The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

New Brunswick Museum

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

New Brunswick Museum
Saint John

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

HOYT'S

NEW SYSTEM, OF

BOOK-KEEPING,

INVENTED ON PURPOSE FOR THE

RETAIL DEALER, MECHANIC,

TO MEET THE WANTS OF THE HOME TRADE.

In this system the principle of the Double Entry is sustained only so far as is requisite to give a correct Stock Account, so vastly important to every man in business; the forms are similar to the common Single Entry, there being only three books used—Cash Book, Day Book and Ledger; nor is it necessary to purchase new books in order to adopt this system, which enables a Merchant, Mechanic, or Manufacturer, to ascertain the state of his Stock Account, his Nett Profits, &c., as correctly as he would by an entire Double Entry System. It has been introduced extensively in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine. The author refers with perfect confidence to the large number of persons, in every description of business, who have adopted this work, and recommended it in the most unequivocal terms.

Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Hardware, Earthenware, Corn, Flour, Provision and Lumber Dealers, Grocers and Ship Chandlers, Clothiers and Merchant Tailors, Milliners, Boot and Shoe Makers, Cabinet Makers and Upholsterers, Druggists and Apothecaries, Auctioneers, Watch Makers and Jewelers, Carriage Makers and Wheelwrights, Steam Engine Makers, Machinists and Stove Founders, Black, White, and Copper Smiths, Book and Job Printers, Bookbinders, Booksellers and Stationers, Hat and Cap Manufacturers, Saddlers, Saddle-tree and Harness Makers, Sash, Blind and Wooden Ware Manufacturers, Architects and House Carpenters, House and Sign Painters, Carvers and Gilders, Chair Makers and Turners, Marble and Stone Cutters, Piano Forte, Musicial and Agricultural implements, Iron Mangers, Ship and Boat Builders, Reed, Umbrella and Brush Makers, Paper and Paper Hanging manufacturers, Soap and Candle makers, Coopers, Hotel and Livery Stable keepers, &c., &c. Indeed there is scarcely a branch of business that has not been glad to adopt it.

This work is so very simple that, with a model set, it can be taught to grown personal makers, and Turners, Marble and Stone Cutters, Piano Forte, Musicial and Span makers, and Turners, Marble and Stone Cutters, Piano Forte, Musicial and Agricultural instruments, Iron Mangers, Ship and Boat Builders, Reed, Umbrella and Brush Makers, Paper and Paper Hanging manufacturers, Soap and Candle makers, Coopers, Hotel and Livery Stable keepers, &c., &c. Indeed there is scarcely a branch of business that has not been glad to adopt it.

This work is so very simple that, with a model set, it can be taught to grown persons in an hour, and youth in a few hours. (Large classes have been taught composed of grown persons and youth. In many cases, persons who have kept their books by Double Entry have abandoned it, and adopted this, thereby saving a great deal of time and labor.) The advantages of this work to the dealer are as follows;

1st—A correct Stock Account, so highly important in every business, particularly in Partnerships and in case of loss by fire.

2—Its extreme simplicity, rendering it easily adopted.

3—Its great saving of time and labor, even over the majority of cases of Single Entry.

4—Its cheapness, not requiring a new set of books,—the only expense being the model work, with Instructions.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

From the Bridgeport Republican Standard.

"BOOK KEEPING.—Mr. Hoyt, well known to our citizens as a thorough accountant and elegant writer, has exhibited to us several specimens of his Book Keeping, which he has offered for sale.

Mr. H.'s system of Single Entry Book Keeping combines advantages for the retailer and mechanic not met with in any other system. A correct Stock, Cash, Bank and Expense account are kept, and the exact profits arising from the business ascertained, which cannot be the case when books are kept in the old way. Mr. H. has, by a very simple plan, succeeded in doing away with the use of the journal, and yet retained all the practical good which arises from the use of one.—As one of our intelligent merchants remarked, 'the great merits of this work is its simplicity and ready adaptation to every business.'"

From the Hudson Republican Whig.

"Let all our young men get a knowledge of one of Mr. Hoyt's systems of Book Keeping, (for he has several). Mr. H. is a practical man with over ten years experience. A few days, nay, even hours, under such a clear headed man is worth weeks under mere theorists. His new system for the Retailers and Mechanics meets the approbation of all who have had the good sense to adopt it."

From the Cashier of the Farmer's Bank, Hudson.

"I have examined Mr. Hoyt's new system of Book Keeping, and admire the simplicity of the plan, and the mercantile neatness of the work. Mr. H. is a thorough utilitarian in his views and practice, and from his long experience in business, and thorough acquaintance with Book Keeping and merchant's accounts, in their every department, he is eminently qualified for his professional duties. I cordially recommend the work."

From the Norwich Courier, Connecticut.

"Unasked advice, we are aware, is not always the most acceptable; still we venture so far as to counsel all who feel, or ought to feel, an interest in Book Keeping, to call upon Mr. H. If his system really possesses the advantages claimed, (and that it does we see no reason to doubt), then it is certainly well worth the while not only of our young merchants, clerks, mechanics and apprentices, but of business men of all ages and classes to attend to it."

From the Norwich Aurora.

"Mr. H.'s system of Book Keeping commends itself to the public on account of its simplicity and its great saving of labor. The principle of Double Entry is sustained in it without the necessity of keeping a Journal, and the system is so far relieved of the intricacies which are generally connected with Book Keeping, that an intelligent child fourteen years old, can readily learn it. We have determined to adopt Mr. H.'s method with our own books, and recommend others to do likewise."

From the Providence (R. I.) Daily Journal.

"We have already had occasion to allude in high terms to Mr. Hoyt's new method of Book Keeping. He has introduced his system into some of our most respectable counting rooms."

From the Newburyport Watchtower.

"Mr. H. is an accomplished accountant and elegant writer. His system, as explained to us, is brief, comprehensive and complete, and of his tact in conveying his instructions we can speak from personal knowledge."

From the Newport Rhode Islander.

"Mr. H.'s reputation, while a teacher in Providence, had already preceded him by the popularity of his new method of Book Keeping. His plan of instruction is to present each pupil with a model set of books, beautifully written and prepared by himself. He thus greatly facilitates the pupil's rapid progress, seldom requiring more than an hour to each—the pupils retaining the model set for a reference. The great value of this work is the facility it affords in keeping a correct Stock Account, without in any way increasing the quantum of writing usually required in the common Single Entry. The details of the work combine many little points essential to a neat and correct accountant."

From the Portland Daily Argus, Dec. 11, 1843

We, the undersigned, profess to be acquainted with Book-keeping by Double and Single Entry, and we have purchased of Mr. S. Hoyt his model of Book-keeping, with his instructions on the subject. We freely recommend the same for the various kinds of business for which he says it is adapted, as it provides for a Stock Account without the necessity of an extra book for journalizing. Much of the difficulties which frequently occur in business, would be prevented, if Traders and Mechanics would keep a Stock Account, as well as an account of what is owed to them. Mr. Hoyt's system is easily acquired, and recommends itself by its practical nature.
