THE DAILY BEE.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27.

Subscriptions by the Week.

The carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions by the week, at the rate of 25 cents.

☞ Mr. J. OLLIE is the only person authorized to collect accounts in the city for the New Orleans Bee.

☞ The foundation of my preference, is, that, Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, honest and consistent.—HENRY CLAY.

☞ If there be there, North or South, who denounce administration for the North, as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should give their suffrages to us. For we are pure patriots only of country, my whole country and nothing but my country.—MILLARD FILLMORE'S ADDRESS ON HIS LANDING AT NEW YORK.

REGISTER YOUR NAMES.

No citizen, though fully qualified by birth, naturalization or residence, can vote at the approaching Presidential election, UNLESS HE IS REGISTERED.

THE SOUTHERN MAIL came through yesterday in the usual time.

THE LAST WEEK.

The canvass is nearly closed. To-day begins the last week prior to the election. The campaign is now over. Every citizen, with a very few exceptions, has by this time decided upon how he intends to vote. So that nearly all anticipate to make many considerable progress during the period that will elapse between the fourth day of November. There can be accomplished now will be but the finishing touches of political spirit and energy by means of frequent meetings, processions and enthusiastic demonstrations of these public demonstrations, however, there is still work to be done of effective work, which all are not able to do. We allude to thorough organization of the political forces. It is a fact that many persons of both parties imagine to know all about politics as well as all its foes. This is the reason why some fail the contests which they engage in. As a general rule the Democrats are pretty equally divided. The party that is best organized and most
