

A piece of aged, yellowish paper with handwritten Japanese text. The text is written in a cursive style. On the left side, there are two vertical columns of text. The top column starts with a large character "糖" (sugar) and continues with "石川" (Ishikawa). The second column starts with "茶" (tea) and continues with "子" (child) and "氏" (family name). In the center, there are smaller characters "三" (three) and "八" (eight). On the right side, there is a large vertical column of text starting with "摩那" (Mona) and "角" (corner), followed by "袋" (bag). At the bottom right, there is a circular stamp with the number "81618" and some illegible text. Below the stamp, the number "(44)" is written.
