TO PURCHASERS OF PIANOFORTES.—CHAPPELL & CO. have a large stock of SECOND-HAND PIANOFORTES for Sale, by BROADWOOD, COLLARD, ERARD, &c., &c., at very reduced prices. Also, new Instruments of every description.

CHAPPELL & CO., 49 & 50, NEW BOND STREET, LONDON.

A GOOD VIOLIN & TWO BOWS, in case, with extra set of Best Strings, German silver Æolian Mute, Tutor, and telescopic box of Resin, for 42s.

It would be almost useless to give a list of prices for Violins and Bows; the qualities are so numerous, that a volume might be filled with them, and then the reader would not be much more forward, because the difference in their value could not easily be explained, and it would only show that a Violin and Bow may be had at any price, even as low as 5s. if required; but for One Guinea a Violin may be had of good quality, very neat Bows at 5s. each, and a sound respectable case for 10s.

Violins at higher prices of very superior quality.

Very fine Copies of Old Masters, from 3 to 10 guineas. Copies of Tenors and Violoncellos at proportionate prices.

Bows at any price up to 2 guineas. Violin cases, 10s., 12s., 16s., 21s., or 30s. each. Tenor and Violoncello cases of best English make.

The NEW PATENT ROYAL SOLO RESIN, manufactured only by T. CROGER; free from all impurities, and warranted not to destroy the hair or strings.

T. C. begs to state that a very considerable amount of time has been devoted to this article, and that he can now offer to Violinists Resin far superior to anything hitherto produced, as regards its quality, appearance, and form for use. There has always been wanting a box of Resin of convenient size and shape, so that it can be used with the least possible trouble, and without the dust getting on the fingers; the Telescopic, as quoted below, is the form best adapted for this purpose; it has been highly patronized by all the leading Solo and other Violinists of the day, hence its title of SOLO RESIN. There are six different forms made, four of which are for use, and the last two for the window, as samples of the quality of them all.

	s.	d.
No. 1. Small, round, per dozen boxes ...	3	0
„ 2. Large „ ...	4	0
„ 3. „ square ...	5	0
„ 4. „ round, Telescopic ...	6	0
„ 5. Very large, round, as sample, for the window, each ...	2	0
„ 6. Extra large, square ...	2	6

Sample lots, under glass shade, very handsomely got up, for music shop windows, from 5s. to 40s.

TO VIOLINISTS.

The Resining a Bow is of course a very simple process, but nevertheless there is an improvement to be made in that: almost every one, after the operation is over, finds his fingers in a disagreeable condition to stop the strings with, on account of the dust on them; to obviate this, the Bow should be held in the left hand, turning the hairs upwards, rubbing the Resin (with the right hand) on the hairs, instead of the hairs on the Resin: by this means, the dust will fall on the ground, instead of on the fingers.

T. CROGER'S PATENT COCOA CONCERT and other FLUTES.

FROM THE PREFACE.

"Although this little work is chiefly addressed to young composers and organists, there are occasions when more experienced musicians may perhaps find it of some utility. Extemporeaneous 'interludes,' for example, demand considerable self-possession, and the most skillful organist is liable, from indisposition and other causes, to accidents which could hardly occur if the means were before his eyes of instant extrication from any key to which he had wandered."

SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S GENERAL HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MUSIC.

Price 35s., bound in Two Volumes. Supplementary Volume of Portraits, 14s., in paper covers; 16s., bound in cloth.

In the present age, when public attention is so extensively directed towards the study and practice of Music, it has been thought that a new edition of SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S valuable HISTORY OF MUSIC would prove peculiarly acceptable, as being by far the best history of the art extant. It was formerly a very scarce and expensive book, but the present price, 35s. bound in two volumes, places it within the reach of both amateur and professional musician. The large subject of a History of Music, embracing heterogeneous matter, and the result of wide research, makes it a storehouse to which a definite clue is required to give ready access. This will be found in the new and compendious Indexes, which have been carefully compiled, and added to the present edition. The whole matter occupies more than 1000 large pages of close print, with more than 200 wood-cuts, and provides the material for many a long winter evening's amusement by their perusal.

Price 6d. in paper cover, or 1s. whole cloth.

"This book does every credit to the patience, intelligence, and modesty of its author."—Athenæum, August 13, '59.

"Not two, but twenty notices could be written of this excellent and carefully wrought book."—Athenæum, August 20, '59.

"The book is indeed one which the ladies will delight in for its music, and graver readers for its curious learning."—Notes and Queries, July 9.

"The student of history, the antiquary, the reader for amusement, and the cultivated lover of sweet sounds, will come alike to Mr. Chappell's volumes in search of gratification for their several tastes, and will assuredly not come in vain."—Gentleman's Magazine, August, '57.

"In the limits of a short notice it is impossible to do justice to Mr. Chappell's volumes. They are full of pleasant matter for every class of reader."—Examiner, Sept. 17.

"POPULAR MUSIC OF THE OLDEN TIME, one of the greatest and most valuable works which have ever issued from the English musical press."—Spectator, March 5, '59.

"Mr. William Chappell's great collection of our national songs and ballads, is, in truth, an English classic, a standard work—distinguished not only as a vast storehouse of the treasures of genuine English music and song—but as a literary work of great learning and research, and so full of curious and interesting information relative to the music, as well as to the manners and customs of our ancestors, that it may be regarded as a contribution not only to the history of music, but to the history of England."—Daily News, Dec. 7, '58.

"An invaluable history of the early music of this country—the fruit of study, at once patient and unwearied, and of investigation adequately learned and intelligent."—Morning Herald, Sept. 1, '56.

"We heartily recommend this important and admirable work to the attention, not of musical readers only, but of the whole public. It is full of interesting information, the result of great learning and deep research; while it is attractive from its pictures of society and manners among our ancestors, and from the exceedingly pleasant and animated style in which it is written."—Daily News, Oct. 11, '59.

"Mr. Chappell's collection is in all respects a remarkable work, one of those which an honest enthusiasm may, but a money-fee never can, produce."—Chambers's Journal, Oct. 23, '58.
