THE LONDON SEASON.

A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CURRENT ATTRACTIONS IN THE ENGLISH CAPITOL.

No Actors Knighted at Celebration of the King's Birthday.

The general feeling among managers is that the present London theatrical season can not be called other than a failure from a financial standpoint. Very few plays have reached the run that is required to stamp them with the hall-mark of success, the number of these being easily counted on the fingers of one hand.

One of the greatest hits of the year was Monsieur Beaucaire, by Lewis Waller, and his present piece, Mrs. Elizabeth's Prisoner, which is based upon an incident of the American Revolutionary War, promises to be a fair competitor in popularity at the Imperial, also the Duke of Kilkrankie has revived the fame for a time waning, of the Criterion. This, of course, refers only to drama. As to musical pieces, The Chinese Honeymoon has just recently closed, after a steady run of over one thousand nights, at the Strand Theatre, while the Earl and the Girl, at the Adelphi, is now in its sixth month. Musical comedy in the West End theatres is not considered eventful without a run of at least six or nine months of a year at the least.

It is reported that some disappointment has been felt in the neighborhood of at least two actor managers' offices on account of their names not appearing in the generous list of bestowed knighthoods in celebration of the King's birthday. Most of the names of the favored are those of tradesmen. The list includes a one railway manager, one metal merchant, a printer, a sheriff and a member of a distillery, the profession of actors being entirely passed over this year.

London is soon to have five new theatres, three at least of which are to be built on the American plan, with no "pit." The new Colosseum is now well on its way to completion, and when erected will be the most magnificent institution of its kind in the world.

Among its many novelties will be three revolving stages, operated by electricity. Four performances will take place daily, consisting of combination vaudeville, circus and water-chute show.

At present the only entertainment of this kind in London is the Hippodrome, which is packed twice every day. The old water carnival piece Siberia, with which it opened four years ago, has been revived.

The American all-round prodigy, Florizel von Reuter, violinist, conductor and composer, made his debut in London, at the Queen's Hall, June 29.

He is twelve years of age, a slightly built, girlish-looking, curly-headed boy, and appeared equally at home in drawing his bow and conducting a supporting orchestra of seventy-five pieces. His talent is unrepressible "genius" being too weak to approach his astounding ability.

The Queen—for whom he played two days previously at Buckingham Palace, at which time he created a great sensation by refusing to remain to tea, as he had left his orchestra at Queen's Hall in the middle of rehearsal to obey the royal command—graced the concert with her presence, and was one of his most hearty applauders. His conducting is faultless, and as the "Daily Mail" says:

"It is conducting, not merely heating time."

A member of the orchestra told me that he filled the performers with the spirit of an old, experienced leader. His composition, the Symphony Royal, is a remarkable achievement.

He is succeeded by another child wonder, Vesey, the Romanian violinist, who is also a finished artiste at the age of eleven years. He is said to be superior to Renter in his mastery of the classics, though not so well up in technique.

He also played at Buckingham Palace for the Queen, who was so struck with the pathos of his playing that she shed tears, and removing a necklace of gems she was wearing placed them around the musician's neck.

Kyrie Bellow is domiciled in the house-boat Mirabelle on the Upper Thames. In a letter to the "Daily Mail" he deplored the habit of managers in paying compliments to authors of rejected manuscripts, and says: "A false sense of politeness induces managers to pay compliments to authors on returning their manuscripts—and as a salve to their feelings—for the rejection of their works."

Such sincere civility is not only wrong, but also cruel. I have made it a rule, from which I never depart, to receive manuscripts for consideration only on the condition that I offer no opinion on their merits or demerits unless I accept them for production."

Mr. Charles W. Clark, the American harpist, is in London for a short time. On July 1, he sang to a select audience of the elite of Mayflower at a concert, fete and dance at Stamford House, organized by the Duchess of Sutherland in aid of the Potters' Cripples' Guild.

Tickets of admission to which were for gentlemen ten dollars and ladies fifteen. He has made favorable reputation in his few visits to London, and will probably be heard of at Covent Garden next year in the parts of Wolfram and Escamillo. His rich baritone voice is of immense quality, which in the more remarkable in view of the fact that his instructions in voice culture all told did not exceed three months. He is a self-made singer such as Patti, Melba and J. de Reske.

W. E. HANSHUE.

In behalf of Fran Cosima Wagner and Siegfried Wagner, Mr. Hawes began an action to restrain the production of Parsifal. He was beaten. He also brought suit against Conried charging him with having libelled him by the statement that Hawes had gone to Bayreuth and there offered to prevent the performance of Parsifal in this country. Mr. Hawes interpreted this as a charge of unprofessional conduct. He did not allege any special damage.

Justice Truax says: "I am of the opinion that the words of which the plaintiff complains do not mean what the plaintiff says they mean and that the whole article is not libellous per se."

CHICAGO ORDINANCE.

MAY BE CHANGED IN FAVOR OF MANAGERS AT MEETING OF COUNCIL, JULY 18.

Present Form Prohibitive.

Members of the Chicago Connell special theatre committee, theatre managers and their representatives and two experts, named by Mayor Harrison to aid the committee, assembled at the council committee room Tuesday afternoon, July 12, to enter upon the work of modifying the theatre ordinance. These gentlemen held another meeting the following day and concessions in response to requests of the theatre managers were recommended. At the meeting of the council, Thursday night, a revised theatre ordinance was presented, but owing to an immense amount of business, of minor importance to be transacted that night, the modifications were ordered printed for consideration at a meeting of the council set for Monday evening, July 18.

Under existing conditions the various managers are each under $25,000 bond to comply with the present ordinance, Oct. 1. It would appear that the ordinance as it now stands is prohibitive and the managers have asked for minor changes.

Although the hotels, restaurants, street car lines, State street stores and other branches of trade, which would be sadly effected by the threatened closing down of the play houses, have not pooled issues with the local managers, as yet, it is generally believed the council will adjust matters to the satisfaction of all concerned, at the Monday night meeting, July 18 and withdraw many of the restrictions that have placed the managers in such a dilemma and caused them so much concern.

STAGE EMPLOYEES MEET.

The International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, held its convention at Milwaukee, Wis., July 11. An important item was in the matter of the quarrel at Louisville, Ky., for several months. The executive board decided that unless the matter was settled immediately the Louisville charter would be revoked and the local organization.

The organization has five strikes on in as many large cities of the country, according to Lee M. Hart, secretary-treasurer of the alliance. They are in Washington, D. C.; New Orleans, Detroit, Birmingham, N. Y., and Atlanta, Ga. About 600 men are affected. Most of the strikes have been caused by demanded increases in wages or improvement in conditions, which employers have refused to grant. The executive board reported its findings in these cases to the general convention, and officers will be sent to the scenes of difficulty to effect a settlement.

TOLSTOI SCORES SHAKESPEARE.

Tolstoi, the Russian writer, is completing an essay against Shakespeare. Tolstoi considers the hero of Avon as an aristocrat whose heroes all belonged to the higher classes, and who invariably ridiculed all artisans who figure in his plays.

FIRING A THEATRE.

A plan is on foot in Germany by which it is hoped that panic as the result of theatre fires will be eliminated. A Vienna architect has suggested that a special theatre be built equipped with all modern devices to make it nearly fireproof, and that fires be started in it during the performance.

At each of these fires the asbestos curtain will be then let down and the audience put through a regular fire drill.

While the Vienna authorities have not yet decided to build the theatre, the Kaiser has taken great interest in the idea, and before the end of the year this city will probably have a theatre where a fire will be part of the regular performance.

To give as many people as possible a chance to learn how to behave in case of a real fire the price of admission will be exceedingly low, or possibly even free, while first-class plays will be produced.

A NEW ATTRACTION.

Harry DeLong, written from Boston, Mass.: Van Gorden and DeLong's New York Attraction, The Fire Brigade, with thirty people, special paper, special fire-proof scenery, mechanical and electrical effects, will open their season Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 5, at Tarrytown, N. Y., and are booked solid for 32 weeks over the best circuits and theatres in New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio. The special features with this attraction include the well-known Vernon-Kennedy Trio, with their clever child artist, Baby Ethel, only five years old, conceded to be the champion child buck and wine dancer. The Flame Sisters, Frances and Gussie, electrical and spectacular specialty artists; The Fire Brigade

Quartette, Meers, Vernon, Osborne, Dorman and Stetson, the great fire scene, using special fire-proof scenery, horses and combination chemical and hose wagon on the stage.

THE ENCORE.

Paris, the center of frivolity, fashion and fervor, seems to have been the birth place of the encore. The history of the encore is curious and forms an interesting topic for research. As to the first encore, it may be said Louis XIV, of France, was responsible. It was January 3, 1680 that this famous and history making sovereign listened to a new musical production by Corneille. By the way, the name of the piece was Bellerophon and it was set to music by Lully. The king was so pleased with certain parts of it that he had them repeated. This simple instance of repetition by royal prerogative was the first encore on record. Even King Louis himself did not have the instance repeated.

The French audiences seemed loath to adopt the custom for themselves, probably, though on account of the fact that the privilege was withheld from them by the sovereign. Because of this royal interference it might be noted that English theatre-goers did demand the encore. It is claimed that the encore was introduced into England during the season of 1700-1710, but those who are authority for this do not specify what play or opera gave rise to its use.

The thing itself, if not its name was known to the English stage even yet, though the question was asked nearly 200 years ago. It will be necessary to return to the Parisian stage, however, to find a record descriptive of an early encore. The date was August 8, 1780—from which it will be noticed that a century had elapsed since King Louis demanded a repetition. The instance is worthy of notice.

Gluck had produced an opera, Echo and Narcissus, which had failed; but he had rewritten the bad parts of it, and on the day mentioned produced it again. It failed a second time; but one or two songs were accepted by the audience with applause. One song in particular, The Hymn to Love, was demanded a second time, and this popular song out of an unpopular opera was the cause of the first encore obtained by the general demand of an audience.

Just here it may be noted that the French do not use "encore" to denote a demand for the repetition of a song or other part of a play; they call, "Bis! Bis!" and obtain an encore.

THE COMING SEASON.

The summer season is now about half over, or at least reached sufficiently near to that zenith which marks the approaching birth of the next theatrical season. The producing manager is now scanning long manuscripts and outlining the plans that will make or mar next season's financial prospects. Stars are seeking vehicles which will outshine all preceding efforts. The actor in every branch of the profession is casting a longing eye toward the manager for a contract, perhaps it is art's sweet sake that is the temptor, or possibly the replenishing of purse which have carried their owners to Europe or allowed recreation in uninhabited America. At least whatever the object may be it is sufficiently safe to assert that next season's productions will be directed towards artistic ends and the season will record more triumphs and more successes than the one just passed.

The majority of last season's mistakes will be eliminated. Perhaps new ones will present themselves, but they will be easier to combat. External conditions will necessitate a salutary policy of caution. Internal conditions are good. Although the dramatic craft will be piloted through the presidential campaign with care, the dawn of the new year will bring to view tokens of a new era where historical triumphs will not be far between.

The great American play may then receive its premiere production. The then American star may now be in embryo. At any rate the season will accelerate and stimulate the profession to renewed efforts and will be productive of no mean results.

VIOLA ALLEN.

Viola Allen is the daughter of C. Leslie Allen, a well-known character actor, who comes from a good, old Boston family, and Sarah Lyon Allen, an English woman of fine descent. Miss Allen was born in Alabama, but when three years old went with her parents to Boston, where her father was for many years a prominent member of the famous Boston Theatre Company. Her education began in Boston, was continued at Wykham Hall, Toronto, Canada. When her parents removed to New York she attended a fashionable boarding school in that city for a few months and made her debut as Esmeralda in the play of that name at the age of fifteen, at the Madison Square Theatre, where Mr. Allen was then playing.

After a few trial performances the youthful aspirant was engaged for the part and traveled with the company six months, her own father being also her father in the play. While enacting her first role, John McCullough, the eminent tragedian, saw her and an engagement in his company soon followed, where she speedily rose to the position of leading lady, playing Virginia, Desdemona, Cordelia, Portia, etc., until ill health compelled Mr. McCullough's final retirement from the stage.

Miss Allen, like her father, was a devoted student of Shakespeare and subsequently played many of the great bard's heroines as well as other classical roles and famous parts in the "old comedies" with Lawrence Barrett, the great Italian Tommaso Salvini, his son Alexander Salvini, and Joseph Jefferson. After one season at the historical Boston Museum, creating and playing a variety of parts, Miss Allen was engaged to create the role of the Princess in the production of Bronson Howard's Aristocracy. She next accepted the position of leading lady at the Empire Theatre, New York, and became a popular favorite in that city, meeting with especial success in the plays of Liberty Hall, Sowing the Wind, The Masquerader, Michael and the Lost Angel, John Adreams, and Under the Red Robe. Six seasons ago, Miss Allen withdrew from the Empire forces and with her own company became a star under the management of Liebler and company, appearing first as Glory Quayle in The Christian, by Hall Caine, in which play she gained almost unprecedented artistic and financial reward. Good fortune has followed her closely since her initial success as a star. Miss Allen's second stellar offering was F. Marion Crawford's in the Palace of the King, followed by Hall Caine's The Eternal City. During the past season Miss Allen achieved a very great personal and artistic success as Viola in Shakespeare's comedy, Twelfth Night. The financial reward of Miss Allen's appearance in Shakespeare has encouraged her to make a production of The Winter's Tale for next year. Miss Allen will double the rôle of Hermione and Perdita.

NELLIE GIBNEY ENGAGED.

Nellie Gibney so well known in repertory in the West is to be leading lady of the Jack Hoadley Show next season. Lafayette McKee will be the leading man. The company embraces twenty people.

CAMBRIDGE, O. COLONIAL LEASED.

Chas. and Geo. Hammond, formerly managers of The Hammond Opera House, write that they intend to make the following improvements on the Colonial: A new asbestos curtain will be placed on the stage, and 2,500 sq. feet of heavy asbestos card board will be placed all over the stage; a new fire escape will be placed on the outside wall of the theatre, and many other improvements will be made for the safety of the public. These improvements when completed will make the Colonial Theatre one of the best and safest theatres in the country. The outlook for business in Cambridge the coming season is good, as the big iron mills, tin mills, glass houses, coal mines, potteries and other big industries, are all getting ready to resume work at once, with several big orders ahead, enough to keep them running full force for some time. A large number of good, first-class attractions have been booked for the coming season, some of the largest operas and musical comedies on the road, and it is the intention of the managers of this theatre to play nothing but the very best attractions.

CONRIED WINS.

Justice Truax, of the Supreme Court, of New York City, has sustained the demurrer entered by Heinrich Conried, manager of the Metropolitan Opera House, to the complaint of Gilbert Ray Hawes, a lawyer, who seeks to recover $100,000 damages for alleged libel arising out of the controversy they had concerning the presentation of Parsifal in this country.

THE NELLOS.

The above photograph represents Mr. and Mrs. Nello, one of the very successful vaudeville teams now upon the road. The Great Nello and his accomplished wife, who does a comedy act that forces applause, are now meeting with continuous success in parks. Mr. Nello has a purely original juggling act and is receiving gift edge notices from all the papers. In the fall they will go as a special feature with a big dramatic company.

Perhaps the most remarkable encores on record were those demanded and had by the late King of Bavaria, Louis II. Long before he was known to be insane, while he was only considered eccentric, he insisted on having plays and operas performed before him as the sole auditor, the curtain rising at midnight. If he liked the play he would order it to be played at once. He paid his actors well, however, for their double labor, and is probably the only audience that ever did so.

NASHVILLE'S NEW THEATRE.

The work on the Bijou Theatre at Nashville, Tenn., is rapidly progressing. It will be completed by September 1.

Its construction, while not fire proof, ought to make it one of the safest theatres in the South. Exits are unusually numerous and large, there is no cellar under the building, the electric wires are thoroughly up-to-date, the furnace will not be in the theatre, but to a small building in the alley, the stage will be partly shut off from the audience by a brick wall and an asbestos curtain will complete the list of protections against fire.

MAY CUT OUT ORCHESTRA.

Most of the members of the orchestras of the theatres controlled by Messrs. Kieran, Rife & Houcke—the Maryland, Holliday Street, Monumental and Bijou—held a meeting at Nachman's Hotel, Baltimore, Md., July 8, to discuss the demands made by the musical union, of which they are members, with reference to an increase in wages for the coming season. After the meeting it was announced that there was nothing new in the situation and that there would be no developments until later, when the answer from the theatrical managers would be read at the regular meeting of the musical union. It was said, however, that the musicians will stand firm for their demands.

In the meantime the managers say that in their reply to the demands of the musicians they state positively that they can not afford to pay an increase in salaries, at least with the present size of the orchestra, and that if the musicians do not recede from their demands then the theatres will be compelled to cut down the number of men employed in the orchestra.

RECIPIENT PLEASED.

The Decatur (Ill.) "Herald" of July 4, contains the following comment: Percy S. Ewing, of Decatur, has brought himself into considerable prominence as a correspondent for dramatic papers. He has been awarded by "The Billboard," one of the big dramatic papers, a prize for his year's work. It is what was called the Brom Emblem and is a maltese cross of pure gold and costly jewels.

The prize was offered by "The Billboard" to the correspondent who did the best work during the year, and Mr. Ewing as the representative of the paper won the prize. It was considered of an honor as he competed against correspondents in larger cities. The second prize, $30 in cash, was won by a Brooklyn correspondent, and the third prize $40, by a San Francisco man. Mr. Ewing, however, although not having the same advantages of the correspondents in the larger cities made his work the best of all the other on the staff of correspondents."

CORRESPONDENCE

NOTICE.—"The Billboard" desires a correspondent in every city and town in the United States which is not here represented.

NEW YORK.

Eastern Bureau of "The Billboard," Room 1104 "China" Building, 110 W. 34th St., New York City. Telephone 4215, 38th.

Unsettled weather conditions continue to upset calculations of outdoor amusement managers. It rains almost every night, and, curiously enough, just about the time people are getting ready to go somewhere. The shows are all good, well advertised and with the average clear, hot weather during the present month and August, big gains in point of attendance will doubtless be shown.

Casino Theatre (Lee Shubert, Mgr.)—Piff, Paff Pout, just as bright and cheerful as ever, continues to attract large audiences. It's a ghost, of a troupe, that stranded in Peoria, "hums" theatrical Broadway.

New York Roof (Klaw and Erlanger, Mgrs.)—Señorita Guerrero is the leading feature in a pantomime version of Carmen. Dances still continue to mystify the audience with his wondrous memory, while Ned Wayburn's Girls are as attractive as ever.

Hammerstein's Paradise Roof (Oscar Hammerstein, Mgr.)—Merlans' Wonderful Dogs are repeating their great hit made at the Victoria a few weeks ago. All of the features previously announced are retained. Business is excellent.

Madison Square Roof (Weber and Bush, Mgrs.)—Paris By Night is running smoothly and bids fair to last until cool weather. The performance shows constant improvement.

The usual Sunday concerts are given.

Proctor's 23rd St. Theatre—Mark Louis de Coucy's player of theatrical life For Lisette, heads the program. Lisette is a little dancer in a vaudeville theatre, and has won the love of her guardian, batatist, and also that of a gymnast. She is forced to decide between the tenderness of the singer and the rough, but hearty affection of the aerial performer. The ballad singer fears that the gymnast possesses the greater attraction through his daring, and volunteers one night to assist the trapeze performer in his specialty. Lisette, watching the wings, perceives that the gymnast has deliberately failed to catch his volunteer partner and the incident centres her love on the ballad singer. Vaudeville specialties are offered by the Simpsons, musical comedians; J. Warren Keane proffers card and coin manipulations, including the deal of six full poker hands, each one being a full house, discarding one hand and replacing it with a straight flush. Rose and Hatch, operatic duettists, while more good music is played on the violin by Lillian Bender, Wallace Viddicombe and Company. In a brilliant farcical sketch, Charles Hargreaves tenor soloist, and Mortimer Bassett, banjoist, together with a dozen other strong acts and the moving pictures, complete the bill.

One Hundred and Twenty-Fifth St. Theatre—Robt. T. Haines and Laura Hope Crewes appear in conjunction with their performance at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. The sketch is particularly amusing in this section, as it depicts the funny side of the flat dweller's life. The dramatic offering is Myles Aroon which served as a vehicle for W. J. Scanlan and later, Andrew Mack. For its third revival it brings to the fore young actor and singer, Donald Brian. He made a fine impression and was admirably supported by the stock company. Among the specialties on the vaudeville program are Dorsch and Russell, who figure prominently with a clever musical comedy act; Van Fossen and McCauley offer a blackface singing and dancing specialty. The usual Sunday concert is given.

CHICAGO.

The weather has been as changeable as a fanciful woman's mood the past week. First warm, then cold, and then hot, with intermittent showers, now and again to add a spice to the variety. Things theatrical are running along in an even manner and business continues fairly good.

The Forbidden Land has entered on the third week, at the Illinois, of what promises to be an extended run.

At the Powers, Blanche Ring continues to increase her popularity in Vivian's Papas. The fiftieth performance of this farce was celebrated in the evening, June 13, and Miss Ring was given a diamond sunburst by the management of the production, on that occasion. Hal McAllister, a nephew of the late Ward McAllister, has succeeded to Leo Dritschel's role of Chester.

Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, one of the oddest of this season's theatrical offerings, is attracting big audiences at the Grand. The engagement has been extended from four weeks to seven and with such a company the run is bound to be a successful one. All the familiar figures of the historic Cabbage Patch are reproduced in a cast of twenty-six, which interprets the piece, among whom are Madge Carr Cook, as the quaint humorous Mrs. Wiggs; Mary Taliferro, cleverly impersonating Lovey May; Helen Lowell, as Ma's Hazy; and W. T. Hodge, of "Sag Harbor" fame, in the role of the mirth provoking Mr. Stubbins.

At the Great Northern, Our New Minister is in the third and last week of its engagement here. Several members of the company, notably Ernest Hastings, Joseph Conyers, Charles Stedman and John Barker, may be credited with having made distinct hits. Business at the Great Northern has been satisfactory since the engagement opened.

Viola Allen in Private Dress.

The Maid and the Mummy continues at the Garrick, the new feature and recent addition to the cast making it a pleasing entertainment. Ed. Garvie is getting some hearty laughs. Richard Carroll is excellent in his imitations, while Margaret McKinley, May Bley, Edgar Norton, Janet Priest, Mrs. Yeaman, Minna Schwartz and L. Wesley are capital in their roles. The Maid and the Mummy will terminate at the Garrick, July 23, and the piece will then be taken to Broadway, at the New York Theatre, opening, July 25. Max and Julie Heinrich made their first appearance in vaudeville, at this house, last week and were given a cordial reception.

If the attendance of the first two weeks at the Coliseum may be taken as a criterion, Thos. Preston Brooke and the members of his band have not suffered any lack of popularity. All the soloists appeared during the past week and were graciously received.

Dandy Dolinga and A Swift Finish, two musical skits, were staged as the features at Sam T. Jack's last week. Frank Finney, James Thompson, Chris Lane, Ed. Morris, Carl Anderson and George Turner provided the humor and in the specialty bill were De Hollis and Vatoria, Kent and Royar, the Wilson Trio, Aumont, and Lena Lacouer. Janeski and King Bartcorn are the burlesques this week.

The Trocadero offers its customary bill of burlesque and last week's offering was a presentable one. Among the variety people were the Purcell Bros., Mardo, Miller and Miller, Conataunting Sisters, Montrose and Butler and John and Moat, the Musical Bell boys. Guy Rawson, Frank Damsel and Suzy Moore furnished the fun in the burlesque.

A vaudeville bill, together with new lawn attractions and concerts by Schoessling's Band, make up the program at Santa Souci Park this week. In the theatre are the Five Juggling Mowatts, Libby and Trayor, Loro and Payne, Clara Ballerini and the Ballerini troupe of performing dogs.

The Alhambra Theatre is being rebuilt at a cost of $40,000 and when completed will be one of the handsomest popular priced playhouses in the United States.

John B. Hogan, manager of the Criterion Theatre, had 56 of his theatrical and railroad friends spend the Fourth with him at his Rosedale farm, on Lake Cora, Mich. And there were big doings. Mr. Hogan is a prince of hosts and he afforded his guests a variety of entertainments. He topped off the day with a display of fireworks that will cause the rural residents around Lake Cora to talk for many a day. Running short of sticks for some festive rockets, he used fence rails and some of the latter crashed through the roofs of several farm houses in their return flight.

Oscar Gould, the popular treasurer of Ferri Bros.' Showa United, and W. S. Freed, manager of advertising car No. 1, of the Forepaugh and Selby Bros.' Circus, will embark on the theatrical sea this coming season, presenting a new melodrama, Netty the Newsgirl.

Captain Bill Johnson, superintendent of the Coliseum, is an old-time aquatic performer and is noted for having been the only one to swim the Whirlpool Rapids, where Capt. Webb lost his life. The latest feat, that of a woman going through the Rapids in a barrel, was accomplished under Capt. Johnson's direction. He is now conducting an agency in a small way and booking high divers and other water performers.

Time was, and not so very long ago, that Chicago managers were compelled to rely on New York for big vaudeville acts. But all that is changed now and the agencies here are daily in receipt of hot wires from the Eastern metropolis begging for big acts. Four or five years ago there was no market here for big-class acts but with the change in times the Windy City has become the radiating center of melodious vaudeville features.

Amusement manager Edward Shayne, of Sans Souci Park, informs me that the receipts at the gate up to Sunday night, July 10, were $15,000 in excess of last season for the corresponding period and at the theatre $450 ahead. This would seem a remarkable record in view of the fact that we have had but little of strictly park weather so far this year. Mr. Shayne is booking the attractions for 22 parks this season.

Miss Auto from Mobile is the title of a comedy being played at the Hyde Park Theatre, Fifty-fifth street and lake avenue, by the Marquette Stock Company under the management of George A. Henderson.

A number of local attractions were represented to the hall and Richard Carle led the orchestra in the rendition of his songs, "Peculiar Julia" and "Poly." The affair was a success.

WARRREN A. PATRICK.

PHILADELPHIA.

The weather keeps fairly cool and the theatres that are open are profiting by it. Notwithstanding the fact that only four theatres open for business does not amount to a turn-around at any of the houses and yet it is remarkably good. The parks are suffering dreadfully from the cool and wet weather and the chances are that they will have a very bad season. In addition to this the war by municipal authorities against Sunday business is being kept up. In the case of Woodside Park while the entire suppression of business by police has been done away with, arrests are being made every week by the authorities and the concessionaires are compelled to pay a weekly fine for running on Sunday. At Chestnut Hill Park, which is out of the city limits and supposed to be safe from attack, the magistrates of another county have taken the matter up. Last Monday all the amusement people were arrested by a constable and quickly fined for keeping open on Sunday. They had hardly paid these fines when they were again summoned by another magistrate. At the second hearing when it was found that they had already been fined for the offense, they were discharged but it is understood that both of the magistrates will hereafter try and catch the people first. Fines are small but rumor has it that imprisonment will be the next punishment and this has made the amusement people tremble. This agitation coming on top of the bad weather and business, has made the lot of the amusement men far from pleasant. At Willow Grove Park, Haskell's Indian Band has been the attraction this week, and for week of July 18 the New York Boys Symphony Orchestra. At Washington Park on the Delaware the Roman Imperial Band is still playing but Liberati's Band is scheduled for early appearance. At Chestnut Hill a local band and small vaudeville company are the attractions and at Woodside a band, a quartette of singers and a small circus company are the attractions.

The Park Theatre is doing a very nice business with its summer season of musical farce and the chances are now that it will not close at all but swing into the fall season without any closed dates. This week the Belle of New York is the attraction and it will be continued next week. The next production will be Jack and the Beanstalk. Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre is still doing a good business with vaudeville. The bills are big and many headliners are announced for each week. At Keith's Eighth Street Theatre the stock company is doing well. The bill this week is The Butterflies and underlined in Who is Brown. At the Lyceum Theatre stock burlesques continue to attract big audiences who are pleased.

BOB WATT.

ST. LOUIS.

Having disposed of the dramatic convention we are now taking up the billposters, and next week comes the Irish Nationalists and Hibernians, 20,000 strong. The attendance at the gardens was a little better last week, but not as it should be yet. The Fair did a record business, $50,000 having attended last week, this is the largest to date. The Pike concessions are kicking vigorously for an open Sunday and a 25 cent gate after 5 p. m. and are strenuous enough in their demands to get it, but at present the opposition is strong from the outside amusement people, who only have Sunday to carry them through the week. The theatres are preparing to open on about Aug. 1, and the great demand for attendance will then be on. The following is principally what is doing.

Odeon Theatre—Kirkby's Spectacle, to indifferent business, is still running. Frederick V. Powers and the Radim dance are the added features.

Standard Theatre—The City Club Burlesques are doing good business with a good show.

Crawford Theatre—Out of the Fold is on for a second week, with satisfactory business. A first-class attraction in all respects.

Delmar Garden—Lontana is still drawing fair business, with awful bad weather.

Forest Park Highlands—The Peepers, Puppias, Corinne, Jim Morton, Rauachelle and others. Business fair.

Sutherland Garden—Mr. and Mrs. Rohrs, Walburn and Mendes, Robinson Sisters, Senior Mayo and others. Business fair.

West End Heights—Furness and Paasmore, Weston, Walters and Weston, Ade Arnoldson, Tony Hyder's monkeys, John West, The Franco-American Society hold their French Fete here this week. Business fair.

Mannion's Park—J. Aldrich Libbey, Katherine

Trayer, Dancina Dawson, Crawford and Manning, Chas. Morris and May Roselle, Miss Nancy Rice and others. Business good.

NOTES.

Mr. Frank E. Filila, of Cape Town, South Africa, known as the Barnum of South Africa, is here as general director of the Boer War exhibition at the World's Fair. His present venture is the most spectacular and realistic outside exhibition ever seen in St. Louis and am sure in saying in America.

Mr. Archie M. Cox, general manager of Mannion's Park Theatre here, resigned July 20, to accept the management of one of the new vaudeville theatres now in course of construction on the Grauman Circuit, on the Pacific coast. Mt. Cox goes direct to San Francisco from St. Louis.

This has been a big week at Hagedorn's on the Pike. The addition to their animal arena has created this stir. A six-week-old baby elephant, a giant tortoise and some giant pythons. It took a dozen men to carry one of these pythons to their glass inclosure. During their voyage across the Atlantic, no food was given them and the several geese fed them here were devoured greedily. The location of their prey in the snake can be determined by looking for the enlargement about half way down the body. The attraction is creating immense enthusiasm.

Mr. Ed. Robinson and the World's Fair advertising committee, leave this week for the Elk's convention in Cincinnati. They expect to bring the entire convention to St. Louis.

Mr. Doc Waddell, left Sunday for Columbus, Ohio, to prepare for another installment to the success of Faust Minstrels. There never has been a visitor to St. Louis who has left more friends behind him than has Doc Waddell.

The billposters owned the Pike last night and a high carnival was in progress all night. Those who missed it will be there tonight. A banquet is on for Thursday night, and its down Where the Wurstburger Flows.

WILL J. FARLEY.

BROOKLYN.

This is the harvest time for the amusement places at the beaches and all of them are reaping their full measure of profit. As usual Saturday and Sunday were clear and the weather was beautiful, so the large crowds went to the beaches. The Manhattan Beach Theatre and Paine's Great Spectacle Decatur and grand fire works are drawing large crowds. The Brighton Beach Music Hall and Morrison's Music Hall offer very attractive bills and are doing big business. Thompson and Dundy's Luna Park gets the bulk of the crowd at Coney Island. Dreamland at Coney Island is more popular than ever. The new bathing beach and bathing houses are patronized by thousands daily. Bostock's Animal Arena is doing very large business in Dreamland.

Manhattan Beach Theatre (E. R. Reynolds, Mgr.)—The attraction this week was Winsome Winnie with Pauline Edwards in the title role. The production and costumes were the same as used in the run at the Casino last winter. The attraction pleased and drew well all the week. Shannons' Military Band continues to give afternoon and Sunday evening concerts. Herman the Great is also as popular as ever at Manhattan Beach. He presented two new illusions this week. The Princess Mohameda and the artistic trunk mystery. Paine's fireworks and grand spectacle Decatur 1884 are given each night except Sunday, at eight o'clock in the evening and are drawing capacity business.

Luna Park (Thompson and Dundy, Owners)—Now that the season is at its height at Luna Park, the enterprising managers are reaping a great harvest to which they are justly entitled. The average daily attendance has been 80,000 paid admissions. All the shows and concessions are doing a tremendous business. No where in the world is such a vast amount of electric power used in lighting as in this magic city by the sea. At night 420,000 electric lights and 70,000 miniature lights make Luna Park as light as day. Every show in the park is the original of its kind, and most of them the offspring of the world's great showmen, Thompson and Dundy. Instead of the old time showman's advice to baffle the public, Thompson and Dundy believe in giving the public full value for their money. More elephants and animals have been added to the Durbar of Delhi, or the Streets of India. This attraction is playing to capacity business at each performance. Fighting the Flames, War is Hell and Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea are also doing large business. The Evening Star, published by W. E. Johnson, which contains all the news of Luna Park and Coney Island, has been a great success. The program for Thompson and Dundy's Midair Circus, Fred McClellan, general director, was as follows: Ring No. 1, Robert Stickney Jr.'s dog and pony, Miss Lorraine De Mott, Moni Vinello, Miss Josie Ashton, Mlle. Alexandre, Kennebec, Duncrow, and Lorenz, the Five Flying Herberts, Mr. Will Hill and Sig. Sparrowsky, Ring No. 2, Nasado, Kittamura's Japanese Trompe, Miss Leon, Zoor, the Two Modas, Matsots and Tanko, the Renowned Nohema Duo and Folk and Treak, Ring No. 3, Mlle. Armour, Kittamura's Japanese Trompe, Mlle. Minrello, the Marsons, McFee and Hill, Little Satcoco, La Gette and the Three Mad-caps.

NOTES.

The Great Decatur Spectacle at Manhattan Beach.—This spectacle is full of interest and is patriotic. It is impossible to imagine anything more realistic than the blowing up of the Philadelphia by Decatur. It recalls the memory of one of the most picturesque and effective episodes of the year 1804, just one hundred years ago. The fire works display at the close of the spectacle are more brilliant and attractive than ever. The management reports business the largest in the history of all the Paine's attractions.

Bostock's Animal Arena, Dreamland (F. C. Bostock, Mgr.) This attraction is one of the most popular at Coney Island, and capacity is the rule. The principal features this week are Wooden, with his mixed animal act, including Godde the man-killing tiger; Mine Morelli and her leopards and jaguars; Bonavita and his lions; Power's performing pachyderms; The sacred tattooed bull, 300 animals and many acts direct from the Paris Hippodrome.

Dreamland, Coney Island—Thousands of people attend Dreamland. The new line of steamers from New York City direct to Dreamland's new iron pier, are doing big business. The new bathing beach, with new, modern bathing houses, is being patronized by thousands. The novelty at Dreamland this week was the first appearance of M. Pupas, of Paris, styled the living mummy, who will throw himself into a trance and be wrapped in four yards of flannel then placed into a glass coffin which will be submerged in water and remain there for 172 hours. Several physicians will be present when the coffin is sealed in full view of the audience. Another new feature this week at Dreamland is the submarine boat Mogeasine and its voyage under water. In the free, open air circus and vaudeville stage many interesting acts are seen. The Midget City and Bostock's are the leading attractions.

At Bergen Beach the Casino vaudeville bill is made up of some clever specialty performers. Concerts are given daily by the Naval Reserve Band and there are many other free shows to attract the crowds. Bergen Beach is drawing large crowds this season.

Salvation Flood (Imperial Amusement Co., Mgr.) This new attraction at Coney Island is one of the leading educational features of this resort. The enterprising managers have advertised this attraction very extensively and they are doing good business.

Steeple Chase Park (Geo. Tilley, Mgr.) Several societies and lodges held their annual outings at this popular resort during the past week. Manager Tilley has added several new attractions.

Morrison's Theatre (P. H. Morrison, Mgr.) This popular theatre is doing good business at Rockaway Beach, two performances are given daily. Matinee at 2:15 p. m. and evening 8:15. A few of the artists appearing this week are as follows: Rose Coglan, Martine Bros., Keogh and Ballard, The Simpsons, and Cartwell and Harris. The Morrison theatre orchestra is very popular and is pleasing with its selections.

BURTINO AND WALTERS.

The above is a sketch of the vaudeville team of Burtino and Walters, which has just returned from a phenomenally successful nine months' tour of the continent and England. Burtino and Walters are duplicating their former success. They open with the Fay Foster Burlesque Company as a special feature, August 1, and will remain with that company the entire season. In 1905 they return to Europe where they are booked at choice houses.

Brighton Beach Music Hall (Wm. T. Grover, Mgr.) An excellent vaudeville bill was given this week, with Edna Wallace Hopper as headliner, and many high-class acts. Business was to capacity all the week.

Johnstown Flood (H. A. Bradwell, Mgr.) Over three million people have seen the reproduction of the Johnstown Flood and have pronounced it the greatest attraction on Coney Island. Large crowds patronize this attraction daily.

Mont Pelee (H. A. Bradwell, Mgr.) This remarkable scenic production of the eruption of Mont Pelee was built by the same management as the Johnstown Flood. The scenic effects are perfect and the production shows the most terrible catastrophe which wiped out the city of St. Pierre. This attraction is drawing capacity business.

Hurling and Seamon's new vaudeville pier, at Arverne-by-the-Sea, is drawing large crowds. High-class vaudeville is given daily.

Henderson's Music Hall (F. B. Henderson, Mgr.) The amusement-seekers, who enjoy a good, high-class vaudeville show, are always found at Henderson's Music Hall at Coney Island; the bill for this week was as follows: Milano Trio, Bison City Quartette, New York Comedy Four, Regueaux Ponlees, Gaston and Stone, Belliclare Bros., Sears and Sarotelle, Luta Bros., M. J. Keefer, Franklyn Wallace, Yvette, Flossie Allen and Minnie Dupree.

Thompson and Dundy, the ever enterprising managers of Luna Park at Coney Island, have started work on their new tunnel under Surf Ave. to the new bathing pavilion on the beach. This tunnel will give Luna Park patrons a chance to reach the bathing beach without leaving Luna Park.

The Midget City at Dreamland, which is under the management of L. J. Rodriguez, is one of the leading features of Coney Island. The Midget City Opera House and Circus are drawing well. The attraction is very novel and interesting.

GEO. H. HAKES

CINCINNATI.

The introductory remarks to a letter from the Queen City this week would be impossible because of the fact that everything has opened with a bombshell display of greatness and there is something astonishing every moment. Matters of national importance are too numerous to place one in precedence of another. The most brilliant, the most thriving and the most industrious city in the world is the Queen City of the West, in her garlands dressed on the banks of the beautiful river. Her satellites are most certainly losing their lustre and their orbs are diminishing as she proudly and pluckily pushes forward. The opening of the Elks' reunion was a thrilling thriller. The best people on earth are being royally entertained by the most hospitable.

Every park in the vicinity of this city is dressed in Elks colors. Record attendance—that is positively the largest ever—is recorded at all the open air amusement resorts. Especially arranged programs, well calculated to draw, are much in evidence.

While the summer season is at its zenith and will remain so for four months the theatrical managers are making all preparations for an early opening and there is much activity in this line.

Chester was one of the first to fall in line. Visiting Elks will find no better entertainment than that afforded at this popular resort. The many concessions are in themselves sufficient for an afternoon or evening attractions. The bill on the pavilion and the big operatic production are delightful examples of the good judgment of Manager Martin. The Mikado is the bill in the opera house.

Coney also will please the vast crowds that are sure to attend this week. Sunday's attendance was greater than ever before. It might also be said that the added attractions and matters of interest will make friends for Coney. Among all those who desire to visit this thriving resort. The trip alone is worth double the price of admission.

The Lagoon has exhibited true Kentucky hospitality this week and has spared nothing to provide extra entertainment for Elks' week. Prof. Record opened in his cycle whirl Sunday. The Lagoon Stock Company closed with the week. Business has been excellent with this company and the members have made many new friends, but owing to the fact that the members of the company desire a short rest before entering upon their fall engagements elsewhere, the company will close. Vaudeville will open Sunday and besides a change the Lagoon's clientele will be given a treat.

Monarch Park, situated in a beautiful vale as ever grazed the fertile soil of the state, has turned itself over to the Elks this week. A good vaudeville bill is on the free pavilion. Dancing is a pleasure at Monarch and a day at the park can not but be profitably spent.

Marco Polo opened Sunday, July 17, to the biggest crowd that ever visited the Zoo. The spectacle is doubly grander than when seen last fall. Every detail was perfectly arranged and the initial performance was as systematic and as smooth as if it had been running for a fortnight. It is to be regretted that the spectacle is only allowed a two weeks engagement. It could prosperously run all season. Enormous crowds will attend the Zoo all week. The Elks will have a special day and a big time is promised. The Zoo is capable of entertaining the whole populace of the Queen City and it is not a matter of doubt that her capacity will be taxed this week.

Heuck's Opera House will open the theatrical season in Cincinnati, Aug. 21, with a big presentation by Right of Sword in which Ralph Stuart will appear in the leading role. The house is being greatly improved and the patrons of this historic palace will hardly recognize the place. Messrs. Heuck and Fenneman have spared no expense in bringing the house up to what it will be when it is reopened.

Elks began to pour into Cincinnati Friday and every train Sunday brought hosts of the good fellows. Fully thirty thousand visitors are expected during the week. Grand Exalted Ruler J. T. Fanning, arrived Friday and was greatly astonished at the active spirit exhibited on all sides. The opening of the Grand Lodge session is set for 10 a. m. Tuesday, at Mason Hall. Prominent people of the state will address the audience.

BALTIMORE.

Wet weather prevailed during the past week and interrupted out-door pleasure considerably. The holiday business at the resorts was unprecedented.

Electric Park (Aug. Fenneman, Mgr.) The experiment of giving free performances did not evoke the generous approbation of the public. So the management has abandoned that plan and is presenting the performance at the usual rates in the big casino. That the former policy is desirable is attested by the large crowds which have attended the performances.

The program embraces the best that the profession affords and the acts are much appreciated by the patrons. July 11 to 13, St. Onge Bros., comic cyclists; Herbert Brooks, the trick trunk man; O'Reilly and Manning, dentists; J. Walter Thompson, trained dogs; Eddie Horan, comic dancer; Harry Brown, comedian, and Rosati's Italian Band.

Hoffman House Casino (Jos. Downey, Mgr.) July 4 to 9, Downey and Thomas; Jasper and Adams, Myrtle Nelson, Goldie De Vere, the Krome Sisters, and The Md. Fourth Regiment Band.

The Holiday Street and Monumental Theatre will open about August 1. Both houses are undergoing extensive improvements, as required by the building inspector. Special attention is given to rewriting the houses. Mr. Kernan's new Auditorium is rapidly nearing completion and there are prospects of opening in September.

There is a noticeable air of activity and bustle about the new theatre which Mr. Charles Blaney is building. It is expected to open about September 1. The house will be much larger and will have a seating capacity of about 2,000. The rear walls have been extended, affording a larger stage. The auditorium will be much larger and more comfortable. The front will be greatly improved, with a more adequate entrance and larger lobby, affording easy ingress and egress.

Saturday, July 23, 1904.

The crop conditions in Texas are better than have been for years. The farmers have their cribs filled with corn and with the best cotton crop ever gathered in the state. The theatrical season ought to be proportionately good.

Charles W. H. Carter, of No. 149 Lincoln Road, Brooklyn, a well known manufacturer of varnishes, oils and dyes used in the manufacture of printing inks, died, July 14, while being driven from Prospect Park to the St. George Hotel.

We have no record of when the encore was introduced into this country, although it is very probable and likely that it came about the same time as the first theatrical performance. This was in the year 1752. It is not necessary to say that the custom took root quickly in this country. The fact would be in keeping with the quick perception and enthusiasm of the American patrons. In America the encore has grown so rapidly that it, at times, assumes the character of a nuisance, much to the discomfort of a moderate conservative. Few managers have dared to try to root it out, though once in a while a half-hearted attempt seems to be made. On the programs of the old Theatre Comique, down at 444 Broadway, New York City, was this legend, perhaps hereditary: "On account of the length of the program only two encores can be allowed." Certainly there was no attempt to enforce the alleged rule, so probably the Comique can not be cited as a theatre where any real attempt was made to suppress the sometimes designated nuisance.

Equally one of the causes for the prevalence of the encore is the fact that an encore granted generally gives rise to another and so on, thus extending a good performance indefinitely. It is said that—in Paris—encores are the result of the actions of paid promoters of applause, but this fails without the true encore—a repetition demanded by an audience because of the ability exhibited by the actor or performer. The encore should result from true applause. True applause should be inspired by exhibited devotion to art.

fever. She had been in ill health for six years.

The Sea Wolf, in which Richard Mansfield will probably star next season, deals with the experiences of a San Francisco newspaper man, who is thrown into the hay at San Francisco and is picked up by the Swedish barque of which Larsen is captain. Larsen is the terror of marines who know him. Enormously powerful and of a revengeful nature, he has the faculty of making life miserable for those who are associated with him. He spends much of his time in reading the classics. He is particularly impressed with Shakespeare, and is a close student of the ancient authors. He finds the newspaper man of a different caliber from those he has been accustomed to associate with, and takes him into his friendship. Occasionally, however, in his fits of deep passion, he quarrels with his friend, for the avowed purpose of inciting the latter to strike him when he intends to kill him. The whole character is such an odd one that it has appealed to Mr. Mansfield as few such types have done. Mr. Mansfield will appear as Wolf Larsen, the skipper of the Swedish barque. Larsen is an odd combination of many qualities. His high intellectuality, coupled with almost absolute beauty, at times makes the transition from one side of his nature to another, a strange mixture.

TENT SHOWS CIRCUS • WILD WEST MUSEUM • MENAGERIE

NOTES FROM RINGLING BROS.' SHOWS.

The most important event of the past week was the glorious Fourth, which the big show celebrated in true patriotic style at Duluth. On Sunday, when we arrived, a heavy rain was falling which did not augur well for fair skies on Monday. However the weather man was good and Monday turned out to be a fine day. The Duluth grounds used this year was the old Driving Park; it's a long haul and the parade which left the grounds at 9:30 did not return until nearly noon. The parade passed pleasantly, prior to its advent fire crackers and noisy explosions had been frequent, but the big pageant overawed the natives and the parade had no trouble along the line of March. The down town sale had been enormous, nearly all the reserved seats were sold before the doors opened and we were prepared for a big house. The grounds were packed with an amusement seeking bunch all anxious to see what new wonders the Ringlings had brought to Duluth. At 2:15 the ticket wagons were closed not to be opened again until evening. On account of the crowded condition of the hippodrome track, hundreds and hundreds gladly occupied the straw provided, while thousands were being turned away outside, the usual procession was omitted. In addition to the regular seats and the usual extras our new set of extension seats was used. As soon as Jerusalem was finished the scenery was removed and allowed a thousand or more "stancies" a place to sit down. The Ringlings have entertained some large crowds in the past but the Duluth 4th of July attendance now holds all records. No hippodrome races were given but the crowd was too happy to notice the omission. The side show enjoyed the banner day of the season and the black top with its war pictures was on account of the crowded tent, compelled to stop the sale of tickets 17 times during the day. At night the turnaway from the afternoon show gave us another big turnout. Taken all in all Duluth not only celebrated the Fourth in a glorious manner but proved its allegiance to the Ringlings most substantially.

Wadena, a small place on Tuesday, July 5, gave a capacity house to the one show allotted he town, Crookston, on Wednesday, July 6, Grand Forks, Thursday, July 7, and Grafton, Friday, July 8, were all big.

Saturday, July 9, again found the world's greatest on Canadian soil at Winnipeg, which was not far behind Duluth from the standpoint of the ticket wagons. Fargo, a splendid Ringling stronghold, was played Monday, July 11, after which a short tour of South Dakota was begun.

Ed. Knupp, Walter L. Main's general agent, endeavored to see the Ringling Show at Duluth. To use his own words the enormous turnaway is best described: "I got as far as the fair ground fence at 2 o'clock and that settled it, it was a good 300 feet to the marquee and not a chance to reach it." Mr. Knupp was luckier at the night show but took the precaution of securing his seat at the down town office.

The body of Frank Wilson, a groom with the Ringling Bros. Show, who was accidentally drowned at Eau Claire, Wis., July 2, was found, July 6, and given a Christian burial at the expense of the Ringling Bros. His relatives live at South Chicago, Ill., but up to the present time have not been located.

When the big show breaks all its past great records any one familiar with the circus business knows that there was "something doing." That was the state of affairs at Winnipeg on Saturday, July 9. The week had already given a record-breaking day at Duluth on the 4th, but Winnipeg was a wonder. The down-town sale had a turnaway all of its own, every reserved seat being sold for both performances long before the entrances were opened. Of course with the advance sale as an indication we were prepared for a splendid attendance, consequently the seating capacity was enlarged to its utmost, the extras and extensions were all in, the scenery of the spectacle was reduced and all possible preparations made to take good care of the Manitoba amusement-seekers. At both shows, on account of the throngs seated on the hippodrome track it was necessary to omit the Jerusalem procession and the races. The hippodrome is dear to the heart of every Canadian, but when the band played "God Save The King" everybody was satisfied with the quantity and quality of amusements provided by the world's greatest. The sideshows and the concert also established new records and taken all in all it was the biggest day's business ever experienced in the history of tented amusements.

A Sunday run brought the big show back to United States soil and an afternoon turnaway and a big night business greeted us at Fargo on Monday. Ortonville, Minn., an afternoon only town turned out splendidly on Tuesday. Of course the South Dakota towns are really Ringling territory, so it is hardly necessary to state that at Aberdeen on Wednesday, Watertown, Thursday, Huron, Friday and Mitchell on Saturday that the returns were big, all of the towns proved better than ever before. Next week the big show will be seen in several of the big towns of the Middle-west, where the name of Ringling is so closely allied with "circus" that it practically means one and the same thing.

The famous Muscle Zouaves joined Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Show at Fargo, N. D. on July 11. The Zouaves will be used as a concert attraction.

H. S. Rowe, one of the proprietors of Norris and Rowe's Shows, visited Ringling Bros. Circus at Aberdeen, Watertown and Huron, S. D. last week.

AN EDITORIAL ADVERTISEMENT.

The St. Paul (Minn.) "Dispatch" printed the following in its editorial column:

"This is an advertisement in the editorial column."

And an advertisement for an animal show, at that.

More, even, it is a free advertisement. The busy press agent will never know it unless he happens to run across it as you do. It did not cost him a penny or a pass; not even the asking.

Now comes the advertisement. Gentry Bros. own a dog and pony show which opens an engagement in St. Paul this evening.

If you can afford it, send your children to see it, or, better yet, take them, for you may possibly enjoy it yourself.

But as for the children—they will be simply enraptured.

There is no other way, probably, in which you can buy more joy for the average boy or girl than by investing twenty-five or fifteen cents, or whatever the tickets cost, in the antics of trained animals.

Tiny ponies, all sorts of dogs and a riot of monkeys alone would tickle any well-regulated and honestly healthy child. You can imagine how much eye opening and gasping there is when all those drollish pets begin to do the most marvelous things—things you would not believe on other testimony than your own eyesight.

Then, too, the performance will be a lesson to the children in the value of discipline, and should teach kindness to animals.

But these last are not the reasons why the "Daily News" has departed from custom and is editorily praising a show.

These lines are written in the interest of the children, and you are urged to give them this treat not because it will do them or the Gentrys good, but just because the little ones will enjoy it."

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

Sple's Dog and Pony Show was greatly damaged by a storm at Pendleton, and Lape, Ind., recently.

Dick Radford sells the inside banners for the John Robinson's Shows and has been successful.

Ralph Peckham, general agent of Ringling Bros. Show, will visit the World's Fair in November.

H. W. Link was in Chicago last week. He has given up circling and will be in advance of Al Martin's Show this season.

It is said that Sandusky, Ohio, has not had a single tent show this season, and a good business awaits the first on the ground.

Mr. J. B. Bollinger, who controls the circus grounds at Hagerstown, Ind., is making arrangements for a larger space for next season.

Sam McFlynn, the old-time circus man, formerly associated with George Hall, Evansville, Wis., is making his home in Chicago this summer.

William T. White, manager of the Taylor trunk factory, is back in Chicago after a pleasant visit with the Ringling Bros. and Wallace Shows.

W. R. Reynolds, the well-known circus man, formerly proprietor of the Reynolds Show, with winter quarters at Rockford, Ill., is now conducting a lucrative business as a florist in his home city.

Mr. Fred Bussey has become manager of the excursion car with the Wallace Show, and Mr. Fred Morgan is now contracting agent with that organization.

Donley Glasscock will open his big show at Krum, Tex., July 24, for a fall tour of the West of Texas. He writes that the country looks very prosperous.

Leon Walton, of Newton, Kan., was left at Coeckton, O., by the Sells and Downs Show on account of a severe attack of rheumatism. His condition is serious.

Flood and Hayes, novelty jumpers, report that they closed with the Floto Circus, Jane 30 at Denver, Col., and will return to St. Louis to play dates and see the Fair.

Nero, the big elephant star of Gentry Bros. Show, got loose in Minneapolis, Minn., and succeeded in giving the inhabitants a good scare before he was captured.

Following the Roster of Barnum and Bailey's advance brigade No. 1: Chas. Hayes, Agent: J. Beechler, Walter Beck, J. McHaffey, B. Coones, Billposters: B. Watkins, Letterer.

Rube Moss (P. T. Barnum's "Rube") is now speller for Cora Beckwith, champion lady swimmer of the world, the leading show with the Robinson Carnival Company. Rube is as funny as ever.

The Rippel Show reports that they are on their ninth week out and have had thirty-two nights of fun. Business is good, and Prof. Wharle and Roley Ryan, both musicians, have been added to the show.

John G. Robinson, manager of the Robinson Show, accompanied the Mystic Shrines of Cincinnati to Atlantic City last week. It was his first summer vacation for several years.

Chas. O'Brien, the famous clown of Barnby, in Atlantic City for the past month, left for Liverpool, Eng., last week on the steamer Teutonic. He will fill a summer engagement in Liverpool and he enjoyed it thoroughly.

A permit was granted Charles Gilpin to demolish the old Winter Circus building, at Broad and Cherry Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., on which will be erected a theatre for Charles B. Dillingham, to cost $200,000.

South Dakota has had its share of shows this season. With the Ringling, Golmar Bros., Campbell Bros., Pan-American Van Amburg and the Barnum and Bailey Show coming dates the territory will be pretty well covered.

Frank E. Walker, (Rocky Mountain Hank), featured with Buckskin Bill's Wild West this season, is now ventriloquist for Sturgis and La Shae's Volcano Show with the Robinson Carnival Company, Oil City, Pa., week of July 12.

Thompson and Dundee, the managers of Luna Park, have placed in the foyer of the Cyclorama building, devoted to A Trip to the Moon a paper mache model of the great hippodrome that they are building at Forty-fourth Street and Sixth Ave., New York City.

It is stated that Mr. James A. Bailey's visit to Coney Island, N. Y., last week will have some effect on circus and trained animal shows.

shows next winter; so far nothing has been given out to the press for publication.

Will C. Sites, formerly Genl. Agent of Lowery Bros.' Circus, now with Lee and Richmonds New Model Show, writes that the show opened to S. R. O. business in Quarryville, Pa., July 9. The following people made big hits: M. N. Richmond, Jack Lee, the Shelds Bros., and Walter Fry. Everything is new and the show is making good.

Nettle Carroll, the petite wire artist, of the Barnum and Bailey Show, has recovered sufficiently from the effects of an operation she recently underwent at St. Mary's Hospital, Chicago, to rejoin the show, but will not be able to take up her duties again this season. Charlie Carroll ran up to Chicago Thursday and accompanied his wife back to the show.

Mrs. Lena Hamilton, wife of John Hamilton, of the Wallace Circus, died at Saranac Lake, N. Y., July 9 from tuberculosis of the throat. She was taken to Buffalo for burial. A husband, daughter and two sons besides a host of friends remain to mourn her loss. Mr. Hamilton will remove his family to Fultonham, Ohio, at which place he will make his future home.

Notes from Snyder and Dowke's Shows: This show has had no falling off of business since the Fourth of July, as is usually the case. At Monee, Ill., a terrible storm struck the show just before the evening performance. All tents were blown down and considerable damage done. Zeilda, the midget, started for a nearby house, and was picked up by the wind and carried across the street. Everything is now in good shape and running smoothly.

T. J. Fanning, formerly owner and manager of the Marietta Circus, has settled down on a farm about two miles and a half from Lake Zurich, Barrington, Ill. His place embraces forty acres and is a sort of summer resort. He has been entertaining some old professional friends from Chicago this summer. When the Marietta Show closed at Joplin, Mo., last fall Mr. Fanning was a sick man, but, thanks to good country air, he has regained his health.

F. B. George, familiarly known as "Fatty George," and his wife, known professionally as "La Belle Neva," write that they are residing during the summer at their home in Allenton, Pa. "Fatty" is the well-known manager of La Belle Neva's Gay Paree Show, and is completing arrangements for another tour of the South with his show, which was so successful last season. He has purchased an entirely new outfit and La Belle Neva will carry with her two little black Shetland ponies, 39 inches high, which are valued at $500.00.

Arthur P. Langar (better known to the circus profession as Artie Adair) has entered vaudeville and is appearing this week, in his sketch, Simple Sam Topkins, at Electric Park, Vincennes, Ind. He was at the Grand Theater, Joliet, Ill., last week and made a hit. Arthur took a flying trip to Chicago last Thursday and spent a few hours with his mother, who makes her residence there. As a clown he has been associated with all of the big shows during the years past, and a clever comique.

The roster of Barnum and Bailey's advertising car No. 1, is as follows: L. W. Murray, Mgr.; J. E. Allen, Geo. Luckas, Boss Billposter; Joe Fitzgerald, Joe Conie, C. J. Robey, Perry, F. LeClair, C. J. Rhodres, H. Cook, H. Douthit, W. M. Coates, L. Taylor, Lithographers; E. B. Hubbard, H. P. Dukehart, J. Osher, Guy Woods, W. R. Jacobs, Programs; Duke Burke, Porter; C. C. Herbert, Chef; Frank Cochran, Walter and Ponty the Mascot, all nubon.

The extra strong billing of the Gentry Bros. during their five weeks' stay in Chicago is worthy of mention, and presents some interesting figures. For their first "lot" they put out 100 stands of paper, 600 two-sheet banners and 50,000 half-sheet heralds. They remained on the first lot one week, and the showing for this engagement was naturally stronger than for those that followed, where they exhibited for shorter periods. Altogether, the Gentry Bros. used over 450,000 half-sheet program folders and 3,000 two-sheet banners, besides their regular line of stuff, during their stay in the Windy City.

C. E. Forrest, agent of M. L. Clark's Show writes: "I have been in Mississippi for a little over 2 months and must confess that business has been remarkably good, especially for this time of year. I have been as far into the wilds in the past month as to get 45 miles from a railroad. To say that we aroused the natives would be putting it moderate. It is surprising to see how many people there are who never saw even an elephant. Our fourteen cage menagerie, elephants and camels made a strong attraction through the section. We go into Tennessee next, for six weeks, then South again."

An instance occurred in Milwaukee, Wis., during the parade of Gentry Bros.' Show at that place, that does not often happen. An old horse was standing near the curb, hitched to an express wagon, with his eyes half shut, lower lip hanging down and doubtless absorbed in thoughts of other days. As the parade approached the horse began to prick up his ears and grew exceedingly nervous. Suddenly as the elephant passed he gave a plunge and it was only by sheer force of several men that he was controlled. Several of the circus men gave attention to the incident and upon inquiry found that the animal was an old circus horse and had seen service for many years in the sawdust arena of the Ringling Brothers' Show.

John G. Robinson, manager of the Robinson Show, accompanied the Mystic Shrines of Cincinnati to Atlantic City last week. It was his first summer vacation for several years.

Chas. O'Brien, the famous clown of Barnby, in Atlantic City for the past month, left for Liverpool, Eng., last week on the steamer Teutonic. He will fill a summer engagement in Liverpool and he enjoyed it thoroughly.

A permit was granted Charles Gilpin to demolish the old Winter Circus building, at Broad and Cherry Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., on which will be erected a theatre for Charles B. Dillingham, to cost $200,000.

BILLPOSTERS DISTRIBUTORS & COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS

CONVENTION.

Associated Billposters and Distributors of the United States and Canada.

The Associated Billposters of the United States and Canada held their fourteenth annual convention at St. Louis, July 12 to 15. The regular annual convention was preceded by a meeting of the Board of Directors on Monday, July 11. This meeting was held at the Insideion, within the fair grounds and, while lively in some particulars, finally decided simply to finish up the routine business of the year and pass on the more important issues of the moment to the convention. The convention proper opened in Assembly Hall of the Administration Building (also within the fair grounds) on Tuesday morning at 10 a. m.

While disappointment was expressed at the attendance in point of members, the register showed the largest number of members that had ever assembled at one time in one city.

The weather was awfully hot and the distractions of the fair kept many from attending at the meetings in Assembly Hall.

The hall was most beautifully decorated and many numbers of admiration testified to the appreciation of the members and delegates.

President Barney Link called the preliminary session to order promptly at 10 a. m. Tuesday. The preliminary session lasted until 12:30 p. m. Committees were appointed and many guests of the association were given opportunity to address the delegates. All speeches were felicitous and in the happiest vein.

The chief interest in topics of discussion prior to the convention centered in the "circus proposition" so called. The country billposters had intimated that they would "demonstrate" against it and they did. They were almost two hundred strong, well organized and ably led by Stuart, of Atlanta, Burton, of Richmond and several other good debaters, among them Edward Stahlbrodt. Their intention to force the issue developed in the afternoon session of Tuesday. The only representatives of the circus present were Mr. Louis E. Cook, of the Barnum and Bailey Shows; Mr. Chas. Ringling, of Ringling Bros' Shows; Mr. W. E. Franklin, of the Wallace Shows; Mr. Ed. Knapp, of the Main Shows and Mr. Hill, of the Gentry Bros' Shows. Ed. Bussey, J. P. Hogan and W. E. Fuller were on hand, but not in their time principally with details pertaining to the poster exhibit.

It must be said to the credit of the showmen, that they did no lobbying or anything approaching it.

The preliminary fencing on the proposition resulted in President Link making it a special order of business for Wednesday at 2 p. m.

The balance of the afternoon session of Tuesday was consumed in the reading of reports and general routine business.

The weather was simply torrid and the greatest difficulty was experienced in holding the members and delegates in attendance, the president even going so far as to order the sergeant-at-arms to lock the doors to keep the members in.

Wednesday morning was given over to the revision of the constitution and by-laws. They were given a thorough overhauling in a general way, but small progress had been made when the noon recess came.

When the convention again re-assembled at 2 p. m., the circus proposition again came up. Stuart, of Atlanta led off with an able speech, which was loudly and enthusiastically applauded. Burton, of Richmond and Edw. A. Stahlbrodt, of Chicago, both spoke against it. R. P. Campbell turned the tide with the brief speech of all.

He simply called on the delegates to be fair to the circus and made an impassioned appeal to them to endorse their Board of Directors. The vote was taken almost immediately thereafter and the resolution was carried unanimously—not one person voting against it. The result was the surprise of the convention. The opposition among the country members had been so rampant and pronounced and they were present in such vast majority that it hardly seemed possible to the onlookers that the action of the directors had been sustained without a single dissenting vote and when it finally dawned on them they received the news with wild applause.

The rest of the afternoon was given over to the revision of the constitution and by-laws as was also the major portion of Tuesday. Although interruptions occurred—one to introduce Mrs. McDonald, of Glasgow, an accredited delegate from the United Billposters of Great Britain, another to give Mr. McGarvey, representative of the concessionaries at the fair a chance to address the meeting (A) and still another to the representative of the Boston Herald, to outline his ideas of a voting contest on the merits of various poster designs he had on exhibition, with which that well-known publication is to be exploited. He had offered a series of prizes for the best, second best and third best and required the members to select the prize winners. The first two prizes went to the Federal Litho. Co. and Mr. Orentt, who was present was highly elated.

Mr. Donnelly, of Boston also interrupted to announce the poster exhibition in Convention Hall and to outline the conditions of the awards of the various prizes.

With these exceptions, however, the entire day was given over to the revision of the by-laws. The debate was lively, Mr. Edw. A. Stahlbrodt and the Southern contingent being especially firm and persistent in their objections.

Every article and in fact every section was fought over and finally they were adopted in the following form viz.,

Order of Business.

1. Roll call of officers and members.
2. Reading minutes of last meeting.
3. Report of committees.
4. Report of officers.
5. Petition for membership.
6. Unfinished business.
7. Election of officers.
8. New business.
9. Good of the Association.
10. Adjournment.

All of the officers were re-elected and the Directorate was increased to twenty-five members.

It was hoped to finish by Thursday night, but at six p. m. so much unfinished business remained to be transacted that President Lenk announced a morning session for Friday.

All the members took advantage of the invitation of the St. Louis Billposting Company to attend a banquet at the Suburban Gardens, Thursday night. The supper and entertainment were simply grand. Everyone was loud in his praise of the hospitality of Col. R. J. Gunning.

Friday morning the delegates were slow in assembling and the meeting was not called to order until 11 a. m., but immediately got down to work and stuck to it until all was finished at 3:30 p. m. A long list of applications for increased rates was first taken up. When the work was about half through Mr. R. Campbell, of Chicago, offered a resolution that hereafter all such applications must bear the endorsement of some officer or the executive committee of the subordinate Association to which the applicant belonged. After a lively tilt, the resolution was adopted. This made necessary the doing over of all work that had been accomplished, but the members went at it with renewed zeal. They were interrupted by a resolution introduced, making Mrs. McDonald an honorary member of the Association, also by Mr. Donnelly, who announced the prize winners in the poster competition, and by Mr. Campbell, who offered a resolution, offering the management of St. Louis Fair a four weeks' showing during August on the boards of all members of the Association free of charge. O. J. Jude and many others spoke in favor of the resolution. The St. Louis Billposting Co. offered to do the clerical work free of charge, and it was finally carried without a dissenting vote.

After finishing up the business of increasing rates, the members rejected two applications for solicitorship and referred a third to the December meeting of the directors. They then adjourned to meet at Montreal, Canada, next July.

NOTES.

On Friday morning Mr. Jas. O'Meara got word of the death of his mother and immediately left for home. Suitable resolutions of sympathy were adopted by the convention.

The ladies and wives of the delegates were entertained daily by the St. Louis Billposting Co.

President Chas. Joseph, of the Alliance, was in attendance.

Ware, of Montreal, made a great fight against great odds to carry the convention to Montreal, and won out against Oimstead, of Niagara Falls.

Al. Bryan was present, but did not attend a single session.

O. J. Gude and R. J. Gunning attended two sessions, but only stayed a few minutes on each occasion.

J. Chas. Green, of Barney and Green, was placed in nomination for Vice-President, but declined the honor.

Ware, of Montreal, got a little scare just before the finish when, with the connivance of President Lenk, they moved to reconsider the resolution to make Montreal the next meeting place and substitute Niagara Falls instead. He was dumbfounded for a moment, but on his feet and fighting the very next instant. He did not see it was all a joke until the laugh came out and then laughed louder than anybody.

There were many ready talkers in the convention, some of the speeches being really great.

Henry Tyner made a big hit, and drew round after round of applause in a speech criticizing the methods of procedure in the Board of Directors.

Sam Pratt, as usual, directed things from the back ground. He did not address the chair to exceed a half-dozen times during the entire four days.

The poster competition was a great success in point of display. The first prize went to a poster by the American Litho. Co., of New York. The second prize to one by the Courier Litho. Co., of Buffalo, and the third to one by the U. S. Litho. Co., of Cincinnati. Convention hall was used to display the specimens placed in competition and it presented a truly great appearance.

St. Louis sustained its reputation as the hottest town in the country. Tuesday and Thursday the weather was so warm that many people did not try to stir off the hotel porches.

The St. Louis Billposting Co. entertained on a most lavish scale and will be long remembered for its hospitality.

The intensely hot weather and the counter attractions of the fair held the meetings down to very slim attendance.

A BOOST FOR HARRY.

The Sheffield (Ala.) "Reaper" of July 9, printed the following in connection with a cut of one of Harry B. Elmore's stands. "To-day we print on the first page a photographic view of H. B. Elmore's billboard on First street near the union station. Mr. Elmore has gained

BILLBOARDS NOT BUSINESS PROPERTY.

In the decision of a case tried before the Probate Court at Columbus, O., July 12, an incidental came up as to whether or not billboards were business property in the meaning of the statutes. The main issue was whether or not a block was occupied half its frontage with "buildings and premises actually devoted to commercial, manufacturing, mercantile and other business purposes, not including saloons."

Evidence showed that the block in dispute consisted of a stable, a greenhouse, an office, a billboard and a doctor's office, a wall paper room and a Mormon Church. The decision hinged on, whether or not the billboard could be considered business property. The Court in this matter held that while it was undoubtedly true that in a sense these premises may be said to be business property, yet the tenure so uncertain, the

STREET FAIRS & EXPOSITIONS

ON THE PIKE AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Among the attractions on the Pike that is attracting universal attention is that known as Palais du Costume. This is the only one of the Pike that appeals directly to the ladies. The majority of the people living in the United States know the history of this attraction from its conception to the present. Mr. Felix, one of the world's famous costumers conceived the idea of having an exhibition of all the dresses worn by women of all nations and times. They have accomplished this in a way that has made it a feature of the World's Fair. It required 50 cars, each 64 feet long to bring the immense amount of material, including architecture and costumes to this city from Paris. Some of the scenes just as they were seen in Paris and London, are illustrations from the Byzantine period, ancient Rome, Egypt, China, Japan, Lapland, the historically famous meeting between Francis I. of France and Henry VIII of England, the eve of the coronation of Josephine and Napoleon, in which is displayed a gown of sable and gold, worth alone $50,000.00. The time of the empire and directory of France, and other pages have been torn from history and illustrated in a manner as true as all collected information can make them. The living as well as fascinating element of the attraction as it will be seen, is produced by a number of young lady models, especially chosen to wear the most artistic costumes. All in all this is one of the most costly as well as most artistic of the Pike, and there is not the slightest doubt but that it is the most splendid exhibition the world has ever known.

WILL J. FARLEY.

THE TEXAS STATE FAIR.

Discussion of plans for the contract to be made between the city of Dallas and the State Fair of Texas for the conduct of the future exhibitions was gone over recently in the Council Chamber at the City Hall, and at the meeting were present members of the new association, the buildings and grounds committee and the public improvements committee of the council. The proposed contract was read. Afterward there was a general discussion of the plans. For the most part the proposals of the association as made to the contract as drawn were acceptable to the committee and to the Mayor, who was present by special request. The first thing that brought discussion was the extent to which the City Council shall have supervisory powers over the expenditures of the association. The original draft stipulated that the fixing of salaries and all regular expenditures should be submitted to the Council. The Mayor thought that the offering of prizes at races should likewise be submitted, or in other words, every expenditure of the association. It was explained that this was to prevent the acquiring of all the stock by a few persons and the placing of the money in large purses to be won by the race-horse-holding stockholders. There was prolonged discussion and the example of the St. Louis Fair Association was brought up.

Finally it was agreed that the program and purse should be submitted to the Council, which should have ten days in which to enter objection by two-thirds vote. Like all matters of dispute that may come up between the city and the association such things will be settled by arbitration.

The treatment of the spring race meeting was carried on as if there is no doubt of the fact that there will be racing at the track, and that by the very best horses in the country. It is planned that there shall be a spring meet as well as the fall exhibition with races, and that the association will have the use and control of the grounds for two months in each year. At least sixty days' notice shall be given of the date of either exhibition.

As to the auditing of the receipts and accounts of the association it was agreed that the City Auditor shall have the privilege of placing an auditor at the gate or to look over the books of the association at any time. These three things were the only anggested changes actually made in the instrument. Afterward the discussion was general.

Whether or not it would be best to provide that the tax of 1-5 of one per cent. to be levied shall be expended by the city on the grounds or on the other hand to decide first whether or not the fair shall have sufficient net gain from an exhibition and that gain be first expended and the supplement as far as may be necessary the fund so arising. The opinions were various.

It was the consensus of opinion apparently that there shall be an entertainment this year. The erection of the large fire-proof auditorium and exhibition hall will be completed by Aug. next year.

WILL POPULARIZE RUNNING RACES.

The greatest bunch of running races ever pulled off in Kansas will be held at the Kansas State Fair at Topeka next Sept. 1st. The big race is the Kansas Derby, one mile, purse, $500, but there will be plenty of other good running events. The fair management has already offered $3,000 in purses for this kind of racing, including the Derby. The rest of the money will be divided into purses for races which will be arranged later, the entries for which will be closed at 8 o'clock on the evening before each race. The distance will be arranged to suit the horses on the ground. If enough good runners show up at the fair this $3,000 already offered will be increased indefinitely at the discretion of the management. There will be three or more running events every day during the fair.

It is the intention of the management to make running races popular in Kansas. Thoroughbred runners have never been raised there to any extent. From their own standpoint the horsemen have done what they thought right. The breeding of harness racers in any section greatly benefits the vicinity. Most of the animals bred from the famous pacing and trotting stallions are used as roadsters. It is the minority that find their way to the track. On the other hand the thoroughbred horse is merely a racing and betting machine. He is good for nothing save racing.

Things are different, however, from the standpoint of the spectators. The running race is admitted by all to be the prettiest sport contest that can be arranged. It is the running event that attracts the crowds to the race meetings and the efforts of the managers of the Kansas State Fair to introduce this form of racing more generally into the Kansas and Missouri Fair Circuit will no doubt prove successful.

The Preble County, (O.) Agricultural Board has perfected plans for holding the county fair during the week of September 12. G. W. Daugherty was elected secretary to succeed Henry H. Farr, deceased, and resolute on the death of the latter were adopted.

A fair is being talked of for Huntington, W. Va., this fall. The race track has been offered gratis for a ten days' fair. A committee has been appointed to interview farmers and others interested.

PEORIA ELKS LOSE CHARTER.

The charter of the Peoria (Ill.) Lodge of Elks has been revoked because of alleged violations of the ruling of the supreme lodge that no lodge of Elks should manage carnivals or street fairs.

When the order was issued the Peoria lodge had advertised its show, and the management was then shifted to a committee composed mainly of members. The fair was given. Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Ferguson, of Rockford, came to Peoria immediately and delivered the mandate from the supreme lodge. The Peoria lodge protested, but the order was enforced and the charter taken away. The case will be appealed.

His relatives were notified.

The next convention will be held at Columbus, O., the second week in July, 1905.

Business with the Parker Amusement Company is really good, all things considered.

W. H. Rice has just put on a Russian-Japanese War show, which is doing a great business.

The McNutts report that they closed as free attraction with Hatch-Adams Carnival last week and will go to St. Louis.

Colonel Legare writes that he is playing a special three weeks' engagement with his spiral train at Rochester, N. Y.

All differences between the Halchinson Amusement Company and its band have been amicably adjusted. The band is still with the company.

The Druids of Indianapolis, Ind., have secured fifteen independent attractions for their carnival July 20 to 30. The space occupied by the carnival is to be enclosed and an admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

Tyler Bros. Carnival Company report top business for the season, at Casey, Ill., week of July 4, opening to 20,000 people on the Fourth of July. The Great Tram Robbery Show had its banner week.

Leon M. and George T. Hewitt report that they closed with the Monumental Carnival Company, at Jeffersonville, Ind., July 7, and joined Wm. H. Swanson's Big Gala Week Amusement Co., at Covington, Ky.

The Gaskill Carnival Company will furnish the attraction for the Eagle's big Midsummer Festival at Jackson, Mich., to be held on Main street, Aug. 18-19. Jackson is a wide-open town, and this will probably be the banner week in Michigan.

Col. Mundy had arranged to feature a public wedding in the lion's den during the street fair at Minneapolis, Minn., but the lady in the cage "backed out"—or rather refused to go in. At any rate the largest crowd of the week was present on the evening for which the ceremony was announced.

resources, will be inaugurated shortly at the California exhibit in the Palace of Agriculture. Much care is being taken to get the most beautiful and interesting views, so as to make the lectures as interesting as possible to the public.

An interesting exhibit at the World's Exposition Grounds is that of the Cliff Dwellers, the descendants of the aboriginal inhabitants of America. They appear in St. Louis as they were found by the world's Fair agents and their customs and ancient mannerisms are interestingly watched by thousands of people daily.

A large oil painting of Vice Admiral Togo, commander in chief of the combined Japanese fleet, has been placed in the Japanese common room of the Japanese-American "Weekly," the Japanese newspaper which will be published each week in the Palace of Liberal Arts—the composing-room furnished by Hattori Hosho, a Japanese publisher of New York, and the patriotism of Mr. Hosho and his native workmen is shown by the prominence which they give this picture.

The original of the oil painting His Master's Voice, painted by R. L. Goodwin, father of the actor, has been placed in the booth of the Victor Talking Machine Company, in the Palace of Liberal Arts. The picture represents a small terrier dog listening to one of the company's talking machines and the expression on the dog's face indicates that the reproduction of the tones of his master's voice is so perfect that the dog believes him to be present and concealed in the machine.

Ocean View, near Newport, Va., was the scene of a destructive fire, July 4, when the pier, known as the Midway, was burned to the ground. The fire originated from the display of fireworks. Mr. H. L. The fight against billboards continues, and at Seattle, Ia., authorities have refused to sanction the erection of boards in the residence portion of that city. W. A. Preston, of Grinnell, Iowa, has a new twin cycle whirly which is startling and daring. This sensational act is performed by a race from one whirly to the other, at an angle of seventy degrees. Nine out of ten say it can not be done, but W. A. Preston claims to deliver the goods. This act will make a strong drawing card for a park, street fair or any outdoor or open-air resort.

A model of the largest floating dry dock

In America, the one at Algiers, near New Orleans, is exhibited by Louisiana in the Palace of Liberal Arts at the World's Fair. The original dock is 525 feet long and has a capacity of 15,000 tons, being large enough to dock any vessel in the United States navy.

The model is constructed to scale one-fourth inch to the foot and is complete in every detail.

John Devine, a wire artist, dropped forty feet and had a narrow escape from being killed at Plymouth Park, Norristown, Ia., recently. He was taken to Charity Hospital, where he will recover. Devine's act was to hold on with his teeth and swing through the air fifty feet above the ground. He lost his hold, however, and fell. No bones were broken and it is expected that he will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

F. W. Platt, the shoe manufacturer, of Winona, Miss., testifies as follows: "I beg to state that for over a year I have not spent one dollar for advertising in local daily or weekly papers, but have made announcements to the public exclusively through the agency of cards, circulars and bills, distributed from house to house. That this means of advertising is thoroughly effective, is proved by the results, which have been entirely satisfactory to me, which is also the highest compliment I can pay the Winona Billposting Company, who have had entire charge of the distribution. I am well pleased to testify that their service is honest and reliable."

Platt, the shoe manufacturer, of Winona, Miss., testifies as follows: "I beg to state that for over a year I have not spent one dollar for advertising in local daily or weekly papers, but have made announcements to the public exclusively through the agency of cards, circulars and bills, distributed from house to house. That this means of advertising is thoroughly effective, is proved by the results, which have been entirely satisfactory to me, which is also the highest compliment I can pay the Winona Billposting Company, who have had entire charge of the distribution. I am well pleased to testify that their service is honest and reliable."

128 Dearborn Street, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE TWO GRANDEST OF ALL.

Black Tent Carnival Shows—now booking dates for Fall and Winter. To Carnival Committees holding independent street fairs and carnivals, and Secretaries of State Fairs, the following two finest equipped shows, with fine fronts, carrying 25 people and traveling in our own special car and booking both together. Show No. 1 THE GORGEOUS $10,000 SPECTACULAR, VOLCANO, MT. PELE and DESTRUCTION OF ST. PIERRE. A realistic creation of the world's greatest horror, with elaborate scenic and the latest electric effects. This spectacular show is not a moving picture volcano. The work is absolutely new to the public and is a duplicate of St. Louis Pike's grandest exhibition. This exhibition is a feature for a State Fair alone, and takes more money than four other shows.

Show No. 2—CAP. AMENT'S GREAT LONDON GHOST SHOW. The only successful production of this marvelous exhibition ever seen in America, featuring Little Joe Alfonso, the Midget comedian in his great comedy burlesque. Every imitator of this exhibition has failed artistically and financially, while Capt. Ament's original production has cleared many thousands in the last two years.

We use plenty of special paper, and believe in printer's ink.

The above two shows refer you to Socy. committee of Macabean Lodge, Lexington, Ky.; Carnival Committee, Maysville, Ky., and Erie, Pa., under the auspices of I. O. O. F. The above two shows booking for street Fairs and Carnivals until Nov. 15. After that, for Theatres. Address STURGIS & AMENT, as per Route, July 20 to 30. Druids Carnival, Indianapolis, Ind., Genl. Delivery.
