To Be Elected

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the school-going public and to those of Western North Carolina in particular, greeting : We, the Board of Trustees and the Faculty of Weaverville College, earnestly desiring a large part in the educational advancement with which the New Century begins, and fully imbued with the progressive spirit of our time, earnestly solicit your investigation as to our facilities for work, and as to the unquestioned character and ability of every man and woman belonging to our Faculty.

From the following considerations Weaverville College must be distinctively the "School of the Masses," the "Great Common People :"

The cost of board and tuition is as small as it can be made and within the reach of all.

The buildings, laying no claim to elegance, are most comfortable and commodious—being large, warm, and well ventilated.

The school, while it grants diplomas to all who complete its course, and thereby gives whatever of prestige it may have to those who can not go beyond its course, gives thorough preparation for entrance into the highest classes of our one or two first-class colleges, and also for University entrance. If the student's means are limited he may become here well educated, cultured, refined, enlarged ; if less limited, this should be to him a place of careful and thorough preparation for larger things.

Its Faculty is composed of thoroughly equipped men and women who have the "strength of life's prime."

Its course of study and every thing here given will be found exactly as represented in this catalogue—nothing exaggerated—nothing withheld—a frank and open statement to the questioning, searching, long-suffering public.

Location.

Weaverville College is eight miles northwest of Asheville, and four miles east from Alexander. It is one hundred feet higher than Asheville, "the metropolis of the mountains." The distant mountains almost encircle it. Even the casual eye is pleased ; but the sympathetic, appreciative heart goes God, ward at the earliest glance, and from the deep of human feeling, awed and reverential, comes the exclamation: "A God, with his hand, hath builded here." Altitude, latitude, good water, natural drainage, and mountain scenery, make this the resort of thousands from all parts of the world at all seasons of the year. The students are coming mountain ward. We offer health with culture.

Weaverville is a village of five hundred inhabitants, built up about the school, and having the school as a nucleus. It is comparatively new and many of its residences are very attractive. It is more like a strong, prosperous, thickly populated, country community in its arrangement than it is like a town.

Buildings and Grounds.

The main building is composed of two parts; the old building, erected about twenty-five years ago, and the new one completed in 1895. The plan on which the old building was erected was an excellent one. In 1894-'95 it was put in good condition. The old and the new parts are joined in such way as to present a well connected appearance, giving a front of 100 feet and an average depth of 90 feet.

The old building is 50 by 80 feet. The new one 46 by 90 feet.

Both buildings are of brick, two stories high. The ceiling in both is high, and the means of ventilation good.

There are in all thirteen rooms, most of them being large, and each one abundantly commodious for its purpose.

The chapel deserves especial mention, being large and nicely finished. It has a long, broad, elevated stage, well suited for public performances. It is provided with good seats, and has a seating capacity of eight to nine hundred. A large room for change of costume, etc., opens to this permanently built stage.

The Dormitory for Girls is a two story frame building thirty-eight by forty. It was completed in 1886. It is only thirty-five yards from the main building. Its location is excellent. In shape it is rectangular—almost square. There is nothing elegant in its architecture or appointments, but it is a good building, the rooms are nice and comfortable, the windows are large, and the rooms have good depth. A porch runs along the entire front. The building is already nicely furnished. The girl who goes into this building will be especially fortunate.

A Safe Place for Girls.

The girl who can not be provided with a safe place in our school will be told so and sent to the protection of her parents.

The Dormitory will be under the immediate control of Mrs. J. W. Siler, a member of the Faculty, a mature, cultured, christian woman, a woman above and beyond reproach. She attracts and holds, and her influence is not a thing to be feared, but on the other hand, a thing much to be desired. In addition to the Dormitory, other good places will be furnished as needed, and we shall keep in mind our first proposition under this head.

THE GROUNDS are high and dry, comprising six acres around the buildings, and six acres below the immediate grounds, but easily accessible. The six acres about the buildings are shaded by fine forest trees, mostly oak, and the underbrush was long ago removed from the greater part. What nature has not done for this location and for these grounds, art can not hope to do, except in the keeping.

The Faculty.

The Faculty is composed of four strong men and three excellent women. All are graduates of good standing, and professional teachers. Four of them have been in the school for several years. They have shown what they are. The others were chosen only when their competency and acceptability were so well known that there was no risk to run in making them the choice of those in authority. Each one has the particular work for which he is best fitted—including the High School and Collegiate work. The courses in Mathematics, Ancient and Modern Languages, English, Elocution, and Instrumental Music will be in charge of those who have made those branches the subject of special study and preparation. These courses will be very strong. The Sciences will not be neglected, but will be made as thorough as possible with the apparatus available.

Instrumental Music and Elocution.

The teacher in charge of Instrumental Music has had excellent advantages for study under some of the best instructors of the South, and also under Dr. Henry G. Hanchett, Director of the Central School of Musical Art, Brooklyn, N. Y., and lecturer on Musical Analysis before Columbia University, Vassar and other schools of equal note. Her work will be thorough, correct.

A competent and successful Elocutionist will be placed in charge of this work. Special lessons will be given and class elocution will also be given. An effort is being made to secure a teacher of preeminent ability and large success.

Preparatory and High School Department.

The students of this department are under the supervision of the Faculty of the College and are instructed by them most carefully.

Accommodations for Students.

Male students may find board in the homes of the village, in easy reach of grounds. Board may be had for both boys and girls at seven, eight, ten dollars per month. Where it is necessary to practice more rigid economy students may rent good rooms—there are plenty of them—and do their own work. In this way the cost of living is very small, or what they choose to make.

Young ladies and girls may also board in the village, when necessary and desirable.

Government.

The government of the student body will meet every requirement of justice, propriety, and advancement.

Entrance.

Students will call at the office of the College, enroll, and make arrangement for the expenses of the term. They are received at any time, but they should come at the beginning and stay to the end.

Board of Trustees.

Term expires 1902.

Free Scholarships.—Free tuition will be given to ministers of any evangelical denomination coming with proper endorsement. Children of ministers in pastoral work will be given tuition at half rates.

Weaverville is composed of a refined, cultured people whose general influence will be good.

Students coming by rail should start so as to arrive at Asheville or Alexander in the forenoon. They will be met at those places, if due notice is given. If delayed there, they should go to the Swannanoa Hotel.

All communications should be sent to Weaverville, N. C.

Money may be sent by registered letter or money order to Weaverville, N. C.

Express and telegraph office, Asheville, N. C.

Telephone connection with Asheville.

The number of boarding pupils the past year was seventy-five, and, by our faith in the efficacy of hard work, and well-directed effort, we venture the prophecy that there will be one hundred of them the coming year.

We earnestly ask the aid of the friends of the institution, the old students, and especially those of the past two years,

Entrance Fee.....	2.00
Diploma Fee.....	5.00
Music.....	13.50
Practice on Piano.....	2 25
Science Fee.....	1.00

The tuition in the sub-freshman work will go from $12.50 per term down, according to the grade of work done.

Each branch in the more advanced work will be taught by the teacher in charge of that department in the regular course. Hence the best of work will be secured.

Cash should be paid in advance at beginning of term or secured by negotiable note.

Interest is charged on all balances and delayed payments.

Students are charged for the whole term.

Tuition will be refunded in case of protracted illness or unavoidable absence of two weeks or more.

In no case can students enter until the entrance fee is paid.

Damage to school property must be paid for by the student who does the damage.

Examinations.

At the close of each term written examinations are conducted and each student's grade recorded. A grade of seventy in a standard of one hundred must be reached, or the subject must be reviewed.

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred on all who complete, satisfactorily, the entire Classical Course, all accounts having been settled.

Medals.

Reagan Medal, given annually for excellence in Oratory, by Rev. J. A. Reagan, M.D.

Vandiver Medal, to the best declaimer, by Mr. E. F. Vandiver.

"Mamie-Black McDowell" Medal, given annually for excellence in Elocution.

Literary Societies.

The Cliosophic, Delphian, and Entre Nous Literary Societies are very active organizations. They hold weekly meetings in halls set apart for their respective use. They award medals for excellence and improvement in debate and composition. A most energetic, but generous, rivalry exists between the "Clios" and the Delphians.

DOES IT PAY?

A Problem for School Boys...

WE have been in business in Asheville seven and a half years and have paid out for advertising alone Four Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars. DOES IT PAY? I ask this question because it concerns you as well as myself; you may say "You ought to know yourself." This concerns you because you are preparing yourself for a life work. Do you intend to advertise your business? Then how do you treat advertisements yourself? The PRICE OF THIS PAGE IS $5.00, will you help me get my money back? or will you ignore it and go to those who do not pay for your college catalogue, and buy your Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Neckwear as well as Household Goods, without a thought of your neighbor. We will see how much you reciprocate when we offer the best goods for the least money to be found in this city. Buying low and having the nerve to sell low does it.

Very truly,
