GLENDALE (LOS ANGELES POSTOFFICE), LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CAL., MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1915.

PRESS DAY

invited to be present.

BOOST WHAT NEEDS BOOSTING

join in boosting what is to be boosted. This week we have the automobile last few minutes of play.

Cramer relieved Latter in the dugo, having caught on fire from an overheated chimney. Prompt action races and everybody should boost for the races. In two or three weeks there will be a chance to boost the Brown & Curry meetings and then all citizens should boost the meetings.

To boost the auto races you need overhead to boost the defeat to victory. In fact, if Glendale overheaded chimney. Prompt action on the part of the firemen, who ingston at forward in the last half, made a record run, soon put out the blaze and according to reports the damage was nominal, probably about of fifty dollars or thereabouts.

SHOW SIGNS OF LIFE

Two Teams in A. A. U.

Glendale Evening News have called at the office, asked for an additional copy of the paper, stating that before they finished reading it a neighbor borrowed the paper and did not return it. The much-imposed-upon citizen advised us to ask the borrower to subscribe for the paper himself. The situation is a very delicate one to handle. A subscriber does not like to refuse to loan a paper to a neighbor, and yet it places the regular subscriber at an inconvenience. The local paper should be filed away for reference, and this method cannot be followed systematically when a neighbor borrows the paper. Subscribe for the paper yourself.

Glendale will be represented by two teams in the Amateur Athletic union basketball conference for the championship of Southern California. The Glendale Independents, the crack lightweight team, will be in the 120-local division and have been assigned games as follows: Thurs. Jan. 28, at the L. A. Y. M. C. A.—winner, Orange-Glendale; Sat., Jan. 20, at L. A. Y. M. C. A.—winner, Orange-Glendale vs. M. A. H. DESIGN IN LANDSCAPE GARDENING

By John W. Gregg, professor of landscape gardening and floriculture in the University of California:

Simplicity is the prime element in pure beauty and in landscape design the opposite of extravagance.
Intricacy is the soul of landscape and is the opposite of blankness.

Convenience produces a feeling of satisfaction by making every interesting feature comfortably accessible. Compactness economizes space and labor, creates the appearance of or-der, and renders each feature a part of the combined whole. Seclusion produces a feeling of ownership and privacy, and is in ac-cord with good taste.

Snugness involves shelter, protection, warmth, shade and a play of sun and shadow.

Unity adapts in a pleasing way the several parts of a design to the whole. house, Blending artistically distributes plants and groups and other features plants and groups and other features of a design so as to do away with an Phone 93W. of a design so as to do away with an extreme continuity of lines.

tiful association on Saturday after-noon, at which Mr. Payne of Los Angeles was to have spoken, but through a misunderstanding as to the date, Mr. Payne was not present. How-ever, there was a good attendance of citizens and children and Miss Helen White, teacher of agriculture at the Intermediate school, gave a most in teresting and instructive address. Dr. Jessie A. Russell also spoke, telling of many ways in which the children especially can help to beautify our city. Because of the basketball game going on at the high school grounds, it was necessary to hold the meeting in the new building instead of the auditorium, and thus the new building was christened by a City Beau-tiful meeting which was most fitting and proper. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25 .- The dulcet strains of "I Love You, California," sung by Miss Bess Kreiss of San Jose, filled the senate chamber Friday afternoon. Instead of sena-tors for an audience, there was a crowd of "schoolma'ams" who repre-sented the San Jose normal. Senator 'Bill" Scott took occasion to do earn est lobbying for his bill to make this the state song. After the singing he put the motion to pass the bill and it went through.

A QUESTION OF ODORS

Bob Burman, record holder in motor-car racing, tells the following

Recently I was talking with a wo who was quite new to the social world and its customs. She was particularly anxious to appear as if accustomed to all the luxuries of life.

She began a conversation with me on motoring.

"Have you purchased your new car this season?" I asked.

"No, Mr. Burman, not yet," she said. "I can't make up my mind just which make of car to buy. Maybe you will help me."

"What is it that you cannot decide about them?" I asked.

"Why, I can't decide whether should get a gasoline car or a limousine car. Tell me, does limousine smell as bad as gasoline?"—Every-

A DAY WILL COME

A day will come when the only battlefield will be the market open to commerce and the mind opening to new ideas. A day will come when bullets and bombshells will be re placed by votes, by the universal suf-frage of nations, by the venerable arbitration of a great sovereign sen-ate, which will be to Europe what the parliament is to England, what the diet is to Germany, what the legislative assembly is to France. A day will come when a cannon will be exhibited in public museums, just as an instrument of torture is now, and The new Pacific avenue school opens today and the rooms are well filled, showing how badly we needed the building and extra teachers, which have been provided, and the children are delighted with their new school home.

The transitions from the stirring factory scenes to dramatic motoring scenes are swift and startling. One picture shows a Maxwell standing at the edge of an abyss—a backward roll of a couple of feet and the car would be plunged down a precipice of 1000 feet.

ALL READY TO SERVE

Mr. Sweet opened the door of the kitchen and said:

"Why, no," said the wife, despairingly, "don't you remember you told me you would bring home a couple of lobsters for dinner and I depended on them."

"Well," said Tom, "they're here.
