

Ex 1764

DOCUMENT NO. 5759

DESCRIPTION AND TEXT OF THE FILM "NIPPON PRESENTS".

---

Explanation: Each scene is marked with: "(Japanese)", "(Japanese outside Java)", "(Australia Studio)" or "(Allied Batavia)".

"(Japanese)" means: Scene of the Japanese film "Australia Calling", made in 1943 in Java.

"(Japanese outside Java)" means: Scene taken by Japanese cameramen during the war outside Java.

"(Australia Studio)" means: Scene taken in Australia Studio by Allied cameramen after the Japanese surrender.

"(Allied Batavia)" means: Scene taken by Allied cameramen in and near Batavia in September 1945, showing conditions as they were a month after the Japanese surrender.

---