HOME RULE AGAIN TO FORE

LIVELY DISCUSSION IN OLD COUNTRY

House of Commons Must Be Relieved of Burden of Work

London, Oct. 29.—The discussion on "Home Rule all round" for the United Kingdom is raging in the newspaper press. News that the veto conference has been considering the question of a federated United Kingdom has started a fierce opposition campaign among the anti-Home Rulers.

The London Times' attitude on the question reflects a very vast change of opinion since the years when the letters on "Parnellism and Crime" gained admittance to its columns. This journal takes the standpoint that the Unionist party should consider the wisdom of refusing to consider the enlargement of the scope of the conference.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald writes to the Times to protest against the slanders and false reports based on the offensive assumption that the working class party must be morally inferior to one composed of plutocrats and aristocrats.

The negotiations between the government and the opposition party on the constitutional question have raised an issue destined profoundly to influence British politics in the near future.

Whatever the issue of the present conference, it can be predicted with confidence that the devolution of some of the powers of the Imperial parliament to national assemblies in Ireland, Scotland and Wales is a project that will bulk largely henceforth in the programme of the Liberal party. Pride of place belongs of right to Ireland, whose claim for Home Rule pressed consistently for so many years has established her unquestioned right to priority of treatment.

There are no shrewder students of the signs of the times than Irish politicians, and it is noteworthy that John Redmond and T. P. O'Connor, during their present tour in the United States and Canada, have spoken with warm approval of Home Rule for Ireland as part of a larger scheme of devolution, and as preparing a road leading to the goal of Imperial unity.

In conjunction with these declarations by the Nationalist leaders, must be placed the important declarations favoring Home Rule all around which were made by Mr. Birrell before the Eighty Club, three months ago, and by the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Master of Elibank recently. It will be recalled, too, that shortly before the rising of parliament, the Scottish Liberal members formed an association, to promote the establishment of a national society in Edinburgh. That movement by the Liberal leaders, must be placed the important declarations favoring Home Rule all around which were made by Mr. Birrell before the Eighty Club, three months ago, and by the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Master of Elibank recently.

Such is the enormous quantity of business which the Imperial parliament has now to transact, that aside from the claims of the Nationalists, some method of relieving the House of Commons of a crushing burden has become absolutely necessary. National assemblies, or parliaments, in Dublin, Edinburgh and Cardiff would do much to save the strain under pressure of the over-driven legislative machine has all but broken down.

A scheme of Home Rule all around has this further advantage, that it would practically settle by automatic action the vexed problem of the House of Lords vote. With Ireland governed according to Irish ideas, Scotland according to Scottish ideas, most of the standing causes of quarrel with the House of Lords would be removed. In fact, given a scheme of Home Rule all around, with the re-establishment beyond all possibility of cavil of the supremacy of the House of Commons over finance, and there are not a few Liberals who would be content to leave the House of Lords as it stands, with all its imperfections on its head.

A correspondent of the Times has just made public a fact, known already to many behind the scenes, that during his recent prolonged visit to England, Earl Grey pressed on his friends among Unionist statesmen, the wisdom of resorting to the federal system as a solution of our constitutional difficulties.

Earl Grey has seen for himself the satisfactory working of the provincial assemblies in Canada and the state legislatures in America.

CLASHES IN URUGUAY.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 29.—It is feared that outbreaks in Uruguay will assume large proportions. The trouble had its origin in the struggles between the opposing factions for the presidency of the republic. Collisions are reported to have taken place in the provinces and within 50 miles of Monte Video, the capital.

Dr. Bachini, who resigned yesterday as foreign minister at the request of President Willman, is likely to become a candidate for the presidency.

JEALOUS FARMER'S CRIME

Kills Wife and Baby and Ends His Own Life.

St. Clairsville, Ohio, Oct. 28.—Blasius Nohoulter, a farmer living near here, killed his wife and baby and then committed suicide. The bodies were found in the Nohoulter home by Nohoulter's brother. Jealousy of his brother is believed to have been the cause of the tragedy.

IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 29.—Starting next month and continuing until March the minimum sum with which intending immigrants can enter Canada will be $50, unless they are assured of positions as farm laborers. This is in conformity with the practice adopted last year of requiring immigrants during the slack season for labor to be in a position to be self-supporting until work becomes more plentiful when it will revert to $25 as the minimum.

RECOVER DAMAGES.

London, Oct. 28.—The owners of the barque Edilise have recovered damages against the barque Duplex, bound from South Australia to Falkenburgh. The vessels were in collision in the south Atlantic on June 4.

DUN'S WILL OPEN VICTORIA OFFICE

Well-Known Financial Firm Have Quarters in Pemberton Block

An announcement of considerable interest to the people of Victoria, inasmuch as it indicates that the growth of local business is attaining almost metropolitan proportions, is that made by J. B. Mallett, Vancouver manager of R. G. Dun & Company, who stated to the Times to-day that his company would open a Victoria office on Tuesday next in the Pemberton block. The local office will be conducted by A. E. Mallett as local manager, and will report business throughout Vancouver Island and at all northern B. C. points. Complete records will be kept and the company will push its particular line of business into even the remotest of the growing settlements which are springing up along the line of the G. T. P. through the centre of the province.

While R. G. Dun & Company formerly maintained an office in this city, and later removed it to Vancouver owing to the great development of C. P. R. territory, they have been represented by Mr. Mallett at all times here. The new local manager has been connected with the concern for nearly 20 years, and is thoroughly fitted for the duties he now assumes.

The reopening of the Victoria branch was brought about by a requisition signed by almost every mercantile and financial concern in the city, and the prompt response which has been made to the request of these firms is generally appreciated. Mr. Mallett has just returned from a trip to Prince Rupert, Stewart and other northern points, spending a month gathering data for the local office. The firm of R. G. Dun & Company has now 15 branches in Canada, extending from coast to coast.

CHINESE LIKELY TO HAVE LONG WAIT

Efforts to Secure Early Meeting of Parliament May Prove Futile

(Times Leased Wire.)

Pekin, Oct. 29.—Although the Imperial ruler has issued an announcement to the effect that a special council will be called to consider the Chinese senate's memorial that the Chinese parliament be opened in 1913, the Chinese generally believe that the people have been deceived.

The throne in its pronouncement refuses to accept the report favorably calling the parliament earlier than 1915, and passes the matter to the special council. The throne, as well as the people, knows that the special council will not call parliament until compelled to do so, for as soon as parliament assemblies, the members of the council will lose their positions.

The original date for the meeting of the Chinese parliament was 1917. Recently this was moved forward to 1915, and now the progressive leaders throughout the empire desire the parliament to convene in 1913. A memorial to this effect was prepared by the Chinese senators, who are already elected, but are compelled to wait the pleasure of the emperor and the advisers before they may begin their duties.

KEEP READY HIGH PRESSURE PUMPS

FIRE WARDENS ISSUED ORDER THIS MORNING

Additional Fire Protection For Oaklands and Fairfield Districts

It was decided at last evening's meeting of the fire wardens to recommend to the council on Monday that a man be kept permanently on duty at the electric light station; so as to start the salt water pumps for the high pressure system in case of serious fire occurring, the outbreak on Wednesday evening having demonstrated that the system is simply indispensable in connection with the work of the fire department. The fire chief and the city electrician will undertake the arrangements necessary to insure that the system shall always be available.

Mayor Morley enquired of Chief Davis, who was present at last night's meeting, why it was that the high pressure plant had not been brought into operation earlier. His worship has been informed that Mr. Hutchison, city electrical superintendent, who has charge of the plant, had made an effort to reach the chief soon after the outbreak of the fire, but that it took a long time to do so.

Chief Davis, in reply, said that he had not seen Mr. Hutchison. He had, however, while working at the fire, come across J. Tripp, of the B. C. Electric Company, and urged the latter to have the power for the pumps turned on at once. It was a considerable time later when a member of the city electrician's staff had approached him and asked if he wanted to use the high pressure system. He had urged this man to hurry up and get the plant working at once.

Continuing, Chief Davis said there could be no question that the experience of the fire on Wednesday night had shown that the plant had more than paid for itself in view of the incalculable aid furnished. He urged that immediate steps be taken to have the plant ready for operation at all times. At a meeting of the insurance agents held yesterday afternoon the consensus of opinion had been that the fire department had done excellent work in stopping the progress of the conflagration.

The chief also made a request for more hose, and urged that something be done for the better protection of that portion of the city in and around the Fairfield estate.

It was decided to instruct the chief and the city purchasing agent to locate a suitable site for a fire hall in Oaklands district. The lease of the present hall, which expires in a short time, will be renewed until such time as the new hall is ready for occupancy. Chief Davis was also instructed to make a report on all frame buildings in the downtown district which can be described as dangerous from the standpoint of fire risks.

The thanks of the board will be extended to the soldiers from Work Point barracks, the police and others who rendered such valuable assistance at the big fire.

FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

Anarchists Storm Platform at Meeting Called by French Deputies.

Paris, Oct. 24.—A meeting last night called by M. Pelletan and other members of the Chamber of Deputies to pay honor to the memory of Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish Republican leader, who was executed at Barcelona last year, broke up in a riot.

M. Pelletan had put a motion asking that Spain free herself from the yoke of the church, revise her methods of criminal procedure and rehabilitate the honor of Ferrer, when a group of anarchists stormed the platform and attacked and forced from it M. Pelletan and the other speakers. The fight then became general, and men and women were knocked down and injured. The jester switched off the electric lights, thus ending the riot.

FASTS FOR FIFTY DAYS.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 29.—Miss Josephine Gilman, 22, to-day broke a fast of 50 days, conducted under the instructions of Dr. Tanner, of fasting fame. During the fifty days of the fast, Miss Gilman drank nothing but the juice of oranges. At the end of the third day she said she lost all desire for food, although she frequently went to kitchen and prepared meals for other members of the Gilman family. The young woman broke her fast by eating a small portion of this meal.

WILL PROBABLY BE A TOTAL LOSS.

Steamer Carrying Provisions for Railway Laborers is Ashore

(Special to the Times.)

Port William, Ont., Oct. 29.—Steamer Onababika, owned by Revillon Bros. of Nipigon, is aground at Jackfish Island, one mile north of Nipigon house, on Lake Nipigon. It is feared that she may not be released, and unless she is taken off within a few days a serious situation will develop in connection with the construction of the National Transcontinental railway. The Onababika carries provisions, and supplies for two thousand men at work on that line, and these men will be short of rations. Material for constructing the line may also be held up, and it is not likely that anything can be sent forward until the lake freezes over.

INTERNATIONAL RACE.

Claude Grahame-White Wins Big Event at Aviation Meet.

Belmont Park, Oct. 29.—Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, was declared the winner of the Coupe International race this afternoon, the feature of the international meet being held here. White was declared the victor after Radley and Hamilton had been disqualified for not getting started in the time limit fixed by the rules.

MANY INJURED IN STRIKE RIOTS

Express Drivers and Guards Are Attacked—Police Use Clubs on Mob

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 29.—The most severe rioting that has occurred since the strike of the express wagon drivers began to-day when the Jersey City offices of the express companies involved sent out their wagons with guards seated beside the drivers. Eight wagons were stopped by the strikers and their sympathizers. The guards fired over the heads of the crowd that had assembled and the mob returned the fire. No one was injured in the opening fusillade, but the sound of the rioting shots stirred the anger of the crowd and there was a wild charge on the wagons. Drivers and guards were pulled off the seats, horses unhitched and the wagons turned loose and in a few minutes the fight between the guards and drivers and the police that was rushed to their assistance and the angry crowd of strike sympathizers became general. Stones were hurled by the mob and the officers called on to use their clubs. The disorders continued for several minutes, and ambulances were kept busy taking away the injured.

The rioting occurred near the water front and while it was at its height it was reported that a number of persons had been killed and their bodies thrown into the river. The report incensed the mob, and they took up the fight with renewed fury. Finally a semblance of peace was secured.

Latest reports show that a number were severely injured by clubs and flying stones, but so far as known no one was struck by the flying bullets with which the fight was opened.

Business Paralyzed.

New York, Oct. 29.—Millions of dollars worth of merchandise, part of it perishable goods, is tied up to-day at New York and Jersey City, because of the express drivers' strike. The business of the United States Express Company and the Wells Fargo Express Company is paralyzed.

The terminals here and Hoboken are crowded with undelivered packages. Every express company in the vicinity of New York is affected by the conditions and the leaders of the strikers predict that unless the demands of the men are met, a strike will be declared in every city in the country among the expressmen.

Rioting continued to-day but up to noon no serious outbreaks had been reported. The civic federation and the labor factions are seeking peace. John Mitchell has arranged a conference on behalf of the expressmen with the companies Monday.

DEAL WITH INDIANS IS SANCTIONED

SIR WILFRID LAURIER WIRES TO PREMIER

Recommends That Terms Be Made to Comply With Indian Act

At the conference yesterday afternoon between the president of the negotiations, the removal of the Songhees tribe of Indians from the reserve in Victoria to another at Esquimalt harbor, Premier McBride announced that he had just received the following message from Ottawa: "Hon. Richard McBride, Premier, Victoria. "Have consulted with minister of interior and any arrangement satisfactory to Indians will be quite acceptable to us. Would only suggest that as we are the guardians of Indians, it would be advisable that department be party to arrangement, and that same be made under Indian Act. We intend introducing legislation this session in connection with similar questions."

"SIR WILFRID LAURIER."

All that now remains is to complete the purchase of the site known as the old MacCallum property, approximately 170 acres in extent. It is hoped that arrangements may be expedited to such an extent that the Indians will be able to remove from the present reserve within a period of three months.

The new site, a large plot partially timbered and bordered by wide sandy beaches overlooking the Esquimalt harbor, was formerly known as "Maplebank." Beautiful groves of maples divided by grassy glades dot the property on the harbor side. Beyond the railroad track which cuts through the place, heavier timber and more agricultural land testify to the value of the site. "Maplebank" was originally laid out as the residence of the resident superintendent of the Puget Sound Agricultural Company, a subsidiary company to the great Hudson Bay Company. Later it was set aside as the official residence of the admiral commanding the squadron at Esquimalt until the admiral changed his plan. At another period of its career it was the home of the father of the late A. Campbell MacCallum, and afterwards of that gentleman himself.

AUTO FATALITIES.

Another Man Killed During Races at Dallas, Texas.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 29.—Raymond Coch, of Paris, France, a mechanic, was killed, and Phillip Wells, a driver, was seriously injured yesterday during the auto races at the state fair. Coch was crushed under a car when a tire burst and the machine turned over. Wells' car skidded through a fence and hit a telephone pole. There have been three fatalities since the race started Wednesday.

NEW AEROPLANE RECORD.

Etampes, France, Oct. 29.—Remaining aloft for six hours and ten minutes and eating two meals while he whirled through the clouds in his airship, Maurice Tabateau broke existing time and distance records yesterday. The daring aviator sailed 233 miles without alighting.

The feat was performed in a Farman bi-plane in the Aerodrome here. The test is considered one of the most remarkable both for the endurance of the machine and its operator that has ever been attempted. By his performance Tabateau wins the Michelin cup.

The former record was held by Oilesigers, a Hollander, who in July sailed 244 miles without alighting, remaining aloft five hours, three minutes and five seconds.

RECOUNT AT TACOMA.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Chief Census Statisticians Hunt, accompanied by his confidential secretary, L. V. Boales, left to-day for Tacoma to conduct the recount ordered after reports of padding in the census returns from that city. Hunt will make a complete re-enumeration of Tacoma. He said before leaving that he expected to complete the work within a week after his arrival at Tacoma, which will be Wednesday.

NIGHTINGALE MEMORIAL.

London, Oct. 29.—At an influential meeting at which Lord Charles Berosford presided, it was resolved to arrange an Empire memorial to the late Florence Nightingale.

PORTLAND'S POPULATION.

Revised Report on Census Will Probably Give the Oregon City 216,000 Inhabitants.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 29.—It is generally believed that the official census returns for Portland has been cut from 7,000 to 10,000 following the visit of Urban Heaster, special agent of the census bureau, who has just completed checking over 77 out of 133 enumeration precincts wherein errors and padding had been discovered. Heaster said that such padding as he found appeared to be only in a few precincts. While he declined to give any figures, he intimated that Portland's official population would be reduced more than five per cent. It is believed the official census report will give Portland 216,000 inhabitants.

TO ENTERTAIN SAILORS.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 29.—Officers and men of the Japanese fleet that will arrive in Southern California waters November 24, will be entertained with a real aviation meet on the playa del Rey motor drome. It was announced to-day that the Aero Club of California will undertake to stage the affair.

FISH HATCHERIES ARE IN OPERATION

F. H. Cunningham Returns From Inspecting New Ones on the Island

The latest news from the three new fish hatcheries on Vancouver Island is brought by F. H. Cunningham, superintendent of fish culture, Ottawa, and Fisheries Inspector E. G. Taylor, who arrived from the west coast last night and left this afternoon for the mainland.

Mr. Cunningham, speaking to a Times reporter this morning, expressed himself as well satisfied with the progress made on the hatcheries. In fact, at Kennedy lake the eggs will be ripe next week. There are a million and a half eggs in the Anderson lake hatchery. The hatchery at Cowichan lake is for game fish, but next week some coho and spring salmon eggs will be put in. On Mr. Cunningham's return east he intends to procure Atlantic salmon and speckled trout for this hatchery.

The erection of the buildings of the Anderson and Kennedy lake hatcheries was quite a difficult matter owing to the difficulties of transporting material. Mr. Cunningham noticed that the spawning grounds of both these lakes had lots of parent fish in them, and consequently the salmon will be this season assisted naturally and artificially. All the rivers and creeks up the west coast are full of fish.

Previous to the advent of the Liberal government in 1896 there was but one fish hatchery in operation in British Columbia. To-day there are eleven. In the Dominion there were only thirteen hatcheries before 1896, while at the end of this year there will be forty-eight. Those in the east produce lobster, whitefish, pickerel, salmon-trout and speckled-trout, while on this coast the vastly valuable salmon are hatched out. The latest report from Lakeside is that the hatchery was filled with sockeye salmon eggs some weeks ago. While final reports have not been received from Babine and Stewart, the information so far is satisfactory.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE ACTIVE IN URUGUAY

Election Troubles Assume Serious Proportions—Troops Sent

London, Oct. 29.—A dispatch to the Times from Monte Video by way of Buenos Ayres, says: "The situation in Uruguay is very grave. The opponents of Jose Battle y Ordonez's candidature for the presidency are massing a revolution is feared, but the outbreak has been delayed owing to lack of horses."

"Nevertheless, armed revolutionaries are gathering on most of the frontiers, the press is being censored, telegraph wires have been cut by the revolutionaries and the train service in the republic is discontinued. The population is greatly alarmed, but the government is active in dispatching troops to where they are most needed."

"Several arrests of Nationalists have been made at Monte Video and elsewhere. The resignation of Foreign Minister Bachina was requested on account of his sympathy with the subversive movement, and his opposition to Senator Battle y Ordonez's election."

"There is no question that the government is fighting on the country a most unpopular candidate, who is an enemy of progress and financial development. Hence the uprising."

GET READY TO RESUME BUSINESS

FIRE SUFFERERS TAKE TEMPORARY PREMISES

Spencers Purchase the Driard and Re-Open for Business on Wednesday

Gangs of workmen busily engaged in clearing away the debris, the occasion of boom of blasts of dynamite, heavily laden drays hauling goods in every direction, new sign boards being erected over heretofore unoccupied premises—these are the outward and visible signs that the sufferers in the conflagration in the business section of the city are seized with the determination to lose no time in "getting on their feet" again. Architects are drawing plans for new structures which will be reared on the ruins and contractors are figuring details of the cost of construction.

David Spencer, Ltd., yesterday afternoon purchased the Driard hotel and will reopen for business on the first and second floors on Wednesday morning. All accounts payable to the firm can be made at the temporary business office, MacGregor block, 635 View street. Many shipments of goods for Spencers are already at the docks, and when Victoria's big department store firm reopens for business on Wednesday it will be in shape to supply the wants of all customers.

All the employees who were in the firm's employ at the time of the fire have been retained and all will be utilized in serving the public in the temporary department store at the Driard hotel. Last night all the heads of departments went over to Vancouver to make selections of goods from the large stock in hand at the store there, and arrangements are being there to charter a special steamer to bring these to Victoria. It is expected that the temporary premises in the Driard will be occupied for six months, after which period the new building to be erected will be ready for occupancy.

The firm of Henry Young & Co. has directed its architect to prepare plans at once for a new building to be constructed on the site of the old one. On opening the firm's safe yesterday a bundle of bank notes, one-half of which were consumed, was found. The silver coins had all been melted, showing the intensity of the heat. The firm's books had luckily been removed when the fire looked threatening. Negotiations are going on, however, by Spencers, who wish to add the Young property to their site. This would clear the way for the opening out of View street.

On Wednesday last the San Francisco manager of the Michigan Commercial Insurance Company, of Lansing, Michigan, represented here by R. P. Rithet & Co., called on Mr. Young and asked to be given a share of the firm's insurance. After some talk Mr. Young said, "Alright, you can write us a policy for $3,000." This was all that was said and no papers were signed. The fire occurred the same night and yesterday a messenger from R. P. Rithet & Co.'s, handed Mr. Young the policy for $2,000, and its total will be paid.

The Five, Ten and Fifteen Cent store have occupied temporary premises in the Drake & Horne building. W. Bownass, hardware merchant, is preparing to rebuild a new block on Broad street, and in the meantime the firm has made arrangements for temporary store space in the premises of the Canadian-American Realty Company, on Douglas street.

S. Macure, architect, whose office was in the Five Sisters block, and who lost all his plans and the records of twenty years, has located temporarily in the Seward block on Broughton street, below Government.

Plummer & Rideout, real estate agents, formerly in the Bownass block, have rented suite 118 in the Pemberton building.

Harry Dier, dentist, Five Sisters block, had insurance to the extent of $1,500 from the Union Assurance Company. E. M. Johnson, agent for the company, has handed Dr. Dier the cheque for the amount.

Crawford Coates, architect, whose office in the Bownass building was destroyed, has, by courtesy of H. T. Rous Cullin, architect, the temporary use of his office, at 514 Yates street.

STRIKE LEADS TO SERIOUS RIOTING

Men Who Take Places of Drivers of Express Wagons Are Beaten

New York, Oct. 29.—Drivers of wagons of the Adams and Wells Fargo Express Companies struck for higher wages yesterday, joining the strikers in Jersey City in a demand for $5 more a month. Several small riots occurred following the general walk-out.

The strike leaders predict a strike of union teamsters throughout New York. The state department of labor has been notified of the strike.

RIOTING began within a few minutes after the drivers walked out. Non-union teamsters who took the places of the strikers were dragged from the wagons and beaten, while the driverless horses were turned loose to care for themselves.

Rioters blocked all approaches to the Grand Central station, where most of the express wagons were congregated, when the strike was declared.

Hand-to-hand fights were common occurrences. Express traffic was almost completely paralyzed and the companies were unable to get their wagons and teams into the barns in many cases. Many were injured in the disturbances.

Leaders of the strike, while denying responsibility for the disturbances, declare they will accept no defeat but will fight relentlessly until their demands are granted.

Strike May Spread.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 29.—Nine strikers are in hospitals here suffering from serious injuries received in riots throughout the night and early yesterday.

The situation has become acute and a general strike in Jersey City and adjacent towns is threatened unless the demands of the strikers be granted by the company. The latter informed the governor that they could operate their wagons with plenty of men if they could be assured of protection by the authorities.

CARRY PASSENGERS ACROSS COUNTRY

First Contest of the Kind Ever Held at American Aviation Meet

Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The first passenger-carrying cross-country race ever held in America and the breaking of the American record for duration were the features of yesterday's aviation meet at Belmont Park.

Count de Lesseps, the French aviator, and John B. Moisant of America, were the entrants in the race, which was a 20-mile affair from the aviation field to a captive balloon and return. Each carried a mate passenger.

Arthur Hoxey broke the long flight record, remaining in the air two hours and seventeen minutes.

Johnstone brought back a new American record of 8,471 feet for altitude—the second he has added to his string in the international aviation meet.

HUNTER SHOT IN MISTAKE FOR DEER

Guide is Accidentally Killed by North Vancouver Man

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—Dana B. Gibson, 23 years old, employed by the McFadden Lumber Company in the Lund district, was shot in error by C. S. Young of North Vancouver, near Lund last Wednesday while both men were hunting for deer.

Gibson died from his wound while being conveyed to the launch from which the party had set out.

A party of North Vancouver men started on a hunting expedition last week, and the man who lost his life, had been hired as a guide. The two principals of the tragedy parted from the others to find a timber stake and get separated. Shortly after Young saw something brown in the bushes and thinking it a deer he fired. A scream revealed the fact that it was his companion. He hurried to the spot and found the man badly wounded. With the rest of the party Young carried the victim on a cot to the launch, but he expired on the way.

Gibson's only remark was: "Did you think I was a deer?"

"Yes," said Young.

"Too bad," was the reply of Gibson. The remains were brought to Vancouver to-day and the circumstances were related to Coroner Jeffs. An inquest will be held.

U. S. PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

Oregon Senator Has Plan for Nomination by Direct Vote of the People

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—A plan for the nomination of presidential and vice-presidential candidates by a direct vote of the people is being worked out by Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon.

It is likely that when the full details of the plans are completed he will endeavor to have laws enacted to put it in force. According to the outline of the plans as now formed, the people would be asked to vote for their candidates at the regular primary elections. At the same time they would elect delegates to the national convention pledged to support the candidates chosen by the people.

"This is the only right principle for the selection of candidates to the highest offices," said Bourne, explaining his plan to-day. "The present method puts the aspirants for office under obligations to individuals for the support of state delegations. Under my scheme candidates would be under obligation to nobody except the people, and they would be free to serve their best interests."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Miss Ellen Terry's Views—Women Should Vote, Declares Actress

New York, Oct. 29.—The report that Ellen Terry had been converted to the suffragette movement and would take an active part in its promotion in this country, was partly confirmed and partly denied by the noted actress yesterday.

"Women should vote," said Miss Terry. "A woman's greatest need is education and self-betterment. If she were to be suffragettes, anything helping women should be theirs."

"But, as I often tell my daughter, there is nothing to be gained by knocking off policemen's hats and such things. And, again, I don't believe that suffrage would ever have benefited me much. I have always had more rights than I knew what to do with."

"The suffragettes will win in England," said Miss Terry.

ROYAL COLLECTION AT "ZOO"

A collection of interesting wild animals of South Africa is to be made for presentation to the King, and in-favour of the South African Museum.

(The committees have been formed to make the arrangements in Cape Colony, Natal, Orange River Colony, the Transvaal, and Rhodesia. The King has signified his pleasure in the scheme, and has intimated that the collection will be exhibited throughout next summer at the London Zoological Gardens. A first consignment of the collection is already on exhibition at the gardens. It consists of a pair of giant bustards, the largest and rarest of living bustards, a Stanley crane, and a black-breasted harrier eagle, new to the London collection. These have been presented by Dr. Louis Peringuey, director of the South African Museum.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Monday next will be Thanksgiving Day. The majority of people will celebrate the day by taking a holiday, eating a few slices of turkey, or the best substitute they can obtain, and by enjoying themselves in a general way. A good many men will take to the woods in search of game, and some will go out of town or entertain visiting friends from neighboring cities. The minority, a modicum of the whole population, will take part in some devotional exercises.

It must not be inferred that because the majority of the people do not attend church services on Thanksgiving Day that they are without regard to the Giver of All Good who arranges the affairs of the universe, and who has so bountifully endowed the people of this province with worldly goods. The people of British Columbia have more reason than anyone else to be thankful for the good things of this life. They nearly all recognize this fact and are daily thankful, but there is considerable change of feeling as to the methods of showing our thankfulness. We have no wish to cast any slight upon those who gather together for worship on an occasion like this, but we simply wish to state our opinion that those who do not do so may be just as thankful and may show it in perhaps as substantial a manner as those who do. We are very often told that actions speak louder than words. They do in this matter, of thankfulness. The person who is willing to give of his plenty to relieve suffering or to bring gladness to those who otherwise might be in want, indicates in a very substantial manner that he has the Christian spirit, which after all is the principal thing.

In business if a man boasts of his honesty we at once see that our pockets are buttoned tight, and in religion it has been proved beyond any doubt that the people who make the loudest professions are not those who best illustrate the Christian spirit. The matter of meeting together for the purpose of singing, listening to music, and being exhorted by a preacher, are minor methods of showing the spirit of thankfulness, and this is generally recognized, hence the lack of attendance at the church services on that day, that a great many people might be benefited by such attendance at church must be admitted, but that it is a sign of irreligion that they do not do this no thoughtful person will now admit.

Thanksgiving Day as it affects the people here is more an excuse for a holiday than anything else. The harvest of British Columbia lasts throughout the year, and the end of the year is the time when we take stock.

WELCOMING CANADIAN NAVAL VESSELS.

It is an interesting fact that a Frenchman was the first Canadian to welcome the first ship of the Canadian Navy on her arrival at Halifax. Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of marine and Fisheries, was the man, and he made a stirring address of welcome on board the vessel. Actions, however, speak louder than words, and the action of the Minister in placing his son aboard as a cadet in an earnest of the attitude of the great bulk of the French-speaking Canadians.

In his address Mr. Brodeur spoke of the importance of this initial step in the great project of self-defence. He referred to the absolute freedom of action given Canada as the finest example of national autonomy that the world can present to-day. He then went on to show how the interests of Canada were interwoven with those of Great Britain, and said that the duty of Canadians was to maintain the influence and safeguard the supremacy of the Empire. The scene was a striking one, and its influence must make for a spirit of unity among all sections of Canadians no matter of what their race or the altar at which they worship. Mr. Brodeur must be congratulated upon having risen to a great occasion, and for this he deserves the thanks and commands the admiration of the whole country.

The arrival of the Rainbow at Esquimalt will be nearly as important an event as was that of the Niobe at Halifax. The interest of Victorians has during the past week been seriously distracted from this event, but next week we shall have overcome the excitement of the fire and the other big events and be able to think more of the necessary preparations for receiving the Rainbow in a suitable way.

FIRST SOUTH AFRICAN UNION PARLIAMENT.

On Friday of next week the first parliament of United South Africa will be opened in Cape Town by the Duke of Connaught. The occasion will be notable. When the Union of South Africa was first inaugurated the jubilation which would naturally have taken place was subdued by the fact that the empire was mourning the death of King Edward. Now, however, there is nothing to restrain the enthusiasm of the people. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught as representatives of the King will be welcomed right royally from the Cape to the Zambesi. Already preparations are under way. The new assembly chamber is nearing completion and the older building, to which it is adjacent, has been thoroughly overhauled. A great pageant is being prepared and the beginning of federal government in the country is to be ushered in with due ceremony.

That the federal scheme of government promises well in that country everyone must acknowledge. There are a few who are troubled at the fact that the Boers are in the majority over those of British extraction, but it has been proved in Canada that racial differences do not have any great effect upon the government of the country. Even if the races do not always agree, that fact does not affect the carrying out of suitable laws for the government of the whole country. There is always a tendency for the majority to treat the minority better than is expected. Even in the first elections in South Africa the country has not divided altogether along racial lines, and in all probability the mixing will become even more noticeable as time goes on. The fact that the two races have recently engaged in a fierce conflict, in which each has learned to respect the bravery of the other, will make them less prone to quarrel over small things. The Boers are pleased at receiving such generous treatment from their conquerors and on that account alone are likely to be willing to give and take.

The formation of a new British Confederation is another step in Empire building. When the government of Great Britain and Ireland has been formed into a confederacy along the same lines, it will be possible to think of a plan for an Empire Council that will have control of foreign relations and defence. This will be the rounding out of the Imperial idea.

Monday being a statutory holiday the Times will not be published on that day.

Pippin will be king in Vancouver next week. The big apple show opens on Monday in the Horse Show building.

The building of a new steel transfer barge by the C. P. R. to carry cars to and from Vancouver Island is another indication of the growing interest in the trade of the big country this side of the Gulf of Georgia.

Hon. William Templeman is showing his keen interest in the development of the new Canadian navy, especially in so far as it concerns this coast by coming from Ottawa to greet the Rainbow on her arrival here November 7.

"Back to the land" is all right in some countries, but in British Columbia it is so difficult to get the land without paying three prices for it. This comes of keeping a Conservative government in power, with its pack of camp followers looking for pickings.

The Vancouver Province of Thursday last says that the Times building was completely destroyed by fire and that the presses and typographic machines are lying in a twist of steel and iron in the centre of the consumed pile. There is nothing like having a correspondent with a highly imagination.

The Times is late this afternoon owing to an accident. The stereotyping was being done at our own building for the first time since the fire when a wall which was part of the Spencer building, while being pulled down by workmen, fell into the back premises of the Times and covered the metal pot and its boiling contents with brick. This was a short time before closing.

The sealing season just concluded promises to be a profitable one for the operators. Only five schooners went out last spring, and one or two of those got away very late, yet in spite of this the average catch was over eight hundred to the boat. As the price of skins is much higher than ever before in the history of the industry the owners will all make money. The Victoria sealers hunt under great disabilities compared with the Japanese. They are not allowed to go within sixty miles of the rookeries in Behring Sea, whereas the Japanese may approach within three miles.

SCHOONER REFOLOATED.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 29.—After pounding on the shore off Point Reyes for several hours last night, the schooner Charles Nelson hopped into port to-day, little the worse for wear. Captain L. C. Hansen reported all safe on board and very little of his cargo of lumber was lost. Wireless calls for aid received last night led to the belief that the schooner with her crew of 30 men was in danger of sinking, and early to-day the tug Sea Lark was sent to her aid. The Nelson floated off at high tide, however, after some of the cargo was thrown overboard and came into port under her own steam. No pews have been received from Point Arena, where another vessel was reported ashore.

TWO SUICIDES.

El Centro, Cal., Oct. 29.—Inseparable friends through life, Jake Meadow, deputy sheriff and a former Indian fighter of renown, and George Sexsmith, one of the best known surveyors in the southwest, are dead to-day, Meadows having shot himself through the heart when he learned that Sexsmith had committed suicide. Sexsmith yesterday went into the office of Sheriff Mobley Meadows, brother of Jake, in the county jail and fired a bullet through his own chest from a gun he found standing in the room. He died late last night.

An hour after Sexsmith died Meadows was told of his friend's death. "Good," he exclaimed. "I'm going the same route."

Meadows then went to his room in the jail building, lay on his bed and sent a soft nosed rifle bullet through his heart, dying almost instantly.

STRIKE CAUSES DISTRESS.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Charging that the garment workers' employers are hiring thugs to slug women strikers, and that the police are aiding them, the women's trades union league to-day asked 50 society girls to volunteer to get evidence of brutality and urge wealthy friends to undertake the prosecution of the guilty.

Conditions in the Jewish quarter are becoming pitiful, and destitution among the families of the unemployed suttmakers is increasing. Other unions have undertaken relief work and the collection of funds with which to relieve the growing distress.

PARIS TO BRUSSELS FLIGHT.

Brussels, Oct. 29.—The longest cross country flight in an aeroplane with one passenger was accomplished yesterday by M. Mathieu, a Frenchman, who flew from Paris to Brussels, a distance of 195 miles. Mathieu left Paris at 12.30 and arrived at Brussels at 4 o'clock.

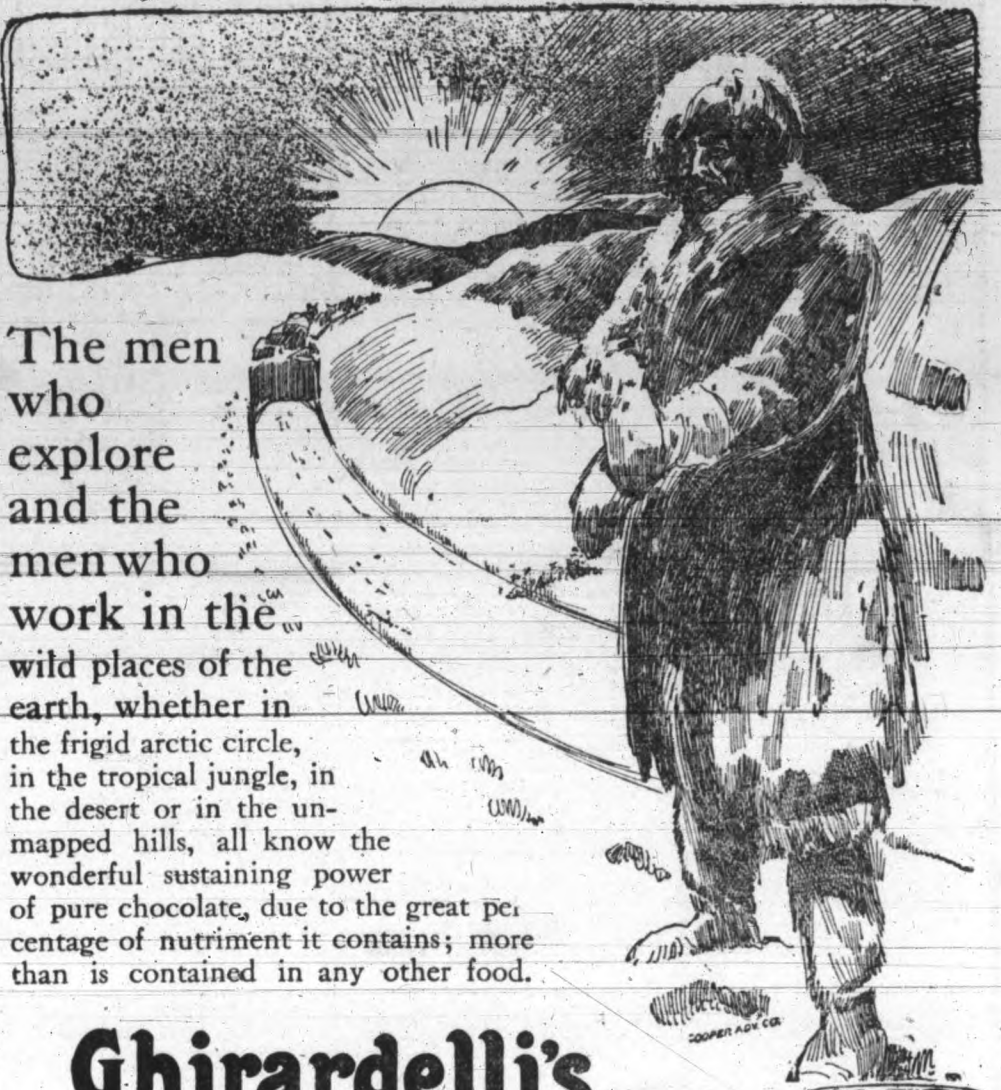

CASE WITHDRAWN.

Winnipeg, Oct. 29.—Frank Bennett, now of Regina, for whom a bench warrant was issued at Morden as a result of a business trip, and noted in the press that he was wanted, he telephoned to the crown prosecutor at Morden. He was informed he need not appear, the case having been withdrawn.

Taking a revolver belonging to his employer, a shop assistant, named Alfred Pummery, aged 17, of Ipsall road, Hford, Eng., shot himself on Wansstead Flats. It was said at the inquest that he had been very disappointed lately, and had had a great desire to go on the stage, to "like Irving," and let his hair grow. A verdict of suicide during temporary insanity was returned.

In answer to an inquiry by the French Aero Club whether they were in favor of aeroplanes being allowed to fly over towns, two aviators replied in the affirmative and seventy-four in the negative, while twenty-five were of opinion that it should be permissible at a certain altitude only.

A lady after giving evidence, at Shore-ditch, carefully placed the Testament from the witness ledge in her chateleine bag, and on her attention being drawn to the appropriation, excused herself on the ground that she was "so in the habit of doing it."

The men who explore and the men who work in the wild places of the earth, whether in the frigid arctic circle, in the tropical jungle, in the desert or in the unmapped hills, all know the wonderful sustaining power of pure chocolate, due to the great percentage of nutriment it contains; more than is contained in any other food.

BANISH THESE MISERIES

When you can't eat, can't sleep, and can't work, of course you can't prosper, and you can't enjoy life as you should! But fate is not to blame! It's the fault of your stomach! Your stomach has lost strength! Therefore it cannot digest food, and undigested food, instead of nourishing you, poisons your system, lowers your vitality, and steals your strength. The most common results of indigestion are: lost appetite, pains after eating, a furred tongue, headaches, sleeplessness, languor, biliousness, constipation and low spirits. If you have any of these miseries, you can banish them once for all by restoring your stomach and liver to working order. This you will do, surely and quickly, if you take Mother Seigel's Syrup after meals.

BY TAKING THE DIGESTIVE TONIC

Mother Seigel's Syrup, the favourite family remedy for indigestion, is made of more than ten different roots, barks, and leaves which in combination possess, in a remarkable degree, the power of toning and strengthening the stomach, and regulating the action of the liver and bowels. This is the secret of its great success. It cures in a natural way, and, better still, it cures permanently. Take it daily, after meals. On February 18, 1910, Mr. Horace Rumble, Maple, Ont., said:—"I suffered for some time from indigestion, finding no relief. Then I tried Mother Seigel's Syrup, and after four bottles of the Syrup became free from all my troubles."

CHEAP THINGS.

Everybody likes to buy things that are cheap, provided the article is good; but it must be remembered that very often things that appear to be cheap at first are dear in the end, while others not so cheap at first sight, are the cheapest in the long run. It is the "long run" that counts.

As an example, a prominent citizen of Victoria took out a life insurance policy in the year 1887—22 years ago. In the Mutual Life of Canada, on the Limited Payment Life Plan. Had the policy become a claim by death at any time during the period, his wife would have received the full face value of the policy, and for the protection thus afforded him during the 22 years, the actual average annual cost has been at the rate of $15.00 per $1,000, so that even for the protection afforded, if nothing more, this insurance has proved to be cheap. But that is not all; for in addition to being protected for 22 years, should the policyholder now wish to take the cash value for his policy, he can draw $160 in gold coin for every $100 he has paid the company; and further, should he wish to keep the insurance policy it is paid up in full for its face value (an amount three times what he has paid in premiums); no more premiums to be paid, and instead of himself will receive an annual cash dividend on the policy as long as he lives, and the full face of the policy will be paid at his death.

It pays to invest your money in the Mutual Life of Canada.

NAZIMOVA'S NORA SUPERB CREATION

Incomparable Art of the Young Russian Actress Shown in "A Doll's House"

Mrs. Linden..... Mrs. Gertrude Berkley
Anna..... Miss Marie Allen
Ellen..... Miss Marie Allen

Nora Helmer..... Mme. Nazimova

After one has seen Alla Nazimova in an Ibsen drama he begins to realize that never before has he so fully understood the great Norwegian's thought, never so clearly known or sympathized so truly with his men and women. This is especially true with Mme. Nazimova's Nora in "A Doll's House," as Victorians had the privilege of seeing it on Wednesday evening. Nothing has ever been seen here which equalled its intellectual power, psychological sincerity and intense naturalness. The matchless art of the wonderful Russian actress who has made herself in four short years one of the leaders of the American stage showed in every word, gesture and glance.

Perhaps Nazimova's Nora may not be the doll-wife Ibsen drew, or that varying racial appreciation may deduce, but certain it is that she is a far more appealing figure than the one a reader conjures up on perusing the play. Probably the Muscovite conception of the character is nearer the truth than the Anglo-Saxon.

The title of the drama gives a clue to its nature. Nora is the wife of a young banker, idolized by him in a fashion, treasured as a doll, but with her deeper nature unneeded or misunderstood. Early in their life together, in days when funds were low, Thorwald's health imperatively demanded an unattainable holiday. Nora secured the means by negotiating a loan on a note, but without her husband's knowledge. Incidentally she forges her dying father's name as an endorser, innocent of any idea of the crime, but with characteristic feminine inaccuracy dates the endorsement some days after his death. The catastrophe is precipitated by Helmer's discovery of this long afterwards, and his utter failure to differentiate between the act of his wife, which had saved his life, and a sordid crime. He is a shallow, egotistic, coldly moral man, of a type Ibsen would apparently have us believe frequent, so often does he utilize it. Realizing this at the end, and remembering a crabbed, distorted doctrine enunciated by Helmer—that young children most frequently become corrupted by contact with mothers who have done wrong—Nora decides to leave her home. Some critics have objected that it is rather late for her to find that she no longer loves her husband, after being married eight years and being mother of three children. This is mere captious criticism. The crucial test had not come sooner; the doll-like existence had been accepted until the time of trial proved it to be a life without solid intellectual foundation. "A Doll's House" is one of the least gloomy of Ibsen's works; in fact, there are many standard English plays which are more lugubrious.

Nazimova's creation of Nora is on a high level, intellectually and artistically, and never once does she lower the standard of her delineation. Her Nora is a true woman, living and suffering before our eyes. There is a wealth of shading in her presentation of the character. Not the smallest point does she miss; never once does she over-accentuate. With a wonderfully mobile face and the perfection of late to an extent unknown among Anglo-Saxon artists. The difference is, of course, a radically racial one. We make a mask of our countenances, to hide our emotions, where almost all the Continental peoples use theirs as mirrors of the soul. It was a delight to watch the emotions felt by Nora depicted in Nazimova's face; expressed also at times by eloquent gesture. So does she reveal to us many times the true meaning of a play that has in parts proved baffling as read or seen treated by a less gifted Nora. This marvellous play of expression is constant, but there were two or three instances the other evening where it threw an especially bright illumination on the character. There was the fine scene where Helmer, talking of another who has forged, comes out with his cruel theory of the poisoning of the childish nature, and that other highly emotional episode when Nora realizes, in Thorwald's rejoicing over the saving of his own honor, utterly heedless of her relief, the shallowness of his nature, the unreason of his love and her own complete loss of faith in him. As she leans against a curtain, a pathetic figure, wave after wave of emotion pass across her face, stamping on it momentarily each succeeding tumultuous thought that flashes through her brain. And then the infinite sadness and pathos of her final farewell, her face set in the pale finality of resolve, her whispered "good-bye," and the ineffable gesture of the arm outstretched towards her children's room! It was all a triumph of an art too seldom seen upon our stage. Nazimova brought to bear upon her audience a momentarily each succeeding tumultuous thought that flashes through her brain. ## MONDAY STARTS RUGBY GAMES

PLAY TWO IMPORTANT MATCHES ON HOLIDAY

Victoria Against Vancouver Rowing Club in the Morning

The Rugby season in Victoria will open with two important games on Monday, the Thanksgiving holiday, at Oak Bay park, where Victoria will play the Vancouver Rowing Club fifteen in the morning, and the James Bay fifteen will play the Argos team from Vancouver in the afternoon.

The games are important from the standpoint of the material in each city that will form the teams to play for the McKeehan cup this winter. Both the Vancouver and the Victoria players have been trying to get a line on each other's ability for the past month, and their wishes will be gratified by the two games.

Victoria followers of Rugby will have one of the best opportunities in years to form opinions as to the merits of the different Victoria players for places on the representative team.

There has been considerable talk as to the chances of any of the James Bay players securing a place on the representative team owing to the abundance of playing material the Victoria team has at its disposal.

Of the Bays, however, there are three or four good players, Leo Sweeney, Jeff Johnston and Nason, who have very good chances for positions and these three were seen on the field against Vancouver playing for the championship last season.

The Vancouver Rowing Club is the undefeated organization of the Vancouver Rugby Union this year, and the Argos team holds the second place in the Terminal city club list.

That both matches will be fought out in the keenest spirit by the opposing sides goes without saying, for the Terminal City men compose the two best mainland teams and Victoria and James Bay have both put in as much hard work and training as is permissible to place the teams in the field Monday in the pink of condition. It would be futile to attempt to forecast the result of the matches for the opposing sides in each match compare well in strength and ability. Victoria club, however, will play some new men on the team. There will be the five Gillespies, who are not new players. Newcombe will captain the team again, and there is no better man for the position or harder worker in the field than he. A new man for the three-quarter line has to be found to replace Meredith who is now in England, and Lowry, while he may play tomorrow at full back will not be the permanent full back of the team for the year. In the cup matches it is probable that Johnston, of the James Bay team, will fill the full back position, and in this case the position will be well filled down, for Johnston last season was a very safe and speedy player.

The James Bay and Victoria teams are turning out for practice this afternoon, and two good teams have been selected. Victoria has not put out its strongest team for to-day, and is playing a number of new men who seek chances for places on the Monday team. The James Bay has selected its team to play the Argos and it represents the full strength of the club. The Victoria club will make its final selection for the match against the Rowing Club tonight after the game this afternoon.

No man's acts die utterly, and though his body may resolve into thin air, his good or bad deeds will still be bringing forth fruit after that kind, and influencing future generations for all time to come. It is in this momentous and solemn fact that the great peril and responsibility of human existence lies.—Samuel Smiles.

Frank Gotch, an champion wrestler of the world, Roller was busy for 17 minutes in a hard tussle before he landed the "Mystery." When he acquired the knock, however, Roller threw the "Waffle" again within a minute.

Baseball fans at St. Louis have become elated over the report that Harry Davis, the field general of the Champion Athletics, will don a St. Louis American uniform next season and manage the Browns. President Hedges, of the Browns, refuses to-day either to deny or confirm the rumor.

The Gardens of Victoria

(By Ernest McGuffey.)

All that remains of the famous Hanging Gardens of Babylon is a myth. Yet there must have been some haunting beauty to have carried even the legend of them down to these strenuous days. Modern gardens in many lands have flourished since that dim era and the Gardens of the Tulleries, the Jardin des Plantes, the famous Kew Garden and The Royal Botanical Garden are all household words in every land.

Nearly every city of modern times boasts of its parks and conservatories, and in some, metropolitan the culture of flowers and the love of the decorative in blossoms, shrubs, plants and tree-life is manifested in a very high degree. Perhaps in no other city in the world which has made its garden such dreams of loveliness as Victoria, British Columbia, the Capital City of the province, and Canada's most individualistic metropolis.

The mystery of these gardens is unsolvable. Amalgam, demonstration, classification all elude one in wandering among their bewildering array of colors, shaded and divided with hedge and century-old oak, now paired with a myriad drift of sad lilies, tall and peopled magnificently. All the undisturbed charm of the flowers is here, hypnotic in its drowsy spell. The almost cloudless sunshine of the city, combined with the scent of the sea air drifting across suggests an uplifting, a mirage of flight, as though these glorious gardens were suspended in space, the re-incarnation of the hanging gardens of Babylonian days.

No one can look on these gardens and not be moved to the soul with their beauty.

"For flowers have been known to heal a common man's despair."

And the miracle of color and perfume, the sweet purity of green leaf and tender bud are more than spoken words; more than music, or dreams.

It is doubtful if these places can mean as much to their builders, as they seem. For to look on them long would be to linger in them constantly, lured by the lotus-eating enchantment of their exquisite environs. And you do not see many people in them. They are mainly alone, hot empty, for such caskets could not be empty, and they have, indeed, a rare sense of solitude, as some marble statue might, at midnight, where the leaves lie furled and the plash of a fountain sounds faintly.

No two of these gardens are alike. And so they seem as separate individualities. Some people write books; some compose music; some paint pictures or model in clay or marble. Cultured as Victoria is, nothing more clearly shows its artistic taste than its gardens. You will see this in a thousand ways so unobtrusive that the carelessness of apparent nature shows the premeditation of instinctive art in arrangement, detail, space, modelling, color-schemes, background, perspective and infinite genius of loving sympathy.

The very lawns and hedges are thought out with a care and patience which bespeaks the artist. There are no false notes, no discords in these symphonies of color. There is a blend of many beauties carried to a harmonious whole, so that the entire effect is instantly and lastingly impressed on the seer.

Everywhere the smaller gardens are seen, so that there is really an atmosphere of flower-culture the whole city over. And it thus might seem as though the more stately ones were the outgrowth of a school of beauty, a classic-advance from the beginnings of the little plots on the side streets to the wide and spangled radiance of the lawns stretching seaward and onward in noon-day brilliance. For the sea reaches up longingly to many a cove and inlet where these gardens hang breathless in the spring and summer days, and the slant of the hills' wings throw gray shadows down where the roses flash like jewels in a Queen's diadem. Always there is the sense of an ocean nearness about these gardens, even when the sea is hidden, beyond the far line of shelving downs—or created headland.

Variety is constantly apparent, as the seasons melt into one another. From the dainty hues of crocus and daffodil, the heavy perfume of the narcissus and the lilted freshness of spring the gardens flame into marvellous rose beds and ranks of roses, with sometimes a silent old gardener working among them.

"The rose in the garden slipped her bud And she laughed in the pride of her youthful blood. As she thought of the gardener standing by: 'He is old so old, and he soon must die.'"

And when the leaves of the earliest blown roses strew the ground, the hardier chrysanthemums and later blooms, and the fall roses come following on, and until Christmas, and after, these gardens shine with color and lend their fragrance almost until the crocuses come again, for in this climate there is practically no winter. A few inches of quickly-fading snow, five or six inches, sometimes, and more often an inch or even less, a few days of chill with a stretch of cool, clear weather, a little rain (the average rainfall is only 25 inches yearly) and what they facetiously call "winter" here is over.

Some of these gardens are laid out in acres. So that a man may stand midway of pastured blossoms, in a miniature sea of daffodils or tulips surrounded on every side by the flowers. The irregularity of the ground in some localities lends an additional charm to some of the gardens, advantage being taken of this in growing flowers over the tops of hillocks and up and along parterres of gradual shrub and smaller trees add novelty to the surroundings, and trellised blooms and marble stands are scattered amid the beds and around the gardens, with vines and greenery of all kinds to soften and contrast with the display.

Sheltered as these lovely gardens are from nearly every hint of wandering breeze or land zephyr, the ensemble presents a sense of luxurious quiet. The air is weighted with odor of rose and narcissus, of lilac and hyacinth as the days come in and go by, and steeped in the sunshine these clustered spaces dream, untroubled by the challenge of the years. The song of a bird, an occasional soft-spoken voice among their blossoms, the glint of a stray hand of lost ribbon or the white hair of some ancient gardener might only hint of the outside world.

Beyond lies the broad channel of the Straits of Juan de Fuca. Beyond that the plumed and snowy summits of the Olympic mountains. Beyond these, the blue. All else is silence. Ranks of purple iris stand flanking beds of shimmering-hued blossoms of many colors, and these in turn are flanked by the rich green of adjoining hedges. Roses droop and glow, yellow, red and white, and at times the waxen red of the hawthorn berries shines among the emerald leaves. All seasons hold a carnival of color in the Victoria gardens, and hardly a week brings enough of severe weather to chill the ardor of her hardier roses. Wall flowers, primroses, jonquils, sweet peas, forget-me-not, they come and go, and a never-ending procession of color and variety passes as the months wheel over the dial of days.

And at night in these retreats, when the stars shine and the dusk folds down the curtains of midnight, the Victoria gardens brood tranquilly in the moonlight, while the light laughter of some distant fountain echoes through the leaves and un-gathered flowers. Starlight and moonlight—all a dream.

"The melancholy moonlight, sweet and lone, That makes to dream the bird upon the tree, And in their polished basins of white stone The fountains fall to sob with ecstasy."

The Boy Scouts of this city, who are enthusiastic supporters of every branch of sport, have banded themselves together and formed a soccer league between themselves. Each troop in the brigade is represented by a team. The initial game of the league is being played this afternoon between B and C troops at Esquimalt.

LETTERS FROM A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WOMAN TO HER NIECE

Dear Joan:
That pretty little sample of cheviot that you sent me certainly ought to make an ideal office suit. Yes, I do like it very much better than the fawn-colored corduroy. I think the gentleman who said "a word is sufficient" must have had you in mind for his title role.

While we are on the subject of clothes, I want to tell you a little experience that I had yesterday. I've been wanting a good seamstress to do some plain sewing for me. Last night I heard of one and hustled right down to see her, because I was told she was pretty hard to get hold of. She was, all right. When I asked her for a week sometime this month she said, "I'm afraid that would be quite impossible, I have every day-taken."

I talked with one of her customers and she says it's because the seamstress is a woman in a thousand. "She does only plain sewing—doesn't dressmake at all, you know—but she does every cent of the money because everything she does is always right. You don't have to watch her, you don't have to worry about her work, and you never have to rip out anything."

I know another seamstress in this city—a medium good worker—who charges only one dollar and a quarter—twenty-five cents less than this woman—and yet she hasn't half the work she wants. That's the difference between doing work so-so, and doing it right. That's the difference between getting your dictation all right except two or three misspelled words and three or four commas omitted, and getting your dictation RIGHT.

That's often the difference between hanging onto a job at ten dollars a week, and having the job hang onto you at three times ten.

I think the story of that sewing woman ought to be told at every business college, and every other kind of college, for that matter, in the country.

If I didn't have too much else on my hands I almost think I'd go around telling it.

Yes, I know I'm a regular crank, Joan. But I've always had an idea that the reason cranks are called cranks is because they are what make the world go round. So I don't mind that title.

Laugh at me if you want to, but please don't forget that woman whose work was right—with a capital R.

Your "Queer Old" Aunt.

The dance given last evening in A. O. U. W. Hall by the Daughters of Pitt was an exceedingly smart and enjoyable affair. The decorations were carried out entirely in red and white, and the refreshment room, where a very dainty buffet supper was served, was gay with red and white carnations and trails of smilax. Fifty couples were present and the dance programme rendered by Miss Thain's orchestra was most enjoyable. Many very pretty gowns were worn, which added to the beauty of the scene. Mrs. C. E. Wilson looked her best in red silk with pauletie trimmings; Mrs. Burdick wore a lovely pink satin; Mrs. Simpson, a becoming black costume; Mrs. Jones, pink satin; Mrs. Phillips, pink satin; Mrs. Childs, handsome grey costume; Miss Munroe looked well in blue; Miss Langley wore a very striking Paris creation; Mrs. Gibson, a lovely pink silk embroidered gown with lace insets; Mrs. Patton, white satin. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Christ Church cathedral, Wednesday evening at 7:30, when Miss Winifred Sarah Taylor, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Taylor, "Rode Issa," Fifth street, was married to Mr. W. Reginald Roskelly, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roskelly. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Barton. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a becoming gown of white point d'esprit over taffeta, wore a handsome Brussels net veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a lovely shower bouquet of bridal roses. She wore, as her only ornament, a beautiful gold necklace with cross pendant set with pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Hilda Richards acted as bridesmaid, attired in a dainty white melle dress trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and with this she wore a large white picture hat trimmed with plumes and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bride's sisters, Misses Hilda and Elsie Taylor, made picturesque little flower girls in pink muslin dresses, with quaint little hats to match and baskets of pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Roy Roskelly. The groom's gifts to the bridesmaid and flower girls were pretty gold brooches set with amethysts. After the ceremony a largely attended reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn foliage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Roskelly left for Vancouver and the Sound cities, where the honeymoon will be spent. Upon their return they will reside at 2620 Blanchard avenue. The bride travelled in a very smart mustard-colored costume with hat to match, and with this she wore a handsome set of white furs. The following handsome presents testify the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends: Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, carving set and oil painting; Mr. and Mrs. Roskelly, oak hall rack and family Bible; Mr. and Mrs. Symons, tea set; Miss Elsie Taylor, cushion and ash tray; Miss Hilda Taylor, tea set; Mrs. Whittier, dinner mats; Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, wicker chair; Miss Elliott, hand-painted vase; Miss A. MUSICIAN'S SUCCESS.

The Prussian Royal Academy of Music at Charlottenburg has conferred an unprecedented honor on a young English musician, Miss Beatrice Harrison, to whom it has just awarded the "Mendelssohn Prize" for her violoncello playing. It is the first time that the prize has ever been won by a woman or a foreigner.

Her sister, Miss May Harrison, made a brilliant debut on the German concert platform as a violinist a year ago. Their father, Colonel Harrison, is a retired officer of the Indian army, who resided at Berlin during his daughters' musical education.

For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

SCOTLAND'S GAME

The Marquis of Linnithgow, opening a new golf club house near Edinburgh, said Scotland had given much to the world, but he doubted if she had given anything greater than the game of golf. He had had experience of the game in China and in India, and he often thought that no game had ever been invented that made more for friendship and good fellowship.

We go to all parts of the world for the wonderful ingredients of Psychine (pronounced Si-keen). We combine these ingredients in the finest chemical laboratories in Canada, and so great is our 30-year-old faith in this preparation that we'll buy a 50-cent bottle of it from your druggist and give it to you to try.

For nearly the third of a century we have known what Psychine will do. We have known it to cure hundreds of thousands in that time, of some of the most desperate cases of disease known to medical science.

We have received thousands of unsolicited testimonials, which we will gladly let you look over should you desire.

Think of it, a third of a century's experience with one preparation, a third of a century's intimate knowledge of what extraordinary cures it has made—almost a lifetime!

Do you wonder then with that perfect knowledge of Psychine, that we are anxious to bring it to the notice of everyone in Canada suffering from disease?

Do you wonder that we want those to know who are using wrong methods of cure, who are not getting well, and who we know will be benefited by Psychine?

Do you wonder that we can buy hundreds of thousands of 50-cent bottles of Psychine from the druggists of Canada to give to those who wish to try it?

Psychine builds vitality.

It strengthens and increases the white corpuscles of the blood—the phagocytes, the policemen or scavengers of the blood.

These white corpuscles of the blood, when strong enough, destroy every disease germ that gets into the body, keeps the body healthy.

If these white corpuscles are not in sufficient numbers or are not sufficiently strong, then these disease germs destroy them and disease holds the body. That's the cause of nearly every disease that afflicts the human race. For years, centuries, in fact, it has been recognized that herbs are the most effective treatment for disease.

It is only within recent times that we have been able to tell just why they were so effective.

Because certain of them increased and strengthened the white corpuscles or phagocytes.

These herbs are employed in compounding Psychine.

We go all over this world to obtain these herbs. Arabia, South America, China and Japan all contribute.

And the result is a preparation that will restore health and build vitality as no other preparation will.

That has proven itself in nearly the third of a century's use as no other preparation has proven itself.

That is a most effective treatment for:

AUTO ROAD TO MOUNT DOUGLAS

INTERESTING SUGGESTION BY THE CITY ENGINEER

Expenditure of $1,000 Would Make Grand Scenic Spot Available

Angus Smith, city engineer, made an interesting suggestion for the beautification of Mount Douglas park at last evening's meeting of the streets committee of the city council. He believes that by the expenditure of not more than $1,000 a spiral roadway for automobiles could be constructed so that the summit could be reached. His report, which was laid over for consideration at another session of the committee read as follows:

"I have made an examination with a view of obtaining the easiest method of reaching the summit of Mount Douglas, which is approximately 700 feet high, and find that an east automobile drive can be obtained by turning to the left from the main road opposite the property of Mr. Featherstone, following a private road a distance of approximately 1,500 feet, then turning to the right towards the summit of the mountain, following a sand ridge for approximately three-quarters of a mile. This auto can be taken over this road approximately within 500 feet of the summit and about 320 feet below the highest peak of the mountain. The first 100 feet from the mountain down is easy travelling. The next 100 feet could be improved by cutting steps in the rock and making the pathway somewhat winding. From the end of the auto-drive there is a rise of 100 feet to where there is a natural bench which could easily be made into a suitable resting place. I believe that $1,000 would widen the auto drive sufficiently to let auto pass in comfort and would also build the necessary steps near the top and provide a resting place and an auto stand, which would make an auto ride to the top of Mount Douglas park one of the principal attractions of Victoria. Sign boards should be placed where the driveway leaves the main roadway and where the roadway turns directly through the trees to the mountain."

T. S. Scott, manager of the Columbia Bitulithic, Limited, forwarded a letter in which he pointed out that it was erroneous to suppose that if the company had payments for the city, a royalty would have to be paid on repairs, and further that in any event few repairs would be required if bitulithic were used. He cited the large amount of work done by the company elsewhere and invited members of the council to view samples of bitulithic pavement which have been laid in Vancouver. Mr. Scott also pointed out that repairs can be more conveniently and more cheaply made to bitulithic than to sheet asphalt. The company is willing to enter into the necessary guarantees in respect to the lasting qualities of the pavement. The letter was referred to the city engineer.

The city engineer reported that Luke Humber has been appointed to the position of inspector of the work of constructing the sea wall along the Dallas Road foreshore, the contract for which was awarded a short time ago to the Pacific Coast Construction Company. Mr. Humber has had large experience in work of this kind. Twenty-five years ago he superintended the concrete work on the Esquimalt graving dock and last year he built the lighthouse at Estevan, the highest lighthouse on the continent of America. A suggestion from Dr. Lewis Hall, ex-mayor, that the city solicitor should be asked to accompany the special committee of the council to the annual meeting of the Union of B. C. Municipalities was referred for consideration to the council.

A large deputation representing the teamsters of the city, at the head of which was John Haggerty, waited on the committee and pressed for an increase in the rate of pay. At present they receive $4 per day for wagon, team and driver and ask for $7.

Mayor Morley referred to the great damage being done to the streets of the city by material being dropped from wagons. He urged that if the increase be granted by the board teamsters should be forced to observe the provisions of the by-law framed for the protection of the streets.

The request of the deputation will be considered by the committee after the question of what effect the increase would have on the cost of works now under construction has been determined.

SAT ON LID.

Hearing a suspicious jinking of coin, Rose North, a servant at the Prince Alfred Inn, Dover, went into the bar and found a man leaning over the counter with his hand in the till. The man bolted and the girl gave chase. He took refuge in a large food chest on the Cliff road works and the girl sat on the lid until a constable arrived.

At the police court after in the day the man, who gave the name John Cooper, was sentenced to three weeks' hard labor. The magistrate commended the girl's pluck.

IMMIGRANT AND HIS VIOLIN.

A Russian immigrant named Nuchon Pinhof, a violinist, in appealing before the Liverpool immigration board against a refusal to permit his landing in England, submitted that with the aid of his violin he would be able to earn a good livelihood playing in London cafe orchestras. The appeal was granted.

THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

Offers For Sale Lots in First Subdivision to the Original Townsite of

Watrous

The geographical centre of the great and growing Canadian West—The centre of the finest farming section in all Saskatchewan—The most attractive town of this new Golden Empire—The Central Divisional Point of the Great Western Provinces on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway—In direct line between Regina and Prince Albert, and will be on line of railway when built between these two cities—The terminus of the branch line of the Grand Trunk Pacific to Prince Albert.

HOW MANY LOTS IN WATROUS DO YOU WANT?

Are YOU going to purchase some lots in Watrous, and take advantage of the big increase in value which is practically sure to take place in this live and growing city in the next two or three years? Or are you going to procrastinate—hesitate—put off the matter until later on? The money YOU make in Watrous will be through the ownership of lots you ACTUALLY PURCHASE. Remember, "He who hesitates works for the other and not on the lots which you INTEND TO PURCHASE."

Later on, when Watrous is one of the important and rapidly-growing cities of Western Canada, and real estate which is close in commands high and constantly-increasing prices, will YOU then be pointed out as one of those who took advantage of a live opportunity, or will you be one of those who lament their condition and discuss what "might have been?"

Being a Divisional Point on a great line of railway is usually alone sufficient to make a city of considerable importance, but Watrous, on account of its natural advantages and strategic position, would be an important inland city even if it were not a Divisional Point.

An investment in real estate in Watrous offers a splendid opportunity for large and certain profits. And no line of investment during the last few years has been so safe and shown greater returns than an investment in lots in the rapidly-growing cities of Western Canada.

History DOES repeat itself, and it is usually safe to judge the future by the past. Therefore, it will be well for you to ponder over this fact: The C. P. R. was the first of the great Transcontinental lines of railway.

Suppose you had purchased a few years ago lots close in at $100 in any of the Western Divisional Points on the C. P. R., your investment would have been safe and certain right from the start, and it would have been constantly and rapidly increasing in value.

You now have the same opportunity in Watrous that was presented in these Divisional Point cities on the C. P. R. The Grand Trunk Pacific is the latest and destined to become the greatest of all the Transcontinental lines. Traversing as it does a great and rich territory, there can be no doubt that the Divisional Points on the G.T.P. will in a few years be cities of equal size and importance with those on the C.P.R.

You can buy lots today in Watrous, close in, splendidly located, for $100, and in five years these lots in Watrous should be worth at least as much as the same kind of lots in Moose Jaw today.

$100,000,000 MADE LAST YEAR

By Those Who Own Property in the Live and Growing Cities of Western Canada

WHAT PORTION OF THIS DID YOU MAKE?

From the most accurate figures obtainable, it is found that the assessed valuation of real estate in the live and growing cities of Western Canada last year increased more than $100,000,000. This does not include improvements, but the actual increase in value of real estate in these cities. The Winnipeg Free Press, securing its figures from records which have been gathered directly from the original sources, finds that in eight Western Canadian cities the increase in real estate values of land alone, and not improvements, for the past five years has averaged 562 per cent., or an average annual increase of 112 per cent. for each of these cities during the past five years.

What does this mean to you? It means nothing unless you participate in the profits, and you can do this only by buying real estate in these young and vigorous Western Canadian cities. The most certain to make you 100 per cent. profit each year.

What Does This Mean to You? It means nothing unless you participate in the profits, and you can do this only by buying real estate in these young and vigorous Western Canadian cities. The most certain to make you 100 per cent. profit each year.

Little Manitou Lake—"The Carlsbad of Canada"

THE WINNIPEG TELEGRAM, speaking editorially of Watrous and its wonderful mineral lake, has the following: "Little Lake Manitou, on the G. T. P., is beginning to receive the attention to which the wonderful medicinal properties of the water of the lake so well entitle it. The Indians called the lake 'Manitou,' which means 'good spirit,' owing to the healing qualities they found the waters possessed. It is said that Indians came to this lake from hundreds of miles round and on the shores are still to be seen circles of stones, which mark the Indian encampments. Though it is probable that the Indians for years have availed themselves of the curative powers of the waters of this lake, it was not until the building of the G. T. P. had caused the town of Watrous to spring into being two years ago that the remarkable medicinal value of the waters of the lake began to be generally realized.

The power of these waters to cure rheumatism, eczema and skin diseases has been so positively and strikingly demonstrated as to attract considerable interest. Those who visit the lake are unanimous in declaring Little Manitou Lake as the coming Carlsbad of Canada. A chemical analysis of the waters of Little Lake Manitou shows considerable resemblance to the medicinal waters of the world-famous Carlsbad, which has for so long maintained the highest reputation. The beneficial results obtained from bathing in Little Lake Manitou are so positive that the good effect is beyond doubt.

What the Hon. Wm. Pugsley Says: "Hon. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works for the Dominion of Canada, hearing of the fame of the lake, paid it a visit and bathed in its waters. The honorable gentleman, when interviewed at Watrous by one of our reporters, stated: 'I am not an authority on the medicinal qualities of water, but this I can say: Bathing in Little Lake Manitou is particularly pleasant; there is a property about the water that imparts a pleasant glow. I am somewhat troubled with rheumatism, and I am quite certain bathing in Little Lake Manitou has been very beneficial to me.'

"I consider Watrous has a good future, the lake is a valuable asset to Saskatchewan, and it will become a resort patronized not only by people from all parts of this country, but also from points in the United States. I have visited health resorts in California and England. Little Lake Manitou is unique. 'Yes, it is true we have bought four lots on the shores of Little Lake Manitou; my brother (Dr. P. A. Pugsley) intends to take treatment here for rheumatism, from which he suffers.'

Where Anyone Can Swim: "The specific gravity of the water of Little Manitou Lake is 1.05. This is 54 heavier than the waters of Carlsbad. The human body cannot sink in water of this specific gravity. People who elsewhere have given up all hope of swimming, find it easy to swim in Lake Manitou."—From the Winnipeg Telegram, July 30, 1910.

Blyden Co. for three nights next week, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, with a special matinee on Saturday. The company will produce "Sweet Clover," which, as everybody knows, is one of the prettiest plays that has been produced for a long time, and it may be said with truth it is one of the best bills this company has yet produced. Very little more has to be said, as most people are familiar with the company and its work, and a splendid performance is assured.

WESTERN UNION OFFICE.

Local Manager Promptly Secures New Offices.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has been singularly unfortunate in the last year. First it lost a cable, which disarranged business for some time. Then it had to leave the former office on Government street on the expiry of the lease and at the time it was impossible to secure suitable accommodation on that main thoroughfare. A location on Port street in the Five Sisters block was obtained and there a splendidly fitted up office was opened a short time ago, only to be wiped out in the fire. By the afternoon of Thursday, however, the local manager had arranged for room in the Great Northern Railway offices, 1205 Government street, near Prince avenue, and the wires were again working. Commercial Superintendent Boeving and Traffic Superintendent Hard were over from Seattle yesterday in connection with the fire and were well satisfied to find the local office in shape. By the first of the year the Great Northern and Western Union will occupy new offices on the same street.

THE SCRIBBLER.

"When I have time" (he said), "I'll write
The songs that ring in my heart all day;
But now I want food, and a fire to light—
I must scribble to keep the wolf away."
And he turned to his work, with hopeful eyes,
And the Angels listened in pitying wise—
"When I have time!"

"When I have time" (he said, and sighed)
"I'll write . . . This hour to Death belongs."
And he turned his face to the wall and died,
And the World went by, the poorer for
But in the Eternity God hath given
Perhaps he writes for the harps of Heaven—
Escaped from Time.
—Pall Mall Gazette.

MR. ERNEST G. MAYNARD, 916 Park Boulevard, Victoria, writes the following: "I have driven my McLaughlin Buick Car continually since May 18th, 1909, covering OVER 15,000 MILES, and during this period my repairs and replacement account has only been $7.00, for one spark plug and one spring. My car is running as well now as when I purchased it. I have travelled over some of the roughest roads on this island, also been over the Summit several times, and still running on the same tires I got with the car. I feel safe in saying it is the BEST CAR ON THE MARKET FOR THE MONEY.

Port Alberni

You can safely invest your money in Port Alberni. As we previously told you, Port Alberni property is the best buy on the whole Pacific Coast of America. Outside of the enormous trade to be developed with the Orient steamers, the steamers trading via the Panama canal (and here let me say the insurance rate on ocean going steamers is cheaper into Port Alberni than into Vancouver, B. C., which cheapness of rates eliminates the so-called danger of passage up the Alberni canal, the only drawback that is ever put forward as against Port Alberni being the best ocean port of the whole Pacific Coast). Outside the fact that Port Alberni is the terminus of two transcontinental railway lines, we have enough timber, mineral and farming land alone to develop a city of fifty thousand population. To those who wish to invest, I may say that at some future date the C. P. R. and C. N. railroads will run to the northern end of Vancouver Island, but you will have mountains of time in which to clean up large sums by investment in Port Alberni, with which, when the proper time arrives, to buy at the northern end of this island. We will give you due notice of said time. We have a LIMITED number of GOOD BUYS in Port Alberni. ACREAGE, SUBDIVISION LOTS AND INSIDE LOTS.

Sunday School.—A new departure in Sunday school work was commenced last Tuesday evening when a meeting of the officers and teachers was held at the home of W. E. Staneland, the superintendent. The lesson for to-morrow was taught by the Rev. T. E. Holling, B.A., and a short talk on Teacher training was given by J. M. Campbell. Mrs. Staneland kindly provided refreshments and a very pleasant social half hour brought the meeting to a close. The meeting next week will be held in the Epworth League room and the first lesson in the teacher training course will be given by Mr. Campbell, and the lesson for next Sunday taught by Rev. A. E. Roberia.

Young Women's Club.—The members of the Young Women's Club deserve the thanks of the congregation for providing such an excellent treat as the lecture on "Hawaii," given by Mrs. Francis King Headlee, last Wednesday evening. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mrs. Headlee for her lecture.

He asks that friends who are unable to be present at the meetings on Monday night send their offerings addressed to him at 1449 Pembroke street. He hopes that all who have received any good from the services during the past year will co-operate in this effort.

B. Y. F. U.—Last Monday evening the pastor gave an interesting talk describing a visit which he made some few years ago to the Canary Islands. There was a good attendance and the talk was much enjoyed.

UNITARIAN

The address to-morrow evening will be denominational in character. In it the speaker will endeavor to present a candid and instructive statement of the principles commonly held by the body of Christians known as Unitarians. Mr. Pratt believes that there is much misunderstanding regarding the peculiar belief of the denomination and he wishes in as far as possible to remove that misunderstanding. At the close Mr. Pratt's lecture on "Evolution" on Thursday evening the larger portion of the audience remained for a social hour. The ladies had prepared some light refreshments and amid the aroma of coffee mutual greetings and social converse made a very enjoyable ending to an otherwise very interesting event.

LOS ANGELES EXPLOSION.

Witnesses Testify Before the Special Grand Jury.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 29.—The special grand jury summoned to probe the taking of evidence among the witnesses were Chief Engineer Mulholland, of the Los Angeles Aqueduct, and E. Nashold, a Kern county miner, who was seated on his bed in the third story of the Nederal hotel, one block from the Times' building, when the explosion occurred.

Nashold testified that he saw the south wall of the building expand, and the hole about 15 feet in diameter appeared. This, he said, was followed by a burst of flame from the parateur. He declared that in his business he had handled dynamite for many years, and expressed his positive opinion that the Times explosion was caused by dynamite.

ON COPYRIGHT

IMPERIAL RECIPROCI-TY FOR BRITISH AUTHORS

Bill Dealing With Matter in Entirety to Be Presented to Parliament

Hon. Sydney Fisher is now drafting a bill for presentation at the coming session of parliament, which will give Canada its long-desired control over its own copyright law, says the Montreal Herald. When the Imperial parliament re-assembles, the Right Hon. Sidney Buxton will put through a bill under which this important concession to Canada will operate. It will amend and consolidate the law relating to copyright, and will treat the question from an imperial as well as an international point of view.

Hon. Sydney Fisher, whose department administers copyright, and who was in England this summer in this connection, confirms the above announcements. "It is," he said, "a complete emancipation for Canada, whose right to legislate on this subject has hitherto been denied, in spite of our strong and vigorous protests ever since the Mackenzie act was disallowed in Downing street. It is more than I expected. I was surprised at the completeness of what I got. People in England were at first a little startled at the position I took, but they proved to be amenable to reason. The conference that was held this summer was presided over by Mr. Buxton, president of the board of trade. There were present representatives of the foreign, colonial and other offices. Lord Tennyson represented Australia, Sir Richard Solomon South Africa, Sir William Hall-Jones New Zealand, and Sir Edward Morris Newfoundland. The Society of Authors has always been a stumbling block. I learned that it is now defunct."

"Has the British government agreed to surrender its position on this matter in regard to Canada?" your correspondent asked Mr. Fisher.

"Yes," he said "the government has pledged itself, and British legislation will remove from us the disability to legislate for ourselves on foreign copyright. It repeals the Imperial act of 1842 and adheres to the Berlin convention of two years ago, then agreed to subject to the ratification of parliament. The British bill will adhere to that convention with a proviso that Canada and each part of the Empire may adhere or not as they like."

"Do you propose that the Dominion parliament shall pass an act concurrently with the Imperial parliament?"

"Yes, I am now preparing a bill to be introduced in the House of Commons this forthcoming session. It will assume full control. That is a thing for which we have been fighting for many years, particularly the last twenty, and the victory is very important. I will propose to conform our new copyright law as much as possible to the Berlin convention. In the United Kingdom the duration of copyright is life of the author of the book and seven years, or forty-two years, whichever is the longer. The new act will extend this period to life and fifty years. It is likely that Canada will adopt that."

"How about our relations with the United States, against which Canadian publishers, booksellers and printers so strongly protest?"

"This," said Mr. Fisher, "will dispense with giving the Canadian market to United States publishers in virtue of British copyright. Hereafter such copyright will not run in Canada. Hitherto it has, because a British copyright obtained by a United States publisher acquired the United States territory was also in force in Canada and the Canadian field went with it. I regard this as extremely important. The Berlin convention does away with formalities, that is to say, what would be in Canada registration and printing in Canada. I am prepared to say that I will agree with that part of the convention, and in adhering to a modified form. Before leaving for England Mr. Morang came to see me, and although I was possessed of his views I obtained them afresh.

"This Canadian bill will also be of an imperial character. I think we ought to recognize British copyright by British authors, and as the British government has agreed to recognize Canadian copyright we hope to get absolute reciprocity within the Empire. The British author would simply be required to register here. The bill now being prepared in this department adopts the principle of international copyright as far as it applies to our own people."

Mr. Fisher did not get particularly into the whole question pending the presentation of this bill to Parliament, nor say anything as to copyright in music and pictures, but the bill will deal with those from the point of view of Canadian interests. The minister of agriculture added: "I expect that the bill will arouse some controversy, but I feel sure that when it is understood it will meet with general acceptance."

SPARTAN METHODS ARE ADVOCATED
 President of National Union of Women Workers Talks on Education

Lady Ridding, in the course of her presidential address at the annual conference of the National Union of Women Workers of Great Britain and Ireland, said that of late years she felt there had been too strong a tendency at the conference to confine attention to problems of life to the exclusion of the consideration of its details, and it would not be unifying to compare their present ideals with those of the past. No one would challenge the assertion that the keynote of educational ideals of the ancient and mediaeval world was discipline—described by Socrates as gymnastics for the body and music for the soul. That stern figure of discipline held aloft the torch of learning during thirty centuries. At the renaissance the attitude of civilized European nations changed gradually towards the prime meaning of education. In place of the paramount idea of discipline for the benefit of corporate life, development of the individual and of all his latent powers began to be recognized as the greatest aim of the teacher.

During the week they would hear much of the really good work accomplished by modern methods; nevertheless she pointed out that we were at the present time threatened with a real danger, which must be resisted, namely, the widespread disposition to resent all mental discipline. No formation of character could be carried on in a generation that temper which, if not subdued, would undoubtedly result in general national degeneracy from the loss of moral fibre of the rising generations. She would like to point out two strangely contradictory results directly traceable to the exaggerated doctrine of the development of the individual: first, the absence of the hardening quality of discipline, with mental coddling—treatment which produced the evaporation, not the evolution, of the individual. It blighted with sterility the power of initiation, forethought, self-control, and mental discipline—all qualities dressed for street exhibition. As the full-sized figure was upright in the elevator car a lady hurried forward to make the up-trip on the elevator. Suddenly she saw through the lattice door of the elevator cage what appeared to be a woman in company with the elevator man. She drew modestly back, alarmed at such an exhibition, and her modesty was further shocked when the man commenced to laugh. After a few explanations the lady ascended in the car side by side with Venus.

Mr. Harris no doubt feels highly complimented upon these two honest instances of recognition of his talent as a sculptor.

WELSH LADIES' CHOIR COMING

Enjoyable Treat for Music Lovers Promised Next Friday

The following is a clipping from the Bristol Evening Times, Bristol, Eng. From this it will be seen that all lovers of really good music may look forward with pleasure to Friday, November 4th, when the choir will be heard at the Victoria theatre:

"It was a great tribute to the popularity of Welsh music and Welsh singers to find the Colston hall filled almost to overflowing on the occasion of the visit of the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir, the only corporate body of its kind at present in existence in the Land of Music. That the concert was a veritable triumph for the members of the choir and their talented conductor, Madame Hughes-Thomas, cannot be gainsaid. Dressed in the typical costume of the Welsh countryside the girls, numbering about twenty-five, made a charming picture on the platform, whilst the volume of song which they poured forth upon the delighted audience was even more captivating.

Madame Hughes-Thomas conducted music classes in Cardiff for many years, and a few years ago, when the late King and Queen visited that city, she received the royal command to appear before them. Invitations to sing at concerts followed, and the choir became an organization which is now first visiting this country.

"It was a matter for regret with Madame Thomas that Miss Marianne Squires had been unable to come to Bristol owing to illness, but there were others in the picture, and one of them was Miss Daisy Bibbings, a young lady who has, to quote Madame Thomas, 'been in my classes for some time and has a very pretty voice.' At the Colston hall Miss Bibbings sang 'Little Orphan Annie,' a quaint little song by Needham, which she sang in charming fashion, and interpreted the wailing of the wind very cleverly. The other bright particular star in the musical firmament was Miss Daisy Wyndham, of whose future Madame Thomas is thoroughly optimistic. She sang 'April Morn' last night with superb ease and charm, and roused the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. As an encore she gave the 'Cuckoo' song, and, taking last night's work as a criterion, we shall be greatly surprised if Miss Wyndham does not make a name for herself in the musical world.

"Reverting to the choir in general, Madame Thomas was pardonably proud of the fact that amongst the ladies are numbered several full dramatic sopranos, including Miss Marianne Squires, the winner of the chief soprano competition at the National Eisteddfod at Swansea—a trophy which it will be remembered Miss Edith Evans has credited to Bristol—and many light sopranos and deep, full contraltos, the excellence of whose work those present at last night's concert can fitly judge."

ANCIENT BROTHER

A witness in a police court in Styria asked if he had any brothers, said that he had one, but that he had died 140 years ago. Asked for an explanation, the witness stated that he was the father of a second marriage. His father married first in 1769, at the age of 19. Following year there was born a son, who died when only a few months old. The latter's father married again in 1820 at the age of 70, and the witness was born the year following. Being 89 years of age when giving evidence, the interval since the death of the first child was thus extended to 140 years.

NEAR TRAGEDY AT THE RECENT FIRE

While no loss of life occurred at the fire of the Five Sisters block on Wednesday night and Thursday morning there was a near tragedy which held women and men breathless on Fort street for minutes while they gazed at the full-sized form of a woman disclosed to view in almost nude condition in one of the windows of the top-storey of the Five Sisters block.

The woman was seen standing at the window as the flames burst through the floor and her life was evidently in danger. Scarcely clothed, just as she had apparently rushed from her bed, the figure was thrown into full relief by the flames surging through the building.

Two women in the street below were the first to notice the woman in the top storey, and their cries drew the attention of several men on the sidewalk, who immediately held their hands over their eyes—to shut out the sight of the impending tragedy. Suddenly it was noticed that one of the woman's arms was torn off and with a cry of horror one of the women on Fort street rushed to a member of the fire brigade working with a hose, on the street and demanded he should scale the fire escape and rescue the lady.

For a matter of moments people believed the supposed woman in the top storey would undoubtedly be killed, and their fears were emphasized a few moments later as the floor fell and the figure was seen to crash down with the blazing ruins three floors below.

The scene was indescribable, as it was known that many of the rooms in the Five Sisters block were occupied as bedrooms, and a rapid search was made to ascertain the identity of the victim.

Her identity was made known by E. A. Harris, in whose office she was when seen, and in whose office she has been for many years. The "Globe" is Mr. Harris' famous statue of Venus, which he sculptured himself several years ago and which at one time was on exhibition here. The statue was life size and on one occasion previously started an alarm in the Five Sisters block.

On that occasion Venus was about to be carried upstairs to the office tenanted by Mr. Harris and was not
