THE ORDER FOR MORNING P R A Y E R.

¶ First the Minister shall say.

DIRECT vs (O Lord) and yet in thy Iere.10: judgement, not in thy fury, lest wee should bee consumed, and brought to nothing.

¶ Then shall follow the Exhortation.

DEARLY Beloued Brethren, the Scripture mooueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sinnes and wickednesse, and that wee should not dissemble nor cloake them before the face of Almighty God our heauenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient dient heart, to the end that we may obtaine sondryenesse of the same, by his infinite goodnesse and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God: yet ought we most chiefly so to doe, when we assemble and meet together, to render thankes for the great benefites that we haue received at his handes, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, and to aske those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as bee heere present, to accompany mee with a pure heart and humble vorse, vnto the Throne of the heauenly grace, saying after mee.

¶ The Confession to bee said of the whole Congregation, kneeling.

A Lmighty and most mercifull Father, Wee haue erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe, Wee haue followed too much the deuices and desires of our owne hearts, Wee haue offended against thy holy lawes, Wee haue left vndone those things whiche wee ought to haue done, And we haue done those things whiche we ought not to haue done, And there is no health in vs: But thou, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs miserable offenders, Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faulcs, Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Jesu our Lord; And

for these dangerous times.

And grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution to bee pronounced by the Priest alone.

A Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that hee may turne from his wickednesse and live, and hath giuen power and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes: hee pardoneth and absolueth all them which truely repented, and vnsafelydly beleue his holy Gospel. Wherefore wee beseech him to grant vs true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we doe at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter may bee pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall ioy through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ The Priest shall begin, and say.

O ur Father which art in heauen. Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Give vs this day our daily bread. And forgiue vs our trespasses, as we forgiue them that trespass against vs. And leade vs not into temptation:

but

but deliver vs from euill : for thine is the kingdome , the power and the glory, for euer and euer, Amen.

Priest.

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest.

O God make speed to saue vs.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Priest.

Glory be to the father, and to the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and euer shall be, world without end, Amen.

Praise yee the Lord.

Psal. 18.

Will loue thee, O Lord, my strength : the Lord is my stonie rocke and my defence, my Sauour, my God and my might in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horne also of my saluation, and my refuge.

2. In my trouble I will call vpon the Lord, and complaine vnto my God : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3. So

for these dangerous times.

So shall hee heare my voyce out of his holy 3 Temple : and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter euen into his eares.

Heare my prayer, O Lord : and let my crying come 4
vnto thee.

Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my 5
trouble: incline thine eare vnto me when I call,
oh heare me, and that right soone.

The enemie cryeth so , and the vngodly com- 6
meth on so fast : for they are minded to doe mee Psal.55.
some mischiefe , so maliciously are they set against mee.

Thou art my King, O God : send helpe vnto 7
Jacob.

Through thee will wee ouerthrow our enemies : 8
and in thy Name will wee tread them vnder that rise vp against vs.

For I will not trust in my bow : it is not my 9
sword that shall helpe me.

But it is thou that sauest vs from our ene- 10
mies : and puttest them to confusion that hate vs.

There is no King that can bee saued by the 11
multitude of an hoste : neither is any mighty Psal.33.
man delivered by much strength.

Therefore in thee , O Lord , haue I put my trust : 12
let me never bee put to confusion , deliuere mee in thy Psal.31.
righteousnesse.

Bow downe thine eare to me , and sauue mee : 13
make haste to deliuere mee.

My time is in thy hand , deliuere mee from the 14
hand

hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.

15 Psel.35. Pleadeth thou my cause, O Lord, with them that striue with mee: and fight thou against them that fight against me.

16 Lay hand vpon the shield and buckler: and stand vp to helpe mee.

17 Bring foorth the speare, and stop the way agaist them that persecute mee: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

18 Let them bee confounded, and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them bee turned backe, and brought to confusion that imagine mischiefe for mee.

19 Let them be as the dust before the wind: and the Angel of the Lord scattering them.

20 Let their way bee darke and slippery: and the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

21 But let the eye of the Lord be vpon them that feare him: and put their trust in his mercie.

22 To deliuere their soules from death: and to feed them in the time of dearthe.

23 Psel.55. O Lord, take heed vnto mee and heare mee: how I mourne in my prayer, and am vexed:

For I will confess my wickednesse: and bee sorry for my sinne.

24 Psel.38. I said, I will confess my sins vnto the Lord: and so thou forgauest the wickednes of my sinne.

25 Psel.32. For this shall euery one that is godly make his prayer vnto thee in a time when thou mayest bee found: but in the great water floods they shall not come nigh him.

The

for these dangerous times.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a ²⁷ broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou Psal. 51.
not despise.

O bee fauourable and gracious vnto Sion: build ²⁸
thou the walles of Ierusalem.

And now, Lord, what is my hope? truly my ²⁹ hope is euuen in thee. Psal. 39.

Let thy mercifull kindnesse be vpon vs: like as wee ³⁰ doe put our trust in thec. Psal. 33.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne, and
to the holy Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now and euer
shall be, woxld without end, Amen.

Domine quid. Psal. 3.

¶ Ord how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there bee that say of my soule; there is no help
for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I did call vpon the Lord with my boyce:
and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord susteined me.

6 I will not be afriad for ten thousands of people: that haue set themselues against mee round about.

7 Up

A forme of Prayer

7 Up Lord, and helpe mee, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies vpon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto the Lord: and thy blessing is vpon the people.

Glory bee to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shall be: world without end, Amen.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. 27.

He Lord is my light, and my saluation, whom then shall I feare: the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked(euen mine enemies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.

Though an hoste of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

One thing haue I desired of the Lord,
which I will require: euenthat I may dwell
in the house of the Lord all the dayes of my life, to behold the faire beauty of the Lord, and to visit his Temple.

For in the time of trouble, he shall hide me in his Tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me vp on a roche of stonye.

And

for these dangerous times.

6 And now shall he lift vp mine head : aboue
mine enemies round about me.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladnesse : I will sing and speake praises unto the Lord.

8 Hearken vnto my boyce, O Lord, when I cry vnto thee : haue mercy vpon mee, and heare me.

9 My heart hath talked of thee, seeke ye my face : thy face, Lord, will I seeke.

10 O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy seruant awaie in displeasure.

11 Thou hast been my succour : leaue me not,
neither forsake me, O God of my saluation.

12 When my father and my mother forsake me : the Lord taketh me vp.

13 Teach mee thy way , O Lord : and leade
me in the right way, because of mine enimies.

14 Deliver me not ouer into the will of mine
aduersaries : for there are false witnessses risen vp against me, and such as speake wrong.

15 I should vtterly haue fainted : but that I believe verily to see the goodnesse of the Lord in the land of the living.

16 O tarry thou the Lords pleasure: be strong,
and hee shall comfort thine heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Glory be to the father, and to the Sonne;
and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer
shall be : world without end, Amen.

A forme of Prayer

Dcus noster refugium. Psal. 46.

1 God is our hope and strength: a ver^y present helpe in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not feare though the earth be mooued: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the Sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountaines shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The riuers of the flood thereof shall make glad the Citie of God: the holy place of the Tabernacle of the most Highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be remooued: God shall helpe her, and that right early.

6 The Heathen make much adoe, and the Kingdomes are mooued: but God hath shewed his vorse, and the earth shall raelt away.

7 The Lord of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8 O come hither, and behold the workes of the Lord: what destruction hee hath brought upon the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world: hee breaketh the bow, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

of Jacob is our refuge.

Glory be to the Father , and to the Sonne :

Deus quis similis ? Psal. 83.

 Old not thy tongue , O God , keepe not still silence : refraine not thy selfe , O God .

2 For loe , thine enemies make a murmuring : and they that hate thee , haue lift vp their head .

3 They haue imagined craftily against thy people : and taken counsell against thy secret ones .

4 They haue said , Come , and let vs rooke them out , that they be no more a people : and that the name of Israel may be no more in re= membrance .

5 For they haue cast their heads together with one consent : and are confederate against thee .

6 The Tabernacles of the Edomites and the Ismaelites : the Moabites , and Hagarenes .

7 Gebal , and Ammon , and Amalech : the Philistines , with them that dwell at Tyre .

8 Assur also is ioyned unto them : and haue
holpen the children of Lot .

9 But

A forme of Prayer

9 But doe thou to them as vnto the Madianites: vnto Sisera, and vnto Jabin, at the brooke of Kison.

10 Which perished at Endor: and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them and their Princes like Oreb
and Zeb: yea, make all their Princes like as Ze-ba and Zalmuna.

12 Which say, Let vs take to our selues: the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like vnto a wheele:
and as the bubble before the wnde.

14 Like as the fire that burneth vp the wood:
and as the flame that consumeth the Moun-taines.

15 Persecute them euен so with thy tempest:
and make them afraid with thy storme.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seeke thy Name.

17 Let them be confounded and vexed euer
more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.

18 And they shall know that thou (whose Name is Iehouah:) art onely the most highest over all the earth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne:
and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer
shall be: world without end, Amen.

Eternall God and most gracious Father, wee confess that by our manifold transgressions, wee haue deserued whatsoeuer thy Law hath threatned against sinners. Our contempt of thy diuine Seruice is great, and we heare thy word, but obey it not. Our charitie to our neighbour is cold, and our devotion to thee is frozen. Religion is with vs, as in too many places besides, made but a pretence for other ends then thy Seruice; and there hath beeene little or no care among vs to keepe Truth and Peace together, for the preserving of our Church and State. Amen.

Dooke downe, O gracious King of glory, looke downe from the habitation of thy holinesse, and behold vs with the eye of pitie, that lift vp our hearts and hands unto thee for mercie. At the footstoole of thy Throne of grace, we prostrate our soules and bodies, with fasting, with teares, and supplications, beseeching thee, for the death and passion of our blessed Saviour, to accept this our vnsained submission. To thy glory, O Lord, and to our owne shame, we confesse, that thy fauours and blessings haue made this Kingdome to be admired by our friends, and envied by our enemies: but the sinnes thereof haue called for such punishments vpon vs, as may make vs to be pittied by all. Dearly beloued brethren, the Scripture moueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sinnes and wickednesse, and that wee should not dissemble nor cloake them before the face of Almighty God our heauenly father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtaine forgiuenesse of the same, by his infinite goodnes and mercy. And although wee ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to doe, when we assemble and meet together, to render thankes for the great benefites that we haue received at his handes, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy Word, and to aske those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as be here present, to accom-

Amen.

A Generall and Christian Exhortation,in the time of dan- ger , and feare of Gods

I V D G E M E N T S .

Tis not long since (as you know) that Almighty God, who iustly scourged vs with his Chastizing rods, of famine, and the latter by Pestilence, did after that his Fatherly correction, vpon our publique Humiliation, both satisfie our hungry soules with plentie, and likewise so miraculously deliuer vs from the iawes of death, in the principall part of this Kingdome, as if wee had heard him command his Destroying Angell, saying, Stay thy hand, it is sufficient, and immediatly the Plague ceased. As therefore the sense of his fiery indignation may terrifie vs from all further prouocation of his wrath, by custome of sinning; so ought the experience of his exceeding mercy challenge from.

from vs an humble thankefulness, and constant obedience to his will. Notwithstanding, (O, the perfidiousnesse of the carnall heart of man!) who seeth not that God hath discouered our hypocrisies, by his plague yet remaining in divers parts of this Realme? seeing that we can not but know that these coales of his fierce wrath, had not further burned, except they had beene kindled by our rebellious affections, which are set on fire of hell. For what els are the visible Judgements of God, but reall reproches of our sinnes, and expressions of his wrathfull displeasure against vs? Wherefore we may much suspect our selues, that wee by Gods late affliction were rather humbled, than truly humble; being as it were forced to that our outward humiliation, more by a slauish feare, than by any filiall sorrow for our transgressions of his will, and for abuse of his patience; much lesse by loue of that his mercy towards vs, in our marueilous deliuerance.

Yet may you not vnderstand this so spoken of vs, as thereby to condemne all outward Humiliation in Feare, whensoeuer we are vnder Gods hand of correction: No; for the holy Ghost notwithstanding such Obstimates, who being * Strucken of God grieued not at all, * nor trembled at his presence, * nor said in their hearts, Let vs serue the Lord: and condemneth them, as Foolish and ignorant of the wayes of the Lord, & the judgments of their God; & accordingly denounceth Gods iust vengeance against against them. For what greater affront and irreverence can be done to the Maiestie of God, then not to quake and tremble, when they see Gods hand of vengeance present before them? or how can they conceiue that God will compassionate their miseries, whose hearts are so hard, that the furnace of Gods wrath cannot melt them? Know yee therefore, Beloued, and let it be printed in your soules, as a necessarie trueth, that the greatest cause of feare, is our not fearing of the visible Judgements of God. This God himselfe sheweth, by binding himselfe with an oath, that they who gaue themselves * To eating, drinking, and reioycing, in the daies of mourning and weeping, should certainly die and perish.

* Isa. 22.12.

Neuerthelesse, all they that would truely understand themselves, that their conuersion unto God, is sincere and vnfained, let them not bee contented to bee driven to a religious walking before God, onely by feare of punishment; but contend especially by all holy meanes, to be animated with that loue of the goodnesse of God, whereof the Apostle speaketh, saying, * The goodnesse of God leadeth to repentance: The roote of the former is somewhat bitter, and the fruit so wre; the other of loue is as a spirituall wine, which may be said to * glad the heart both of God and man; men on earth, blessed Saints and Angels in heauen, and euен God himselfe being delighted at the true conuersion of a sinner.

An Exhortation.

All this while haue we spoken of Plague and Famine, the two instruments of death, and executioners of Gods vengeaunce ; and wish that no other matter of horrour and dread, could be represented vnto you. But (alas the intollerable burthen of our sinnes !) the Watchmen that stand on the highest tower of this kingdome, being asked what they see, doe answere, and behold, a compleat, vast, and eminent preparation to warre against vs, by an Enemy, mighty in power, in malice implacable, in rage bent and incensed to the vtter destruction of our nation, as being that which chiefly maintaineth the Euangelicall trueth , and withstandeth his boundlesse and unsatiable ambition.

This being our present doubtfull and dangerous condition, what can wee conceiue or pretend, that we should not thinke our selues lyable and subject to this the greatest and most terrible vengeance, etien the deuouring sword? Shal we now conceit, that wee are become more conformable to the Commandements of God, than heretofore ? Let every one open his eyes both of minde and body, looking as well inwardly into the closet of his owne heart , as outwardly upon the actions of other men, and then let him tell ; are not men, commonly, as sensually profane as they haue beene? their drunkennesse as generall and loathsome, their swearing as prodigious, their pride as Satanicall, their hatred as rankorous and inueterate, and , of all other reigning reigning sinnes, some as vnreprooued by Preachers, many as vnpunished by Magistrates, & almost all as vntrepented of by transgressours themselues: who after their afflictions are now growen so obstinate, as if they had made their hearts as anuellis, to bee more and more hardened by the late strokes of Gods vengeance. Wherefore, as long as wee rebelliously oppose against God an army of our sinnes, let vs expect hee will bring vpon vs his hoste of reuengefull enemies, as hee once denounced against his people, saying, that hee would * Hisse for the Flic * Isa. 7. 18.

that is in the vttermost part of the riuers of Egypt, and for the Bee that is in the land of Assyria; which (sayth hee) shall come with arrowes and bowes, that is to say, in huge multitudes of armed enemies sudainely prest and prepared to execute Gods iudgements.

O, but some will say, Are not we the professours of Gods trueth, hauing the light of his Gospel among vs, together with the holy seale of his Covenant? True, our Church of England, by the singular mercie of God in Christ Jesus, may truely and confidently boast her selfe, in comparison with any other, that shee vnder a most gracious and religious King, is for trueth of doctrine and puritie of worship, as truely Catholike and Orthodox, as euer any Church of Christ hath been since the dayes of the Apostles; insomuch that in this our English and Spanish Warre, Truth may seeme to fight against falsehood, Innocence against Antichristian cruelty, and sinceryt of worship against flat Idolatry, and therefore (say you) what can bee expected from God by vs in this battell, but victory and great triumph? May, deceiue not your owne selues, by claime of false priuiledges, as though, forsooth, Israel (euен the peculiar and onely people of God, carrying the signe of his Couenant in their flesh, acquainted with his Oracles, and possessed of the Arke and Temple of God) did not (notwithstanding) complaine, that God * went not out with their Armies, but forsooke them, so that they turned their backe vpon their enemies; that * Gods Arke (the glory of Israel, and Ensigne of the victorious God) was taken of the heathen; and that their whole nation was often enthralled in manifold Captiuities in Egypt and Babylon: a iustice against Gods people, which God himselfe did auow, when he spake of the sword, saying, * O Assyrian, The rod of mine anger, I will fend thee against an hypocriticall nation, to destroy them.

In which processe of Gods iudgement against his people, we are to contemplate and consider, the Holinesse, Justice, and Power of our zealous God, together with the abomination of our owne sinnes. So holy a God is he, that he will not acknowledge any Professor of his Law, who is not also a practiser of Pietie and Holiness; so Just, that hee will at length afflict his owne children for their wilfull transgressions.

so powerfull, that hee can of beastes, elements, diseases, and (if these will not serue) of the very heathen, and enemies of Gods Truth, and of their mortally malicious swords, make rods to correct them. Whereunto the Prophet giueth his acclamation, saying, * O mighty God, thou hast ordained them (viz. the heathen) for correction. And how shall not the transgressor himselfe appeare to bee abominable, who prophaneth that Religion of God with his wicked life, which hee professeth with his breath; thereby causing, as much as in him is, the Name and Truth of God, to be blasphemed among the aduersaries thereof, as if God were a patronizer and protector of wickednesse. But say not with your selues, that the light of Gods glory shall be any whit eclipsed by punishing his owne people: No, but the contrary, as the Prophet sheweth, saying, * The Lord of hostes will be exalted in judgement, and God that is holy, will bee sanctified in righteousness, that is, in his auenging Justice. This may be sufficient for remouing those fond pretences, which like false Prophets, most commonly seduce the hearts of men.

In the next place, it will concerne you (deare Brethren) to seeke the meanes of pacifying Gods wrath, and of preventing his fearefull Judgments; and by a true reconciliation to God, your sins being put away by repentence, to obtaine, that you may become victorious in battell. To this end, you are to examine what is your greatest hinderance. Surely no greater danger can be imagined, then mans security & neglect of danger; nor can there be any greater security, then either not to be willing to know, or knowing, not to prepare against it. Understand it we ought, because * when God (saith the Prophet) giueth his alarme to warre, and bloweth his Trumpet, that is, giueth you full assurance of battell, and you will not hearken, surely the sword shall come : And when God * setteth vp his Ensigne , that is, sheweth manifest evidences of the approach of the sword , and men are * possessed with a spirit of slumber, and wil not see: When they rather imbrace such false prophets, who cry * Peace, peace, vnto them ; when they make a couenant with death, as if they should say, Come what come will, wee will shift for our selues, all this shall be disanulled, say the Prophets ; so that indeed, each one of these men are no better then Salomons * Foole, that would needs bee sleeping vpon the top of the mast, and therefore is in a desperate case.

R. 3. greatest

Furthermore, what helpeth it vs to haue true and infallible intelligence of a malicious & puissant enemie , and yet not to provide how to encounter him , as well with Spirituall, as Corporall weapons ? Our Spirituall preparation is prescribed vnto vs in the Word of God ; * Sanctifie a Fast vnto mee, saith God by his Prophet; and certainly a Sanctified Fast it must bee , by holy abstinence in afflictiong our selues, by holy devotion in Prayer, and worshipping of God, of Repentance into a libertie and licenciousnesse of sinning, God in his Justice turne his libertie of pardoning into a necessitie of punishing. Aboue all things therefore (Brethren) seeke after him in faith and repentance, in weeping, fasting, and praying, who is our reconciliation with the father, Jesus Christ our Lord; so shall the voyce of his blood, shed for vs, crie downe the voyce of all our crying and bloody sinnes.

But are men spirits onely? Are they to fight their Battels onely with Spirituall Armour? No; for were not that to tempt God, in neglecting the good meanes ordained by him for that end? Merely politique preparations are Gods ordinance, and haue euer beene vsed by his good seruants, in their greatest confidence of his protection, euen when God himselfe hath comman- ded them to goe out to battell against his & their enemies. Abraham, Moses, Ioshua, Dauid, were all warriers, and famous in their generations, in fighting the Lords battels; yet read we not, that any of them euer went out to battell without due preparation of meanes. Wee reade of the great, mightie, and numerous armies of Gods owne people, and their strength and meanes imployed for their warres. Wee reade of Lawes of Armes, and Counsels of warre; and we find also Gods encouragement to Captaines, and War- riers, as in raising * Judges to Israel, to know and prouide against the dangers approaching, and to gather gather the people together, to conduct and direct them to fight their battels; such as were Othniel, and Shamgar, of whom it is sayd, * The Spirit of the Lord came vpon them , and they fought. And we reade of * The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon, that is, Gods powerfull helpe by the hand of Gideon, and the people with him.

And it is the same Spirit of the Lord that informeth the hearts of good people in their duties to God, their King, and their Country; and inflameth the affections of all loyall Subjects with a ready and cheeresful resolution, to employ their bodies, strength, and meane[s] for the preservation of Gods Annoynted, their Gracious Soueraigne, and the safetie of the kingdome, especially in a Defensiue Warre, as this is, in which, Gods cause, and true Religion is also assaulted. And who is there, a subject of this State, and member of this Church, of what degree and calling soever, that hath not his share & part herein, and is not imbarke[n]ed in this shipp of the care of the publike safety? So that the welfare of the whole is his welfare, and the ill speeding of this vessell, cannot but be the shipwrack and ruine of himselfe, & of all that are most deare unto him. And therefore if through our backewardnes, and neglect of due preparation, to resist and oppose an invading enemie, as well by the people and Souldiers, as by the Prince and the Leaders, wee shall become guilty of our owne ruine, and giue opportunitie and incouragement to the maleuolent mighty enemie , to exercise his rage and cruelty , with vnbounded and vnlimited fury , against all places and persons that come in his way : shall wee not iustly be taxed of failing in our duety in respect both of publicke and priuate ?

Yet in the height and best of our care, meanes and preparation , then doeth our hope become victorious, when in confidence of Gods helpe and protection, our Spirituall and Temporall forces are united together ; but much more relying vpon our Spirituall munition , which hath an obligation of promise with God , then vpon our politique, temporall, and corporall.

Memorable and admirable is the story of Moses, who was praying while his Captaines and Souldiers were fighting with Amalek ; and so it fell out , that while Moses held vp his hands in prayer, Israel had the better , but so soone as his hands failed and fell downe, Amalek the enemy preuailed. What else doeth this teach vs, but that whosoever they be that fight, Victory is absolutely in the will and power of God ; and therefore when wee prepare for battell, not to put our trust in the arme of flesh, but to put and haue our confidence onely in our God, the Lord of Hostes ; and hauing, as it behoueth vs, in the feare of God, made due preparation of all good meanes, to put on our Armour, and goe to the seruice with bended knees, and penitent hearts, Strengthened with faith, to call by fervent Prayer for His helpe and protection , that couereth our heads in the day of battell, giueth victory to Kings, protecteth His faithfull, and never faileth them that faithfully call vpon him in the time of necessitie ?

The Prophet Dauid hath summed vp all that can be spoken hereof, in one verse , * Our helpe is in the Name of the Lord , which hath made heauen and earth. So then, whosoeuer shall distrust the arme of the Almighty, or doubt of the strength of the Lord of Hosts , hee thereby offendeth against both heauen and earth, because all kinde of creatures both in heauen and earth are the Armies and prest Souldiers of God, to fight his battels , euuen from the hoast of his Angels aboue, to the flies, lice, and wormes that are engendred in the dust : and hee can execute his iudgements by what meanes soever , whether they be ordinary or miraculous : For hee threw downe the walls of Iericho by the blast of Rams horns ; hee gaue victory to Israel, by the holding vp of Moses his hands : he discomfited the host of the Madianites , at the sound of Trumpets , and noyse of mens voyces, and clashing of pitchers together : hee infused strength into the very haire of Samsons head , when Samson exulted , saying of his slaine, * Heapes vpon heapes of a thousand, by the jaw-bone of an Asse. But miracles now are for vnbelieuers.

In the last place therefore, let vs examine the more ordinary prouidence of God, which may beget confidence in all extremities of warfare. What can man feare, being in reconciliation and confederacy with God, when our enemies are made the enemies of God? Is it the policy of their Counsell? But hee confoundeth the counsell of Achitophel. Is it that enemies combine together in the name of an holy league? But when they say,^{}a Confederacy, God maketh them like a wheele turned with the spirit of goddinesse. Is it the courage of their hearts? But he possessesthe enemies hearts with ^{}feare, and maketh the hearts of ^{}Canaanites to melt. Is it their strength or hugenes of stature? But were they the children of Anakims and Gyants, and wee but as Grashoppers in comparison of them; yet ^{}Feare them not (saith God) I will goe before you. Is it the multitude of their hoasts? But it is the glory of God to ouerthrow many ^{}thousands by a few hundreds. Is it their soynt and united forces? But hee ^{}setteth the Egyptians against the Egyptians. Is it their importunitie, not to bee satisfied till they fight? But either hee will draw ^{}Senacherib backe from warring against Israel, by a rumour of warres begun in the bowels of his owne kingdome, or else, if they will needes battell, hee will hale them on thereunto ^{}to their owne destruction. Is it because no man can tell, where there shall come deliurance? But hee can doe this to our astonishment, before wee can thinke on it. ^{*}When God turned the Captiuitie of Sion, wee
