and may maintain an action in respect of those rights and remedies in the name of the person referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), as the case may be, or in the name of the Agency, subject to subsection (2).

(2) Where the Agency maintains an action in respect of the rights and remedies in the name of the person referred to in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), as the case may be, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) in the case where the failed PPF Scheme member is not wound up, the Agency shall be entitled to recover the full amount of compensation claimed against the failed PPF Scheme member, notwithstanding any liabilities owing by the insured policy owner to the PPF Scheme member; and
- (b) in the case where the failed PPF Scheme member is wound up, the insolvency rules relating to set-off shall not apply in relation to the rights and remedies of the insured policy owner.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), where the Agency is unable to effect payment to an insured policy owner, or a beneficiary in the case where the insured policy is covered under the PPF General Fund and provides third party benefits (due to incorrect or outdated addresses, in respect of accounts which are dormant or any other reasons beyond the reasonable control of the Agency), the Agency shall be deemed to have made payment out of the PPF Life Fund or the PPF General Fund, as the case may be, of compensation under this Act to, or for the benefit of —
