year he set sail for Canada, with his wife and family, coming direct to British Columbia. Purchasing a farm of considerable extent from the late James Kier, he settled in Somenos district, and was one of the first farmers to bring pedregreed South Down sheep into the district. He was the founder of the "Cowichan Creamery" and, with the late Captain Barkley, he started the Cowichan Flock Masters' Association. He held the office of president of the Cowichan Agricultural Association for many years and was president of the B.C. Dairyman's association, arranging its first sale of pure-bred dairy cattle and pigs. Being an expert judge of stock he judged at numerous fairs on the island and the Mainland.

Major Mutter entered the Legislature by acclamation for the Cowichan-Alberni riding at the general election of July, 1894, and sat in the House during the regimes of Hon. Theodore Davie and Hon. J. H. Turner. After sitting through the seventh parliament he retired to his farm. Later he received the appointment of superintendent of the Provincial Jail, Victoria, and here remained until the completion of the new jail buildings on Wilkinson Road. On account of his advancing years he retired to live quietly at his farm. On his retirement he received a presentation from the jail officials and the Attorney-General who desired to show their esteem for him.

He is survived by his widow, three sons, J. LeMay Mutter, Allan Mutter and George W. Mutter; three daughters, Mrs. H. B. Greaves, of Victoria; Misses A. Blanche Mutter of Somenos, and Mrs. Stanley Lamb, of Quamichan Lake and seven grandchildren. Two of the latter, Harry Pearson Graves, who was killed in action, and James Greaves, who lost one arm, both served in France.

SAY CONDITIONS IN SCHOOL INSANITARY

Various improvements at the Boys' and Girls' Central Schools will be recommended to the School Board immediately by the Central School District Parent-Teachers' Association which considered the matter at a meeting Monday.

A special committee's report on the Boys' Central School ran, in part, as follows: "We find that most inadequate accommodation is afforded the pupils for cleansing themselves," noted the report. "In two rooms there are two bowls where children may wash (in cold water only, however), but the rest of the school, consisting of some 350 pupils is altogether supplied with only two washbasins, furnished with cold water only. How can children possibly keep clean under these conditions?"

"Finally," concluded the report, "we find that the water-closets at the Boys' Central School are of such an antiquated nature that they are simply abominable. How children accustomed to the cleanliness of closets at home can be expected to use such a place as is afforded them at schools is a mystery to us. We recommend that if the school authorities do not see their way clear to remedy this matter, that recourse be had to the city and Provincial Boards of Health."

The report was adopted. Rev. G. H. Andrews delivered a very interesting address to the hundred members present on the subject of boys' training.

WILL CARRY ON TUBERCULAR WORK

The work of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society which disbanded on Tuesday morning will be carried on by the Victorian Order of Nurses. It is considered urgent that the work should not be allowed to lapse. The V. O. N. met on Tuesday afternoon to make arrangements for the taking over of the work through a committee on which will act Mrs. Love, Mrs. Lennox, Mrs. Henry Helsterman, and Mrs. Wilkerson, all formerly associated with the Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

Mrs. Goldie Wilson presided at the meeting yesterday, there being present the following other members: Mrs. Ross Sutherland, Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Phipps, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Hardie, Mrs. H. Lawson, Mrs. Hartley, Miss Kennedy, Miss Lawson, Miss Cridge.

Sixty-seven cases were reported as having been nursed by the Victorian Order of Nurses during the month, and 401 visits were paid. With Miss Bentz, the new nurse recently appointed, there are now three Victorian Order Nurses in the city, Miss McNair has been delegated to look after the tubercular work for the society.

HOUSING SCHEME HELD UP BECAUSE
MONEY IS LACKING

City Unable to Get Funds
From Provincial Government

Inability on the part of the Provincial Government to supply the necessary funds is holding up the city's Housing Scheme, Alderman George Sangster, Chairman of the Civic Housing Committee, stated to-day.

"We recently asked the Government to advance us $45,000 of our housing allocation," Alderman Sangster said, "in order to pay a number of contractors for work done. The Government won't give us a cent because, apparently, the money hasn't come through from Ottawa. This is holding up the scheme in the city and is causing an awkward situation."

"Yes, before we adopted the Housing Scheme," Mayor Porter remarked, "the Minister of Lands, Mr. Pattullo, kept telling us to hurry, hurry, hurry, and now when we get well into the scheme we can't get any money from him! The other day we had to pay a certain contractor who was leaving the city, money out of the city treasury because housing moneys were not available."

"There's a whole stack of bills waiting to be paid when we get the money," Alderman Sangster asserted. It is expected that, with the break in the lumber market, a number of returned soldiers will apply to the city for housing loans, but it is likely that there will be insufficient of the city's housing allocation left over to provide a few civilians with loans. At present, of course, only returned soldiers are eligible for loans, but the aldermen intend to broaden the scope of the scheme if there are not sufficient applications from ex-service men.

Recently the city purchased 1,000,000 shingles for housing purposes at what was considered an advantageous price. Since that time, however, the sensational drop in lumber prices occurred and it is feared that some money will be lost. About three-quarters of the shingles have been used so far.

EIGHT OUNCE MALADY IS NOT VICIOUS ONE

Just Five Prescriptions Honored So Far; Two-quart Colds Vanish To-day

Just five eight-ounce liquor prescriptions have been honored by the official vendor in this city since the new regulation went into effect yesterday morning. This would have represented the total business for alcoholic medicinal remedy had it not been for a two-day extension of the time in which prescriptions of the two-quart variety might be filled at the Government store. After to-day, however, "pink slips" dated prior to June 1 and inscribed with the magic words "Two Quarts" will be no more used at the Yates Street liquor emporium than they will be to the wastepaper basket.

Henceforward a prescription for any amount over eight ounces must be accompanied by a statutory declaration executed by the doctor, who is required to state on oath that the additional quantity of liquor is essential to the needs of the patient.

PROGRESS OF WORK IN INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH

Hon. Joshua W. Alexander, secretary of the United States Department of Commerce, in a recent address said: "For the present year an appropriation of $300,000 was provided for industrial research in co-operation with the industries. No fund ever appropriated for the Bureau (U. S. the Bureau of Standards at Washington) has been more beneficial to the public. The work of the Government in developing the agricultural interests of the country is too well known for comment, and there is every reason why the same or similar assistance should be given to the development of commerce and industry."

He also made the statement that "we have long since passed the stage in economic development in which our exports, if there are to be any, consist of those raw materials and products of the mine and soil that sell themselves because other nations must have them in order to feed their industrial workers and to give them the raw materials for their labor. The time has come in the economic development of the United States when we ourselves must manufacture our raw materials and bring raw materials from abroad in order to keep the wheels of our industries turning and the dinner pails of our working people full. There is some question about the advisability of the exportation of raw materials unless we can produce a surplus. But the two or three great manufacturing nations of the world have demonstrated for two generations that the exports of the products of industry bring prosperity to the enterprise and to the labor engaged in industry, banking and shipping."

NEW THOUGHT BUYS
$12,000 CHURCH

Members of Denomination Will Occupy Present Christian Science Church

Dr. T. W. Butler, head of the New Thought Temple, has bought the Christian Science Church on the south side of Pandora Street, between Quadra and Vancouver Streets, according to an announcement to-day. Dr. Butler paid $12,000 for the church itself. He is paying extra for many of the fittings.

The church was built ten years ago. It seats 330. It is an attractive church, both inside and outside.

At present the New Thought Temple is in the Pemberton Building. A large edifice has been found necessary because of the increased congregations, which are now beyond the present accommodation.

The New Thought Temple will be transferred as soon as the Christian Science congregation moves to its new church at the head of Pandora Avenue. This will be some time in July or August, it was said to-day.

APPEALS AGAINST $1,000
FOR LOSS OF TRUNK

The Court of Appeal, composed of Chief Justice Macdonald and Justices Martin, Gallihier and McPhillips, continued to-day the hearing of the appeal of Lumsden against the Pacific Steamship Co. for $1,000 damages for the loss of a trunk. The trunk was shipped from San Francisco to Victoria, but instead of being shipped to the destination it was taken to the Admiral Dewey to Seattle.

Judge Ruggles in the Vancouver County Court gave Lumsden $1,000. Douglas Armour, K.C., for the steamship company, appealed the decision. R. M. Macdonald is appearing for the plaintiff-respondent.

The court allowed the appeal of Lane against Austin brought by the defendant. Mr. Justice McPhillips declared himself in favor of a new trial. Douglas Armour, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff-respondent and S. S. Taylor, K.C., for the defendant-appellant.

MUNICIPALITIES
ASKED TO PROTECT
MIGRATORY BIRDS

The city and adjoining municipalities are being urged by the Federal Department of the Interior to help to conserve migratory birds which are very useful for destroying harmful insects. It is pointed out that, under the Migratory Birds Convention Act, one-half the penalty imposed on any person violating the measure is payable to the officer who secures a conviction, provided that this person is not in receipt of salary, or to any private person who secures a conviction. The Act is the result of a treaty between the United States and Great Britain.

ALFRED HALLAM TO BE
POLICE COURT CLERK

Alfred Hallam will be appointed Clerk of the Police Court temporarily, if a recommendation to be forwarded to the City Council Monday is adopted. Mr. Hallam has been chosen among a number of applicants by a special committee consisting of Alderman Sangster, Alderman Sargent and Magistrate Jay. If his services prove satisfactory he will be appointed permanently.

Mr. Hallam is an English newspaper man and has wide experience with law courts.

HIS WIFE SEES A BIG CHANGE IN HIM

F. H. Hayden Says He Is Like a New Man Since Taking Tanlac

"Only the other day my wife was saying, 'What a difference there is in you since you've been taking Tanlac!' and there sure is, for it has made a new man of me," said F. H. Hayden, well-known employee of the Dominion Express Co., and living at 3233 25th Avenue East, Vancouver, B. C.

"I certainly was in a bad fix before I started on that medicine, for I couldn't eat a thing but what it would sour on my stomach. Then I would bloat up with gas until I thought it should suffocate, and my heart would throb like an engine. I had to be taking something all the time to relieve my constipation, and often had very bad headaches. My sleep seemed to do me no good, and my nerves got into such a state that the slamming of a door made me jump as though I had been shot, and I couldn't even stand the children around me. I also had a bad pain in the small of the back that gave me trouble every time I had to lift a heavy parcel or bend over."

"But I'm like a different man now for Tanlac seems to have knocked all my troubles clean out of my system. I never would have believed it possible for three bottles of any medicine to do a fellow so much good. I now have such an appetite that I can't get enough to eat, and my stomach is so much better that I can eat anything I want, and never have a sign of indigestion afterward. I can now lift the heaviest parcels without having any pain in the back, and am feeling much stronger. I've been relieved entirely of constipation, and am not troubled with the headaches any more. I was as grumpy as a bear with a sore head when I suffered so much with the indigestion, but I am now cheerful and happy, and my nerves are as steady as a die. Tanlac is certainly a champion medicine, and I can recommend it to all who suffer as I did."

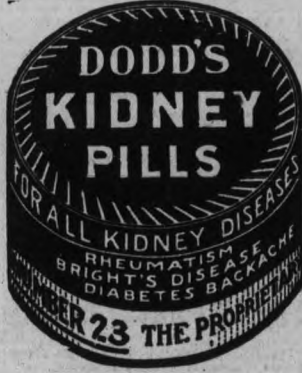

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Port and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

'Twas Said

A surviving Old Fashioned Farmer surveyed the shiny automobile with scorn. "What's that?" he asked, indicating the spare tire. "Oh, that's just an extra in case anything goes wrong with one of the running tires," he was told. "Huh!" the old fashioned farmer snorted disdainfully. "I been drivin' horses fifty years, but I never had to take along an extra leg for one of 'em."

The march of progress has eliminated most of the old timers, who used to sit around the stove in the store, waiting for trade to come to them, a few still exist, but present day methods require more than that. Keeping up-to-date is a hobby with us—we believe in adopting newest ways of improving the various phases of merchandising, for making our store a modern, efficient and worthy place for people to shop. The motorist, for example, will find the tire service here entirely to his liking. In the 30x3 1/2-inch size we have:

LOOKS LIKE ELECTION SOON, SAYS BOWSER; WANT DRYDOCK START

Conservative Leader to Make Trip Into Peace River Country

Reorganized Conservatives of Victoria at their first meeting under their president, J. O. Dunford, last night passed a resolution calling on the Dominion Government for an immediate and definite announcement that the construction of the Esquimalt drydock is to be carried on, "as the long delay since the project was sanctioned in 1911 has been a source of unrest and detriment to the welfare of this community."

The meeting applauded the announcement of W. J. Bowser, K.C., Provincial Conservative Leader, that he is to make a tour of the Peace River district, on the repeated invitations of the people of that district who want "to hear the real facts of the situation as they are disgusted with the present administration."

Mr. Bowser attacked the Government's plan for the registration of voters, declaring that July 15 is too early to shut off registration in outlying districts such as Peace River, Atlin and Fort George. He predicted that through this rushing many electors in these districts will be disfranchised.

Says Premier Harassed.

From the way Ministers of the Government are running around the Province making speeches and the rushing of the voters' lists, Mr. Bowser asserted that it looked as if a general Provincial election were not far off.

The picture was presented of the Premier floundering amid law suits and harassed by the disloyalty of his followers and disorganization in the party ranks.

Government Slipping.

"My friend the Premier is learning what it is to have the sentiment of an entire Province turn against him," said Mr. Bowser. "From every quarter comes evidence that the Government is slipping. It is an administration with a salary list of between three and four millions, spending millions on land settlement schemes which get no results, with other millions borrowed with no definite programme to be followed."

Mr. Bowser declared that on his recent trip he found the East looking to British Columbia "the white hope in the Conservative cause."

Trouble at Courtenay.

Mr. Bowser predicted serious developments in the Courtenay soldier settlement, as the scheme will close at the end of June and the Government is not able to give them a title to their land and homes, as the Federal Board would refuse to loan on the high valuation the Government is setting on the lands, as the cost of the work has been excessive. Mr. Bowser asserted the only thing the Government can do is to borrow more money, share the cost of this work and charge it up to inefficient administration.

Registering Women Voters.

W. C. Moreby dealt with the registration plan under the Electoral Act. He explained how commissioners should carry out their work and emphasized the need of taking particular care with the registration of women for their identification. He asserted that all married women should be registered as the wife of their husband, with his initials given instead of being merely set down as "housewife."

President Dunford said women were elevating the tone of political life in British Columbia.

Mrs. Hall, J. Jeeves, A. W. Palmer and T. Obee took part in the musical programme.

Carter by Bishop White, of the Diocese of Honan, China.

The tapestry is probably Chien-Lung (1728) and is in excellent condition. The colors are nearly as clear as new. The subject is the "eight Genii," which is described in a number of books dealing with the subject of Chinese artistry. The border is of gold cloth, worm eaten in spots, but yet very good.

Dr. White states that professor Wuif, collector for the Museum, in Stockholm, was anxious to buy it. The piece was purchased by Dr. White from a lady who had it in the family from the time her people came to Kaileng, Honan, 10 years before the date of the Bishop securing it.

There are also a few pieces of fine Sang-de-beuf china of remarkable purity of color.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured by B. B. B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed.

Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope.

Burdock Blood Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. D. Barry, Purlbrook, Ont., writes:—"I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband has derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. He had been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory rheumatism. He tried many medicines but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

INDUSTRIES WANTED.

To the Editor.—An interesting article in the Times of May 29 from the Forestry Department tells of the quantity of pulp timber in the Province, on the Queen Charlotte Islands, the Nias, the Skeena, the West Coast of Vancouver Island, and east of the whole district. It is trying to get your attention to the fact that there is enough pulp timber (spruce, balsam and hemlock) in Esquimalt Electoral District which, if manufactured, would give the employment near home that is so much needed at the present time. And unless we on the south end of Vancouver Island wake up and make some effort to have those big pulp, paper and sawmills built near Victoria, those industries which would be worth more to us than a dozen of the mills that are built in distant parts of the Province.

Is it not time that we drop our childish ideas about play houses, golf links, swimming pools, tourists, etc., and do something to get the permanent industries started up that are necessary for most of us to live near Victoria? About sixty miles from Victoria we have enormous quantities of the raw materials that the whole world is asking for. Why not have it manufactured, and by that means clear the land in what is the most verdant spot in all Canada?

We need more farm products. Then why not take the pulp timber from the San Juan and other valleys first and leave it in a condition for settlers to raise more farm products? The summer rain will make those valleys more productive than Saanich or Cowichan and will prove to be a more valuable asset than the splendid timber which now covers the whole district. I am trying to get a few of the largest pulp and paper mills located there as an aid to clear the land and make the south end of Vancouver Island more prosperous and fit for habitation. What is Victoria doing about it.

Every Woman

Be she working in factory, shop, office or at home, is often a sufferer from pains here or there, from worry, despondency, and frequently suffers from backache. Very often the trouble is in the organs essentially feminine. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders and the faltering step. To retain the appearance of youth, a woman must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is the woman's temperance tonic and nerve which has had the approval of thousands of women for nearly fifty years. It comes in liquid or tablet form, or send ten one-cent stamps to the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of the tablets. The "Favorite Prescription" is made without alcohol, and will dispel the pains and the weaknesses common to most women in different periods of life. It is prepared in Dr. Pierce's branch Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., and sold by almost every druggist in Canada.

PETERBORO, ONT.—"I am glad indeed to recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the great benefit I have received from taking it. I had suffered for a long time. I would have backache and it just seemed that I had no strength in my back. I also had pains in my side. I became weak and nervous, could not sleep or eat, and was most miserable when I began taking 'Favorite Prescription.' It soon took away all my pains and aches and cured me of this trouble, and my health was better afterward than it had been for a long time. I feel that I can safely recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to other women who all likewise."—MRS. CHAS. BROOKS, 228 Ferry Street

BRIEF LOCALS

Artillery Association Dinner.—It has been found necessary to postpone the dinner arranged for June 4. Announcement of the new date will be made later.

Bank Clearings.—Bank clearings for the week ending to-day were $2,398,082, as compared with $1,497,944 in the corresponding week of 1919.

Real Estate Exchange.—The next luncheon of the Victoria Real Estate Exchange will be held on Wednesday, June 3. There will be no luncheon this week.

Rotary Luncheon.—The Victoria Rotary Club will have a luncheon at the headquarters Thursday by the courtesy of Chief of Police Langley and the Police Commissioners. The Rotarians will hear addresses on the finger print system of identification of criminals by Detective Inspector George Perdue, Sergeant Carlow, and Miss Bartholomew.

Waiters Get Rate.—Settlement has been reached between the Cooks and Waiters Union, and the restaurant proprietors in respect to an increase in the wages of the former. A week of six days at eight hours a day will be paid by $18 for the men, and $15 for the women. In a broken shift an hour will be paid by 45 cents for the men, and 35 for the women. These figures include meals on the premises.

Brotherhood Wants Vote.—After discussion last night the Victoria West Brotherhood went on record as being in favor of the city submitting a by-law to the people before closing any deal with the B. C. Electric Railway on the new project. The subject was brought up by a letter from the Women's Independent Political Association, advocating action indicating that the city would not submit a by-law unless forced to do so.

Assisting in Recital.—Miss Nickawa, who will be heard in recital of Indian Legends and other selections at the Metropolitan Church on Friday evening will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Laseby and Miss Mary Middleton, popular vocalists. Miss Nora Atkinson, violinist, and Mr. Edward Parsons, pianist.

A Small Attendance.—The sudden burst of fine weather probably accounted for the slim attendance at the monthly meeting of the Victoria West Brotherhood held in Semple's Hall last evening. President Foxwell was in the chair and various matters of local interest were discussed. The question of the annual picnic took up considerable time owing to difficulties in the way of deciding on a site the matter was referred back to the executive for recommendations at the next meeting.

Retailers Stay Open.—Owing to the decision of the retailers to remain open on the King's Birthday, E. Elworthy, secretary of the Board of Trade, states that the jobbers will continue business as usual.

Grass Fire.—The Fire Department was called out shortly before noon to-day to extinguish a grass fire at the corner of Quebec and Menzies Streets. A fire which caused little damage occurred in the Manitoba Hotel last night.

Sustains Painful Injuries.—While cycling down a steep incline last night Miss E. Smith, of 1219 Fort Street, lost control of her machine, and crashed into a stone wall at the bottom with great violence. Miss Smith fractured her jaw, and sustained painful injuries to the head and face. Taken later to the Jubilee Hospital, the lady was reported to be doing well.

Suicide While Despondent.—A verdict of self-inflicted death, while in a despondent frame of mind, was brought in by the jury sitting in the inquest on the case of Malcolm Cameron, who was found dead yesterday in the office of the Marine Department. The inquest was held this morning at Thomson's Funeral Home, Coroner E. C. Part presiding. J. Penketh, J. Lyvisse, F. Young, A. Clark, J. McNeil and D. Stratton acted as jurors.

In Police Court.—The charge of having liquor in other than private dwelling land against the proprietors of the Cecil Hotel was to-day dismissed in the police court. Sgt. Bolton stated that he saw on his entry the accused throwing some liquid away into a sink. Collecting some of the drops from the sink Sgt. Bolton had Constable Ferguson smell it while he himself tasted the precious drops, pronouncing them whisky. H. B. Robertson appeared for the accused, and gained a dismissal on the ground that free liquid in the sink could not be termed "for sale" under the evidence given. James

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND NEDDIE'S CLAWS.

By HOWARD R. GARIS.
Copyright, 1920, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

"Uncle Wiggily! Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" called a voice behind the bunny rabbit gentleman one day, as he was hopping through the woods looking for an adventure. "Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Wait a minute if you please!"

"Now I wonder who that can be?" thought Mr. Longears to himself, as he stopped and partly hid behind a big tree. "If it's the Pipsisewah—but no; it couldn't be that bad chap. He never says please! It must be one of my friends. But still I must be careful."

Uncle Wiggily peeked around the corner of the tree and there he saw, coming along with a hop, skip and a skeddaddie, Jacko, Kinkytail, the monkey boy.

"Why are you so joyful this morning, Jacko?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Because we are going to have a coconut cake at our house for supper to-night," chattered Jacko, frisking his tail around a stone and flinging it off through the air as Jacko Bow Wow might toss a baseball.

He Suddenly Threw the Coconut at the Bazumpas.

"A coconut cake!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "That will be fine!"

"And I invite you to come and have some," went on Jacko, formal like and appetizing.

"Oh, but perhaps there will not be cake enough," said Uncle Wiggily, laughing.

"Of course, there will!" chattered the monkey boy. "I am going to the store now for my mother, and she told me to get the largest coconut I could buy. And I asked her if I might invite you if I met you, and I did, and you're invited; so there!"

"It is very kind of you," spoke Uncle Wiggily, "and I'll do my part by going to the store with you and helping you carry the coconut."

Soon the rabbit gentleman and the monkey boy were at the five and ten cent store, looking at coconuts. They bought a lovely brown one with a fuzzy cover on, and Jacko held it up to his ear and shook it.

"Why do you do that?" asked Uncle Wiggily, curious like.

"To see if it has milk inside," answered Jacko. "Not the kind of milk the milkman leaves, but coconut milk. Jumpo, my brother, and I love coconut milk, and this one is nearly full."

So Jacko bought that coconut and he and Uncle Wiggily started home with it. They had not gone very far before, all of a sudden, out from behind a pineapple bush jumped the unpleasant old Bazumpas.

"I want souse!" I want souse!" howled the bad chap, looking straight and hungrily at Uncle Wiggily's ears.

"Oh, you do, eh?" asked Jacko, bravely. "Well, try a bit of coconut pie instead!"

With that, he suddenly threw the coconut at the Bazumpas, and as the coconut had not yet been taken out of the shell it was very hard. And, being hard, made the Bazumpas cry "Ouch!"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Jacko. "Do you want any more?"

"No," said the Bazumpas, "my nose is too sore!"

Then the bad chap ran away and the monkey boy picked up his coconut and shook it again to make sure the milk was still inside.

"How are you going to get the milk out?" asked Uncle Wiggily, as he and Jacko walked on together again.

"See these three little round things on the end of the coconut?" asked Jacko, pointing to them. "Well, they are soft spots, and if you stick a thorn in them it makes a hole, and the coconut milk comes out."

"No," said the Bazumpas, "I asked Uncle Wiggily. Then he and Jacko walked on some more, and the bunny gentleman was just thinking how nice Mrs. Kinkytail's coconut cake would taste, when, all of a sudden, a voice cried:

"Fire! Fire! Fire!"

"Where is it?" asked Uncle Wiggily, as Lulu Wibblewobble, the duck girl, came fluttering through the woods.

"Grandpa Goosey Gander's house is on fire, and the duck pond ocean is all dried up so there is no water to put the fire out!" quacked Lulu. "Oh! Oh!"

"Ha! This is where I can help!" chattered Jacko. On he rushed with his coconut. When he reached the place where Grandpa Goosey's house was burning, Jacko punched a hole in the end of the coconut with a sharp thorn and when the watery milk came out, Jacko sprinkled it on the fire and put out the blaze before it could do much damage.

"Oh, thank you!" quacked Grandpa Goosey. "You saved my house, but you lost all the milk of the coconut!"

"The coconut will be just as good for cake," said Jacko bravely.

"And I'll buy you another, so you and Jumbo may drink the milk," offered Uncle Wiggily, and he did. Thus everything came out all right, and the coconut cake was lovely. So if the horse chestnut tree doesn't run away and bark like a pussy cat at the dogwood blossom, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Jumpo's slide.

Aldermen Feel Statements on Sooke Lake Flow-line Do City Harm

Members of the City Council are very much perturbed over the publication of Alderman Todd's statements regarding leakages in the Sooke Lake flow-line. They declare that these statements, which import a totally erroneous idea of the true situation, form one of the worst advertisements the city could have and may keep people from settling in Victoria.

"It's most deplorable," Alderman Patrick asserted to-day. "Alderman

AS SOUND AS A NUT.

In search of a horse, a rather nervous Frenchman went to a dealer and explained his wants.

"Yes, sir, certainly!" said the latter, blandly. "I have just the animal you want."

He led the prospective customer through his stable, and finally came to a halt beside a small but wiry animal, which rolled its eyes in an ominous way.

"There you are, sir! This is a fine horse, either to drive or ride. As sound as a nut, and goes ten miles without stopping."

"But, monsieur," protested the Frenchman, "I leave but eight miles from ze station. If I buy heem, I have to walk two miles in ze backward direction!"—Tit-Bits.

In Civil Courts.—The suit of the Victoria, B.C. Land Investment Trust Company, Ltd., versus White was continued before Mr. Justice Macdonald in the Supreme Court this morning. The suit is a long drawn out litigation that has been occupying the attention of the court for some time. In the County Court before Judge Lampman this morning the suits of Seldelhuber versus McDonald and Nichol, and that of McKinnon and Dougal were heard. The former will be continued, and the latter adjourned to a date set later.

Hillson was fined $50 for being caught in possession of a Mickey while he and others were engaged in a "Round Table Conference" recently at the Allies Hotel. W. G. Winterburn, for failure to report a motor accident, was fined $10. One case in the Juvenile Court completed the list for the day.

Todd's remarks, which were quite unnecessary and unduly alarming, certainly do no good and might do a great deal of harm. The same applies to Alderman Andros' wild charges.

"There is nothing to be alarmed about in connection with the Sooke Lake waterworks, but from the remarks of these gentlemen one would think that there was going to be a water famine in a short time. The leakage in the flow-line has increased very little in the last few years, as figures on the matter plainly show. As a matter of fact, from 1916 to 1919 the leakage increased about five per cent per year. In this regard, Alderman Todd points out that the leakage last December was a large percentage and thinks it liable to continue. That is most unfair, as last December the flow-line was affected by the sudden and unexpected cold snap and naturally leaked heavily. On looking over the figures showing the leakages during various months it will be seen that during three months in 1919 the leakage was actually smaller than it was in corresponding months in 1916. There is nothing to get excited about. Alderman Todd might have spared himself, for he is doing no good by making these statements and certainly is giving the city a bad advertisement outside.

"Besides, Alderman Todd went to the extra trouble of placing a notice of motion on the subject on the public notice board, thus giving it all the more publicity. That, to me, seems regrettable."

"It is a peculiar thing," Alderman Patrick added, "that the leakage was gradually growing during 1919 and 1918 when Alderman Todd was Mayor of the city and yet he did nothing about it? Why didn't he look after it then?"

Mayor Porter and Alderman George Sangster, chairman of the Streets Committee, concurred heartily with Alderman Patrick's opinion.

Spion Kop, an Outsider, Ramps Away With Derby

Led Field in Classic Turf Event, With Archaic Second and Orpheus Third; Tetratema, Favorite, Is Not Placed; All Winners Ran At Big Odds; Tremendous Crowds.

London, June 2.—Captain G. Loder's Spion Kop won the classic Derby at Epsom Downs to-day. Lord Derby's Archaic was second and L. Neumann's Orpheus third. Nineteen horses ran.

The betting on the course follows: Spion Kop, 100 to 6; Archaic, 10 to 1; Orpheus, 50 to 1. The horses which ran were: Abbots Trace, Allenby, Prince Ittilus, Daylight Patrol, Dynamo, Firewood, He Goes, Kerashos, Marshal Neil, Orpheus, Politava, Polumetis, Sarchedon, Silvern, Spion Kop, Archaic, Tetratema and Toretore.

King and Queen Present. King George, who attended the opening meeting of the Epsom season on Tuesday, was given a great reception, was accompanied by Queen Mary to the race to-day.

The world famous Calcutta Sweepstakes is stated to have eclipsed all records, and it is estimated the first prize would be in the neighborhood of eight thousand pounds sterling.

The winner, Captain Loder's bay colt Spion Kop, by Spearpoint out of Hammerkop, had a disappointing career as a two-year-old, never winning a race last season, and though he finished second in five and third in one of his six races, he was running in very moderate fields and never met the best of his years.

The defeat of Tetratema was a sad blow for the great crowd assembled on Epsom Downs who had made the brilliant gray colt, a popular idol. Neither he nor the well-backed Allenby were in the money.

Humorist Wins Woodcote. London, June 2.—(Canadian Associated Press.—The Woodcote Stakes yesterday was won by Humcote, a Highlander 3 to 1 was second and Poiret, 20 to 1 was third. Twelve horses ran.

Terrific Batting Rally Pulls Game Out of Fire

Kelley's Two-Bagger Started Swatfest That Brought Twelve Runs to Capitals in Ninth Inning and Broke Spokane's Long Winning Record; Everybody Scored

Victoria, 12; Spokane, 5.

Jack Kelley, who is spending the summer with the Capitals as a catcher endeavoring to keep his avoirdupois from getting over 200 pounds, bounced into the glaring light of fame at Spokane yesterday afternoon. He started a batting rally in the ninth that resulted in twelve runs being scored and Victoria winning a game which seemed hopelessly lost.

Jack gets into an awful sweat when he catches a game, so he usually catches two and sits out one. But there are times when Jack's peaceful times on the bench are disturbed through the fact that Bill Leard wants a pinch-hitter. Kelley is about the surest hitter in a tight corner that there is on the Victoria team. So it happened that yesterday afternoon Leard was called upon under the prospect of another washout. The ninth inning had arrived and Spokane was leading by 3-0. The fans were on their way home, believing that the Indians could not be passed.

The Break Comes.
But the break came and Leard seized it with both his mittens and strangled it. Cunningham was hit by a pitched ball. Lawson, who pitched a splendid game, was politely turned back from the batter's box, and Kelly's was announced as one of Russell's slants, and leaped his 200 pounds against it. With the crack of the bat Cunningham started from first. The ball dropped safe in deep centre, and by the time it had been returned to the infield Cunningham had scored and Kelley, almost breathless, was resting on second base. It was a terrific drive as can be imagined when Jack made two bases on it.

That was the start of the greatest batting rally ever known in baseball in this section of the country. The Capitals went wild with their clubs, and plastered the pill to every part of the park. Russell tore his hair trying to put over something that the Leardites could not hit, but he finally left the fate of the game to Crespi, who went into the pitcher's box cold, and was pite for Victoria. He walked three men and hit one, but Blankenship decided not to disagree any more of his pitching staff, and allowed Crespi to fuddle the ball to his heart's content.

When the third out was finally registered, each Victoria player had batted twice, and twelve runs had scored. Kelley, Leard and Cunningham each crossed the platter twice.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

E. C. Andrews (N. S. W. Government Geologist), who for two years has been engaged with a staff in a complete geological survey of the Broken Hill mining field, left the Barrier for Sydney on April 16. He will return when the mines are in full swing to complete later investigation and see the fresh ore faces at the bottom levels. He is taking with him a detailed map of the field from the Pinnacles to two miles north of Stephens Creek, and also covering the country three miles east and west of Broken Hill. He hopes to have his report ready in about six weeks. He remarked to-day that the report would convey something of positive knowledge. The geology of the field had not previously been ascertained with definiteness, and there had been too much assumption and theory. The Broken Hill mineral region was what was known as "close-folded." There were no single arches, no single troughs, as, say, in Bendigo. The conditions on the Barrier were so complex that one could speak only in a general way; but so gigantic that one could not see the details as in some other fields. Really the only definite way to prove the ore bodies was to follow the ore through its tortuous formations and windings. In a broad way he had been able to study the ore bodies from the Pinnacles to Broken Hill, and from White Leads to Stephens Creek. One could not lay out work in this field as in others owing to the close folding in contradistinction to gentle folding. For instance, in the coalbearing seams of Sydney it was easy to say where coal might be found, owing to the easy dip of the strata. The possible presence of coal might be ascertained for many miles. So in Bendigo, where the dip was closer and more symmetrical the pressure of the ore bodies could be indicated with fair definiteness. At Broken Hill, however, the main arches and troughs were more complicated, bent in all sorts of formations with smaller arches and troughs developed on the sides of the whole structure. These were further complicated by large irregular foldings. Details of the tortuous windings of the ore bodies could be proved only by following the ore. The old-time prospector who did this was, without knowing it, a geologist of value.

Gamble Mining Co.
Active operations on the Gamble Mining Company's works at Wild

Horse Gulch will shortly be under way with Mr. House, an experienced placer man at the helm. The Cranbrook Electric Light Company are installing a Delco Electric light plant for the concern, which will be operated continuously from the time water is turned on until the clean up in the fall. Three eight hour shifts will be worked, the crews being ready for work.

Lanark Mine.
F. C. Elliott and W. Dornberg have opened a rich body of ore at a depth of nearly 1,000 feet in the Lanark mine, near Revelstoke. The vein is 8 to 10 feet wide, and carries 2 to 4 feet of shipping ore, assaying 90 ounces per ton in silver and 65 per cent. of lead, the remainder of the vein is a good grade of mill-ore.

Many Coal Mines
At the present time there are forty-two coal mines located on the lines of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, practically all of which are located west of Edmonton, says the Prince George Citizen. The production from these mines is gradually assuming large proportions. During the period from September 1, 1919, to April 21, 1920, these mines produced and shipped 27,753 cars, or approximately 900,000 tons of coal, which includes commercial as well as coal for railway purposes.

Upper Works of Suwa Maru Guttled By Fire

Damage Estimated at $150,000; Temporary Repairs Will Be Effected and Liner Dispatched on Schedule For Japan.

Despite the fire which destroyed a considerable section of the upper works of the Japanese liner Suwa Maru at Seattle on Monday night the Nippon Yusen Kaisha proposes to dispatch the liner for the Orient on schedule June 16. Temporary repairs will be effected and some of the first class reservations are being cancelled.

Second cabin and steerage passengers will be accommodated on the outward voyage and only those first cabin passengers willing to accept the limited accommodations which will be available after the temporary repairs have been completed. It is estimated that the damage will approximate $150,000. The liner was slated for her annual overhaul and inspection on her return to Japan and it was therefore decided to make permanent repairs upon her return to the Orient.

Origin of Blaze.

The fire, which is believed to have started from the electric wiring in the steward's room, immediately off the dining saloon, had it occurred at sea would have meant disaster for the ship. The liner had docked from Victoria Monday afternoon and before the fire broke out the ninety first class passengers had been disembarked and about $2,000,000 worth of silk and part of the $7,000,000 cargo of Oriental merchandise had been discharged. The second class and steerage passengers were aboard awaiting examination by the immigration authorities.

The first cabin dining saloon, the social hall, a large part of the first class staterooms on the starboard side and the officers' quarters were almost totally destroyed. The whole superstructure amidships was ablaze when the first streams of the Seattle fire department hit it.

The fire had started on the main deck and quickly involved the dining saloon, traveling aft through a long hallway and involving 100 feet of staterooms on the starboard side. It gutted all of these and the dining room. While the basic foundations of the superstructure are of steel, the whole is covered inside with a veneer of wood—with a great quantity of valuable furnishings as well as the principal rooms involved.

Up Grand Staircase.

The flames went up the grand stairway from the dining saloon to the main cabin and, eventually, climbed another deck to the officers' quarters, which were slightly damaged. The principal parts burned, however, before the fire department stopped the progress of the fire, were the main cabin, the dining saloon and the starboard staterooms on the main deck.

The Suwa Maru is one of the largest and most palatial ships in the Pacific Ocean. She discharged 1,600 tons of cargo at Victoria on her way to Seattle. The liner is one of the former Japane-European passenger carriers of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha which the company placed on the trans-Pacific run several years ago. She displaces 20,000 tons and is 512 feet long, 62 feet 6 inches wide and 34 feet 9 inches deep. She was built in 1914 by the Mitsubishi Dockyard & Engine Works of Nagasaki, Japan. In passenger accommodations she rivals the great trans-Atlantic liners, the accommodations including a number of suites of luxurious finish.

When the Nippon Yusen Kaisha diverted the Suwa and other big liners from the European route to the Pacific route it was believed that the vessels would remain only temporarily in this service, but business developed at such a pace that the company retained them permanently in its Victoria-Puget Sound fleet.

The local agents have not been advised as to the routing of the liner.

MERGER MAY INCLUDE WESTERN INTERESTS

Coughlan's Mentioned in Connection With Canadian Steel Fusion

Vancouver, B.C., June 2.—The steel merger of Canada, which has created more than ordinary interest all over the world during the last six weeks, is being discussed with extraordinary interest in Vancouver, where reports have arrived from the East that several large plants in British Columbia are to be in the merger.

The total assets of this fusion of steel and shipbuilding interests amounts to $107,000,000 according to the valuation given by Col. Grant Morden, the promoter of the scheme. While no British Columbia plants are on the list now entered in the merger it is understood that the Coughlan Shipbuilding Company has been approached to enter the combine, either actively or as an associated concern in all questions of industrial progress. J. J. Coughlan, of the Coughlan Shipbuilding Company, is in the East in connection with this and other matter of steel and shipbuilding importance.

WRONG MAN REPORTED.

The report received here on May 17 to the effect that a fireman had been lost overboard off the Consolidated Whaling Corporation's boat, Gray, gave the name of the missing man as Watson. Mr. Watson, father of the supposed missing man states that his son is alive and still on board the Gray. The provincial constable at Clayoquot wired Inspector Murray here to the effect that a man named Johnson had been missed. It is thought that Johnson jumped overboard while the vessel was some miles from shore. He had been suffering considerably and acting in a peculiar manner for some days before.

ROYAL VICTORIA
"The End of the Road" which will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-day, is a photoplay that should be seen by every father and mother in the City, also every young man and girl. It is a picture that has been endorsed by Clergymen, Public Leaders, and Medical men. After viewing the picture the School Trustees, Mrs. Spofford has the following to say about it: "A Film every father and mother should see. Every young man and every young woman should avail themselves of the knowledge contained therein. It is a highly educational picture on a line much needed." A continuous performance is given from 2 p.m. to 11 p.m.

DOMINION
Tully Marshall is grateful. The movies have at last allowed him to appear as himself. Generally he is cast in pictures as an eccentric-character of unpleasant appearance and loathsome attributes. That seems to have been his rightful heritage, on account of the tremendous success which he scored in the role of the dope fiend in Clyde Fitch's play, "The City." Mr. Marshall's interpretation of the crook in Maurice Tourneur's picture, "The Life Line" was along the same line. He is a master of make-up and possesses a surpassing ability to get under the skin of his characters and make each one a little masterpiece of acting.
It will be a surprise to screen fans who witness the new Wallace Reid picture, "Double Speed," at the Dominion Theatre to see Tully Marshall without wig or exotic make-up acting quite as his natural self in the part of a rather distinguished looking bank president. He says he enjoys it more than any role he has ever had. The picture is a Paramount Artcraft.

PANTAGES
Most people are satisfied if two or three acts on a vaudeville programme entertain them. They may not like the style of certain acts, or the music, or the stage settings. The bill playing the Pantages this week is an exception, however, in that the various turns are so well balanced and their variety so perfectly blended that it is difficult to choose between them. In headline position the Seven Colonial Belles are making a big "hit." They are real artists, their stage setting is attractive, their costumes beautiful and their melody a delightful combination of classic and popular. As comedians, the well-known team, "Jennings and Mack," who present "The Camouflage Tact," are difficult to surpass. The bill is rounded out by four other high class turns, among them being the special added attraction, the Famous Flying Lloyds, in a spectacular and inspiring offering which depicts "Sioux Indian Pastimes on the Prairies."

WAIT FOR CHANCE TO GET IN MOVIES
Opportunity Will Be Afforded at the Royal Victoria Theatre Soon
Victoria is full of movie stars in the making. All that Victoria has needed to become a real screenland was the opportunity. This chance has come with the announcement that the Royal Victoria Theatre is bringing to Victoria the Hudris Film Company, of New York and Los Angeles, to produce a local photoplay to be called "A Romance of Victoria."
Yes, Victoria has plenty of budding stars for a full sized movie. This is certain, from the number of telephone calls of inquiry since the announcement of the Royal Victoria's big undertaking.
And when the time comes for the screening of "A Romance of Victoria" at the Royal Victoria Theatre, June 14 to 17, it is certain to be a production that all Victoria may be proud of.
If you would like to take part in "A Romance of Victoria" send in your application to the Royal Victoria immediately. Any young man or woman stands a chance of being selected to play the leading roles. The Director will select the cast. All you have to do is to report to him at the Royal Victoria to-morrow, June 3, at 10 a.m. sharp.

PRINCESS
The beautiful allegoric play "Which One Shall I Marry" is the opening vehicle of the Mildred Page Players, who opened Monday at the Princess Theatre for a season of stock, during which they will produce some of the most successful stage hits of New York, including such plays as, "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," "So Long Letty," "Woman Under Cover," "Daddy Long-Legs."
"Which One Shall I Marry" has been a decided hit where ever produced, and was Mr. Aldenn's choice from a large number of plays at his disposal. The story contains both comedy and drama in abundance and points out the road to the future of every girl's life. Miss Mildred Page will be seen as the girl who must decide the greatest question that ever comes to a woman, while Byron Aldenn, as the poor man, who has nothing to offer but a pure and true love, portrays a part full of pathos, intermingled with a rich comedy. Jack Phipps, as Bland, the rich man has a wonderful part and acts it well. The rest of the cast is well balanced, and patrons of the Princess Theatre are assured of an evening of rare entertainment.

EX-IMPERIALS STILL HAVE CHANCE FOR EXTRA GRATUITY
Time for application for extra gratuity for ex-Imperials closes this month, according to an announcement to-day from Sergt.-Major Pearce, D.C.M.
All ex-Imperials who want to apply for extra gratuity can get the forms from the sergeant-major, who is secretary of the Imperial Veterans in Canada, 103 Union Bank Building. The secretary will be at the office every evening at 7 o'clock and do all notary work free for those who want to get extra gratuity.
It is also announced that while the King's Fund, under which persons have been able to get up to $500 with which to start in business, is closed, there is a special grants committee under which an officer, officer's widow or orphan are eligible. The sergeant-major is also giving information and help on this matter.
Ex-Imperials can have their pensions changed to an alternate pension totalling £5 a week, according to another announcement from the sergeant-major. At his office every evening he is handing out information on this matter.

SOLDIERS DISARMED BY DUBLIN RAIDERS

London, June 2.—A dispatch from Dublin said that twelve soldiers, comprising the guard of a public building in that city, were surprised yesterday afternoon by a party of armed men, who took away their arms and ammunition and two machine guns. The raiding party consisted of fifty men, and the building attacked was the office of the registry of deeds, a Government department which records titles to land. The raiders were armed with revolvers, and first disposed of the soldiers on guard, whom they compelled to surrender their rifles and equipment. No person was allowed to leave the building until the raiders had accomplished their purpose and departed.

MADE ARRESTS

Members of the "Irish Republican Army" in vicinity of Mullingar, constituted themselves guardians of the peace at the local elections, commanded the county hall "in the name of the Irish Republic," and converted it into a temporary barracks. These guards assumed police duty, arrested a number of rioters and jailed them in the guardroom of the county hall.

Ottawa, June 2.—(Canadian Press.)—On the motion of Robert Borden the House this afternoon decided to adjourn over to-morrow.

RICH MINING CAMP BECOMES BURIED CITY

Future Generations May Wonder Over Strange Fate of Douthat, Oklahoma
It may not be generally known, but it is nevertheless true, that Oklahoma has a buried city. Douthat, formerly called Century, while not buried in a few hours by burning lava as were the cities of Pompeii and some others that have been covered in the dim past, has been practically obliterated by the "tailings" from the mills of the zinc and lead mines which are in and all about it.

NO MANDATE, SAYS AMERICAN SENATE

Washington, June 2.—President Wilson's plea for an American mandate over Armenia was rejected in the Senate yesterday afternoon by a vote of more than 2 to 1. Thirteen Democrats cast their votes with the United Republican membership on the final roll call and the resolution, respectfully declining to grant congressional authority for the mandate, was adopted 52 to 23, in the form drafted by the Republican leaders.
