SWEEPING VICTORY FOR CLEAN GOVERNMENT

GERMAN THIRD LINE NORTH OF SOMME BROKEN; BRITISH TAKE FLERS; MARTINPUICH SHORTLY

Drive Forward on Front of Six Miles Between Bouleaux Wood and Point South of Courcellette; Large Number of Prisoners Taken; French Troops Push on to Edge of Village of Rancourt

London, Sept. 15.—The British in their offensive north of the Somme have broken the German third line of defences and have taken the village of Flers, two miles north of Ginchy, according to reports received by Reuter's to-day.

British forces also are reported to have gained the outskirts of Martinpuich, a mile and a-half east-northeast of Pozieres, the report adds.

London, Sept. 15.—British troops returned to the attack north of the Somme last night, charging over a sector about six miles long. The war office announced to-day that they had advanced from 2,000 to 3,000 yards and were continuing to progress.

The attack was made along the whole British front over which the heaviest fighting has been in progress recently; that is, from the Bouleaux Wood, only a short distance northwest of Comblès, to a point south of Courcellette, north of the Albert-Bapaume road, about six miles northwest of the Bouleaux Wood.

Proceeding this morning's extensive offensive movement, British troops last night drove forward southeast of Thiepval and captured about 3,000 yards of German trenches, including a strongly fortified position.

The text of the statement follows:

South of Thiepval.
"Last night enemy trenches southeast of Thiepval, north of the Somme, on a front of about 1,000 yards, including the strongly fortified locality known as the 'Wunder Werk,' were captured by our troops.

"This morning we attacked the enemy on a front extending from the Bouleaux wood to a point north of the Albert-Bapaume road, a distance of about 6 miles. Considerable successes already have been obtained. Our troops have advanced some 2,000 to 3,000 yards at various places and the attack is progressing satisfactorily. Large numbers of prisoners have been taken.

New Armored Car.
"In the attack we employed for the first time a new type of heavy armored car, which proved of considerable utility.

"Much aerial fighting has taken place. Four hostile machines were brought down in flames and at least four others were driven down damaged. One hostile kite balloon was brought down last night and one this morning.

"Our aeroplanes co-operated with the advance of our infantry, from a low altitude firing on the enemy troops on the ground.

"Bombs were dropped successfully on three headquarters of the enemy. The railway station at Bapaume also was successfully bombed. Much railway stock was damaged, and a train destroyed.

To Rancourt.
Paris, Sept. 15.—North of the Somme French troops last night captured a group of German trenches and advanced as far as the outskirts of the village of Rancourt, which is about a mile and a-half east of Comblès, the war office announced this afternoon.

On the Verdun front two German attacks were repulsed.

The statement says:
"North of the Somme, at the close of yesterday evening, our troops took by assault a group of German trenches south of Rancourt and pushed forward sorties to the edge of the village.

Enemy Lost Heavily.
"In the night German troops renewed their attack in the region of Clercy. All their efforts were defeated with sanguinary losses. Especially in an attack made near the southern extremity of Hill 78, the enemy sustained heavy losses.

"South of the Somme we easily repulsed a grenade attack northeast of Berny-en-Santerre.

"Between the Oise and the Aisne a surprise attack was delivered against the enemy's trenches in the region of Autrech, enabling us to inflict losses on the Germans and take some prisoners.

Bucharest, Sept. 15.—After flying from Salonica and bombarding Sofia, capital of Bulgaria, entente aviators descended here this afternoon. They flew between 350 and 375 miles in five hours, averaging 66 miles an hour.

BULGARS DRIVEN BACK BY SERBIANS AT WEST END OF FRONT; POSITIONS CAPTURED BY FRENCH AND BRITISH

King Peter's Troops Victors After Battle of Several Days in Lake Ostrovo Region; Bulgarians Thrown Back Twelve Miles; Advances by British and French

Paris, Sept. 15.—The entente forces have won a series of most important successes on the front in Greek Macedonia, the war office announced this afternoon, French, British and Serbian troops at different points breaking through the Bulgarian defences.

West of Lake Ostrovo, near the western end of the fighting line, Serbian forces scored a brilliant victory over the opposing Bulgarians after a battle lasting several days. The Serbian troops captured 25 guns and a large number of prisoners.

Following their defeat the Bulgarian troops retreated for a distance of 12 miles. British troops captured important positions west of the Vardar river, near the centre of the entente front. East of the Vardar French forces captured positions half a mile deep along a front of a mile.

NIVELLE HONORED BY HIS COUNTRY

Defender of Verdun Made Grand Officer of Legion of Honor

Paris, Sept. 15.—A tribute unusual for an official French communication is paid to General Nivelle, the defender of Verdun, in the Journal Officiel. Announcement was made on Wednesday that General Nivelle had been decorated with the insignia of a Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor, and in this connection the following citation is published:

"Robert Georges Nivelle, general of division, commanding an army, has commanded for four months the army that resisted victoriously the attacks of the enemy, renewed without cessation, in the Verdun region, and has supported heroically the hardest trials. He has shown in this command, with the most brilliant qualities of leadership, an energy and force of character which have powerfully influenced the operations in progress over the entire front. After having checked the advance of the enemy toward his objectives, which had become a moral stake of the war, General Nivelle resumed the offensive foot by foot, and by his attacks succeeded in dominating the adversary on the very ground chosen by the latter for a decisive effort."

VENIZELOS URGED AS GREEK PREMIER

Constantine Advised to Ask Popular Leader to Form a Cabinet

Athens, Sept. 15.—M. Dimitrakopoulos to-day informed King Constantine that he had found it impossible to form a cabinet having a policy calling for anything but immediate participation in the war, and he therefore begged to be relieved from the task. It was known yesterday that M. Dimitrakopoulos had rejected the premiership, but further efforts were made last night to alter his decision.

Friends of King Constantine advised him to call upon former Premier Venizelos. King Constantine replied that he desired to act in the best interests of Greece and was considering all suggestions carefully.

A dispatch from Athens last night stated that the entente powers were not satisfied with the programme outlined by M. Dimitrakopoulos, who had said he would accept the premiership only if given full power to control the national policy of Greece, and that therefore he had abandoned his effort to form a cabinet.

HESSIAN PRINCE KILLED.

Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, is taking the initiative in the attempt.

PREMIER-ELECT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

HARLAN CAREY BREWSTER, M. P. P. ELECT
Honored leader of the Liberal party, who will shortly be in charge of the government of the province.

MESSAGE TO PEOPLE FROM PREMIER-ELECT.

To the Electors of Victoria, City:
It is with a feeling of keen appreciation of the responsibility which has been laid on my shoulders that I to-day thank the people of Victoria for the honor done me in my election at the head of the poll yesterday.

Thanks are due to the Conservative and independent voters who cast their ballots for the Liberal candidates, as well as to the rank and file of the party who have been supporting the cause of clean government for so many years. To the women of Victoria also, who soon will be granted the franchise as a matter of simple right, I desire to convey the thanks of the Liberal party for their invaluable aid.

We have promised that the patronage system is to be abolished. That promise shall be faithfully kept. The incoming government will place the interests of the people above all, and with perfect confidence it can ask for a continuation of the public support which was given yesterday. On its record alone it will ask for judgment in the years to come.

We have a magnificent province, with natural resources of illimitable potentiality. It is now our duty to take such steps for their development as will ensure their full utilization. I know that I can safely appeal to all British Columbians to stand behind the new government in what it does to that end, and they can be assured that it shall not be found wanting.

H. C. BREWSTER.

DANISH STEAMSHIP SUNK BY GERMANS

London, Sept. 15.—The Danish steamship Hans Taven, of 1,709 tons gross, has been sunk, according to a dispatch to Lloyds from Saint Malo, Normandy. The crew was landed.

LIBERAL PARTY VICTORS AT THE POLLS YESTERDAY THROUGHOUT PROVINCE

Victoria and Vancouver Elect Solid Representation of Supporters of H. C. Brewster; Leader Heads the Poll in the Capital; M. A. Macdonald Vindicated by Electors of Mainland City; Conservatives May Number Seven in the New Legislature

In the most decisive manner in which any people could express themselves at the polls the electors of British Columbia yesterday determined that Bowserism, the party machine and the patronage system must go in this province.

So far as can be definitely stated, with some isolated polls to be heard from, the fourteenth legislature of British Columbia will consist of thirty-eight Liberals, two Socialists giving an independent support to the new government, one Independent Conservative and six Conservatives.

Harlan Carey Brewster, the next premier of British Columbia, will have behind him in the House a majority of thirty-two on all the remedial measures that will be necessary to put the province on its feet again. It is more than probable that he will have the loyal support also of all or most of the Conservative members in his general policy, which is certain to be for the greater good of the people of the province at large.

Mr. Brewster and the members who will stand behind him are as follows: Mr. Brewster and the members who will stand behind him are as follows: Mr. Brewster and the members who will stand behind him are as follows:

The men who sought the suffrages of the people in support of the Liberal cause are of the highest type. From among them could be picked three or four cabinets which would be the equal of any in the other provinces, and would easily be far and away superior to the cabinets which have had charge of the affairs of British Columbia for some years past. The men who will be chosen by the leader may be depended upon to be equally with himself, jealous guardians of the public interest.

The Liberal candidates have been elected in the following constituencies: Atlin, Cariboo, Chilliwack, Columbia, Comox, Cranbrook, Dawson, Esquimalt, Fernie, Grand Forks, Greenwood, Islands, Kamloops, Lillooet, Nanaimo, New Westminster, North Okanagan, North Vancouver, Omineca, Prince Rupert, Revelstoke, Richmond, Rossland, Saanich, South Vancouver, Trail, Victoria (four seats), Vancouver (six seats), Yale, Alberni.

The Socialist candidates are elected in: Fort George, Newwastle. The Conservative candidates in the following constituencies: Delta, Kaslo, Nelson, Slocan, South Okanagan, Similkameen. The new members of the legislature so far as known at this time are: Alberni—H. C. Brewster, Lib. Atlin—Frank H. Mobley, Lib. Cariboo—John M. Yorston, Lib. Chilliwack—E. D. Barrow, Lib. Columbia—John A. Buckham, Lib. Comox—Hugh Stewart, Lib. Cowichan—W. H. Hayward, Ind. Con. Cranbrook—Dr. J. H. King, Lib. Delta—Frank J. Mackenzie, Con. Dawson—John Oliver, Lib. Esquimalt—A. W. McCurdy, Lib. Fernie—A. I. Fisher, Lib. Fort George—John McInnis, Soc. Grand Forks—J. E. Thompson, Lib. Greenwood—Dr. J. D. MacLean, Lib. Islands—M. B. Jackson, Lib. Kamloops—F. W. Anderson, Lib. Kaslo—R. J. Long, Con. Lillooet—J. B. Bryson, Lib. Nanaimo—William Sloan, Lib. Nelson—Dr. W. G. Ross, Con. Newwastle—Parker Williams, Soc. New Westminster—David Whiteside, Lib. North Okanagan—Dr. K. C. MacDonald, Lib. North Vancouver—Mayor George S. Hanes, Lib. Omineca—Alex. M. Manson, Lib.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 15.—Regarding the British Columbia elections, the Toronto Star says:
Exit Premier Bowser, and in London very anxious is Sir Richard McBride, who will never be himself again, and whose salary of fifteen thousand dollars a year as agent-general of a province whose population is one-third less than that of Toronto will surely be pruned in keeping with the Mail and Empire's matutinal appeal to save and serve. Brewster's millions will not run to such costly representation six thousand miles from home. They will not stand for a yearly expenditure on provincial government of over forty dollars per head of every man, woman and child in the country, including Indians, Chinese, and Hindus.

"British Columbia is an economic tragedy, the victim of political effort without parallel in any other modern British administrative entity, not even yielding Manitoba, where the opportunity for the exploitation of natural resources was not so great, though the willingness to handle them was incomparable."
Winnipeg Congratulations.
Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 15.—Premier Norris has wired to H. C. Brewster his congratulations on great Liberal victory in British Columbia.
"It was just what I expected," said Mr. Norris, to the Times correspondent. "When I was in British Columbia a few weeks ago I thought the sentiment was overwhelmingly against the Bowser government. Mr. Brewster, Liberal

Paris, Sept. 15.—North of the Somme French troops captured Le Priez farm and enlarged their other positions close to Comblies, according to an official statement issued last night, the text of which follows:
"North of the Somme we entrenched our positions on the part of our front which faces Comblies, and carried by assault to the southeast of this locality the farm of Le Priez, which had been organized as a point of support by the enemy."
"Lively isolated fighting occurred to the north and south of Bouchavesnes. We completely maintained all our gains."
"South of the Somme we advanced by bombing to the east of Balby-en-Santerre."
"On the rest of the front there was nothing to report."
British Report
London, Sept. 15.—The following official statement was issued last night:
"The general situation is unchanged. South of the Ancre reciprocal artillery bombardments continue."
"On the front between Arras and Ypres artillery and trench mortars have been active. This morning the enemy fired a camouflet near Mount Sorrel, and this evening exploded a mine near Neuville-St. Vaast."
"There was considerable aerial fighting. This morning two enemy machines were brought down in flames and another was driven to the ground. One of our aeroplanes is missing."

London, Sept. 15.—The following official statement regarding the operations in Greek Macedonia was issued last evening:
"Early this morning our troops moved forward after artillery preparation through Mukukovo (eight miles southwest of Lake Doiran), and in the face of stubborn opposition captured a salient in the enemy's line to the north of the village. Considerable ground was gained, and despite the enemy counter-attacks our gains were fully maintained."
"We captured some German prisoners and a number of machine guns."
Salonica, Sept. 15.—The following official statement was issued by the Serbian staff last night:
"Our offensive continued yesterday on the entire front with complete success. According to statements of prisoners, the intensity and precision of our artillery fire inflicted heavy losses on the enemy. At many points the Bulgarians are retiring under the pressure of our infantry, which is successively occupying enemy positions. Our action continues energetically."

ROGERS AND THOSE MANITOBA CONTRACTS
Statement About Increase He Wired to Commissioner at Winnipeg
Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—Telegrams which passed between Commissioner Galt, who is investigating the erection of the buildings of the Agricultural College of Manitoba during Sir Rodmond Roblin's regime, and Hon. Robt. Rogers, formerly a member of Sir Rodmond's cabinet and now Dominion minister of public works, in reference to testimony given last Tuesday by W. M. Carter, of the firm of Carter, Halls & Aldinger, the contractors who erected several of the buildings, were read at the session of the commission yesterday afternoon by Commissioner Galt. The commissioner wired to Mr. Rogers:
"Carter testified to-day that after acceptance of powerhouse tender you suggested to him to increase amount of tender, and he did increase it by $8,700, and that a few days later, in September, 1911, D. E. Sprague, a Conservative member of the legislature, for and collected $2,500 for Dominion election campaign fund. It also appeared that the previous tender and acceptance were not disclosed to council when you recommended acceptance of substituted tender. The commission is sitting daily."
Rogers' Reply
Mr. Rogers replied from Ottawa as follows:
"You can understand difficult for me to have in mind all details. It is very manifest, however, that it would not have been in public interest to have awarded Carter contract on original tender for powerhouse for the reason that work could not have been done under specifications at tendered price. There was then also additional reason that Carter had tendered and received contracts for administration building, and at the time when tenders were finally considered for powerhouse it was plain that Carter would meet a very heavy loss on administration building in view of this it then became a question with the department whether Carter should be allowed to put in an additional tender or be refused contract at all. Department no doubt was influenced in allowing Carter to put in new tender by reason of the fact that it was apparent that his loss on administration building would be very heavy. Am sure no one will argue that it would have been in the public interest to have attempted to repeat a similar condition in the construction of the powerhouse in the hope of having same erected at less than cost. Pressure in department is in contact and will show both tenders."
"As to subscription by Carter to Dominion campaign fund during re-election campaign, I am certain he will acknowledge under oath that I never mentioned or suggested in any way contribution to party funds, and I hope you will see that this question is asked him."
"Sgd.) R. ROGERS."

GERMAN ROBBERS IN BELGIUM ARE BUSY

750,000,000 Francs Seized From Bank; a Director Held In Jail

Havre, Sept. 15.—Aloys Valf de Vyvere, Belgian minister of finance, yesterday authorized the following statement:
"The news of the seizure of 750,000,000 francs in the Belgian National Bank by the German military administration in Brussels probably is true, although no official confirmation of it has yet been received."
"The military rule has compelled the payment of contributions levied on Belgians to be made in francs at par value, with the marks at 1.25 francs, and at the same time it has paid for its requirements in Belgium in marks. German currency has been forced upon the country in this manner to replace Belgian currency."
"The German government summoned the directors of the National Bank and endeavored to compel them to transfer the cash in the bank to the German government. The directors refused, and one of them, M. Carlier, was thereupon arrested and is kept as a prisoner—where we do not know."
"I think the civilized world should know of this cruelty to M. Carlier."

A dispatch from The Hague, under date of September 11, quoted The Belgische Dagblad as announcing that the German authorities had seized £30,000,000 placed in the Belgian National Bank in consequence of the suspension of the moratorium, the Germans offering to pay 5 per cent. interest and return the money two years after the close of the war.

Every one of our Fall and Winter Suits, Coats, Skirts and Dresses was personally selected and purchased by our own buyer, who made a special trip to the Eastern markets for that purpose. IMPORTANT POSITIONS TAKEN BY ITALIANS

Rome, Sept. 15.—The following statement was issued last evening:
"By daring climbs our troops succeeded in taking some important positions in the Zara valley, in the Posina valley, and on Monte Lagazuoli, in the Travenazze-Holte valley."
"At the head of the Felizon valley the enemy attacked in force our advanced posts on Punta del Poime and forced us to fall back 100 metres."
"On Wednesday evening, after violent artillery fire, the enemy attacked our positions at Slaten, on the upper Isorno, and between Volzama and Gempol, but was repulsed with losses."

RUSSIAN AIR RAID NEAR GULF OF RIGA

London, Sept. 15.—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says that four giant Russian aeroplanes bombarded a German seaplane station on Lake Anger, near the Gulf of Riga, where seventeen aeroplanes of various sizes and types were discerned. The Russians dropped 73 bombs, with resultant fire and smoke, which concealed the sheds. Eight German machines attacked the Russian machines, but were put to flight. No fewer than eight German machines were destroyed or put out of action. The Russian machines returned safely, notwithstanding that they were shelled by anti-aircraft guns.

HUNGRY GREEKS TO HUNGRY GERMANS

Germans Seem to Think Kavala Troops Would Feel Better in Germany

Berlin, Sept. 15.—The Vossische Zeitung says that the officers of the fourth Greek army corps which is to be transported from Kavala, Greece, to Germany, will be accompanied by their families, thus preventing the starving of women and children by the entente.

Official announcement was made in Berlin yesterday of the plan to transport to Germany Greek troops stationed at Kavala at the time of the occupation of Eastern Macedonia by Bulgarian forces. The announcement said the troops, cut off from communication with Athens by the entente forces, were suffering from disease and lack of food and that they would be taken to Germany as neutrals. Athens dispatches said 1,500 Greek soldiers had been removed from Kavala on warships of the allies.

GREAT EFFICIENCY OF WORK MAKES APPEAL

New York Banker Marvels at Work of Relieving Belgians

Montreal, Sept. 15.—"My visit to Belgium gave my first opportunity to see for myself the actual working of the relief system. It is a marvel of efficiency and devotion," says A. J. Hemphill, the New York banker.

"All Americans admire the magnificent generosity with which the British empire, despite the many other calls upon its benevolence and resources, has contributed, through the National Committee for Relief in Belgium, to the support of the relief work. After seeing that work for myself, I venture to say that it is the duty of every humane individual to help these helpless civilians in Belgium—especially the children—who for nearly two years have endured sorrows and privations that would try the soul of any nation in the world, yet still remain heroically true to those traditions of liberty and freedom which they have inherited through centuries."

The same spirit which Mr. Hemphill found in the work in Belgium is surrounding the efforts of the Belgian Relief Committee in Canada. Its offices at 53 St. Peter street, Montreal, are the daily scene of indefatigable work on the part of some of Canada's most prominent men, who are giving time worth hundreds of dollars to them and charging not a cent.

This committee asks all Canadians to enter into the great work to save Belgium. Two dollars and fifty cents will feed one of these children. Mr. Hemphill refers to until Christmas. Small contributions are welcomed as warmly as large ones.

RAID NEAR TRIESTE BY ITALIAN AIRMEN

Rome, Sept. 15.—A squadron of 22 of our Caproni battle-planes made a raid on the Austrian arsenal and aeroplane hangars near Trieste, according to an official statement. Five tons of high explosives were dropped and large fires were observed as a result. The text of the report follows: "Enemy aircraft dropped bombs on Anconeza, but they did no harm. Hydro-aeroplane directed against Ravenna were driven off by our fire. Last night an enemy air squadron bombarded San Giorgio di Nogaro, Villa Vicentina and other places in the lower Isonzo district. One man was killed, and some fires were caused."

"Yesterday afternoon, under unfavorable weather conditions, a squadron of 22 of our Caproni battle-planes made a raid on the Lloyd's arsenal and hydro-aeroplane hangars near Trieste. One hundred and seventy-two bombs, equal to five tons of high explosives, were dropped on the railway and ships. Large fires were observed. Our aeroplanes were attacked, but all returned to their sheds."

U. S. S. ARIZONA WILL BE COMMISSIONED OCT. 15

Washington, Sept. 15.—The super-dreadnought Arizona, just completed at the New York navy yard, will be commissioned under command of Captain John D. McDonald on October 15. The navy department officials are elated over the success which has marked the construction of the Arizona by government workmen.

BASHI BAZOUKS BUSY

Salonica, Sept. 14.—Turks and Bulgarians are massacring the inhabitants of Kavala, according to unofficial reports received here to-day. The heights and forts surrounding the town are being bombarded by British and Russian warships.

How Thin People Can Put On Flesh

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed through your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are probably sadly out of gear and need reconstruction. Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating and eat with every one of those a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note the difference. Let the scales be the judge. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay-there" fat may be the net result. Sargol aims to charge weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—to give the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food, to prepare it for the blood in an easily assimilated form. Thin people tell how they have gained all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol. They say that the new fat stays put. Sargol tablets are a careful combination of six of the best assimilative elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and D. E. Campbell and all other good druggists in this vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in every large package. If you find a druggist who is unable to supply you with Sargol send $1.00 money order registered letter to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine St., Montreal, and a complete ten days' treatment will be sent you postpaid, in plain wrapper.

STREET RAILWAY STRIKE SITUATION IN N. YORK

New York, Sept. 15.—Plans were discussed to-day by the leaders of the street railway strike for a sympathetic walkout of 50,000 to 60,000 workers here in trades allied with the operation of street cars. James P. Holland, president of the Federation of Labor, has threatened to call out the workers in these trades if the present deadlock is not broken before to-morrow night.

President Polnare, to whom King George has sent birthday congratulations, is one of those men whose boyhood accurately foreshadowed his future. At school his keenest delight was speech-making. Mounted on a chair in the school playground, he would hold forth upon any and every subject that appealed to him—a fire, an earthquake, a death, or any event of local or national interest—whilst his fellow-lyceans listened and cheered and predicted his future greatness. The president's tremendous capacity for work is largely the result of his mother's training. From early childhood he was taught to be up and about by 8 a.m., and that habit of early rising he has maintained throughout his life.—London Chronicle.

Gen. Maurice von Bissing, governor general of Belgium and the man in the last analysis who was responsible for the shooting of Edith Cavell and the one hundred and one fines levied against Belgian cities, has lately been adopting a new policy. Apparently the Germans have come to the conclusion that they will not be able to hold Belgium so von Bissing has been detested to divide Belgium into two hostile camps on racial and linguistic lines, so that the country would be weakened in future and perhaps fall an easier prey to German intrigues. Some years before the outbreak of the war von Bissing came under the Kaiser's displeasure and was relieved of all military duties. It was only after Belgium was overrun that he was given a post, and possibly he is now trying to win back a place in the sun. It is significant that quite recently Gen. Sir Alfred Turner came out in defence of von Bissing, claiming that he was Kratchnitz.

THE VERDICT. The verdict of the electors yesterday proved that the results of the by-elections six months ago reflected faithfully the sentiment of the whole province.

The remarkable vote polled by Mr. Brewster was a striking manifestation of public confidence. Indeed, we may go further and say that the Liberal leader's character, sincerity and high ideals constituted a factor which contributed most materially to the whole result.

The vindication of M. A. Macdonald is not the least pleasing feature of the election. The premier and his colleagues, home and foreign, were determined to accomplish the ruin of the man who helped to lead the way in exposing the deplorable condition of the government.

The Borden government of Canada, with its head on the block, will not be in haste to appeal to the country. The Vancouver News-Advertiser was indiscreet in appealing to the electors to remember that a vote adverse to Bowers would affect seriously the position of the Borden government.

Without any desire to chortle, perhaps we may be permitted to remind Hon. Alex. Stewart that we warned him it would not be the Times that would be "put out of business."

Heavy blows fell thickly yesterday. The allies delivered several against the Huns and their allies. The next matter of importance to dispose of is the disposition, maybe the deposition, of the All-Highest.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE. In view of the decisive result of the polling yesterday it is desirable that returns of the soldiers' voting should be revealed at the earliest possible moment. Under an extraordinary provision of the act these votes need not be counted until ten weeks after the nomination of candidates, but this may be done any time within that period.

The result of this vote should favor the opposition as decisively as the voting in the province favored it yesterday, and according to report it does.

FEATURES OF THE ELECTION.

A striking feature of the polling was the great strength developed by the opposition in the chief cities and towns throughout the province. With the exception of Nelson, virtually all of them returned supporters of Mr. Brewster.

PREFER THE WOODS TO COUNCIL CHAMBER

Meeting Called Off To-day
Owing to Shooting Season Opening

There was no meeting of the streets committee of the city council this afternoon, as had been arranged. The opening of the shooting season proved too attractive, and some of the members selected the open woods in preference to the council room.

Under these circumstances the question which the city solicitor had to submit to the Aldermen for an opinion as to the course to be adopted with regard to Denman street expropriation, for which a writ has been issued, will lie over till the meeting of the council on Monday.

Apart from the course which the council will take now on the Johnson street bridge negotiations, and a debate on the subject is promised next week in connection with the motion to eliminate the Equilum & Nansimo Railway from the arrangements. The greatest interest around the city hall is taken in the course to be adopted with regard to the agitation for the re-establishment of a standard minimum wage.

The committee composed of the chairman of the three departments who employ the outside labor of the city, together with the city engineer, to whom have been referred the petitions on the matter, has not yet met pending the receipt of certain information from other cities. That data is now to hand. The whole question, in the opinion of most members of the council, boils down to the issue of financial feasibility and not of the merits of the claim. Few public men would deny that the price of living is steadily rising, but the estimates are framed on the basis of the wages paid in the spring. The laying off of a number of men employed during the summer season has already commenced, and it is estimated at the labor bureau that there will be a surplus again shortly, as fewer hands are now being employed in the outside services.

MISSIONARIES COMING

Party of Mission Workers Going to Central India to Be Here on Monday.

A party of Indian missionaries who have been on furlough in Canada for the past year are returning to the Far East next Tuesday by the Kamakura Maru. They are Rev. J. R. Harcourt, B. The missionaries will arrive here on Monday from Eastern Canada, and in the afternoon there will be meetings at which they will speak. Mr. Harcourt will address the Ladies' Missionary Society at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock, and Mrs. Taylor will speak at a similar meeting at the First Presbyterian church at the same hour. Afterwards the party will be taken for a tour of the city in autos, and will terminate their drive at the First Presbyterian church, where a reception is to be held and tea served.

The missionaries will be further welcomed in the evening also, as at 8 o'clock there is to be a meeting under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the churches of the city in the First Presbyterian church.

It was only ten days after he left England for France that he was killed.

Phoenix Stout, 2 qts. for 25¢.

Public Market.—The week-end market should be one of the best of the season, as all the stalls are expected to be occupied with a large fresh stock of all local produce. Some of the stalls are making a special display which is to be photographed.

Meeting Was Cancelled.—The meeting of the board of trade which according to the by-laws should have been held yesterday was cancelled on account of the elections. There will be no general meeting until next month.

Sportsmen of every variety have done their bit in the struggle now being waged in Europe. Pugilists and wrestlers have been through, with their fellow sportsmen the dangers at the front. It has just been announced that George Heckenschmidt, the famous Russian wrestler and a challenger for the world's championship, has just been reported a prisoner in Germany, where he is suffering from water on the knee and other injuries which will prevent him from doing any mat work in future. Before becoming a prisoner Heckenschmidt had given an excellent account of himself at the front—Montreal Journal of Commerce.

Army training develops and hardens the muscles, but it is doubtful whether constant physical exercise promotes all forms of athletic fitness. One notes in the case of the footballer that his loose, sloping shoulders are becoming squared and stiffened. He is less supple and has lost some of his quickness of movement. The golfer complains that his freedom of swing is restricted, whilst his strength is a danger in a game in which strength is only an advantage when properly applied.—London Chronicle.

ROYAL COMMISSION TO BE ENTERTAINED

Council of Board of Trade Makes Arrangements for Visitors

The Dominion Royal Commission will arrive in this city on Wednesday next, early in the morning. At 9 o'clock they will meet the council of the board of trade at the Empress hotel, and an hour later they will be taken for a drive through the Gordon Head district, where they will inspect some of the fruit ranches and be shown what can be done in the matter of producing. These were the arrangements made this morning by the council of the board of trade.

Just after noon the members of the commission will be the guests of the Canadian Club, when Sir George E. Foster will speak. It will be 2.30, however, before the serious business of the commission will commence. Evidence will be received in the board of trade rooms, and it is expected that something like 40 witnesses will be examined. The first subject to be taken up will be agriculture. This will be followed by matters pertaining to immigration and emigration. Other subjects to be considered will be agricultural imports, fruit growing, mixed farming, livestock, mining, iron and steel, timber, fisheries, Vancouver Island generally with special reference to water power, climate, railway facilities, harbors, education, cables and telegraphs, health, Victoria as an industrial centre, and its geographical position regarding imperial affairs, and the return of a soldier. The Women's Council will address the commission on women's economics.

Arrangements are being made for Sir George E. Foster to deliver a public address on Trade and Patriotism, particulars of which will appear later.

Evening sessions will be held and the members of the commission expect to leave on Thursday night.

Week-End Special.—K. Mixture, 20c. per lb. This mixture is made up of many distinct flavors and is free from adulteration. We do not use a single substitute in the manufacture of our candies. They are made in Victoria, and the public receive them in a fresh condition. 14 gold and silver medals and diplomas were awarded to Wiper & Co. for excellence and purity of their manufactures. Wiper & Co., 1210 Douglas street, and 607 Yates street.

Collections Good.—The Red and Blue Cross and Returned Soldiers' Flower Guild is every day approximately more closely to its ambition of collecting $2,000 for the fund before the close of the summer. Up to date the guild has collected through the sale of flowers $1,830, this sum, however, representing only a part of the work, as not a patriotic tag day has passed on which the society has not temporarily set aside its own interests to work for the other organization under which the tag was being held. Last year the total sum collected was only $1,094, so that there is every reason for the members to feel proud of the work they have done this year.

Supreme Court Cases.—Three trials have been set down for trial in the supreme court next week. On Tuesday Bailey vs. Chapman and Webb will come up; on Thursday argument will be heard in Jefferson vs. Pacific Coast Coal Mines; and on Friday the divorce suit of Swanson vs. Swanson.

Annual Conference.—The annual conference of the Island Women's Institute will be held in the exhibition hall attached to the department of agriculture, parliament buildings, on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 10 and 11. The programme is full of interest, including as it does, addresses from Dr. Tolmie on "Market Problems and How to Solve Them," from Mr. MacDonald (live stock department) on "Boys and Girls Clubs," from Miss Leighton on "The Work of the Girl Guides," from Mr. Kyle (department of education) on "Vocational and Industrial Training," from Mrs. Suttie (B. C. George's School for Girls) on "Moral Training" from Dr. Etta Deming on "Preventable Illments During School Life," from Miss Alice Ravenhill on "Adolescence," and a talk from Mr. Hardman (Y. M. C. A.) on the work carried on by his society among our troops in the trenches, in all parts of the world. The conference will close on Wednesday evening with a social evening at the rest room of the Y. W. C. A., Douglas street, when Mrs. J. Hinton has most kindly offered to provide some music. Representatives of all women's organizations are invited to attend all the sessions of the conference for which programme will be shortly available at the department of agriculture.

AT THE THEATRES

DOMINION THEATRE.

As previously announced the famous Metro films are to be shown at the Dominion theatre which again reveals its progressive policy. J. R. Muir, managing director of the Dominion theatre, says:

"Our determination to give the best and only the best to our patrons has caused us to keep in touch with the best productions now being filmed, and we are therefore pleased to state that beginning with our fall season we have finally decided, after looking over the market very carefully, to bring in the famous and world-renowned Metro productions, as we are firmly convinced that they will furnish a pleasing and highly satisfactory entertainment to our patrons.

The public has become rather hard-pressed on poor productions—but just on productions of class and merit that are up to the high standard. Our aim is to please the public and let the public judge. We might say that in keeping with our policy of giving the public the best, we have secured this programme at a tremendous cost. We will be able to give the most diversified programme yet attempted, and we can truly say that Metro has the most remarkable aggregation of stars, ever assembled, plays and novels of the bigger and better sort; every one of them has a real theme, and so developed that they will hold the audience; human dramas that excite the mind and touch the heart even more keenly than the spoken drama, while produced in such a lavish manner that the stage can not possibly compete with them.

"Metro pictures are enacted by great artists, celebrities whose merit has won their artistic laurels and whose superbly finished acting brings the most marvelous realism to the parts they produce.

"We have arranged for the exclusive exhibition rights of these productions, and they will only be shown at our theatre. The films will be new and in perfect condition, which is a relief to the eyes, and we can promise our patrons that they will not see any film in our theatre that will be 'rainy' (which is a film expression) or in poor condition."

Adams in the Boston News Bureau has the following to say about Colonel Clough, the former chairman of the former chairman of the Northern Pacific:
The late Col. W. P. Clough, chairman of the Northern Pacific, was a cool, calculating man and an astute lawyer. He was "always on the job" but never seemed to be overworking at it. When he was vice-president of the Great Northern in general charge of its legal and diplomatic affairs, the active general counsel being the late M. B. Grover, the colonel's nonchalance at times got on James J. Hill's nerves. One day the latter darted into the Clough offices abruptly, to ask about something—and found Col. Clough peering out of the window in an aimless manner. On his desk lay a novel opened.
"Is this what I pay you $30,000 a year for, Clough?" testily inquired Mr. Hill.
"Precisely," unconcernedly replied Clough. "What do you mean?"
"I mean that if I were busy you would be in trouble. You pay me to keep trouble away."
The great railroad builder caught the point and chuckled.—Montreal Journal of Commerce.

PRAYER FOR PEACE.

By sad tumults of farewell,
World-enduring bugles swell;
By fond hearts that far Loves shrine,
Left in loneliness to pine
Through long silences of fear:
God of Battles, battle cease!
God of Mercy, grant us peace!

By grey bulks of battered steel,
Whence no more the guns may peal,
Dim in green depths grim and stern,
Holding like colossal urn
Bones of heroes, nations weep,
While deep wailings unto deep:
God of Battles, battle cease!
God of Mercy, grant us peace!

By far wastes of cross-sown sod,
Other graves but known to God,
Where the eagle downward heads:
By the long white rows of beds,
With the nation's sacrifice,
Manhood's fiercest and pick and choice:
God of Battles, battle cease!
God of Mercy, grant us peace!

By the progeny of war,
Wombed in strife and cannon's roar,
All unmanned and mangled, maimed;
By horizons smoked and flamed,
With the nation's sacrifice,
Manhood's fiercest and pick and choice:
God of Battles, battle cease!
God of Mercy, grant us peace!

DUDLEY H. ANDERSON,

The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Napier Denison, of the Meteorological Bureau, and looked very handsome in a smart white silk coat and skirt with a large picture hat of white satin. Instead of a bouquet she carried a white prayer-book, the gift of her sister, Mrs. Denison, who acted as matron-of-honor, wearing a costume of black velvet with ermine stole, and a picture hat in black and white. The best man was Dr. Tomalin. Appropriate wedding music was furnished by the organist, Mr. Myers. France Joins With Allies in Firm Note Regarding Attitude

QUESTION OF GERMAN MERCHANT SUBMARINES

Paris, Sept. 15.—The French government has instructed its minister at Stockholm to join with the other entente ministers in presenting a friendly but firm note to Sweden in regard to its policy of neutrality.

For many months past Great Britain has found the attitude of Sweden toward the entente most unsatisfactory.

As Great Britain developed step by step the entente blockade of Germany, the Swedish government persisted in interposing difficulties which worked to the advantage of Germany.

BULLETIN SERVICE IS APPRECIATED

Thousands Gathered Outside Times Building to Watch Returns

The bulletin service in connection with the election returns which had been arranged by the Times was one of the most complete that had ever been handled in this city.

As the first returns gave an idea of what was likely to follow, cheer after cheer went up, and from a few minutes after seven until well on toward midnight many people remained, eager to find out about the fate of the different candidates in which they were interested.

The results were shown on a screen opposite the Times building by a lantern. From every corner of the province the news came and the delight of the spectators increased as it became certain that the government was being swept from power.

CAPITAL SUPPORTS NEW GOVERNMENT

(Continued from page 1.) The news from outside was watched from a window in the Times editorial rooms by the premier-elect, H. C. Brewster, and the other members-elect for the capital city—George Bell, John Hart, and H. C. Hall—and all were filled with deep satisfaction.

As soon as the final figures for Vancouver were in the four members-elect descended to the street and ascended a tally-ho in front of the Liberal rooms in the Arcade building.

Mr. Brewster thanked the electors—Liberals, Conservatives and Independents—the men like Mr. Boggs and Mr. Bagshawe, who had forgotten party in the public interest; the host of volunteer workers, the women who had done such splendid work, and the Times. He pledged himself and the government which he is soon to lead to implement every promise of legislation contained in the Liberal platform.

The other members-elect spoke briefly and so did those from the neighboring ridings. The vote by wards for the several candidates is given in an accompanying table. The arrangements for the taking of the vote were carried out admirably under Sydney Child, the returning officer, whose conduct of the election was all that such an official's should be.

The vote for woman suffrage in the city was greatly in favor of it. Owing to the absence of the Ward One figures it is impossible to give the actual total, but so far as known they are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Ward, For, Agst. Includes Ward 1, Ward 2, Ward 3, Ward 4, Ward 5, Total (4 wards).

GERMAN EVICTIONS.

Various Teutonic excuses have been put forth in answer to the French protest against the great eviction taking place in the fraction of France under German occupation.

The plain fact is that the uprooting of a population, wholesale and by force, constitutes one of the most cruel and destructive acts known to warfare. Not only does it do violence to those too aged, young or infirm to support the rigors of emigration; wreck the fortunes of those removed from property and means of support; break the spirit and vigor of those torn from a home and east handicapped among alien, unknown surroundings.

Not only does it do violence to those too aged, young or infirm to support the rigors of emigration; wreck the fortunes of those removed from property and means of support; break the spirit and vigor of those torn from a home and east handicapped among alien, unknown surroundings. It does far worse than this. It inevitably breaks up families in such a hopeless way as to cause innumerable tragedies of separation, irremediable wrongs, misdeeds of the story of Evangeline.

But, worst of all, no doubt, is the fact that the transported become the victims of their captors. While suffered to stay in their invaded homes they can be abused only with the knowledge and connivance of a military governor. Certain distinct rights are accorded them. Military discipline protects them. In their homes they have a standing, but removed and dispersed, they fall into the clutches of all sorts of wrongdoers.

Whatever the idea, the Teutons are setting a precedent full of danger for the side likely to be defeated. In case the entente troops should eventually reach Berlin and parade in the Siegesallee it might become a question of expatriating, by way of making stronger allied frontiers, a few million Germans and Austrians. The German migrant element in Alsace, which has thriven since the last war at the expense of the inhabitants, lends itself to this treatment.

Teuton's own approved and sanctioned practices upon them? Eviction was a bad game for them to start.—New York Sun.

Unnecessary fuss is being made because the Stage Society have produced a play founded on a tale two thousand years old. It must have quite a modern smack compared to the stories we hear in our music halls.

"You are not to drink it after supper unless you intend to be watchful, for it will hinder sleep for three or four hours."

That was 250 years ago. To-day it is a well-known fact that sleeplessness, brought on by coffee drinking, is due to the presence of the drug, caffeine, in coffee.

STRIKERS AT SEATTLE DISPERSED BY POLICE

Seattle, Sept. 15.—Open defiance by a gathering of 400 striking longshoremen in front of the G. T. P. dock at the foot of Marion street, resulted in several automobiles loaded with police reserves being rushed to the scene and the arrest of 77 of the men last night.

The summary action of the police, which was supervised by Chief of Police Beckingham, resulted in the dispersing of the remainder of the crowd, which soon melted away when it was seen that the police meant business.

As early as 9 o'clock it was reported that union longshoremen were gathering along the waterfront and details of motorcycle policemen were sent out from headquarters to assist in preserving order.

The police went into the crowd and quietly asked the men to disperse. The crowd settled back a few feet and appeared as if on the point of accepting the advice, but came to a stop when several of the leaders among them stopped.

"Look at the big bulls. Bring on the whole department, we're all here," the crowd shouted.

The crowd kept up its shouting at intervals until the chief ordered it dispersed and began making arrests.

COUNSELLOR SUNK ON HOMEWARD TRIP

Makes Second Ship Capt. A. B. Sandiford Has Had Founder Under Him

With the foundering of the British steamship Counsellor off the British coast, Capt. A. B. Sandiford, her master, has had the misfortune to have two vessels sunk under him during the course of the war.

The Counsellor discharged cargo at Victoria on July 26 last, and subsequently loaded a full cargo of food-stuffs on Puget Sound for the return trip to the United Kingdom.

Before being given the command of the Counsellor, Capt. Sandiford was master of the steamer Candidate, which was sunk by a German submarine off the British coast on May 6, 1915.

On her trip out here the Counsellor carried a 12-pounder gun for defence, but this was put ashore at Bermuda, after the vessel was out of the danger zone.

Other officers of the Counsellor's complement well known here besides Capt. Sandiford are Chief Officer Rowlands, formerly with the Comedian, and Second Officer Phillips, who previously served on the Colonial.

The Harrison Line, which operates the Harrison Direct Line between London, Liverpool and Glasgow to British Columbia, probably has lost more tonnage by submarine warfare than any other line.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN G.T.P. SERVICE

Prince Rupert to Maintain Weekly Service to Skagway for Balance of Year.

Important changes are announced by the G.T.P. in its steamship service to Northern British Columbia points and Alaska. C. F. Earle, local ticket and passenger agent, this morning gave out that the fall and winter schedule provides for a weekly service between Vancouver and Skagway via Prince Rupert, Ketchikan, Wrangell and Juneau, the new service becoming effective on October 14 next and remaining in force until December 21.

The decision of the G.T.P. company to continue to operate a weekly boat to Skagway during the remaining months of the year was influenced by the tremendous amount of tourist travel handled during the past summer.

The steamer selected to remain in the Skagway trade for the balance of the year is the Prince Rupert. The steamer will be operated on a very fast schedule in order to make the round trip from Vancouver once a week, allowing only five hours at the mainland port between trips.

The new sailing list provides for the departure of the Prince Rupert from Vancouver at 11 p. m. Thursdays, arrive Prince Rupert 9 a. m. Saturdays, and Skagway Monday morning. Returning at noon Mondays; arrive Prince Rupert 5 a. m. Wednesdays, leave 9 a. m., arriving back at Vancouver 6 p. m. Thursdays.

On arrival of the Prince Rupert at Vancouver on Tuesday, October 17, her present schedule will be cancelled and she will remain over there until Thursday, October 19, to take up the schedule as outlined above.

The steamer Prince George, under the new schedule, will make weekly trips from Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver to the Prince Rupert and Anxox, making regular northbound and southbound calls at Ocean Falls. At midnight, October 15, the Prince George will leave Seattle, arriving at this port at 7 a. m. Mondays, leaving at 10 a. m., arrive Vancouver 3 p. m., leave 11 p. m., arrive Ocean Falls 9 p. m. Tuesdays; arrive Prince Rupert 10:30 a. m. Wednesdays, leave midnight; arrive Anxox 7 a. m. Thursdays. Returning she will leave Anxox at noon Thursdays; Prince Rupert 9 a. m. Fridays; Ocean Falls 11 p. m. Saturdays; arrive Victoria 7 a. m. Sundays, and Seattle 3 p. m. same day.

Between October 16 and December 21, the steamer Prince John will continue to ply between Vancouver, Surf Inlet, Prince Rupert, Queen Charlottes, Anxox, Alice Arm and Stewart. The John will leave Vancouver Sept. 27, Oct. 11 and 25, Nov. 8 and 22, and Dec. 6 and 20.

Under the schedule effective January 3 the Prince John will be placed in the Prince Rupert-Skagway service, which will be withdrawn and laid up. The John will make fortnightly trips between Prince Rupert and Skagway, making alternate trips between Prince Rupert and the Queen Charlotte Islands and to Anxox and Stewart. The steamers Chelohsin or Venture will ply between Vancouver and Anxox via Prince Rupert in connection with the G.T.P. sailings.

BARQUENTINE PUAKO REACHES PORT NATAL

Lumber Carrier Completes Voyage of 109 Days From Victoria; Will Return

One hundred and nine days out from Victoria the American barquentine Puako, Capt. Peterson, laden with 1,400,000 feet of lumber shipped at Genoa Bay, arrived at Port Natal, her destination, on Wednesday, according to cable advices received from South Africa.

This is considered good sailing time, and the indications are that the Puako succeeded in beating the American barquentine Hawaii, Capt. Wikander, which cleared from this port for South Africa about two weeks earlier. No word has yet been received of the Hawaii which left here on May 8 for Laurence-Marques, South Africa. The vessels covered the same route and both have earned reputations for smart sailing.

The Puako is the vessel which came within range of the Esquimalt guns following her arrival here on 30th ult. at Genoa Bay. Capt. Peterson was unaware that Esquimalt was a closed port and taking advantage of a good breeze he sailed his ship right into the mouth of the naval harbor, only to be brought up with a shot across his bows.

Since the Puako was last here she has been chartered to again load at Genoa Bay for Australia, and just as soon as she has completed the discharge of her cargo at Port Natal, will set sail for this port. Some doubt exists as to whether the Puako will return to this coast by way of Australia or Cape Horn.

At dawn the Congress appeared from the shore to be only a ruined hulk with smoke still pouring from all hatches. Two vessels were standing by.

No further light had been shed on the cause of the fire. There was agreement among passengers and officers of the ship that when first discovered it was burning fiercely in the second cabin and steerage, and investigation showed that it was also in No. 3 hold. It was beyond control from the start.

When the dredge Michie and the gas schooner Tillamook reached the Congress they found the liner almost completely shrouded in smoke, and the passengers fighting frantically to enter the lifeboats. Despite the terror of the situation, however, Capt. N. E. Cousins and his crew managed to maintain control and the work of transferring the people aboard to the rescue vessels was carried out in an orderly manner.

Before the last boatload, in which was Capt. Cousins, left the Congress the smoke and heat were almost unbearable. Flames were shooting out of the ventilators and up the passage ways.

Shortly after the last lifeboat got away, half the vessel was on fire. Soon afterward the flames enveloped her from stem to stern, lighting the sky to a crimson hue. With the wind and tide the steamer then began drifting in toward the spit on Coos bay.

The crew of the life-saving station in a power boat reached the Congress shortly after the Michie and the Tillamook arrived, and helped remove the passengers and crew to the two latter vessels.

The Great Northern was the only steamer on the outside to respond to the calls for aid. As she was some distance south and could not reach the scene for some hours, word was later sent by the Michie that she need not come.

The Congress came to a stop off the Coos bay bar at about 4:20 o'clock, and was anchored between the black buoy and the whistle buoy, with her stern pointed toward the beach. The dredge Michie was soon at the scene. Boats were lowered at once and people from the shore saw the people taken aboard the intervening space to the dredge.

Flames Plainly Visible. It was daylight, and yet the flames were plainly visible, breaking from the stern of the craft.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—The fire on the steamer Congress was still burning at 6:45 a. m., according to a message received here by the merchants' exchange from Coos bay. The message said: "Congress station reports a small amount of smoke coming from the Congress forward. Ship piling nicely at anchor. Steamer A. M. Simpson standing by."

The Congress left San Francisco on Wednesday for Seattle with 216 first class passengers and 37 in the steerage. She carried a crew of about 170.

The Congress was built by the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden, New Jersey, at a cost of $1,250,000. She was launched May 17, 1912, and was placed on the Seattle-San Francisco service in October of the same year.

CONGRESS DESTROYED; ALL ABOARD SAVED

Palatial Pacific Coast Liner Now Lies Ruined Hulk Off Oregon Coast

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 15.—With every passenger and sailor from the steamship Congress accounted for and with the vessel herself still burning at anchor two miles off this harbor, chief interest in the disaster by which the vessel was destroyed, centred early today in the prospective arrival of a special train en route from Seattle, bringing Capt. John F. Blain, assistant manager of the company, to make arrangements for taking the passengers by rail to their destinations and to inquire into the cause and circumstances of the vessel's burning.

The train left Seattle early last night, according to advices received here, and should make Marshfield well before noon.

All of the people of the Congress passed a comfortable night here, or at North Bend. Residents of both towns did everything within their power to aid them, and officers of the burned steamer were constantly busy to the same end. The passengers were loud in praise of the steamer's officers and people here.

At dawn the Congress appeared from the shore to be only a ruined hulk with smoke still pouring from all hatches. Two vessels were standing by.

No further light had been shed on the cause of the fire. There was agreement among passengers and officers of the ship that when first discovered it was burning fiercely in the second cabin and steerage, and investigation showed that it was also in No. 3 hold. It was beyond control from the start.

When the dredge Michie and the gas schooner Tillamook reached the Congress they found the liner almost completely shrouded in smoke, and the passengers fighting frantically to enter the lifeboats. Despite the terror of the situation, however, Capt. N. E. Cousins and his crew managed to maintain control and the work of transferring the people aboard to the rescue vessels was carried out in an orderly manner.

Before the last boatload, in which was Capt. Cousins, left the Congress the smoke and heat were almost unbearable. Flames were shooting out of the ventilators and up the passage ways.

Shortly after the last lifeboat got away, half the vessel was on fire. Soon afterward the flames enveloped her from stem to stern, lighting the sky to a crimson hue. With the wind and tide the steamer then began drifting in toward the spit on Coos bay.

The crew of the life-saving station in a power boat reached the Congress shortly after the Michie and the Tillamook arrived, and helped remove the passengers and crew to the two latter vessels.

The Great Northern was the only steamer on the outside to respond to the calls for aid. As she was some distance south and could not reach the scene for some hours, word was later sent by the Michie that she need not come.

The Congress came to a stop off the Coos bay bar at about 4:20 o'clock, and was anchored between the black buoy and the whistle buoy, with her stern pointed toward the beach. The dredge Michie was soon at the scene. Boats were lowered at once and people from the shore saw the people taken aboard the intervening space to the dredge.

Flames Plainly Visible. It was daylight, and yet the flames were plainly visible, breaking from the stern of the craft.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—The fire on the steamer Congress was still burning at 6:45 a. m., according to a message received here by the merchants' exchange from Coos bay. The message said: "Congress station reports a small amount of smoke coming from the Congress forward. Ship piling nicely at anchor. Steamer A. M. Simpson standing by."

The Congress left San Francisco on Wednesday for Seattle with 216 first class passengers and 37 in the steerage. She carried a crew of about 170.

BILL CARRIGAN MAY RETIRE FROM GAME

Washington, Sept. 15.—While Manager Carrigan, of the Boston Americans, refused to confirm definitely the report from Boston that he would retire from baseball at the end of this season, he indicated that there was a strong probability he would do so. His team mates said he was tired of the game, and wanted to go into business at Lewiston, Maine, his home town. Carrigan went with the Red Sox in 1906 as catcher and succeeded Jake Stahl as manager three years ago.

"I say," demanded the rough-looking individual, suddenly appearing from a dark lane. "What time is it?" "Four's just about two minutes late," replied the other. "That gentleman you see running away has my watch."

GARRISON MEETS THE FIVE C'S TO-MORROW

Winning Team Will Hold the Virtue Cup for the Ensuing Year

The Five C's and the Garrison will meet to-morrow afternoon at Beacon Hill in the final game of the series to decide the tie in the Victoria and District Cricket Association. These two teams, along with the University Incogs, have lead the league from the beginning of the season and at the conclusion of the schedule the three teams were tied for the league title and the honor of holding the Virtue cup for the ensuing year.

Garrison, defeating the Incogs in the first game last Saturday and thereby eliminating that team. To-morrow afternoon's contest, being the deciding game, will undoubtedly be fought out until the last man is out and with two teams of the class of the Five C's and the Garrison competing a fine exhibition of cricket may be looked forward to. Both teams will have their strongest line-up on hand; a large crowd is expected at Beacon Hill to witness the struggle. The teams have been selected as follows:

Five C's—Messrs. W. A. Tucker, H. S. Radcliffe, F. Bosson, F. Rawnsley, J. J. Bradford, R. H. Barker, J. Nichol, A. B. Len, R. S. May, P. C. Payne, and Rev. J. W. Elyton. Scorer, F. Wright.

Garrison—Lieut. Robertson, Q.-M. Sgt. Askey, Major Humberly, R. H. Pooley, R. B. Paton, H. Beales, Sergt. Stevens, Sergt.-Maj. Wyngam, Sergt. Wells, Sergt. Montgomery, Pte. Weeks, official umpires—A. B. Laurence and E. Locke.

LEFT HOOK IS NO TERROR TO WELSH

In Fifty Rounds of Fighting White Has Failed to Land Single Effective Blow

Although it is claimed on the part of White's followers that Welsh was the recipient of favoritism on the part of Referee Roche, still it is pointed out by those who have studied the matter that Charlie White has now faced Welsh for fifty rounds—one twenty and three tens—and that the supposed knocker-out has never put a glove on Welsh with disabling effect. Therefore, White has been depending on points to win his battles with the champion, and that is a feat that better boxers than White have utterly failed to accomplish.

It is the consensus of opinion that White as a probable champion of the lightweight class while Freddie Welsh is in the flesh is a dead bird in the pot. Like many other heavy hitters, White does not box well enough to have a chance with a foxy ringster like Welsh.

White can topple over slow, plodding boys who permit the Chicagoan to set for his left hook, but when it comes to first-class ring generals like Welsh the left hook expert is helpless. White has missed his last chance to bring home the championship bacon, and there is small chance of his getting another bout with the present title holder.

SHOOTING SEASON OPENS

The shooting season for grouse, duck and deer opened to-day and large crowds of hunters took the morning train for up-island points. It is reported that grouse are scarce on account of the severe weather last winter. However, this did not affect the deer, and they are said to be plentiful.

FIVE C'S WIN

The Five C's defeated the Victoria C. C. in a friendly game on the Jubilee Hospital grounds yesterday afternoon by a score of 171 to 110. Both clubs had the assistance of members of other teams. Sparks, of the Incogs, who played for the winners, scored 85 runs.

NEWCASTLE TO PLAY

ST. LOUIS STARS OUTCLASS RIVALS

Sisler and Hornsby Most Versatile Performers in the Majors

St. Louis, besides being the alleged hottest place in the world where they play baseball, can claim one more distinction. Included in the ranks of her two major league baseball clubs are two of the game's most brilliant and versatile performers.

With George Sisler outclassing all rivals as a utility man in the American League, his fellow citizen, Roger Hornsby, of the Canadian, leads all opposition in the national organization.

Hornsby, who is playing his first year as a big leaguer, has played all four positions in the infield and has done mighty well at it. Of late he has been prancing around first base, but he has done most of his playing at third base and shortstop. He is said to be some shucks as a catcher, too, but so far there has been no need for him to don wind-pad and mask.

Sisler, besides being a star performer at first base, is a great outfielder, and can pitch a bang-up game. His fork-hand style of throwing the ball handicaps him some as an infielder, but a short time ago he went to third when Jimmy Austin was laid up and turned in a perfect fielding day.

Sisler, a college product, never played a minor league game. He is spending his second season in the big show.

Each of these stars is a batting phenom of no mean ability. Hornsby, since the start of the season, has not fallen below the 300 mark, while Sisler is cracking the ball right close to that and probably will go over it before the close of the season.

There isn't a man in either league who can compare with these two marvels as a utility man. Probably Clarence Mitchell of the Reds, or Charley Mullen, of the Yanks, comes nearest.

Mitchell is a star outfielder and can play first base satisfactorily. Likewise, he is a good pitcher.

Mullen is a flashy first sacker and can play the outfield or second base.

Joe Magee, of the Yanks, is an excellent infielder as well as an outfielder.

NO PENNANT AWARD IN NORTHERN LEAGUE

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 15.—With the series for the Northern League pennant between Fargo and Winnipeg declared off Wednesday, no season pennant is awarded, Winnipeg holding the honors for the first half, and Fargo for the second half. Rain halted Wednesday's game, and there was no arrangement for playing postponed or tie games.

Difficulties between Berger, catcher of Winnipeg and Boardman, local pitcher, were smoothed over, criminal charges filed by Boardman against Berger having been called off.

RUGBY IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, Sept. 15.—At the annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Rugby Union held here, it was decided to go ahead with a series of games. Saskatchewan and Regina will have teams and it is also expected that Moose Jaw will have a team.

ENGLISH ATHLETES FALL IN ACTION

All Branches of Sport Suffer Heavily as Result of Western Offensive

The sportsmen's and football players' battalions are taking an active part in the British offensive on the western front, with the result that the war's toll among the leading sporting stars is heavy.

The latter casualty lists contain the names of men prominent in every branch of sport, including several international rugby football players. L. A. N. Sloczek, officially reported missing since August 9, was one of England's best forwards and represented his country in all the international games during the seasons of 1906, 1907 and 1908. Edgar R. Mobbs, the well-known Northampton, East Midlands and English three-quarter back, has been wounded. A most popular sportsman, both at cricket and football, he played for England seven times in the representative games and was a fine leader of the Northampton team.

Albert Cook, the crack Gloucester forward, has lost a leg in the recent fighting. He is one of five brothers who played for Gloucester county. C. E. Humphrey, who was wounded, was in the Cambridge Varsity Rugby fifteen, and played against Oxford in 1902 and 1903. Wales has lost one of the greatest football men of all times in C. M. Pritchard, who has been killed in action. He was captain of the famous Newport club and was chosen to play for Wales fourteen times in the international games.

N. G. Chavasse, wounded, is one of the well-known twin sons of the bishop of Liverpool, who distinguished themselves as athletes while at Oxford. He represented his university against Cambridge in the hundred yards at Queen's Club in 1907, when he ran a dead heat with K. C. McLeod.

L. E. Ridley, of Cambridge University, also has fallen. He was coxswain for the Light Blues against Oxford in the boat races in 1913 and 1914.

A. H. Hales, whose name appears among the killed, rowed in the Oxford eight against Cambridge in 1904 and 1905. Another member of the 1904 crew, T. G. Brocklebank, has died of wound.

RACE STILL TIGHTER IN BOTH THE MAJORS

Three Clubs Are Battling for the Goufalon in Each of the Leagues

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Chicago's White Sox were in the lists to-day as real contenders for the American League pennant, with Brooklyn in the National League up against only two contenders for the flag in that race.

The White Sox moved up to within a half game behind Boston and Detroit, the leaders, with Washington near the tail end of the percentage column as their opponents to-day. Boston on the percentage leads the league, but it has won two games less than Detroit, and one less than the Sox. It has, however, lost two games less than either, and this makes the percentage column read: Boston, 57; Detroit, 57; and Chicago, 56.

In the National League flag race the two clubs which Brooklyn found itself up against at the beginning of to-day's game with Pittsburgh were Philadelphia and Boston. Brooklyn was one and one-half games ahead of the Phillies and Boston two and one-half games behind.

A table showing all the games yet to be played by the three leading teams in the American League gave the following: Boston, 18; Detroit, 14; Chicago, 13.

In the National League Brooklyn had 21 games to play; Philadelphia 21 and Boston 22.

MILITARY TEAMS MAY TRY NEW RUGBY RULES

With no football league races in the East to tie down teams to stereotyped methods of play this season, the wide-awake military clubs which will supply the public with the gridiron sport have the opportunity of a life-time to try out new rules, of which the Canadian game is in need. The elimination of side scrimmages, substituting the snap-back, and allowing interference on the line of scrimmage, are all features that would speed up the game and make it less ragged. The abolition of the three-yard tackling rule and substitution of a free catch would stimulate the great fall pasture considerably, and do away with the incessant wrangling from referees' decision on this point. The Big Four and C. R. F. U. have done a lot of talking about altering the rules, but never got beyond the conversational stage.

WOOL FUND TAG DAY Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E. Collects for Fund to Supply Field Comforts. Up to 3 o'clock this afternoon the Field Comforts and Wool Fund "Tag Day," organized under the auspices of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., brought in about $510. The collectors, drawn to the number of nearly 100 from all the primary chapters, were out on the streets by 7:30 this morning, some of the helpers who had to be on duty at the parliament buildings at 9 o'clock collecting substantial sums besides handing in their boxes at the headquarters, 733 Fort street. Giving was general, but owing to the number of people who are out of the city and the numerous patriotic demands the "givings" were perhaps not so liberal as they have been in times gone by. Two visiting American ladies presented $25 to Mrs. Griffiths, Municipal Chapter regent, and Mrs. Cookson, convenor for the wool fund and field comforts, had $10 from Mrs. Dunsmuir and $5 from Mrs. Audain to "set the ball rolling."

Mrs. Duce's little dog "Peter" was again seen tagging, and added to his already won laurels as a patriotic helper. Rev. A. de B. Owen and the girl helpers of the Red and Blue Cross Flower Guild also assisted appreciably, and the staff of indoor workers was supplemented by Messrs. Neame and Douglas Wright, who gave great assistance by counting the money as the boxes were turned in. Another helper was Mrs. Gardiner, of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I. O. D. E., who ran a refreshment department for the workers and in this way very efficiently supplemented the work. The Municipal Chapter is holding the "Tag Day" in behalf of a fund to purchase wool to make into socks and material to make into shirts to supply the Canadian soldiers throughout the coming winter. The gift will go through Miss Plummer, of the Canadian Field Comforts Commission, who has recently been made a captain for her excellent work in this very necessary department.

MANY DISCOVERIES BY SOUTHERN PARTY Dr. Anderson, Section Leader of Canadian Arctic Expedition, Here VALUABLE COPPER DEPOSITS EXAMINED Discovers Rock Cairn Left by Richardson Relief Party in 1848. In the shady verandah of Geo. Phillips' house at the Esquimaux naval yard, with the noonday sun glistening on the placid waters of the straits, Dr. R. M. Anderson, leader of the southern party of the Canadian Arctic expedition, was able to contrast the hardships of the past three years with his present surroundings as he related to the Times some features of the work done by this important scientific expedition in a little-known portion of the Canadian Arctic frontier. Dr. Anderson, who arrived from the Sound to-day, leaves for the east immediately to report at Ottawa, but before doing so renewed acquaintance with Mr. Phillips, naval stores officer, who had charge of the fitting out of the Karluk when she left here in the summer of 1913 for her expedition. Of the details of the scientific work the public is aware through the official publications and interviews with returning members of the party, but Dr. Anderson took the occasion to allude to some features to which reference has not hitherto been made. "Historically," he observed, "one of the most interesting discoveries of our expedition was a rock cairn erected by Sir John Richardson at Cape Krusenstern during the Hudson's Bay expedition of 1848 with Dr. Rae. There was no document, but probably the record was buried under the frozen ice. "As you know one of the objects of the expedition was to examine the mineral deposits reported by earlier explorers, and in that connection material for a valuable report and specimens have been gathered. A large deposit of copper has been found. It is surprising that so little use has been made by the Eskimos of the metal, but they use it for the arrow heads, being archers as well as using modern guns, and in some other ways. Allusion has been made by former explorers also to coal deposits, and there is no doubt that there are considerable areas of the rock formations being of a paleozoic period in which the coal measures would be expected. In one place we found near Franklin Bay some shale deposits which are smoking, and the heat is sufficient to keep the ground warm, although in the fissures of the earth we could not find any place to ascertain what was the source of ignition. It seemed strange in a land of eternal snows. On my previous expedition I brought down some specimens of the shale, which have been referred to by scientists as bituminous. "You already know, from the Nome message, of the large number of specimens brought down by the expedition, which are now on their way to Ottawa. They do not contain many fossils, for the stratification is not such as to lend itself to such remains of past ages, but the ethnological collection is of particular value. Mr. Jenness has penetrated beyond the range of other investigators, and his collection among the Eskimos of Victoria Land is of special interest. The specimens of accessories used in the rituals of the Shamans, or medicine men, and their curious secret societies, is quite new to science. He also gathered grammophone records of their songs, having the natives, and the aborigines corrected them on the records, till the pronunciation and meaning was completely grasped. He lived among the aborigines while gathering this information, and absorbed the true atmosphere. "Our headquarters at Bernard harbor, selected because of its central location for work east and west, was built of old packing boxes and poles of earth, the snow then freezing the sods and making a small but compact shelter. It will last for some years, and is being taken over this winter by a missionary of the Anglican church, who will work among the Eskimos. We have cached supplies, in case the northern party should come out that way, or some explorer, in the future need relief in the wilderness. That is according to the practice of such expeditions. "What will happen to the Alaska, which was left at Nome?" he was asked by the Times representative. "She is in need of repairs, and as we were unwilling to bring her south, we thought it best to leave the vessel till the government decides what is to be done with her," said Dr. Anderson. "Besides we had no crew, in fact the scientists had to turn amateur seamen to aid the captain and engineer in bringing her down to the Behring Sea." "Dr. Anderson was asked what he thought of the loss of the Karluk, but said he knew nothing more than the public, and indeed when he heard of her last there was no reason to anticipate the disaster which subsequently overtook the ill-fated vessel. "We did not suffer so much from the loss of equipment as might have been expected, as the majority of our necessities had been previously transferred. You may not realize how isolated we were till I mention that we did not hear of the war till November, 1915." "Dr. Anderson expressed his willingness to go back to the Arctic, but hoped that it would not be necessary

OBITUARY RECORD The death occurred this morning at Hamilton road of Peter Neilson, a native of Norway, but who had made his home in the city for the past 33 years. The deceased, who was 48 years of age, leaves besides the widow, one son who is with the 163rd Battalion now in England. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Sands funeral parlors. Interment will be at Ross Bay.

The death occurred at Los Angeles, California, on September 11, of G. Clayton Leonard, of Vancouver, who was well known all along the British Columbia coast. The late Mr. Leonard was known well as the proprietor in the early nineties of the Oyster Bay restaurant, Carrall street, Vancouver. In recent years he was proprietor of a large restaurant in the immediate neighborhood of the general post office, Vancouver, also. On Vancouver Island he was known mostly on account of the numerous hunting visits he had made here. A native of New Brunswick he was about fifty years of age, and came to this country twenty-five years ago. Two daughters survive.

The death occurred yesterday at St. Joseph's hospital of Thomas Brown, of Christchurch, New Zealand. The deceased was accompanied in this country, about two weeks ago by his brother, who brought him here from Christchurch and then returned to New Zealand. No relatives live here. He was in the hospital ever since arriving in the city. The funeral is to take place to-morrow morning from the R. C. funeral parlors, Rev. Gilbert Cook officiating.

The death occurred yesterday at the Royal Jubilee hospital of Flora Macintyre, a native of Cove, Dunbartonshire, Scotland, and a resident of the city for the past three and a half years. The deceased lady, who was 24 years of age, is survived by her parents and two brothers, all living at 40 Michigan street. The funeral is arranged to take place on Saturday, at 3 o'clock, from the Sands funeral chapel, Rev. J. G. Inkster will officiate.

FIVE MEN RETURNING Disabled Soldiers Will Arrive Here on Sunday for Hospital Treatment. Five invalided or disabled soldiers are to arrive back from England on Sunday, and will be cared for at the Military Convalescent Home, Esquimaux, until sufficiently recovered to go to their homes.

The men are Sgt. E. Beath, 72nd Battalion, who came in charge of the party; Lieut. H. N. Atkinson, 7th Battalion; Pte. T. Cannon, 30th Battalion; Pte. A. Harris, 30th Battalion; Sapper J. Kennedy, Pte. J. Anderson, 30th Battalion.

The soldiers arrived in Winnipeg yesterday, being members of a party of 19.

BREWSTER ELECTED ALSO IN ALBERNI Late Returns Show but Five Conservatives Returned. H. C. Brewster has been elected in Alberni over J. G. C. Wood, Bower candidate, and A. W. Neil, independent. Only one poll remains to be heard from, Cape Scott, but it cannot alter the result. A. D. Paterson is elected in Delta, according to latest returns this afternoon. Final returns for the Islands give Jackson 317 and Foster 254. Vancouver Estimates. Vancouver, Sept. 15 - From returns received up to a late hour this afternoon at least five Conservatives have been elected, according to the Province. Similkameen and South Okanagan joined the Conservative column this morning. All the cabinet ministers have been defeated. Cowichan, Kaslo, Nelson, Similkameen and South Okanagan are safely Conservative. Messrs. Bower and Ross may win on the soldiers' vote, the Province thinks. Lucas in Yale stood a chance of winning this morning, but he now is soundly defeated. The soldiers' vote might turn the scale for Mackenzie in Delta, and possibly one other. The Province says that Premier Bower will presumably hold office until the official returns are made, about October 15. The soldiers' political vote will be counted on October 12, but on prohibition they will continue to vote until the end of the year.

TELEGRAMS FLOW IN TO PREMIER-ELECT From All Over Dominion the Liberal Leader is Congratulated on Success. A shoal of telegrams is pouring in on the leader of the Liberal party to-day from all quarters of the Dominion. These include messages from Hon. T. C. Norris, the latest Liberal prime minister, whose government is now giving Manitoba the best administration it has had for years, and the other Liberal premiers of the Canadian provinces, as well as from Liberal members-elect and personal friends scattered over Canada from the west coast of Vancouver Island to the Maritime Provinces. Members-elect who have wired him are Mr. A. Macdonald, Vancouver; Dr. J. H. King, Cranbrook; J. D. Pattullo, Prince Rupert; Mayor Hanes, North Vancouver; Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Revelstoke; J. E. Thompson, Grand Forks; Dr. J. D. MacLean, Greenwood; G. G. McGeer, Richmond; J. W. Weart, South Vancouver; Dr. K. C. Macdonald, North Okanagan; Wm. Sloan, Nanaimo. Hearty congratulations and regrets to stay so long as three years ago. He considered that the southern party has done all that could be reasonably expected of it, and the scientific results anticipated have been accomplished. He pays a tribute to his colleagues, both scientists and seamen, and says that the only death in the party could not have been avoided. Blue was an experienced man in the north, and was regarded as very suitable for work of the character which the expedition had in hand.

TO OUR CONSTITUENTS. To the electors of Victoria city we desire to offer our sincere thanks for the honor done us in our election yesterday. We realize that we are to-day the representatives of every man, woman and child in Victoria, not alone of the men who have voted for us. The responsibility which has been thrown upon us is a serious one. We realized this three years ago when we accepted the nomination of the Liberal party; we realized it all through the campaign, and we are to-day more sensible of it than ever. There are great problems before the new government. The solution of these is in the hands of Mr. Brewster. We will loyally support the new ministry in every effort towards clear and efficient government. Our dominant idea is to work for British Columbia; feeling that in doing this we are best serving the interests of the people of the capital city, whom it will be our pride to serve faithfully and well. The only pledge we have made in the campaign is one which we renege to-day, in the certainty of our election, and that is that we shall support the premier-elect in carrying out the policies for which he stands, so long as they are in the best interests of the province. GEORGE BELL, JOHN HART, HENRY C. HALL.

MR. McCURDY'S THANKS. Electors of Esquimaux: You are to be congratulated upon your vote of yesterday's election which emphasizes the fact that the personal liberty of a British subject must not be interfered with either by threats from the public platform or otherwise, and further, that the laws upon the statute book must be observed. I credit the majority which you have given me to the decided stand you have taken upon these two points. Yesterday the home vote only was announced, we have yet to hear from the soldiers' vote, but I am confident that the soldier, who is abroad fighting for the very principle upon which you have voted at home, shares in your views, and when that vote is counted you will find that your majority will be increased. I wish to thank you for the universal courtesy with which I was received wherever I went during my canvass, and if finally I am declared to be your representative for the next five years, I trust we will have many opportunities of meeting together to discuss measures which you wish me to support in the legislative assembly. Yours faithfully, ARTHUR W. McCURDY.

The Northumberland Fusiliers, whose curious notion that they were not eligible for the V. C. has just been removed by the war office, are one of the oldest British regiments in existence, and have a bewildering wealth of distinctions. Well do they deserve their nickname of the "Fighting Fifth" ("the ever-fighting, never-falling Fifth"), for since their baptism of fire at Mactric, two centuries and a quarter ago, they have been in the thick of it in almost all our wars, and boast no fewer than 18 battle honors. For an amazing feat at Wilhelmstahl, when they took double their own number of the enemy prisoners, the Fifth were granted the very rare honor of a third color, and for another exploit they are privileged to wear roses in their caps on St. George's Day - London Chronicle.

Our Kitchener lads will be interested to hear that those of their Portuguese fellows who care to provide their own food and lodging may live out of barracks. Nevertheless, they cost their country a couple of millions of pounds a year to maintain in peace time, when their strength is 32,000. The normal war establishment is put at 160,000 men; but whether that figure has any relation to the present war is a point upon which the Portuguese minister of war correctly declines to gratify our curiosity when he announces that they are preparing "all" their forces for the fighting line - London Chronicle.

PRICES STILL ROSE AT NEW YORK TO-DAY

This Despite Belief Reaction Will Come Along Any Day

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

New York, Sept. 15.—Speculators, including even some of the bull leaders, have been figuring for several days that a reaction in the stock market is due, even though it is only temporary, but so great and sustained in the buying power that values continued to climb to-day in the leading issues in spite of enormous realizing. The industrials again were favorites, although there was an effort to stimulate some activity in the railroad list towards the close under the leadership of Union Pacific, which made a three-point gain. Gas close was generally higher.

MONTREAL STOCKS

(By F. A. Borden & Co.)

Montreal, Sept. 15.—The volume of business on the local market to-day was below yesterday's total and the strength was confined principally to the steel group. Steel of Canada was in good demand around 44 and closed at 44, while Dominion Iron gained 1. There was no special feature in the balance of the market. Ogilvie common and Steamships common lost part of their recent advance on profit-taking and Bridge was a point lower, with only a small block changing hands. C. P. R. sold at 154 near the close and looks good for higher prices as it has not yet sympathized with the advance in the American rails.

TO-DAY'S TRADING ON THE WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—Wheat closed 1/4 cent higher for Oct., 1/4 up for Dec., and 1 cent lower for May; oats, 1/4 better for Oct. and 1/4 up for Dec.; barley unchanged, and flax 1/4 up for Oct., 1/4 up for Nov. and 1/4 up for Dec. There was a fight between the bulls and the bears to-day. Ninety-five per cent. of the local crowd were bearish, but had no confidence. The buying by one or two of the bulls to-day completely offset most of the short selling. The strength at Minneapolis was a check to wheat offers and so little was for sale late in the day that the buyers had to bid what up to get it. The news generally favored the bears, with Liverpool down in the morning and British news from the war zones. The Argentine wheat was more or less of a fizzle. There was no export business to-day in the futures. Some little was worked in the cash market, but oats got the best buying.

DECLINE AND RALLY AT CHICAGO TO-DAY

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Although there was a large volume of business in wheat to-day price changes for the major part of the session were of an ordinary character. Opening quotations were fractionally higher and this level was maintaining fairly well for a time, after which selling appeared which ran prices off about two cents. On the decline exporters were good buyers and the market turned up again. Private cables described Liverpool weather as flat and export demand poor. The weather was reported unsettled and harvesting slow. Minneapolis reported that much wheat being brought in there was of such light weight and poor quality that it can be used only for feed. Closing prices were steady at about the opening levels.

AT DAWN

With the British Army on the Somme Front, Sept. 15.—This morning at dawn the British made the most powerful general attack, supported by the heaviest volume of shell fire since that of July 2, when the grand offensive began. The attacking front extends over six miles, from the region of Thiépval to the junction with the French army on the right, or practically the entire line of the British advance of the last few weeks.

NEW CAR

Aside from their increased artillery fire, the British brought into action for the first time to-day a new type of armored motor car, capable, because of its powerful traction, of crossing trenches and shell craters. For some days the army had watched it with interest and curiosity and to-day, as it moved along in support of the infantry in the charges, the men cheered it even in the midst of the shell fire. There has been nothing more wonderful, even in this war, than the spectacle of its advance toward the German lines. It seems to play an important part in the sweep forward, which at the present writing, at one o'clock in the afternoon, has gained the village of Flers, brought the British to the edge of shell craters, and put the bloody shambles of High Wood and Devil's Wood, for which two most determined enemies made the hardest struggle in the history of the British army, well behind the advancing ranks of khaki. British troops also are close to the village of Courcellette. They have taken the Wunder-Werk redoubt in the Thiépval region, which belonged to the old German first line fortifications. The Germans had aimed to make it impenetrable.

SERBIANS PURSUE BULGARIAN TROOPS

Paris, Sept. 15.—A dispatch received here from Salonica states that the Serbian forces at the west end of the Salonica front, having attacked along a front of nine miles and occupied several important positions, but the Bulgarians to rout, and are pursuing them. The entire Bulgarian right, to the west of Lake Ostrovo, appears to have been crumpled.

LOVERS OF CLEAN, MANLY SPORT THROUGHOUT THE WORLD WILL REGRET THE PASSING OF CAPT. LEALLO ST. GEORGE CHEAPE

That "meadow rose" (Rosenrother), with which the Germans claim they can replace Indian hemp, is really the willow herb, whose gaudy magenta colored flowers are just now the great glory of London's dwindling "wild gardens" in Kingsway and Aldwych. Experiments by our manufacturers with this plant have not yielded good results, though the downy fibres surrounding the seeds are sometimes mixed with cotton and woven into hosiery. But willow herbs serve many varied purposes. The leaves are used to adulterate tea, and form a wholesome vegetable when boiled, while the young shoots or suckers are a substitute for asparagus. From the pith Siberian exiles brew a kind of beer.—London Chronicle.

ENTENTE STILL IS TIGHTENING BLOCKADE

Check Put on Shipments From States to Netherlands Overseas Trust

London, Sept. 15.—The plan of rationing the neutral countries of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, under which no further licenses will be granted for the present to British exporters, has been extended to apply to the United States by the step of refusing to allow The Netherlands Overseas Trust, to accept further American consignments, and by declining to grant letters of assistance for American shipments destined for these countries.

TO-DAY'S BASEBALL

In consequence American shipments for Holland will be stopped absolutely, while the regular transportation companies trading between the United States and Scandinavia will not take cargoes without assurance of their innocent destination by the British authorities. Furthermore, tramp steamships are hardly likely to risk the inevitable landing in the prize court of any cargo they might accept.

Neutral diplomats here believe two reasons induced the British government to take this action. The first is the simplicity of the plan, which enables the government to control supplies at the source. The second is the growing bill with which Great Britain is being pressed by neutral governments for demurrage and other expenses incurred by taking suspected ships into Kikwall and other ports for examination.

Another blockade measure is the recent arrangement under which bureaux were set up in Britain and France for granting licenses for exchange of goods between the two countries.

The American authorities contend that under the British-American commercial treaty in 1815 such prohibitions must be enforced equally against all countries. Consequently any privileges granted to France and not extended to the United States are held to be in violation of that treaty.

"The Scots went through three lines of enemy trenches at a bound," says a French contemporary. "The Huns put it more tersely. "Bounders" they called them.

EXPLORER'S WIFE WELCOMES HUSBAND

Mrs. Rudolph M. Anderson Revisits Victoria With Leader of Southern Party

"I think it is worth it!" One would have to place achievement much higher than self to feel this in regard to a separation under such circumstances as divided Dr. Rudolph Anderson, head of the southern party of the Canadian Arctic exploring expedition, and his wife for the past three years. But Mrs. Anderson answered a Times reporter in the above words this morning in the course of an interview which she granted shortly after her arrival in the city. Nothing but a consciousness of the very important character of the work undertaken and the determination to compensate for such a prolonged absence. But Mrs. Anderson is proud, and justly so, of the men who faced the hardships of such an expedition, and of which her husband shared the highest honors with Stefansson himself.

The explorer and his wife came over last night on the steamer Sol Duc, and are renewing very briefly an acquaintance with Victoria which began three years ago when the Karluk went out on her famous voyage to the Far North. Dr. and Mrs. Anderson have been married a little less than four years, but long before this they had mutual interests. They were both graduates of the University of Iowa. When Dr. Anderson went on the American Museum of Natural History expedition to Labrador with Stefansson, they were engaged, and during the four years that the trackless ice and snow separated them had a foretaste of the difficulties of correspondence which they afterwards experienced during the last three years. Mrs. Anderson last saw her husband in August, 1913, when she bade him good-bye at Nome, Alaska. She returned to live near her relatives in Iowa. Dr. Anderson went off into the No Man's Land, beyond the pale of postman or express messenger. "But we knew about each other all the same," she said smilingly. "I wrote twice every week. I knew the letters wouldn't reach my husband for a long time, but there was very little that he did not hear ultimately." As a matter of fact, all reports to the contrary, Dr. Anderson received the greater part of his mail. Each September she heard from him. It was a long time to wait, but she was prepared for the long delay and occupied the intervening time with study and work which was both profitable and diverting. Her particular pursuit has been along literary lines. With a view to writing children's books to supplement the school readers, she made an exhaustive study of all the available literature in the University of Iowa library on the subject of the Eskimoes and Polar (both Arctic and Antarctic) topics generally. In order to prepare herself for the undertaking the more efficiently, she undertook the giving of lectures to the Sioux City school children on the subject. This was so that she could get the children's viewpoint. The work was interesting. The only original literature for children along these lines that she had been able to find were stories by Mrs. Peary. The lectures were interesting to prepare also, and in addition to this Mrs. Anderson says that she wrote some articles for the Sunday papers, chiefly along educational lines and in connection with school work. "But another occupation which took up not a little of my time was the keeping in touch with all the women associated with the expedition," explained the explorer's wife, who has capacity for energy stamped in every lineament. "There were not many wives—only Mrs. Murray, whose husband has been lost—but there were many mothers and sisters. My correspondence with these was very heavy, and I found my university training in languages particularly useful, as the men recruited for the expedition were French, Norwegian, Danish, English, Scotch—no Germans, thank goodness! I had to write to these mothers and sisters in their own languages." Lecturing, research work, annotating, and writing letters would exhaust the energy of most women. But Mrs. Anderson had to fill the role of nurse as well, having to attend her father during the long illness which preceded his death last summer. In all that pertained to the Karluk expedition she kept closely in touch. Faithfully she read all the official reports, receiving all the Ottawa papers. But there was much published beyond this, and with some amusement she read as well the wild rumors which broke out from time to time and found credence in certain quarters.

"It is a liberal education to be associated with an expedition of this kind," she stated this morning. "I copied the New York Times dispatch and gave it to the reporters. I learned short-hand and typewriting, both to help myself and to help Dr. Anderson when he came back. There was plenty to do to fill in the time. I assure you," adding with emphasis: "The thing I am proudest of, however, is that Dr. Anderson has come back looking well, and has brought back every member of his party well and strong."

An interesting sidelight was given by Mrs. Anderson when she stated that some of the men with the expedition only learned of the great war on November 9, 1915, when they received their first mail. All their spare time last winter was occupied with the reading of the war news contained in the magazines and letters which came with the November mail. Of what transpired in the succeeding months most of the men heard nothing until their arrival within white man's land during the past few weeks. Many came back to civilization to learn of sad bereavements in the family, some having lost parents, brothers, or sisters. With Stefansson's mother, who lives in Saskatchewan, Mrs. Anderson kept closely in touch by letter. Mrs. Murray, whose husband was lost in the expedition, is living in Scotland, and one son is fighting with the allies. This is in keeping with the spirit of his father, for, as Mrs. Anderson says, "Every member of the expedition did well; even the ones who were lost died bravely."

Dr. Anderson has been appointed mammalogist of the Victoria Memorial Museum, Ottawa, and will proceed there almost immediately to take up his work. After the two-days' visit in Victoria (they are leaving to-morrow) Dr. and Mrs. Anderson will return to the United States, making the tour east by way of the Grand Canyon, which neither of them have ever visited. They are both looking forward to their residence in Ottawa, which Kenneth Chipman, a member of the expedition, reached on August 30. Four other members of the party called at Victoria a few days ago and collected their mail, the first for fifteen months before going their homeward ways. Mrs. Anderson reminded her interviewer that George Wilkins had accompanied the party as official photographer and that pictures would be shown in the course of time both of the southern and northern party.

FOR THE BLUE CROSS.

Quite the largest function of the Christmas season will be the fair to be held on November 29 and 30 in the Royal Albert hall, London, in aid of the Blue Cross Fund. In view of the great help which Canada has given to this fund a stall is to be prepared representing Canada, and a special request has been sent from headquarters for contributions from this Dominion. Articles of a suitable nature, such as can be most easily and cheaply expressed will be gratefully accepted, and should be sent as soon as possible either to the Local Branch, Belmont Block, or to 58 Victoria street, London. It is important to remember that the Blue Cross sphere of operations extends over the whole of the allies' battle front.

Mrs. G. W. Johnson, of Coville road, who was removed to the hospital on Wednesday to undergo a serious operation, is progressing favorably toward recovery. Mrs. Johnson is a prominent member of the Methodist Women's Missionary Society, the entire membership of which will wish her a speedy return to good health.

EXCHANGE DROPS TO POINT BELOW PAR

Flow of Money to United States Receives Check

To-day is the first day since the war commenced that there has been a premium on United States money coming into Canada. Up to this time it has been at a slight premium owing to the large flow of money from this country to New York in connection with the manufacture of munitions and for other purposes.

A local financier interviewed in regard to the event, said that during the earlier days of the war many of the contracts for munitions let in Canada were partly settled in the States, with the result that there was a constant flow of money southward. Gradually the Canadian factories have been developed until to-day this outward flow of money has been reduced to a point where there is a glut of money on this side, and exchange to-day dropped to one thirty-second below par. This is an interesting sidelight on the methods of finance adopted throughout the continent.

COMPLICATED CASE

Judge Lammman Reserves Decision in Dispute as to Ownership of Mortgage.

Judge Lammman this morning reserved his decision in an interpleader case in which there is a dispute as to the ownership of a mortgage on the property occupied by the Cowichan Creamery Co., of this city. In his statement to the court H. A. Maclean, K. C., said that the mortgage was originally taken by two Germans of Berlin, David Draverman and Arthur Peiser. After the war, some time the mortgage was transferred to Alvin S. Bailey, who swore that he was acting on behalf of the Seattle Trust Co. Mrs. Edeline Nodok, of this city, claims that the money which was invested belonged to her. Another man named Levi claims to be interested in the property.

The interpleader is brought by the Imperial Trust Co., who are the owners of the property subject to the mortgage and who claim that a suit cannot be brought by the Seattle Trust Co. nor by Bailey, who is acting for them, because the company is not registered to do business in this province. Elliott, Maglean & Shandley appeared on behalf of the Imperial Trust Co., Crease & Crease for the Cowichan Creamery Co., and Jackson & Baker for Bailey.

Senator F. T. Frost, who died at his home at Smith's Falls a few days ago, was a member of the Dominion Senate, to which he was appointed in 1903. Known through his connection with the farm implement manufacturing company of Frost & Wood, of which he was the head, he was born in Smith's Falls and worked the business up from a very small beginning to its present large dimensions. He represented Leeds and Grenville in the House of Commons for four years, and a few years later was appointed to the Senate. In many respects he was a Liberal of the old school. In religion he was a Presbyterian. Montreal Journal of Commerce.

Italy's declaration of war against Germany will come as a rude shock to Prince Von Buelow, the German ambassador. Von Buelow had an exceptionally strong influence in Italy, and when that country declared war on Austria a little over a year ago, Von Buelow was sent post-haste from Berlin to Rome, in order to prevent Italy declaring war on Germany. That he was able to keep Italy from doing so for so long a period speaks volumes for his diplomacy and tact. Von Buelow is married to an Italian lady and has a home in Italy, all of which tend to make him popular with the Italians. Von Buelow was a former German chancellor and was frequently regarded as one of the ablest diplomats that country has produced since the time of Bismarck. Montreal Journal of Commerce.

DOMINIONS ROYAL COMMISSION PARTY

Six Members Are Expected In Victoria-Next Week

Announcement is made of the personnel of the party, comprising portion of the Dominion's Royal Commission, who will be in Victoria next week.

As had been anticipated war conditions will rob the commission's session here of two or three of its most picturesque members, in the person notably of Lord D'Abernon, the chairman, better known to the world as Sir Edgar Vincent, the eminent authority on Turkish and Egyptian finance and former British M. P., Sir Alfred Bateman, the leading trade expert, and Sir Henry Rider Haggard, who is unable to return to Canada at this juncture.

Next to Hon. Sir George E. Foster, M.P., minister of trade and commerce, who will take a leading part in the proceedings here, speaking at a Canadian Club luncheon and at a public meeting, the best known member of the commission at the Victoria sessions will be Sir Jan Willem Stuckert, member representing the Union of South Africa, who is a leading authority on mining on the Rand.

The third titled member who will come to Victoria is Sir Edgar Bowring, representing Newfoundland, whose family is prominent in the official life of the ancient colony. Two very prominent British railway men attending the sessions here will be William Lorrimer, chairman of the North British Locomotive Works at Glasgow, and Joseph Tallow, director of the Midland Great Western railway, of Ireland, and chairman of the General Managers' Conference of the railway of the United Kingdom.

These are five of the members who will come to Victoria, of the total personnel of ten, while it is understood that a sixth member, J. B. Stinchard, will arrive from New Zealand, on the Makura, which is due to berth on Thursday afternoon next.

Lady Langerman and Mrs. Tatlow accompany their husbands here. In addition to the members E. J. Harding, the secretary, and A. H. Bridgman will be here, as well as a baggage master, Mr. Wright.

The headquarters of the party during their stay here will be at the Empress hotel. They will reach Victoria on the morning of Wednesday next, and leave on Friday afternoon.

Arrangements with regard to the details of the commission's plans while in this city have already been published.

UNIT HOLDS SPORTS

Fourteenth Battalion, Lt.-Col. R. P. Clark, O. C., Meets at Front for Field Day.

Particulars of the battalion sports held (at rest billets) recently by the 14th Battalion, of which Lt.-Col. R. P. Clark, who went from Victoria among the first detachment from the 5th Regiment, C. G. A., is commanding officer, are not available owing to a package of manuscript having been lost in the mail. The event took place about the middle of August, in France, and an excellent programme was carried through with precision and expedition, in the presence of an enthusiastic company of visitors.

The corps, divisional and brigade commanders were present, and the officers of the 15th Battalion "came in force," says the Brazier, the official organ of the First Canadian Division, which is printed at the front by the Canadian Scottish.

"Music was provided by the Pipes of the 15th, and the band of the 2nd Brigade. Both were highly appreciated and both contributed materially to the success of the proceedings. The boxing, running, and machine gun competitions were alike good, while No. 2 company's drill reached a very high level. Our thanks are due to Captain Archibald of the Y. M. C. A. for a very fine exhibition of pole jumping and hammer throwing.

"A pleasing feature was the fine sporting spirit shown by all competitors—winners and losers alike—more especially in the boxing competitions. In this connection we must give special mention to a sergeant of the 15th Battalion, who fought a drawn match (exhibition) against a stronger and heavier man, with great pluck. His performance was loudly cheered by the spectators.

"In the evening a concert was held at the Y. M. C. A. before a large gathering of visitors. Nursing sisters from Nos. 3, 19 and 17 Casualty Clearing Stations came in force, to the evident delight of everyone. Miss Hare, of No. 3 C. P. S., very kindly presented the sports prizes. An excellent programme was staged, and a delightful evening was brought to a close with the singing of the National Anthem and enthusiastic cheers for the visitors."

Major-General Currie, C.B., commander of the 1st Canadian Division at the front, went overseas as a colonel in command of a Victoria battalion in the severe fighting at St. Julien over a year ago. Currie and his men made a big name for themselves, and it was only fitting that promotion should have come to him. Recently he has been coming in for some very favorable comments regarding the effective work he is doing at the front. Before going overseas he was engaged in the insurance business in Victoria. HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

PROBLEMS AFFECTING EXTENSION OF SUPPLY

Water Commissioner Points Out New Pipe Line Raises Several Issues

Following the statement in yesterday's Times with regard to the proposed extension of Sooke waterworks service to Happy Valley, Metchoin and William Head, Water Commissioner Rust states to-day on his return from his holidays, during which he has looked into a number of details connected with the supply, that there are many phases of the questions that have to be considered.

Summarized, they are as follows: There is no provision in the present scheme for the necessary surveys, etc., which must be made, and he proposes to take an opinion from the city solicitor on the matter, as to whether proceeds of the unseal portion of the authorized debentures can be used in that way for extensions of the system not within the limits of Victoria.

The system of conveyance of the water would have to be considered, firstly as to whether the city should supply from the concrete flow line by way of the Kangaroo trail, or secondly from the pressure pipe line by way of Luxton and the Happy Valley road. The latter would cost probably $25,000 more, and it would be a matter of estimating whether the additional consumers secured would offset the extra cost. The steel pipe would be better for winter service, as being free from the occasional interruption which occurs to the concrete flow line. Another reason is that the terms for the William Head quarantine station with the federal department of public works must be more specific, and some information as to the probable consumption per day must be filed before the city undertakes a large expenditure as contemplated.

With all these questions before the commissioner, he says it would be impossible at the present time to give the aldermen anything like a positive opinion on the matter, or to advise as to whether the proposed pipe line should be laid.

IMPORTANT FIND

Tooth of Extinct Animal Discovered in Fossil Beds Near Otter Point.

Professor Lamb, vertebrate palaeontologist, of the geological survey department at Ottawa, has forwarded to R. E. Gosnell, the premier's secretary, a memorandum concerning a tooth of an extinct animal picked up some time ago by Miss Egerton, of the department of public works, Victoria, near Otter Point.

The memorandum credits the discovery as being unique. "The tooth is of peculiar interest, as it is the first one of this kind found to our certain knowledge in Canada," says Prof. Lamb. "Last year Dr. Newcombe, of Victoria, B. C., presented to this department a large, perfect, unworked tooth which he obtained from a curio dealer and was supposed to be from Alaska. Miss Egerton's specimen was happily secured in situ, and possibly a further search at the locality may reveal other remains of the species. It appears to be the first right upper molar, Dr. Newcombe's being the second left upper molar. The geological survey has determined rocks at and near Otter Point as of Upper Cretaceous and Dingo-Miocene age. It is probable that the beds from which the specimen comes are of Miocene age, but the genus may have ranged up into the Pliocene. Remains of Demostylus have been found in Japan, California, and Oregon. The genus is closely related to the existing Manatus of Florida and the recently-extinct Rhytina (Stellar's saw-whet) of the North Pacific. The specimen has been broken
