

had gone through more tellingly.

It is very pleasing, very acceptable, and you were very kind to send it to me.

And it happens that one of my copy tablets by the same artist in 54, and just copied, comes to hand.

Will you accept of one as having less of age in it than the later ones.

Very cordially

Dear Miss Chandler,

The picture you sent me the other day is the one I should have chosen. Though the cloudy summary covered the original a little coldly at the moment, and but a bad or two that I could have wished
