GERMAN TROOPS IN THE RUHR DISTRICT

States Clear Issue For Pebiscite Upon Prohibition Policy

Hon. J. W. de B. Farris Says "Stronger and More Vigorous Public Sentiment" is Necessary Behind Law; No Middle Course Possible.

Legislative Press Gallery, Afternoon Sitting, March 29.

British Columbia's experience with more than two years of "dry" law formed the exclusive theme of an address delivered in the Legislature this afternoon by the Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, Attorney-General and Minister of Labor, whose bill to amend the British Columbia Prohibition Act is now before the House for second reading. The speech itself comprehended practically every angle of the prohibition controversy and by its division into three definite phases Mr. Farris was able to weave an appropriate relationship between the past, the present and the future. His spirited defence of the Government's administration of the Act in its present form constituted a stepping stone to the answer to Mr. Bowser's criticisms of the Government and more especially of the Attorney-General's Department in connection with the enforcement of the Act in general. Mr. Farris challenged the Leader of the Opposition to make good his charges or stand branded accordingly.

The Future.

From this stage of his address the Attorney-General directed his attention to the future. He declared with all the emphasis of his command that there could be no middle course in connection with prohibition and that no honest man or woman would advocate it. Either prohibition must be abolished or it must be made a clear and definite law, and if it could not do so with the support of the newly enfranchised women there would be no doubt about the failure—or it would be the duty of the Government to take control and see that it was its own hands. This, in other words, was the nature of the forthcoming referendum.

The Attorney-General's Speech

After formally moving the second reading of his bill, the Attorney-General said he was mindful of the fact that there was no question in which the people of this Province were more deeply interested than in the question of the enforcement of the Prohibition Act, and in the still broader question, of whether or not the principle of prohibition should continue to prevail in this Province. "The amendments now being introduced," said Mr. Farris, "are largely of an administrative nature, and are proposed for the purpose of enabling the Department and the Police of the various municipalities more strictly to enforce the prohibitory provisions contained in our present Act. The necessity for these amendments will require a re-consideration of the present Act, and it has a very close relation to the question of past administration and enforcement and the future policy of the Government in connection with prohibition.

Detailed Discussion

"I propose, therefore, in discussing the subject, to divide my remarks into three parts; firstly, to give an explanation of the actual amendments contained in the Bill; secondly, to make a statement in regard to the record of the Government in connection with the enforcement of the law; and thirdly, to discuss the charges that have been levelled against myself and the Department by the Leader of the Opposition. I intend to present to the Legislature to consider the present Bill in relation to the future policy of the Government in connection with prohibition.

Puzzling Problems.

From this stage Mr. Farris proceeded to deal in detail with the various amendments now before the House. Taking the licensing of near beer first the Attorney-General said: "There has been a very general demand from the municipalities of the Province that power be given to them to license and regulate these places. At the present time, there are no restrictions whatever against the sale of near beer, and I am sorry to say that in these unrestricted sales the beer has a way of becoming a good deal nearer than it should be. There is nothing to prevent even the youngest boys and girls from purchasing and drinking near beer in any of the places vending soft drinks. Not only is this so, but it is also a fact that other places under the guise of selling near beer are operating resorts of an unhealthy and undesirable nature. To meet the situation that has grown up, it would seem absolutely necessary to extend greater powers of supervision and regulation to the municipalities upon whom rest the responsibility of police supervision.

Fine for Imprisonment

"The present Prohibition Act provides that any person convicted for selling liquor shall be imprisoned for six months without the option of a fine," continued the Attorney-General. "Two and one-half years' experience has shown this provision to be an unwise one. There are many cases where the Magistrate should very properly send the offender to jail even though it is his first conviction. But there are many other cases where it is a hardship or an

FATHER KILLED HIS WAYWARD SON

Dying Chicago Youth Requested His Father Be Not Punished

Chicago, March 29.—Frank Pinano, Jr., seventeen years old, who was put under arrest, died at a hospital yesterday. The father sought to get the boy away from a crowd with whom he found him on Tuesday night and being rebuffed, shot him. Arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon, the father said he would rather kill the boy than have him a criminal. Before his death, Frank requested that his father be not punished. Pinano was rearrested following his son's death, and the assault charge changed to one of murder.

Irish Thugs Blindfolded and Murdered Young Man

Dublin, March 29.—The inquest on the body of a young, well-dressed man, found Friday evening in a field at Banege Bridge, near Newcastle West, has failed to reveal his identity. He was blindfolded and his hands were tied behind his back. The man had been shot to death and it is considered he was a victim of the murder campaign.

London, March 29.—A dispatch from Dublin last evening said prisoners from various parts of Ireland had been arriving all day at Mount Joy Jail. Heavy military guards accompanied them. Philip Shanahan, a Sinn Fein member of Parliament, and prominent in local Sinn Fein activities, was one of those put under arrest.

Another Dublin dispatch said Lawrence Ginnell, Nationalist member of the House of Commons for the north division of Westmeath, had been arrested for the second time by the military and police. Mr. Ginnell was previously arrested in 1907 for contempt of court and on conviction was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

The Hague, March 29.—(Associated Press)—The capture by a Dutch torpedo boat of a German mine-sweeping craft in the Zuider Zee has revealed what is said to have been an attempt by the crew of the mine-sweeper to take advantage of the German revolution and sell the ship for their own profit. The vessel was left behind by the North Sea mine-sweeping flotilla, and after touching at Bloksdijk, in the Zuider Zee, early in the week, proceeded to Minzber, near Amsterdam.

West Point, Ga., also was hard hit, ten persons being reported dead there.

Agrocola, a small settlement in Alabama, had a death list of five.

The tornado, which struck Georgia and the eastern part of Alabama, so demoralized the telegraph and telephone service that news from the various sections was slow in coming in.

Near Great Lakes.

Chicago, March 29.—Material augmentation of the known death list of 30 and property damage estimated at many millions of dollars, loomed to-day when restoration of wire communication would permit compilation of accurate reports from the Central West States hit by a series of tornadoes yesterday.

The most foreboding rumors early to-day were from the Southern Michigan peninsula and the rural districts of Indiana and Ohio. In those States wires were prostrated in every direction, and it was said it might be days before some of the communities were heard from.

Figures.

The Chicago district, with twenty-nine deaths, was the heaviest sufferer, according to reports early to-day. Other death reports follow: West Liberty, Ind., seven; Ponton, Mich., seven; Zulu, Ind., five; Nashville, Ohio, four; Greenville, Ohio, four; Sylvania, Ohio, two; Geneva, Ohio, two; Toledo, Ohio, two; Raab's Corner, Ohio, two; Geneva, Ind., three, and one each at Monroeville, Ind.; Townley, Ind.; Hart, Mich.; East Troy, Wis.; Cleveland, Ohio, and St. Louis, Mo.

Thousands of persons were made homeless by destruction of dwellings throughout the six states and outside relief was necessary for a number of places.

The only ships which resisted occupation of the city by the Bolsheviki were Russian, which fired a few shells at the Soviet forces. MURDER VERDICT GIVEN IN DUBLIN

Coroner Doubts Criminals Who Shot Magistrate Will Be Identified

Dublin, March 28.—Via London, March 28.—A formal verdict of death due to bullet wounds caused by some persons unknown was returned by the coroner's jury which investigated the murder of Magistrate Bell Saturday. The members of the jury expressed abhorrence at the crime and tendered their sympathy to the widow. Attorney Ford, representing the relatives of the magistrate, characterized the crime as "cold, heartless and savage." He said Magistrate Bell had been destroyed with less regret that if he had been a dog, and said the murder obviously was the result of a conspiracy. The coroner said that Mr. Bell had been engaged on quasi political work, which apparently had been deemed sufficient cause to mark him down for destruction. He expressed the opinion that none concerned in the outrage would be identified, although it was committed in broad daylight. Witnesses testified that after the murder the assailants strode quietly off. They were not rough-looking, but appeared to be respectable men, witness said.

NOT UNANIMOUS AS TO CHOICE OF KING

All Parties in Hungary, However, Agree in Wanting a King

Budapest, March 28.—Via London, March 28.—Hungary is virtually a kingdom without a king, but there is tacit observance of the former monarchical constitution. All parties are agreed on the question of monarchy but they show divergence as to who should be King. In order to avoid serious troubles, therefore, the parties are disposed to postpone the election until conditions are more settled.

The farmers' party, which is against the return of the Hapsburgs, has adopted a resolution for a motion in the National Assembly that propaganda in favor of any candidate at the present time will be declared an act of conspiracy and punished accordingly.

The state officials and the army will take the oath to the constitution and swear allegiance to the Regent on Easter Sunday.

STATES CLEAR ISSUE FOR PLEBISCITE UPON PROHIBITION POLICY

Inductees for the Magistrate to be compelled to give a jail sentence of six months. The result has been that, in many cases, it has been difficult to get a conviction because of the reluctance of the Magistrate to impose what may seem to him an unjust sentence. Another objection is that the municipalities complain that they get reverse whatever from the prosecutions instituted by them, but on the contrary, are out of pocket for the jail expenses of the persons convicted.

"It is belied by the Government," said Mr. Farris, "that better results will be obtained by allowing the Magistrate to exercise discretion in the punishment to be imposed. In making this change, I wish to inform the House that we have the endorsement of the Executive of the Peoples' Prohibition Party.

Private Houses. "With reference to private houses," went on the Attorney-General, "the amended Act prohibits the removal of liquor from a private house except by export or in cases where the owner is moving to another residence. This section does not intend to interfere in any way with the lawful use of liquor by a man in his own home, but it is intended to assist the Police in preventing the boot-legger from keeping his home stocked with liquor for illegal purposes.

Export Warehouses. "The amendments in regard to export warehouses," Mr. Farris proceeded, "are intended to check what is regarded as an evasion of the principle of the Prohibition Act. Export warehouses are provided for under the Act, as places in which owners may store liquor intended for export from the Province. The following practice has grown up: A company owns liquor stored in an export warehouse. This liquor is sold by the company to number two company stationed in Calgary. The number one company holds the liquor in the warehouse in Vancouver to the order of the Calgary company. A Vancouver householder then wires to the Calgary company for a case of whiskey. The Calgary company wires in turn to the Vancouver company to deliver to the householder a case of the whiskey held to its order in the export warehouse. This is done. It is claimed that the prohibition law is not violated, and the Courts have so decided.

"In my opinion," he said, "this is an evasion of the Prohibition Act, and I believe that these decisions might be reversed in the High Courts. But I think rather than to adopt this doubtful and expensive procedure, the obvious remedy is to amend the statute so that this circumlocution can no longer be indulged in. Our amendment prohibits the removal of liquor from an export warehouse except by another export warehouse or for shipment out of the Province.

Objections Lodged. "I may say," the Attorney-General went on, "since this amendment has been introduced, some very strong objections have been lodged with me, expressing the view that this is an unfair provision and discriminates against local business concerns in favor of Calgary and other cities. My answer to that is this: So long as a prohibition law is on our statute books no evasion of its principles can be justified on the plea of discrimination or non-discrimination.

Essences. "One of the greatest abuses that has developed under the Prohibition Act," Mr. Farris observed, "has been in the consumption of essences, lemon and Jamaica ginger, both of which articles contains a high percentage of alcohol, and the Police remark that when this stuff is mixed with beer the results are most effective.

"I have no statistics giving the amount of these liquors that are being consumed, for intoxicating purposes," he said, "but every Police Department in the Province will confirm my statement that a great deal of the drunkenness and moral depravity resulting from present day conditions is the result of this perverted form of drinking. We have not undertaken to prohibit completely the sale of these articles, but we have very materially interfered with the sale, so much so, in fact, that I am afraid the housewives will be a little resentful of the legislation. I believe, however, that when the women realize the harm that is being done at the present time, and the purpose for which this legislation is brought in, there will not be a murmur from any woman in regard to these restrictions. I may say that in the State of Washington, lemon extract, and other essences in liquid form, is absolutely prohibited, and substitutes in cake or powdered form have to be used.

Limiting the Prescription. "The next limitation is that no doctor shall issue more than one hundred prescriptions in a month," continued Mr. Farris, "and that the amount in any prescription shall be limited to eight ounces save as in the Act provided.

"I am now approaching what is, without doubt," he commented, "the most contentious section in the whole Act, and one which involves not only a careful explanation of the provisions in the amendment, but a survey of the whole prohibition situation and an examination of the kind of enforcement of law we have been having. The policy of the Government to limit the number and amount of prescriptions was first publicly announced by me in a speech made in the City of Nelson last November. I have before me the copy of The Colonist, November 22, containing a dispatch from Nelson reporting my speech as follows:

Report of Speech. "The Attorney-General was explicit in his view of the prohibition question in the present prohibition evil must be abated," he asserted. "As to prescriptions, said Hon. Mr. Farris, 'the trouble started with the flu when the demand for them became general and had to be met by the doctors. When the flu passed the doctors were not able to get back to the old standard of the pressure of demands has gradually grown until the situation has become intolerable.

"The Government of British Columbia is now selling more than $150,000.00 worth of liquor a month, camouflaged as medicine, and this condition cannot continue. The remedy should not be by wholesale prosecution of the medical profession for a condition forced upon them by the Legislature and passed without their consent and against their will. The Legislature has got to face this question at the coming session. If the people want the Government to sell liquor as a beverage they must be honest with themselves, say no and legislate to do it legally. If they really want prohibition the Act must be changed at the coming session to prevent a condition where we are selling liquor as a beverage under the guise of selling as a medicine. If the people want a referendum on Government sale or no referendum, the present act must be changed at this session to abate the prescription evil. With all its shortcomings, the present Act is an extraordinary improvement on the old bar conditions which can never return.

"It will be noted the figures which I gave at that time were $150,000.00," Farris continued Mr. Farris. "These figures were more than doubled in the month of December last, when the sale from our Government amounted to $310,000, practically all of which was sold as medicine issued on prescriptions by the doctors of the Province.

EXPOSES FALLACY OF MR. BOWSER'S CRITICISM

"There had not been very much criticism for some months from the Leader of the Opposition in regard to the prohibition administration until my speech delivered at Nelson was reported," proceeded the Attorney-General, "the fact that I frankly recognized the serious condition which existed and had unhesitatingly pronounced it in favor of reform, seemed to arouse the wrath of the Leader of the Opposition, who made an attack upon me in a public speech delivered at McKay Station on December 2 last.

"The criticisms made by the Leader of the Opposition in this speech," he went on, "are very material to the present discussion, because the position taken by that honorable gentleman was that the Prohibition Act did not need any amendments in regard to prescriptions or anything else, but that the whole trouble was because of the incompetent and dishonest administration of the Act by myself.

"Now, Sir, if the charges made in this speech by the Leader of the Opposition are true in whole or in any part," flashed Mr. Farris, "I should not be permitted to stand on this floor and propose any amendment to the Prohibition Act or any other Act. If the charges, however, are untrue, and made without foundation, or a serious attempt to mislead, I stand ready to accept the criticism of the Opposition as one who bears false testimony against another.

"I made a statement in an interview given in Vancouver in January last that I welcomed the opportunity of meeting the Leader of the Opposition face to face on the floor of the House," Mr. Farris proceeded, "when he would have an opportunity to prove to the full the charges which he had made. And speaking to this House some weeks ago, I again reminded the Leader of the Opposition of these charges, and warned him that he would not be permitted to go through this session without being called upon to make good the charges which he had made. So far, the Leader of the Opposition has kept silent, and I do not propose that he shall remain silent any longer. I will ask the honorable Members of this House to bear with me while I read the various allegations made by the Leader of the Opposition in December last.

Mr. Bowser's Charges. "Mr. Bowser was speaking at the formation of the Conservative Club, and he is reported to have pictured a deplorable state of affairs in the Province which he attributed to contempt for the many in which justice was administered in connection with prohibition laws. And then he goes on to enumerate in detail his charges against the Government, which prohibition has not been enforced in this Province. I propose to take this up in detail.

Suffered With Boils Last 5 Years

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poultices and ointments you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery is at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robt. Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after just one bottle I have had no more boils."

B. B. B. has been on the market for over 40 years and is manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"First, he says," continues the Attorney-General, "that I illegally took enforcement of prohibition out of the hands of the Provincial Police and placed it under the control of a Prohibition Commissioner. Mr. Speaker, that statement is not true. Twenty-nine of the Prohibition Act says that the duty of enforcing its provisions shall devolve upon the Superintendent of Provincial Police and all constables and officers, of every provincial and municipal police force in the Province. That Section is the law to-day as much as it was in 1916.

DENIES NEGLIGENCE OF POLICE OFFICIALS

"The Leader of the Opposition knows full well," said Mr. Farris, "that it was never intended by him or anyone else that the Superintendent of Provincial Police should have the full responsibility of enforcing the Prohibition Act. The only way this could be accomplished would be to take the policing of the cities and municipalities out of the control of the local authorities and make one big police force for the whole of the Province.

"Let me point out," he continued, "that, under the provisions of the Municipal Act, every city and municipality has its own police force under its own chief of police and supervised by its own police commissioners. The Provincial Police are in charge of the unorganized territory in the Province. In territory, we are in charge of over ninety per cent of the Province, but so far as population is concerned, the Provincial Police are in charge of only a little over five per cent of the Province. In other words, Mr. Speaker, ninety per cent of the people in this Province reside in an area of less than ten per cent of the territory. In regard, therefore, to nine-fifty per cent of our population the Provincial Police have no direct authority.

The Police Force. "The total number of the Provincial Police," Mr. Farris observed, "scattered from the Peace River country in the North, to Atlin, Prince Rupert and all the unorganized districts through the great extent of the Province, numbers only about one hundred and seventy-five men, which is considerably less than the police force in the City of Vancouver alone, and to say that this body of men policing this great wilderness is responsible for the non-enforcement of the Prohibition Act, throughout the cities and municipalities of this Province is as unfair as it is untrue.

Findlay. "The next allegation made against me by the Leader of the Opposition," the Attorney-General continued, "was that I was in collusion with Findlay. After criticizing me for the appointment of Findlay and making the statement that everybody in the Province expected to see Findlay in the next scandalous administration Findlay was giving, he goes on to make the more serious allegation that the prosecution against Findlay were 'fake' prosecutions. The answer to this is very simple. Two charges were taken against Findlay: first, for the violation of the Dominion Order-in-Council in regard to the importation of liquor; second, for stealing seventy-two cases of liquor. On the first charge he was convicted and fined $1,000. On the other charge he was convicted and sentenced to two years in the Provincial penitentiary with hard labor, and he has served nearly one year of that penalty.

"Mr. Bowser states there was pressure to name one in high authority in this country, and Findlay could dictate on what charge he should be prosecuted. This ridiculous dictate was made by the Leader of the Opposition after Findlay had been in the penitentiary for eight months. Surely, Mr. Speaker, if Findlay had the power of dictation he did not use it to very good advantage.

Clement Commission. "The next charge is in regard to the Clement Commission," Mr. Farris went on. "It will be remembered that in January, 1919, the Government appointed Mr. Justice Clement to hold an inquiry under the Public Enquiries Act in connection with Findlay's transactions. Mr. C. W. Craig was appointed counsel for the Government, assisted by Mr. William Savage, now president of the Peoples' Prohibition Party. These two gentlemen were given the fullest authority by the Government to proceed with the inquiry. After the judge had been sitting for some days, Findlay was brought before him to testify. He refused to answer and was committed to goal for contempt of Court.

Gartshore Case. "Then evidence was being offered before the commission in regard to one Gartshore," he reminded the House, "when Mr. Charles Wilson, K.C., applied to the Chief Justice for an injunction restraining the commission on the ground that the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council did not have power to create such a commission of inquiry. This matter was argued before the Chief Justice, who granted the injunction. An appeal was then taken by the Government against the decision of the Chief Justice, and a special application was made by Mr. Craig asking the Court of Appeal for a special sitting to hear this application. This was refused, and the case came on in the regular way in the April sittings, when the Court of Appeal heard arguments and reserved judgment. They gave their judgment in June dismissing the injunction of Chief Justice Hunter.

"Now, as regards the Attorney-General's position in this matter, the facts of which cannot be in dispute, let us see what is the statement of the Leader of the Opposition. 'This commission never got very far. The lawyers were retained and a court selected where the lawyers would have to appear, and further delays ensued. It was affecting the foundations of justice in this country,' he declared, in reviewing the adjournments, appeals and delays which followed public investigations of all the workings of the Act; and all this took place under the Liberal Attorney-General, who in 1916, had cried purity,' he added amid applause."

Reflection on Judge. "Now, Sir," Mr. Farris observed with cutting emphasis, "this statement, coming from the previous Attorney-General of this Province, is a charge that the lawyer who gave the injunction had conspired to get a judge who would defeat the ends of justice and that I, as Attorney-General of the Province, was a party to this crime and responsible for its perpetration. What are the facts? The judge who heard the case and granted the injunction was the Chief Justice of the Province of British Columbia, a position which he has held for nearly twenty years; and the lawyer who was accused of this conspiracy is Mr. Charles Wilson, K.C., Mr. Bowser's predecessor in the Ministry of Government as Attorney-General and for many years Mr. Bowser's colleague from the City of Vancouver.

Strait Talk. "I say, Mr. Speaker, that a man occupying the position of Leader of the Opposition in this Province—a man who for seven years was Attorney-General of this Province, who, for political purposes and in an endeavor to gain political advantage over his opponent, will maliciously utter such statements reflecting on the bench and bar of this Province, is a man unfit to remain in public life.

"The next statement made by the Leader of the Opposition in this wonderful speech to which I will ask your consideration," said the Attorney-General, "is that men convicted in Revelstoke, Fernie and Cranbrook of breaking the law months ago were out walking about the streets. What does this statement mean? It is made in connection with a general charge against me of non-enforcement of the law, and is intended to convey the impression that these men are walking the streets because there is something rotten in the administration of justice.

The Fernie Case. "Now, Sir," he proceeded, "the time at which this statement was made there were convicted men not in custody from Cranbrook, but there were a number of men in Fernie who had been convicted in the police court through the activities of our Department and each of whom had been sentenced to six months in jail by the police magistrate. These men had appealed from these convictions to the county court judges, who heard the cases in the regular way, set aside the convictions and allowed the men to go free. The Act permitting these appeals was an Act passed by the late Government, and the appeals were taken in the regular and lawful way.

"After the convictions," said Mr. Farris, "our Department immediately appealed to the Court of Appeal of this Province, and the cases were argued before that court by the Deputy Attorney-General and judgments were reserved by the court and pronounced less than two weeks ago, reversing the decision of Judge Thompson and ordering these men back to jail. Mr. Speaker, these men are either in jail or fleeing from the country as fugitives from justice. It is on such false and misleading insinuations as these that the Leader of the Opposition seeks to prove that I have betrayed my trust in regard to the administration of justice.

Nailing It Down. "The next statement of the Leader of the Opposition makes is as follows: (Concluded on page 8.)

TRANQUILLE SANITARIUM.

While the question of state control of hospitals as far as British Columbia is concerned remains in abeyance for the time being, it is satisfactory to observe that the Legislature is to be asked to accept that principle in the case of the King Edward Sanitarium at Tranquille. Dr. MacLean intimated to the House during the course of his remarks on the budget on Friday that he was hopeful that the Dominion Government would agree to carry out its former proposal under a policy of provincial acquisition and control just as willingly as it would under the present arrangement between itself and the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, with the Government as the third partner contributing.

Under the agreement proposed by the Federal authorities the Dominion Government would provide the sum of $120,000 and construct additional accommodation at the institution in question on the understanding that the Government of British Columbia accepted liability for half the amount and reimbursed Ottawa to that extent five years hence. With this arrangement consummated the sanitarium would get the urgently needed accommodation and come into possession of structural improvements to the value of $120,000.

The proposal appears to us to be as equitable as any proposal could be short of the state accepting full responsibility for the care of its tubercular population. And as far as the Province is concerned there is no reason why Tranquille should not be owned and operated as a provincial organization in a manner similar to the mental hospital at Essondale. The cases are parallel and we believe that a business manager at the latter institution has proved the theory that such establishments can be conducted by the Government of the day to the advantage of all concerned.

With that in view, and in consideration of the fact that the Province already is contributing two-thirds of the cost of maintaining and treating all civilian patients, the Tranquille institution is but little removed from an accepted provincial liability at the present time. Moreover, and what is much more important, once the sanitarium becomes a public charge the deplorable waiting list for admission should soon be a thing of the past.

FARMERS ROUSED.

The representatives of the United Farmers in the House of Commons are reported to be preparing for a vigorous fight against a section of the new franchise legislation which, they contend, prevents voters banding themselves into an association to promote the election of a candidate to Parliament who may advocate their policy. They declare that if that section should be passed 150,000 or more farmers who have subscribed to the support of farmer candidates in the Prairie Provinces would be subjected to proceedings in the Police Court. This section is as follows:

"No unincorporated company or association and no incorporated company or association other than one incorporated for political purposes alone shall, directly or indirectly, contribute, loan, advance, pay or promise or offer to pay any money or its equivalent, to, or for, or in aid of, any candidate at an election, or to, or for, or in aid of, any political party, committee or association, or to, or for, or in aid of, any company incorporated for political purposes, or to, or for, or in furtherance of, any political purposes whatever, or for the indemnification or reimbursement of any person for moneys so used." Any person who violates this provision is declared to be guilty of an indictable offence, and is liable to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years or both.

This section is an adaptation of Section 36, of the Dominion Elections Act of 1908 which stated that "no company or association other than one incorporated for political purposes alone" shall contribute to the financial support of any candidate, with the difference that the provision of the Act now under discussion says that "no unincorporated company or association, and no incorporated company or association other than one incorporated for political purposes alone" shall do that wicked thing. Obviously, this is a more sweeping prohibition than the old section and undoubtedly if properly enforced would be a formidable obstacle in the way of the farmers' political campaign or the campaign of any other element similarly situated. The old section, however, like other parts of the electoral laws of this country, was not enforced, but we imagine that considering the political menace of the agrarian movement to the Government it would not be so completely disregarded by the Dominion authorities in the next election if it were passed by Parliament.

THEY COME HIGH.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries told the House of Commons a few days ago that steel ships had been built for the Government in Canada for $167.50 per ton, which was considerably less than similar vessels were being constructed for in the United States. Thus a ship of 7,500 tons at that rate costs $1,256,250. In Great Britain last year the building of a vessel of that size cost $232,000, or about $1,127,520.

These figures represent an enormous advance in the cost of ship construction: in the last decade, particularly during the war. In 1908 a complete new 7,500-ton cargo steamer was turned out of British yards for $36,000, or less than $180,000. Just before the outbreak of the war a vessel of the same kind was built for $125,000, or about $200,000. By the end of 1914 the cost had jumped to over $60,000. At the end of 1916 it was about $187,000. Then the cost began to decline and in 1917 it was about $165,000. In 1918 it was $169,000.

Last year there was another tremendous advance; the cost of this 7,500-ton vessel, which early in 1914 was turned out for only $42,500, was $232,000, representing a five-fold increase. Notwithstanding these abnormal construction figures a very large amount of shipping is being placed on the trade routes, the estimate of new tonnage this year being some 12,000,000. As construction costs are high in all the countries which are building ships on a large scale they are practically on the same basis in respect of this aspect of operation charges.

Eventually, these costs must be greatly reduced; they are being paid now simply because the countries which are paying them must have the ships regardless of expense. That condition, like most other abnormal conditions arising from the war, will pass away, and while the cost of a 7,500-ton ship may never be as low as it was ten years ago, it ought to be within a reasonable distance of the figure immediately prior to the war.

VALUES OF FARM LAND.

The average value of farm land for the Dominion, including improved and unimproved land, together with the value of dwellings and other farm buildings, is placed at $52 per acre, as compared with $46 last year; $44 in 1917; $41 in 1916; $40 in 1915; $38 in 1914 and in 1910. This shows an enhancement in value of farm lands of $14 or 36 per cent. in five years. By provinces, the value is highest in British Columbia, being $174 as compared with an estimate unit value of $149 per acre in 1917 and 1918. Ontario, with an estimated average value of $66 per acre, and Quebec with $72 per acre are above the average for the Dominion. Last year both Ontario and Quebec had the average value of farm lands at $57 per acre. In Prince Edward Island the average value of farm lands has risen from $44 per acre, the highest previous value, to $51. Nova Scotia also shows an increase from $36 per acre in 1918 to $41 in 1919. New Brunswick valued its farm land at $19 per acre in 1910, $29 in 1916 and 1917; $35 in 1918 and $32 in 1919. The value of farm lands in Manitoba, while fluctuating between $29 in 1910 and $32 in 1918, rose to $35 per acre in 1919. In Saskatchewan farm lands were valued at $32 as compared with $29 per acre in 1918 and $24 in 1914, and Alberta lands increased in value from $21 per acre in 1914 to $27 in 1917 and $29 in 1919.

REPORT ON THE BRITISH CIVIL SERVICE

(The Manchester Guardian)

The National Whitley Council sub-committee report on the reorganization of the civil service, which was published recently, has been on the whole well received. Its leading feature is that by agreement a great many grievances are settled in a reasonable manner. Since the Royal Commission reported in 1914 it has been abundantly clear that the whole organization of the civil service would have to be reviewed, and the verdict of civil servants to-day is that an authoritative committee of experts of all grades has made a much better job of it than outsiders could have done. The Government is, of course, pledged by implication to make Whitleyism a success, and although there are obvious defects in the report they are outweighed by the advantages gained.

We understand that the success of the committee's work is in no small measure due to the tactful handling of its discussions by Sir Malcolm Ramsay the recently appointed controller of the treasury establishments division.

THE DRAWBACKS OF LONGEVITY

(The Outlook)

Extreme longevity has its drawbacks. An English paper reminds us of this fact by quoting the story of Janos Mergess, a Hungarian, who, at the age of eighty-four, was arrested for attempting suicide by jumping off a bridge at Budapest into the Danube. This, however, was not the case of extreme longevity referred to, Janos, in explanation of his attempt to end his life explained that he was the sole support of his father and mother, and that the burden of caring for them was becoming too great for him. They were aged 115 and 110 respectively, he stated. The story goes that the statement proved to be true, and that a public subscription for the three was started, which placed them above want.

NEXT CONVENTION

AT PORT ARTHUR

Great War Veterans' Association Delegates Passed Resolutions Saturday

Montreal, March 29.—(Canadian Press)—The Dominion Great War Veterans' Association convention closed Saturday day spent in two sessions that handled largely the passing of more or less non-contentious business. Port Arthur, Ontario, was chosen one of five cities as the convention city of next year.

The Dominion executive and a delegate from each Province of the Dominion left here for Ottawa to present on Monday forenoon to the Government the resolution favoring a cash bonus to each member of the Canadian forces totalling from a maximum of $2,500 to a minimum of $1,000.

Another resolution which was passed declared against the employment of instructors in institutions of learning, of persons of German origin, thought or sympathies.

Education.

A resolution was passed on education in which it was urged that financial assistance should be provided for returned soldiers students of whom about 4,000 are now at Canadian Universities, of whom it is estimated about 60 per cent. could readily establish the need for such financial assistance. It was stated in the resolution that the average individual cost would not be more than $500 a year. An important resolution on natural resources was passed in which the Dominion and Provincial Governments were urged to take steps to preserve such resources for the people of Canada, and to prevent them being exploited for private gain.

The federal authorities were asked to take up the development of Canadian natural resources by tabulating the mineral and other resources of the unexplored parts of Canada, and by training the necessary number of returned soldiers without delay.

Yukon.

It was resolved that "this assembly memorialize the Governor-in-Council on the need of an immediate investigation into the status of all concessions and crown granted claims in the Yukon Territory."

Protection of miners' and prospectors' rights of returned soldiers, which might have lapsed since they had enlisted, also was urged by resolution.

The opening up of the Peace River block in British Columbia was urged by resolution, which asked that the Pacific Great Eastern Railway be linked up with the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway, the connection to traverse the Peace River block through British Columbia.

Trawling Schools.

The establishment on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts of trawling schools for the training of men to engage in deep sea trawling fishing, by providing a number of suitable vessels fully equipped for the purpose, also was asked in a resolution.

The final resolution dealt with peace sense licenses in British Columbia, which, it was claimed, were wholly in the hands of cannery men and Japanese fishermen. In this connection, it was resolved that "no greater number of cannery licenses should be issued than at present are held and any cannery license not used should be revoked; and that the number of Japanese of Oriental descent be reduced by one-half in 1920 of those issued in 1913, and be further reduced each year to half of those issued in the previous year, until the proportion of Oriental licenses to white men's is not greater than one in ten.

Canteen Fund.

A resolution was adopted that whereas it has been reported that approximately $2,000,000 will be allotted as the Canadian share of the profits of the overseas canteen, that such fund be used for the establishment of scholarships to promote the education of the children of former members of the C.E.F. for a period of twenty-five years, and that at the expiration of such period these scholarships be thrown open to the children of all Canadian citizens.

Among the other resolutions passed were:

OVER 145 KILLED BY STORMS IN THE UNITED STATES

Elgin, Illinois.

Elgin, Ills., thirty miles west of Chicago, where eight persons were killed, suffered approximately $4,000,000 damage, the tornado wrecking a large portion of the business and part of the residential section.

Two Storms.

The twisters which swept through Michigan and Ohio and Indiana apparently were distinct from the Illinois storm. In each instance, however, it was the same tale—wrecked houses, prostration of wire communication and a death list.

Rural Districts.

In Ohio and Indiana, however, the tornado's fury apparently was wreaked on rural districts. None of the large cities was hit, according to reports. Sweeping over the open country and semi-isolated districts, it was believed a number of persons had been killed and much property damaged.

decision with which the House of Commons is now confronted.

Affects Foreign Policy.

The Times then points out that it has held that "while the Irish problem is essentially one of British concern, in which foreigners have no title to interfere, unrest in Ireland affects to a disadvantage many aspects of home and foreign policy."

Reviewing the efforts The London Times has made to secure a settlement of the trouble, the writer considers the defects in the bill remedial and says:

"One indispensable amendment is that the area of the normal franchise should embrace the whole of the nine counties of Ulster."

Largely upon this question, it says, rest the ultimate stability of the new Irish constitution and the hope of evolving peace from the discord.

More Authority.

The newspaper also advocates giving more definite authority and representation on it to persons other than pledged extremists. Another of the newspaper's suggestions is that the financial powers withheld by the present bill should be conferred on the Council of Ireland.

Lord Dunraven, who says a majority of the people in Ireland are so convinced of the fraudulent nature of the bill as to consider its examination a mere waste of time, also favors the inclusion of the whole of Ulster in one Legislature, while Sir Horace Plunkett, who says "the state in Ireland is the worst in living memory," declares that the army of occupation can not be removed because the only Government in Ireland is the military authority, "the incompetence of which is being shown daily with tragic proof."

PLANS AERIAL FLIGHT TO SAYWARD DISTRICT

J. E. Armishaw Here to Secure Visit of Local Aviators

Sayward district, next to Comox, has received the greatest measure of publicity of any settlement on Vancouver Island, as a district extending open arms to the returned man anxious to go back to the land.

This is largely due to the activities of J. E. Armishaw. Mr. Armishaw was in town for one day last week, and spent a night at the Dominion Hotel. The main object of his journey was to purchase stock for the settlers, but he took up while he was here the question of an aerial flight by members of the Victoria branch of the Aerial League of Canada. Profiting by the knowledge that they had succeeded in a flight last summer to Courtenay, Mr. Armishaw persuaded the League officials to arrange for a flight, to take place during the warm days, by way of Courtenay, where a landing will be made, and supplies taken for the last lap over the virgin forest to the Salmon River Valley. At Sayward, where a natural prairie will be used as the landing place, a warm welcome is promised the aviators. Mr. Armishaw says there will be no difficulty to secure passengers while the Pathfinder is located there.

He announces the installation at an early date in the valley of a shingle mill, which will be of great service to the settlers. Arrangements have already been made for a sawmill.

Next-of-Kin Association—The G. W. Next-of-Kin Association held their regular meeting on Friday last. There was a good attendance, many members being present who had been absent lately through sickness. Mrs. Sargeant, of Marigold, who has spent several months in England, was warmly welcomed "home." Matters of importance in connection with the Memorial Home were discussed, and the hospital report issued by the Kiwanis Club (which had unavoidably been left over) was read at length by the president. Several garments were turned in by the sewing committee and any further articles in either new or warm clothing can be left at the home, as there is still urgent need. Mrs. Woodley, convener of entertainment, reported having had arrangements for the final dance of the season to take place on Tuesday of Easter week in St. John's Hall. The ed with the Local Council of Women, the annual meeting held recently, and pressed themselves as keenly interested in the addresses then given.

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Social Personal

The following announcement from the Vancouver Daily Province will be of interest to local friends of the young couple: "A wedding which united two well-known Vancouver families was that solemnized in St. Paul's Church this afternoon when Miss Bina Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Taylor, Comox Street, became the bride of Lieut. C. W. Stoess, R.N.V.R., son of Mrs. H. St. J. Montzambert. The wedding was of a naval character, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold King. The bride, a charming figure in her white satin gown, the train of which hung from the shoulders and was embroidered in pearls, with a veil of old Honiton lace caught with orange blossoms and Scotch heather, entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away. Her shower bouquet was of white roses, and she was attended by her sisters, the Misses Lottie and Eileen Taylor, and Miss Mary Ross. Miss Lottie Taylor's frock was of blue silk net with a tulle picture hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Eileen Taylor and Miss Mary Ross, the younger bridesmaids, wore charming beffuffed frocks, the former of pink and the latter of delicate shades of yellow, and both carried baskets of flowers. Lieut. Howard Gibbons, R.N.V.R., of North Vancouver, was the groomsmen. The church was beautifully decorated with lilies, daffodils and palms, and ushers wearing naval uniform escorted the guests to their seats. Following the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The gift of the bride and bridegroom to Miss Lottie Taylor was a pretty handbag, and to the two bridesmaids jewel cases each containing a ring. Early in the evening, Lieut. and Mrs. Stoess left for Okanagan, where they will spend their honeymoon, the latter traveling in a tailored suit of navy blue with taffeta hat to match. Upon their return they will reside in Vancouver."

McEwan, 3816 Glen Drive, was united in marriage to Thomas A. Lamb, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lamb, 3579 Trinity Street. Rev. A. E. Mitchell officiated. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a smart suit of mole colored broadcloth, with beaver trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and violets. The bridesmaid, Miss Isabelle Brown of Victoria, cousin of the bride, wore a smart fawn poplin, with large hat trimmed with French flowers, and corsage bouquet of carnations. Mr. Thomas Godfrey supported the groom. The groom's gift to the bride and bridesmaid were pearl necklaces, to the best man a signet ring. During the signing of the register Miss Isabelle Taylor, of Victoria, cousin of the bride, sang "Because." Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were decorated in the Seaforth colors, the bridegroom and best man having served with the Seaforth Highlanders. A four-tier wedding cake centred the table, which was decorated with daffodils and carnations, and covers were laid for thirty guests. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Lamb will reside at 3516 Glen Drive. They were the recipients of many handsome gifts.

OAK BAY BOY SCOUTS ENTERTAINED MOTHERS

The Oak Bay Troop of Boy Scouts, and the Grant Street Wolf Cubs entertained their mothers to tea on Saturday afternoon at their headquarters, Oak Bay. Over sixty ladies attended, and had tea with their sons, who waited upon them, serving and looking after the refreshments. The ladies who appeared to thoroughly enjoy themselves, were received by the Scoutmaster, Seymour Greene, who welcomed them in a short speech in the names of their sons serving in the Troop and Pack. He pointed out that the boys were all aiming, like the Knights of old, at higher service to the state, unselfish service which would lead them naturally to be leaders of the future, "handing down to those who come after us, that heritage we have all inherited from our forefathers, and in their turn teaching true citizenship of devotion to duty."

Mr. Mooney spoke briefly as chairman of the Local Scout Association, pointing out that the work saw was going on all over Victoria, and he hoped the ladies would interest their husbands in the Boy Scout movement. The Oak Bay Troops now was composed of four Patrols, and the Wolf Cubs were sixty strong, he said. An interesting ceremony was performed, the investiture of two tenderfoot Scouts. After the tea Mrs. H. E. Young moved, seconded by Mrs. Cree, a hearty vote of thanks to Seymour Greene the Scoutmaster and Cubmaster of the Troop and Pack respectively, voicing her own personal thanks as a mother, which she tendered from the bottom of her heart for the high ideals set before the boys. The boys gave three cheers for their Scoutmaster with a great will, and the formal proceedings ended with the National Anthem, played by Patrol Leader Donald Adams.

The Oak Bay Troop presented a fine appearance lined up in their Patrols, and the Wolf Cubs with their neat uniforms, expressing repeatedly their great appreciation of the whole affair, and their entertainment. The Scoutmaster was ably assisted by Assistants R. M. Green and L. Sykes, who also assisted at the ceremony of the making of a Scout.

PRESENT PROGRAMME SHOWS PAGEANT WILL BE GREAT SPECTACLE

Special Committee Arranging Hudson's Bay Co.'s Display Hears of Plans

There is no doubt but that the pageant to be staged here in May by the Hudson's Bay Company to commemorate its 250th anniversary, will be the most spectacular event ever witnessed in this city. At a special meeting this morning of the committee which is arranging the details in connection with the pageant a tentative programme was submitted.

C. H. French, Manager of the Hudson's Bay Company, informed the committee that it was almost certain that the pageant would be held here on May 23. This date had met with the approval of Sir Robert Kindersley, Governor of the company, who will head the parade, he said.

Leading Parade.

It is expected that the street parade, which will be made up of gorgeous floats of an historic and educational value, will start at 11 o'clock in the morning. At the head of the parade will be the governor's carriage in which will ride Sir Robert Kindersley, the Lieutenant-Governor and Premier Oliver.

In the afternoon arrangements are being made to hold a great Indian gala at the Gorge. All the events will be for the Indians, no whites being admitted. It is expected that between 300 and 600 Indians will be brought here to participate. An encampment will be made near the Craigflower bridge and at the conclusion of the races it is probable that a large and fancy pipe of peace will be smoked around a big fire at the camp by the Indians and leading whites.

Elaborate Fireworks.

Fireworks of a most elaborate nature will fill in the evening. Shows will be moored in the harbor and all the fixed pieces of artillery will be illustrative of historical events in connection with the life of the company. This display will be a departure from the usual display of rockets, flares and bombs.

In order to make the parade an event long to be remembered the committee has decided to call together representatives of all local bodies with a view to have them place floats in the parade. The company will have a large number of floats, accompanied by trappers, Indians and bandmen dressed as 18th century cavaliers. The twenty cavaliers cost $12,000 and were specially made in Winnipeg.

It is expected that the C. P. R. will build a forty-foot model of the famous steamer Beaver, which was the nucleus of the present palatial coasting fleet.

Another interesting feature of the parade will be the carriage of Sir James Douglas, chief factor of the Hudson's Bay Company and second governor of Vancouver Island.

Making Contrasts.

Every effort is to be made to create a contrast between the early days and present conditions. It is expected that the famous old "DeLuge" will be drawn in rear of the present pumping engine. Models of the headquarters and models of the palatial steamers operating to-day may probably be placed side by side with the Beaver.

Tentative Programme.

The part of the parade arranged by the Hudson's Bay Company will be along lines somewhat similar to the following:

1. Governor's carriage, with escort of mounted police.
2. Two heralds, walking, celebrating the Hudson's Bay Company's 250th anniversary.
3. Six mounted heralds, two carrying triangular B. C. Crest on banners, four carrying Governor's flag, house flag, St. George's flag and Canadian ensign.
4. Twenty bandmen, in costumes of 1870 cavaliers.
5. Float, The Company's coat of arms.

13. Standard bearer, with banner: "The Hudson's Bay territory in 1670 was larger than half of Europe."

If Strength Declines As Age Advances Follow This Suggestion

So many women grow old before their time, perhaps four wife or sister. A little while ago, buoyant, full of vigor and activity — she enjoyed life and imparted pleasure to the whole family; but now in a few short years she has faded and lost color and strength. She is just ready to develop some disease that will further weaken and debilitate. You remember how it began, failure of appetite, tired in the morning, found housework burdensome, always nervous and a little irritable. It is a shame to let her go down hill further when you can build her up so quickly with Ferrozone. The change this nourishing tonic makes in a weak woman is surprising. It gives great zest for food, increases appetite and digestion enormously. The blood gets richer and stronger and adds new life to every organ in the body. A rebuilding process works through the entire system. The first week will show an improvement, and a month or two will fatten up the thinnest, most run-down woman you ever saw. Take Ferrozone for lost color, for nervousness, for weakness—use it when run-down and feeling poorly — it will do you more lasting good, keep you in better health, or direct by mail from the Cattarhooze Co., Kingston, Ont.

MOTOR MEN PREPARE FOR GREAT RACE MEET

Motor dealers at their luncheon at the Dominion Hotel to-day discussed the race meet which it is proposed to hold here on May 22, instead of May 24, as that date will be taken up with the Hudson's Bay Company's historical pageant.

R. J. Jameson presided. Mayor Porter, Alderman Sangster, C. H. French, of the Hudson's Bay Company; J. O. Cameron, president of the Board of Trade; Charles L. Harris, of the Island Automobile Club, also attended.

R. A. Miller, who is managing the race meets this year in the Northwest cities, said that the greatest collection of racing machines ever got together on the Pacific will come to Victoria to provide thrills.

Precautions are to be taken against accidents that happened last year because of the dust and the stones that were scattered from the track among the spectators.

C. H. French, head of the Hudson's Bay Company here, said that 600 Indians from all parts of Vancouver Island will be camped on the upper part of the Gorge over May 24 in connection with the historical pageant the company is staging here.

Alderman Sangster said that the city could co-operate with the motorists in getting the track watered steadily for a week before so that the dust will be properly laid.

Secretary Finn, of the Board of Trade reported that the gross receipts from the meet last year were $3109, of which $140 went to the Orphans' Home.

MILK FLOWED WHEN MOTORS COLLIDED

Milk and cream by the quart flew into the air and then flowed down the street gutters, glass from bottles, headlights and windshields crashed and was broken into bits on the pavement, when a light delivery motor of E. T. Raper and the six-cylinder passenger car of Capt. James Torrie Douglas, of the Oak Bay Hotel, collided at Irving and Crescent Roads on January 19.

The whole story of the crash and how Capt. Douglas, when the excitement died down, found his car piled up on the boulevard, was told Judge Lammiman in the County Court today by a series of witnesses, including Mrs. Gertrude Douglas.

Leslie Claxton Deacon, who was driving the Raper motor, swore that Capt. Douglas was driving in a "wiggling and wobbling way" before the two cars met at the corner.

Capt. Douglas took the box and swore that Deacon came along "at a frightful rate of speed." The captain denied that he was driving on the wrong side of the road.

So interesting were the stories told of the crash, that Judge Lammiman took the whole court out to the scene this afternoon.

Rapers, represented by H. A. Maclean, K. C., are claiming $147. Capt. Douglas, represented by W. H. Bullock-Webster, has put in a counter claim of $497.

TO PASS VICTORIA'S DOOR

Dominion Trade Exhibit to Come
From Antipodes to Vancouver.

Apparently there is a deliberate attempt to "sidetrack" Victoria again, or else the people of Great Britain have not heard of Victoria as a place where business of any moment is transacted, to judge from a preliminary announcement with regard to the itinerary of the Dominion Trade Exhibit.

The circumstance is made more flagrant by the fact that the programme plans taking the exhibit from New Zealand past Victoria to Vancouver, where the first exhibition on Canadian soil will be given.

The route is by way of South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada, back to London.

WOMEN'S BRANCH.

The week ending March 27 in the Women's Branch showed a surplus of vacancies over workers. There were 68 vacancies reported, and 26 applicants for work, of which 14 were for factory work, the greater part of the remainder being domestic. There were 26 vacancies in factory work, the greatest number yet asked for in this line of work. In all there were 27 placements made. The casual work for the first time recorded more applicants than work. There were 29 applications made for a day's work, 21 vacancies reported and 18 placements made.

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is:
"Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, robbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves undergoing Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Cliff-ford, N.S., writes: "I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting as I used to get so short of breath. Exercisors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a dif-

GAVE FINE RENDERING "OLIVET TO CALVARY"

Large Congregation at St.
John's Church Last Night
Heard Sacred Cantata

A large congregation assembled in St. John's Church last evening, when the choir, under the capable leadership of Mr. George Jennings Burnett, organist and choirmaster, gave an exquisite rendering of Maunders' Sacred Cantata, "Olivet to Calvary."

The Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick gave a brief outline of the story of the Cantata, which deals with the closing scenes of Our Lord's life upon earth, and includes "The Last Supper," Gethsemane, the Judgment Hall, ending with the tragedy of the Crucifixion.

The choir gave a most devotional interpretation of the work. Their singing throughout showed that not only had they mastered the musical setting, but they had also given great consideration to the text. It was truly a sermon in song, and the members of the congregation were deeply impressed with the beauty and solemnity of the wonderful story. In the choruses the members of the choir were excellent, and special praise should be accorded their singing in the unaccompanied choruses. The pitch and tempo were maintained throughout these, and the singing was full of confidence. The climax of the last chorus was very effective, the accompaniment to this being effectively brought out by the organist, who has at his command all the facilities of a magnificent organ. A very pleasing feature also was the beautiful chorus, "Droop, Sacred Head." The work of the sopranos at the opening of this chorus was beautiful. They take up the lovely melody first and they sang as if with one voice, so exquisitely did the voices blend.

The solo work was entrusted to the members of the choir, and all acquitted themselves nobly. Miss Mary "urdy" was the soprano soloist, and sang with great feeling, being especially effective in the solo, "Was There Ever Loneliness Like His?" The tenor solos were divided between Mr. Smith and Mr. Yates, who, along with Mr. Young (baritone), were making their debut as soloists. Their work reflects great credit both to themselves and to Mr. Burnett for his careful training. Mr. White and Mr. Rowley did well with the bass solos entrusted to them. All of the soloists sang with that reverence which is so essential in the proper presentation of such a Cantata, and this was in a large measure responsible for the lasting impression made upon the listeners.

Mr. Burnett and the choir are to be congratulated upon their efforts, and the congregation also should congratulate itself upon the fact that it has a choir which, under Mr. Burnett's leadership, devotes itself so whole-heartedly to the work of providing music, worthy of the great services of the Church. That the congregation is appreciative of their efforts was demonstrated by the many expressions of pleasure, heard at the conclusion of the service last night.

C. P. R. OFFICIALS FINISH THEIR TOUR

Will Urge Thousands of Passengers to Visit Island
This Summer

The big party of C.P.R. passenger agents which this morning completed its tour of Vancouver Island, spent Sunday seeing further Island beauties on the Saanich Peninsula. The visitors went for motor drives all about Victoria to Gordon Head, Brentwood, Deep Bay and many other points during the day, and also make themselves acquainted with Colwood and Oak Bay golf links.

This morning they left for Vancouver on board the Empress of Russia, every one of them imbued with the idea that Vancouver Island is one of the beauty spots of the continent. More important, they intend to disseminate this knowledge among the thousands of travelers they will encounter during the summer.

There is no doubt that the party of C.P.R. men is one of the most important which has visited the Island for many months, declared Alderman Patrick who, with Alderman Todd met the visitors at Duncan and accompanied them to Victoria Saturday night. "The trip was purely of a business nature, and each member of the party kept his eye open to see everything of interest on the island. The trip was a very pleasant one, and will be a tremendous factor in this year's tourist trade which, as a result, should increase very greatly. Each member of the party will spread the good word about the beauties of the Island and of Victoria and will urge all passengers passing through their hands to be sure to come here."

DUE TO EXCHANGE

Why Advance Was Made to F. G.
Wade, Agent-General in London

Legislative Press Gallery,
March 29.

The adverse condition of exchange was given as the reason for advancing to F. C. Wade, Agent-General in London, the sum of $583 on account of salary last August, by the Minister of Finance.

In reply to answers placed on the order paper by J. W. Jones, the Minister of Agriculture stated that the conference held at Smithers last Summer cost $1,386, and that the Government had borne this expense. Mr. Barrow stated that the amount named included the cost of a trip of inspection to Telkwa, Vanderhoof, Burns Lake and Francois Lake districts.

Questions asked by R. H. Pooley with regard to the probable letting of a contract to the Marsh, Bourne Company for the Sumas reclamation work were not answered by Hon. E. D. Barrow, that Minister declaring it not in the public interest to do so.

One half of Canadians live in towns. The products of farms, forests, mines and fisheries are the output of a population averaging less than one man to the square mile.

GIVEN SIX MONTHS FOR BEATING WIFE

Egan Phinney Refused to

CHINESE CONSUL PROTESTS CLAUSE

Objects to Discriminating Rule Against Employing Whites
in Chinese Premises

"This is a very distressing case, and indeed a very serious case. You induced this young woman to come here many thousands of miles away from her relatives and friends. She became your wife and expected you to protect and respect her, instead of which you have cowardly and brutally assaulted her. This is a very serious offence under the Criminal Code, and one for which I must punish you. You are sentenced to six months' imprisonment."

This was the judgment of Magistrate Jay in the charge against Edgar Phinney, of assaulting and committing grievous bodily harm to his wife.

No Reason For Assault.

On Saturday the Magistrate heard the evidence of Mrs. Phinney, in which she told in graphic details of the serious assault which had been committed against her by her husband. The accused pleaded guilty to the charge, but failed to give any reason for his action. As a result of the peculiar stand of Phinney the court remanded the case in order to have him examined. This morning the medical authorities announced that Phinney was sound and sane.

The Magistrate gave the accused another opportunity to make a statement, but he did not avail himself of it. His facial expression remained unchanged throughout the proceedings, and he accepted the comments and sentence without a move.

MORE PLACEMENTS AT LABOR BUREAU

Industrial Stimulus Is Given by Success of Shipowners' Flotation

Employers' orders and placements effected in the past week, according to S. Harvey Creech, manager of the Employment Service Office of Canada, Provincial Government Office, Langley and Broughton Streets, have increased 100 per cent. over the week previously.

Mr. Creech thinks the increased demand is due to the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., having successfully floated their scheme. This, he thinks, has given others more confidence, and they are starting minor operations that were dependent more or less on the general prosperity of the city. The demand for out-of-town employees still keeps strong. Loggers, farm hands, and quartz miners being mostly in demand, while there is still a demand among machinists, lathe hands and fitters.

The professional and business branch of the employment service reports business in that line rather dull, there being little demand for those seeking situations and registered under this heading. Employees registered, 122; vacancies notified by employers, 76; employees placed, 61; casual placements effected, 35.

MRS. ALFRED WATT TO LECTURE BEFORE I.O.D.E.

Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., will give an address on "The Dawn of Empire in Rural England" at the I. O. D. E. rooms, Jones' Building, on Tuesday, under the auspices of the Robert Valentine Harvey Chapter. This is one of Mrs. Watt's celebrated lectures delivered among other places, before large meetings of the Victoria League and League of the Empire in London, before Sheffield University with the famous Dr. Fisher, President of the Board of Education, in the chair; at the City Hall in Toronto, before the Hon. J. H. Drayton, Minister of Finance, as the other speaker, and at the Technical School in Toronto, Dr. Helen MacMurchy, in the chair at the latter meeting, stated that this lecture was the finest address of the true spirit of a democratic empire ever given in Toronto. Mrs. Watt gives throughout many striking examples of how rural England became linked up with Canada, with personal anecdotes of well-known people.

Mrs. Watt has just received a beautiful illuminated address, a presentation from the Women's Institutes of Derbyshire, in recognition of her special work in that county. The Derbyshire Women's Institutes Federation has for its president Her Grace the Duchess of Devonshire.

Never Disappoints

No other piano has been honored by so many of the world's greatest musicians and singers as has the Steinway. Whenever the most celebrated artists appear on concert tour—there you will find the Steinway.

OTTAWA FANS HAD SET CELEBRATION

But Seattle Septette Won on Merits and Prolonged Series

Ottawa, March 29.—Proving their claim that they are essentially a hard ice team, the Mets of Seattle, Saturday night decisively defeated the Ottawa Senators, champions of the National Hockey League, by a score of 3 to 1, and thereby prolonged the series, the next game of which will be played on Toronto ice on Tuesday next.

Surprise of the Season. The result of Saturday night's game was the great surprise of the Ottawa season. There was not one Ottawa fan who had witnessed the two earlier games of the series who thought that the westerners had a chance, and the majority of the 7,000 persons in the rink had gone to greet the new world's champions; in fact, the Ottawa management had arranged a banquet to celebrate the return of the Stanley Cup to the possession of the Ottawa team.

Completely Puzzled. The Mets showed a complete reversal of form. They had learned much in the series and adopted tactics similar to those of the Ottawas in Wednesday night's game, and in consequence, the Senators were completely puzzled after the first fifteen minutes of play. The westerners combined brilliant individual feats with dazzling team work and won on their merits throughout. In the early games of the series the Mets never varied their play. Each player rushed the same side of the rink, executed the same tricks and got into the same position, with the result that the Ottawas always were lined up in the right spot whenever danger threatened. Saturday night all this was changed. There was variety in attack and defence and Ottawas were helpless before it.

Completely Exhausted. Darragh and Nichor left the ice in the final period completely exhausted. The match established a record of Stanley Cup hockey inasmuch as not one penalty was handed out. It is remarkable in view of the stirring manner in which the match was contested.

Faster Ice. While the ice was much faster than in previous games, there was a slight coating of water, but the conditions evidently suited the Mets. Ottawas opened with whirlwind speed and gave Holmes a busy five minutes before Boucher scored. Then, for nearly ten minutes longer, Ottawa had the advantage, but when Foyston scored the second goal in thirteen minutes the westerners had taken the lead.

VICTORIA GRANTED PLACE IN LEAGUE

Pacific International Circuit Will Start Operation May 5

Vancouver, March 29.—One of the most promising years in the history of baseball in the Pacific Northwest is in store for the new Pacific International League, it is declared. A spirit of keen enthusiasm prevailed with directors and a feeling of optimism was unanimous at Saturday's meeting. It was announced that most all the teams are now fully lined up and will be ready to commence operations on May 5, the day on which it was determined to start the schedule. On that day Seattle will open at Vancouver, Victoria at Tacoma and Yacoma at Spokane. The necessary guarantees being produced, Victoria, B.C., was officially granted the sixth franchise in the league. The finals will be played in Seattle, Vancouver, Tacoma, Spokane and Yakima. One of the most important decisions of the meeting was that by which the rates of admission will increase this year from 35 and 65 cents, as formerly, to 40 and 70 cents. This action was taken owing to the increased cost of everything in baseball. It seems that the diamond game has also felt the influence of the general forward trend of prices.

Mr. H. Burnett, president and treasurer of the league, declares the outlook "most wonderful." This league, he asserts, will be to the Northwest what the Pacific Coast League has been to the southern littoral cities. From all angles the president regards the future with optimism. A good spirit is prevailing in all league towns and substantial support is anticipated this year everywhere. During the course of the proceedings the president announced that all clubs have qualified for admission, including Victoria. Collectively the clubs have put up bonds to the amount of $100,000, which gives the league as a whole a feeling of confidence and solid backing.

J. Duthie, president of the Seattle club, took a prominent part in the transaction of the business on the table. He, with others, is exceedingly favorably impressed with the 1920 outlook and will have a strong team lined up for the pennant contest. Those present at the meeting were: Mr. H. Burnett, president and treasurer, Tacoma; John Barnes, secretary, Seattle; Guy E. Kelly, attorney, Tacoma; Robert F.

CANADIAN RING TITLES AT STAKE NEXT MONTH

Arthur Manson, President of the B. C. branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, has received a telegram notifying him that Canadian boxing championships have been awarded by the Canadian championship committee to the Ottawa Amateur Athletic Federation, to be held April 23 and 24. Entry blanks will follow, the telegram states. Mr. Manson is also informed that Olympic boxing trials will be held two months later.

Brown vice-president, Vancouver; Cliff E. Blenkenship, Spokane; Tesley Raymond, Yakima; John Seigle, Roger Peck and Frank Scobey, Tacoma; W. T. Duthie, Seattle; G. G. Howlett and Thos. Hicks, Victoria; R. G. Purdy, Vancouver.

The spital will be permitted but other freak balls are prohibited in the P.I.L. for this year. This was decided at the afternoon session of the directors' meeting. National commission rules were adopted by the league; also a new constitution.

Eight Victorians After Bostock Cup; Easter Events at Oak Bay Links

Eight Victoria golfers of the Oak Bay Club will invade Vancouver during Easter week to compete for the Bostock Cup, emblematic of the B. C. championship, which is to be played for over the Shaughnessy Bay course. The cup has previously always been competed for in Victoria. A. V. Macan who lost to the present holder, Robert Bone, of Vancouver last year, will probably make another bid to recover the title.

Attractive events have been arranged on the Oak Bay course for Easter week as follows:

Good Friday.

Sweepstake of 18 holes against par. Full handicap allowed—This competition can be played off in 4 ball matches if desired. First, Second and Third prizes. Post entries.

Easter Monday.

COMRADES AND WESTS WIN SOCCER GAMES

Ex-Soldiers Beat Mets Five-One; Wests Beat A. and N. Only Goal Scored

The Comrades, backing up Fred Abraham's confident forecast, and the Victoria West eleven were winners in Saturday's Brown Cup soccer games, the Comrades adding to their pile of goals by beating the Metropolitans, five to one. The Wests beat the Army and Navy by the only goal of the game.

The A. and N. eleven put up a great battle against Jack Youson's men from Victoria West. Up to half time not a goal had been registered by either side, and then with the second half nearly half way over Peden put the Wests ahead. Leeming had made a save, but Peden followed it up, and sent it into the net before the A. and N. goalkeeper could clear.

The Comrades had little difficulty in beating the Intermediate League champions, and until the last few minutes play held them scoreless. Lomas, however, was called upon to make several fine saves from hard shooting Mets forwards.

FIVE C'S CRICKETERS COMPETE FOR PRIZES

Will Run One Team in Cup Race and Have Reserve Team

Four Prizes.

No less than four prizes will be awarded this season, so there is plenty of encouragement to "go in and win."

The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Bishop Schofield; hon. vice-presidents, Mesdames Duns-muir and Thornburn, Lieut.-Governor Prior, ex-Chief Justice Wetmore, Col. Andrews, Col. Jones, Major B. H. T. Drake, Dr. Leader, Dr. C. D. Holmes, ex-Alderman Harvey and Messrs. F. R. Pemberton, F. H. Worlock, Johnson and W. Agnew; president, Very Rev. April 7 has been set as the date for the next boxing tournament in Victoria, the Victoria Boxing Association staging the show at the Crystal Theatre.

Claud Forner promises to bring over five or six speedy performers from Seattle.

The local Badminton players who feared Vancouver would walk over them in every event have reason to be pleased with the results of the Island championship games.

The owner of the Chicago Cubs has offered a trophy to the Pacific Coast League Club making the best showing against the ex-National League champions in their preliminary season games with nines there.

Princeton A. A. spent nearly $7,500 for its varsity and freshmen teams last fall. Supplies such as shoes, jerseys, pants, stockings, etc., totaled $2,849.49, while freshmen eleven equipment cost $422.77.

Two interesting soccer games are down for Good Friday. In the morning the Comrades and Harbor Marine play a Jackson Cup semi-final game at Royal Athletic Park.

In the afternoon a team from Nanaimo will stack up against a Victoria selection.

There were about 37,000 spectators at the football semi-final at Sheffield Saturday and 35,000 at the game in London.

VICTORIA NEWSPAPER MEN WIN BASKETBALL

The Victoria newspaper men's all-star quintet handed out a 30 to 21 defeat to the Province basketball players at Vancouver Saturday night. In a fast game the home players opened the score, but the visiting team drew even and took the lead before half time, and had a slight edge throughout. Veitch scored thirteen. Buckett eleven and Rideout and Harold three each for the Victoria team. Batterick played a good game at centre.

At half time Victoria was leading by a score of 16 to 13. Hard checking on both sides resulted in some injuries, Buckett having his ankle put out of joint, but finished the game much to the relief of his team mates. Several "fluke" shots added to the scores, Harold's shot from centre, and Veitch's back shot being among them. Victoria had thirteen fouls given them, Veitch netting ten of them and Buckett one.

Before departing for the boat accompanied by the Vancouver team the Victoria septette thanked Mr. Mould and his famous five for the splendid time in Vancouver, and Grice and his victors vowed to give the Vancouver boys a good time when they invaded the island city.

When "Turk" Grice and his five pets arrived at Vancouver they were met at the boat by Mr. Mould, city circulation manager of The Daily Province, and after seeing the sights of the city in an auto were the guests of Mr. Mould at tea.

CORBETT SPARS WITH FRENCH HEAVYWEIGHT

New York March 29.—James J. Corbett is confident that the contemplated fight between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier will not be a one-sided affair. In fact, he believes Carpentier has the necessary qualifications to contest in the ring for the heavyweight championship of the world.

This was the opinion expressed by the former heavyweight champion after sparring for a few minutes yesterday afternoon with Carpentier at the home of Jack Curley at Great Neck, L.I., where the French champion and his wife spent the day. It was the first time that Corbett had ever seen the pugilistic sensation of Europe.

A six team league is anticipated this season, although more definite information will be announced after the holding of the adjourned general meeting which has been set for April 6 at 8.15 at the Knights of Columbus Hut. A meeting of the executive will be held to-night to consider application for groundman.

The Five C's, Victoria Incogs and Congos are regarded as sure entries. No announcement is yet made regarding the Garrison eleven. A new team expected is the Wanderer's mainly composed of members of the rugby club of that name.

The possibility of all day matches in the Great War Challenge Cup competition is one of the matters to come up for consideration.

COAST CRICKET TITLE AT STAKE THIS YEAR

Cowichan Club Will Defend Cup Won Before War; Meeting April 6

An added feature to this season's cricket attractions will be a series for the Pacific Coast Cricket championship trophy, at present held by the Cowichan Club. Secretary Tuckey has received a letter stating that the Cowichan Club has been re-organized, and this year they intend to play a number of home and away games. They will also defend the Pacific Coast title they won before the war. The Nanaimo club is also anxious for home and away games during the season.

Jewel in an appropriate setting; a setting which contains none of the alloy of mediocrity, but which claims for its elements the pure gold of a Continuity prepared with the personal co-operation of Basil King, the able director of Wallace Worsley, interpretation by a cast which includes Naomi Childers and Milton Sills, and settings of the utmost luxuriance.

The story of "The Street Called Straight," sufficiently strong to grip the interest of millions of readers, is even more powerful and vivid in its screen presentation. The tremendous clash of four strong wills leading to a problem, the only solution of which can mean the wrecking of three lives for the salvage of one, is pictured with the vividness of a lightning bolt, the force and power of a thundering cataract.

In "The Street Called Straight," Basil King has painted with the swift, sure strokes of the master hand, four fascinating characters, all endowed with conflicting ideals, which, electrified into motive force, precipitates a baffling situation that will grip audiences.

The Story.
Revisiting the scenes of his birthplace, Peter Davenant, self-made millionaire, is invited to a dinner at the house of an old friend, Henry Guion, descendant of a family of New England aristocrats. Davenant meets once again Olivia Guion, with whom he had once been in love. He learns that she is to marry Colonel Rupert Ashley, a British officer, though he experiences no pang of regret.

Guion is a lawyer who has appropriated funds entrusted to him, to "keep up appearances," and stands on the verge of exposure—and prison. Davenant, following an impulse to do something good in the world, offers to relieve him of his embarrassment. Guion accepts. Failing to understand Davenant's altruism, and fearing to put herself in his power, Olivia urges her father against acceptance, but is unsuccessful. Colonel Ashley arrives in America to marry Olivia. Though he knows that the financial scandal in connection with his bride's family will injure his chance of advancement in the Royal Service, he stands by Olivia and even offers to make good the money that Davenant had advanced. This would involve a tremendous sacrifice on his part, which Olivia cannot accept.

Unable to accept her fiancé's offer and unwilling to marry him under such great obligations to a former suitor, Olivia finds herself facing a desperate alternative. From this point the story sweeps on to a remarkable ending in which a surprising and highly dramatic solution to the problem is presented.

BOAT RACE FEATURED IN BROWN OF HARVARD

Variety Has American College
Play With Co-Stars
in Cast

"Brown of Harvard," the sensational stage success built on life at the great Cambridge College, is now on the screen. It will be shown at the Variety Theatre this week. Hazel Daly and Tom Moore are co-stars in this picturization of the noted college story.

The story of "Brown of Harvard," of which Henry Woodruff was the speaking star, is as follows: Tom Brown, a rich student at Harvard, loves Evelyn Ames so truly that in order to shield her profligate brother, Wilton, who has become involved with Marion Thorne, he accepts the blame himself. Unaware of the truth, Evelyn renounces him.

Marion's brother, Gerald, stroke oar in Harvard's boat crew, openly accuses Tom. Hilton becomes desperate and forges Tom's name to a cheque for $300 to send the girl away from Cambridge. Victor Chilton, an unscrupulous gambler, discovers his plight and forces the youth to enter a plot with him to defeat Harvard in the Yale-Harvard boat race.

They forge Marion's name to a note saying she is in dire distress, and send it to Gerald just as the race is about to start. He refuses to row and rushes home. There he finds Marion with the cheque bearing Tom's forged signature, preparing to leave Cambridge. Snatching up a revolver he runs back to the boat-house, determined to shoot Tom as his sister's despoiler.

In the meantime Tom, as substitute stroke oar, has replaced Thorpe in the shell and won the race for Harvard. He is being cheered by the throng as Gerald appears, brandishing his weapon. How Evelyn steps in to save Tom's life and Wilton finally confesses, bringing happiness to all, is well and consistently worked out.

ANITA STEWART IN THRILLING DRAMA

Columbia Presents "Shadows of the Past," A Vitagraph Picture

Can a person live down the past? This question has been asked by millions since the beginning of time. Humanity is ever struggling to get away from the follies and mistakes of the past and start out afresh. Every day countless individuals seek to hide the skeleton, and every day some one fails because of the haunting shadows of the past.

The Hindu, with his occult practices and mysticism, believes that only the present counts. He believes that each individual is constantly building a temple, tearing out decayed and unsightly portions and replacing them with pure thoughts. With the Hindu it is the soul that counts.

In the Western hemisphere we are gradually outgrowing the past. Humanity is broadening out and looking toward the future. Man is beginning to take a man as he finds him and measure him by his present worth instead of looking to the past.

In "Shadows of the Past," in which Vitagraph features Anita Stewart, it is treated from a new angle, showing that the past in reality is nothing and that the present is all.

This picture, which will be shown at the Columbia theatre this week, is filled with tense and thrilling situations. At times one is held in breathless suspense waiting for the inevitable. A collision between an automobile and locomotive is a reality. Nothing was faked to produce this effect. The machine and the train really collide and the automobile is wrecked.

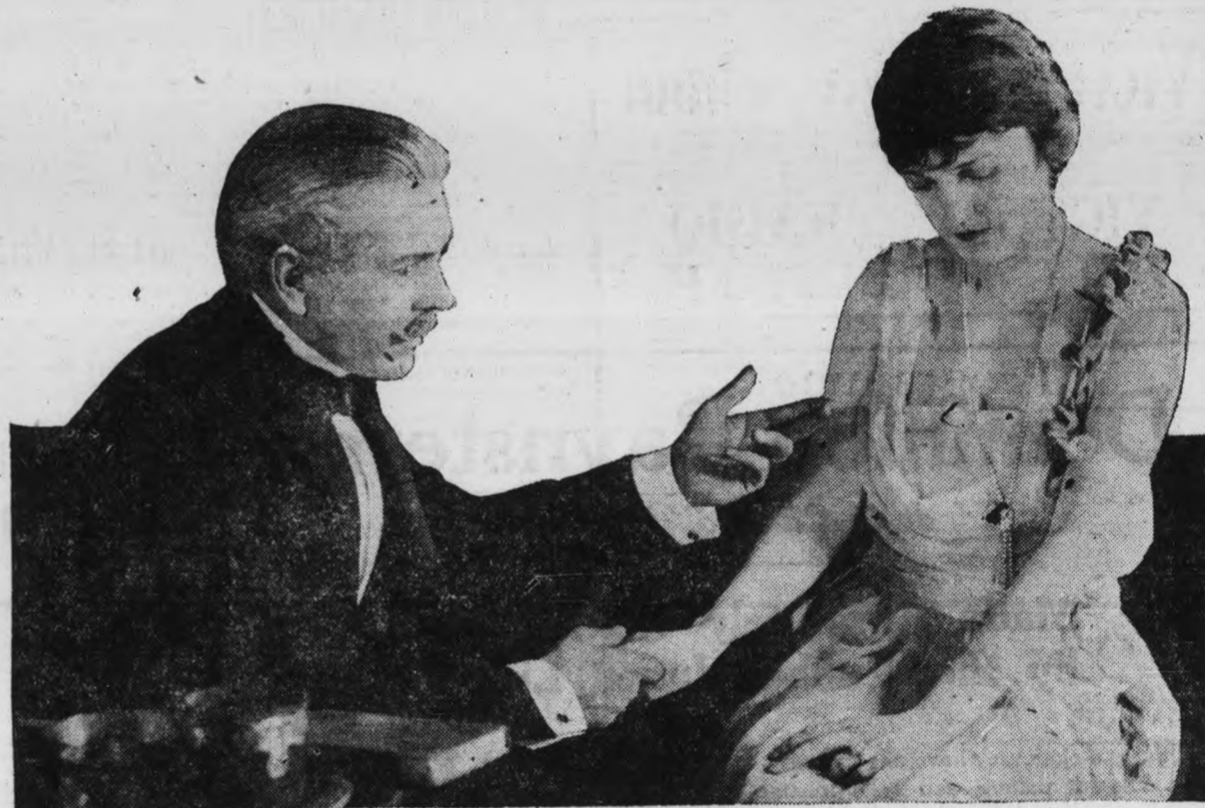

Anita Stewart reaches the height of her dramatic ability in some of the most trying situations and proves that she is equal to any emergency. She forges an entirely new personality, a new creature that is making every effort to live down the past.

WALLACE REID AT DOMINION THIS WEEK

In "Hawthorne, Adventurer," Harold Lloyd in Comedy

Wallace Reid, the well-known screen player, has the distinction of carrying to success a comedy in which another motion picture favorite starred when it was a stage play. "Hawthorne, Adventurer" was a big success on the New York stage with Douglas Fairbanks in the stellar role. Now it is shown at Dominion Theatre as a photoplay with the breezy Wallace Reid as the young American who broke the bank at Monte Carlo, then blundered into a small revolution-torn kingdom of Europe, overthrew the conspirators, put the country on an American business-like basis, and ended up by marrying the Princess who had inspired him to perform all these feats. Lila Lee, the charming little actress who is a star in her own right, is temporarily acting as Mr. Reid's leading woman and is said to give a wholly delightful performance as the Princess. Others in the unusually capable cast are: Theodore Roberts, Harrison Ford, Tully Marshall, Charles Ogle, and Edwin Stevens. The picture was directed by James Cruze and is a Paramount-Artcraft.

Harold Lloyd, the inimitable comedian, is making two-reel comedies that skill and money are combining to make masters of the comic art. Nothing is being spared to establish the pictures in the top rank of screen comedies. The most competent staff of comedians it was possible for Hal E. Roach, President of the Rolin Film Company and director of the Lloyd comedies, to secure were engaged. A bevy of beauties was corralled that will make the blasé beach "bugs" sit up and gasp! The Harold Lloyd two-reel comedies will continue to be the models of the new comedy spirit that the one-reelers were. While somewhat broad in their farcical treatment, they are clean and wholesome and at the same time clever in their satire upon men and things. The new Special $100,000 "Two-reel Lloyd Comedies" are in answer to the popular demand on the part of the public for feature comedies starring the comical youth, Harold Lloyd. The first of these big new comedies is called "Bumping into Broadway." The picture contains a real story, with Bebe Daniels supporting Mr. Lloyd in the role of a stage-struck girl. Lloyd himself hopes to write a successful musical comedy. Most of the comedy action takes place in a theatrical boarding house, behind the stage of a theatre and in a gambling house. "Bumping into Broadway" certainly sets a fast pace for the Harold Lloyd two-reelers to follow. It is showing also at the Dominion Theatre this week.

DRAMA OF EARLY WESTERN CHARACTER

Dance Hall Queen of 1849 Is Portrayed by Alma Rubens

"A Man's Country," starring Alma Rubens, which comes to the Romano theatre to-day, is a rip-roaring drama of the West of the days of '49, when men played hard and fought harder—lived fast and died faster. It was made under the direction of Henry Kolker, one of the most notable actors and directors of the leg-

GOOD ALL-ROUND BILL AT PANTAGES

C. Althoff, Premier of Rural Character Artists, Makes Big Headliner

A bill of vaudeville composed almost entirely of comedy, with the premier artist in the portrayal of rural types in the headline position, opened at the Pantages this afternoon as one of the cheeriest aggregations of the season. Charles Althoff, that premier actor referred to, has an offering of finished humor which positively captivates. He is a decided high spot in vaudeville and he gains it with voice, mannerism and an eccentric ability with a violin. His song throws the audience into a hilarious uproar and his violin music combines both comedy and art. This "Sheriff of Hicksville" is a great character study, a classic of the vaudeville stage.

The added attraction of this bill is another comedy diversion in the shape of a pantomime of "Dorville on a Busy Day." The cast is made up of actors from the dog and monkey families and the star is Rusty, one of the most talented canine actors on the stage. His portrayal of the "drunk" is a wonderful takeoff on the popular stage conception of a man in such a state of physical disability. This pantomime is a big comedy feature.

Anna Marston and Monocle Manley put across a new line of patter and a couple of new songs. His style is something to marvel at. He has a peculiar manner of laughing with the audience which gets him in solid from the first. Anna has a pleasing appearance and a nice voice. In her duet with Monocle she appears to good advantage.

"Show me" is a sketch built up on entirely new lines. The finish of it is quite a surprise. Walter Fenner acts admirably as the "fed up" city man looking for something new. Miss Hamilton and Miss Marshall portray the characters of two "vampires" who work in two entirely different spheres of the game, but with the same idea.

The Gypsy Trio, who dance eight miles in eight minutes, have a very high class offering. The lady is a clever toe dancer and the two men are exceptionally good in their Russian and Gypsy dances.

Gorman Brothers present an act entitled "Passing Show" of 1919, in which they introduce pleasing voices and a dash of comedy that puts snap into their work. This is especially true of their character duet, entitled, "Beautiful Eggs."

The latest Pathe news series and some snappy motion picture comedy are offered by the Pantagescope.

FATHERS AND SONS DINE

Successful Banquet Held in Y.M.C.A. on Saturday; Dean Quinton Spoke.

Another successful Father and Son banquet was held in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening. There were 20 dads and boys at the festive board, and the function passed off in a most pleasing manner.

Dean Quinton delivered a very forceful address in which he directed a steady flow of advice to both father and son. He advocated the erection of a new spirit of comradeship between the two, and urged the men to spend more time at home and pay more attention to their sons.

"One of the greatest blessings and safeguards a boy can have is a spirit of comradeship between the father and son," declared the dean.

W. J. Aldritt, physical director of the association, expressed the hope that every father and son would be found in one of the many classes on the gymnasium floor. Harry Cross, the Boys' Work Secretary, created much enthusiasm among the boys when he announced that the Meadlands property in Saanich would again be available for a boys' camp this Summer.

An interesting musical programme was given during the evening, including several quartette numbers by Messrs. Beckwith, Hughes, Williams and McGimpsey.

In the first picture play to come from his directing hands, Charlie Murray, one of Mack Sennett's leading comedians, has achieved a success of hilarious proportions. It is a two-reel comedy feature called "By Golly."

The value of the wardrobe worn by Gertrude Astor in the production of "Burning Daylight," has established a high mark in the annals of picture making. It is estimated Miss Astor's played to stand guard over the finery evening clothes alone could not be duplicated by any modiste for $10,000, to protect it against theft but to insure it against being handled.

SAYS BUSINESS IS GOOD IN CHINA

Captain Robert Dollar Returns After Four Months' Tour to Orient

Captain Robert Dollar, head of the Canadian Dollar Line, reached Victoria this morning on board the C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Russia, from the Far East.

Captain Dollar has been away from this coast four months investigating trade conditions and perfecting arrangements in the Orient for the operation of the new Dollar steamship service between the Far East and New York via British Columbia ports. "Excellent," ejaculated Captain Dollar when questioned as to business in the Far East. "Conditions in China generally are very good despite the continued revolutionary trouble between the North and South. To the western mind this may seem rather peculiar but it is nevertheless true. Intermittent fighting is going on in China but the interruption of business is confined to the localities where fighting is in progress. There is no general paralysis of trade as would be the case in any other country seething with revolt. I found the larger cities of southern China in a most prosperous state. Shanghai, in my opinion, is the most progressive port in China."

Interrogated with regard to the new Dollar steamship service between the Orient and New York, Captain Dollar stated that the service was working most satisfactorily. The steamship Grace Dollar, which, as the War Melody, was purchased by the Dollar Line in the United Kingdom, will shortly reach Vancouver in the new service. "We have enough boats to maintain the extended service," Captain Dollar said, "and we propose to increase the fleet when the price of tonnage drops. In making comparisons relative to the cost of steel tonnage to-day, Captain Dollar pointed out that a vessel of the size of the S. S. Robert Dollar would cost six times as much to-day.

British Columbia is assured a good service by the Dollar boats plying between the Far East and New York, the veteran shipowner stated. Victoria will be included as a port of call if sufficient cargo offers.

The Bessie Dollar, on her last trip from the Orient, called here with four hundred tons of rice, which proves the intention of the company to give this port service should the business warrant it.

When hearing port on the Empress of Russia, Captain Dollar received a wireless from the steamship M. S. Dollar informing him that she was bound from William Head to Tsingtau with 4300 coolies aboard. The M. S. Dollar cleared from William Head on Saturday. This ship is named after Mrs. Dollar, who made the Oriental tour in company with her husband.

Captain and Mrs. Dollar proceeded to Vancouver by the Empress liner.

To the Members of the Provincial Legislature and To the Electors of British Columbia

SOME controversy having arisen as a result of the introduction by the Honorable, the Premier, of an Amendment to the Provincial Elections Act extending the franchise in Provincial elections to those British subjects of the Japanese race who were members of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces during the Great War, we consider that a word from ourselves would not be out of place.

Many of us have spent nearly all our lives in British Columbia, and we have within us a love for the nation and reverence for her institutions—otherwise we should not have offered our lives that her liberty might be preserved. Some have received all their training and education in Canada, and we have felt that we have a part in the growth and life of the country.

When Canada entered the war, pledging all her resources in the support of the Empire, it was not unnatural that we should feel that, enjoying the freedom of our Canadian laws and institutions as we do, it was our privilege as well as our duty to fight for the land of our adoption. We applied for permission to raise a separate battalion to be composed of men of our own race; and, believing that we should be allowed to do this, we gave up our positions, and, at our own expense and that of our Canadian-Japanese friends, entered a course of training under British and Canadian officers. Our application was denied, and we found we could not enlist at the Coast, we paid our transportation to the nearest point where enlistment was possible, and proceeded Overseas with the Canadian Forces. Over one-fourth of our number have been killed, and all but twelve wounded.

When we were fighting in France we were invited, without any previous request on our part, to vote with our fellow-soldiers in Dominion elections. Our services were touched, and we felt ourselves to be comrades indeed with all the voters in the Canadian Forces. We cast our ballots with a thrill of gratitude at the thought that those whom we now felt entitled to call our fellow-countrymen at home had not forgotten us.

When, after our return to Canada, it was suggested by friends that any sacrifice on our part, in common with other Canadian soldiers, might receive recognition by the right to continue the exercise of the franchise which had been granted to us while Overseas, we welcomed the idea enthusiastically, and with no thought of a possible controversy.

We feel that it is cruel to say that our motives in enlisting were selfish. Our Canadian comrades will not believe that we offered our lives, and endured suffering, and so large a proportion of our number met death on the fields of France or Flanders, for selfish reasons, or for any cause less just than that of patriotism.

If the extension of the franchise to us will have an evil influence, or prejudice the welfare of the country for whose liberties we have fought, we do not wish to have the vote. We do not think that this is the case, and believe that our patriotism has been fully tried and tested. The Government's proposal seems at first to have met with public favor. We think that some of the resolutions which are reported in the press as having been passed in opposition to the proposed Government measure may not have been spontaneous, and may have been adopted without full consideration, and that even the movers and seconders of these resolutions do not actually believe that voters of our race who fought and died for the sake of Canada will be less patriotic in an election campaign, and will not be at least as trustworthy as possibly some voters of enemy alien origin, or others who did not wish to enlist.

Under the circumstances we have not expected objections to be made based either upon political reasons, for we are not connected with any political party, or from a racial standpoint, and we shall be quite satisfied with any result which may be dictated by the principles of British fair play.

SHIP CONTRACTS TO BE SIGNED NEXT WEEK

Brigadier-General R. P. Clark, Chairman of the Citizens' Committee, this morning received the following telegram, relating to the shipbuilding plan of the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., from Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture: "Do not be alarmed at delay. Am keeping in closest touch with situation. Length of time required to subscribed necessary amount has resulted in some complications, but expect to get signed up early next week."

to take over the launches and also declined to allow certain traveling expenses. This is said by the pilots to practically amount to a repudiation of the agreement arrived at through the good offices of Commander Johnson and as the three months agreement has almost expired, the navigators have decided not to renew the arrangement.

The establishment of free pilotage in these waters would not seriously affect the pilots. All big vessels would continue to take on "expert" assistance, so the men would be kept as busy as usual. Concerns such as the Pacific Steamship Co., which under the present system of compulsory charges pays thousands of dollars a year dues but never takes on a pilot, would, of course, reap considerable benefit.

Another development will probably be the employment of permanent pilots by the big steamship companies. Their duties would be to pilot only the ships of these companies in and out of B. C. harbors.

UNUSUALLY SMOOTH PASSAGE FOR MARCH

R. M. S. Empress of Russia Complete Fine Trip From Orient

"There was hardly a ripple on the surface of the ocean," was the way Captain Samuel Robinson, R.N.R., described the voyage of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services liner Empress of Russia from Yokohama to this port. The big C. P. O. S. liner made William Head early this morning after a nine-day passage, and after securing pratique at the hands of Dr. H. Rundle Nelson, docked here at 9 o'clock. The Empress brought in 450 saloon passengers and her stowage accommodated about 500 Chinese. Two thousand tons of general Oriental cargo included 350 tons of raw silk. Of the 450 first class passengers arriving by the Russia, 150 are going through to points in Europe.

The fine weather encountered throughout the trip was a great inducement to the ocean travelers to spend a great deal of the time on deck and the pastimes allowed were indulged in to the fullest extent. Officers of the liner stated that such a smooth passage in March was unusual. The Empress of Russia completed her 23rd homeward voyage. She is scheduled to sail outward April 8.

FOULED PROPELLER DELAYED DEPARTURE

Owing to a mooring cable fouling her propeller at the dock the Prince Rupert was delayed several hours in leaving for Seattle yesterday. The cable got so firmly entangled in the revolving propeller that it was necessary to warp the vessel back to her berth at the G. T. P. wharf and secure the services of a diver to unravel the tangle. As soon as "all clear" was reported the Prince Rupert swung into the stream and headed for Seattle shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Under her schedule she was due to sail at 11 a. m. At 8 o'clock to-night the Prince Rupert will sail from Vancouver for Prince Rupert and Anzac.

STEEL SHIPYARD VISITED BY MANY

Several hundred people visited the Harbor Marine yard on Sunday afternoon in response to the general invitation issued by the management. A stiff southwest breeze blowing across the yard from the harbor mouth did not deter the citizens eager to inspect progress on the two 8-100-ton steel freighters under way at the Harbor Marine yard to the order of the Canadian Government.

Cocoa and Chocolate Merger

Canadian Interests of Fry's and Lowney's, Associated.

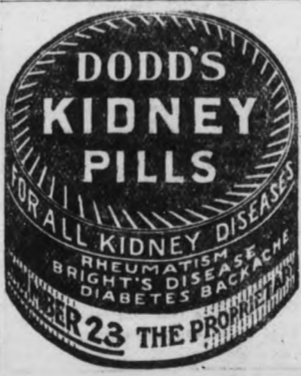

Arrangements have been made for the association of the business interests in Canada, of The Walter M. Lowney Company of Canada, Limited, and J. S. Fry & Sons, Limited, of Bristol, England.

The Walter M. Lowney Company of Canada, Limited, has a large plant in operation in Montreal, established many years ago, and has been carrying on business in all parts of the Dominion, its sales of eating chocolate and confectionery having been particularly extensive.

The firm of J. S. Fry & Sons, Bristol, was established in England in the year 1728, and, for generations, its chocolate and cocoa products have been well and extensively known in Canada and the Empire. During the past ten years these have been handled by its own branches throughout Canada. The Bristol firm has recently caused J. S. Fry & Sons, (Canada) Limited, to be incorporated by Dominion Charter, with head office in Montreal, to which it has transferred its Canadian assets. J. S. Fry & Sons, (Canada) Limited, will continue to maintain its own branches throughout Canada, and has acquired, and will promptly equip, an extensive modern manufacturing plant in Montreal, for the purpose of manufacturing and selling eating chocolate and confectionery, and the Fry Company specializes very strongly in cocoa and related products.

While the identity and good will of each Firm will be maintained and extended, it is expected that, through the association, substantial economies will be effected, both in the purchase of raw materials, and in the marketing of finished product. The two lines supplement each other, inasmuch as the Lowney Company is largely engaged in manufacturing and selling eating chocolate and confectionery, and the Fry Company specializes very strongly in cocoa and related products.

The Walter M. Lowney Company J. S. Fry & Sons (Canada) of Canada, Limited, Montreal. Limited, Montreal.

BUTTER SHOTS UP HERE, BUT PRICE BREAKS IN SEATTLE

Butter shot up four cents a pound wholesale to-day, because now there is a certainty that there will be no New Zealand butter brought in this Spring.
Normally New Zealand butter comes across the Pacific in large quantities at this time of the year, in order to make up the shortage due to the demand that local producers cannot fill. With the imported supply of local butter kept low, this year, however, England is butter hungry and has contracted for the whole New Zealand output.

ORCHARDISTS SHOULD WATCH PEAR THRIPS

Time Has Now Come When Spraying Should Begin

The attention of all owners of orchards and those who have fruit trees in their gardens is drawn by the Entomological Branch, through Mr. Downes, its representative here, to the fact that the Pear Thrips, which are among the most destructive insects on Vancouver Island, will soon be making their appearance and in fact the first comers have already been taken on apple buds. These insects emerge from the soil in the Spring and during the warm days of the first week in April are to be found in numbers in the earliest apple and pear buds. They are very small black insects, and run rapidly out of the buds when disturbed. Later on minute larvae which hatch from the eggs laid by the adults will continue the destruction. The sucking of the insects causes the parts attacked to turn black and atrophy. The crop of fruit is always reduced by their attacks, and in the case of pears and prunes generally destroyed altogether. Apples, pears, plums, prunes and cherries are the principal tree fruits attacked, but the Thrips also flourishes on various native trees and shrubs and does considerable damage to maples. As soon as they are found in numbers on the buds use the following spray: Black leaf, 40-5 oz.; whale-oil soap, three pounds; water, thirty gallons.

As much force as possible should be used to drive the spray into the buds and drench the insects. The orchardist who makes an earnest endeavor to control the Thrips should follow up this spray with another whenever the Thrips are found to be numerous on the buds, and later sprays should contain in addition to the other ingredients, lead arsenate, two and a half pounds, and a few drops of kerosene. This will also control tent caterpillars and other biting insects.

A LONG LIFE GOOD HEALTH AND VITALITY

Is the Birthright of Men and Women

It All Depends Upon Good Blood and a Normal Healthy Circulation

Men and women who are anaemic, thin, pallid, all run-down, dejected, no energy, no strength and no vitality, miss all the joy of life—no vigor, no disease, and a burden to themselves and families, and their lives are shortened by this condition.

Here is a guaranteed non-secret remedy, and if you have drifted into this condition, why not take advantage of your druggist's guarantee and give VINOL a good trial.

You will certainly find that in a very short time your appetite will improve—it will enrich your blood, quicken your circulation, and strength and vigor will be imparted to every organ and muscle in your body and the bloom of health will return and life be worth living.

The reason physicians recommend VINOL is because they know it contains iron in its most easily assimilable form, together with the tissue, flesh and strength-building elements of cod liver and beef peptones and glycerophosphates which are recognized as the best blood and body building tonics known.

TROUT FISHING OPENED QUIETLY

Too Early For Best Sport, Although Mayor Porter Made Good Catch

Except for the Mayor's phenomenal catch, reports from the fishermen contain no accounts of heavily laden baskets to mark the opening of the trout fishing season. The early weather, and although the streams are probably well stocked with trout, it is too early yet for good sport in most districts. As the flies are not hatching much during the cold weather, the fish are not feeding well, but a chance is looked for by the fishermen within the next week or two.

Way off in the woods of Salt Spring Island, where no complete about Mrs. Smith's garbage can, the broken sidewalk on Mrs. Jones' street, or the delay in the Johnson Street Bridge negotiations could reach him, Mayor Porter spent the week-end making it hot for the trout of Cushion Lake. And Saturday night he and his fellow Isaac Walton reached home completely "all in," but were fully rewarded for their labors by about fifty speckled beauties each.

The party left the city for Salt Spring on Thursday morning and, after packing in to Cushion Lake from Ganges was all ready Friday morning to usher in the fishing season. The first day of the season was a busy one for His Worship and his four companions. First they tried the fly, but it was too early in the year and the fish refused to rise. Bait proved more effective and a trowl simply hauled them in one after the other. After salting down the catch of the previous day, the fishermen returned to the lake and consumed a large portion themselves.

The Mayor and some friends own a cabin by the lake side and His Worship intends to use it again several times before the end of the season.

GORDON HEAD WATER

Committee Is Expected to Proceed to Work This Week.

For three months little has been said publicly with regard to the Saanich waterworks extension, more particularly in its relation to Gordon Head. After the late Council realized that it would be impossible to submit the by-laws at the time of the annual election, the matter has been officially pending, with little discussion in Council.

However, while the Private Bill has been on the various stages of its journey through the Legislature the officials at Royal Oak have not been idle, and it is now expected that this week it will be possible to lay some of the details of the water and sewers scheme before the Water and Sewers Committee looking to the outline of a plan for adoption in the form of a by-law for submission to the ratepayers simultaneously with the sewers by-law. The latter by-law entails a mass of engineering data, and is not, of course, in such an advanced stage.

Fruit growers in the section concerned now have no hope of extra supplies in 1920, and much will depend on the weather as to how the Gordon Head soft fruit yields in the approaching season. The details of the water scheme are awaited with considerable interest.

NOW GROW BANANAS?

C. P. R. officials from the East, who thought they had reached the height of fascination in their journey down the Island when they were presented with bouquets of violets at Duncan, had another thrill when they started in on the Duncan Board of Trade luncheon. Even Island officials with the party blushed at their ignorance of Vancouver Island when they learned that the oranges on the table, according to the programmes, were grown at Sahlham.

Although they knew that peaches could be grown around Duncan, and even grapes, it was a surprise to everybody to learn that bananas flourish at Cowichan Lake. To prove it, the Cowichan Lake bananas were served on the tables. The raisins were grown at Mount Sicker, the nuts at Cobble Hill, the early rhubarb at Koksilah and the early Spring peas at Shawnigan Lake.
