There's Something Mysterious Here

Legion Investigates Prominent Politician.

It is rumored that the Narberth Post of the American Legion is making an investigation of the record of a prominent borough politician. Our reporter had difficulty in securing an interview with Commander Sparks and Adjutant Shubert, and succeeded in stirring up what will probably be one of the biggest sensations of our borough.

Although both of these men were very unwilling to talk and would say little, they did state that they regretted very much that the rumor had started, as it was the intention to keep the matter under cover until all the facts had been gathered in and tabulated. It would, therefore, appear that there is good ground for the rumor.

They also said that Mr. George Shinn, a member of the Legion, has full charge of a committee which is now busy on the investigation and which has been very successful in turning up many interesting facts. It also seems that Mr. Shinn has held quite a bit of correspondence with one of the prominent judges connected with the Chicago murder trial, in an effort to get a really valuable legal opinion on the actions and statements of this borough politician.

When pressed for the name of the man implicated, both Mr. Sparks and Mr. Shubert closed up like a pair of clams, but we were assured that at the proper time everything would be open to the public and that whatever facts that could be disclosed would be turned over to "Our Town" for publication.

Adjutant Shubert, of the Legion, is busy arranging all the papers and data as it comes in from the various members of the committee who are working under the direction of Mr. Shinn, and no stone is being left unturned which will throw a light on the career of the man.

Narberth is in for a sensation from all appearances.

When questioned as to whether the Legion Post would assume the responsibility of bringing the matter before a Court, Commander Sparks stated, "The Legion has no place in politics except where the same is harboring someone who is detrimental to the spirit of Americanism which is the standard of the Legion. At such a time it is right and proper that it should bring before the public any matter which would tend to hurt that true spirit of patriotism and loyalty to Americanism which we are here to uphold. What party a man belongs to, whether Republican or Democratic, is the business of the individual and not the business of the Legion. If the facts in this case are such as warrant disclosure, the same will possibly be brought before a mass meeting of the citizens and the man given an opportunity to defend himself with legal talent."

Adjutant Shubert stated that the Post felt that they were somewhat responsible for this man and they were going to see that no man stood behind the Legion's name that was not worthy of it.

Our reporter was unable to get in touch with Mr. Shinn, but all other members of the Legion interviewed by us refused to say anything, stating that they had been ordered to keep quiet until the Legion was sure of its ground and the facts had all been developed.

Our reporter yesterday, however, managed to catch Messrs. Ralph Dunne and John Nash together, and from the way they stopped talking as we came up it was immediately realized that this matter had been under discussion. He finally managed to get them talking, however, and was astonished to receive the advice that it would be better if we did not make any guesses as to the name of the man, as it appears that "Our Town" will probably be implicated in a libel suit by the man in question, due to the fact that certain records had been obtained from the office of this paper.

The Executive Committee of the Legion is having nightly sessions in order to bring the matter to a head and we have been assured that whatever is given out to the public will be done through these columns.

Library to be Open Every Day

Present Quarters Assured. To Enlarge Work.

Beginning next Monday, the 13th, the Narberth Community Library will be open every afternoon, except Saturday and Sunday, from 3 o'clock to 5. The Friday evening opening, from 7 o'clock to 9, will also be continued. This increase in service has long been contemplated, but necessarily held in abeyance while it was thought that the library might have to seek new quarters on October 1. That possibility was removed recently when Mr. R. J. Hamilton, president of the Merion Title and Trust Company, came to Narberth and gave assurance that the library might retain its present quarters in the old Y. M. C. A. building for another year at least with rent, light and heat free. Mr. Hamilton expressed the warm interest which he and his associates feel in the library because of the community work which is undertaken.

While the library has been equally indebted for the past three years to the similar generosity of the Y. M. C. A. trustees it is proper to point out that the present favor is extended to the library by a purely commercial organization. In doing this the directors of the Merion Title and Trust Company have given a really remarkable indication of unselfish interest in Narberth affairs.

In opening the library each day of the week there will necessarily be a few changes in the rules and regulations which have hitherto governed the work. These will have for their aim the more adequate performance of the library's service.

BASEBALL BANQUET

To Be held on October 22nd at Elm Hall.

In accordance with the time-honored custom, Narberth will observe in grand and glorious fashion, the fact that the baseball club has maintained the championship for still another year. The big affair will take place at Elm Hall on Wednesday evening, October 22, 1924, when dinner will be served at 6 o'clock and then to an evening of riotous revelry which is being planned on a scale never heretofore attempted.

From the length and breadth of the land, acceptances are arriving galore, indicating that the speakers' list will include a glittering galaxy of stars from all the realms of King Sport, and, of course, we shall have on hand our own world-beaters in the field of oratory, the Hon. Senator and the eminent and eloquent Doc. Howard. Our henna-headed pharmacist has a particularly fine array of new ones which will be released to an expectant public for the very first time on this eventful evening. The music and the talent, lots and lots of both, are being selected with rare discretion, and Wednesday night and all that it's going to be, the home fires shall go back to the wartime basis, for this is the one big annual date when our sterling masculinity asserts itself, breaks the bonds that fetter it, and shows up in howling glee at the baseball dinner.

The original quota of tickets has already been exhausted, but another supply will be available as this is printed, and they may be secured at Davis' at a fraction of their actual worth. A particularly cordial invitation is extended to the newcomers in the borough to be present, as this is a splendid way to get started and one touch of baseball makes a whole krowd kin.

With the exception of John Miller, everybody is requested to come in their working clothes.

Coolidge Club.

Mrs. Harold C. Fenno, of Essex avenue, is chairman of the Coolidge Club being formed in Narberth. There are no dues to this club—you merely declare yourself in support of this candidate and procure a Coolidge pin and card from Mrs. Fenno. Call Narberth 226-J.

Community Centre is a Live Issue

Many Organizations Endorsed Bond Issue.

Many citizens interested in the development of the Playground and the Community Centre Building have raised the question as to whether the adopted plans had for the time being been held up for any reason.

The question was perhaps a natural one because of the lack of any recent mention of it. This condition was brought about by the desire of the committee to take care of the best interests of the borough, and was caused by recent developments which have necessitated the Merion Title & Trust Co. removing from the borough. That company, as purchaser of the old Y. M. C. A. building, apparently not having use for it, might want to again sell it, and the suggestion was several times made that it might be bought back, remodeled and used as a Community Centre, thus affording a building in a location more central than the playground.

This was carefully investigated and at a meeting of the Community Centre Committee held Thursday evening, Chairman Butler, of the committee, reported the result of a conference with President Hamilton, of the Trust Company, while the company's plans contemplate removal from the borough to the "Log Cabin" corner of Haverford and Narberth avenues, they hope that at a later date conditions will so change as to make possible a resumption of business in the borough proper and they, therefore, expect to hold the Y. M. C. A. Building for such use in their banking business. This situation disposes of any possibility of the borough being permitted to choose between the two locations. Only one practicable and available location exists, namely, the proposed playground.

The Community Centre Committee has therefore instructed the chairman to advise all organizations supporting the plans to rally their memberships in order that a large vote will be recorded at the coming election.

"Passage of the $100,000 bond issue means very little in the way of increased taxation," the committee stated. "Considerably less than three mills—but it means much to the practical development of Narberth. It means, first, that the town will be afforded a community building which will become increasingly indispensable to this growing community—it means the development of an already owned plot of ground which now represents an idle investment, and which should be made useful for the well-renowned athletic propensities of the borough. It means, too, that the borough will pay for but two-thirds of the expense, as favorable action on the Bond Issue automatically brings in to the fund a sum of $50,000, which has been offered to the borough by various local organizations provided the Bond Issue be approved. "So many elements enter into the proposed plans to make them worthwhile that the committee in charge of the project for the Narberth organization feels little hesitancy in assuming that it will receive the approval of the voters."

Morgan—Maxwell.

The wedding of Miss Anna Oakley Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Maxwell, of Price avenue, to Mr. Aston H. Morgan, took place Thursday afternoon at St. Paul's Memorial Church, Philadelphia.

A surprise miscellaneous shower in honor of the bride-to-be was given at the home of Mrs. George N. Gill on Wednesday. Mrs. Gill and Mrs. Morgan are both members of the choir at St. Paul's.

Mrs. Ella L. Holland.

Mrs. Ella L. Holland, of 120 Woods avenue, died at her home early last Sunday morning, after an illness of several months. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William A. Nagle and Mrs. H. H. Cafferty, both of Narberth. The funeral was held at the home Thursday afternoon and interment was at Arlington Cemetery.

Presbyterians To Build Soon

$60,000 Raised Toward New Parish House.

Last Sunday was a day long to be remembered in the Narberth Presbyterian Church. It was rally day in the Bible school and the attendance broke all previous records, 126 being present. During the hour of morning worship, within a period of 15 minutes, $41,000 was subscribed for the new parish house and for the enlargement of the present church auditorium. During the day about $16,000 additional was added to the sum, and the canvass will be continued in a drive for $75,000.

Dr. A. F. McGarrah was present with the church for four days and planned the campaign, with the hearty co-operation of the pastor, Rev. John Van Ness, and an earnest corps of workers. On the Thursday evening preceding 120 men of the congregation had a dinner together and talked over the plans and launched the campaign. The next afternoon there was a similar meeting for the women, and that evening a mass meeting of the entire congregation at which Rev. E. G. Rawson told of the methods used in securing funds for the beautiful church at Ardmore, and Dr. McGarrah spoke of Christian stewardship.

It is proposed to erect on the lot adjoining the present church building a parish house which will accommodate the entire Bible school, with separate assembly rooms for the separate departments. It will also contain a social room with a seating capacity of 300 with a balcony to seat about 100 more. This room can also be used as a gymnasium and will have a stage for use in entertainments. It is also proposed at this time to enlarge the seating capacity of the present church auditorium by 150 seats by extending the Windsor avenue front between the two vestibules. Eventually a gallery will be placed above this extension making an auditorium seating over 700. The deep interest manifested in this project and the ready response of the congregation to the appeal for subscriptions are most encouraging.

Interesting Prospects for Juniors.

The juniors made such a good turnout Tuesday night that they were pleasantly jolted into realizing the club had grown beyond the seating capacity of home meetings. The main purpose of this particular meeting was a get-together for old, new and prospective members, and after the business was concluded the time was given over to getting acquainted and to refreshments.

During the business part of the evening Mrs. Anderson, the junior chairman of the Senior Community Club, presented the juniors with a most efficient looking gavel, a gift from the senior executive board. She also reminded them of the banquet for the juniors under the auspices of the State Federation of Women's Clubs which is to be held next Tuesday night at 207 Chestnut street instead of at the New Century Club, as originally intended. Ten girls have already made reservations, but the club wants a much larger representation. Any girls who would care to go should give their names to Margaret Eyre the president, as soon as possible. The tickets are $1.25.

The president also called special attention to a junior citizenship party or political meeting to be held Tuesday night, October 21, at the Y. W. at 8.15. Girls around the age of 21 are particularly urged to come, for there will be speakers from the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters who will give us wise tips on the pending elections.

Choral Rehearsal.

The first rehearsal of the newly organized Main Line Choral will be held at the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. Monday night at 8 o'clock. All persons interested in the singing of choral music are eligible and urgently requested to apply for membership whether affiliated with the Narberth Choral in the past or not. Take the 7.35 o'clock bus from McIntyre's. Arrangements will be made for a bus on the return trip.

Women's Club To Run Building

Secure Lease of Year on Y. M. C. A.

An announcement of interest to members of the Women's Community Club, as well as to every resident of the borough, was made this week.

The Merion Title and Trust Company have leased to the women the Y. M. C. A. building on Forrest avenue, long the home of the club.

The building was purchased several months ago as the site of a new bank, but with the decision of the company to build elsewhere the leasing has been made possible.

The club has leased the part of the building available for community purposes. The lease dates for one year from October 1.

This announcement has relieved the anxiety felt by many club members about a meeting place for the coming year.

Any organizations of the town may rent the rooms as heretofore and the library will occupy the lobby and balcony.

Opening Luncheon.

With the fall luncheon on Tuesday, October 14, at 1 P. M. the club season will be in full swing. Members will meet to chat about the pleasant summer vacation and committees will discuss plans for the coming winter, and start the ball rolling to make this the most energetic of club years.

One of the noted speakers attending the State Federation in Philadelphia will address the guests. Having a federation speaker will bring the club into touch with the federation meetings, and perhaps create greater interest among the members toward State work.

The federation meetings will be held from Monday to Friday and any or all of the Narberth Club members are welcome. Detailed information of all the sessions will be found in the Philadelphia papers.

Reservations.

Since the club has grown so large, it is no small task to arrange the tables for the luncheon. Therefore, members are urged to make reservations before the end of this week to Mrs. George Gilpin, Jr., P. O. box 81.

Will those who are willing to contribute garden flowers for table decorations kindly deliver them to Mrs. Dunne, our hospitality chairman, on Monday afternoon? All such contributions will be greatly appreciated.

October 18 (next Saturday) is the date set for the opening of the children's dancing class. Beginners' class, 10-11 A. M.; advanced class, 11-12 A. M.

Miss Marjory Carter, who has been so successful here in the past two seasons, will again conduct the class. She has studied under Professor Newman, Florence Conanona and Mrs. Caroline Littlefield.

There will be two terms of fifteen lessons each, and classes will be held in the large room. Both boys and girls may join, and part of the hour will be devoted to social dancing instruction.

In view of a spring exhibition Miss Carter will emphasize individual specialty dancing.

Several interesting parties are being planned for the children. To facilitate arrangement of classes, pupils are asked to register as soon as possible. The committee members are Mrs. H. I. McConnell, chairman; Mrs. Robt. Nash, Mrs. George Gilpin and Mrs. Charles Haist.

Swimming Class.

Watch for notice of the swimming class. Mrs. Boryer expects to begin lessons about the third week of October.

Children to Be Cared for Gratis.

Club mothers, draw a long deep sigh, And say not as in days gone by, That you must miss the Luncheon Day, Because you can't leave John of May.

Someone will care for Jack and Jill And not present you any bill. We trust this warning will not peeve— Give them a lunch before you leave.

Narberth Divided Into Districts

Plan for Three Precincts Goes Through.

Judge Williams has handed down a decree dividing the borough of Narberth into three election districts instead of one.

The Court's action is in pursuance of a recent petition signed by many residents of the borough, who declared that with a voting possibility of more than 2400 it is impossible to poll the entire vote through one district.

The voting place of No. 1 district will be Elm Hall, on Forest avenue, between Haverford and Windsor; of No. 2, at northwest corner of Essex and Haverford avenues; of No. 3 at Boy Scouts headquarters.

The election officers and registry assessors will include:

No. 1 District—Judge of Elections, W. J. Kirkpatrick; majority inspector, Frank A. O'Brien; minority inspector, Charles C. Mason; registry assessor, Louise V. Cockrill.

No. 2 District—Judge of Elections, J. W. McAuliffe; majority inspector, Anna MacKeag; minority inspector, Edward S. Haws; registry assessor, Ella R. Murray.

No. 3 District—Judge of Elections, Robert W. Caldwell; majority inspector, A. H. Durboraw; minority inspector, Edward U. Smith; registry assessor, Abbie W. Nickerson.

Kirkpatrick is now Judge of Elections, O'Brien is majority inspector; Haws, minority inspector, and Mrs. Nickerson registry assessor.

It will be seen that a woman is given the post of registry assessor in each district.

County leader Charles Johnson this week announced Republican committeemen and women for the new districts. The present incumbents are Charles V. Noel and Mrs. Carroll Downes.

The list follows: District 1, Charles V. Noel, Mrs. E. C. Town; District 2, W. S. Thompson, Mrs. Leroy C. Douglass; District 3, J. B. Nesper, Mrs. Carroll Downes.

The division will take effect at the election to be held on November 4.

Opening League Meeting.

Monday, October 13, marks the opening meeting for 1924-25 of the Narberth League of Women Voters at the Y. M. C. A. at 2.30 P. M.

The annual election of officers will be held at this time. A report of the regional conference held in Bryn Mawr will be given by Mrs. A. B. Ross. The electoral college and how it functions will be discussed by Mrs. Henry A. Frye and should be of keen interest since the country is on the eve of a Presidential election.

The league has organized on the block system throughout the borough in a concerted effort to "get out the vote" for November 4 and the various street chairmen will report plans for this work. All members of this committee are also urged to be present.

Judges Appointed.

Mr. George H. Wilson, Mr. Henry A. Frye and Mrs. A. B. Ross have been appointed to judge the merits of the essays to be submitted by the members of the junior high school in Narberth on "What Constitutes Good Citizenship." This contest is under the direction of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters and in addition to the local prize of $5 the county board has offered a prize of $15 to the author of the best essay of the successful contestants. The latter will be determined by three judges appointed by the county and the winner will be invited to read his or her essay at the county meeting at Norristown on October 30.

In the Park.

A marshmallow roast was given last Friday evening in Narbrook Park by Mrs. A. E. Reid in honor of her sister, Miss Theo Pyle, of Baltimore.

The guests were: The Misses Thelma and Margaret Fowler, Ella Dothard, Babe Redifer, Eleanor Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Townsend.

TEN YEARS

This issue of Our Town marks its tenth birthday. For a decade this publication has been at the service of the people of Narberth, who have been its reporters and assistants.

The first issue was published on October 15, 1914, by the Narberth Civic Association, under the editorship of Mrs. C. R. Blackall, "An Experiment in Co-operative Journalism." For years, there were no paid workers on the paper, and a large committee gave of their time to produce it each week.

Mrs. Blackall was succeeded by Messrs. W. Arthur Cole and E. A. Muschamp, who in turn gave over the reins of control to Mr. Harry A. Jacobs. Mr. Jacobs served as editor for more than five years, resigning in 1921.

By that time the volunteer workers had drifted away until Mr. Jacobs was alone at the task, which had grown to be too much. Unable to find someone to take charge of the business management, the advertising and subscriptions, the circulation and income of Our Town had dropped below the danger point.

It was then decided to employ a regular operative to be responsible for all features of the paper. Mr. Jacobs, who had asked many times to be relieved of the responsibility, was retired with the thanks of the community for his fine piece of civic work, and the present editor assumed control.

The paper was shortly enlarged to its present size, which is about to be increased again to accommodate the demand for news and advertising space.

Supported by every element in the community, who share the task of news-gathering, Our Town has grown and prospered. Its original policy—a civic newspaper—has never been changed through the various changes of control. It is now on a firm financial footing, with the largest circulation in its history, and serving a rapidly growing community.

Narberth's residents, who have built and labored for the paper, may well be proud of its history. Our Town enters its second decade with confidence and anticipation of increasing opportunity.

AN ACCOMPLISHMENT

Another baseball championship has come to Narberth and naturally there is rejoicing among local players, management and fans.

Some time after the close of the civil war—or thereabouts—the now Senator Stites established the precedent of Narberth winning Main Line championships, and that original achievement has since developed into what closely approximates a fixed local custom!

This year Manager Walzer, repeating his own accomplishment in a number of past seasons—not forgetting the excellent work of the Narberth players—successfully maintained the championship tradition. So once more "the championship flag flies over the clubhouse." Perhaps by next year an actual "clubhouse" will be as much a reality as the championships.

COMMISSIONERS MOVE

The officers of the Township Commissioners was moved to the old Baptist Church property on Cricket avenue, this week. The Township Building will be razed and a new one erected in its place. The new building will approximate cost in the neighborhood of $800,000.

HERE AND HEREBOUTS

"The Spectator" Breaks His Long Silence.

The Narberth Ball Club has won the pennant again for the third successive season and for the eighth time since the formation of the Main Line League in 1910. And that splendid record stands for a great deal more than would appear to be the case at first glance. There's so much in baseball that ties in with what we like to regard as the ideal American procedure and the distinction which it has acquired as the national game can readily be attributed to the close manner in which its outstanding features parallel the fundamentals of our progress in the sterner lines of endeavor.

This borough makes its particular appeal to folks who have retained their normal impulses to actually and actively participate in life. There has always been a continuous effort to provide in this place a well-rounded community plan. When men want to indulge in a snug self-complacency they go to the east or west of us. There are no ball teams there. All that happens, apparently, is that the green grass grows all around, all around. Here the population is constantly moving out of its shell one way or another. Not all our projects are successful, but that does not retard further efforts of expression. Baseball has always found a high place in this town and let us hope it always will. They still talk of the days before the league, when the star plays were made by Howard McCarter, Howard Davis, Arthur McClellan, Charlie Humphries and others. Then it was only a year or so ago that Fletcher Stites got old enough to play golf. Previous to that the whole town knew where to find him on a Saturday afternoon. Jack Jeffries, Bill Durbin, Bob Towne and Bert Simpson all learned a lot in Narberth and we all remember that season when Dr. Hoffman showed us how he could do it. Fred Walzer had a big hand in starting the league and has been at it as player or manager ever since. Six of the eight pennants hang from his belt. The other two were acquired in 1922 and 1923, when Bill Crowell was directing the team. All through the years Narberth has stood right back of its ball teams, encouraged them, supported them, and there are no happier and jollier occasions than when the citizens sit around the festive board to observe the acquisition of another pennant. It is said that this year's celebration, which has been scheduled for Elm Hall, on October 22, 1924, at 6 o'clock, will be bigger and better than ever before.

In one of the minstrel shows which were given in the borough during the spring of '23 the thespians seemed to have pretty aptly described in verse the posture of affairs which those who are supporting the Bond Issue for street paving are now bringing to our attention. The song ran something like this:

The streets are paved, but some are not. In Narberth Town, let's fix them all. Before we stop, in Narberth Town, the plan we started years ago, the plan which sets our good friend Joe on, the borough ought to do it. Otherwise, we'll surely rue it. A Bond Issue is what we need. In Narberth Town, there's no place here for selfish greed. In Narberth Town, let's see you do it. It's sure not fair. If we paid for your own paved square, a few more miles we all can care. In Narberth Town.

The Joe referred to in the parody was none less than our golden-throated tenor, Joe McGarrity of Forest avenue, then, as now, a stalwart exponent of what he always called a "square deal." There's no question that those who are asking our vote in favor of the issue have the bulk of fairness and equity on their side. The borough has always paid for street-paving. The fact that the money came out of current revenue rather than from the proceeds of a bond issue has, of course, nothing to do with the matter. If the town were of indefinite proportions, or if the streets paved at public expense were only a small fraction of the whole, then we might have some valid reason for contesting the present expenditure. As it is, more than 75 per cent. of our streets are paved, and all paid for out of the public purse. When we clean up those comparatively few which remain to be paved then we will have the job done with once and for all, and everybody will be happy, everybody will have been accorded exactly the same kind of treatment. The gain to the community as a whole will be well worth, indeed, the $50,000 or $75,000 which will be required and fortunately for our present progressive position that will have no appreciable influence on our tax rate. The occasion seems to afford an inspiring opportunity to apply the Golden Rule on rather a big-scale basis, and those who are particularly concerned in the success of the issue can take courage from the fact that they are dealing with a fine, wholesome lot of people. The 8 to 1 victory for the Playground Bonds shows the heart of this town. And, incidentally, those bonds did not influence the tax rate one iota. It was no higher on account of them and it would not have been at all loved without them. Their cost just naturally squeezed itself in. Neither should it be forgotten that some of the most active and ardent advocates of the Playground Bonds lived on unpaved streets. It's now time for everybody to turn in for their

The national bank in our midst affords additional evidence that we are a real up-and-dressed town, as governmental approval for such ventures is charily given and the case must be pretty well established before the line is allowed to form at the teller's window. It's now nearly 10 years since Dan Leitch opened up the Narberth shop of the trust company and they apparently took in so much money since that time that they had to buy our biggest building to take care of it all. Then when they found they couldn't use the new structure after all they just bought another one, right like that, so much money they have. Now comes the Narberth National to lend a hand in keeping us thrifty, and we are all sure that they, too, will meet with splendid success. Those in charge are well and favorably known to all of us and thoroughly enjoy the confidence of their townsmen. The new building will no doubt be a distinct community asset and it shall be a pleasure to watch and help them to grow. With two such fine institutions in a town there's no earthly reason why any of us should ever be short of money again, particularly when they know us so well. We should all have two lines of credit, one for the wife at one bank and one for ourselves at the other bank. That will spread the business out and will help so much, so very much, towards the elimination of inter-pecunie strife.

THE SPECTATOR

ANOTHER COMMENT

To the Editor of Our Town: I desire to render thanks to J. J. Cabrey for his letter entitled "No Children Accepted," and also to you for printing it.

It is a significant thing that we who hunt for and find one of Nature's green places to live in and to enjoy the real family life, must sooner or later meet with what is called "Progress"—the encroachment of the city, to disturb our ideals.

It causes us to sadly wonder at times, if so-called "civilization" has not given us more than we have bargained for.

He who would deny the little children to come unto Him, is at least, at variance with good standards of civilization and a poor example to any community.

avored with your patronage make possible a constantly improving community. Better and more schools and churches, parks, civic improvements, more paved streets, better shopping facilities, and a finer business section. The most recent example of this faith in the willingness of residents to deal at home is the creation of the Narberth National Bank, by and for the residents and business men of this community.

For several years, the undersigned has been rendering an investment banking service in Narberth, and an invitation is extended to use our Statistical and Trading Departments, for information or quotations on any securities. Participation in all the new issues of high grade bonds advertised in the Philadelphia and New York papers, enables us to fill prompt telephone orders. Partial PAYMENT PLAN PRIVILEGES.

SCHOOL NEWS

Friday in assembly we had a Columbus Day play given by the seventh grade. The plot was that little Diego, Columbus' son, was so taunted in school by his richer schoolmates about his father's theories that he resolved to run away. As he was about to go he fell asleep and had a vision of his father saying, "Sail on, sail on," and he decided to work and bear the taunts. The cast was:

Christopher Columbus—Randolph Keim.

Mate of the Santa Maria—Howard Wilson.

Seamen—Willard Black, Isadore Heller, Charles Heckel and Ralph Bowman.

The Narberth Junior High soccer team played the Narberth section of the Lower Merion sophomores and defeated the opposing team three to nothing. Features were the playing of Sheneman and Banks and the kicking of Foote. Young made the only goal from actual play. The other two goals were penalty kicks.

About 15 boys accompanied by Mr. Oerlein went in to see Penn defeat Franklin and Marshall.

The girls have had a few hockey practices this week.

The pupils of the entire school had their pictures taken last week. Mr. Wilson wants them for records. Extra prints and folders were sold to the pupils if they wanted them. The pictures arrived Monday. Some were good and some were otherwise.

Editors for this issue—Ernestine Hunt, Fred Bates.

Organize Boys' Band.

For several years the question of how to organize a boys' band on the Main Line has been the subject of considerable thought and not until the present time has the opportunity arisen, making it possible for such an organization.

Mr. Fred C. Patten, who resigned last year as scoutmaster of the Narberth Boy Scout troop, has decided to give his time and attention to the teaching of a boys' band on the Main Line and has the co-operation of several well-known business men. Arrangements have already been made for a place for rehearsals and instruction, and enough capital has been subscribed to purchase instruments to lend to boys who do not already own them.

Mr. Patten, who has had considerable experience in this line, will teach all the brass instruments; Mr. William Fletcher, who was formerly assistant director in the Stanley Theatre orchestra, will teach the reed instruments; Mr. George Gilpin will teach the drum section. In addition to the band instruments Mr. Patten will take classes on the bugle as the intention is to augment the band of 106 boys with a bugle corps of 25 pieces.

The membership of the band will be as follows: Twenty cornets, 16 trombones, 4 baritone, 4 tubas, 8 horns, 20 clarinets, 4 piccolos, 16 saxophones, 10 snare drums, 2 bass drums and 2 cymbals.

Any boy wishing to be a member of this band kindly write Fred C. Patten, Narberth, Pa., stating what instrument he desires to play, whether or not he owns an instrument and how long he has played same. One-fourth of the membership is already filled and a waiting list is anticipated.

Epworth League.

A record broken? Yes! We had 26 present at last Sunday's service and all benefited by the splendid talk given by Miss Eleanor Ward. Next Sunday, C. Roy Smith will be the speaker, assisted by the league quartet. Come out and break last Sunday's attendance record. The league would like to see more of the adults present at their services. Miss Mayo, the famous impersonator, is coming soon; watch for her announcement. Big party coming also; keep the date open, October 27.

Republican Mass Meeting.

Republican women of Narberth are making plans for a big mass meeting in the interests of Coolidge and Dawes, to be held at Elm Hall, Monday afternoon, October 27, at 3 o'clock.

Among the prominent women in national Republican politics who will speak are Mrs. George Horace Lorimer, State president of the Republican Women of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg and Mrs. George A. Dunning, State organizer.

Other prominent speakers, scheduled to appear on the program will be announced later. The meeting is being planned under the direction of the following women: Mrs. H. C. Fenno, chairman of the Coolidge Club; Mrs. Carroll Downes, Mrs. E. C. Town and Mrs. Leroy C. Douglass, Republican committee-women for Narberth.

Fire Prevention.

An interesting exercise was held at the Narberth schools Thursday morning as a part of the Fire Prevention Week Program. Members of the Citizens' Committee and the Fire Company Committee in charge of the week were present.

Speeches were made by Burgess Carl B. Metzger, Mr. E. P. Dwyer, of the Underwriters; Principal George H. Wilson, Mr. Fred C. Patten, who spoke in the absence of Chief Noel, and Dr. Leroy A. King, who was also chairman of the meeting.

A demonstration fire drill was held by the pupils, which showed the speed with which the building could be emptied.

Next week will be Clean-Up-Week, as Street Commissioner Supplee has agreed to collect rubbish as a part of the weekly ash collection. This will afford a good opportunity to get rid of fire-breeding refuse.

Because—

- he sells good, clean coal
- he gives 50 cents a ton off for cash (allowing the same discount to charge customers who pay in 5 days)
- he guarantees 2240 pounds per ton
- he maintains quick, prompt delivery, summer and winter
- he consistently gives courteous and efficient service

These progressive business principles, followed in good season and bad, have made for us not only customers, but friends.

Year after year our friends have increased until, today, we are the largest individual distributor of household coal in Philadelphia.

We are pleased indeed that our enlarged storage capacity and greatly augmented delivery equipment enables us, this year, to serve many more coal buyers in West Philadelphia and suburbs.
