High School Champion

The Local Boys Walk Away with Beautiful Loving Cup.

Last Saturday at the May Day celebration the Campbell High School boys played Mountain View High School for the championship of the I. A. U. in baseball, and for a beautiful silver loving cup donated by A. G. Spaulding Bros. to the winner of the game.

Our boys outclassed the Mountain View lads and had them going after the first inning. The Mountain View boys can't play baseball, we'll acknowledge that. They have no diamond to practice on as their work certainly showed. The local boys have a fine team, equal to any high school team in the county and will run up against some good teams from now on. The score was 22 to 2. The boys say it was not interesting to them as it was too easy. They wanted a close game.

covering rail and stage transportation alone, the side trip will cost for Tour No. 1, $18.75; Tour No. 2, $28.75 and Tour No. 3 $33.75. This arrangement allows the passenger to make his own arrangements for hotel accommodations.

On all tickets going or returning via Truckee, the trip to Lake Tahoe and the various resorts located contiguous thereto can be made at a very reasonable cost, special rates having been made for these side trips.

The above rates are all figured from San Jose, rates from other stations on the S. P. lines are in proportion thereto and any Southern Pacific agent will be pleased to give prospective passengers full information as to rates, sale date, etc and make necessary sleeping car reservations.

Los Gatos Celebration

Largest Crowd Ever Assembled in a Small City.

So much space has been given to the Festival at Los Gatos in the daily press that we will not spend much space on the description of the day's events. It is usually the case with events of this character, that they are much enlarged upon beforehand, which results in a disappointment by those who attend. In this case however, people who went to Los Gatos expecting to enjoy themselves, but not expecting to be treated as royally as they were that day. The result is, that everyone who were there went away more than satisfied and will advertise Los Gatos more than any other method that could be devised.

Perhaps the main attractions of the day were the Parade and the Marathon Race in the morning, the Baby Parade, Games in Carnival Park and on the High School grounds, and the Feast of Lanterns.

The only regrettable thing was, that we didn't have that meeting of the County Editorial Association. Bro. Hathaway didn't get up in time to black his shoes, and so missed the train—maybe.

New Advertisers.

This week our readers will be surprised to see so many new advertisers in the Press. We are elated with the spirit of our business men on the advertising proposition and wish to say that we will make the Press one of the best papers in the county of proportionate patronage. We are doing our best, and now that our business men have done so much for the paper, we would like to see the other residents of the town subscribe to it, and those of you who have already done so can help by securing at least one other subscription. Every little help we get will make a better paper.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kent of Central Av. are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Fernald of Salem, Mass. Mr. Fernald has recently severed his connection with the Locke Regulator Company of that place and intends to make the Santa Clara Valley his future home.

Cambrian

Special to the "Press."

E. Joacchimes, age 69 years, died on the 2nd of May at his home in the Cambrian District. He was buried Tuesday.

Sprinkling on the Los Gatos road has been resumed, much to the joy of residents in this part of the district.

Prospects of a good crop of grapes are very bright around here.

Mrs. Metzler, who has been visiting her relatives here has returned to Cleveland, Ohio.

Vegetable and Fruit Store.

Mr. B. M. Clift, one of our citizens, has opened a fruit and vegetable store on Campbell Av. opposite the cannery, and will now hold the distinction of being the only one in Campbell in that business. He goes to the wholesale market every morning and gets his goods absolutely fresh. He guarantees all his goods to be absolutely fresh or he will refund your money. He has an ice-box at his store in which he keeps his vegetables, thus preserving their freshness, such as the vegetable wagons from San Jose can not do. The whole town should patronize him, not only because he is a local man, but because he either duplicates or under-sells the wagon men. These vegetable wagons haul the goods all day and by the time they get to the consumers they are not worth having. Give Mr. Clift a trial and be convinced.

NEWS OF WEEK FROM ALL THE COAST STATES

Occurrences Along the Pacific Slope Presented in Com- pendious Array.

Passing Events Among Your Neigh- bors Briefly Told in Short, Newsy Paragraphs.

Berkeley.—President Wheeler announced that a chair of railroad engineering would be established at the University of California next August.

Stockton.—The first cherries of the season were brought in last week by Tony Schrone, a produce grower on the Waterlo road about three miles from Stockton. The cherries were large and well ripened for this season of the year.

Santa Ana.—The tannery of Clemens & Casey was destroyed by fire and Isaac Clemens, one of the proprietors, was fatally burned. The fire was caused when Clemens lighted a cigar in a room where a vat full of hides that had been saturated with gasoline was situated.

San Bernardino.—After terribly slashing his throat with a pocket knife, Thomas Riley of Los Angeles jumped from the third floor of the Southern Hotel to the court below, receiving injuries which will probably result in his death. It is believed that he became despondent over lack of work.

Berkeley.—A fragment of stone as large as a man's head, hurled through the air by dynamiting for the Sather gateway at the Telegraph avenue entrance to the University campus, struck the agricultural building, 200 yards away, and missed the head of Prof. E. J. Wickson, dean of the department, who was sitting in his office, by only a foot.

Washington.—An order has been signed by Postmaster General Hitchcock granting postmasters of the first, second and third classes in California leave of absence not exceeding seven days to enable them to attend the second annual convention of the California Presidential Postmasters' Association to be held at Los Angeles July 20th to 22d inclusive.

Sacramento.—Governor Gillett has set at rest all talk of removing State Forester Lull in charge of the California redwood forest near Santa Cruz. He declined to sign the Maher Assembly bill to put the forest in control of a commission. Trouble arose over the removal of certain trees Lull declared were dead and the Santa Cruz people raised strenuous objections, striving to secure Lull's removal by Legislative action.

Flagstaff, A. T.—Dr. Percival Lowell is adding one of the largest telescopes in the country to his observatory here, at an approximate cost of $30,000. It will be a forty-two-inch lens, used mainly in securing better photographs of Mars, which is his special study, and other planets. His present observatory is one of the best equipped in the United States, and with this addition he expects to secure more perfect photographic results.

Reno, Nev.—After clubbing a Chinese into unconsciousness and locking him in the cellar, four men robbed the Casino, a big gambling resort of Reno, of between $4,000 and $5,000. A night watchman who intruded was captured and locked in a closet. After the men had opened the safe they scooped the money into bags and boldly walked out the front door and started north. A policeman tried to intercept them, but they took a shot at him and he fled.

San Rafael.—The $1,300 reward offered by the citizens of San Rafael for the apprehension and conviction of the man who attacked Miss Elizabeth Grapes will never be paid, notwithstanding that the guilty man is now serving a life sentence at Folsom in expiation for his crime. District Attorney Boyd in a letter to the businessmen who put up the reward states that Sheriff Taylor and his deputies and City Detective Taylor and McPhee have refused to accept the money for their work of ferreting out the criminal. As a result the money will be returned to the men who subscribed it.

BUTTE COUNTY EXPECTS TO PRODUCE GOOD RICE CROP

Many Acres Planted and the Industry is an Assured Success.

Biggs.—The rice crop, a new product of this district, has been about all planned for the season and has been flooded from the canals. Conditions are considered favorable for good crops this season. Three years ago the first rice-growing experiments were made in the Sacramento valley. Now many acres are planted and the industry is a demonstrated success. Japanese have been studying the conditions here since white men have embarked in the industry, and it is feared they may seek to enter the field in competition with the Americans. A few rice-growers from the Southern rice-growing States have been here to see the results obtained and are expected to make investments. The United States Agricultural Department has an expert here studying the industry. He has 300 varieties of rice under cultivation on the Balfour-Guthrie place, where sixty-five acres have been planted.

Will Turn Hose on Scorcher.

Hammond, Ind.—The police of this town have devised a new plan to quench the ardor of the automobile scorcher, whose favorite stretch for speeding is Calumet avenue. Midway along this thoroughfare a field telephone will be installed and worked by an officer, who will send information to the farther end of the approach of the violator of the speed ordinance. Here will be established a water gun with a three-inch nozzle and 100 pounds pressure to the inch. It is claimed that on the refusal of the chauffeur to stop when ordered a stream will be turned upon him with a force sufficient to lift him out of the machine.

Oil Company Will Issue Bonds.

Bakersfield.—The directors of the Associated Oil Company at a special meeting held in the office in the Kern River fields voted a $25,000,000 bond issue. A pipe line from Coalinga to San Francisco bay, another from McKittrick in the middle of the West Side oil fields of Kern county to Gaviota, where the Associated refinery is situated on the Santa Barbara county coast, and a new tankship, are the improvements in contemplation at the present time.

Ends Life After Trifling Quarrel.

Los Angeles.—Because she had not been included in a fishing trip which her husband had planned, Mrs. Anna Fry, aged 24, exchanged a few words of objection with her husband and then stepped into an adjoining room and, placing a pistol in her mouth, fired a shot which immediately ended her life. Mrs. Fry was soon to have become a mother. John Fry, the husband, is a Southern Pacific fireman.

Killed by Explosion of Wine.

Artesia.—Hundreds of gallons of sherry wine and a workman were blown through the air when the sherry tank of the Artesia Vineyard Company exploded. The man is Frederick Thompson, a wine maker. He was fatally injured. He lifted a manhole on top of the huge tank of sherry and lit a match to ascertain the condition of the liquor when the alcoholic gases exploded.

Preferred Death to Trip With Husband.

San Bernardino.—As a result of a quarrel with her husband because she did not want to accompany him to Columbus, O., to attend the meeting of the Order of Railway Trainmen, Mrs. C. P. Fording, wife of a well known conductor on the Santa Fe, seized a revolver and shot herself through the heart, dying in ten minutes.

May Some Day Rule Holland.

The Hague.—Queen Wilhelmina, on April 30, gave birth to a daughter. The announcement of the child's birth was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm, tempered with disappointment that the child is a girl. According to the Dutch law the princess born will inherit the throne.

Snails Become Pest.

Long Beach.—Residents of Linden avenue, between Ocean and First streets, are suffering from a pest of snails. Thousands of these little creatures can be seen daily dragging their way along the walks and the sides of the buildings.

Fairbanks Buys California Home.

Pasadena.—Charles Warren Fairbanks, former Vice President, has, through agents, concluded a deal for the purchase of a $30,000 residence in Pasadena. It is said he will make his new purchase his future home.

Young Turks Execute Allies of Deposed Ruler

Constantinople.—The Constitutionalists have lost no time in bringing the conspirators in the recent rising to trial. The military court last week condemned about 250 prisoners to death and they were executed.

Nadir Pasha, the second eunuch of the palace, was hanged at dawn on the Galata bridge, and his great body was viewed by thousands. The Government has decided to send a commission to Adana to try by court martial the instigators of the massacres and the committee is authorized to act with the utmost severity.

It is alleged that the chief authors of the recent mutiny were Abdul Hamid's favorite son, Prince Mehemmed Burban Eddine, Rear Admiral Saind Pasha, son of Kiamil Pasha, the former Grand Vizier, and Nadir Pasha, who were engaged for a long time prior to the rising in corrupting the troops. The two former have fled.

Constantinople.—Carassa Effendi, a member of the deputation from the National Assembly, which conveyed the fetva to the Yildiz Palace, tells of the dramatic scene which closed six centuries dominion of the boundless power of the Pashahs. When the deputation arrived at the palace the scene was one of desolation. The investing army had cut off the water, gas and electric supplies and had stopped the ingress of food, so that all the palace officials were suffering from hunger.

While waiting for the Sultan the members of the deputation carefully examined their holsters and pistols and according to Carassa had Abdul Hamid shown an armed hand he would have been shot instantly. After much delay the unwelcome visitors, surrounded by twenty black eunuchs, were ushered into the Sultan's apartment, where stood the Sultan's son, Prince Abdur Rahim. Presently the Sultan entered, in a bewildered manner. He was dressed somewhat negligently, as though his clothes had been hastily donned, in civilian attire. His arms hung at his sides and his hands trembled.

After a silent salute, Essad Pasha pronounced in slow tones the decree of deposition, at which the Sultan shuddered. There was a painful silence followed by an equally painful colloquy lasting a quarter of an hour. Abdul Hamid appealed for his life and for the lives of his family. He protested his devotion to the people and his innocence of recent events.

The young Prince wept bitterly. For a moment tears trembled in the Sultan's eyes. Then he supplicated the soldiers in attendance to swear that they would not take his life. Abdul Hamid humbly saluted the deputation and it departed.

Having lost his liberty, Abdul Hamid will next lose his fortune, which is estimated all the way from $25,000,000 to $200,000,000. This vast wealth he has literally wrung from the people. The government will confiscate it, not only because it needs the money, but by depriving Abdul Hamid of it he will be prevented from using it to further any treasonable designs he may entertain in the future.

Bank Wrecker Put on Rock Pile to Save Eyesight

San Quentin.—Threatened with blindness from his work in the jute mill, J. Dalzell Brown, former president of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, has been given a new job at the penitentiary. The affliction coming upon the former banker moved the prison authorities to compassion, and he was transferred from the jute mill to the outside construction crew. Here his duties consist of breaking stones with a huge sledge hammer, varying the monotony by an occasional hand-to-hand tussle with a pick and shovel. As his associates, the former bank manager has Chinese, negroes, Mexicans, Indians and the riff-raff of the prison generally. Since Brown returned to the penitentiary in January, after several weeks spent in luxurious ease at the County Jail while he was giving testimony in the Treadwell case, he has not found prison life the bed of roses that it seemed during the early months of his confinement. He was put to work in the jute mill, where each convict has a certain amount of work to do each day. But the whirling strands of the great looms put a constant strain upon Brown's eyes, and the flying lint irritated them. He complained to the prison physician, and the physician declared that Brown's eyes were seriously affected and that unless he was given other work to do at once he might become totally blind. So the outside crew was suggested and to it the former financier and clubman was assigned. This crew is generally composed of the hardest characters in the prison, the men being guarded with unusual diligence and being compelled to do the hardest work about the penitentiary.

Fire Follows Blackmail Demand From Black Hand Fiends

New York.—Eight persons, five of them children, were burned to death and fourteen others were injured in an incendiary fire in a five-story tenement house at 37 Spring street, occupied by twenty families. The blaze followed a demand by members of the Black Hand Society for the payment of $1,000 blackmail. It spread through the building with startling rapidity, as the hallways were soaked with kerosene oil by the blackmailers. In a panic which followed the alarm the tenants fought their way down the fire escapes or jumped from the windows, while babies were thrown from windows into the arms of policemen.

Among the injured three children are not expected to recover. Jacob Bruck, the proprietor of the grocery store on the main floor of the building received on April 18th a letter, reading:

"We demand $1,000 or death. Bring it in Mott street. Petrosini is dead, but the Black Hand lives. (Signed) 'BLACK HAND SOCIETY.'"

Two weeks later Bruck received another letter written in a similar strain. He turned both letters over to the police.

Reads Jack London, Listens to Socialist, Goes Insane

Oakland.—Beholding himself in the mirror of Jack London's socialistic writings as one of the people of the abyss, Charles Baker went insane after listening to a lecture by Austin Lewis, an adherent of London's teachings. Baker had pored for weeks over London's writings, and when he began brooding over the depiction of life in the underworld his mind tottered and the impetus of Lewis' lecture completed the overthrow. Baker was committed to the State Asylum at Napa.

Highest Hotel in the World.

New York.—New York is to have the highest hotel in the world if plans filed with the bureau of buildings are carried out. They call for a thirty-one story structure, 376 feet high, at the southwest corner of Madison avenue and Forty-second street. This will be ten stories higher than any other hotel structure in the city. The company will expend $2,000,000.

Robber and Policeman Kill Each Other.

Logansport, Ind.—A highwayman, whose name is unknown, and Patrolman Joseph Kroeger were shot in a revolver duel following a series of hold-ups by the dead thief and his companion. The latter, who has been identified as Charles Pierce of Scranton, Pa., was captured. He is charged with having fired the shot that killed the policeman.

BATTLESHIP FLEET IN FINE SHAPE AFTER LONG CRUISE

Official Says Cost of Voyage Was Only Million and a Half.

Washington.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer a few days ago declared that the sixteen battleships of the Atlantic fleet which had made the voyage around the world were in excellent condition, and the fact that they were accompanied by a repair ship kept them in good order throughout the trip.

He referred to an article in an English publication saying the result of the trip was worth from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 to the United States Navy. The Secretary said he had found that the voyage had cost only $1,500,000 more than if the battleships had been kept at home and assigned to ordinary duties.

The battleships needed no extensive repairs, and the fact that they were to remain at the navy yards a month longer than at first contemplated was not due to a need of more repairs, but to the fact that materials needed for the repairs were not available.

Too Many Carnegie Libraries.

New York.—This city finds itself facing a problem in carrying out its agreement with Andrew Carnegie to provide sites and books for seventy-eight public libraries, for which the ironmaster appropriated $5,000,000. So far the city has acquired only forty-five sites, and will have to acquire twenty-three more. Because of the time which has elapsed, the cost of labor and building material have gone up, and to complete the work Carnegie finds it necessary to increase his appropriation by about $880,000. To date the city has expended more than $2,000,000 on the Carnegie work, and must spend about $4,000,000 more, a million more than was expected.

Beet Sugar Industry Growing.

Washington.—The Secretary of Agriculture has sent to the Senate the information regarding the beet sugar industry, for which he was asked in a resolution recently adopted. The data shows that the production of sugar from beets has increased from 42,000 tons in 1896 to 425,000 tons in 1908. The price of sugar in foreign markets and other information regarding the industry is included in the report.

Berkeley Honored by Roosevelt.

Berkeley.—The first public speech to be made by former President Roosevelt after his return from his African trip will be before the students of the University of California and in the Hearst Greek Theatre on the university campus. This announcement has been officially confirmed. Colonel Roosevelt's appearance in Berkeley is expected during the month of April, 1910.

Weather Bureau Branching Out.

Sacramento.—M. R. Taylor, observer of the local weather bureau, has returned from a trip to the headwaters of the Feather, American and Yuba rivers. At the order of the Department at Washington he established snow bins at a number of points in the mountains and stationed men to send in daily reports to the Sacramento office.

Loses Fortune and Ends Life.

San Francisco.—Despondent at the loss of his worldly goods through injudicious speculations, followed by a complete loss of considerable wealth by the earthquake and fire, Alonzo Kayser gave it up, and ended his life a few days ago. He was found in Golden Gate Park, in his last agony after devouring a quantity of poison.

Thieves Knock Man Down for Necktie.

San Francisco.—Herbert Zimmerman, an apprentice living at 3263 Twentieth street, while walking along Brannan street, between Eighth and Ninth, was approached by two men, who demanded money from him. Zimmerman said he had none and one of the men knocked him down and stole his necktie.

Would Disfranchise Negroes.

Tallahassee, Fla.—A resolution to disfranchise negro voters in Florida was adopted by the Senate last week. The resolution submits to the voters a constitutional amendment providing that the voters of Florida shall be "white male" persons of the age of 21 years and upward.

Ten Years for Stealing Auto.

Santa Rosa.—W. F. Goodrich, convicted of stealing an automobile, was sentenced to ten years in San Quentin. Goodrich claims to be 76 years of age.

Little Soldiers

In your blood are the millions of corpuscles that defend you against disease. To make and keep these little soldiers healthy and strong, is simply to make and keep the blood of the right quality and quantity. This is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does—it helps the little soldiers in your blood to fight disease for you.

It cures scrofula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervousness, dyspepsia, general debility, and builds up the whole system.

The Professor.

The Doctor—I can't help feeling sorry for my friend Huddleford. He owned quite an extensive chain of golf parks, and he's just gone into bankruptcy.

The Professor—I see; his chain was no stronger than his weakest links.—Chicago Tribune.

When We Are Angry.

According to Dr. Maurice de Fleury, a distinguished French scientist, every time one becomes angry one's vitality sinks. After even the most actively suppressed signs of bad temper the vitality becomes smaller and smaller, until finally nothing is left. Anger is a certain kind of cerebral excitement, explains Dr. de Fleury. The hyperthemic subject is always on its verge, while the neuroathenic becomes infuriated only by a sudden bound of reaction excited from without. But at that moment when they are let loose the two are alike, save that the strong man is a blunderer, while the weak man is somewhat of an actor and seems to aim at effect.

Prof. Lange, of the University of Copenhagen, holds that "all emotions are due to disorders of the circulation of the blood, and anger, in particular, to a very intense dilation of the small arteries of the brain." He describes redness and swelling of the face as a constant sign of anger, forgetting the "white rage" which is so frequent and impressive.

But he has brought into strong relief this capital fact—that anger is a state of general hyperinnervation. The whole organism, the muscles and glands—for anger has its tears, sweats and foaming of the mouth—set in action by a superabundance of nervous influx, begin to work to excess, acting for the mere sake of acting, in disorder, without aim, without utility, solely to relieve overtension.

Officially Ignored.

On the relief train that had been rushed to the scene of the railway wreck was a newspaper reporter.

The first victim he saw was a man whose eyes were in mourning and whose left arm was in a sling. With his hair full of dirt, one end of his shirt collar flying loose, and his coat ripped up the back, the victim was sitting on the grass and serenely contemplating the landscape.

"How many people are hurt?" asked the reporter, hurrying up to him.

"I haven't heard of anybody being hurt, young man," said the other.

"How did this wreck happen?"

"I haven't heard of any wreck."

"You haven't? Who are you, anyhow?"

"I don't know that it's any of your business, but I'm the claim agent of the road."—Chicago Tribune.

The Muntoburns, who had been invited to the fashionable wedding, were late in arriving.

Praying for Lincoln.

After the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln, and as the cloud of Civil War grew darker and darker, the feeling of the Southern people against the President as a partisan grew steadily stronger. The Rev. Galusha Anderson, in a book entitled "A Border City in the Civil War," tells how, in his case, in St. Louis, the crisis in sentiment came and was for a time settled over.

At the Sunday morning service I usually prayed for the President and his advisers. So long as Mr. Buchanan was in office this appeared agreeable to all, but no sooner was Mr. Lincoln inaugurated than some began to object to this part of my prayer.

In private conversation they gave free expression to their resentment. The congregation was divided on the question. Among themselves they warmly debated it. No one as yet had uttered his protest to me, and I kept right on praying publicly for the President.

There was no sign of yielding on either side. Relations were already strained, if not wrenched. Something must be done; at least so thought the opposition forces.

They got together and requested William M. McPherson, on their behalf, to talk the matter over with me. Although he had no sympathy with their opposition, in order that he might do something in the interest of harmony in the church he consented to lay their grievance before me.

He invited me to meet him at his business office, that our interview might be strictly private. Since I had no truer friend, I gladly responded to his courteous request. When we met he at once said:

"A considerable number of the church and congregation have sent to you through me an earnest petition that in the future you should forego praying publicly for the President. And they have asked me to induce you, if I can, to grant their desire."

I replied, "Such prayer is no new thing in my pulpit ministrations. I prayed for Mr. Buchanan, and no one objected to that; and I do not see why any one should now object to my praying for Mr. Lincoln."

"Ah," he answered, "that is just the sore point! They think that praying for Lincoln is partisan, that it is praying against the South, and can't you for the sake of peace forego it?"

I responded, "If Lincoln is as bad as they say he is, I am sure that both I and they ought to pray for him; he needs our prayers. Moreover, he is so kind as to say to your brethren and mine, that according to the Protestant idea, prayer is indited by the Holy Spirit; and if the Holy Spirit leads me to pray publicly for the President, I must do it, even though it may be disagreeable to my fellow men."

My reply seemed to please him, and he said, "Subal I say that that is your message to them?"

"Certainly," said I; and our interview thus ended very pleasantly.

"No, George, I can't tell you the difference between a cream pitchah. What is the difference, George, between a cream pitchah?"

"Why—why—de oddah's a prim creature, Mistah Walkah, an' de ud—"

Muskrats for Meat.

Of all animals that supply meat to man the muskrat has been the most abused and the least understood, says the Baltimore Star. Its name had bred in the public mind a prejudice that has been almost unquarable, but truth will prevail in spite of fate. As a fact the muskrat is one of the neatest and most delightful of animals. It is a crank in cleanliness. It dines with the whitest and tenderest morsels. And its flesh has qualities that can be compared only to terrapin. Indeed, there are good people along the Chesapeake, where all the best things live and grow, who find in the well served muskrat satisfaction that is equal to the diamond back. Only the ignorant and the prejudiced think differently, and they may be educated.
