Special Cases

Delinquent Child:

Yukio Takashimizu, 13 years old, Ozuchi town, Kamihei county, became delinquent because of his adverse circumstances. His father, fisherman, had been very often not at home, and besides, his mother had rather ill-treated him than had not taken care of him.

She had often not given him foods, and had not sent him to school but had him work hard.

He stole anothers' things and sold them to buy foods, because he was hungry.

His mother is not at home, applying for her divorce to the Family Affairs Court.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

The said boy was accommodated in the protection agency on January 25, and more over, was taken into the Toryo Gakuen Reformatory on February 4.

Homeless Child:

Takashi Iwama, 16 years old, Kosaka town, Kazuno county, Akita Prefecture, was releaved, with his companion Takeo Iwata who had come from Sendai, by Mr. Moriyoshi Okada, chairman of the Amateur Singers' Association, through the police station in from of Morioka Railway Station, and Mr. Okada had taken good care of them for a half month.

Mr. Okada took them to the Child Welfare Center.

As he confessed that he ran away from his home and that his uncle was residing at Senboku-cho Street, Morioka City, the said Center left him to the care of Mr. Seiichiro Shimizu, his uncle.

Delinquent Child:

Hyoji Sato, 15 years old, Fujisawa town, Higashiiwai county, had been left to the care of Mr. S. Sato, showman, in the same town from April through November, 1948. During the period, he often helped the ticket-sellers at a theater.

As a result of it, he made friends with some delinquent young men, and he was going to be delinquent. In accordance with a notification to that effect, on February 2, the Center asked Mrs. N. Sato, child welfare worker, Mr. S. Konno, policeman, and school to properly guide him in co-operation. Guidance of him is now progressing favourably.

Suckling:

Kazuo Toyooka, one month old, Sanjikken, Morioka city.

His mother, who was a tuberculosis patient, died on 28th day after Kazuo's birth at 7 months.

As his grandmother was also near confinement, she did not want to bring up him.

Therefore, his father was very at a loss.

Child welfare Worker Mrs. F. Hosokawa notified the Center of it, so the Center took him into the Infant Home at once, and he is now being taken care in accordance with doctor's directions.

SUBJECT: A Text of a Broadcast Secript.

Attached hereto si submitted a report on the text of the radio script, "What Does the Child Welfare Centre do"?, which was broadcast on March 25, 1949.

T. Sasaki,

Director of Iwate
Prefectural Child Welfare Center.

1 Incl.: A Radio Script, "What does the Child Welfare Center do?"

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

BROADCAST SCRIPT OF "WHAT DOES THE CHILD WELFARE CENTER DO"?

The theme of the broadcast script was "What does the Child Welfare Center do", which was broadcast on March 25, 1949(Friday), from 6.30 p.m. to 6.45 p.m., in a question-and-answer form between Isamu Chiba, member of Iwate Child Culture Association, and Takeshi Sasaki, director of Iwate Prefectural Child Welfare Center.

The text of the broadcast script was as follows:

Chiba: ~~My business makes me visit the Child Welfare Center so often, but I do not know nothing about what the Child Welfare Center does.~~ Today I would like to ask you some questions about this would you tell me when the Child Welfare Law was enforced ?

Sasaki: A part of the law was enforced on January 1, 1948, but the law was generally enforced on April 1 1, 1948.

Chiba: The, when was the Child Welfare Center established ?

Sasaki: More than one child welfare centers were established in every prefecture throughout the conntry on April 1, 1948.

Chiba: By the way, what is the structure of the Child Welfare Law ?

Sasaki: There are the Child Welfare Section as an organ in charge of the administrative branch, the Child Welfare Board as an organ for deliberations and consultations, and the Child Welfare Center, Child Welfare Official and Child Welfare Workers as the organs to actually handle children.

Chiba: What do the child welfare officials and the child welfare workers do ?

Sasaki: There are 3 child welfare officials in this prefecture, whih is divided into three jurisdictions, namely, Morioka, Kamaishi and Ichinoseki, for thier stay.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

And there are several child welfare workers in every city, town and village, or 3,200 workers in the whole prefecture. They directly guide parents and children, visiting children own homes to make them happy.

In addition to such a individual guidance, they try to grow children's societies and to establish recreation grounds for children.

Chiba: I see. Then, will you please tell me about conditions of the children who have lately come to the child Welfare Center ?

Sasaki: First of all. I will tell you about unhappy children and delinquent children.

When unhappy children, such as orphan, child ill-treated by his employer and child whose parents are beggars unsuitable for raising their children are found out, they are taken to the Child Welfare Center to be put under qualified foster-parents' care, or to be accommodated in such agencies as asylum or orphanage.

Handling of juvenile delinquent or orphans is also the same as was mentioned above, but, especially in such a case, we closely investigate made them so.

We investigate any spiritual obstacles in the course of their growth, their heredity and any unsatisfactory conditions in their social and home enviroments.

Moreove, giving intelligence tests and character tests, we examine them as scientifically as possible to entrust the guidance of them to the child welfare officials and child welfare workers and to put them under fosterparents' care, or to send them to the Home for Juvenile Training and Education in accordance with the results of these tests.

Chiba: Your story gives us something like a dark impression of the Child Welfare Center, does not it ?

Sato: People in general seem to think it so.

We, of course, handle unhappy and delinquent children like these, but, for example, they just like those in critical condition.

It is very difficult to make them better.

Especially, under the present circumstances that ammy reasons of their delinquency consit in their homes, parents should have interest in their children, and should try hard to make their good children better.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

The Child Welfare Center wants to respond at ease to a lot of frank consultations on good children. And children's world will never become bright unless the stress is placed on such an aspect.

Chiba: I think it quite natural to make such good children better, but what do you mean by that in concrete works ?

Sasaki: There are many questions in home education such as how to give children pocket money, how to train tehm and how to scold them, etc. Moreover, entrance into schools and selection of their occupations are important because such things influence their future.
Also, doctors in the Child Welfare Center give medical examinations, and give mental growth tests for sucklings in the Health Center every Thursday.

Chiba: Please tell me some actual, conrete examples ?

Sasaki: The other day, a certain mother came to our center with her only daugher.
We gave an intelligence test, which showed an excellent results.
However, there are a lot of questions in making this girl excellent.
First of all, she is an only daughter, so, if her mother treated her indulgently, she would become a spolt child who had no spirit of independence.
In addition, although she has superior intellect, she will never make any progress if she don't try hard.
Therefore, her mother should find her talents and try to grow them.

Chiba: I see. If many people come at ease for consultation on such questions, society will become better.

Sasaki: Yes, exactly. We earnestly desire that our Center will be used for such things.

Chiba: By the way, what is a Home for Temporary Sheltering of children in my neighbourhood ?

Sasaki: It is an agency attached to the Child Welfare Center, in which the daily be haviors of children in question are observed well before they are put into the child welfare agencies or they are put under foster parents's care, with the aim of taking proper measures to make such children happy.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 175013

Chiba: Will the Child Welfare Center be still in the Prefectural Office in future ?
I suppose people in general may find it inconvenient to go the center in that way.

Sasaki: The office of the Child Welfare Center is now under construction at the rear of the Prefectural Office, and it is expected to be completed one of these day.
When the construction of our office is completed, we shall be able to do our job better, and people in general will be able to come at ease to our Center.

Chiba: Thank you very much.

JIOTSUHATSU #21

Dated May 21 1948

FROM: Child Welfare Bureau Chief

TO : Pref. Gov'ner

SUBJECT: Submission of Reference Data on Foster Parents.

"Forster Parent" has been taken up and legalized in the provisions of the recently enacted Child Welfare Law. In this connection, we request you to collect data and submit them making apoint of reaching us not later than July 10 along with statistic pictures, if possible. The scope of data shall be as follows:

1. History of "Forster Parentage"

4. Investigation data on relations between "adoption of a son or a daughter" and "Foster parentage"
5. Opinion on how to steer the F. P. system hereafter.

Note: "F. P." system inserted in above 1 - 4 clauses in meant to in-clude, not the "F. P." legally set forth in the provisions of the Child Welfare Law, but the customarily prevailing proverbial "Forster parentage". Whereas, the word "F. P." refered to in the above clause 5 means "the legalized Foster parentage" discribed in the provisions of the Child Welfare Law.
