FEED:

WEEKLY SUMMARY.....	16-17
FEEDSTUFFS: WHOLESALE PRICES.....	18-19

HIGHLIGHTS:

For the week, both grain and soybeans bids traded up and down but finished slightly lower late in the week. Weather and spring planting concerns remains a significant market factors. Poor export sales figures anchor lower trends. Bids were mostly lower across the Board, Wheat 3 to 5 cents higher, except Minnesota 1 to 6 cents lower. Corn 5 to 7 cents lower, Sorghum 3 to 12 cents lower and Soybeans bids 4 to 6 cents lower. Wheat were bids ended up slightly higher after an early week cold snap dip down in Central Kansas promoted talk of frost damage. Minnesota ended up lower as flooding of the upper Mississippi halted barge traffic and grain movement. Spring planting of corn moving up into the mid-corn belts. Weekend rains forecast and this could delay seeding which is already behind a year ago. Its is still early enough to get in hugh acreage but some flooded areas maybe a little late. Fertilizer, nitrogen, drop around 70.00 dollars from last winter high but still very expensive and adding substantially to production cost for this year crop. Soybean bids were lower with zip export announcements and favorable harvest weather out of South America.

Weaker prices for corn and other competitive feedstuffs pressured the domestic molasses market, especially in the cattle feedlot region of the southern plains. Many countries are still using sugarcane for ethanol production and this has limited the availability of imported molasses in some areas. Rice by-products in the south remain in very tight supply.
