STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT GOVERNMENT is one of the prides of Carolina. Based on the Honor Code and Campus Code—the Student Government manages to match the liberality of the University with the acceptance of responsibility on an individual basis. Here student government has come to be known not by the mechanics of organization but by the fact that all students have a voice in determining the manner in which student activities shall be operated to such an extent that we have attained an enviable position among college student bodies.

Historically, Student Government had its beginnings in the halls of the Di and Phi. As new powers evolved, our Student Government took the form of our national and state governments with three branches: executive, legislative and judicial.

It has been the aim of our student government to attempt to solve some of the problems confronting the student in the course of his college career. Chief functions of student officers through the years have been to establish the orientation of entering students, to make the students conscious of all phases of their government, to account for the expenditure of student fees, and to hear reported violations of the Honor System. Today nearly all phases of student life at the University, among them publications, social life, and many student organizations, are controlled by the students themselves to make an unexcelled student government.

This year under the Gorham administration student government has been at one of its heights of success. Through President Gorham's guidance and the cooperation on the part of all those associated with the mechanics of student government, the problems of the year, including the Saturday class issue, the reorganization of the Consolidated University Student Council, the evaluation of the Honor System, and the improvement in the structure of the Orientation Committee, have been inspected. After the spring controversy concerning the National Students' Association, the organization has been reorganized here at Carolina and is now more active than before.

A main point in this year's administration was the reorganization of student government. Various branches were brought closer together, and thus efficiency was increased. Many new positions in student government were opened to interested students, and consequently the previous lack of interest in the running of student government has been greatly reduced.

And so the 1953-1954 administration is another step insuring the long and progressive growth of Student Government here at Carolina.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE HEADS

Student Council

THE STUDENT COUNCIL here at Carolina could be called the Supreme Court of the Student Government system under which we carry on the various activities of our student community. To it falls the responsibility of regulating the application of the Honor and Campus Codes, and particularly the guarantee of justice to every individual. Actually, the Council serves as a referee for the system of government for student life in Chapel Hill and functions as the protector of rights of all the students.

The Council has original jurisdiction in all cases involving the constitutionality of any action of the Student Legislature or any other of the agencies of Student Government. The court reviews petitions of appeal by any student if he or she feels that the Men's Honor Council, the Women's Honor Council, the Dance Committee, the Interfraternity Council, the Dental School Court, the Medical School Court, the Law School Honor Court, or the Interdormitory Council Court has denied him or her any of the rights guaranteed to the individual under our Student Constitution or the State or Federal Constitutions. It further attempts to see that there are uniform judicial procedures in all the student courts.

The Council is composed of nine people, three selected by the men, three by the women, and three by the student body at large. The chairman is elected by and from the council membership and serves for a period of one year.

To preserve and improve the Honor System and our Student Government under which we live is the primary objective of the Student Council of the University of North Carolina.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Legislature

THE STUDENT LEGISLATURE is today the supreme legislative body in Carolina's student government. Since its inception in 1938, it has met on Thursday nights to deliberate and argue the various campus issues and make the campus laws. It is here that the campus statesmen of the political parties rage back and forth in the contentions of campus politics. Here, in the fifty members of legislature elected from districts all over the campus in annual fall and spring elections, lies the basis of the hundreds of activities of student government. The legislature is presided over by the Vice-President of the Student Body. It is organized into various committees, including the infamous co-ed affairs committee.

Officers for this year are: Baxter Miller, President; Joel Fleishman, Parliamentarian; Don Geiger, Speaker Protem; Anita Anderson, Clerk; and Mac Morris, Sergeant-at-Arms.

WOMEN'S HONOR COUNCIL

Women's Honor Council

THE WOMEN'S HONOR COUNCIL is the judicial branch of the coed-self-government, working parallel to the Men's Council. All cases involving violations of the Honor Code and Campus Code by women students have original jurisdiction in this council. The Women's Council also acts as appellate court of House Council decisions.

Each year the Council leads the orientation of women students in the Honor System and Campus

Code, instructing entering coeds in the origin and meaning of these standards. Elected by the women students, the Council is composed of four juniors, three seniors, one graduate student, and one woman student at large.

The Women's Council is an important phase of student government, functioning under the tradition of the University—"To do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with Thy God."

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

Camp, Kit Wallace, Ruth Jones, Louise Coffey, Carroll Butts, Gloria Huss.

Women's Residence Council

THE WOMEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL is the Administrative body of Coed Self-Government. Composed of dormitory presidents, sorority house managers, an additional representative from each dormitory, and a representative from the Nursing School, this group coordinates and links all Coed Administration to the office of the Dean of Women and works with them in regulating dormitory life.

Women's Residence Council was incorporated in the spring of 1952. Its functions include: the interpretation of social rules and dormitory regulations, the recommendation of changes in regulations affecting women students, discussion of any problems which may arise in dormitory living, the choosing of a May Day Chairman and the head of Orientation for Women Students, and the publication of the Women's Handbook.

Special projects for the year were the completion of a Constitution, and the editing of a President's Handbook.

Men's Honor Council

THE MEN'S HONOR COUNCIL, acting under the Student Constitution, has original jurisdiction in all cases of violations of the Honor Code and the Campus Code. As violations of Campus Law are not by their nature in a codified form, the Men's Council, by application of the criteria of honor and of gentlemanly conduct, defines the application and the extent of Campus Law. Along with the duty of upholding Campus Law by hearing cases, the Men's Council also has the responsibility of orienting new students to our system and of keeping the system in front of the campus at all times.

In the hierarchy of our court system the Men's Council has functions parallel to the Women's Council and is subordinate to the Student Council, our "Supreme Court."

The Men's Council is composed of three seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, one freshman, one pharmacy student, and one graduate student.

Publications Board

THE PUBLICATIONS BOARD was established a little over twenty-five years ago. It was formed to insure orderly supervision of the business part of campus publications. The Board does not exert any influence whatsoever over the editorial policies of the publications.

The Publications Board would not be pluralized if it had one less publication under its jurisdiction. It is responsible for the financial supervision of The Daily Tar Heel and the Yackety Yack. The Board negotiates contracts, approves editorial appointments and appointments to salaried positions, grants money for wire-services and equipment and gives advice in financial matters to the publications. The Board has representatives from the classes, the Student Legislature, and the faculty. It also has plans; improvement and prosperity are the aims of the Publications Board.

Men's Interdormitory Council

THE INTERDORMITORY COUNCIL, which represents approximately 3,000 men living in the University's nineteen dormitories, exists to promote and maintain an efficient system of student government in the University residence halls, to aid a fraternal relationship among dormitory dwellers, and to foster a wholesome program of social activities for the men under its jurisdiction.

The Council is composed of the presidents and I.D.C. representatives elected from each dorm, plus four hold-over officers, president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and a judicial court chairman. It is through these men that the other dormitory residents are informed as to the policies, activities, etc. of dormitory government.

Within the organization is the judicial court which handles all cases of violations of dormitory conduct regulations and judicial matters affecting the residence halls. The court is empowered to give decisions ranging from official reprimands to suspensions from the residence halls.

The activities of the Council include active cooperation and participation in almost all campus projects such as Campus Chest, open houses in the dorms on football week-ends, and social events in the dormitory social rooms, faculty-student discussions, and greater relationships between men and women on campus. The biggest social endeavor of the Council each year is the interdorm dance week-end, which offers opportunity for enjoyment in dancing and concert entertainment.

It is hoped that through this organization of dormitory government the incoming students each year will be thoroughly indoctrinated in the ways and traditions of the dormitories and that this orientation will serve to help them become better campus citizens. Once newcomers are integrated in the campus life of Carolina, it is the will and purpose of the I.D.C. to meet their needs in the way of serving as a voice for their feelings and attitudes to the administration of the University and in turn to convey policies and procedures to them from the proper places.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL — the student union, heart of student extracurricular life, a place of warm hospitality, and a symbol of home. The name evokes pleasant memories—of a great North Carolina family of educators and statesmen—of 22 years of service to the university as “the students’ building”—of the continuing growth of the student self-government tradition at Chapel Hill.

There are typical events to be remembered — the open-house parties, “combo” nights, recorded classical concerts, dancing in the Rendezvous Room. And there are the nights of tension as student political figures nervously stalk the halls while the votes are being counted upstairs.

But, in addition, this year has been characterized by a clean-up effort in Graham Memorial. The accumulated debris of a decade was trucked away. The main lounge was restored to its original beauty; perhaps it is now more beautiful than ever before. Reforms have been apparent on every level of operation. The present director of Graham Memorial has looked to the restoration and reclamation of existing facilities, as well as to realization of a new building within “this student generation.”

Student Union Activities Board

A newcomer to the campus constellation of action groups, SUAB has already proved that it can perform. Its activity is centered in the area of the Student Union program, and its chief purpose is to assist the Director and his staff in planning and executing a suitable schedule of events.

To this end, SUAB, with its officers and numerous committees, is admirably suited. Each committee group concerns itself with a specific subject (tournaments, fora, etc.) and their collective efforts are integrated by an executive committee. A movie series (especially successful this year), an “open house,” and a campus “variety show” have highlighted the SUAB entertainment endeavors.

There have been evidences also of a new spirit, a heightened interest, throughout the Graham Memorial organization. The Board of Directors appropriated a record-breaking $11,900 for the main lounge alterations alone. And there have been assists from friends outside the organization proper. The Student Legislature appropriated $2,000 to serve as a supplementary entertainment fund, and the University consented to make substantial repairs and improvements to the building amounting to several thousand dollars.

At the center of Graham Memorial's operation, and responsible for whatever continuity it possessed this year (or any year), was the "staff." You found that the "staff" could get you a reservation to Afghanistan (Vince Hoelscher, travel agent), tell you the residence of a student named Joe who drives a red car (we were asked that question this year), or reserve a room for you which was already being used by three other groups at the same time. (It wasn't the staff's fault. There just wasn't (and isn't) enough room.) And if no one else knew the answers to your questions, you asked Jim McIntyre, the assistant director (in charge of SUAB relations), Mrs. Douglas Fambrough, office manager, or Jack Wilson, maintenance supervisor. If they didn't know, nobody did.

Orientation Committee

TOM CREASY
Men's Orientation Chairman

NANCY HORNE
Women's Orientation Chairman

The Orientation Committee, capably headed by Tom Creasy and Nancy Horne, guided the freshmen and new coeds through a rigorous week of learning "the Carolina Way of Life." The committee planned the activities of Orientation Week throughout the summer and arrived in Chapel Hill a week early in order to carry out their ideas. Hats off to the Committee and all counselors and advisers for a big job well done.

Consolidated University Student Council

THE CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL consists of thirty-three delegates, eleven from each of the three branches of the Consolidated University: Carolina, State, and Woman's College. Each year the CUSC sponsors several Consolidated University Days, one during the football season at Chapel Hill when Carolina plays State, and others at State and Woman's College. The Council also acts as a liaison group between the students and the Consolidated University administration and promotes activities of mutual interest to the students of the three branches.

THE PURPOSE OF THE Student Entertainment Committee is to bring the student body a wide variety of top-level talent. This year the committee has endeavored to bring a series of programs to the campus that will be entertaining and educational, while at the same time contribute to the cultural prestige of the University. This year the committee has presented a series of programs that represent the best in drama, music, ballet and humor.

North Carolina Student Legislature

GENE COOK
Delegation Chairman

THE NORTH CAROLINA STUDENT LEGISLATURE was founded in 1936 by a forensic fraternity at State College as primarily a debating function. Since then it has grown into a mock-state legislature with the two houses of the Assembly in use—the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Each of the twenty-five member schools is entitled to three Senators and a proportional number of Representatives based on the school's enrollment. The delegates at the Assembly debate bills on the international, national, state, and student level with emphasis on those bills of state and student level.

Each House of the Assembly elects its own officers for the duration of the three day meeting; the executive officers of the entire Assembly are elected by joint session and serve for a year. Carolina is fortunate in having one of its delegates serve as this year's President of the Assembly and one as Speaker of the House.

National Students Association

THE UNITED STATES NATIONAL STUDENTS ASSOCIATION is a federation of college and university student governments which seeks to maintain academic freedom and student rights, to stimulate and improve democratic student governments, to develop better educational standards, facilities, and teaching methods, to improve student cultural, social, and physical welfare, to promote international understanding and fellowship, to foster the recognition of the rights and responsibilities of students to the school, the community, humanity, and God, and to preserve the interests and integrity of the government and constitution of the United States of America.

It is for these purposes that the local NSA Committee functions. The local committee serves as a liaison between our campus government and the national office and other member schools of the National Students Association.

It has been a universally accepted fact that, in order for a university to grow intellectually, opinions from without the academic community must be brought into the open forum of ideas in which students and faculty members barter their philosophies and from which emerges the foundation for the students' beliefs.

Since its inception in 1947 and with the idea of furthering this principle, the Forum has brought to Carolina a group of the most distinguished persons in the world. This year, plans have been arranged to present, among others, Governor Adlai Stevenson, former President Harry S. Truman, Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Vice-President Richard Nixon, Representative Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and Governor G. Mennen Williams of Michigan.

The Forum deeply believes that, in providing for the fruition of the proposed program for 1953-1954, it will approach this year's fulfillment of its perpetual ideal—to bring to the campus of the oldest state university in the nation the political, educational, and economic leaders of the world.

BEVERLY WEBB
Chairman

THE DEBATE COUNCIL is an outgrowth of the two debating societies at Carolina, the Dialectic Senate and the Philanthropic Assembly. The Council, which determines the policy of and governs the debate squad, is composed of students selected by the forensic squad, one member for each of the debating societies and two faculty advisors.

Present activities of the Council include representing Carolina in intercollegiate debates and other forensic matches, and conducting the annual campus-wide Intramural Debate Tournament.

The Debate Council meets competition from most of the major colleges in the East. This competition includes debating, orations, extemporaneous speaking, and after-dinner speaking.

Officers of the Debate Council for the year were: Beverly Webb, President; Gladys Hatcher, Executive Secretary. Dr. N. W. Mattis and Dr. D. G. Monroe served as faculty advisors.

JUNIOR CLASS . . .

We come:

two years behind the Freshmen now . . . half-wise, half-foolish . . . facing early Saturdays and long Sunday afternoons . . . time our caretaker . . . education our stern keeper . . . many outside interests . . . flanking for the first row of Marriage and the Family . . . professional card players sipping a stronger tea . . . no longer too young, we have the future in our eyes . . . our brisk steps indent the soil with confidence . . . buildings more familiar . . . we walk on . . .

We endow:

campus politicians . . . football seasons . . . before Sunday escapades with still bare Saturday reveries . . . half-smoked cigarettes . . . warm donuts at the 'Y' with partially filled coffee cups scattered over the pavement . . . the before-lunch gab . . . enlistments in the service . . . Korea-Kapers . . . November intermission for Dook . . . interviews with Kinsey . . . freedom unlimited . . . a laugh, a shout, terrific love for life . . .

We come:

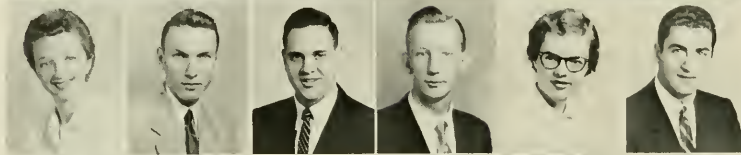

dedicating leaders . . . scholarship-shiners . . . government-givers . . . student activity endless . . . remembering dances . . . fraternity pin exchanges . . . examination entries . . . term paper tardy on the official deadline . . . expectation of the years . . . the Carolina way of life soon becomes the only way . . .

FRESHMAN CLASS . . .

AGE 18 . . . irrepressible youth . . . limited experience . . . the formidable gates . . . apprehension upon entering . . . the lost feeling of new independence cut sharply into our existence . . . long day with too few hours . . . conforming to regulations . . . memorizing names . . . feverish studying and deficiency slips . . . anticipating Sundays . . . Christmas with its glamor and Easter with its Spring . . .

Highlights on dating . . . heavier books with smaller print . . . the earliest kind of A. M. schedules . . . crew-cuts and white bucks . . . tweed coat and Rendezvous romances . . . starlight glamor and footprints in the Arboretum . . . bench-seekers after 9:00 P. M. . . greater noise in a maturing heart . . .

Second love in a different setting . . . invaluable correspondence . . . beginning thinkers . . . undescriptive dance step with the 'Carolina bop' . . . unrecognized image on an I. D. card . . .

Summer's bright interruption before Sophomore year . . . remorse on departure . . . backward glances with no regrets.

JOHN C. BRAUER
Dean of the School of Dentistry

THE FIRST CLASS in the history of the University of North Carolina will graduate from the School of Dentistry this June. Thirty-four North Carolinians will be located in various communities throughout the state to practice dentistry.

This past year two new programs have been activated, namely, graduate instruction in orthodontics leading to a Master's degree, and a two-year curriculum for the training of dental hygienists leading toward certification. Other graduate programs, as well as postgraduate instruction, will be activated this coming year. The new graduate and postgraduate clinics and laboratories now are under construction within the school.

Spurgeon Dental Society

THE SPURGEON DENTAL SOCIETY is the name given the student body of the School of Dentistry. The Society was named for the late Dr. J. S. Spurgeon, a pioneer in North Carolina dentistry.

With an active Student Council and Honor Court, the Society has become an integral part of the School.

Among the social events of the Society is a Winter Dinner Dance and a Spring Student-Faculty Day.

Drs. W. M. Byrd, J. A. Crowley, and R. F. Scherer, graduate students, working in the clinic.

Dental hygienists working in the lab.

Dental Hygienists

THE FIRST CLASS OF DENTAL HYGIENISTS were admitted to the University and the School of Dentistry this past fall. This is the first and only program of instruction offered in North Carolina. Girls were admitted from two states and the District of Columbia, totaling fourteen in number. Twenty girls will be selected each fall for future classes.

The curriculum now provides for two years of instruction leading to certification. Plans are now under way to provide a four-year curriculum leading toward the bachelor of science degree in Dental Hygiene.

The dental hygiene students will receive their laboratory and clinical experience in the same areas in the School of Dentistry as that provided for dental students. The students of dental hygiene live in the quarters of the School of Nursing.

Dean of the Graduate School

Graduate School

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL offers opportunity to qualified students who have completed work leading to a bachelor's degree for advanced and specialized studies. This School endeavors to prepare students to become investigators and teachers in special fields of learning, to foster interest and capacity in research, and to apply research methods to the problems of society, government, and industry.

Work for advanced degree is under the general supervision of the graduate faculty. Under authority delegated by the graduate faculty, the immediate direction of the School is in charge of an administrative board, of which the Dean is chairman.

School of Law

THE SCHOOL OF LAW opened its doors this fall to an unusually large first year class, and settled down to a year of intensive legal education. Besides an outstanding faculty and administrative staff, the school boasts an active Law School Association, of all law students, an ever-growing Alumni Association, and the publication by honor students of the quarterly journal, the North Carolina Law Review.

School Of

THE SCHOOL OF LIBRARY SCIENCE was established in 1931 under the direction of Dr. Louis R. Wilson. It was the fourth professional school on the campus and was made possible by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation. The School has drawn the larger number of its students from North Carolina and other Southeastern states, but there have also been many students from other parts of the country. Its graduates have gone into all types of library work and into all sections of the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, as well as to many foreign countries.

Library Science

Students learn library methods in the school's private stacks.

Quarters for the School, comprising rooms for laboratory work, lectures, and seminars, a stack area for the School's library and offices for the staff cover the entire top floor of the west wing of the University Library.

The school offers four programs: two masters' programs, one for public school librarians, and one for the work in any type of library; a basic one year program for college graduates preparing for beginning positions; and an eighteen semester hour undergraduate program for students interested in preparing for positions as librarians in schools.

Students discuss library problems in seminar.

Discussion Room provides pleasant atmosphere for study and relaxation.

School of Medicine

WITH A HISTORY stretching back to 1879, the School of Medicine has travelled a difficult road of progress with distinction. From 1900 the School has been an integral part of the University, and the distinguished physicians that have taken training here have won recognition throughout the nation.

The concept of a complete university health center was born in the 1940's, nurtured by the legislative appropriations of '45, '47, '49, and '51 and is now beginning to realize its full potential of service to the people of the state and the nation.

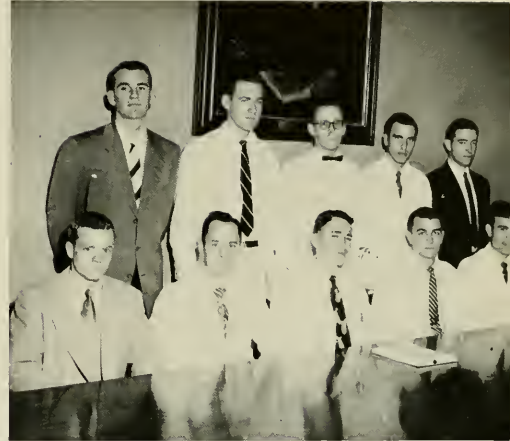

The 400-bed teaching hospital, the psychiatric pavilion, Gravelly Sanitarium, the additions to the Medical Science Building and the numerous other additions constitute a physical plant second to none, and with the splendant faculty that has been amassed to administer the modern curriculum, this Medical School will continue to progress, in service, in research, in leadership.

WALTER REECE BERRYHILL
Dean of the School of Medicine

Having the School of Medicine in Chapel Hill, integrated with the university, providing the opportunity for scientific pursuits in a cultural milieu, is a distinct advantage to both the School and the community.

For the first time in the history of the school, degrees will be conferred on people who have received their medical training at Chapel Hill. This Senior Class is the first of a long procession of "Carolina" physicians, who, proceeding next to their internships, then to their practices will put their knowledge and skill into active service.

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING, the most recently established school within the Division of Health Affairs, was the first four-year collegiate program in North Carolina.

The first students, now Juniors, were admitted in September of 1951. At present, there are one hundred and four students including two graduate nurses admitted with advanced standing in nursing.

The School of Nursing utilizes classroom, hospital, clinical and community facilities to provide the students with a broad professional background in nursing. A broad general education is provided by the various departments within the University.

School of Public Health

THE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH is the fourth oldest professional school of its kind in the United States and one of the ten North American schools accredited by the American Public Health Association. It is a member school of the University's Division of Health Affairs, which is the focal training and service point for an integrated state-wide health program.

The students of this School are all professional people who are taking post-graduate work beyond their respective professional competencies—medicine, engineering, nursing, dentistry, education, nutrition, and the like.

Besides the 115 regular students enrolled for one or more years of post-graduate work, the School of Public Health gives extension instruction to an additional 1500 students, largely from the State, in classes, institutes, and refresher courses.

SEPTEMBER FOUND THE freshmen asking the usual innumerable questions and trying to adjust themselves to college life. Within a few days upperclassmen and freshmen were reconciled to afternoon labs and weekly quizzes.

As the year passed on, the usual school events, freshman picnic, fraternity rushing, N. C. P. A. programs, Christmas parties, and the annual trip to Parke-Davis and Upjohn pharmaceutical manufacturers seemed even more successful than those of preceding years.

Soon spring fever fills the air and thoughts of Pharmacy week-end, diplomas, and the state board examination made the students long even more for May. Only commencement can make a student realize that he has fallen in love with Chapel Hill and that the past four years have been short but unforgettable ones.

The AFROTC was begun in 1946 and is a recognized part of the curriculum of over 200 colleges and universities. In his freshman and sophomore years the AFROTC cadet takes the basic course of study consisting of two classroom hours and two drill hours each week. In the advanced course, junior and senior years, the student has a course consisting of four classroom hours and two drill hours each week. The drill is devoted to exercise of command, and cadets in the advanced course may be selected as cadet officers and noncommissioned officers.

SINCE ITS INCEPTION in 1940 the NROTC Unit at Chapel Hill has dedicated itself to the training and indoctrination of undergraduate students enrolled in the program so that upon graduation they may receive commissions in the U. S. Navy or in the U. S. Marine Corps. A student may enter the program under either of two plans, Regular or Contract. As a Regular he is appointed a Midshipman upon enrolling in the program and receives tuition, books, uniforms, and six hundred dollars per year throughout his four years of college. Upon graduation, he is commissioned as an Ensign in the Navy or a Second Lieutenant in the Marines and must serve three years on active duty. The Contract program differs from the Regular in that the Contract student is furnished only with uniforms and is paid thirty dollars per month during the last two years of the program. Upon graduation he receives a reserve commission.

IN ADDITION to the academic program provided by the unit to give its prospective officers theoretical training in the military profession, the summer cruise program offers an opportunity for the midshipman to learn many of the practical phases of the work he has studied in class, and therefore make him better qualified to fulfill his duties upon commissioning.

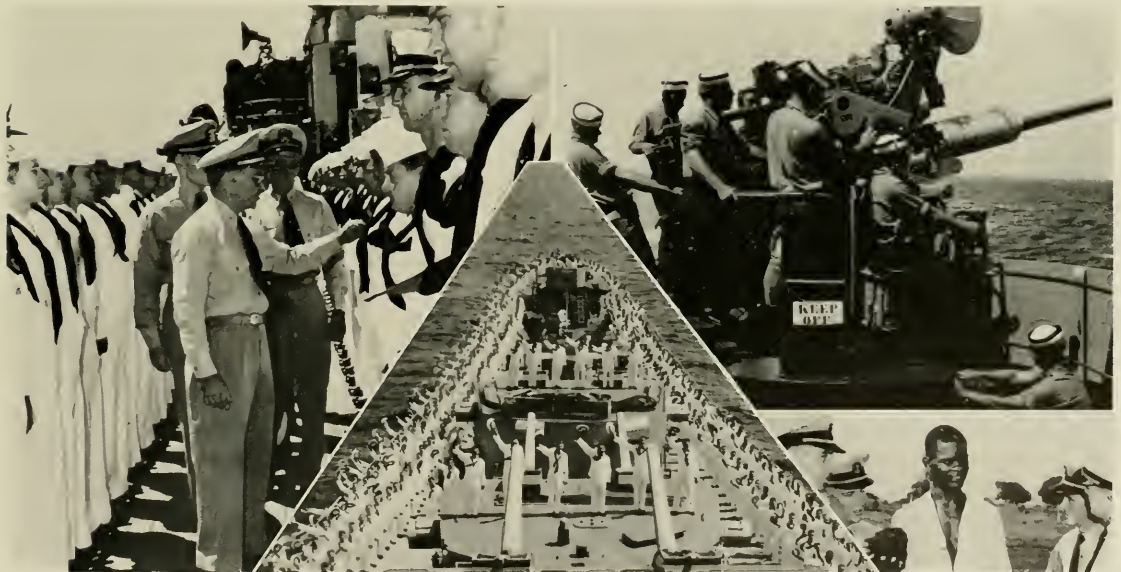

Regular students make three cruises during their four-year career at college. Two of these cruises are eight week affairs which are performed with a large group made up of several battleships and cruisers and many destroyers and auxiliary ships. It is on these cruises that the midshipmen gets his first set of sea legs, and, in addition to the valuable practical training, is afforded an opportunity to visit many foreign ports. The other cruises are made on land at Corpus Christi, Texas, and at Little Creek, Virginia, where instruction in aviation and amphibious work is given.

Contract students make only one cruise while they are in the program. Lasting six weeks during the summer preceding their senior year, the cruise is designed to give them experience in shipboard life and duties before commissioning.

Scabbard and Blade

THE NATIONAL SOCIETY OF SCABBARD AND BLADE is a nationwide military honor society with 89 chapters, called companies, located in leading colleges and universities having ROTC programs. Membership is by election only, and the selections are based solely on merit, coming from the outstanding cadet officers.

Among the purposes of Scabbard and Blade are: to raise the standard of military education in American colleges and universities, to unite in closer relationship their military departments, to encourage and foster the essential qualities of good and efficient officers, and to promote friendship and good-fellowship among the cadet officers.

ATHLETICS

MONOGRAM

The Monogram Club was organized for the purpose of establishing friendship among all the winners of Carolina Monograms. Since its organization the group has grown and extended its activities in many fields.

Its program for the year starts before the first day of school in the fall when it entertains incoming freshmen and transfer students during orientation week and introduces them to our athletic system. The Blue-White intra-squad football game is the major project of the year coming in the spring. However, the Club stays busy the whole year with its many other projects.

The Monogram Club is ever present to render to the guests and visitors of the University any service that is needed to make their stay more pleasant. These actions have made the Monogram Club a very valuable part of the University and Community.

FOOTBALL

Coach Barclay with Captain Ken Yarbough

Ken Yarbough
Captain

Everything's new, so they say, and while that is not entirely true, enough is new to set this season apart as the year of the big transition. That was Carolina and its football Tar Heels as they opened their season against their traditional opening rival, North Carolina State. Spirit was new, so were the uniforms, and everyone was eagerly awaiting the opening kickoff that would get the Tar Heels of 1953 under way. None knew exactly what the one platoon system would be like or even what the team would do under this new system. Speculation from the practice field gave every indication that the team was ready for any obstacle that confronted it.

This was the case in Carolina's first three games. It bowled over N. C. State in the opener and then took the measure of Washington and Lee. The first big surprise of the season came in the game against Wake Forest. Fired up, the Tar Heels put on a razzle dazzle show in the fourth quarter to take home a well deserved victory.

Mighty Maryland was next on the agenda, and that's what the Terrapins proved to be, mighty. Fans hoped for a rebound against Georgia which was just having a mediocre season. As fate would seem to have it, Bratkowski loosened up and Georgia took a fast victory over the Tar Heels. Tennessee, South Carolina and Notre Dame took to the likings of Carolina, and they too gained hard fought victories over Carolina. Carolina again broke into the winning column with a victory over the Cavaliers of Virginia. Winning impressively over Virginia, the Tar Heel rooters had hopes of upsetting Duke. However, the Blue Devils were not to be denied their victory as the Tar Heels were guilty of many mistakes and mental lapses.

The Tar Heels' record of four wins and six losses could not be considered as a truly successful season, but it did show that the Tar Heels were still building for greater seasons to come.

UNC—STATE

Carolina, with a new coach and operating under the one platoon system, opened the 1953 season by rolling over State, 29-7.

Although the game was played in the rain, the Tar Heels drove 86 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball. Another score was added in the second quarter along with a touchback.

State came alive in the third quarter and scored its only touchdown of the afternoon. The Tar Heels bounced back when State scored and added two more in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

With this win and the one at Miami last year, it was the first time Carolina had put together two wins since 1951.

UNC—WAKE FOREST

Carolina came from behind to score two touchdowns in the fourth period and defeat Wake Forest 18-13. This was the first time Carolina had beaten the Deacons in four years.

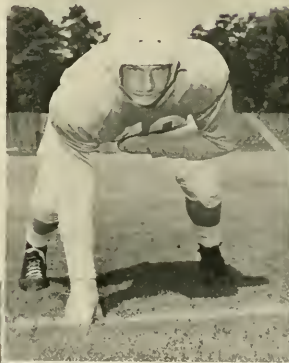

Led by Keller, Gravitte, and Lackey, the Tar Heels played like fans hadn't seen them play in years. The whole Carolina team was outstanding in the final period, not giving any yardage to the Deacons and driving down field when in possession of the ball.

This win along with the first two of the year put Carolina back into the football picture.

In the second game of the season, Carolina met Washington and Lee Generals to come out on top by a score of 39-0.

Carolina capitalized on every break quickly, taking full command of the game. Five of the Tar Heel's touchdowns came after recovering W&L fumbles.

Coach Barclay in an attempt to keep the score down put in his third string. They also moved the ball well and scored in the fourth period. The Generals were just outclassed in every department and never made any serious threats all afternoon at the Carolina goal line.

Connie Gravitt

UNC—MARYLAND

The first defeat of the season came when Mighty Maryland proved to be too powerful for the Tar Heels.

The Terps led by Quarterback Faloney ran for a total of 259 yards and picked up 108 yards in the air.

The only real threat Carolina made in the game was when Keller took a hand-off from Britt and ran twenty yards to the Terp three yard line before being stopped. Gravitte moved to the two-foot line, but a Carolina fumble, recovered by Maryland, stopped the threat and Carolina's hopes for scoring.

UNC—GEORGIA

Too much Bratkowski. This was the story when the Tar Heels dropped their second straight game at the hands of Georgia, 27-14.

After a scoreless first quarter in which Carolina seemed to be the team to beat, havoc broke loose in the form of a fumble which set the stage for a Georgia aerial show. Bratkowski couldn't be stopped and proceeded to pass for two touchdowns and set up a third. When the half ended, Carolina was on the short end of the 20-0 score.

The Tar Heels began moving in the third quarter and under the direction of Len Bullock, scored in the third as the result of a Georgia fumble. Another recovered fumble set up Carolina's second and last touchdown with 40 seconds remaining in the game.

Larry Parker

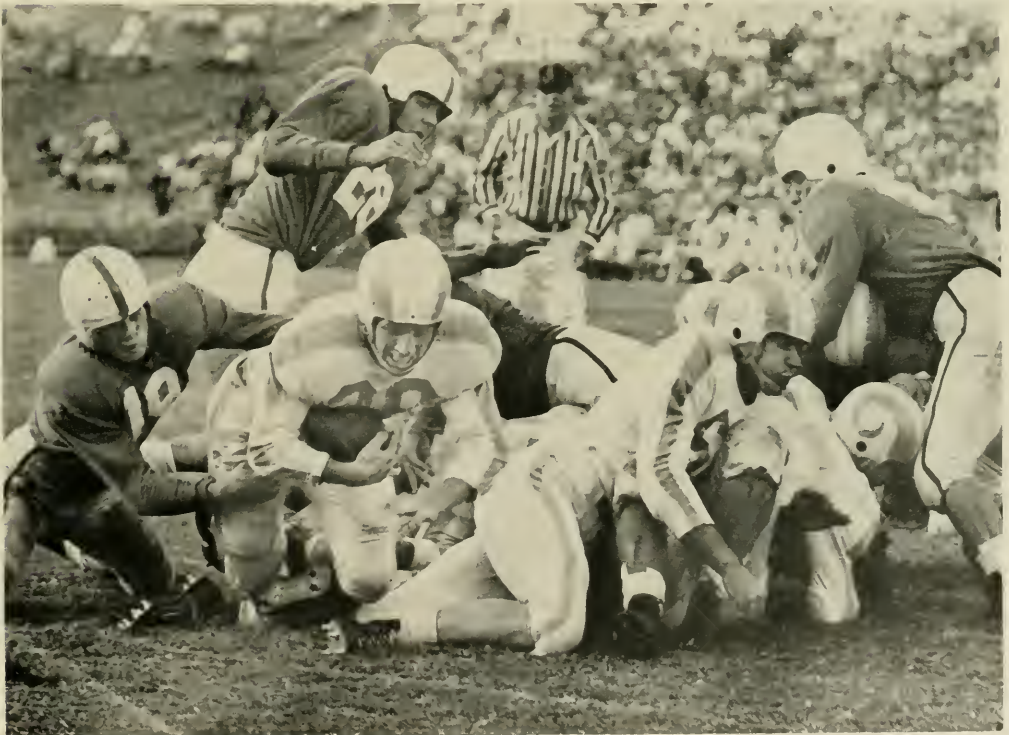

UNC—TENNESSEE

Carolina fumbles; Tennessee takes full advantage to score three touchdowns in the third quarter. In the first half, although neither team was able to score, Carolina showed great offensive strength. Just before the half, the Tar Heels had a scoring chance but could not capitalize on it.

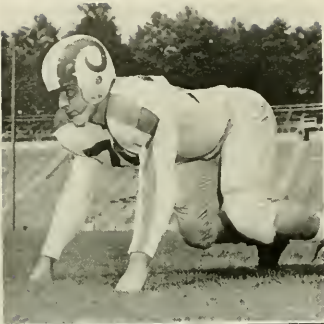

The third quarter opened and Carolina began to move again. This time a fumble stopped them, and Tennessee scored. After a punt exchange Tennessee moved for their second score. Once more Carolina began to move, but another fumble stopped them. This time it took the Vols only one play with their fullback, Tracy, going through the middle for 62 yards.

In the fourth quarter, led by quarterback Bullock, the Tar Heels marched 72 yards for their lone score. Thus Carolina went down for their third straight defeat, 20-6.

A Carolina back tries for a first down.

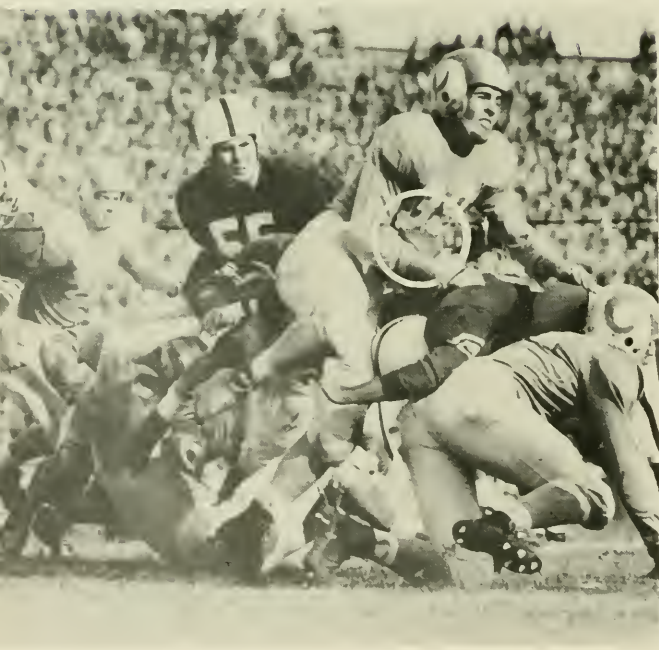

George Foti

Jimmy Neville

Connie Gravitte (39) gets a first down.

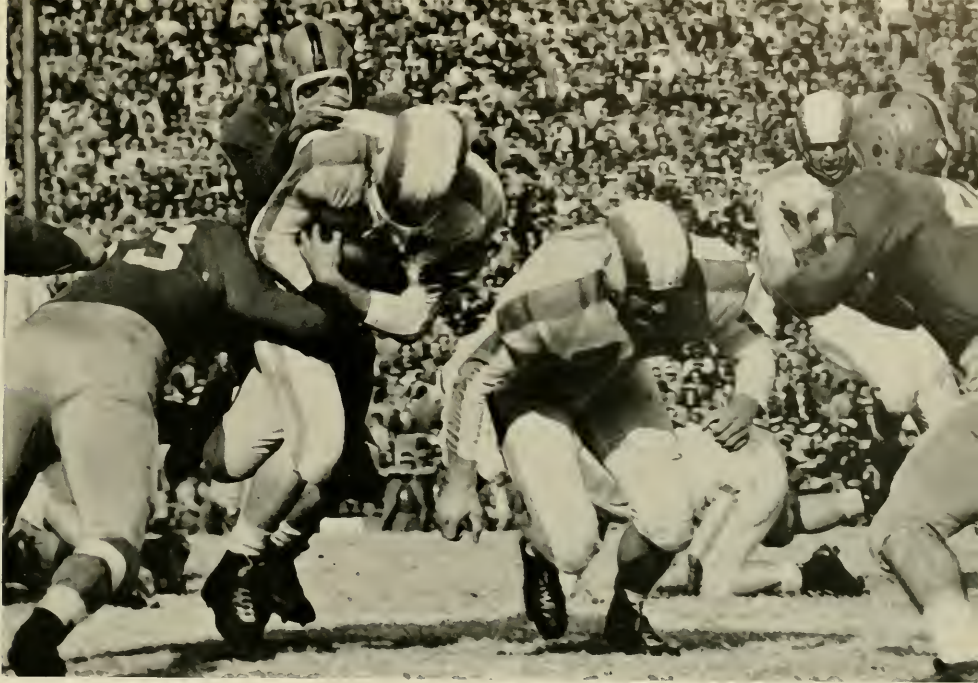

UNC—SOUTH CAROLINA

The leading factor in the loss to South Carolina was the Tar Heels inability to hold the ball. The Gamecocks took advantage of the Tar Heels fumbles at every opportunity and went on to an 18-0 score at the end of the game.

The Gamecocks came up with a very effective running game under the direction of Quarterback Gramling, and controlled the ball most of the afternoon. Carolina's running attack could never get started, and so they took to the air with favorable results. The Tar Heels gained a total of 111 yards through the air but never could get across the goal line.

George Wallin

Dick Lackey (30) bulls for yardage.

UNC—NOTRE DAME

The Fighting Irish had to live up to their name in order to down a fired up and smooth running Carolina team, 3-4-14.

It was a case of too much power that made the biggest difference. They rolled to a score as soon as they got the ball, but Carolina came right back and marched down close to the Irish goal line before being stopped. That was the case most of the afternoon. Notre Dame tightened up when the Tar Heels came close to the goal line.

The Game was much closer than the score indicated with the Tar Heels playing a brand of ball which was almost perfection. No one left the game disappointed, and all were proud of the game played by the Tar Heels.

Ed Starnes

UNC—VIRGINIA

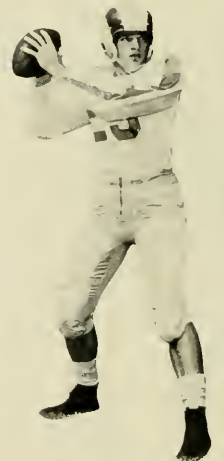

In a water soaked game with the Cavaliers, the team which traveled to Charlottesville proved to be a far superior one. Even in the rain the Tar Heel ground attack clicked all afternoon for a 33-0 win.

The Carolina backs had a field day in spite of the muddy field. Marcopulos, Hawks, Newman, Long, and Bullock all ran very well.

The Carolina defense was sharp, too, the Cavaliers penetrated Carolina territory only three times the whole afternoon. It was sweet revenge for the Tar Heels after being beaten by the Cavaliers for the last three years.

Virginia makes one of its few aerial gains.

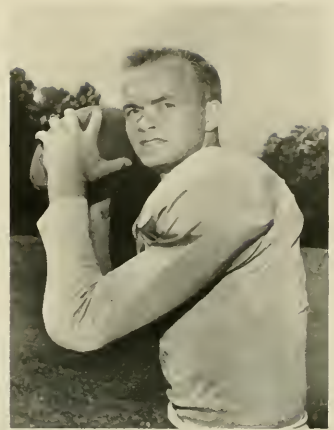

Albert Long

UNC—DUKE

Fumbles, penalties, and their inability to get off punts tell the story of Carolina's third straight loss to Duke. Carolina made mistakes in the game that it hadn't made all year. But even with this, the Tar Heels scored more points against Duke than any of Duke's previous opponents.

Duke took a first half lead, 9-0, but with the start of the second half it looked as if Carolina might pull an upset when they scored making it 9-7. Duke then scored again. Marked by a series of rough plays the game soon turned into a battle of brawn as both sides fought as if their lives depended on the outcome. Another Duke score seemed to put the game on ice for Duke, but Keller, playing alert defensive ball, grabbed a fumble and raced untouched for a Carolina score. Another Carolina score put them within striking distance again. But with continued lapses on defense and offense, Carolina soon saw Duke push across another score.

It was indeed a sad day as Carolina went down in defeat, but the game provided plenty of excitement for all spectators. The score was 35-20.

SOCCER

This past fall marked the return of Coach Marvin Allen who started soccer here in 1947. Although his team did not show the success of such great teams as the 1948 and 1949 campaigners, Allen's squad did display brilliance at times.

The Carolina booters opened the season by beating Georgetown University, 5-1, and held N. C. State to a 2-2 tie in its second contest. The Tar Heels then polished off Washington and Lee and Virginia before their troubles started. Successive defeats then came at the hands of Roanoke College, Duke, N. C. State, and Maryland, conference champs.

Even though the record was not spectacular, the Tar Heels came up with many thrilling moments in their spirited play. Harry Pawlick, Rennie Randolph, Bernie Bernstan and Louie Patseavouras were the main line of support, each contributing all out effort in each game.

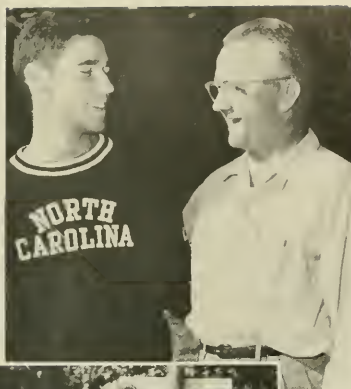

With the many lettermen returning and the promotion of freshmen to the varsity, Coach Allen is looking forward to a good season next fall.

CROSS COUNTRY

Carolina's cross country team, held out of most of its meets by the polio plague in 1952, came back this past fall to post a creditable record. Led by Bob Barden and Captain Pete Higgins, the Tar Heels capped the meet season with a second place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

In addition to Barden and Higgins, Coach Dale Ransom had high praises for his other cross country runners who performed so ably against the toughest opponents in this section of the country. Receiving much praise from Ransom were Pete McGee, Tony Houghton, Al Marx, and Boyd Newman.

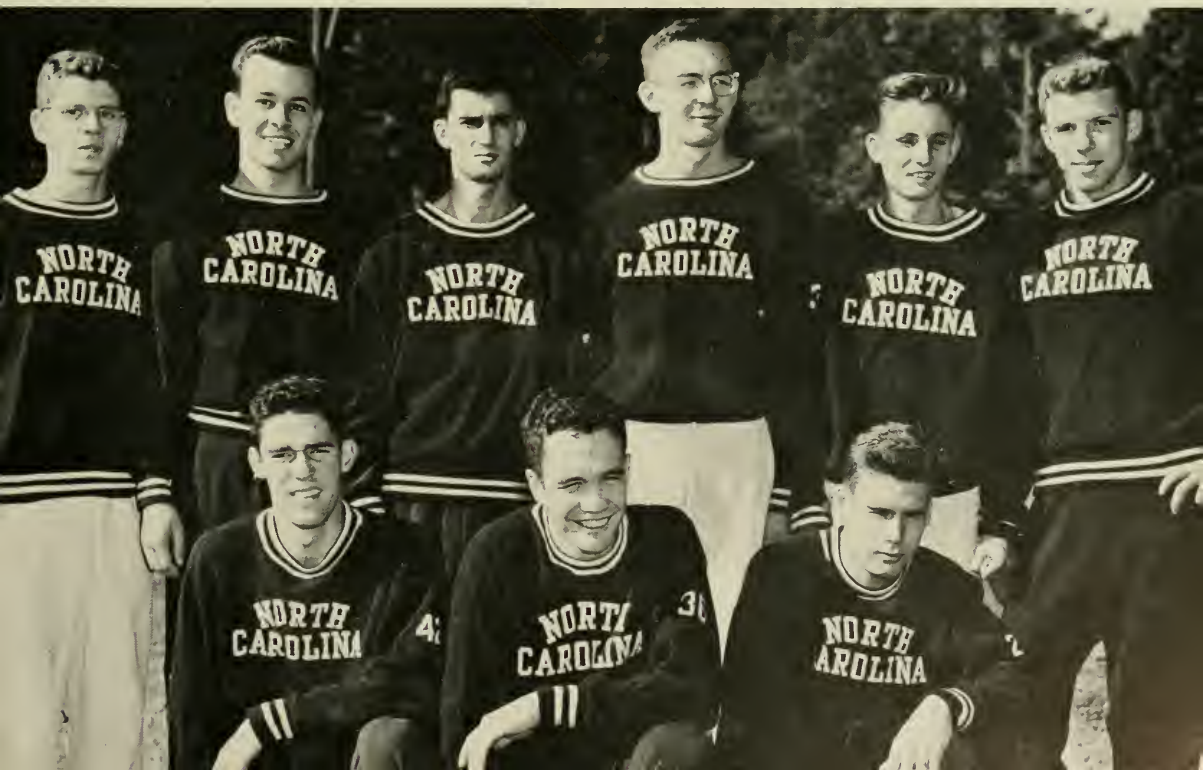

The freshman team gave hopes for future success by going through an undefeated dual meet season and winning the State freshman meet.

BASKETBALL

Few supporters of the Tar Heel basketball effort in 1953-54 can be critical of the "try" of the players and the quality of coaching. Short in reserves, the Tar Heels faced up to their schedule manfully, pin-pointing several near-misses on opponents against whom they were given little chance. For the season games won added to 11, those lost to 10. Season highspots were games won from Wake Forest and Virginia and several games in which the Chapel Hillians played well but lost by close scores.

Practice sessions began in November, and three collegiate contests were won in December prior to the Dixie Classics in Raleigh in the week after Christmas. The Tar Heels lost their three Dixie Classics games, but it can be said that the not-too-strong squad gained valuable experience.

Coming into January, Carolina faced Wake Forest, twice conquerors of N. C. State College this season, on January 9, in Wake Forest. Dickie Hemric, star center of the Deacons, was unable to play because of a foot injury. In an exciting contest the Tar Heels eked out a 66-65 win as they held onto the ball in the remaining seconds for a final one-handed jump shot from the floor by Jerry Vayda with three seconds left to play.

Maddie watches as Vayda blocks

After a victory over Davidson, the Tar Heels took measure of Virginia, and with Skippy Winstead holding Buzz Wilkinson to two field goals, Carolina upset Virginia, 78-66.

With its four ACC victories, Carolina came into the season's first encounter with N. C. State as the Number 1 club in the conference. It was hard to believe, but Carolina was on top. All other conference members had been defeated at least once. Carolina fans hoped for a minor miracle in the form of a victory over State College.

The game turned out to be a close affair, even more so than the 77-84 score indicated. State won in a rough and tumble contest that saw a total of 110 shots awarded by the officials from the foul line. Both teams used the "full-court presses" to add to the tension and turmoil. After the game, an opened "war" was declared by Coach Case of the Wolfpack and Coach McGuire of the Tar Heels.

In the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament North Carolina drew North Carolina State in the opening round. Despite a twenty-five point effort of Skippy Winstead, which won him a berth on the all-tournament team, the Tar Heels were edged, 52-51.

These performances by a not-too-strong team along with the spirit instilled in every player by Coach Frank McGuire received the plaudits of their supporters.

WRESTLING

The sport of misfortune at Carolina seems to be wrestling. Planning on one of his best teams since coming to Carolina, Coach Sam Barnes' hopes were severely shattered when Miles Gregory, runner-up in the Southern Conference's 177-pound division last year, suffered a broken ankle in the Carolina-Duke football game and had to sit out the first half of the season.

The Tar Heels met one of their toughest schedules in years with such teams as Navy, Maryland, VMI, and West Virginia offering the opposition. After a slow start, aided by the return of Gregory, they picked up near the end of the season.

Harry Pawlick and Arthur Gregory, Captains of the team, turned in fine performances during the season as did Andy Holt, Harvey Bradshaw, Hal Schwartz, Bill Ginn, and Pete McGee. Coach Barnes is expecting a great year for the 54-55 season because of the many returning matmen.

The 1953-54 Blue Dolphins had handed down to them a 14-year record of competition in which Carolina has won 112 contests against all opponents while losing only 12. A year ago, the Blue Dolphins ranked as the best Carolina swimming team of all time. By contrast, the present edition was considerably below last year's highwater mark when 10 straight victories were won. Only six men from the 1952-53 team returned this year; for their lack of experience, the sophomore-junior laden 1953-54 squad did exceedingly well.

In swimming as basketball, the Chapel Hill entry fell before its brother institution, N. C. State. In all the previous years of competition, State College had never defeated Carolina, although last year they were co-titlests since they did not meet during the regular season. On January 11 in Bowman Gray Pool, the two rival brother coaches (Ralph Casey—Carolina; Willis Casey—State) sent their swimmers against each other and Willis' squad, dominated by outstanding stars, made a clean sweep of every first place. Again on February 18 the Blue Dolphins fell before State.

Warren Heeman, Baltimore junior, captained the team. Other standouts on the team were Smith Jewell, Bob Linker, Newell Gill, Larry Shannon, and the only senior on the squad, Duke Widoff. These men contributed to the record of 9 wins and 2 losses of the 1953-54 Blue Dolphins.

GYMNASTICS

This year's gymnastics team pitted itself against the nation's finest, and although the record was somewhat blighted by the results, definite improvements in the team's performance were shown. The Tar Heels lost to the fine teams of Navy, Army, and Syracuse.

In their own baliwick the Tar Heels were unbeaten, easily handling Duke and West Virginia among others.

Coach Meade was fortunate in having a seniorless team. His outstanding performers were Gordon Hudson, the team's outstanding scorer, captain Otis Hartsell, Pete Brumley, Biff Howard, and Bill Rivera.

The talent-shy and injury bedeviled Tar Heels could do no better than third place in both the conferences winter Indoor Games and the spring outdoor championships, but they had their moments and provided some surprises.

Since the Tar Heels have led by a wide margin all league members in winning both indoor and outdoor titles over the years, the year's outcome in the cinder sport was quite a stepdown. That the year would be a struggle was inevitable in the winter. However, prospects looked fairly bright in the spring, and but for some untimely accidents, the Tar Heels would have done much better.

In dual outdoor competition the team won four meets and lost three. The Tar Heels made a battle of it in the titular meet and seemed assured of second place, behind Maryland, until the outcome of the last two events. They missed it by a hair, Duke getting the runner-up spot.

Year after year, Coach John Kenfield turns out one of the nation's finest teams at Carolina, and his 1953 edition was no exception. The team rolled to a new peak last season when the Tar Heels went undefeated in 23 straight dual matches. This team, considered by many as Carolina's finest, was captained by Del Sylvia.

Del Sylvia won the conference singles championship for the second year in a row, and Tom Bradford and Don Thompson, two freshmen with two more years of eligibility, teamed to take the doubles title.

Teamed with such outstanding men as Herb Browne, Bobby Payne, Pete Green, Ronnie Kerdasha, Bill Izlar, and Sam Handel, the Tar Heels were established No. 3 in the nation. Winning over such opponents as Harvard, Springfield, Michigan State, Williams, and Kalamazoo with amazing ease, the netters easily established themselves as the most feared in the South.

Possibility of another undefeated season loomed forth for next year's team as Captain Del Sylvia is the only major loss from this season's squad. Coach Kenfield is eagerly awaiting next spring.

BASEBALL

"Big Steam" Bunn Hearn, Carolina's lovable head baseball coach, is a spring campus fixture of nearly 30 years standing, and his assistant, Walter Rabb, is one of the most able young baseball coaches in the country. Carolina always has good baseball teams, and the boys have a lot of fun in this sport in Chapel Hill.

The baseball Tar Heels of 1953 were one of the best in recent years. For the season they won 17 games, lost 5. In winning the title in the torrid Big Four race, they captured six out of nine. They had a Southern Conference record of twelve wins and three losses.

With Chal Port, Don Marbry, Bill Lore, and Joe Pazdan the big mound winners, the team looked to be the class of the conference, but took a tumble in the playoffs at Raleigh to Duke and missed out on the NCAA tournament. The Tar Heels deserved better luck.

Ed Hooks, in his first year as a catcher, led the team in batting with a .438 average. Wayne White, Fred Dale, and Harry Lloyd all finished above the three hundred mark. Will Frye, a freshman, did a fine job behind the plate, sharing with Hooks the catching duties. The classy infield gave the club color and distinction while the outfield was the most feared in the league.

Chal Port won the Big Four pitching title, and the Tar Heels took the team batting honors.

Coach Rabb was NCAA district three chairman and set up the NCAA tournament in Charlotte which his own team missed by a whisker.

Making good use of the University's new and beautiful 18-hole Finley course and club house, the 1953 Tar Heels breezed through a wonderful season.

Captain Bob Black's well balanced team, with every regular at one time or another taking medal honor in a dual meet, the Tar Heels in the regular season slipped only once, being shaded by Duke 14-13, while overcoming its other opponents, The Citadel, Williams, Ohio University, Notre Dame, Virginia, N. C. State, and Wake Forest.

They made up for the one lapse in the Southern Conference championships by winning the team title with a record score of 579. Carolina's Jim Ferree took the individual championship.

Then, in the NCAA, Carolina's Bill Williamson stroked his way to the finals and emerged runner-up for the national title.

In addition to Ferree and Williamson, Coach Erickson praised Bob Black, Billy Ford, Billy Thornton, and John Frazier and accorded them much of the success of the team.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

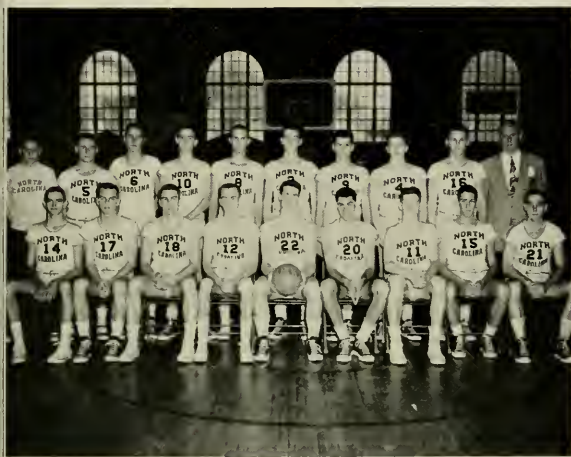

Freshman Starting Backfield: Killets, Farmer, Klochak, McMullen

One of the most powerful freshman football teams at Carolina in the past few years was turned out this past fall by Jim Gill. Winning easily over all their opponents except Duke, the Tar Babies excelled in every department, running, passing and especially defense. It looks like Coach Barkley has solved many of his next year's problems by the outstanding performances by many of the freshmen.

Coach Buck Freeman with Lennie Rosenbluth

Carolina's freshman basketball team seems to be one of the finest in several years. The squad is loaded with talent which will be a big help next year in once more making Carolina a basketball powerhouse.

The versatile Lennie Rosenbluth is one of the finest prospects to come to Carolina in years. Joe Quigg is another with Bob Young and Dick Ward also bringing hope into the eyes of Carolina basketball fans.

Coach Buck Freeman's charges had a very successful season and more can be expected of them in the next few years.

Another winter freshman sport got under way with the wrestling team swinging into action. The grunt and groan sport gave indication that the winter season would continue the dominance of North Carolina's freshmen among the conference foes. Many of Carolina's freshman grapplers far exceeded the expectations of the coaches and turned in performances that was indicative of future varsity material.

FRESHMAN SWIMMING

The freshmen swimmers turned in a performance that equaled if not bettered the mark of previous freshman teams. Coach Jamerson was well pleased and expected that many of his freshmen swimmers would be pushing hard for varsity berths next year. Many of the freshman records were broken by this outstanding group of swimmers.

FRESHMAN PROFILES

George McGinnis, a freshman diver, is expected to bolster the varsity squad next season. As a freshman, he showed much that gave indication that he will be a standout.

Jim Beatty, freshman crosscountry and track runner, broke the existing freshman crosscountry as well as the varsity record. Taking first in all the freshman meets, he broke a record every time he came to home with a victory. He is truly a great in Carolina's freshman sports.

The Department of Intramural Activities is the division of the Department of Physical Education and Athletics which organizes and conducts a broad program of competitive activities on the campus for the voluntary participation of the student body.

In seeking to give the members of the student body every chance to realize the outcomes the program established to promote sportsmanship, the Intramural Department assumes the responsibility for supplying adequate officials and trained officials. In addition, the Department considers the introduction of new activities to the student body as one of its more important functions. A reasonable amount of precaution is taken to safeguard the health and safety of the participants.

All members of the University student body and faculty are invited to participate in any phase of the program that appeals to them.

CHEERLEADERS

Under the tutelage of Head Cheerleader Jim Fountain, the 1953-54 Tar Heel yell squad turned in a fine job of building, conditioning, and maintaining the renowned Carolina spirit.

The usual pep rallies and torchlight parades were displayed with a new look and new twists, while Saturday afternoon activity from the stands of Kenan Stadium had much to do in the backing of a Tar Heel team which got off to a fast start by winning its first three games.

One of the high points of the cheering season came in the activities preceding the Maryland-U.N.C. game. A torchlight parade and street pep rallies were only two of the many activities that the cheerleaders led the student body through on the eve of the big game.

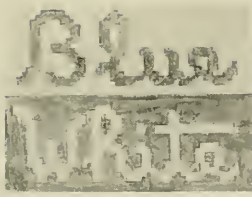

Carrying on this same spirit throughout the rest of the year, the cheering squad did much to lift the Carolina spirit to post-war levels.

THE CARD BOARD

Under the capable leadership of President Bob Skillen, the Card Board had another highly successful year, providing halftime entertainment for the Kenan Stadium fans. Highlighting each game was the presentation of the half-time score of the football game. This flexible score stunt involved much detailed work, but thanks to this industrious group, the stunt was performed in a most graceful manner.

Also featured this year was the taking of Carolina card stunts to out of town football games in nearby Wake Forest and Duke, thus showing off to those present at these games the perfected work of the Card Board.

Ending up the season with a social function, the Card Board is looking forward to another football season and the chance to make even better the animated, script, and public service card stunts which are a feature of a Saturday afternoon football game.

The "Salt Mine" is quiet now, the typewriters show signs of neglect, no waste paper litters the floor, and neatness pervades the room. All this gives mute voice to the fact that at last the Yack has gone to press! The barrenness of the room brings to mind the continuous activity which filled it through the fall and winter afternoons as the staff contributed time, effort and ideas to make your 1954 Yackety Yack. Although we of the staff had our troubles, headaches, and fun, we were united by the desire to get our job done well.

The year began during orientation week when the new typists were swamped by eager freshmen waiting to be photographed. Gene Hackney, Bob Hinshaw, Don Freeman, Miller Carmichael, Jimmy Mills, and others somehow stuck it out through last day rushes of the upper-classmen. Our foot-weary photographers, Mr. Cheek and Mr. Balance, won't soon forget those long lines of waiting students which wound around in the Rendezvous Room, either. Later, after the office work began, Peggy patiently stopped her filing and looked up hundreds of lost photo numbers. As time progressed and the Yack was in full production, Cornell almost lost his mind scurrying around campus to keep photo appointments. Jean Williamson and Mary Bascom Cook labored away on their class sections to meet deadlines. After doing re-takes on several of their pictures, Pat Seawell became well acquainted with most of the med students. Then, there was the time when she was stranded between floors on the elevator with the med school senior officers! David Leonard made an untold number of trips to the P. O. lugging Yacks to be mailed. After Jane, Vince, and Lib spent a "lost weekend" ordering reprints, the office acquired its official title of "Salt Mine."

The Beauty Contest turned out to be the best yet and a highlight of the fall. Markham gloried in being surrounded by all the top campus beauties, and Nose, loving every minute of it, did a great job as Emcee. Reen, the little dynamo behind the Beauty Contest, created much excitement over keeping the queen's name a secret. Mr. Lavergne

Through it all late-working staff members stayed up-to-date on campus affairs as sounds from the multitudinous meetings echoed through the thin walls. Socializing in the Yack office between cases became standard procedure for the Honor Council on Thursday nights. Lee Paul's good kodachrome saved the day. The inability of sorority girls to take decent snapshots increased Thelma's worries. Russ, completely surprised over his birthday party, did the honors by cutting his cake with a huge DTH ruler. About that time the midnight oil burned late and often on the 2nd G. M. Eleanor boosted our spirits by making many trips upstairs loaded with coffee and Cokes. During several periods of despair, only the patience, understanding, and skillful help of Price Coursey, the engraving representative, kept us going. Our "rush orders" gave Marilyn and her photo lab staff headaches throughout the year. Boyden Henley, Jerry Cook, Jack Markham, and Pete Daniels willingly assisted with the photography. Without Alice Asbury, Betsy Stoner, Joan Green, Lois Collins, Ann Street, Snookie Stone, Kendrick Townsend, Jackie Park, and all the other faithful typists, the book would never have gone to press!

"Old Dad" always added gaiety and sunshine to life in the Salt Mine—especially when he had a stamp-covered letter from Jersey. Our pulling pictures turned the office into a mad-house for several days as frantic efforts were made to meet those pre-Christmas deadlines. The Deke pledges unwillingly did a great job in helping Obbie and Zeb get the fraternity section ready on time. Louie and Russ were not alone when it came to missing deadlines! Certain house cuts caused a lot of trouble, but Marty Jordan came to our rescue. Without Mary Ruth to do pin-drawings and to correct last minute art work, the editor would have completely lost her last thread of sanity. Max Ballinger's snapshot contest made the choice of snapshots easy. Bob Colbert, always dependable, gave both technical and "fatherly" advice. Charlie Shelton had fun—period. Jane had her share of troubles, but she will never forget a certain dog which was so obnoxious while one picture was being made—and then there was page 290! Obbie's mystic seances provided unique interludes in the continuous grind. T. B.'s work winds up the year for us as he gives out the finished product.

We of the staff have enjoyed working on the Yack and feel it's a good book—but, of course, we're prejudiced. We hope you like your 1954 Yackety Yack.

THE DAILY TAR HEEL bumped along through a tempestuous year, serving the students with news, editorials, local and national pictures and features—all on a six-day-a-week basis. (And on the seventh day they rested.) The paper joined the Associated Press again receiving full wire coverage.

On the lighter side was the saga of Sir Charles and the misty maiden; on the campaigning side was the editorial battle against big-time athletics at Carolina.

Managing Editor Louis Kraar built up one of the largest staffs in years, and they did a superb job of coverage. The only indispensable man, it was found, was Kraar. Assisting him at the slot was News Editor, Ken Sanford. Sports Editor, Tom Peacock, spiced his pages with personality features and the fanciest layouts ever appearing in the paper. It probably was the best sports page in Tar Heel history. Jim Schenck and Al Shortt skillfully piled up the bank balance to see it all through.

Top item on the printing agenda, (beyond merely suffering through each night's press run) was the air mail edition to the Georgia game in Athens. A blue ram butted a red bulldog off the page, but on the field it was different.

TARNATION

IN WEBSTER'S NEW COLLEGIATE DICTIONARY, the word humor is defined thusly: "A changing and uncertain state of mind; a caprice; a whim; fancy; . . . whimsical or freakish action or happenings . . . a quality which appeals to a sense of the ludicrous or absurdly incongruous . . ."

There you have it . . . TARNATION! We embarked upon our second year since re-birth (by political section in 1952) with high hopes, mediocre material and low income. "It's a humor magazine, you know," was our stock comment after the first issue . . . but if Webster's definition of humor is any criteria, we have succeeded, for a more whimsical, capricious, ludicrous, freakish and incongruous group never existed.

The run-in with the "High Command" over the November issue and that cartoon . . . money? What money? That everlovin' Beacon Mills ad!

Like it or not, we seem to be rather solidly back to stay. We annoyed you during registration . . . aggravated you with our "well-run" circulation system . . . said nasty things about you in print . . . but being capricious, whimsical and always incongruous, we want to thank the reading half of our public for another successful year.

Carolina Quarterly

Although founded in 1947, the Carolina Quarterly actually continues a tradition of literary activity that has been on campus since the first publication of the Carolina Magazine in 1844.

This year the Quarterly enjoyed the highest level of student participation in its history. A hard working and enthusiastic staff was rewarded with lively campus interest throughout the year.

Planner's Forum

The Planners' Forum, formed in 1952, is the local professional organization of graduate students majoring in city and regional planning; other graduate students interested in problems of metropolitan planning may become members. The Forum encourages extra-curricular discussion of topics of professional interest, sponsors visiting lecturers, and through affiliation with the Federation of Student Planning Organizations, is the avenue of contact with similar groups at other universities.

Ever since they chose their name in 1952, the Tar Heels 'N Toes have been thriving. They now number over thirty members not all pictured here. The club's purpose is to promote interest in all types of American square dancing and also in the folk dances of foreign countries. But whether it's a Virginia Reel or a European peasant dance, the group's primary aim is to have fun.

UNC Band

THE UNIVERSITY BAND under the capable direction of Professor Earl Slocum and Herbert W. Fred attempts to provide an outlet for enjoyment and musical experience to the students of the university. In the fall the marching band provides a variety of music and color at the pep rallies and football games. One of the highlights of this fall was the instrument-theme song show which included the instruments formations and theme songs of some of the nation's popular orchestra leaders.

After football season, the marching unit becomes a major part of the concert band which performs during the remainder of the year. It gives a formal concert in Hill Hall. However, the most popular concerts seem to be the spring lawn concert series under Davie Poplar. The band brings its year to a closing when it plays for commencement each spring.

THE UNIVERSITY CLUB is primarily a service organization, and all of its functions are carried through in the interest of the student body and the University. The motto of the club—For the University—is self-explanatory of the purpose of the club.

Composed of a representative from each dormitory, sorority, fraternity, band, Cardboard, cheerleaders and the Monogram Club, it has direct contact with almost every student on campus.

The functions of the club are many and varied. Through the cooperation with the Athletic Association, the Club seeks to promote and maintain enthusiasm and good sportsmanship in all University events by sponsoring pep rallies, homecoming attractions, and an annual carnival in the spring.

The officers for the year have been Bill Calvert, President; Fred Hutchins, Vice-President; Bill Moore, Treasurer; Lib Suddreth and Jo Ann Jones, Secretary.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

NINETY-FOUR YEARS ON THIS CAMPUS, the Carolina Young Men's Christian Association is one of the oldest student YMCA's in the world.

The program is planned to meet the interests and needs of students moving ahead on the basis that Christianity applies to every aspect of life. Effective Christian leadership is developed as members work creatively together on different phases of the program.

FRESHMAN FELLOWSHIP

This year's Freshman Fellowship had its beginning from a group of Freshman Campers. It was decided that the spirit should continue as an organized association that would promote interest in subjects of concern to the Freshman class. Topics of student government, debating societies, and fraternities were presented and discussed at supper meetings. A dance at Averett College in Danville, Virginia, was one of the more exciting activities of the Fellowship.

ORIENTATION CAMP

To unite in a desire for a full, creative college life . . .

To determine to have a part in making this life possible for all students . . . To seek to know God, to understand him . . . Is the goal that we, students of Carolina, women of many denominations and backgrounds, attempt to achieve.

To listen to Mary's problems and help her solve them . . .

To take part in campus activities such as U. N. week, realizing that here lies world hope—hope for our association's ideals, and a world where men with differences may live together . . .

To meet the international students-people who are learning our culture; people from whose cultures we may also learn . . .

Living day by day, savoring each moment, preparing for a better tomorrow . . . Not only talking of Christianity, but trying to be more like Him in our daily behavior . . .

Standing up for our ideals in religion, yet remaining tolerant and unprejudiced toward the beliefs of others . . .

The Y is ours and yours. Girls before us made it and its ideals what they are. It is our privilege to continue its work. We hope that through worship, work and play our college life will prepare us for brotherhood and a better understanding of life.

We know that only through these can we find and share happiness.

Marilyn Habel, President.

This year the Y has:

Sponsored informal talks by the faculty and friends of the Y.

Has had outside speakers to lead discussions concerning religion and other phases of life. Dr. Cheek, Dr. Harland, Dr. Leslie, Charlie Jones and Dr. Boyd have shared their ideas with the students.

Held vespers in the women's dorms and sorority houses every week.

Given international dinners, teas for foreign students and others to become better acquainted.

Sponsored, with the YM the trip to the UN Seminar in New York.

Helped in the hospital by feeding patients, answering the phone, running errands for the nurses.

Helped with scout work in the community.

Sponsored clothing drives for the needy.

THE WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB, under the able direction of Mr. Joel Carter and Mr. William Whitesides, began its 1953-54 season by performing jointly with the Men's Glee Club at the University Day celebration. A benefit concert was performed by the groups at the First Baptist Church of Chapel Hill. Then interest was centered upon preparation for the annual fall concert. Following this they joined the Chapel Hill Choral Club in a performance of Handel's "Messiah". The Glee Club also appeared in a concert with the State College Men's Glee Club in Raleigh.

For spring semester other appearances with the Men's Glee Club were planned with the height of the activities being the formal concert.

THE MEN'S GLEE CLUB opened the season by singing for Founder's Day and then the UN Day celebrations. Following these dates, the Club traveled to the University of Virginia and sang a joint concert with them on Friday night preceding the annual football game between the two universities.

They joined with the Women's Club for the annual Fall concert just before Christmas, and then assisted the Chapel Hill Choral Society in its presentation of Handel's Messiah.

After the two highly successful tours of last Spring, the Club made plans to continue this work. The year was climaxed by a joint concert with the Women's College chorus at Greensboro and finally by the annual Spring concert with the Women's Club of the University.

University Party

LOU WOLFSHEIMER, Chairman

THE UNIVERSITY PARTY, having functioned for over twenty-five years, is the oldest of the campus political groups. The party was started by a group of about fifteen students interested in Student Government. For the first three or four years its meetings were held in dormitory rooms and the basements of fraternity houses. By the early thirties the University Party had become a campus wide organization, and it remained unopposed until nineteen forty-six as the only major student political party on the campus. It has been through the efforts of many of the past members of the University Party that the form of Student Government that we have today has evolved. For the party, then as now, has worked for a more democratic, self-governing student body.

The party, since its beginning in the 1920's, has followed the philosophy of group representation by one member of each group. For it is the conviction of the party that a more efficient organ for administering the function of political parties in student government can be gained through this group organization.

Today the University Party is composed of a steering committee, which in turn is composed of members representing groups of at least twenty-five students. It is the work of this steering committee to select candidates and to determine policies for the party.

This past year has been a successful one for the party, and much of the credit for this success goes to our two chairmen last year, Walt McFall and Jack Stilwell.

University Dance Committee

THE UNIVERSITY DANCE COMMITTEE has as its foremost objects the role of host at Carolina dances and the tasks of maintaining order at social functions sponsored by campus organizations. This group of students, familiar in their formal dress with blue and white rosettes in their lapels, in their careful vigilance of campus dances are striving toward making Carolina dances the functions that both students and faculty desire. During the 1953-54 season, the Committee has effectively performed its duty. The group has had a most successful year, both in helping to put on Carolina dances and guiding them toward perfection.

Hillel Foundation

THE HILLEL FOUNDATION was founded thirty years ago by B'nai Brith, the largest Jewish service organization in the United States. The Foundation here at the University is one of the 220 Hillel organizations serving Jewish students throughout this country, Canada, Cuba, England and Israel.

Hillel attempts to train and prepare university students for future leadership in their respective Jewish and local communities. The program is a varied one, ranging from religious and cultural functions to dances and other social affairs; activities include religious services, exhibits, forums, classes, vocational information, and projects of an interfaith nature . . . all of which help to encourage Jewish education and spiritual growth. The program is determined by the Cabinet and by numerous committees, through which the students participate in the organization.

SUNDAY NIGHT FELLOWSHIP AT WESLEY FOUNDATION

Wesley Foundation

TO PROVIDE A COMMUNITY in which students may explore the meaning of the Christian faith for their lives: this is the purpose of Wesley Foundation. In Bible study groups, Wesley Players, "Coffee and Theology", daily vespers, weekend get-togethers, "meet 'n eat" and other such activities graduates and undergraduates come together with the belief that Christianity is relevant to all the problems of life and in the belief also that this relevance can be known.

Wesley Foundation is located in the University Methodist Church; its doors are always open and its facilities available for use by students and faculty.

Executive officers are: Dave Johnson, president; Baxter McIntyre, vice-president; Georgia Lee Hatley, secretary; Harold White, treasurer. Officers of the Wesley Young Adult Fellowship are: Laird Harmon, president; Millie Belheimer, vice-president; Ann Bell, secretary-treasurer; Dot Hall, social chairman.

Philanthropic Assembly

WADE MATTHEWS, Speaker

THE ASSEMBLY of the Philanthropic Literary Society, founded at the University of North Carolina in 1795, is a legislative debating organization which serves the campus as a medium for the expression of thought and the interchange of ideas. It meets in Phi Hall which occupies the top floor of New East building each Tuesday evening for consideration of a bill or resolution of current interest.

During its earlier years, the Phi endowed the University library with its rich collection of books, contributed to the building of New East and formulated and enforced the honor system for half of the student body.

The Phi today is organized on the pattern of the State House of Representatives, but topics may be of national, international or local interest. It offers its members training in leadership, parliamentary procedure, and public speaking, while formulating lasting friendships through participation in the activities of the Assembly.

"Mister Roberts" by Thomas Heggen and Joshua Logan, in the Playmakers Theatre. Annual production of a modern hit play.

The Carolina Playmakers

THE CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS, completing their 36th successful season, look back with pride at the simple beginnings in 1918, when Frederick R. "Proff" Koch joined the University's English department and introduced his now famous English 31, a course for beginning playwrights. In that class Koch initiated his life-long efforts toward a new and vital folk drama, which resulted in the successes of such American playwrights as Paul Green and Josefina Niggli.

Traditionally, the activities of the Playmakers fall into two divisions. There is first the program of major productions, with at least one play a year staged outdoors in the Koch Memorial Forest Theatre, and another toured extensively through North Carolina and neighboring states. Bridging this program with that of experimental production of new plays by student playwrights, the 1953-54 season saw introduced into the major plan two new full-length plays written by local authors.

Two organizations fostered by the Playmakers in early years are now flourishing independently, encouraging community drama in the southeast. These are the Carolina Dramatic Association, which holds its annual drama festival at the historic Playmakers Theatre, and the Southeastern Theatre Conference.

The Carolina Playmakers are, in a very real sense, a community theatre. Any student, member of the faculty or resident of the area may become a member simply by taking an active part in any one of the many phases of production of a Playmaker play.

The Cosmopolitan Club

THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB tries to provide "a home away from home" where students from other countries may meet each other and meet American students. It believes that by meeting and knowing each other, we can break down many of our prejudices which lead to world misunderstandings, and thereby promote the cause of world understanding.

THE NATIONAL NEWMAN CLUB FEDERATION is a confederation of Catholic Clubs on secular college and university campuses. Founded in 1913, it now encompasses over 400 clubs with a membership of 175,000.

Here at Carolina we have had a wonderful year under the guidance of Father Weidenger, our chaplain. This season we have had talks on foreign travel, weiner roasts, movies and our usual Christmas party for the orphans.

THE CAROLINA POLITICAL UNION is a non-partisan student discussion group which has served the University of North Carolina for over twenty years by acting as a stimulus for the free expression of ideas. Each week during the academic year the CPU raises issues affecting all students, for the purpose of bringing into the bright light of free examination the opinions and views of all persons.

Baptist Student Union

THE YEAR STARTS at different times for different people. For some old fogies it begins January 1; for the more collegiate it begins in September with the opening of school; but for the B. S. U.'ers it began this year with a pre-school retreat at Holden Beach. It seems that plenty of plans came out of that retreat, too. The supper forum series, based on the theme of worship, were considered among the best meetings held by some of the students. Sunday mornings saw revitalized and thriving classes, presided over by some of the leading teachers on campus. The parties and socials were results of good planning and management. Daily meditations led by students in Gerrard Hall added a spiritual uplift during the week for many of us. The inspiration and guidance of our pastor, Dr. Habel, throughout aided our work greatly and, of course, there was always the wisdom and understanding of J. C. Herrin, our student chaplain. So, with a succession of meaningful activities, the year moved on. It is our wish that more of the 1,200 Baptist students on campus would have participated in this wonderful experience we call "B.S.U."

Dialectic Senate

DEDICATED TO DEBATE, parliamentary procedure, free exchange of ideas, development of poise and power in public speakers, training in deliberative assembly, and patterned after our State Senate, The Senate of the Dialectic Literary Society was founded on June 3, 1795. The present student government, honor system, Dance Committee, debate team and many Carolina traditions had their beginning in the Dialectic Society. The Society boasts such famous alumni as James K. Polk, Archibald D. Murphey, Thomas Wolfe, Archibald Henderson and Frank Porter Graham.

Already possessing its own hall and an impressive and valuable portrait collection, the Society is expecting to finish out its plan this year to renovate the hall by supplying it with individual desks and chairs. This renovation plan is being supported by contributions from the alumni and active membership of the society.

The National Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta established the North Carolina Beta Chapter of this honorary pre-medical society at the University of North Carolina on March 25, 1936. Since that date the local chapter has been active as a guiding group to interest pre-medical students. It has helped to give these students an insight into the problems and philosophy of a medical career. By the presentation of guest lecturers from the various phases of the medical profession, visits to hospitals, and similar activities, the chapter has endeavored to bridge the gap between the Pre-Medical School and the School of Medicine.

Leadership, Friendship, and Service—these have been the guiding principles of APO, as the brothers continued to serve the campus, community, and nation through worthwhile projects during the past year.

Rho Chapter, founded in 1930 as the 17th chapter of APO, is now member of a "family" that includes over 265 affiliates in the United States, Canada, the Philippines, and Hawaii. The new pledge class promises to uphold the finest traditions of unselfish service that have given Alpha Phi Omega its excellent reputation.

What are some of those projects APO has conducted? During campus elections, the brothers have pitched in to tend polls . . . and for those SEC programs, APO was there to usher . . . Parents' Day at UNC gave our Moms and Dads a chance to see Chapel Hill in the spring . . . we've helped to get those handicapped students to their classes . . . the Boy Scout Explorer Conference, with over 500 fellows attending, gave us a chance to furnish entertainment.

The future promises many opportunities for greater service than ever before . . . and that's right up our alley.

Lambda Chapter founded at the University of North Carolina, Jan. 21, 1941.

Colors: Red and White

Flower: Red Rose

Publication: "The Bond"

Object and Purpose: To stimulate in its members a desire for high scholarship; to foster a professional consciousness and to provide a bond of lasting loyalty, interest and friendship.

PHI MU ALPHA

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia was founded at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Massachusetts, in 1898. Its aims are to advance the cause of music in America, to foster the mutual welfare and brotherhood of students of music, to develop the truest fraternal spirit among its members, and to encourage loyalty to the Alma Mater.

The Alpha Rho Chapter, founded at the University of North Carolina in 1926, takes an active part in the furtherance of musical activities at the University. Each year the chapter presents its American Music Program, a concert devoted to the performance of works by American composers and frequently including compositions by members of the fraternity. Whenever possible, Phi Mu Alpha brings to the campus well-known guest artists.

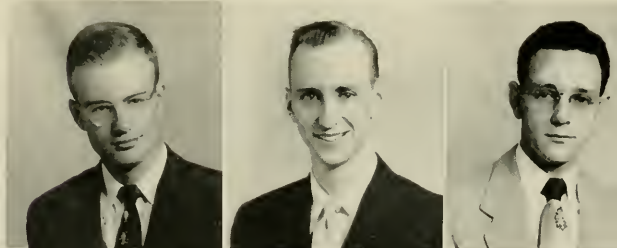

Keeping in mind the advancement of the best in music, Phi Mu Alpha attempts to develop a strong fraternal feeling among the promoters of that art.

PI NU

On September 30, 1953, Pi Nu was established on the campus of the University of North Carolina. The Fraternity is comprised of former members of the Order of DeMolay who attend Carolina. The Alpha chapter of Pi Nu, the first fraternity of its kind in the country, was organized by thirty-three former DeMolays.

The purposes of our Fraternity are to provide a social program for the brothers, to sponsor worthy service projects on or near the campus, to establish lasting friendships, and to further the ideals of the Order of DeMolay.

Alpha Kappa Psi—founded on October 5, 1904, at New York University—is the first and oldest commerce fraternity in the United States. Our chapter, Alpha Tau, was first installed at Carolina on February 18, 1925; and being dormant since 1933, it was reactivated on November 7, 1948. In 1953, Alpha Tau attained the highest rank among all the chapters in the country.

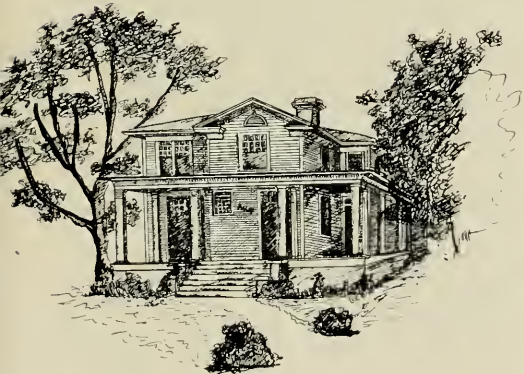

Alpha Kappa Psi sponsors and carries out many professional programs and services for the benefit of its members and other students of business administration. These programs take a variety of forms including outstanding speakers from the business world, professional seminars, career conferences, business exhibits, and research surveys. Inspection tours of leading industries and business firms are conducted at frequent intervals.

The purpose of Alpha Kappa Psi is to further the individual welfare of each member by the association of their mutual helpfulness and common interest in the areas of business administration.

Delta Sigma Pi is an international fraternity in the field of business administration. The fraternity was founded at New York University on November 7, 1907, and has grown to be the largest professional fraternity in business administration with more than eighty active chapters.

The purpose of Delta Sigma Pi is to foster the study of business in universities; to encourage scholarship, social activity and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce, and to further a higher standard of commercial ethics and culture and the civic and commercial welfare of the community.

Alpha Lambda was established at Carolina, May 9, 1925. It aids its members and other students of business administration with a varied professional and social program. The sponsoring of talks by able and experienced businessmen, the presentation of exhibits in conjunction with the school of business, and the planning of trips to leading industries throughout the southeast are only a few of the ways it supplements classroom theory by bringing student closer to actual business problems.

PHI ALPHA DELTA

Phi Alpha Delta is a national secret Greek letter law fraternity founded in 1889 at the University of Chicago Law School. Ruffin Chapter of the University of North Carolina was established in April, 1921. The purpose of the fraternity is to improve professional standards through association of students with the bar and to provide a practical supplement to legal education.

Each year the Chapter conducts a mock trial, presided over by a member of the State bench, to allow students to put brief making and trial procedure into practice application. Regular business meetings are held every week in addition to frequent banquets at which eminent speakers from the bench and bar are presented. A textbook lending library is sponsored by the Chapter and its books are available to all students in Law School.

The combined social-professional program is carried out with the intentions of forming a strong bond between members of the classes in Law School; the forming of a relationship between members of the Law School and former students; and cultivation of principles of legal justice through bonds of friendship.

Phi Delta Chi is a professional pharmaceutical fraternity, founded to advance the science of pharmacy and its allied interests, and to foster and promote a fraternal spirit among its members.

The Alpha Gamma Chapter was established at the University of North Carolina on May 30, 1922. Phi Delta Chi has been an active organization in the School of Pharmacy, justly proud of the obligations and high ideals of an old and honored profession.

Fall has come and now has passed, but the semester system is here to stay! Despite confusion and hardship, the brothers have become indoctrinated and settled down to the serious task of survival. Homecoming weekend found many old grads enjoying the annual alumni luncheon. A brief pause for Christmas and we were back at work again, looking forward to a wonderful P.D.C. weekend. Warm weather and State Board Exams again, so good luck to all!

Nineteen Fifty Four Yackety

Yack beauties

*for men only—
well, you girls can peak, too*

What a beautiful crop of coeds UNC had this year! We had ninety-six of the prettiest contestants anywhere, and we surely were proud of them all. But since we just didn't have space for every one of them we decided, in addition to our queen, to present you with a dream girl for each month of the year. So here you are, Carolina gentlemen, your lovely queen and your 1954 Beauty Calendar.

happy daze! oops. I mean days!

Panhellenic Council

THE PURPOSE OF THE PANHELLENIC COUNCIL is to co-ordinate sorority affairs and to air any problems that can't or shouldn't be solved within the individual sorority. Panhellenic formulates the rules which govern rushing and supervises the general rush program. Our main object is to foster friendly relations between the six sororities and to encourage co-operation instead of competition.

There are six sororities at Carolina and Panhellenic is made up of three girls from each group plus their alumna adviser and an adviser from the Office of the Dean of Women.

One of the means of bringing sororities together is projects. This spring Panhellenic will sponsor another workshop in which all the sororities will participate. In this workshop ideas are shared on how to improve the sorority program, and it is also a great help in preparing the incoming seniors for their respective sorority offices.

Panhellenic also plans to sponsor a big Spring fashion show to be held at the high school auditorium. Every sorority will have a part in it and the proceeds will go to charity.

THE STRAY GREEKS is composed of sorority girls whose chapters are not represented on campus. Its aim is to provide a social outlet for its members and to preserve the bonds of unity and sisterhood in sorority life.

The group was founded in 1944 under the leadership of Twigg Branch. It has gained more and more recognition on campus since then and its membership now totals twenty-six.

Stray Greeks

This year, for the first time, a Stray Greek member acted as a Panhellenic Advisor in each dormitory during the sorority rushing period. The Stray Greeks also took an active part in the Women's Athletic program, service projects and social activities, too.

This year we had ten different sororities represented: Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu, Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Epsilon Phi, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Sigma Kappa.

Officers this year were: Anita Anderson, President; Carol Libby, Vice-President; Jane Yearley, Secretary; Harriet Hill, Treasurer; Anne Moore, W.A.A. Representative.

CHAOS, CONFUSION, AND CONSTRUCTION . . . buckets of pimento paint overturned on Emily's floor, tango red, ivory in everyone's hair, down with the new rugs, on with the slipcovers, away with the cobwebs and . . .

Peace, perfection and pledging . . . twenty-five in a divine pledge class, banana bread for 300 men and Sissy, rest for Mother Maxwell, Tish—the daily 2 o'clock concert.

Pat—a call from Arkansas cotton fields; Alice, call operator at W.&L. Catch Pierce and prolific parasites from the med school! "Anyone for bridge on the third floor veranda?"—the fire escape to you peasants on second. Kitty—California or Egypt this time? Habel sleeps thru Honor Council and Y Cabinet; wakes up in time for Saturday's game. Jett, just brought in a new regime to get us "Shook up." Back from Oslo yet, Julia? "No dope" Ammons, Nasty Norma and A. F. all teaching ABC's. As quarterback Vestal watercolors murals over the dining room, roommate Reeves rants "a lovely boy." Do, re, me, Saxon can't start the station wagon but Maggie can the red Checked top. A June wedding, Jean? One in May for Martin. "Indeed birdseed," you're importing from Duke. "Wicked music" sways our Ruth, but Mary B. sways the new spinet. Murphy's never home; is Julia 1,000 minutes late again? Blond Eve, southern belle Bev, Bob's little Mary Fran—down girls, Lou Lou approaches in the open air carriage. Ski arrives with Johnson in Vericose—Bride doll Hendee and side kick Daniel. Find your glasses Traynham? And the chaos of 301 Phyllis and Thelma. Tears, tremors, trembling . . . graduation—why did this tremendous year with ADPI have to end!

ANOTHER FALL, ANOTHER MAJOR HOUSE CLEANING, another frantic rush season and the Chi Omegas were off to another year at Carolina.

"Cocheese" and the A.T.O.'s, Jayne and the S.A.E.'s and Anna, Mary, and the Duke football team getting things off to a bang with never a dull moment—Janie scouting a fourth for bridge and "Percy" Eason, Julia, and "A.P." keeping ears tuned for the magic two ring of the telephone . . . "Y'all, where is my roommate," yep! Penton still looking for Laura, and May and Margaret chasing "Tweety" around the house—Lina deciding to leave Grand Central Station, wonder why? Dottie and Pat finally recovering from stiff legs—Judy trying to fulfill our social obligations, and Lindy keeping that sultan the whole winter via a sunlamp . . . Murphy and Barbara and their frantic aspirations to be Playmakers—Mary Ida, red car with a checked black and white shirt driving . . . Aggie clutching a pile of knitting—Betsy trying to see under the steering wheel—Birch and Alice leading us on to more athletic conquests, and Jo mashing the hair down with a red scarf—Janet's "mello biniss" and Marnie's chimes . . . GERMAN CLUB

THE GERMAN CLUB, an organization composed of representatives of thirteen social fraternities on campus, sponsors three dance week-ends each year, bringing name bands to Chapel Hill. Under the leadership of Jim Schenck, President, the 1953-54 dances were declared highly successful.

Fall Germans featuring a double performance by Tommy Tucker and Johnny Long began a promising year. Next on the calendar of events were Midwinters in February bringing Ralph Marterie and his orchestra to play for the event with a bonus Friday concert with "Wild Bill" Davidson and his Dixieland sextet. Finals in the spring wound up the club's activities for the year.

Other officers include Jake Rountree, Vice-President; Skippy Roddey, Secretary; and Wallace Pridgen, Treasurer. Fraternities belonging are: Pi Kappa Alpha, St. Anthony Hall, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Tau Omega, Zeta Psi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Kappa Alpha, Sigma Chi, Kappa Sigma, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

JOHNNY LONG

FALL GERMANS

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR of Germans began with an October week-end featuring the bands of Tommy Tucker and North Carolina's own Johnny Long.

Tucker entertained during the first half of a Friday afternoon concert with his catchy arrangements, while Long rounded off the program with such popular renditions as "Way Up in North Carolina" and "Silver Dollar."

Johnny Long played for a good crowd at the Friday night dance at which the traditional German Club figure was held. After an intermission for a Johnny Long-led pep rally and the Carolina-Maryland football game, music lovers danced to the smooth music of Tommy Tucker.

RALPH MARGERIE

WINTER GERMANS

MIDWINTERS BEGAN with a bang as "Wild Bill" Davidson and his band from Eddie Condon's in New York City delighted the audience with famous New Orleans "Dixie."

A Saturday afternoon concert by Ralph Marterie was the next event of the week-end.

Members of the German Club and their dates were presented at a formal dance Saturday night at which Marterie's smooth dance music presented an appropriate finish to a week-end full of musical entertainment.

SPRING GERMANS

SPRING GERMANS rounded out the 1952-53 season with the "fabulous Dorsey brothers" furnishing music.

The week-end began with a Saturday concert at which Ray Anthony made a surprise appearance and was joined by Chapel Hill's Kay Kyser.

The four famous band leaders joined hands to present the most entertaining concert in many years.

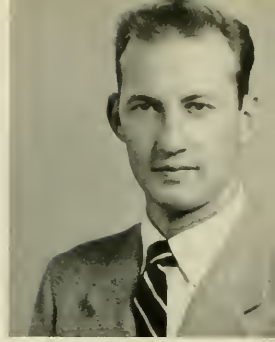

The excellent dance rhythm of Tommy Dorsey furnished the setting for the formal dance Saturday night to end German Club activities for the year.

Interfraternity Council

THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL this year, as in past years, has been the coordinator of the social fraternities on the UNC campus.

Under the capable leadership of John Boushall, the IFC has provided the fraternities with various activities and sought to raise the standards of fraternity life on the campus.

Among its activities this year, the IFC conducted a successful Greek Week which featured a constructive project, exchange dinners, and interfraternity competition in athletics and skits. It also sponsored a blood donor program among the fraternities in order to build up the blood supply at Memorial Hospital. Once again, it awarded this year the Andrew Bershak Scholarship, valued at two thousand dollars. The fund is made up of individual contributions from the members of the social fraternities.

One of the most beneficial projects of the IFC was the discussion groups where house managers and treasurers compared and discussed their problems.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

THIS YEAR the Council has endeavored to gain equal social privileges for coeds visiting in the fraternities. It is hoped that in the near future some agreement can be reached.

Along with serving as the clearing house for interfraternity problems and conducting the pledging program, the council published a handbook of all the data on fraternity life. The book lists all fraternity men, and the groups to which they belong; the laws of the council; the policies and special agreements that it enforces; and the rushing rules for the year.

The Interfraternity Council is composed of two members from each fraternity, the house president, and another delegate. It has as its purpose to further by unification and high ideals, the brotherhood, character, and scholarship necessary to any fraternity worthy of the name.

LIVING ROOM RUG put a dent in the finances but Ebineezer Townsend soon alleviated the condition. Toby voiced his protest.

Blythe and Monroe led the lovers with Julia and the "Black Beauty" as their recipients. Chuck deviated from Jake while managing a few trips to Spero's. McLendon and "Fog" Patterson got lost in Lynchburg. Qualls and Phipps went to Greensboro.

Cleaning business flourished as Stump and Leak joined Thatcher on the Black List. Skinner left for Alaska. Soady Morris left his monkey and his marbles in Charlotte.

Stroud visited the A. A. chapter as Shoe and Thomas were recalled and Sambo just turned fifty-nine. Heatman was still with us.

McCollam introduced a new type of pajamas which included a coat and tie. Drazé party in the bar. Even though he didn't wear a 7½ long oval, "Crabby" Al remained Ivy Leaguer.

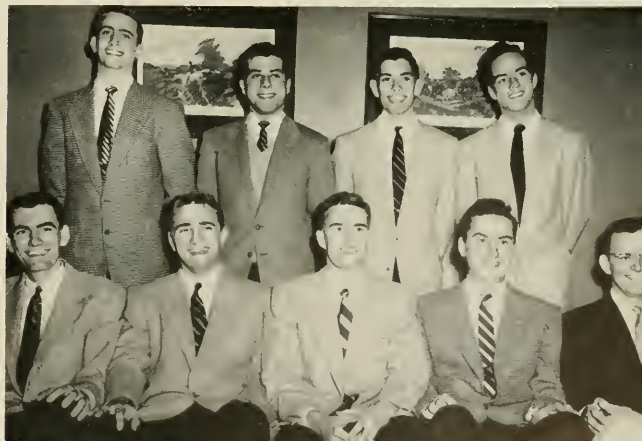

Harry was the big wheel in med school but lost his pin and diving bell.

"IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE" seemed to be the prevailing sentiment around Chi Phi as a new school year got under way.

Effective leadership by Jack Stilwell and hard work on the part of all the brothers soon translated this wish into a reality in the form of a striking "new look" for the old white house on the hill.

Alpha Alpha kept up the vigorous pace by pledging twenty of Carolina's finest boys. No time was wasted after the annual pledge banquet as the chapter spent a busy fall with its intramural record and participating in extracurriculars. Chi Phi figured high in publications, Student Legislature, campus politics and, of course, the ever-present parties.

Winter brought more fine pledges through informal rushing and pledge week-end broke all records for festivities. Parties at Hogan's Lake and trips to Wrightsville and Myrtle filled the calendar until the last days of the year when thoughts of exams and a perfect year with Chi Phi filled the minds of brothers and pledges alike.

YEAR STARTS with usual work. Everybody back early. Football week-ends bring back old grads. Buddy now Ensign in Navy; Ramsey, Lt. in USMC.

Thirteen terrific pledges begin work towards becoming actives—raking leaves. White entrusted as their master . . . Buster still lazy as ever. Ted and Doc plan Fall Houseparty — Terrific success . . . combo, dancing, everybody happy.

Charlie sports new Olds . . . Pfaff still trying to lose weight via diet system . . . Noel snowed . . . Fred, Dick and even Big Boy Bucky pinned. Fountain hoarse after football game.

Chris sings Malaguena in the shower . . . Everybody else "Eyeballs" the new TV set with overcoats on — NO HEAT! Can't get the darned furnace fixed!

Anyway, it's a tops year for the Chips—a great gang, a great year and with more to come. Hats off to Hood for a great job as number one—anchors away—

PRE-REGISTRATION BEGAN at Spero's—New carpet in the living room—Gorham in office of President makes like Calvin Coolidge. Patterson has the usual troubles telling pledges about Phi, Yale, etc. Car, bus, plane made up the transportation on the Virginia trip. Lilly Christine goes feline for Barnes and the New Yorkers over Thanksgiving. Ding Bat sticks. Wilson continues night clubbing at Lindy's—Law officers shake Herbie up with a new grip at Deb Ball, White Lump's shoes and beer go to the laundry.

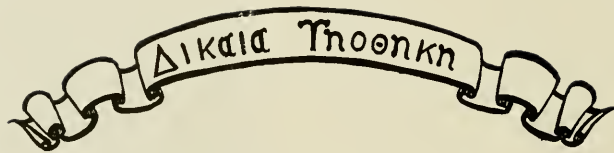

Dubba brings back house guests after trip to Europe. Brothers regret Ben's illness. Schenck turns over new leaf and car. Obbie again gave his wheel of fortune another turn. Shores and Sprague go ape over absence of hair. Mayo's pledges shape up while the Phantom announces another used car bargain. Love bug nips Carstarphen for the first time. J. Shull lives up to his nickname. Shuff seconds motions. Vardy scoops reporters on Lewis Neaves record breaking 4:10 for the fifty. Owl gives a small hoot about grades. Ended out a party season with a 103rd anniversary.

AN EAGER ADDITION to the campus brotherhoods was born last year. The period of labor was long, building membership, procuring and remodeling a house, providing furniture. Then the struggle ended momentarily, and we were baptized on April 25, 1953.

Fall of '53—Inexperienced ears hear rushees' steps upon the porch, weary-handed, eager youths, crowding, smiling. Punch, long nightly meetings, and little sleep marked that week.

Now we face our first pledge class. Not a large one, but one of which we are mighty proud. Knowledge gained by Jim Rollins and Horace Golightly at our 119th convention guided us in adopting policies and formulating our program.

Parties and good cheer! Germans week-end; all hale? Maybe not, but all happy and all very sleepy Monday morning. Virginia week-end, Christmas dance . . .

And the more serious aspects. Informal rush always at hand. New pledges steadily swelling our numbers, our purposes before us, a high scholastic average to maintain, all participating in extracurriculars. A busy life—building a new and different brotherhood.

"DOWN IN THE BAR ROOM underneath the ground . . ." With the return of Sam the Phi Kap man this year the Lambda House opened its 98th year on campus.

Things got under way with the open house for coeds chaperoned by Nugget O'Neal.

Times got totable with the advent of bar parties before, during and after the football games. These blasts were highlighted by the appearance of such nationally known figures as Ruby, Christine, Renyard, Rocco, Fed-The-Bar-B-Que-King, Coathanger the Importer, Ziglet (AA President), Muscle Throat O'Brien, "My Gurl" by Fetzer and Sykes the smiling barman.

Next came rush with the addition of 14 more clowns to the circus. Then Founders' Day with Lambda receiving the Newsletter Award. The Christmas party for the kids, an annual affair, was as always well worth the effort.

Winter house party combined with the pledge dance left sore heads but fond memories.

Spring, glorious Spring, with the annual beach party . . . 'nuff said? Graduation with some of the five-year-men leaving at last. Time marches on.

ARRIVING BACK AT CHAPEL COLLEGE this fall, S.A.E.'s surprisingly found a revamped house, due to the superlative efforts of Bob Gibbon and Alex McMillan. Gib, who found himself trapped into first session summer school, gleefully directed the face lifting of the first floor. Many actives who returned to school early aided in numerous and sundry ways. The end result was something less than hideous, so all parties were happily amazed.

To make the ninety-sixth year an even bigger success, Minerva came up with sixteen pledges, creating one of the best pledge classes in the history of N. C. Xi—and undoubtedly they will perform prodigiously for the girl with the lion.

Congratulating each other on the fine beginning, the brothers then turned their eyes to the future to concern themselves with elaborate plans for the remainder of the year.

SCHOOL OPENED AGAIN with a bang, and Doug started piecing the house together again. Missing roof and crater in living room was blamed on Grover and Ernie. Fraz waved as he passed on his way to Durham. A large moving van pulled up with Spider's muscle building equipment. Slaves were seen carrying large money bags to the banks as Ray drove into town. Bundles and Mitch slid up on a dog sled after a long journey from the North. The sky lit up, and the Earth trembled as Red Man strolled up the walk.

A motion was brought up in chapter meeting to start going to classes—motion defeated. Another motion was made to get Sid out of bed—motion passed, impossible to enforce. Along came rushing and twenty-five shining new additions were made.

Pete was jailed for pinching Abraham Lincoln . . . Abbie was seen sober—once. Rio crashed into the Bell Tower with his new Sabre Jet, and Dowd blew up Y-Court. Looks like another fine year for the Sigs.

THE YEAR BEGINS for dear ole Psi.
 New rug, new actives, pledges, too.
 The gridiron's sparked by Teedy B.,
 With George up front to lead.
 Dave likes to kiss 'em on the mouth
 'Specially KD's we hope.
 The Snakes find washing is a sin
 As Mike dictates "No soap!"
 "Fraud! Fraud! the legislators yell
 As Ruby's hauled away;
 Consult Mon's Travel Agency
 About a seashore stay.
 And lo! the Cherry doth return
 With Old World tales to spin;
 And Stick, the patient pledge, reveals
 He's finally getting in.
 God! Pridgen's shelf is bare.
 Then Vickers softly had to ask
 "What's going on down there . . ."
 The Snakes they love to serenade.
 They start with the Pi Phi's, and then take on the other five . . .
 (Stick's horn drowned out the sighs)
 To "da . . . da-da-da-" it is said
 "Look, man, I played a hunch";
 And then we ask the whole damn Dook
 To share our songs and punch.
 It's time to close and see Spero
 For "just another brew"
 And so we bid our "Happy Days"
 To dear old Snickey Foo!

IT'S ALL NEW . . . the house, the pledges, spirits renewed. We start out the year with a bang.

We'll remember: The all-nite homecoming party staged by "Hamburger." Special pledge project at Duke (wonder what it was?). "Grumpy," his SPE stone, his flying cards and 10,000 bells.

"Snow White and the Four Pigs" (or were they?) "Kid" and his tinker-toys. Clint and Ken—"Which Hickorite is the alki?" "Rose Bud" and her little red brief case.

"Peanut Butter" Jenkins and his ice cream sundaes. Veep and his queen! Blood trophy competition weeds men from boys. "Columbus" no returneth. Sister Pollard and Pledge (?) Torrence caught in the draft.

Congrats to Circum, Helms, Slud, Herbie and Ellis. June cometh. Freedom goeth. (Maybe)

"Stinko" and "Big Bill"—Saturday's Heroes. "C-Top" and all those A's he talked about. "Poodle, where's Mimi?" "Old Dad" sorta disliked "Motor Mouth." We did too. Let's go to physics lab, Tyndall. A legacy forthcoming from Al and Mike.

"Bedwetter." "Tweedybird." "Pearshape." "Hail to the Chief." Our Dream Girl, Bunny. Knock, knock—who's there. "Tess"
