ZOOLOGY

BOTANY

“WILLIS’S PRICE CURRENT OF LITERATURE,”

PUBLISHED REGULARLY ON THE 25th of EACH MONTH,

PRICE THREEPENCE, STAMPED.

THE PUBLISHER begs respectfully to call the attention of the Literary World to the useful Contents of the PRICE CURRENT of Literature, offering to Book Collectors and Librarians—to whom it is almost indispensable—the current price of all classes of Literature, arranged in two divisions. The first comprises a list of all the New Works published during each Month in ENGLAND and on the CONTINENT, with their Prices, Size, Author’s Name, &c.; the second, a Collection of One Thousand Valuable Works, selected from various Libraries, sold by Auction, or otherwise, during each Month, including a Great Variety of Rare and Useful Books generally in fine preservation; thus affording an opportunity of collecting the best Ancient and Modern Literature at the most reasonable prices.

In each Number a space is devoted gratuitously to Subscribers, for the procuring of scarce Works, or lost Volumes, not otherwise attainable.

ADVERTISEMENTS, announcing the Publication of New Books, the Sales of Libraries, Works of Art, &c. by Auction, or otherwise, inserted upon liberal terms.

“The Price Current of Literature” will be forwarded free to all parts of the United Kingdom and the Colonies upon the pre-payment of Three Shillings Annually to the Publisher,

G. WILLIS,

GREAT PIAZZA, COVENT GARDEN, LONDON,

to whom all Communications should be addressed, and will meet with prompt attention.

G. WILLIS’S new series of CATALOGUES OF VALUABLE BOOKS, Ancient and Modern, chiefly Second-hand, at very Reduced Prices, will be inserted regularly in the “PRICE CURRENT.” The Books are all warranted perfect, and mostly in fine preservation.

G. Willis, Great Piazza, Covent Garden, has the following Works on Sale.
