ENGLAND.—The Parliamentary return of the income and expenditures of the year ending September 30 shows a total income of poward of 271,000,000. The Chancellor of the Exchequer had announced his financial statement for the Priday following.

The House of Lords, referring to an article in the Monifeer intimating the probable union of the Dambian Principalities, Lord Lyndburst wishes to know if the Divan which was to assemble would take into consideration the question of this union, and whether it would be decided by the representatives of the tireat Powers. Lord Clarendon replied that he had read the article in the Moniterration and the decided by the representatives of the tireat Powers. Lord Clarendon replied that he had read the article in the Moniterration are the supported by the same and the highest state of the tireat Powers. Lord Clarendon replied that he had read the article in the Moniterration with surprise, but at present he should abstain from expressing any opinion on the subject. In the House of Commons Mr. Layard inquired whether the Persian Ambasador at lating was negotiating with Lord Cowiey and acting with the same full powers he possessed. In Mr. Manutanople.
