COMMUNITY SOCIAL

PROMISES BIG TIME ON FRIDAY EVENING

Interesting Program the Feature, Together With Refreshments—Everybody Should Attend

The community social to be held in connection with the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Baptist Church of the Evangel, on Friday evening, is under the auspices of the young people.

Among those who will entertain are the following: Mrs. W. S. Horner, whistler; Mrs. T. N. Butler and Miss Florentina Mueller, sopranos; Miss Wentz, pianist; Miss Caroline Irwin and Master Lawrence Houston, readers, and Mr. Carl Wehman, tenor, of Philadelphia. Refreshments will be served. Miss Marjorie S. Jefferies is chairman of the general committee.

Miss May McCarter has charge of the refreshments, and Miss Helen P. Jones, of the decorations.

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody, whether old or young.

SUFFRAGE.

The monthly meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman's Suffrage party was held at the home of Miss Gertrude Wright, of Grayling avenue, on Friday afternoon, November the 3rd. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. C. P. Fowler. A number of timely questions prepared for this meeting created a great deal of discussion and interest.

The speaker for the next meeting will be announced later.

Mrs. C. P. Fowler.
Mrs. Edgar H. Cockrell.

THE NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

To the Editor of Our Town:—

In company with many other friends of the Narberth Y. M. C. A. I regret to see that it is in a far from flourishing condition. It does not meet with the general support to which it is entitled by virtue of the many advantages it offers to the town, as a meeting place for various organizations, and a center for religious, moral, intellectual and physical development. In addition to this, it is a distinct asset to the borough, often referred to as such by real estate dealers when offering properties for sale, and a special attraction to many who think of locating in Narberth.

I understand the income from rent of stores provides enough to take care of its mortgage indebtedness, and the income from the adult game room takes care of the game room bonds and sinking fund. The deficit is in regular and sustaining memberships. The few faithful sustaining members cannot carry the whole load. It needs a body of regular members at $5.00 per annum, and surely in a town of 600 or 700 families, there should be enough to help carry on this work.

There has been some opposition to the Y. M. C. A. on the ground that its managers are too rigid as to the exclusion of certain amusement features. In connection with this subject, my attention has been drawn to an entertainment to be given on Friday evening of this week at the Central Y. M. C. A. of Philadelphia, 8 to 10.30 P. M. The tickets read as follows:

HARVEST TIME FETE

Concert by the

Y. M. C. A. SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Grand March Folk Frolic

A Dandy Good Time

Gymnasium, Central Branch Y. M. C. A., 1421 Arch Street

Admission, Including Refreshments, 25 Cents.

Inquiry developed the fact that in addition to the grand march, folk frolic and gymnastic features, orchestral concert and solo musical numbers, there were to be "modern dances" for a period of half an hour.

As I understand the theory, dancing in itself is an innocent amusement, when carried on under proper conditions. There is nothing inherently wicked in dancing. It is a perfectly natural impulse, to express joy and happiness in rhythmical motion, common to all peoples, whether civilized or not. It is not irreligious; on the contrary, there are religious dances.

It is only when conducted under improper associations, that dancing is objectionable, but that is no reason for putting a ban on the amusement itself. Some books are bad, but we do not condemn all literature for that reason, and so it is with painting, sculpture and the drama, or any good thing that may be debased. We do not condemn all preaching because some sermons are mainly punk and piffle.

Is it not possible that a more liberal interpretation of the functions and purposes of a Y. M. C. A., such as exhibited by the Central Branch of Philadelphia, one of the leading and most influential in the country, may have the effect of rallying to the support of our local branch most of our citizens?

BAPTIST JUBILEE WEEK

Celebrate Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Church and Sunday School

This is a happy week for the Baptists of Narberth. Not only are they celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the church and Sunday School, but they have been able to clear the organization of debt, burn the mortgage, re-decorate the church building, put down a new carpet, install electric lights and beautify the grounds.

Sunday Morning Service.

The Sunday morning service was given over to the Sunday School and it was a service long to be remembered. Back of the pulpit on a sort of large stage curtain were grouped the various class banners and over these the large anniversary sign—a most effective background. After the classes had marched up the aisles singing their marching song, to the sections reserved for them, one could not find a vacant seat anywhere.

The program itself was given largely by the little folks and a very interesting entertainment they furnished. Mr. T. C. Trotter, who has been assistant superintendent ever since the school started, gave a short story of its first meeting and subsequent growth. This was followed by business reports—then came a little surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Hopper were presented with a magnificent silver cup and Mr. Trotter with a handsome scarf pin. Mr. Hopper in accepting the cup, spoke of the pleasure the work had always been to him and how through the quarter century of his superintendency he had always had splendid support and co-operation from the teachers and officers. Mr. Trotter started to voice his thanks, but rather overcome, found refuge in song, the audience joining with him.

Dr. Gordon followed with a short talk, pointing out with the story of a little English girl how much good one can do oftentimes without being conscious of it. He also reviewed the work the Sunday School has accomplished and emphasized particularly the regularity of attendance for which Mr. Hopper, Mr. Trotter and others have set such wonderful records. The Sunday School of the Baptist Church of the Evangel has met over 1300 times and these two men have missed hardly a half dozen sessions.

Special mention should be made of the orchestra which assisted at this service—Miss Sanderson at the organ; Mrs. Warner, violin; Messrs. Wagenseller and Needham, cornets; Mr. Shryock, flute.

Sunday Evening Service.

The dedicatory services came Sunday night, and despite rather inclement weather the auditorium was filled. The burning of the mortgage itself was an interesting ceremony. Mr. Rowbotham, chairman of the Finance Committee, and Mr. Shinn, chairman of the House Committee, presented their reports and told how the money had been raised and the work completed. Several members have put in many nights assisting in moving the pews, etc., and Messrs. Needham and Case did all of the electrical wiring work without charge. Mr. Hayes, the janitor has helped very much, too, without extra compensation.

Mr. Simpson read letters from a number of ministers who had been present at the first service of the church when it was started as a "child" of the First Baptist Church of Philadelphia in 1891, and how Dr. Boardman gave it its name—Baptist Church of the Evangel. A message from Emerson L. Swift, recent pastor, but now of Fredericksburg, Virginia, was also read. Dr. Wilbur, president of the Baptist Institute, and a former pastor, was present and spoke in reminiscent vein. He mentioned as a particular triumph of his administration, the installation of the Good luck, Mr. Hampton! You'll be missed by many of us of the home town.

Preparation to reconstruct the roadbed of Haverford avenue moves forward like the vehicles that pass that way now—very slowly. Bump! Bump! Bump! Let's do something!

"The Narberth Kicker" expressed the sentiment of many of our home town folks when he called attention to the malicious Hallowe'en pranks of a group of young men of Narberth in his communication of last week. If these boys are known, why do not our local officials make an object lesson of them? It's not too late!

How many fathers have visited the new boys' game room at the Y. M. C. A.? If you haven't, do so to-night. It's well worth while.

Motor cars passing over Wynnewood avenue these days purr with delight at its evenness and solidity.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Boys' Game Room Opening.

The boys are now enjoying what they have longed for ever since the Y. M. C. A. building was erected in 1908. They have a real "boys' department," a room that they can call their own and one which they themselves govern. A number of new memberships have been received.

The opening night, last Friday evening, was a grand success. About fifty boys were in the room and playing games between 8 and 10 P. M. A few of the parents dropped in to look the new feature over. They all pronounced it a wonderful addition.

The games are all receiving their share of attention, although "cue rogue" and "ping pong" have the most followers. The following magazines will be found at the reading table: Popular Mechanics, Youth's Companion, American Boy, Boys' Magazine, American Youth and Electrical Experimenter.

The governing board of managers is as follows: George Rose, general manager; Richard Compton, membership manager; Junior Winner, athletic manager; John Dickie, house manager; Ernest Jenkins, financial manager; Paul Braden, religious work manager; Philip Witherow, social manager.

Suppose

Narberth did not have a Y. M. C. A. building; the various organizations did not have a building centrally located where they could meet; the young men did not have a healthy meeting place where the ideals are high; the boys were forced to play in the streets and congregate on street corners in the evenings; there was no gymnasium where physical power could be generated, and a hundred other things.

Suppose the Y. M. C. A. building could be picked up and taken to some other community that is longing for some such community asset? Would there be any change in Narberth?

Suppose you brought a friend to the front door of our splendid building of which you are so proud and lo! a sign was on the door reading something like this:

CLOSED.

The Narberth people cannot support this building. What would YOU do?

Week of Prayer.

In observance of the "week of prayer," which is a world movement in the Young Men's Christian Association, the local Y. M. C. A. is holding prayer meetings each evening from 7.30 to 7.50.

These are most helpful meetings. Drop in some evening and you will be glad you came.

Don't forget the time—7.30 to 7.50 any evening. Come.

Bowling.

Our bowling alleys are the center of attraction Monday, Tuesday and Friday evenings. Do you enjoy this sport? Come in.

Community Bible study class every Tuesday evening. You are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. William Livingston, of 228 North Essex avenue, entertained the following at "500" on Saturday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Clement Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Siler and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Moore.

We wish through our school column to convey the sympathy of the student body to Miss Fryer, whose father died last week. We have missed Miss Fryer and shall be glad to see her with us again.

Principal Melchior attended the funeral of Mr. Fryer in Colara, Maryland, on Friday. He carried with him to Miss Fryer and her mother floral tokens and messages of sympathy from the Board of Education and faculty.

Miss Alma E. Easton, of North Narberth avenue, entertained at cards, last Saturday evening. Her guests were Miss Evelyn Harris, Miss Helen M. Easton, Miss Lydia Johnston, Lester Jefferies, Alan Kirk, Harry Saunders and Horace Entreklin.

Why miss an opportunity like this? Eats just like mother used to make. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold a delicatessen and cake sale in the community rooms 2 P. M. Saturday, November 18, 1916. Stop, look and think. This is a chance everybody should take advantage of.

"Buy the Yellow Ticket." It's a passport to moonlight and laughter. It admits you to the Arcade Theatre, Monday evening, December 4, to witness the All-Star Vaudeville performance to be given as a benefit to the Narberth Branch, Woman Suffrage Party.

"Take your choice!" You'll find an abundance of talent at the All-Star Vaudeville performance to be given as a benefit for the Narberth Branch, Woman's Suffrage Party, at the Arcade Theatre, Monday evening, December 4. Invite your friends from town out to see the Yellow Variety Queens.

We are all proud to have one of our citizens become a member of the Legislature of our State Assembly. Mr. Stites will give a good account of himself and Narberthites will take a keener interest in affairs at Harrisburg during the next session of the Legislature than they have ever been accustomed to.

The Democrats celebrated their victory on Friday evening. A parade with Mr. Fred Climenson as herald and Mr. James Mead riding a mule, representing Democracy, the Bryn Mawr Band and plenty of red fire were the distinguishing features. A large number of automobiles and marchers on foot were in line. The Democrats were unusually hilarious during this demonstration.

While it appears certain that additional space will be provided in the near future for transaction of post office business at Narberth, permanent quarters cannot be provided before the holidays which are fast approaching. It will therefore be necessary for the holiday business to be taken care of in the present quarters. In order to relieve this to some extent, Postmaster Haws will provide for the incoming parcel post in another building. Additional information with reference to this will be given in Our Town later.

Mrs. A. Perry Redifer, of Essex and Windsor avenues, was hostess at the meeting of the Narberth Fortnightly Club Friday afternoon. Continuing the study of South America, a discussion on "The Guianas" was led by Mrs. A. L. Jacoby, after which tea was served. The member are Miss B. Roberts, Mrs. Frederick A. Harjes, Jr., Mrs. A. Lincoln Jacoby, Mrs. F. J. Schawroth, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Augustus Loos, Mrs. Atlee Jackson, Mrs. John Gilroy, Mrs. John Van Ness, Mrs. Anna Mae Keag, Miss Cornelia Woodie and Miss Barbara Shand.

"On the level!" Narberth is soon due for a real treat. Always taking kindly to the efforts of local talent, the folks of the Year 'Round Home Town will be introduced to many brand new artists of the stellar firmament during the evening of Monday, December 4, at the Arcade Theatre—benefit Narberth Woman's Suffrage Party.

"Ask dad—he knows!" Yep, he knows that Narberth women are clever as well as attractive to look upon. Yep, he knows, too, that they can sing and dance and act and be serious at will. Well, they will to do all of these things some time during the two and one-half hours they have things all their own way at Arcade Theatre, Monday evening, December 4. They are going to do all these things as a benefit for the Woman's Suffrage Party—and you.

Miss Jennie Laird entertained Miss Margaret Mayes and Miss Mildred Harris over the week's end.

Miss McMenamin announces the opening of the children's dancing class on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Arcade Hall, Narberth.

MASS MEETING

In the Interests of the Crusade Against the Mormon Kingdom

A meeting will be held next Sunday evening in the Presbyterian Church which will be addressed by Mrs. Lulu Loveland Shepard on the theme: "The Mormon Church and the Liquor Traffic." It is a rare privilege to have this gifted and popular speaker come to Narberth. Mrs. Shepard has spoken in practically every State in the Union and on account of her exceptional power as a platform orator has gained the title "Silver-tongued Orator of the Rocky Mountains." She is a prominent club woman and reformer, "but doesn't despise men." Mrs. Shepard addressed a meeting in Columbia, Pa., recently, concerning which "The Daily Spy" made the following report: "We have heard other so-called silver-tongued orators, but never heard one—man or woman—who so well deserved the title as Mrs. Shepard. Hundreds of men stood for more than an hour and listened intently. She has a silver tongue more eloquent than a hundred bells; her diction is faultless; her fluency marvelous; her illustrations irresistible." Mrs. Shepard will speak next Sunday night on "Mormonism as a National Menace." She will tell how the Mormon Kingdom is ruled by a man who has five known wives—a polygamous Sultan of America. The public is cordially invited to this meeting.

CUB CAN BE SERIOUS NOW AND THEN

Regrets, As All of Us Do, the Loss of Secretary Hampton, Who Will Leave Narberth—Touches Lightly on Other Subjects, Politically and Otherwise

To the Editor of Our Town: This is the straight goods. Not one of those formal half-sincere eulogies that are plastered on a fellow at the last minute and that cost nothing and mean the same.

We are going to lose Oscar Hampton. Everybody knows him, or if they do not, it's time they discovered Narberth. Most of us, yes more than that, wouldn't take a job as secretary of a Y. M. C. A. for a gift—or a train load of gifts for that matter. It's a self-sacrificing grind usually thankless, pays a princely salary (I don't think), offers mighty little future (in this world I mean, not posted on the next) for a young man.

Oscar has always been most genial, courteous and helpful to everyone with whom he has come in contact, and I have often wondered at his patience under very trying circumstances. There isn't a boy in this town using the Y. M. C. A. Building that doesn't owe him some debt of gratitude, and that goes too, for many besides the boys. He has been a success and is worthy of a bigger job. Oscar Hampton is a gentleman—the real goods—and Narberth will be much the poorer without him.

I am positive that in all this there isn't one dissenting vote and if any one has the best wishes of the "Year 'Round Home Town" that one is Oscar Hampton.

That fellow, Ed Haws, was so bull-headed that he was the only person in Narberth on election night refusing to concede the success of Mr. Hughes. Why will some people be so stubborn and then go round with a mile wide grin afterwards? I don't see anything to grin about.

F. M. Justice says: "The more a man clinks glasses, the less clinking there is in his pockets."

Carden Warner took in the movies on Friday afternoon. "Daughter of the Gods" or something like that. Late for dinner. When he reached home he blamed it on the P. R. R.

"Red paint is all right on a barn," sez Fred Walzer, "but it ain't got no business on a girl's face."

Now we will surely get a new Post Office Building. From the way those Democrats spend the country's dough, it ought to be a corker.

Didja see the parade Friday night? I mean the one where five or six autos, filled with a lot of noisy folks, were escorting a band of music and a file of boys carrying a transparency on which was painted something which, at a distance, looked to me like this:

WILSON
Once was enough.

The most interesting feature was a big mule, probably typifying the party, who gave joy to the occasion by continually ejaculating "Hee Haws!" "Hee Haws!"

"The Cub."

Items of Interest.

This Wednesday evening the congregation will meet in the Baptist Church in celebration of the Twenty-fifth anniversary. The pastor urges a large representation.

Last Sunday two boys joined the junior department of the school. A visitor was heard to comment on the large number of boys present. Fifty-five per cent. of the attendance was men and boys.

Musical and organ recital Sunday evening the 25th. A large quartette chorus choir is rehearsing for this event. Read the program in the next issue of Our Town.

Church Notes.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a delicatessen and cake sale in the Y. M. C. A. Community Room next Saturday, November 18, at 2 P. M.

The Mission Study Class will meet next Monday afternoon at the home of the Misses Warner, on Haverford avenue. Mrs. S. W. Foster is the leader and all ladies are invited.

The next monthly all-day meeting of the ladies of the congregation will be held next Tuesday. Ladies' Aid meeting at 11 A. M., luncheon at 12.30, and the missionary meeting at 2 P. M.

The newly organized society of ladies has adopted the name of Westminster Circle. They held an interesting meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hampton.

On account of the resignation of Mrs. Hampton as president, because of her removal from Narberth, Mrs. Harold R. Sterrett was elected to that position. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sterrett, 332 Woodbine avenue. All ladies not identified with other organizations in the church are cordially invited to join this Westminster Circle.

The "Semper Fidelis" Bible Class will have charge of the prayer meeting next Wednesday night, November 22.

THE PRESBYTERIAN MISSION STUDY CLASS.

The third meeting of the Mission Study Class, led by Mrs. Foster, was held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Warner on Monday afternoon with twenty-five women present. "Latin America To-day" was the chapter under consideration, and her great need of the Christ who is "The way, the truth, and the life," was wonderfully shown by the discussion, in which all participated. The next meeting will be held Monday afternoon, November 20, at the home of the Misses Warner, 424 Haverford avenue. The time has been changed to 2.30 o'clock instead of 3.

BAPTIST JUBILEE WEEK.

organ and how hard the church worked to get this accomplished.

Dr. Rowland, loved of all Baptists, spoke briefly, complimenting the church on what it has done and saying that it deserves special commendation for waiting to dedicate until free from debt. Many other churches have not followed this wise course and hence have been in the somewhat peculiar position of dedicating to the Lord something which was not theirs to dedicate. Dr. Rowland's closing prayer was particularly solemn and impressive.

Although the hour was getting late, Dr. Gordon held everybody with his splendid sermon. Dr. Gordon is always inspirational, but he was at his best on this occasion. As he put it himself, "A man does not have an opportunity to preach a dedication sermon very often and there are many things he wants to say." He pointed out the value to the community of the church building itself. How the bell and the steeple were symbols of a Christian community! How the Baptist Church at Narberth, standing as it does in full view of the railroad, has cheered and heartened many speeding by on the trains. And what a powerful story was that of the southern man returning to his boyhood home after long absence, searching in vain for a trace of his parents. No record could he find of them, no mark remained but a brick in the floor under his mother's pew in the church where she had worshiped—only a brick with the imprint of her foot, but something he could keep to remember her by, something to make that man's life better, a realization of how the church stands forever, its influence goes on always while temporal things pass away.

The music for the evening service was furnished by a special quartet—Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Dull, Mr. Stanley and Mr. Briggs, under the direction of Choirmaster Trotter, with Mrs. Warner at the organ. The anthems and also the duet by Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Dull were very well sung.

The program in detail follows:

Monday Evening Services.

The Ushers' Association was in charge of the Monday night entertainment. President T. Noel Butler presided in his usual efficient manner, introducing first Mr. James C. Simpson—the dynamo of the association—who gave a brief history of the organization and some of the things it has done. Mr. Simpson was followed by Mr. O. H. Hampton bringing a message from the Y. M. C. A.; Mr. Gara speaking for the men of the Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Stites representing the Methodists.

Rev. J. Wallace Green, pastor of the Third Baptist Church of Germantown, made the principal address of the evening, his subject, "A Bunch of Men." Dr. Green is a clever, forceful speaker and is particularly qualified to speak to men as he has been unusually successful in interesting men in the church. He said that the way to build up a church was to get the man first. If you can get father to come to church, mother will come, too, and so will the children to Sunday School.

A male quartet led the singing—Messrs. Edward Stanley, T. C. Trotter, J. W. Stanley, Joseph Briggs. Mr. J. W. Stanley's solo was very well sung. He has a splendid bass voice of exceptional power and tonal quality. Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Pat-

Y. M. C. A. Faces a Deficit in the Current Yearly Accounts

As the end of the year approaches the Y. M. C. A. management find themselves once more facing a net indebtedness as a result of the year's work. While it is true this deficit is not as large as it has been in former years, it is unfortunate that the support of the people of Narberth as a whole has not been in proportion to the expenditure of time and energy on the part of the board of managers. These volunteer workers deserve high praise in their effort to furnish service and maintain equipment on a meagre income, and if all residents of Narberth would do a small part by merely becoming members, the financial difficulties of the institution would be solved. This is clearly illustrated by reference to the following summary of receipts and expenditures for the current year:

Receipts.
Rents, etc.	$1,278
Games	1,000
Contributions	550
Memberships	500
Total	$3,328
Expenditures.
Salaries of secretary and janitor.	$1,800
Other expenses, including coal, light, etc.	750
Interest on indebtedness	1,200
Total	$3,750

While the above summary is not exact, it very closely approaches the actual figures. It will be noticed that the actual membership receipts are the lowest in the income account, and represent only one hundred five-dollar memberships. As a matter of fact there are a number of junior members and other two-dollar memberships, so that the actual members are somewhat greater in number than the figures seem to indicate. However, the point is, that it would take a comparatively few additional full memberships to put the balance on the right side of the ledger.

SCHOOL NOTES

"Hughes is President"—so said the Narberth pupils. The important event known as the "Straw Election" took place at the school polls between 2.20 and 2.30, on Tuesday, election day. The cops and election board did all in their power to prevent fraud. But we do not vouch for the returns. We suggest that the ardent Hughes pupils study the cartoon in "The Record" for Saturday, "Let Down Easy." But with the fun there was a serious side. The lesson on "Presidential Elections," conducted by Miss Sailor with the pupils of the upper grades was clean cut and to the point. Some voters of Uncle Sam might have learned a thing or two. Director Will K. Ridge, chairman of the educational committee, was present to see that Woman Suffrage did not predominate. But no danger of that with Miss Sailor at the polls. What may have happened in Room No. 9 we do not know.

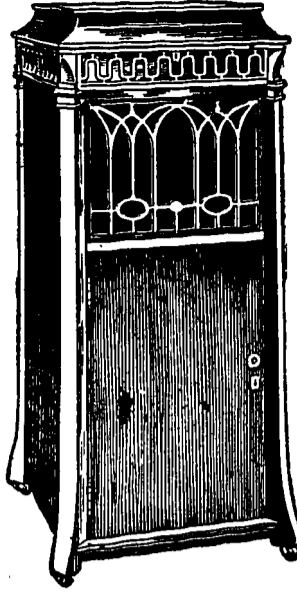

The faculty and students enjoyed having Mr. Ridge at school all day Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders and Franklin Foster were also welcome visitors. Some one reports a glimpse of Directors Downes and Dothard. Mr. Dothard is a frequent visitor, as is Mr. McCarter. It's good they are "on their job." We frequently hear the principal or member of the faculty say: "Few schools are so well looked after by directors as is Narberth." We, of course, cannot compare. We have known nothing else in Narberth.

Hurrah for the heating plant! How welcome! But how about seating room in Assembly?

Notice!
From the office we have the following: There will be but one day "off" at Thanksgiving, namely, Thursday, November 30. The hour for the Thanksgiving program will be announced later.

Reports for the first five weeks' work were sent to parents on Monday. Because of the irregular admission of pupils and the necessary repetition of work the reports cannot be very satisfactory this month.

We wish to thank the mothers who have been obliged to readjust their home lunch hour schedule to accommodate change in school. The warm school lunch is daily growing more popular and is receiving substantial support from parents. The adjustment of luncheon schedule for eleven grades in a crowded school with a crowded schedule and "promotion by subject" is not an easy matter. Slight changes must sometimes be made. We aim to avoid inconvenience to mothers who have their children come home to lunch.

Parents are kindly asked to cooperate in insisting upon home study in grades above the third. Under the present time schedule, pupils cannot prepare all of their lessons at school. Teachers aim to supervise study and assign advanced lessons as a part of the daily lesson. But home study on the part of the pupil is absolutely necessary. Any pupil who says to his parent, "I have nothing to study," or "I can do all in school," is misrepresenting the matter. The principal will gladly confer with parents on the matter of home study and submit a home study schedule if requested.

Don't forget the base ball banquet to be given to the Champions.

It's an easy matter to take a cheerful view of other people's troubles.

- The above is a new department, and in order that it shall be of the largest use to the community the list should contain the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their name, address, phone number and business or profession, for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
