Gimand String, our new Mayer, has com-menced most auspiciously the fulfilment, of his duties by the appointment of Thessas B. ADAMS, Req., as Chief of Police. By ADAMS is the very man for the post. "Cool, intropid, of interview." m to very man for the post. Cool, interpide of indomitable courage, marked intelligence and unblemished probity, he will discharge the duties attached to his responsible statics with the utmost fidelity, impurishity and fearlessness. Mr. Anars takes the office, and from choice, but from a ligh sensitions of duty, and at the earness solicitation of a hear of respectable citizens. We trust, therefore duty, and at the earmest nolicitation of a bast of respectable citizens. We trust, therefore, that in his endeavore to promote public order and security, he will be seconded by conservative men of all parties. We know that in accepting the position of Chief of Police, Mr. Anams has been indusposed strike sively by a warm desire to contribute his energies towards the reform of our social condition, and the removal of the notions elements which have abounded in our midst. The community will appreciate his melity, and feel grateful for the ancripe he has made in their behalf.

The gentlemen appointed as Lieutemania,

NEWLAND, are generally known to our citi-zons as worthy and capable, and will, no doubt, prove efficient sids to Mr. Annes. The Mayor has begun admirably. Let him persevere in the path he has chosen, and he will assuredly merit and receive the commendation of every honorable and patriotic citims.

CONGRESS.

WASSISTED, June 14.

Sensiz.—Bome disonation took place is regard to the manner in which the House had acted on the Post-Office Appropriation bill; and subsequently, the bill having been received from the House with its disagreement to all the amendments, a new committee of conference was appointed and a report was soon thereafter agreed upon, the limits and the sensite receding from its amendments. The bill was sent to the President of the United States for his signature; and this, with all the general appropriation bills and the loan bill, received his prompt approval.

Several executive sensions were held during the day.

In the sunnit imporary absence of the Vice. President, the Hon. Benjamin Fitspatried was chosen President of the Sensite provident of the Sensite provident and as at the offices do not open on Sunday, we were unbilt to get our displaches until to-day. INDIA.
