MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. David Nelson SUTTON
FROM : Mr. Henry A. DOLAN, Jr.
SUBJECT : TANAKA, Kiyoshi, KAIBUN SHO

1. Pursuant to your request for information referred to in the Brocade Banner, the attached information is offered for your examination.

2. The original text, being reprehensible literature, has been confiscated by the Imperial Government, and but two copies remain extant. Both copies are in custody of Lt. Col. DAVIS, author of the Brocade Banner. Through his courtesy one copy was loaned to this Investigator for use in preparing the attached information. It has now been returned to Lt. Col. DAVIS, but may be used again whenever it is needed.

3. Perusal of the original establishes beyond any doubt the authenticity of the aforementioned document entitled "Reprehensible Literature," whose authors were promptly executed by the Imperial Government for having written it.

4. The membership in the SAKURA KAI of HASHIMOTO, Kingoro and MUTO, Akira is established in this document. No other defendant's name appears in the SAKURA KAI roster, dated 11 July '35.

5. It is the opinion of this Investigator that complete processing, including photostating and translation, would reveal further information of benefit to the Prosecution.
