WEEKLY GREETING.

We prepare ourselves for sudden deeds by the reiterated choice of good or evil which gradually determines character.—George Eliot.

“WHERE THE PEOPLE ARE REAL.”

There was a splendid picture shown at the Princess Theatre Tuesday night, “The Golden God,” by the Art Drama Company. The scene originated in a country village in New York, the principals being a happy family, husband, wife and small daughter. The husband owned a garage and a little village home, in the shadow of stately trees and embracing vines. He repaired a car and drove it into New York City for a wealthy broker, who later offered him a position as chauffeur.

The country mechanic was eager to accept, but the dear little wife said they were making a living and were happy, and she preferred to remain.

Perhaps it is well to say that women are usually instinctively more correct in such matters than are men in their analysis, deductions and conclusions.

The family moved to the metropolis of the Western world. Although the husband was satisfied with life in the great city, the wife preferred to return to the old village home, where, she said, “The people are real.”

In reciting the above sentence, Alma Hanlon voiced a great truth. There is no doubt but what the people living in the country villages do appear more natural and real, for the reason that they dwell closer to nature and most of them are perhaps engaged in more natural pursuits or vocations than those in the vast centers of population.

The story is strongly threaded with a refreshing, wholesome moral and reflects credit upon the producing company. The absence of cigaret smoking in the picture was noticeable.

GRAND OPERA NETS 27 CENTS.

[Sierra Madre News.]

One of the Metropolitan Grand Opera stars, according to “The Theatre,” took up a bet that he could not earn two dollars a day at street singing. Accordingly, he went into the courtyard of one of the fashionable upper west side apartment houses and sang a few arias from his most popular opera.

After the first selection thirteen cents were thrown him; after the second he picked up nine cents; the third brought five, and the fourth and fifth nothing. Total, twenty-seven cents.

At the Metropolitan this man is said to receive two thousand dollars a night.

Why did the receipts fall down at his courtyard recital, when he sang the same songs just as well as ever?

There’s just one word to express the vital lack: “ADVERTISING.”

ON THE MAP.

[Orange Daily News.]

Orange has been on the citrus map for a long time, through its immense fruit output; on the athletic map for many years by virtue of the championships it has won and the championships it has fostered; on various other maps for various other reasons. Now it is on the patriotic map, and one of the agencies that has placed it there is the Orange Red Cross.

As shown by its report on another page the Orange Red Cross has been very much alive to the needs of our fighting men. During the five months of its existence it has turned out a grand total of 6084 articles, including garments, surgical dressings and knitted articles. This is better than an average of 1000 articles a month.

Incidentally it is also better by a considerable margin than most other chapters or auxiliaries are doing. Santa Ana, for instance, with the aid of Garden Grove. Tustin, El Toro, Huntington Beach and the rest of the south end of the county has failed to come within 1000 articles of the Orange mark. Orange is aided only by El Modena, Villa Park, Olive and West Orange, the district having less than half of the population contributing toward the Santa Ana work.

Such a comparison explains why Orange is marked in capital letters on the Red Cross map.

NIGHT CLASSES AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

WILL OPEN ON NEXT MONDAY EVENING.

Night classes at the High school will open next Monday evening, November 19th, in Spanish, wood working and mechanical drawing. Mrs. T. B. Talbert will be instructor in Spanish and Ray Walker of the High school will take charge of the shop work.

Any may take the work, for which High school credit is given. No tuition will be charged. Transportation will not be furnished by the district, but it is hoped that among those who wish the work, an arrangement can be made so that it will not be difficult to get to the High school. Some in the country are planning to pick up others along the way. Such a plan can probably be worked here in town.

The following schedule will be carried out at first:

Spanish—Mon. and Thurs., 7:00 to 8:00.

Wood Working, Mon., Tues. and Thurs., 7:00 to 8:00 and 8:05 to 9:05.

Mechanical Drawing, Mon., Tues. and Thurs., 7:00 to 8:00 and 8:05 to 9:05.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY.

From Watts.

John Stover of Watts was in Huntington Beach Sunday.

Moved from Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip DeHetre of Compton moved into a house on Alabama avenue, Wednesday. Mr. DeHetre is one of the new owners of the Arrow Garage.

In San Diego.

Carlos E. Rigdon of Rigdon’s studio is in San Diego today taking a physical examination to enter the signal corps as a photographer.

UNION OIL COMPANY ERECTING TANKS HERE.

WILL BE READY FOR BUSINESS ABOUT JAN. 1st.

The Union Oil Company of California broke ground Wednesday for a supply station in this city, and fourteen men are employed today on the work of constructing the tanks, buildings and sheds.

The site is on Acacia street, opposite the E. K. Wood Lumber Co., between Lake avenue and the Southern Pacific tracks. The improvements will consist of three tanks, with a storage capacity of 50,000 gallons, office, unloading station, barn, garage and wagon shed.

The work is under the supervision of O. J. Newell, general superintendent of construction work for the company, and it is expected the work will be completed in 35 or 40 days. This move on the part of the Union Oil Co. indicates that there is some business in Huntington Beach worth looking after.

MRS. THOMAS PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Hannah M. Thomas, wife of A. E. Thomas, passed away at the family home on Sixth street, Monday morning. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at 2 o’clock, Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. R. I. McKee, pastor of the church, and Rev. T. S. Urenn, a retired Methodist minister of Los Angeles, who knew Mrs. Thomas while a resident of Huntington Beach, officiating. The services at the cemetery were conducted by the Eastern Star, with members of the Woman’s Relief Corps and Grand Army of the Republic present. The high standing in the community of the deceased was evidenced by the many beautiful floral offerings. Rev. Urenn stated that Mrs. Thomas was a woman of very fine Christian ideals.

Mrs. Thomas’ maiden name was Hannah M. Conklin, and she was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 12th, 1846, and united with the Methodist church at the age of 16 years. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. D. O. Stewart, of this city; Mrs. J. J. Graham of Wintersburg, and Mrs. J. O. Slaback of Hemet. She had been chaplain of the W. R. C. for the past two years. She was married to Mr. Thomas Sept. 8, 1915.

HIGH SCHOOL RAISES BIG Y. M. C. A. FUND.

$144.00 SUBSCRIBED TODAY AT NOON.

The Student Body of the Huntington Beach High school conducted a whirlwind campaign at noon today and secured pledges for $144. This is certainly a remarkable record, and those in charge of the work are to be congratulated.

WATCH IN ONE FAMILY MORE THAN 100 YEARS.

Edgar Edwards has a watch that has been in the possession of members of his family for more than 100 years. The watch is inclosed in a heavy solid gold hunting case, for which Mr. Edwards has been offered $28, in addition to a cheaper case for the works. The watch no longer keeps correct time. It is, of course, wound by a key, as were all watches at that time. This watch will probably be on exhibition at the Community Fall Festival next week.

There Is Money In Beach Acreage

If you buy at the right price and at the right beach.

There are only 8½ miles of high beach frontage now available close to Los Angeles, and 5 miles is occupied by the cities of Santa Monica, Redondo and Long Beach. Huntington Beach has the other 3½ miles.

If you price close-in acreage at the older and larger beach cities, you will find it has reached a figure that is almost prohibitive, and that there is no longer a chance for quick increase and good profits, while at Huntington Beach you can buy good, close-in acreage for
