

J. W. Garrison.

Newport, R. I.

Jan 2. 1845

Dear Sir

1 Not without regret, I have made up my mind to discontinue my "Liberator". For the last six months I have rarely found any pleasure in reading it; and I do not feel bound to sustain it, as a matter of duty, which in its present attitude.

Very truly yours
W. Higginson

Col. J. W. Higginson

Newport

R. I.

3 Jun^y 1865