Firemen's Annual Ball

Whether you attend or not, it is up to every property-owner and business concern to purchase a ticket for the annual ball of the Carmel Fire Department, which takes place at Manzanita Hall on Saturday evening.

The department being entirely volunteer and without official income from any source, is obliged to maintain itself by occasional contributions and the net receipts of the annual ball. The men gladly give their time and labor. The least the public can do is to assist in the up-keep and purchase of equipment.

This Is Red Cross War Fund Week

WHYS AND WHEREFORES

THE President of the United States, who is also president of the American Red Cross organization, has called upon the people for One Hundred millions of dollars.

WHY? For the reason that it is wanted AT ONCE, and asking the people directly for it, is cutting red tape. It is the most wonderful short-cut to an object ever undertaken by the head of a democratic government.

WHAT is it for? To provide hospitals, physicians, nurses, and material for the men at the front who are suffering from the exhaustion of a three years' war; to provide for the dependants of those men going to the front. They expect this as their right—this is not a charity movement; to provide ambulances, and their equipment; to provide employment for, to rehabilitate, and to take care of, the broken men that come back; also to provide funds to establish homes at or near military bases for American officers and men on leave.

WHAT'S the hurry? Our general and his staff are in France; our soldiers will soon be there. Provision for caring for the sick and wounded must be there when needed.

THE MEETING AT THE FOREST THEATRE

One Hundred Million Dollars Red Cross Week was inaugurated in Monterey county last Sunday afternoon at Carmel's Forest Theatre.

Nearly five hundred humanity-loving, patriotic residents of Monterey Peninsula were in attendance. Those of Carmel who are known to be German sympathizers or not in sympathy with the objects of the Red Cross were conspicuous by their absence.

A. P. Fraser, chairman of the Carmel Board of Trustees, called the meeting to order. With him on the stage sat the speakers and thirty young ladies attired in the uniform of the Red Cross nurse.

Colonel Bowen, well-known soldier, was the first speaker, following the singing of "The Star Spangle Banner" by Mrs. Mabel Gray Young. Colonel Bowen laid particular stress upon the magnitude of the task the United States had set itself and the great need of unselfish cooperation, on the part of the people, with the Red Cross.

G. F. Beardsley related the details of the preliminary work leading up to this Red Cross Week as applied to local activities, and urged upon his hearers the vital necessity of everyone contributing to this great human cause.

Michael Williams, war-correspondent and author, was the principal speaker of the day. So well and convincingly did he speak and plead that he held the close attention of the audience throughout his long address.

Williams accomplished what many here have been praying for since the United States entered the war. He instilled into the minds of his hearers the seriousness of this whole war business. He made the well-to-do and the poor see it as a solemn, patriotic duty to get into the Red Cross work.

Mike Williams has done his "bit" and a big bit more. How shall we ever pay our debt of gratitude to the world-famous musicians who are sojourning among us? They gave freely of their splendid gifts to make this affair a success, and, what's more, they have promised to do it again.

Watching the face of Horace Britt, the Belgian cellist, as he, with Shavitch, played their splendid duett, one could read the heart-ache of one thinking of his devastated country. We needed the Spanish dance to brace up.

Allen Beir, who has been here so often that he is regarded as one of us, rendered excellently two piano numbers.

Tina Lerner, with her sweet, pathetic voice, charmed us all. It was as if an angel had come to bless the purposes of the meeting.

Fourth of July?

The Pine Cone argues that in times such as we are now passing thru, the Fourth of July should not be neglected. Celebrate by all means. "Keep the fires of patriotism burning," says Overstreet. — Pacific Grove Review.

Notice to TAXPAYERS

All taxpayers are required by the constitution to annually make and deliver to the Assessor a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically ALL the real, personal, or other class of property, owned by such persons, or in their possession, or under their control, as the same stands of record at 12 o'clock Meridian on the first Monday of March.

The Political Code provides, that all property must be assessed at its "full cash value," and defines "full cash value" as being "the amount at which the property would be taken in payment of a just debt from a solvent debtor."

Unsecured Personal Property

The taxes on all unsecured personal property are due and payable and must be paid at the time the assessment is made.

Exemptions

Any person or association, claiming any property to be exempt from taxation, MUST make the claim and affidavit, for such exemption, every year, in the manner provided by law. This applies to the $100 allowed on personal property of householders; the $1000 allowed soldiers, sailors, marines, etc., and property used solely and exclusively for religious worship.

Assessments

Any information desired relating to assessments will be gladly furnished on application, and all objections should be made before the Board of Equalization adjourns, instead of waiting until it is time to pay taxes.

Remember, that if you fail to make a statement you fail to comply with the law and you law yourself liable to arbitrary assessment, which is expensive to yourself and causes much trouble to others.

WEEKLY GREETING

To free one's self from the restraint of outer authority is not hard, but to make one's new freedom subject to the shaping and guiding power of inner law is the supreme achievement of the human will.—
Prof. R. H. Boas.

An Appreciation

(By Beth McLeod Price.)

As a member of the audience at the entertainment given recently at the Arts and Crafts Hall, I was impressed with the spontaneity of the performance. The dancers seemed to be not acting and dancing for an audience, but to be creating their rhythmic forms and their drama for their own interest and fun.

In the dancing of the children in the flower garden scene one felt that these little ones were not simply repeating mechanical movements taught them but that they were self-creating them by an individual interpretation. In the dance of the lily there was the atmosphere of regal dignity and a faint touch of mysticism, the wild rose was a sweet and dainty vagabond of the broad highway, and the gorgeous, saucy butterfly seemed to embody all the shimmering ecstasies of earth and sky and air as she trailed her wings among the flowers.

That the rhythmic expression of the children in the dances seemed to be not imitative, but a spontaneous personal development, may largely be attributed to their teacher Jeanette Hoagland. Miss Hoagland's idea is that the child shall use the laws of technique for self-development. Then expression shall come as the urge of an idea and as artistic appreciation grows in the child he shall be able to build his own forms of dancing. The old schools of dancing produced dancers whose art did not conform to the plastic qualities of life. Jeanette Hoagland is a devotee and an untiring student of the new school which seeks to be in touch with life as a continual evolution with free play for the individual and his individualization.

INSTANT ACTION SURPRISES MANY HERE

This grocer's story surprises local people: "I had bad stomach trouble. All food seemed to sour and form gas. Was always constipated. Nothing helped me until I tried buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. ONE SPOONFUL astonished me with its INSTANT action." Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold.

AGES OF CIVIL WAR SOLDIERS.

During the debates in Congress over the conscription bill, Congressman Julius Kahn of California asked the War Department to furnish him with data as to the age of soldiers serving during the Civil War. The following is a true statement, and from the 2,778,309 soldiers that served in the war, at the end of the war their average age was twenty-eight years.

10 years and under.....	25
12 years.....	187
13 years.....	75
14 years.....	1,223
15 years.....	104,464
16 years.....	125,064
17 years.....	613,840
18 years.....	306,547
19 to 21 years.....	1,008,360
22 to 24 years.....	571,887
25 to 43 years.....	30,555
44 years and over.....	16,017

From the foregoing it can be very plainly seen that the number of men of seventeen years of age was greater than the number between twenty-two and twenty-four years of age, and the number between fifteen, sixteen and seventeen years of age, respectively, were over three, four and twenty times as large as the number serving in the war between twenty-five years and forty-two years.

The record of the War Department shows that 98 per cent of the soldiers at the time of enlistment during the Civil War were under twenty-five years of age.
