

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JOSEPH M. SULLIVAN

The funeral of Joseph M. Sullivan, a well-known Boston attorney, who was fatally stricken on Thursday evening while entering the library of his home at 18 Atherton st, Roxbury, was held this morning with services at St Mary of the Angels' Church, Egleston sq, Roxbury.

Rev Fr Charles A. Finegan, pastor of the church, officiated at the high mass of requiem which was celebrated at 9 o'clock in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends and professional associates.

The pallbearers were Herbert W. Dayton and Thomas F. Kerrigan, Mr Sullivan's law partners; John Strom, Cornelius Donovan, Thomas Jenkins and Felix Conlin. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden, with prayers at the grave by Rev Fr Holland.