Who was northern Kentucky's best and most useful citizen during the year 1921? Kenton Post readers were asked to make suggestions and a committee of northern Kentucky's representative citizens will select this citizen.

The committee consists of Frank Thorpe, president of the Covington Industrial Club; Milton Marx, acting president of the Newport Chamber of Commerce; Charles Wiedemann, president of the Newport Rotary Club; Mrs. John T. Hodge, chairman of the Campbell County Woman's Welfare Association; and Mrs. Charles Firth, president of the Kenton County League of Women Voters and Kenton County Home Protective League.

Scores of names, including judges, business men, retired merchants, working men, bankers and in fact persons in all walks of life, have been suggested by Kenton Post readers.

To the person chosen as "The Best and Most Useful Citizen" The Kentucky Post will present a silver loving cup.

Each suggestion of Kenton Post readers contains data concerning the person named and reasons for the suggestion.

These suggestions will be turned over to the committee along with some additional facts and the choice will be made by them.

SEASON OPENS

Championship Series Opens at N. C. G. Court.

The strong I. A. C. quintet of the Catholic Athletic League will invade the court of the Newport Catholic Gym Wednesday night in an endeavor to chalk up their first victory in this series of championship games.

However, the local boys have been practicing hard for this game and are in tip-top condition, and will give the stars plenty of opportunity to show their road routing spirit.

The gym boys are proud of the following they have attracted this year as it tends to create more spirit on the team and they are ready to extend themselves to the limit to win this game Wednesday night.

In the first game of the evening the strong N. C. G. Jrs. will clash with the heavy Dayton Baraca team. The Dayton boys have played against all of the strongest quintets in Great-Cincinnati this year and the fans can look forward to an interesting game. Both teams are confident of victory in their opening game and arrangements have been made to handle a large crowd of rooters.

TOPICS AGAIN

Second Edition of Green Line's Boost Paper.

The second edition of "Green Line Topics" issued by Green Line was of the press Tuesday and distributed among car patrons.

The pamphlet deals with the Dixie Terminal and the Green Line makes promise "bigger things" to be realized.

It is declared the terminal cost the Green Line $20,000 and will cost an additional $55,000 each year.

The Green Line claims to have speeded up service to such an extent from 15 to 40 minutes on various lines.

The second edition of "Green Line Topics" comes with the promise "There Are Surprises Coming."

WIEDEMANN'S TO PLAY

Schedule of Independent Ball for Applegate Team.

The Wiedemann club will again be in the field during the 1922 season, playing strictly independent ball.

Playing all of its games on the road, Manager Applegate, who has played the organization for a number of years, will again be at the helm, assisted by Charley Davis.

Early road practice will be started at the Covington "Y," the middle of February. In former seasons the Wiedemann club has played all of its games on the road. This season they will do more "traveling" than ever, connections having been made with the Dixie last season which will take the Wiedemann club on the road for at least 65 games.
